Mike Manard Now on Trip Won to Washington, D. C.

A Crowell youth, Mike Manard, has won an essay contest and is now accompanying 39 other high school juniors in an 11-day all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C.

Championship honors were announced several weeks ago by J. M. Maddox, manager of the Southwestern Electric Cooperative that sponsored the contest on an area basis. Sponsor of the event on a state level is the Oklahoma Association of Electric Cooperatives, Donald Bean, President. Tour director is Dean W. Tyler, power utilization director for the state association.

Festivities started Thursday evening, June 3, with a get-acquainted banquet in Oklahoma City. Television cameras recorded the event and newspaper and wire services representatives were on hand to further recognize the importance of the event.

Every area of Oklahoma is represented on the Washington junket. In addition to Southwestern Electric Cooperative, there were 19 other rural electric cooperatives participating.

The prize winning essay prepared by Mike is titled, "History, Growth and Development."

Traveling by chartered bus, the group planned overnight stops at Memphis, Tenn., Morristown, Tenn., before arriving in Washington, Sunday night. On the return trip, stops will be made at Columbus, Ohio, and St. Louis, Mo., arriving back in Oklahoma City at 6 p. m., Monday, June 14.

Practically every point of interest is on the itinerary. President Lyndon Johnson has been invited to meet with the group. Final plans were not complete at departure time.

Construction has begun on the reconditioning of 9 miles of Farm to Market roads south of Crowell. The two roads to be improved are FM 1594 from SH 283, four miles south of Crowell, east for four miles, and FM 263 from SH 283, 7 miles south of Crowell, going west five miles. The construction was announced at a Pre-Construction Safety Conference held Tuesday morning in Crowell, and is a part of the 1965 Farm to Market Road Improvement Program. Texas Highway Department District Engineer V. J. McGee reported that George Wall, Senior Resident Engineer, will be in charge of the project.

The construction project will consist of widening and strengthening the existing roadway, and foundation course, replacing inadequate drainage structures, and resurfacing. A&A Contractors of Olney, was successful low bidder with a bid price of $102,727.19. The project will be completed in approximately 100 working days.

Willie Atchley, general superintendent for A&A Contractors, stated that the work will be carried out with as little inconvenience as possible to the traveling public. However, public cooperation and understanding will be greatly appreciated. "There will naturally be a little inconvenience when a highway is under construction, and in order to protect the motorist and construction workers also, safety rules and common sense must be observed and applied," Mr. Atchley said.

"The improvement of these two Farm to Market Roads is a small part of a state-wide effort to provide the people of Texas with better and safer highways," Mr. Wall stated.

Other Projects Completed
Mr. Wall stated that construction is now complete on FM 2877 which begins about five miles to the southeast of Crowell and runs five miles in a southeasterly direction to the Seymour road.

Completion was also announced of the extension of FM 262 from north of Thalia to the Margaret-Rayland FM 98.

Construction of the new Farm to Market road to Margaret is expected to be completed next week, Mr. Wall said. This new road is four feet wider than the old Farm to Market road which was replaced. The old road was the first Farm to Market road built in the county and it was constructed in the 1940's.

Foard City Methodist Church Served in Community for Over Half Century

When Dr. John English, District Superintendent of the Childress District of the Methodist Church, presided at the fourth quarterly conference on Sunday, May 2, at the Truscott Methodist Church, it terminated a relationship between the Truscott-Foard City Methodist Churches which had existed for 42 years. A similar conference in March at the Crowell Methodist Church had merged the Crowell-Foard City Churches, effective June 1.

The Truscott Methodist Church dates back to 1892, but it was in 1923, when Rev. R. F. Russell was supply pastor, that it first appeared as the head of a circuit. The parsonage was built at Truscott and preaching services were held there on three Sundays each month and at Foard City on one Sunday. This arrangement was followed until 1953 when the Foard City Church became a half-time church. Rev. Allen Forbes was pastor at that time.

The following preachers served the charge: C. J. Marts, Cecil R. Matthews, R. O. Browder, D. Van Pelt, O. C. Stapleton, W. M. Blevins, M. W. Clark, George Tyson, I. T. Huckabee, D. A. Ross, J. W. Hawkins, J. V. Patterson, Carl Hudson, Allen Forbes, M. W. Reynolds, W. B. Morton, Robert Ely, Guy McLain, David Stephens, H. P. Canler, Thomas Taylor, A. T. Mason, Kent Marrs and Thomas Bormann. Judge Leslie Thomas has served the charge during periods when it was without a pastor.

The Foard City Methodist Church dates back to June 16, 1910, for it was on that day that

With Foard County's wheat harvest over 90 per cent complete, a check with the elevators Tuesday afternoon showed that a total of 808,000 bushels of the new crop had been delivered. A large amount of the wheat, which is not included in the above figure, is also stored in bins on farms.

The best wheat in the county was reported in the Thalia community, while most of the other areas in the county did not do as well. The severe drought and insects did extensive damage to this year's crop. Also, some sections received extensive hail damage.

Although most of the combine crews have already moved north, one elevator spokesman said that enough remain to complete harvesting the remaining fields.

Market price for wheat during the harvest has stayed at $1.29 per bushel, and most of the wheat was sold, Homer Johnson, manager of the Farmers Elevator, said.

The county had a total of 63,665 acres sowed to wheat this year, the Texas Employment Commission office in Amarillo said.

This time last year, a total of 926,195 bushels of wheat had been delivered to the elevators.

Highway Signs That Yield Have Been Developed

Highway signs that yield under impact are being installed on some Texas highways as part of the Texas Highway Department's continuing effort to make motoring safer.

The signs and their supports are designed to crack in the middle and are away harmlessly when struck by a moving vehicle.

Dubber "breakaway signs," they were developed in a joint research effort of the Texas Highway Department and its research arm, the Texas Transportation Institute of Texas A&M University, in cooperation with the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

Although research is continuing to perfect a better sign structure for Texas highways, the transitional break-away sign already is being installed on highways over the state as a field test of the basic design. The sign was tested exhaustively last year at Bryan in crashes involving driverless autos.

Some of the revolutionary signs have been erected at strategic locations on Texas Interstate highways for further study under field conditions. Many more will be installed in the future under new signing contracts, and as replacements for older signs. Of those installed to now, none has been struck by an auto.

Development of the new sign structure followed a number of car-and-sign collisions, some fatal, on expressway facilities in recent years. The number is not alarming in comparison with other types of accidents. In fact, fixed-object collisions declined 14 per cent last year, according to the Department of Public Safety.

Nevertheless, 6,163 accidents involving vehicles in collision with fixed objects did occur on Texas highways last year. As one of the most numerous of fixed objects along highways, signs represent a major potential factor in such collisions.

Moreover, signs designed for legibility in high-speed expressway traffic are exceedingly large. Some expressway sign faces are bigger than the side of a house, with lettering 16 inches high.

With the nation's largest quota of new expressways built and to be built, Texas Highway Department officials decided to undertake a program of "preventive safety" to develop a safer sign design for the burgeoning expressway grid.

Development of the sign that yields is a dramatic illustration of how Texas is achieving better, safer highways through research. It is also a graphic expression of a Highway Department philosophy captured recently by State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer.

"We can't prevent all accidents," he said, "but we can do our best to design for 'softer' accidents when they do occur."

Basic features of the breakaway sign support are a "slip joint" at its base and a "break joint" at the bottom of the sign face. The slip joint allows the sign post to slip free when sharply struck. The break joint, a cast-iron plate, cracks the post on impact, creating a "hinge" effect on the post. The hinge effect permits an auto at high speed to pass under the structure safely and brake to a stop beyond the sign.

Before releasing specifications to the 25 district offices of the Highway Department, design and research engineers conducted collision tests for nearly two years.

Surplus cars, reverse-towed by another vehicle through a pulley mechanism, crashed repeatedly into experimental sign structures at the institute's test facility. The breakaway signs were found to be effective at speeds ranging up to 60 miles per hour, maximum speed of the tow device.

Each crash was covered by high speed cameras. After every test research teams pored over films to assess dynamics of various sign structures during collision. They finally arrived at the basic design for large sign structures now being installed at strategic spots along Texas highways.

The new sign represents a "first" for Texas. Before research began, the other 49 states were surveyed on wether work had been done or was underway on a "softer" sign. All replies were negative, and many expressed hope that Texas would come up with a practical solution to a nationwide problem.

State Highway Engineer Greer emphasizes that the research project is not yet over. "We think we've arrived at a workable sign, one that will help save lives," he says. "But we don't consider this model the 'ultimate' sign. Our research will continue at Texas Transportation Institute to improve on the present design, and to explore other possibilities."

Officials point out that research aimed at improving highway signs involves many complications. Signs must be constructed to withstand wind velocities of up to 100 m. p. h. in some Texas areas, for instance. Also, they must be installed near the roadway for driver visibility, particularly at night.

A "safe" sign, engineers say, must not stop a vehicle but must yield at impact. It must move aside and allow the vehicle to continue on its path so it may be braked to a gradual stop.

And in moving out of the way, the sign must follow a definite pre-planned behavior pattern that keeps it clear of the windshield area. The model now being installed possesses these characteristics, researchers believe.

"Last year 222 Texans lost their lives in collisions with fixed objects," Greer says. "Some of these fixed objects were signs which, ironically, are conceived and designed to enhance motoring safety. If this new design, and those that follow, can spare just one life, all our research will have been worthwhile."

By the end of fiscal 1966, more than 5.2 million persons are expected to be on the federal payroll.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Simple As Can Be

Have you ever heard some preacher say: "There are many things in the Bible which are hard to understand but, thank God, the plan of salvation is as simple as can be."

Well, the plan of salvation is simple if we obey II Timothy 2: 15: "rightly dividing the Word of truth." Otherwise it is far from simple.

The Apostle Paul wrote: "We conclude that a man is justified by faith without the works of the Law" (Rom. 3:28). Yet James wrote: "By words a man is justified, and not by faith only" (James 2:24).

Again, at Sinai, God said to Israel through Moses: "If ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then shall ye be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people . . ." (Ex. 19:5). But our Lord said, as He sent His apostles to witness for Him that, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved . . . and these signs shall follow them that believe: In My name shall they cast out demons, they shall speak with new tongues. . . ." etc.

Thus, according to their "great commission" water baptism was required for salvation and miraculous signs were the evidences of salvation.

Confusing? Contradictory? Not if we "rightly divide the Word of truth." It was after "the law was given by Moses," after our Lord's earthly ministry, after the commission to the twelve, that God raised up another apostle, Paul, and sent him forth "the gospel of the grace of (Acts 20:24).

It was Paul who was to declare: "But now, the righteousness of God without the law is manifested . . ." (Rom. 3:21). "To him that worketh not believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness" (Rom. 4:5). "Therefore, being justified by faith we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom. 5:1).

Tax Man Sam Sez

Most people do a lot of filing about taxes just before file their income tax returns. 15 isn't the only time to think about income taxes. The day that you pay on April 15 whatever day that you file Form 1040 and pay your annual income tax, is determining your financial transactions throughout the year. Since taxes play an important part in all our lives, it's pretty nice to "look before you leap" on your tax transactions as well as your other affairs.

$243 Billion

Government spending for way, air and water transportation will amount to a record-high $16.2 billion this year. That spending will push total outlays for such transportation facilities, federal, state and local, to $243 billion, a study by the Association of American Railroads reveals.

Double Tax Days

LOVE TAXES? You'd think some of us do...the way we pay our home community taxes, and then rush off to other cities and towns, to help those people pay theirs.

You know, part of every dollar spent in any community goes naturally to help defray that community's overhead expense—for city, county, and school facilities. More trade volume means smaller direct tax bills...trade volume which leaves a community, leaves bigger tax bills...for every individual who lives in that community.

But, of course, Taxes are fun. Double your fun by doing your shopping where you pay part of the other fellow's taxes, too.

Needed: 15,570 Home Economists Annually

There's a critical shortage of home economics graduates—and many jobs seeking them are unclaimed.

About 15,570 home economists are needed each year to fill new or vacant positions in the United States, according to a report just issued by the Federal Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Opportunities for employment in home economics fields are tremendous, says Mrs. Florence W. Low, assistant director for home economics with the Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University, who is immediate past president of the American Home Economics Association. She urges all agencies concerned to tell girls of these career opportunities and the challenging work.

About 700 new home economists are needed each year to fill extension positions alone, the report indicates.

A total of 10,296 degrees were conferred in home economics in 1964. This represents 1.7 per cent of the total degrees conferred in all fields, the report reveals.

Other report facts include: Recent estimates indicate 90,000 persons were employed in home economics occupations in 1962. Approximately 50,000 of these were teachers, 28,000 were dietitians, from 5,000 to 6,000 were with private business firms, and 5,000 in Cooperative Extension work.

Beginning salaries for home economists are among the top for women. Only women in fields such as engineering, physics, chemistry, math and biological sciences tend to receive higher starting salaries. Fifty-eight per cent of the home economists in AHEA earn more than $5,500 annually—or $600 more than the median full-time annual salary for women in professional and technical occupations in 1962, the report says.

What Ever Happened to the Grapes of Wrath?

There was a time when a man was ready to fight when he was called an "Okie". But, now it's a compliment! And this came about because the average Okie pulled himself up by the bootstraps. And that's how electric cooperatives were born. These same victims of the depression and drouth transformed the grapes-of-wrath image into the fruits-of-opportunity by bringing electric power to remote areas. Today, working together, these people are turning the "impossible" job into one of the greatest success stories of our time. Yes, the grapes of wrath turned sweet!

Little League Race
 Tightens; VFW
 Still Leading

V. F. W. still leads Foard County Little League by a nose, as they lost the Tuesday night game to previously winless Foard County Mill, but the Vets came back on Friday night to swamp the Cardinals.

Second place Farmers Elevator lost two games to Crowell State Bank in a couple of thrillers.

Details of the games are as follows:

Tuesday night, June 1, 6 p. m.: Foard County Mill 12, VFW 7. The cellar-dwelling Cardinals slapped a convincing defeat on top-dog VFW as Danny Naylor pitched all the way, got two hits himself, as did David Myers, Ishmael Santos and Burl Abston. Rocky Bachman and Don Ray Santos each banded out a single. Danny Naylor allowed four hits: two by Bill Lynch, one each by Felix Castaneda and Mance Nelson. Naylor struck out eleven and issued walks to six.

Tuesday, June 1, 8 p. m.: Crowell State Bank 3, Farmers Elevator 2. This was the best game of the year to this date, and, except for a fantastic catch of a fly ball in right center field by Pat Cates, the outcome could have been different. Cates' catch was in the third inning with the bases loaded and two men out. Brave pitchers Frog Smith and Bill Erwin allowed only one hit, a home run by Mike Weathered in the fifth with Lee J. Whitley on base. Smith-Erwin struck out nine and walked six.

Junior Urquizo and Lee J. Whitley, Yankee hurlers, allowed three hits: one each by Bill Erwin, Billy Hollenbaugh and Jackie Thomas. They struck out eleven and issued no walks. Five miscues in the field were instrumental in the Yankee defeat.

Friday night, June 4, 6 p. m.: Crowell State Bank 6, Farmers Elevator 4. This was another "cliff hanger" as the Yankees led for the first four innings, with the Braves scoring four runs in the fifth to once again nose out the Elevator crew.

Lee J. Whitley and Junior Urquizo each banded out two hits to lead the Yankee batters, with Mike Weathered getting the other Yankee hit.

Frog Smith and Bill Erwin each hit two-for-three for the Braves. Pat Cates hit one-for-two, but Jackie Thomas' lone hit in the fifth was the "money" blow of the ball game. Pat Cates continued to star in the field, making two fine catches to rob Johnny Urquizo and Larry Bursey of hits.

Elevator hurlers Urquizo and Whitley allowed five hits and issued 5 walks, while Braves pitchers Smith and Erwin had exactly the same record, both on hits and walks.

Friday, June 4, 8 p. m.: VFW 14, Foard County Mill 4. Jessie Barrera's grand slam homer in the fifth helped VFW avenge its Tuesday night loss, as the Vets scored in every inning to total a two-touchdown score. In his pitching, Barrera held the Cards to two hits (singles by David Myers and Burl Abston), and he gave up six walks.

Cardinal pitchers Kenny Abbott and Ishmael Santos gave up eight hits and issued free transportation to ten. Bill Lynch had a perfect night at the plate with a three-for-four performance; Mance Nelson missed four-for-four only by good catches of line drives into left field by Bob Burkett; and Ken Sellers and David Stapp each came through with one single for the Vets.

This week, Foard County Mill plays Crowell State Bank, and VFW contests Farmers Elevator.

Strange Notion

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "Perhaps most of our industrial strife stems from the strange notion that profits are automatic and that the big thing is to put in the working hours rather than pay attention to what is actually produced. One often runs into this attitude when hiring the young people, especially. Our schools are apparently falling down when it comes to the inculcation of proper work attitudes. And indifference to the same thing in the homes is adding to our disciplinary troubles."

Tax Man Sam Sez:
 When we watch TV and see the Nomadic tribes wandering around most of us feel that this is a pretty rustic way of life. We often forget all those "for sale" signs we see in our neighborhood. Americans move around nowadays. Selling your home is a very important tax transaction. Keeping good records on your investment in your home keeps you from paying tax dollars that you do not owe. It is a pretty good system to set up a folder to keep all your home investment papers together just in case your company sends you to the far away shores of our dear land.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

The Texas Forest Service administers four small state forests located near Mavdelle, Cooroc, Warren and Kirbyville. They are maintained to demonstrate cultural practices for continuous timber production, water conservation and as a habitat for wildlife. Self-guiding nature trails are available on each forest.

Plastic Bleach Jugs Excellent Containers for Storing Water

Plastic bleach jugs make excellent containers for storing water that might be needed in the event of a natural or national emergency, says County Agent Joe Burkett.

"Such jugs are cheap, unbreakable, and non-corrosive, and they have a little chlorine left in them which would attack any bacteria or organic matter in the water," says Burkett.

Water can be stored in any covered glass, plastic, or other type container which does not rust. The shelf life of pure water stored in clean containers should be several months, but the containers should be inspected often to see whether they should be emptied and refilled.

For a stay of two weeks in an emergency shelter, each person should have at least seven gallons of water.

Your home has several sources of safe drinking water. You can drain it from the pipes, pressure or storage tanks, water heaters, and the flush tanks of toilets. You can also use ice cubes and the melted accumulation of frost in refrigerators or freezers. Other sources are fruit juices, soft drinks and canned foods high in water content. You may also can water, just like canning beans or tomatoes, and it should last for several years," says Burkett.

Median Income Rises

The National Industrial Conference Board reports that in 1950 the median income of American families was $3,319. In 1963, it had reached $6,249, an increase of 88 per cent.

434 Lacking Fish Permits Are Hooked

The overhead on fishing spurred sharply according to the last Texas Parks and Wildlife Department arrest report showing 434 tags in one month for fishing without a license.

J. B. Phillips, coordinator for law enforcement, said the total was one of the largest on record. Conservation Supervisor Charles Burnette of Tyler said his warden staff in 47 counties issued 320 tickets in one month, mainly for fishing without a valid fishing license.

Basically, all persons over 17 years of age and under 65 years of age need the $2.15 fishing license. Everyone using a casting rig, or winding device, and not fishing on their own land are required by law to have a license on their person while fishing.

No Mexican Laborers

"Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz says that the days of importing cut-rate Mexican farm labor in California are over. 'There is no question whatsoever that we can end the anomaly, the paradox, of there being 400,000 to 500,000 unemployed in California . . . Okay. So we challenge our labor

Miss Paula Ruth Sanders Becomes Bride of Philip Welch

Miss Paula Ruth Sanders became the bride of Philip Young Welch in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sanders are parents of the bride, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Munson Welch.

An arch of lemon leaves, centered with wedding bells, and flanked by cathedral candelabras and baskets of white gladioli formed the nuptial scene. Arrangements of lemon leaves and tapers decorated the window sills in the sanctuary. Donald Holland of Fort Worth and Jackie Hickman of Corpus Christi were the candle-lighters.

Rev. Ronald D. Fox of Morgan Mills, cousin of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Lanette Lemons, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Wilson of Vernon, also a cousin of the bride, as she sang "Dearly Beloved" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta and styled with a sabrina neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of French illusion was caught by a crown of pearls, and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids.

Mrs. Jackie Hickman attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Holland, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Dale Henry. Bridesmaid was Miss Paula Sparks. Their identical A-line street length dresses were of delicate pink imported dotted swiss and designed with jewel necklines. Their matching satin pillbox hats were accented with illusion and they carried single long-stemmed pink roses.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Miles Welch of Euless. Bill Fitzgerald of Stinnett, Woody Frank Lemons and Kenny Ownbey were groomsmen and ushers were Donald Holland and Jackie Hickman.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders entertained with a reception in the banquet room of the church. The bride's table was laid with a white floor length taffeta cloth and was centered with a crystal epergne holding an arrangement of french pink carnations and white tapers. The wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Assisting in serving were Mmes. Leo Cates, Nelson Oliphant, W. W. Lemons, Miles Welch and Misses Scherry Goodwin and Jo

Wynn Ekern.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 1912 Clover Lane, Fort Worth, where the groom is a sophomore student at Texas Christian University.

The bride is a 1964 honor graduate of Crowell High School where she was a drum majorette, class favorite, band and FFA sweethearts, on the student council and school newspaper staff. She attended Draughon's Business College in Wichita Falls and is employed in Fort Worth.

The groom also graduated from Crowell High School in 1965 where he was a class officer two years, in the stage and marching bands, and on the student council. He recently was awarded an academic scholarship for his sophomore year at TCU.

The parents of the groom were hosts at a rehearsal dinner Friday night in the dining room of the community center. The table was laid with a pink table cloth and centered with an arrangement of white carnations.

Miss Katherine Ressel and Jack New Wed in Seymour Friday

Miss Katherine Ressel and Jack New exchanged marriage vows Friday night, June 4, at the home of Mrs. W. H. McDonald, aunt of the groom in Seymour. Ed W. Anderson, Minister of the First Christian Church in Seymour, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ressel of Crowell are parents of the bride, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eston New of Gilliland.

James New of Seymour served as best man for his brother and the bride's sister, Mrs. Jo Etta Cartwright of Benjamin, was matron of honor.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Benjamin High School and has received her bachelor's degree from North Texas State University in Denton. She taught in the Dimmitt, Texas, Public Schools, this past year.

The groom is a graduate of Munday High School and is self-employed at Seymour where the couple will reside.

Miss Sharon Chatfield Honoree at Bridal Shower Thursday

Miss Sharon Laraine Chatfield, bride-elect of Harold Keith Sawyers of Lincoln, Nebr., was named honoree at a bridal shower Thursday evening, May 27, at the community center.

The honoree was attractively attired in a pink dress with a surplice of white split carnations, a gift of the hostesses.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Jon Coffey, who presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. A. L. Davis; the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Nick Chatfield.

Mrs. Clarence Garrett registered the guests in the bride's book. The registration table featured a crystal bud vase with three long-stemmed pink roses.

The guests were directed to the refreshment table which was laid with a white cut work cloth over pink. The centerpiece featured an arrangement of pink carnations with a miniature bride and groom on a heart.

White napkins were inscribed in silver with "Sharon and Keith." Completing the table decor were appointments of crystal.

Frosted punch, dainty cookies, mints and nuts were served by Mrs. Elton Carroll and Mrs. Jack Stinebaugh. Attending the gift display were Mmes. Charlie Bartley, Leotis Roberts and Chester Hord.

An electric iron was presented the honoree by the hostesses. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

The other hostesses were Mrs. Ray Shirley, Mrs. Grover Cole and Mrs. Fred Collins.

Co-Laborers Class

The Co-Laborers Sunday School Class held a business meeting on June 3 at 3 p. m. at the church with 10 members attending.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. B. Tysinger presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Clint White presented names selected by the nominating committee for class officers. They were voted on and accepted by the class.

New class projects were discussed, but laid aside temporarily.

A social hour was held with visiting during the time the hostesses served refreshments. Hostesses were Mrs. J. N. Ribble and Mrs. Oscar Gentry with Mrs. Lewis Ballard assisting in serving.

Gambleville H. D. Club

The Gambleville Home Demonstration Club met Friday, June 4, with Mrs. James Sandlin as hostess giving an opening exercise, "Thoughts for a Good Life" for each day of the month of June. The president, Mrs. Charlie Bartley, brought hints for the care of teflon cookware and said that self-discipline is the key to time management. Mrs. Andrew Calvin, leader for a group of 4-H girls, said they would begin their sewing in about two weeks.

Mrs. James Sandlin, program leader, talked on pictures for the home. She said, "Pictures should be level at the bottom and level with your eye. Sometimes a good picture is too crowded in the frame and by putting it in a larger frame will bring out the beauty of the picture. Never stagger pictures unless you have a stairway to do so."

Roll call was answered by seven members exchanging things they had brought for "swap day." Mrs. Calvin drew the hostess gift.

The next meeting will be June 18 and each member is urged to be present and bring a secret pal gift. Names will be drawn for secret pals for the next quarter.

Freewill Ladies Auxiliary

The ladies of the Free Will Baptist Church Auxiliary held a regular monthly meeting June 7 at the church with seven members present. They made plans for the vacation Bible school which will be held the last week in July.

A special song was sung by Debra and Judy Daniel and Barbara Dunn.

"Compelling Wisdom" was the topic studied and some very interesting discussion was held. The scriptures were taken from Prov. 3:5-6. Character study was of Abigail.

W. M. C. Meeting

On Monday night, June 7, a covered dish supper was held in the home of Mrs. John Hocker for the Women's Missionary Council ladies of the Assembly of God Church. After a short business meeting, a devotional was given by Mrs. Fred Glover.

Attending were Mmes. Hocker, Fred Glover, Tommie Reynolds, Richard Winters, Allison Denton, H. C. Duncan, J. M. Barker and Loys Thomson.

Outdoor Look Is Popular This Summer

The outdoor look is "in" this summer, and women's fashions are capitalizing on many aspects of this trend.

Young and active looks are found in every sportswear category, says Lynn Parks, Texas A&M University Extension consumer education specialist.

"You may be a surf-watcher instead of a surf-rider, but you'll find the nation's newest beach sport is an important influence in swim wear designs. The surfing look is reflected in many tailored two-piece suits," Miss Parks says.

These suits feature such surfer design note as flap pocket, lace-up ties at the waist, and boy-leg trunks banded with white fabric trim. Suits come in sturdy cotton denim, madras plaid, and duck.

Because real surfers like their suits to look faded, one new swim wear fabric is an all-cotton twill with a special weather-faded look.

Another popular trend in sportswear is the nautical look. Both sailors and non-sailors will take to one trim-fitting sports outfit—bell-bottomed pants and blazer jacket in cotton sailcloth.

For riding the range—on horse, back or on the seat of a bicycle—there's the ranching look. It's interpreted in cotton stretch wrangler pants and western-tailored shirts. And, whether you're a golfer or not, you'll like the casual comfort of stylish new golfing culottes, worn with cotton knit T-shirts.

Sources of Energy

According to the head of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey), nuclear energy now supplies one-fifth of one per cent of the freeworld energy market; in 1971 its share will probably be about 1 per cent. Hydroelectric now supplies about 7 per cent; its share should be about the same in 1971. Coal now supplies 29 per cent, by 1971 its share will probably fall below 25 per cent. Oil and gas supply 63 per cent today; by 1971 this is expected to rise to 67 per cent.

LITTLE LEAGUE NEWS

by Marion Crowell

Why a Safety Officer? This is a brand new job in Little League, made necessary by increasing insurance rates. It has been found that, if someone is appointed to look after the kids just a little closer, injuries can be kept to a positive minimum. Jon Coffey has already been doing this work unofficially. So now it's official; he's the Safety Officer of Foard County Little League . . . and, no sooner had the announcement been made last Tuesday night until he got an opportunity to exercise his new job. (Mike Weathered got smashed on the kneecap by the next pitch!)

Is it true that, with Richard Blackburn unable to get back in time to work out with the Mill Kids, his wife, Zella, coached 'em up, showed 'em how to bat, and had them hitting the ball all over the lot on last Tuesday night?

Hard Luk Champ of the league; Junior Urquiza, Junior had a "dippy-doodle" delivery last season that was a thing of beauty. He's discarded it this year, is generally agreed to be the smoothest pitcher in the league . . . just smooth as silk, say all the managers.

Not the best ball player in the league, Felix Castaneda is still one of the most colorful performers. The old "molasses bucket" just keeps rolling along . . . even pitched three innings last week . . . and Jon Coffey declared that the little Latin-American threw knuckle balls!

Even Pat Cates can sometimes be human. I guess . . . he dropped Lee J. Whitley's well-hit ball to deep center field in the first inning last Tuesday night . . . but really made up for it later as he robbed Larry Bursey of a bases-loaded basehit in the third inning. Bursey's fly ball to right center seemed destined to go as a basehit, but Pat came out of nowhere to grab the horsehide and save a ball game.

My thanks to Bud McLain and all others who kept things rolling last Friday night. We sure had some fine games last week. If they continue in such an every-game-a-toss-up manner, we'll be packing in the crowds. How can you improve on: the cellar team beating the top team; the third team beating the second team?

I heard an opinion expressed a day or two ago that I sure liked: Jack Young said we had good fans here in Crowell. He's lived around several other places . . . says our fans are the best he's seen . . . get out of your cars and take a bow, all you L. L. watchers!

I'm always amused when I hear someone say: "Why don't that manager tell Little Henry to do so and so?" Reminds me of the true story told by Gordon Bell when he managed Foard County Mill a few years ago.

Gordon had told Lefty (not his real name) over and over and over again how to handle a certain situation. Finally, he seemed to be getting through.

"Mr. Bell, you know what?" enthused Lefty, as Gordon leaned forward eagerly to catch a word of wisdom. "I wish I had a baloney sandwich!"

We've had several kids who played throughout Pee Wee ball, then on through Little League, who had their heads in the game only two or three times. . . but that's Little League!

Fish Biting at Top Rate in East Texas

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens are predicting 1965 as the year that will smillingly go down in the history of fishing. Few recall when so many fish were caught by so many anglers.

Lake Palestine continued to produce large bream or sunfish in tremendous numbers. Lakes Murvaul, Texarkana, Tyler and Lake O' Pines have yielded bass up to 10 pounds in quantity, and catfishing in Lake Tawakoni near Greenville has been exceptional. Carlton Clinard and Charles Mask of Royse City hauled a 30-pound flathead catfish, and Frank Chumley of Tom Ball loaded his stringer with channel catfish and one flathead that weighed 15 pounds.

Game Warden Jack Hardie of Tyler displayed two bowfin, one weighing 9 pounds, caught by two anglers, among the other fish they caught.

Flooding waters and continued rainfall in the East Texas area has evidently stimulated feeding, and best baits include the gray cricket, catpala worm and large minnows.

Tractors Can Flip Fast

You may be quite an athlete, but you can't move fast enough to get off a tractor seat if the tractor starts to flip backward.

Time and motion studies show that a rearing tractor gives you just two-fifths of a second to get out of the way, according to County Agent Joe Burkett.

The recommended practice to hitch below the axle tractor line is not in itself assurance against tipping backward. Racing the en-

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, June 6, 1935, issue of The Foard County News:

Chester Robinson, 32, engineer for the State Highway Department in charge of construction of the new bridge across Pease River, drowned in the river last Thursday evening about 6:30 when he and two other men were swept into the water from a trolley-basket device that spanned the 275-foot section of the old bridge that was carried away by raging water on May 18.

A general repair shop in the building of the Bursley-Long Implement Co., formerly Self Truck & Tractor Co., was opened June 1 by Joe Ward.

Rain at Crowell last Thursday afternoon between 4:30 and 6 o'clock measured exactly four inches.

Mrs. R. J. Thomas and daughter, De Alva, returned Saturday from Dallas where they attended exercises Thursday evening at the Light & Power auditorium for the law graduates of Jefferson University. Leslie, son of Sheriff and Mrs. R. J. Thomas, was one of the graduates. He had taken a law course at Jefferson University for the past two and a half years and will remain there this summer to teach in the law school.

With a total of 9.81 inches, rainfall for May was the heaviest at Crowell than for any other single month since May, 1914, at which time a total of 10.43 inches were recorded.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts and son, John Jr., moved from Gladewater to Crowell last week.

Miss Bettye E. McAdams spent last week end with relatives in Quanah.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moss and little daughter, Rose Mary, of Foard City visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young at Trussett Saturday night and Sunday.

Educational Level of American Workers

The educational level of American workers has risen rapidly in the last dozen years. The proportion of workers with eight years or less of school dropped from 36 to 23 per cent of the total. In the same period, workers with four years of high school (or more) rose from 44 to 57 per cent—a gain of almost a third. The other side of the picture shows, however, that there remained 2.6 million workers with less than five years of grade school and 5.8 million others with only five to seven years of schooling. More than 60 per cent of workers with less than eight years of education were 45 years old or over.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Halencak and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fugit of Odessa in the home of her mother, Mrs. C. W. Ross, in Crowell Friday.

Mrs. Ray Hysinger had the following of her family visiting in her home Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Monkes and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Monkes of Long Beach, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Autry of Foard City, Mr. and Mrs. Kit Autry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Autry, Vickie and Jan, of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Monkes, Lisa and Lauri, of Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Drake Monkes and Mr. and Mrs. Hulen Monkes of Vernon.

On March 20, 1923, half interest in the building was sold to the Baptist Church for $750.00. The names of Mr. Callaway and Mr. Mills appear on record along with those of Claude Stone and M. L. Owens of the Baptist Church.

During the early years of the Methodist Church, a paragon was built, but most of the names of the earliest preachers are not available as the records were lost in a fire. Money was scarce in those days, and unless a preacher had another profession, he could not remain for long. The one preacher that many people remember is Bro. John Mills, uncle of Sam and Marcus Mills, and grandfather of Mrs. W. L. Johnson, all of Crowell. He owned a store in Foard City in 1915, 1916 and 1917; besides his ministry at Foard City, he preached at neighborhood school houses on Saturday night and Sunday afternoons.

Throughout the years, the Foard City Church has been recognized for the harmonious relationship which has existed between the two groups who have worshipped together in the same building. By their combined efforts, a new rock veneer building was erected in 1940. Tom Callaway was the employed contractor and again, the men in the community donated labor. An educational building was added in 1949.

Bruising of Livestock on Way to Market Costs Many Dollars

Bruising of cattle and hogs on the way to market costs Foard County producers many dollars each year, says County Agent Joe Burkett.

Animals that are down-graded or condemned at the market represent a considerable monetary loss to the producer by adding to the cost of transportation, insurance, and processing, as well as increasing the cost of production through loss of feed and labor.

The following causes of cattle bruises were revealed in a recent study by Livestock Conservation, Inc., Chicago: crowding, bumping and rushing, 66 per cent; trampling, 14 per cent; cane, whip and club, 10 per cent; horns, 3 per cent; other causes, 7 per cent.

"How much of the bruising is due to faulty corrals and loading chutes is not known, but it may be a considerable amount," Burkett explains. "The tendency by all who handle livestock to hurry animals too fast is an important contributing factor in bruising caused by crowding, bumping and rushing."

The picture on causes of bruises on hogs is a different one because the hog is a slower moving, less surefooted animal. The survey here shows that causes for bruising are: canes, whip and clubs, 42 per cent; kicking and prodding, 20 per cent; crowding and trampling, 15 per cent; fork and nail punctures, 12 per cent; other causes, 11 per cent.

These figures give a good indication of where work needs to be done to convince livestock producers and handlers that much of this type of loss is preventable," the county agent points out.
