

COTTON MEETING HERE TUESDAY

A large number of area cotton producers are expected to be in Crowell next Tuesday night, March 1, to hear the story of how Jones County cotton farmers increased their yields last year by planting their cotton about the same time. The story of the Jones County venture which proved so successful will be told by Roland K. Kelly, oil mill operator in Stamford and one of the organizers of the plan.

The plan used in Jones County proved so successful that a story about it appeared in the Progressive Farmer magazine in January of this year.

By a vast majority of the cotton producers planting during a specified period, replanting was avoided due to the late-planting program, boll weevil infestations were slowed down, and most of the county's cotton was made with virtually no rainfall during the growing season.

Farmers from Foard, Cottle, Hardeman, Wilbarger and Knox Counties have been invited to the meeting in Crowell, which is being sponsored by the local Rotary Club.

Glen Goodwin, who is president of the club, will welcome those attending, and will introduce the special guests. Rotarian Newell Hofmann, who was instrumental in arranging Mr. Kelly's visit here, will explain the purpose of the meeting and will introduce Mr. Kelly. Also appearing on the program will be Wilbarger County Agent Norman Drake.

A business meeting will follow the program. Foard County Agent Joe Burkett will be in charge of this portion of the program, and if enough area farmers wish to try the method in this area, the different counties will be given an opportunity to organize.

West Texas Utilities Co. Wins Motor Vehicle Safety Contest for Sixth Time

For the sixth consecutive year the employees of West Texas Utilities Company have won the coveted Bureau of Safety Motor Vehicle Accident Prevention Contest awarded annually to the electric utility company having the lowest accident frequency rate. This is unprecedented, for no other competing company has approached the record of WTU.

In 1965 WTU employees drove 338 motor vehicles a total of 5,377,392 miles for a record of 3.16 chargeable accidents per 1,000,000 miles. This was a substantial reduction from its 1964 rate of 4.63. The average rate for all contestants was 6.63, and the estimated rate for all electric utility companies is 10.51.

Lyle A. Westrom, Bureau vice president, said in a letter to R. W. Hardy, WTU president: "We offer our warmest congratulations to you and your employees for this remarkable safety achievement and wish you continued success in the future."

FT A NEWS ROUNDUP

Seniors of the Week

Linda Chandler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sellers of Crowell. She stands at the height of 5' 6" and has hazel eyes and brown hair. Linda has attended CHS for two years now. Linda's favorites are: food—shrimp and pizza; color—lavender and subject—typing. Linda dislikes people who think they are better than others. She prefers the "down to earth kind."

Her hope for the future is to work in Wichita Falls. She finds that her parents have been most helpful in her life.

A certain hazel eyed, black haired, 5' 10" boy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Eaveson of Thalia, is our second senior personality of the week. Rickey's favorite color is blue and he enjoys eating shrimp. His favorite subject is bookkeeping. Rickey is this year's senior favorite and FFA parliamentarian. He has played football for three years, and has lettered for two years. He believes that his parents and his grandparents have helped him the most through the years. He plans to attend Midwestern University after graduation.

Best of luck to Rickey and Linda, two great seniors.

New Students

We would like to say hello to the new students of CHS. We have two boys enrolled. The first one is Rudy Jo Smith who is a freshman. Rudy came to us from Houston.

The next boy is Fred Fox. Fred is from Lawton, Okla., and is a sophomore.

We hope that these students will enjoy CHS. Good luck in your new school, boys.

Jokes

In the halls of CHS, the students often go around telling Aggie jokes. This is a popular sport with a few of the students, because they know how angry the Aggie fans get when they hear these jokes. Here are a few of the jokes that are passed around the halls:

An Aggie called on a surgeon and told him he had been given a handsome set of cuff links for his birthday, but did not own a single shirt with french cuffs.

"Why did you come to me?" asked the startled doctor.

"I'd like to get my wrists pierced," the Aggie replied.

Question: Why does state law prevent Aggies from swimming in the Gulf of Mexico?

Answer: State officials are afraid they might leave a ring around the beach.

The Aggie who was taking a correspondence course during the summer perfected a way to cut classes. He sent in empty envelopes.

Do you know why the Aggie grad lost his job as an elevator operator?

He couldn't learn the route!

Senior Class Meeting

On Thursday the seniors decided on going to Colorado. The choice was between Colorado and New Orleans. It was a close race, but Colorado finally won. Various members of the class have written to different places requesting information and from this information the awaited destination was finally decided on.

The seniors also talked about the two main money makers of the year—the smorgasbord and the senior car wash. It was decided that the smorgasbord would probably be held during the last part of March or early part of April. They decided to have it then so nobody will be too cold to come or too hot to want to eat. Don't let the seniors down; diet until time for the smorgasbord and then catch up on all your dieting days!

Junior Class Meeting

The juniors also met on Thursday. Their meeting was mostly centered around the idea of what to do this summer to earn money. They decided on having the concession stand at the Little League games this summer.

At the same meeting, the juniors decided to have a class party on Thursday night at the home of the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. James Welch. The juniors were kept happy by having plenty to eat and lots to do.

The juniors would like to express their appreciation to Mr.

and Mrs. Welch for letting them come into their home on such short notice. They would also like to let them know that they think they are the best sponsors yet.

Freshman Class Party

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Welch were really kept busy this week end at their home. The freshmen had a party at their home. These students were just like the juniors; you can keep them happy with lots of food and plenty to eat.

The freshmen would also like to express their appreciation to the Welches for letting them share their home.

Surprised Looks!

The faces on the students of CHS were of surprise as they walked in the building Monday morning. "It seems like a new building." Yes, that was the thought on Monday morning. Over the week end the floors of our dear school received a new look; they were varnished and a different look was presented.

The auditorium has the best look of all. The stage has had 14 inches added on to it. No more falling up the stairs to get to the stage, because new steps were also added on.

The students are very proud of our new additions and would be very pleased if any citizen would like to come and take a look.

F. T. A. Will Meet

The FTA will meet on Feb. 28 in the Crowell High School auditorium at 7 o'clock. This will be an open meeting and those who wish to be in FTA next year should try to attend this meeting. The Quannah FTA group will be unable to meet with the Crowell group on that date; however, an interesting program is planned.

Speaking of tests, several of the seniors went to Wichita Falls on Saturday to take the A. C. T. test. This is a test required by various colleges and universities. The test is rather difficult and we'll all have our fingers crossed for those seniors who had to suffer through it.

God for Us

Many people, even religious people, suppose that God is against sinners. "Do what is right," they think, "and God will love and bless you, but do what is wrong and He will be angry with you and curse you."

Perhaps this view of God comes from the fact that many Scripture passages, especially in the Old Testament, reveal God as the Enemy of the workers of iniquity. But He is the Enemy of the workers of iniquity—as such—as workers of iniquity, not as individual persons.

In Ezek. 18:23 God asks: "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die . . . ?" And in II Pet. 3:9 we learn that when God might have judged this world for the crucifixion of Christ, He delayed the judgement because He is "longsuffering" and "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

The Apostle Paul, referring to the crucifixion, declares that "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation" (II Cor. 5:19). How could He have shown sinners more conclusively that He desires their good than by imputing their sins to Christ and telling them that He is not imputing their trespasses unto them? Their trespasses will be imputed to them, of course, if they reject God's provision of salvation through Christ, but for the present it is a wonderful fact that we can go to any sinner and say on the authority of God's written Word: "Your sins have been paid for; God is not holding them against you. Will you receive Christ as your Savior?"

It is on this basis that the Apostle Paul goes on to plead:

"Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: We pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God:

"For He hath made Him to be sin for us, (Him) who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" (II Cor. 5:20,21).

No, unsaved friend, God is not against you. He loves you and provided abundantly for your salvation by paying for your sins Himself at Calvary. This is the essence of "the gospel of the grace of God." Will you believe it? Will you trust Christ now as your own personal Savior?

Organic Matter

Just what is organic matter and what part does it play in a productive soil? "These are questions," explains County Agent Joe Burkett, "that I often hear discussed by Foard County farmers."

Organic matter is the storehouse of plant nutrients in the soil. It is often referred to as the "fat of the land." It results from the decomposition of plant and animal materials by soil organisms. On the average it contains about 56 per cent carbon and 5 per cent nitrogen.

Organic matter improves soil structure and its ability to take in water and hold it in storage for later use by plants. It also improves soil aeration, loosens dense, compact soils and granulates loose, open sandy soils to give them a friable crumb structure.

Continuous cultivation without giving attention to regular additions of residues gradually lowers the organic matter in the soil. A soil test will show the organic level in the soil.

College Enrollment About 5.5 Million

As of a recent date, student enrollment in U. S. colleges and universities totaled some 5.5 million, of whom three out of five attended public institutions and the remainder were enrolled in private institutions. All totaled, there were some 2,168 colleges and universities, costing more than $10 billion a year to staff, maintain and operate. Tax money pays for almost half of this annual cost.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Austin, Tex.—Gov. John Connally is going along with forecasts that a "substantial amount" of new government spending in the next fiscal period is "almost inevitable."

However, Connally declined to join in predicting specific new tax laws. He called such forecasts "premature," although the Committee on State and Local Tax Policy earlier had indicated it agrees with the predictors.

"It's almost inevitable that we are going to be looking at increased expenditures in a substantial amount," Connally told a press conference. "But I don't want to try to estimate the magnitude of a tax program, if any, or the expenditures."

Meanwhile the tax policy committee held its first meeting, ordered Texas Research League studies on impact of sales tax adjustment and an unusual appraisal of how to equalize the widely-varying state property tax.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, committee chairman, reported that all members of the panel seemed to feel that more revenue will be necessary when the Legislature writes the new budget for Texas government operations next year.

Atwell said the committee will be taking a reading on revenue which could be obtained from raising the sales tax rate (now two per cent) and removing various exemptions.

These exemptions apply to food, drugs, farm machinery, alcoholic beverages, industrial and agricultural fuel and power. Atwell doubts that the legislature will tamper with the food, medicine and farm implements. He expressed a personal preference for a rate hike if new money is mandatory.

Committee also is going to study the likely effect of income taxation and corporation tax formula adjustments.

As a possible method of equalizing the property tax, the committee will evaluate results of assigning each county its equitable share of the ad valorem loan on the basis of estimated fair market values. Voters would have to approve such a procedure by constitutional amendment.

Citizens of some counties now are paying seven times as much tax on property with the same value as do citizens of other counties.

LEGAL SERVICES — Harold Jones of Wichita Falls is chairman of the newly chartered Texas Bar Foundation to raise funds for expansion of the State Bar's program of legal services to the poor.

Philip Brin of Longview is vice chairman and Associate Justice T. Gilbert Sharpe, Brownsville, 13th Court of Civil Appeals, is secretary.

DRAFT RULES TIGHTENED — Young Texans served draft orders no longer can get them cancelled by joining reserve or national guard units, Col. Morris Schwartz, State Selective Service director, announces.

A man still can enlist in regular active-duty forces after receiving his draft orders—if he can be signed up before induction date, Schwartz said.

New policy reached Texas draft boards from National Selective Service headquarters where it was adopted on recommendation of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for manpower.

COURTS SPEAK—Third Court of Civil Appeals here upheld the State Banking Board in granting a charter to Northline State Bank of Houston, thus reversing the decision of District Judge Tom Reavley of Austin. Airline National Bank of Houston brought suit claiming there was no public need for a new bank.

State Supreme Court declined to give special consideration to adequacy of legal services rendered a Robstown couple by the Nueces County legal aid office in a suit where they stand to lose their home.

Court of Criminal Appeals sustained the death sentence conviction of Walter Lee Siros in the rape of a Houston woman.

CONNALLY TO SOUTH AMERICA — Governor Connally is considering a week's tour of major South American countries starting this month to drum up participation in San Antonio's 1968 HemisFair.

He said he hopes to visit presidents of Venezuela, Brazil and Argentina—and perhaps Chile and Peru—and ask their cooperation in staging HemisFair exhibits. Connally doubles as commissioner general of the "Fair of

Farmers Union President Speaks in Oklahoma City

Speaking at the convention of the Oklahoma Farmers Union at Oklahoma City Monday, Texas Farmers Union president, Jay Naman, said that the budget announced for agricultural programs in 1967 indicates that the "budget cutters insist on killing the goose that lays the golden eggs."

"Agriculture's astounding record of achievement and contribution to the economy is being rewarded by a reduction of almost one billion dollars in budget allocation for fiscal year 1967, resulting in severe curtailment of such important programs as agricultural conservation, special milk and school lunch programs, rural electric and telephone programs, and agricultural education and research."

"A prime example of one determined whack at the fabled 'goose' is the reduction of the proposed expenditure for farm income stabilization by 500 million dollars from the 1965 level. This apparently means that the intent of the Congress to move farmers to a parity income level will be thwarted by the administration's budget advisers."

"It is rather paradoxical that while our national policy is moving in the direction of emphasis on food shipments to needy foreign nations and the establishment of adequate food reserves at home, the budget for these purposes very apparently does not contemplate any major expansion of these programs."

"We must go directly to the Congress for restoration of the necessary appropriations to carry out the intent of the Congress in the 1965 Farm Bill and to assure that the important jobs of revitalizing rural America and leading the world in a war against hunger become something more than hollow pronouncements."

Tax Man Sam Sez — Congress has provided a number of benefits for taxpayers over 65. If you are over 65 and sell your house for less than $20,000, you won't owe any taxes on the gain. If you sell for more than $20,000 you can exclude a portion of the gain. If you qualify, check the instructions carefully or go see the Internal Revenue Service for help.

Chicago Fire — The great Chicago fire, which occurred Oct. 8-10, 1871, destroyed 17,430 buildings and did an estimated $175 million in damage, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

Pesticides — Pesticides can be your best weapon against insects in your garden, lawn and home, says Joe Burkett, county agent. To help you use pesticides in a safe way, as the springtime battle with the pests looms ahead, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has just published a new leaflet entitled U. B. Safe with Pesticides. The new leaflet, L-676, is now available at Burkett's office.

Tax Benefits for Older Americans

Tax relief is available to many retired persons in northern Texas who are living in a fixed pension or annuity. It also is available to older people who have incurred costly medical bills. Those reminders came from the Internal Revenue Service this week.

For those on a pension, the benefit may be through the "retirement income credit" provision of the Federal income tax laws. These laws also allow persons over 65 to deduct 100 per cent of their drug and medical expenses. On home sales, those 65 years of age may elect to exclude from their income part or all of the proceeds from the sale.

Documents 5018 and 5569, which furnish more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Dallas.

In Ezek. 18:23 God asks: "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die . . . ?" And in II Pet. 3:9 we learn that when God might have judged this world for the crucifixion of Christ, He delayed the judgement because He is "longsuffering" and "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

The Apostle Paul, referring to the crucifixion, declares that "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation" (II Cor. 5:19). How could He have shown sinners more conclusively that He desires their good than by imputing their sins to Christ and telling them that He is not imputing their trespasses unto them? Their trespasses will be imputed to them, of course, if they reject God's provision of salvation through Christ, but for the present it is a wonderful fact that we can go to any sinner and say on the authority of God's written Word: "Your sins have been paid for; God is not holding them against you. Will you receive Christ as your Savior?" It is on this basis that the Apostle Paul goes on to plead: "Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; We pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God: "For He hath made Him to be sin for us, (Him) who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" (II Cor. 5:20,21).

No, unsaved friend, God is not against you. He loves you and provided abundantly for your salvation by paying for your sins Himself at Calvary. This is the essence of "the gospel of the grace of God." Will you believe it? Will you trust Christ now as your own personal Savior?

Organic Matter

Just what is organic matter and what part does it play in a productive soil? "These are questions," explains County Agent Joe Burkett, "that I often hear discussed by Foard County farmers."

Organic matter is the storehouse of plant nutrients in the soil. It is often referred to as the "fat of the land." It results from the decomposition of plant and animal materials by soil organisms. On the average it contains about 56 per cent carbon and 5 per cent nitrogen.

Organic matter improves soil structure and its ability to take in water and hold it in storage for later use by plants. It also improves soil aeration, loosens dense, compact soils and granulates loose, open sandy soils to give them a friable crumb structure.

Continuous cultivation without giving attention to regular additions of residues gradually lowers the organic matter in the soil. A soil test will show the organic level in the soil.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson attended the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Priest of Vernon, who was a patient in a Wichita Falls hospital last week. Mrs. Priest has been returned to her home in Vernon.

A sub-district meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church was held at Fargo last Friday. Attending from Crowell were Mmes. Henry Borchardt, A. R. Sanders, M. H. Abbott, V. A. Johnson and Grover Cole.

College Enrollment About 5.5 Million

As of a recent date, student enrollment in U. S. colleges and universities totaled some 5.5 million, of whom three out of five attended public institutions and the remainder were enrolled in private institutions. All totaled, there were some 2,168 colleges and universities, costing more than $10 billion a year to staff, maintain and operate. Tax money pays for almost half of this annual cost.

1965 STATE SALES TAX TABLE

If you tent to your deductions, you may use this table to determine the general sales tax to be entered on Form 1460, page 2, Part IV. However, if you can establish that you paid a larger amount, you are entitled to deduct that amount. This table is based on the Texas State sales tax of 2 percent. Sales taxes for automobile purchases are not included in the table and they should be added to the table amount, if applicable.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Tex.—Gov. John Connally is going along with forecasts that a "substantial amount" of new government spending in the next fiscal period is "almost inevitable."

However, Connally declined to join in predicting specific new tax laws. He called such forecasts "premature," although the Committee on State and Local Tax Policy earlier had indicated it agrees with the predictors.

"It's almost inevitable that we are going to be looking at increased expenditures in a substantial amount," Connally told a press conference. "But I don't want to try to estimate the magnitude of a tax program, if any, or the expenditures."

Meanwhile the tax policy committee held its first meeting, ordered Texas Research League studies on impact of sales tax adjustment and an unusual appraisal of how to equalize the widely-varying state property tax.

Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, committee chairman, reported that all members of the panel seemed to feel that more revenue will be necessary when the Legislature writes the new budget for Texas government operations next year.

Atwell said the committee will be taking a reading on revenue which could be obtained from raising the sales tax rate (now two per cent) and removing various exemptions.

These exemptions apply to food, drugs, farm machinery, alcoholic beverages, industrial and agricultural fuel and power. Atwell doubts that the legislature will tamper with the food, medicine and farm implements. He expressed a personal preference for a rate hike if new money is mandatory.

Committee also is going to study the likely effect of income taxation and corporation tax formula adjustments.

As a possible method of equalizing the property tax, the committee will evaluate results of assigning each county its equitable share of the ad valorem loan on the basis of estimated fair market values. Voters would have to approve such a procedure by constitutional amendment.

Citizens of some counties now are paying seven times as much tax on property with the same value as do citizens of other counties.

LEGAL SERVICES — Harold Jones of Wichita Falls is chairman of the newly chartered Texas Bar Foundation to raise funds for expansion of the State Bar's program of legal services to the poor.

Philip Brin of Longview is vice chairman and Associate Justice T. Gilbert Sharpe, Brownsville, 13th Court of Civil Appeals, is secretary.

DRAFT RULES TIGHTENED — Young Texans served draft orders no longer can get them cancelled by joining reserve or national guard units, Col. Morris Schwartz, State Selective Service director, announces.

A man still can enlist in regular active-duty forces after receiving his draft orders—if he can be signed up before induction date, Schwartz said.

New policy reached Texas draft boards from National Selective Service headquarters where it was adopted on recommendation of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for manpower.

COURTS SPEAK—Third Court of Civil Appeals here upheld the State Banking Board in granting a charter to Northline State Bank of Houston, thus reversing the decision of District Judge Tom Reavley of Austin. Airline National Bank of Houston brought suit claiming there was no public need for a new bank.

State Supreme Court declined to give special consideration to adequacy of legal services rendered a Robstown couple by the Nueces County legal aid office in a suit where they stand to lose their home.

Court of Criminal Appeals sustained the death sentence conviction of Walter Lee Siros in the rape of a Houston woman.

CONNALLY TO SOUTH AMERICA — Governor Connally is considering a week's tour of major South American countries starting this month to drum up participation in San Antonio's 1968 HemisFair.

He said he hopes to visit presidents of Venezuela, Brazil and Argentina—and perhaps Chile and Peru—and ask their cooperation in staging HemisFair exhibits. Connally doubles as commissioner general of the "Fair of

Farmers Union President Speaks in Oklahoma City

Speaking at the convention of the Oklahoma Farmers Union at Oklahoma City Monday, Texas Farmers Union president, Jay Naman, said that the budget announced for agricultural programs in 1967 indicates that the "budget cutters insist on killing the goose that lays the golden eggs."

"Agriculture's astounding record of achievement and contribution to the economy is being rewarded by a reduction of almost one billion dollars in budget allocation for fiscal year 1967, resulting in severe curtailment of such important programs as agricultural conservation, special milk and school lunch programs, rural electric and telephone programs, and agricultural education and research.

"A prime example of one determined whack at the fabled 'goose' is the reduction of the proposed expenditure for farm income stabilization by 500 million dollars from the 1965 level. This apparently means that the intent of the Congress to move farmers to a parity income level will be thwarted by the administration's budget advisers.

"It is rather paradoxical that while our national policy is moving in the direction of emphasis on food shipments to needy foreign nations and the establishment of adequate food reserves at home, the budget for these purposes very apparently does not contemplate any major expansion of these programs.

"We must go directly to the Congress for restoration of the necessary appropriations to carry out the intent of the Congress in the 1965 Farm Bill and to assure that the important jobs of revitalizing rural America and leading the world in a war against hunger become something more than hollow pronouncements."

Hearings are a part of the commission's activity in the water pollution control field. Chairman Ben Ramsey says such hearings now are consuming 40 per cent of the time of the commission's field inspectors.

 Congress has provided a number of benefits for taxpayers over 65. If you are over 65 and sell your house for less than $20,000, you won't owe any taxes on the gain. If you sell for more than $20,000 you can exclude a portion of the gain. If you qualify, check the instructions carefully or go see the Internal Revenue Service for help.

Tax Benefits for Older Americans

Tax relief is available to many retired persons in northern Texas who are living in a fixed pension or annuity. It also is available to older people who have incurred costly medical bills. Those reminders came from the Internal Revenue Service this week.

For those on a pension, the benefit may be through the "retirement income credit" provision of the Federal income tax laws. These laws also allow persons over 65 to deduct 100 per cent of their drug and medical expenses. On home sales, those 65 years of age may elect to exclude from their income part or all of the proceeds from the sale.

Documents 5018 and 5569, which furnish more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Dallas.

Columbian Club

"The two most important prerequisites for a would-be china painter are money and a patient, tolerant, agreeable, considerate, cooperative, generous husband," stated Mrs. Abe M. Watson of Knox City as she displayed and demonstrated china painting at the February 16 Columbian Club meeting in Mrs. Jack Brown's home. Interspersing her discourse with such above witticisms, Mrs. Watson explained many of the techniques used in painting, etching and firing. She had on display china wall plaques, tables, pitchers both of china and metal, and numerous small items. "I'm possibly the only woman with a hand painted washing machine lid," she laughed, and she had the cover there to prove it.

Actually, she said, china painting is not an art but a craft and a "reasonable" painter can be moderate in her expenditures; then she upset her statement by confiding that she had yet to meet a "reasonable" china painter.

Mrs. Watson compared the craft with drug addiction: one lesson and you undoubtedly will be "hooked." Sagging, the melting and melding of glass under great kiln heat, is another of the artist's mediums, and she displayed ash trays or pin trays made of melted bottles. Once, desiring a certain shade of red, she filched the reflector from her husband's farm trailer. "Most colors fade in the kiln, but that reflector glass was as red when it came out as it was originally."

Leader of the program was Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, a pupil of Mrs. Watson, who has often used many products of her china painting in serving refreshments to club members. A hand painted plate was given as door prize to Mrs. M. N. Kenner.

Following the question and answer period, Mrs. Brown served refreshments as Mrs. Watson quickly and deftly painted a rose on a plate brought for that purpose. Several Crowell women are studying china painting under Mrs. Watson's tutelage.

Next meeting will be clothing workshop to be held at the community center Feb. 21 at 1:30 p. m. and Feb. 24 at 2:30 p. m.

Foard City H. D. Club

The Foard City Home Demonstration Club met Feb. 15 with Mrs. Pearl Cox as hostess and seven members present; one new member, Mrs. O. N. Baker; and two visitors, Mrs. Doris Barl-Smith and daughter, Malissa.

Mrs. Bonnie Johnson gave the council report. Elected district THDA delegates were Mrs. Mary Borchardt, Mrs. Ruth Thomson and Mrs. Juanita Moore. District meeting will be at Breckenridge March 29. Mrs. Johnson reported each club would be responsible for an antique display in a store window for one week before the Foard County 75th anniversary April 30. Foard City Club chose antique bedroom for their display theme. Mrs. Johnson also reported on the clothing workshop.

Each club member gave some "home decoration idea" for program. After program, Mrs. Fred Traweck and Mrs. Glenn Jones were surprised with a birthday shower of gifts. Hostess served coffee and Cokes with Valentine cakes.

Next meeting will be clothing workshop to be held at the community center Feb. 21 at 1:30 p. m. and Feb. 24 at 2:30 p. m.

W. M. C.

The WMC of the Assembly of God Church met Monday, Feb. 21, at the home of Mrs. Joe Glover. After the opening prayer by Mrs. N. A. Denton, Mrs. J. M. Barker, president, had charge of the business session. Plans were made for the National W. M. C. program which will be given Wednesday night, Feb. 23.

Some letters from missionaries were read and plans were made to send money for the group's adopted missionary child, Starlene Spencer, for her birthday instead of buying gifts.

Mrs. Barker brought the devotional for the evening using as her scripture lesson, Isaiah 40:31 and Psalms 55:6-8.

Prayer requests were taken and the meeting was closed with united prayer.

Peanuts Spotlight March Plentiful Foods List in Texas

March is blowing in a wave of plentiful foods, says Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Spotlighting the March plentiful list are peanuts and such products as peanut butter. This huge supply of peanuts is a result of the 1965 record production of 2,490 million pounds.

Other plentiful reported by the U. S. Department of Agriculture include potatoes, prunes and prune juice, fresh oranges, rice and eggs.

Irish potato stocks on Jan. 1 hovered near a record. These huge stocks, coupled with a big winter crop, are creating especially large supplies. Bake some in foil for your first spring cookout.

Prunes and prune juice also are available in large quantities—a result of an above average California prune crop and a sizable carryover. Both prunes and prune juice can give that added spark to breakfast.

A very good quality orange crop is sending large supplies of these tasty fruits to markets, in spite of some freeze damage in Florida. Shipments are seasonally heavy.

The third week in March is National Rice Week—and 1966 has been declared International Rice year. Rice production has continued to set records, so look for big supplies this month.

The March, 1965, farm price of eggs was the lowest for the month since 1944, according to USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service. Although egg production this March is expected to be below last year, retail prices should be attractive to shoppers. Be sure to include your favorite egg dishes on March menus.

Computer Project for Cotton Available for Local Farmers

A computer programming project for cotton is being initiated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, effective March 1, 1966. Joe Burkett, county agent, said this week.

He stated that the purpose of the project is to assist farmers in determining the most profitable row pattern, or combination of row patterns, for the four levels of participation under the 1966 cotton program. The four levels of participation are: No participation, 12.5 per cent, 25 per cent and 35 per cent diversion. This assistance will be especially helpful to farmers using skip-row planting patterns.

The following procedure will be used in the computer programming project for cotton:

1. The farmer will need to contact the local county agent's office. Forms will be given to him, along with instructions on how to use them. These forms will be filled out by the farmer and will show his cotton allotment, feed grain base, conserving use acres, cotton planting patterns he would like to consider and his estimated operating costs and returns per land acre for each pattern.
2. The above information, accompanied by a thirty dollar check to pay for computer time, will be mailed to the state farm management office at Texas A&M.
3. The information will be processed and the most profitable row pattern will be returned to the farmer within one week after the farm management office receives the properly completed forms. The results will list the required number of acres which should be planted to a given row pattern, or patterns, for each level of participation. The amount of income derived from the optimum solution for each level of participation will also be shown.

"Since the results obtained from the computer is based on the estimates supplied by a farmer under a particular situation, the information should be very helpful to him in making a decision under the new cotton pro-

800,000 Texas Maps Being Printed by Highway Dept.

The largest single order for the Official State Highway Map of the Texas Highway Department is now rolling off the presses.

The initial order for 800,000 of the full-color maps is up 200,000 over the first order for 1965 maps. In past years, substantial reprints have been required to fill the ever-increasing demand from both Texas motorists and out-of-state visitors.

The maps are produced for free distribution by the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department. They provide tourists and Texans with up-to-date information on highways, mileages, lakes accessible to the public, safety rest areas, city route maps, and to distinguish Interstate, U. S., State and farm-and-ranch-to-market roads in the state.

The growth of the Interstate Highway network is graphically shown, as the 1966 map shows 521 more miles of divided highways than appeared on the 1965 map. The majority of this increase is in the Interstate System.

Over 22,000 miles of farm-to-market roads are shown — some 7,500 more miles of this type road than appeared on the 1965 map.

Safety rest areas are again indicated on the map by small green dots alongside the highway. Last year there were 914 green dots. This year there are 934.

The reverse side of the 1966 map is devoted to full-color pictures of various scenic attractions of Texas with the challenge to "Discover Texas—America's Fun-tier."

Postcards for convenient ordering of the 1966 maps will be available at each Texas county tax assessor-collector's office, and as Texans buy their 1966 auto tags they may pick up these free order cards at their tax office.

Free copies of the map are also available at each of the eight tourist bureaus operated by the Highway Department at principal highway entrances to Texas and in the rotunda of the State Capitol, and at all 25 Highway Department district offices over the state. Free copies also may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, Austin, Texas 78703.

Texas Wheat Growers Like Research-Developed Varieties

Rapid and dramatic changes in acreages of wheat varieties in Texas from 1959-64 indicate grower response to varieties developed through research. The new varieties have been made available through research conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, says Dr. L. M. Atkins, small grain section leader for the Texas Station.

The 1964 variety survey made by the USDA shows the widespread grower acceptance of the new varieties. Tascosa was released by the station in 1958 and the next year was planted in 1,043 acres. In 1964 it was grown on nearly 500,000 acres or 12 per cent of the Texas acreage. Growers like Tascosa, Atkins said, because of its excellent straw and tight husk which resists shattering. The milling and baking trade give high praise to its good milling and baking qualities and, adds Atkins, it is especially suited to production under irrigation.

Another Texas developed variety, Crockett, was grown in 1964 on 307,000 acres or 7.5 per cent of the state's acreage. But the most widely grown variety in 1964, Atkins said, was Improved Triumph, which occupied 18.9 per cent of the state's acreage. It was developed by an independent breeder.

Other varieties grown large scale were Wichita, Concho, Kaw, Milam and Quanah. The new variety Caddo was released in 1963. Its acreage has increased rapidly during the past two years because of its wide adaptation, leaf rust resistance and quality. It is rapidly becoming one of the more widely grown varieties, Atkins said.

As for the future, Atkins said new varieties in the near future from the Station may include a short stature wheat for irrigation and other high production levels. Extensive research on hybrid wheat is also in progress, he said.

More Children Are Staying in School

More children are staying in school longer now than ever before, according to a recent report from the U. S. Office of Education, says Mrs. Patsy Yates, Extension family life education specialist at Texas A&M University.

Nationwide, for every 1,000 children in the fifth grade in 1957-58, an estimated 710 graduated from high school in 1965. Increases in staying power have been steady, Mrs. Yates emphasizes.

For example, there were 621 graduates in 1960 compared with 505 in 1950, and 455 in 1940 for each 1,000 pupils in the fifth grade eight years earlier.

The increase in college attendance is even more striking: 38 per cent of our former fifth-graders now go on to college, as compared with only 16 per cent 25 years earlier. If these trends should continue, about one-half of the students who enter college for the first time this fall will earn four-year (bachelor's) degrees.

"This trend is favorable for the future economic and social development of Texas. With 4,024,000 children under 18, Texas ranks third in the nation in num-
