Wheat Harvest Totals Over Million Bushels

With wheat crop prospects never looking worse back in the early spring, early April rains gave the county's 93,000 acres of wheat a new lease on life, and with the harvest practically completed last week, the number of bushels brought to the county's three elevators totaled 1,026,160 bushels Monday morning. One elevator reported that it would still receive some wheat which had not been harvested.

The local ASC office estimates that 93,000 acres were planted to wheat this year, and with the over one million bushels harvested, the county made an 11-bushel average which is exceptionally good for this year.

In last week's issue, a Monday report showed that 498,000 bushels had been delivered to the elevators up to that time. Since most of the wheat had been cut by Thursday, over a half million bushels were cut in a 2½- or 3-day period last week, and even with the large number of combines here for the harvest, the big rush of last week found a number of farmers having to wait for combines to cut their grain.

All of the combines and crews and trailer houses have moved on north to follow the harvest as it progresses to other areas and other states.

Santa Fe Agent T. O. Ellis said Monday that the railroad had shipped 136 cars of new wheat thus far this year.

Foard Residents Asked to Help Explain Names

Origins of Several Geographical Names to Be Used in Book

Residents of Foard County were asked this week to help solve the mystery of the origins of several geographical names found on county maps.

The information is needed for a dictionary of Texas place names, including Foard and the other 253 counties, to be published soon by the East Texas State University press. Before Dr. Fred Tarpley, professor of English at the university, submits final manuscript, he is appealing to county residents for assistance in contributing information about several names with unexplained origins.

With the following exceptions, the reasons for the choice of approximately 200 names found on detailed maps of the county have already been determined: Belt Oil Field, Blacks Creek, Blue Prong Good Creek, Branch Creek, Canal Creek, Cedar Creek, Middle Beaver Creek, Middle Fork Wichita River, Mule Creek, North Wichita River, Pease River, Raggedy Creek and Thalia.

Dr. Tarpley, who started his research on Texas geographical names five years ago, has exhausted material available to him in history books, newspaper files, student research, and interviews with county leaders. He is hoping that the story behind the naming of the communities, creeks, and other geographical sites listed above can be explained before his book goes to press.

Information will be welcomed by Dr. Fred Tarpley, Department of English, East Texas State University, Commerce, Texas 75428.

Efficient Power Plants

The Voice. Anybody's voice. Your voice. It has a special quality and timbre all its own. But...

If it should become hoarse or if a cough should persist, find out what the reason is. Promptly. It could be a warning signal of cancer. And cancer is easier to cure when it's detected early.

Frank Sinatra knows the seven warning signals of cancer. Do you?

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge. 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere. 3. A sore that does not heal. 4. Change in bowel or bladder habits. 5. Hoarseness or cough. 6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing. 7. Change in a wart or mole.

If a signal lasts longer than two weeks, see your doctor without delay.

It makes sense to know the seven warning signals of cancer.

It makes sense to give to the American Cancer Society.

A task force of federal officials, in Austin for a conference on federal-state relations, got an earful from disgruntled state agency officials who complained of poor communication between Austin and Washington.

Gov. John Connally opened the conference by telling the men from D. C. that the federal grant system is characterized "by misunderstanding, disharmony and, in some instances, utter confusion."

Other state officials got down to specifies when the conference broke up into small groups to discuss intergovernmental coordination, health and welfare, education, water development, outdoor recreation, economic opportunity and manpower development.

They said they want to be consulted in advance about proposed programs, they want federal agencies to work through state agencies on local programs; they want block grants which would give state agencies greater latitude in tailoring federal programs to fit local needs; and they want specific, unconflicting instructions from Washington as to what is expected of them.

Since the federal officials had been through similar sessions in 39 other states, they took the criticism without flinching.

Tax Man Sam Sez

If you were a June bride, a December bride—during the year (it makes no difference) you may need to check the type of income tax return you file with your new husband. If your father provided partial support for you during the year that you get married and you are entitled to claim you as a dependent, you can help your Dad on his taxes. However, you must file a separate return as your husband. You can split community income, but if you a joint return your Dad can't claim you.

Apparel Is Main College Cost

Although tuition and living costs have increased this year at many colleges, much of the total college expense can be found in a girl's closet. According to Rheba Boyles, extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University, wardrobe costs for women were estimated by a survey to range from $200 to $500. Incoming freshmen generally bought more than the returning upperclassmen, according to the Fairchild News Service study. Most of the freshmen shopped at home, using the family charge accounts, and left fill-ins and fad items to be purchased in local college shops. Upper class women tended to wait until their return to campus because they were familiar with the local stores. The survey further revealed that the longer a woman is in college, the less she buys. As she approaches graduation, wardrobe content decreases and types of garments tend to be less campus-oriented in favor of clothing which can be used for a job.

What a Catch! JP Snags Bait

Recently a minnow bait dealer called the Justice of Peace in Holiday, a small city about 15 miles southwest of Wichita Falls, and inquired if he would perform the marriage ceremony for her son. He promptly said he would. Then came the problem of the amount of the fee. After a brief friendly conference, final arrangements were made as to the date, time, place, etc. The young couple were married as scheduled. The Justice of Peace was happy and able to go fishing well equipped because the fee was a bucket of minnows.

LITTLE LEAGUE NEWS

By Marion Crowell

Did anyone miss this column last week? Two factors were involved: due to the rains, only one night of games was played, and your writer was out of town on the week end.

Question (directed to all four managers): What do you do about it when your opponents are hitting the ball?

Answer: Two things—admire 'em and congratulate 'em!
Unpopular remark (umpire-wise) by the announcer: "If the good guys wear white hats, what about those three fellows out there in the black caps?"

Perhaps the United Nations Security Council has affected a cease fire between two warring nations, but I'd wager the cease-fire between Farmers Elevator and Crowell State Bank will only be for a short duration of time.

Weren't you surprised at the relative ease with which Foard County Mill knocked off VFW in two straight this past week?

Managers will tell you (and they're completely sincere about it too) that they'd prefer that their kids NOT hit home runs. (Lots of kids have been ruined in their hitting by booming one over the wall.) I noticed, however, that Richard Blackburn accepted a couple last week without quibbling or stalling. He was proud of the one Rocky Bachman hit on Tuesday night, but he "busted his buttons" when son Jackie blasted one over the center field fence on Friday.

My, it was windy, windy, last Friday night... and our storage room makes the ball do some pretty freakish things when the wind blows this strong. Guests must have been up around forty miles per hour, and I'll always remember tall, thin David Fish rarin' back to throw, then almost blowing off the mound!

In the Thursday night PeeWee game, I kept asking kids around me: "Who is this Mike Liggett?" (And that's the way it was spelled on my list.)

"I dunno. He's somebody's cousin," was the answer Willie Bachman and others gave me. Mike had good moves, made a great catch of a foul ball in the first inning. When the announcer asked for a hand on the catch, Fred Youree gladly honked his auto horn, and honked and honked. I found out after the game: Mike's name is Leggett. His mother's name is Maureen (one of my favorite people!), and his grandpop is Fred Youree!

My vote for most improved since start of the season: Terry Templen. (What a shame he didn't play with us last season!)

You can always depend on that colorful Latin, Peppy Hercules Hernandez, to enlighten the party somewhere along the line. Peppy is the only Little Leaguer in existence who ever gained 50 pounds on popcorn and Cokes (in one game)... Last Friday night Lynn Nelson was missing, and the announcer stated: "VFW is playing tonight without the services of their regular shortstop, Mister Lynn Nelson."

"Hey, Marion," shouted up Helpful Hernandez, "Lynn Nelson ain't here!"

Who wants to write up more detailed coverage of the PeeWee games? Would Bill Klepper consent to more-space-for-the-Pee Wees? (Yes, Marion.)

It took a lot of courage for Pat Norman to get back into the game last week after being first hit on the thigh while batting; then having the ball fired point-blank right into his face at close range a few moments later; he was back in the game later. 'Twas a painful victory, but nevertheless a victory for Pat!

Traffic Safety Program Signed into Law

Great strides were taken to protect motorists on Texas highways May 30 when Governor John Connally signed his traffic safety program into law.

The first of the series of bills, the Traffic Safety Act of 1967, provides for authority of the Governor to establish a statewide traffic safety program which provides for research and developmental projects and direct cooperation of state agencies. The act also provides for a Traffic Safety Fund into which all funds received for the purpose of implementing the act will be placed. Establishment of this act will enable Texas to receive federal aid under the Federal Highway Safety Act of 1966 which requires all state governments to establish safety programs or lose 10 per cent of the federal money.

Texas drivers' licenses will soon take on a new look by the addition of a picture of the licensee on laminated cards. Drivers' licenses for persons under 21 years of age will be provisional and a different color than those issued to adults. The color of the license and the picture will help liquor store operators determine whether or not a customer is a minor.

Drivers' licenses applied for on or after January 1, 1968, will be renewable every four years on the birth date of the applicant at the rate of $6 rather than the present $8 fee. A fee of $1 will be charged for duplicate licenses.

The Department of Public Safety may in its discretion require an examination for the renewal of a license. Mandatory license suspension for the first increased traffic violation has been increased from six to 12 months and subject to orders of state courts, up to 18 months for subsequent violations. Drivers whose licenses have been suspended or revoked or are subject to suspension or revocation will have to attend rehabilitation schools which will be established and developed by the Department of Public Safety.

In order for an applicant to get a drivers' license, he must be 18 years old unless he has completed a driver education course approved by the Department and is 16 years of age. Those who take driver education, however, will as in the past, be granted a 10 per cent discount on their bodily injury-property damage-medical payments and collision insurance by all insurance companies in the state who follow the prescribed rates set by the State Board of Insurance.

The only exceptions under which a license may be issued at the age of 15 are hardship cases and where the driver has completed the classroom portion of a driver education course and drives only with a licensed adult driver in the front seat with him. Previously, the minimum age for obtaining a drivers' license was 14.

Effective January 1, 1968, all motorcycle operators and passengers will be required to wear protective headgear which meets the minimum safety standards set by the Department of Public Safety. Any person violating the law is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, may be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50.

Another bill requires the State Department of Health to recommend, study and investigate policies relating to the medical aspects of driver licensing, traffic safety, and accident investigation.

The fee for inspection of motor vehicles will be raised to $1.75 rather than $1.50. Now on mandatory inspection checks are front seat belts where belt anchorages are part of manufacturers' original equipment, wheels, rims, and steering.

The Commercial Driver Training School and Instructor Licensing Act requires state police to regulate and license driver training schools and their operators.

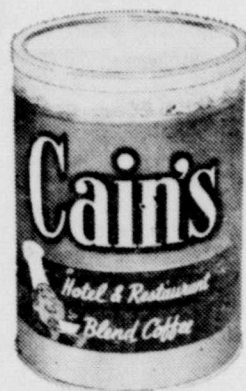

Diamonds of poor quality have been found in Nevada.

How Will They Spend It?

A new emphasis has been added to one of the oldest programs for 4-H Club members. The 45-year-old national 4-H Home Economics program this year features consumer education, according to the National 4-H Service Committee.

The reason for introducing the consumer section in the program is because of the need for more guidance in this field in view of the tremendous buying power of American teenagers, a committee spokesman says.

By 1970 teenagers will spend from $21 to $30 billion. This compares to $11 billion spent in 1963.

In less than three years, it is estimated that more than one-fifth of the total U.S. population will be between 10 and 19 years of age. The purchasing power of this young generation will exceed anything in the past.

Today approximately 13 million 4-H youths are engaged in home economics projects involving some purchasing. Most of the members are girls, but with the emphasis on consumer education 4-H leaders expect more boys to participate.

Their reasoning is that boys buy clothing, grooming aids, food, furnishings for their rooms, record players, records, televisions and radios.

Girl members buy the same things plus small appliances, sewing and interior decoration items. The importance of being informed shopper is further underscored by the fact that today's teens will suddenly become tomorrow's homemakers.

Club members who highlight consumer emphasis in their projects will be rewarded by Montgomery Ward, the program sponsor.

Awards are six national $500 scholarships, a trip to the National Club Congress in Chicago for the state winner, and honor medals for four top members in the county. Winners are named by the Cooperative Extension Services which directs all 4-H programs.

To help 4-H leaders and members carry out program goals, the National 4-H Service Committee has published a brochure entitled "4-H Home Economics with Emphasis on Consumer Education."

This educational aid will show 4-H girls and boys, who contribute a sizeable sum to the nation's economy, how they can get the most for their dollars.

Among things to do are (1) become familiar with stores in the community (2) examine quality of merchandise and services (3) check brands, labels, utility (4) compare impulse buying versus planned buying. The young consumers also are urged to study ads, take advantage of seasonal sales, and learn about cash, credit and installment buying.

Pesticides Can Be Highly Dangerous

The use of agricultural chemicals, especially pesticides, will increase as crops develop and insect problems multiply.

Pesticides are a boon to farmers if used at the proper rate and at the right time. But, warns county agent Joe Burkett, they are formulated to kill and will do that job not only on insects but livestock, pets and even humans can become victims if the materials are carelessly used.

Each container of pesticide carries a label of contents as well as directions and suggestions for its use. This label information should be followed to the letter, advises the county agent. Pesticides formulated for use on crops should not be used on livestock.

Unless storage facilities are available, it is best to purchase only the amount of materials needed for a particular job. This will eliminate problems of storage and disposal, says Burkett.

If chemicals are delivered to the farm before they are needed, make sure they are stored safely and out of reach of children, livestock and pets. They should not be removed from the original containers until they are to be used.

Pesticides are safe in the hands of a careful user. They were designed to do a job and when used for that purpose and according to recommendations can be counted on to give effective results.

Expensive

The American Gas Association points out that only one well in nine drilled in previously unexplored areas finds any gas or oil. And only one in 50 is a real winner, producing a large enough quantity to be profitable. Yet, drilling a well can cost from $200,000 to $1 million or more.

Former Crowell Man Completes 25 Years with W. T. U.

F. W. (Buster) Pape, a former employee of The Foard County News and step-son of the late J. V. Robie, long-time Linotype operator for this newspaper, recently completed 25 years as an employee of the West Texas Utilities Company. The story about Mr. Pape, which follows, is taken from the Electric Times, WTU's monthly magazine, whose editor is Jimmy Martin, also a former Foard resident, whose father, the late J. L. Martin, was at one time owner of The Foard County News.

The story follows: New in the Quarter of a Century Club this month is F. W. Pape, Munday serviceman, who joined WTU in 1942 as an engineer in the Quanah Ice Plant. Following seven years service at the ice plant, Pape was transferred to the Quanah Service Department where he worked as an appliance serviceman until his transfer to Munday in 1952.

More Murders Than Ever Last Year

"There were more murders than ever before last year. Crime was on the increase and seems to be this year . . . Last year only one criminal was executed in the United States. Yet in 1935, there were 199 executions . . . The idea seems to be spreading that capital punishment is not a deterrent to crime. But those who advocate its abolition have not yet come up with the kind of a substitute, by way of punishment, that seems to stem the tide."—Findlay, Ohio, Republican-Courier.

Wives Earn Quarter of Family Income

One in three, or about 15 million, wives earn a paycheck, according to Mrs. Wanda Meyer, extension home management specialist with Texas A&M University.

Half of all working wives earn about a quarter of their family's total income. About 40 per cent of total consumer spending is estimated to come from homes where the wife is employed. Nearly half of the employed wives are in clerical jobs or work in factories. Over half are between 35 and 54 years of age.

Employed-wife households spend fractionally less for food and medical care, but more for dressing up, home furnishings and equipment, and for recreation than the household in which the husband only is employed.

These and other significant characteristics of the employed-wife household are brought out in a recent study by the National Industrial Conference Board, says Mrs. Meyer.

Administrators, Principals to Get Salary Increases

By increasing salaries for classroom teachers, the Legislature also raised the pay of administrators, principals and counselors whose base pay is what they would make if they were classroom teachers.

Depending on degrees earned and years of experience, a classroom teacher may, under the new law, be paid anything from $3,132 to $6,912 for nine months.

With the same conditions applying, administrative personnel get the same sums, but spread over 12 months for superintendents, 11 months for principals and 10 months for counselors.

On top of the base pay, each superintendent gets a 20 per cent to 40 per cent increment, depending on the size of his school system; each principal gets a 20 per cent increment; and each counselor gets a $300 increment.

Under the new law, the lowest possible salary for a superintendent is $5,011.20 and the highest possible salary is $12,902.40. Principals can earn as little as $4,593.60 and as much as $10,137.60. Salary scale for counselors will run from $3,780 to $7,980.

Here's Advice for New Brides

Your Social Security record is a very important one. In order to insure that all wages paid are credited to your account, you should have your correct name on your social security card.

Edwin S. Draughon, manager of the Vernon Social Security office, had this message for brides today:

"If you change your name by marriage, be sure to correct your name at the social security office by completing a request for change in social security records form."

On receipt of this request, the Social Security Administration will issue you a duplicate social security card which shows your correct name. Your number will be the same as that shown on your original social security card but the name will be changed on your card and the social security records. You can then be sure that all the wages you are paid are properly credited to your social security account.

Postmaster General Has Good Idea

"The Postmaster General of the United States has suggested that the Post Office Department be taken out of government and converted into a private corporation. We have pushed this idea for many years, feeling that private enterprise, given the budget now allotted to the PO, would give twice the service, and show a nice profit doing so. There would be no 'free riders' in such an operation, as parcel post now is. Either the thing would make a profit, or it would be done away with. Antiquated methods of operation, antiquated equipment, and inefficient operations would be done away with in a hurry, and with the removal of the political yoke around its neck, the results could be nothing but good."—Hartford, Wis., Times-Press.

More Murders Than Ever Last Year

"There were more murders than ever before last year. Crime was on the increase and seems to be this year . . . Last year only one criminal was executed in the United States. Yet in 1935, there were 199 executions . . . The idea seems to be spreading that capital punishment is not a deterrent to crime. But those who advocate its abolition have not yet come up with the kind of a substitute, by way of punishment, that seems to stem the tide."—Findlay, Ohio, Republican-Courier.

Foard County Mill Increases Lead in Little League

Sweeping its two-game series with V. F. W., Foard County Mill increased its lead in Foard County Little League as Farmers Elevator split its series with Crowell State Bank. Again it was the pitching and hitting of Rocky Bachman and Jackie Blackburn that propelled the Cardinals further out into first place.

Details of last week's games are as follows:

Tuesday, June 6, 7:30 p. m.: Foard County Mill 8, VFW 2. The curfew ended this game after four full innings, after Tim Daniel's triple drove Jodie Haynie and Don Morgan across with the only two runs for VFW.

Meanwhile, for the Cardinals, Rocky Bachman hit the first home run of the current season (a three-run blast over the right field fence) to trigger off scoring in each inning for the Millers. Bachman also hit safely in the fourth inning, as did Bob Brown, and Jackie Blackburn singled in the second frame.

Tuesday, June 6, 9:30 p. m.: Farmers Elevator 8, Crowell State Bank 7. Crowell State Bank rallied with four runs in the fifth, but the Yankees came right back in their half inning to couple four bases-on-balls with an interference call on Rudy Rodriguez and an error on Reed Davis' fly ball to score three runs and win the ball game. Ricky Nichols' hit in the third inning was the only Yankee hit off Brave pitching.

For Crowell State Bank, David Fish and Don Ray Santos each hit two-for-three; Danny Johnson, Adrian Martinez and David Lee Booker each picked up one hit.

Friday night, June 9, 7:30 p. m.: Crowell State Bank 14, Farmers Elevator 13. The Braves were hitting, and therein lies the tale. Sixteen hits were blasted by the Bank crew as Don Ray Santos had a perfect night at bat with three-for-three; David Lee Booker hit two-for-two; Louis Lopez hit three-for-four; Danny Johnson hit two-for-four; and Adrian Martinez, Terry Tamplen and Billy Eavenson each hit safely one time.

For the Yankees, Allen Tapp hit two-for-four and Rudy Rodriguez, Phillip Bell and Ricky Nichols each garnered one base hit.

Friday, June 9, 9:30 p. m.: Foard Co. Mill 9, VFW 5. VFW rallied for four runs in the fourth inning, but it still was too few, as the Cardinals had scored four each in the first and third innings and one in the second. Big gun in the Cardinal attack was Jackie

$900.6 Billion in Life Insurance

Nearly $900.6 billion of life insurance was in force in the U. S. last year under more than 320.1 million individual policies and group certificates with legal reserve life insurance companies, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

Finally, the believer in Christ shall be delivered even from the presence of sin, for at our Lord's coming for us "we shall all be changed" (I Cor. 15:51). Believers should long for Christ's coming for them, not merely because these bodies of humiliation will then be glorified, but because from that moment on they shall never again be tempted or defiled by sin. What a change that will be!

The apostle includes all three tenses of the believer's deliverance in II Cor. 1:10, where he tells how God has "delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver; in who we trust that He will yet deliver." This is why he could write to the Philippians about his confidence "that He who hath begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6).

Some may not feel the need of any deliverance now, but we all need deliverance from sin and its results. Why not place your trust in Christ who died to "deliver us from the wrath to come."

There is a tradition in the Shenandoah Valley that only young courting couples can stir the boiling apple butter.

LAND GIFT TO UNIVERSITY

The University of Houston has been authorized by the Texas Legislature to accept a gift of 50 acres of land to be used as the site of the university's Clear Lake City Center. Friendswood Development Company, a subsidiary of Humble Oil & Refining Company, will donate the land, which is near NASA's Manned Spacecraft Center southeast of Houston. John B. Turner, left, president of Friendswood, and Dr. Philip G. Hoffman, president of the university, examine the site on a photographic map. The University of Houston plans to construct a $3 million building on the property in 1969 to serve personnel of NASA and aerospace firms, as well as other residents of the area.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Glorious Deliverance

In I Thessalonians 1:10, the Apostle Paul, by divine inspiration, assures believers that the Lord Jesus Christ has "delivered us from the wrath to come." He refers, of course, to deliverance from the penalty of sin. But in other passages he declares that we are also delivered from the power of sin. In Col. 1:12,13, for example, he gives thanks to God "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness and hath translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son."

This deliverance, and the glory of our heavenly position and blessings we may enjoy experimentally now, by grace, Rom. 6:14 says: "For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under law but under grace." This does not mean that it is not possible for the believer in Christ to sin, but rather that it is possible, in any situation, not to sin. Thus the same passage in Romans goes on to say that we should not yield ourselves as servants to sin, but to God, who, in grace has broken sin's power over His own.

"The medicine men of the U.
