Sheriff Dan Callaway urged today that all local residents desirous of obtaining a Texas drivers license or to brush up on the rules of the road, attend the special school opening Monday evening in the community center in Crowell.

The school, which is open to area residents without charge, will be conducted by the Texas Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the Foard County Sheriff's Department and The Foard County News.

Sheriff Callaway and the Foard County News arranged for the school with the Department of Public Safety officials in an effort to lower the number of unlicensed drivers operating motor vehicles on streets and highways throughout the county.

Statistics on file with the Department of Public Safety show a high portion of unlicensed drivers involved in traffic accidents in this part of the state.

"The only way we find these unlicensed drivers is when they are caught in a traffic accident, or some other traffic violation, or at a roadblock," Sheriff Callaway said, "so it is apparent that for every unlicensed driver we find, there are many we do not know about. The purpose of the school next week is to put safer drivers on the road, drivers who know the rules of the road and how to drive safely," the Sheriff added.

The school will be taught in a manner to assist those persons who have difficulty reading or writing and will also allow for those persons to take the examination. For many people who will be required to be re-examined to renew their license, this school will be invaluable.

Classes will meet nightly beginning Monday, Sept. 11. The hours are 7:30 p. m. until 9:30 p. m., Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights. The only expense to persons is the actual cost of the drivers license that they can obtain upon successfully passing the test at a later date.

Sometimes It's Smart to Act a Little Hoggish

There are times for giving to others... and there are times for looking out for ourselves; times when charity is appropriate... and times when there's not even spiritual profit in it.

One of the most common and least profitable forms of giving is the making of donations to the growth and prosperity of other communities... through unnecessary out-of-town buying.

Trade builds communities. Trade is the father of Prosperity. There is no other source of better jobs, better business, better social facilities.

Except when they're in real need we don't give to strangers the food, clothing and other necessities that our money buys... why isn't it also wise to keep for ourselves and our children the community-invigorating Vitamin $ that is part of the returns—to someone—for every dollar we spend?

Plant Materials Center at Knox City Will Be Dedicated September 7th

Plans for dedicating the Knox City Plant Materials Center on September 7 were announced this week. Donald A. Williams, SCS Administrator of Washington, D. C., will be the key speaker and H. N. Smith of Temple will be master of ceremonies. The dedication program will start at 11 a. m. A catered lunch will be served after the dedication.

Smith said tours of the center will be conducted from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m. and from 1 to 3 p. m.

Several hundred seed dealers, growers, conservation district supervisors, farmers, ranchers, city developers, sportsmen, and others interested in the plants being tested will attend. The center serves Texas, Oklahoma and adjoining states.

The job of SCS plant materials centers is to find, evaluate, and put into use better plants to solve varied soil and water conservation problems. Planting materials being used include seed, sprigs, and rootstock.

Some 850 varieties of plants are being evaluated, including legumes, grasses, forbs and woody plants. For example, about 13 selections of alkali sacaton are being watched to try to find the best grass to plant on certain alkali soils or on land damaged by salt. Five mesa dropseeds are being studied for use on drouthy clay and gravelly soils.

See Our New Grain Drills with Shoe Type Openers

INSTEAD OF DISC

These openers are staggered for trash clearance—like a chisel plow. No worry about whether discs are not turning and dragging trash. Much less upkeep in years to come.

6- or 7-ft. sizes—can make up in multiples of any size. Two of 6-ft. or two of 7-ft. fits nicely behind chisel or tandem disc. Three or more units can be pulled by themselves—fastened end to end.

These narrow multiple units give flexibility—to follow contour of land—for more uniform seeding.

Less overall width (no side wheels). Get closer to fence, down narrow roads, etc.

Can sow deeper—to reach moisture, if a dry fall—GET BETTER STAND. Good heavy press wheels are a part of the drill.

Stop by and look at these drills. They are an investment in the future as well as the present. The extra benefits more than justify the extra price per foot.

Nature Offers Best Materials for Dried Arrangements

Nature offers the best materials for dried arrangements, says Mrs. Virginia Ilseeng, county H. D. Agent, and now's the time to collect them.

Dried plant materials are ideal for creating designs for fall and winter with an outdoor or nature theme, the home agent says.

She suggests collecting grain, weeds, flowers, tree branches and driftwood and drying roses, marigolds, zinnias, pansies and carnations now in a box of dry sand.

"Place an inch of sand in the box," she said. "Carefully place the flowers on the sandy surface, and slowly pour additional sand over the flowers until covered."

Put only one layer of flowers in a box, and allow two weeks for them to dry. At the end of this time, pierce holes in the bottom of the box and allow sand to drain.

"Hang milkweed, poppy, yucca, goldenrod, strawflower and baby's breath upside down to dry," Mrs. Ilseeng advises. Place leaves, ferns and grasses between sheets of newspaper and press with flat board. Spray dried materials with plastic or wax aerosols for prolonged keeping qualities.

Not Working Out The Way They Thought It Would

"By the way, they report Medicare isn't working out the way they thought it would. Maybe this is a case where Congress should take a second look. It would seem now that they have a couple of years experience, they could come through with a better bill. Some are recommending the government change the $3 payment idea and allow the elders an amount on social security to purchase private insurance to use with Medicare.

Seems to me that I heard the idea before the existing bill was passed."—Eaton, Colo., Herald

Turkey and Orange Juice Are Stars of Sept. Plentiful

Turkey and orange juice take top billing in plentiful foods for September, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Every homemaker knows the value of variety in menu planning. Since turkeys are in ample supply, serving turkey is the perfect way to vary that menu this month. Attractive prices should be in store.

All kinds of orange juice are in heavy supply for September. Packs of concentrate, canned, and chilled orange juice are running ahead of last year's production.

Other foods reported in plentiful supply this month by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service are peanut butter, and seasonal vegetables. Peanut butter is a real favorite with the kids and blends well with other foods.

Most fresh vegetables will be in plentiful supply in September. Vegetables expected to be particularly abundant in most areas include cabbage, sweet corn, onions, cucumbers, carrots, green peppers and potatoes.

For good selection and attractive cost, shop plentiful foods.

Community Quality Reunion Honors W. L. Johnson on 81st Birthday

The relationship of community prosperity to the local newspaper cannot be precisely measured. There is evidence of a close relationship. A progressive community is likely to have a vigorous newspaper. A good newspaper is not likely to be found in a fading town.

Of course, the question of cause and effect may be mutual. Certainly, in some cases, a good newspaper simply results from its location in a city which is blessed with uncommon sources of prosperity.

However, there are perhaps as many cases where the leadership of the local newspaper and its advertisers have given new life to depressed communities.

No newspaper publisher pretends that his paper, acting alone, has changed the face of a community. He does not claim that he can even publish a good newspaper by himself.

The publisher offers a vehicle for community action and unification of effort. The community itself determines how well a newspaper serves.

The newspaper serves as a builder of a trading center only to the extent that local merchants recognize that a lively market is built with vigorous advertising.

The newspaper serves as a builder of cultural institutions on only when readers are interested in the quality of the community.

The newspaper serves as a leader in industrial and agricultural development only to the extent that other community leaders share the responsibility.

A good newspaper can help to make a better community, and a better community inevitably builds a better newspaper. — Ware (Mass.) News.

How to Appreciate the Difference Between Millions and Billions

"Speaking of 'billions,' we're all accustomed in this inflated age to reading about 'millions' and 'billions.' But do you really appreciate the difference? Try this one on for size: If the lady of the house goes shopping for 40 hours a week, spending $1,000 an hour, it will take her 25 weeks to spend a million dollars. If she followed the same schedule, spending a billion dollars would take her 481 years! That's one way to tell the difference between a million and a billion. Using her charge-plate, at the rate suggested, it would take her 158,009 years to spend the equivalent of the U. S. national debt!"—West Point, Miss., Times Leader.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Justified Freely

"Being justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3: 24).

It is wonderful to know that we sinners are not justified by praying, or paying, or saying, or sighing, or crying, or doing anything. We are justified freely, by the grace of God.

But this passage from Romans will mean more to us when we learn how the word rendered "freely" here is translated elsewhere in the Bible. The same expression is read in John 15:25, where our Lord, quoting from the Psalms, said: "They hated me without a cause."

Why did men hate Him? He went about doing nothing but good; healing the sick, giving the blind their sight, causing the lame to leap for joy, preaching good news to the poor and deliverance to those who were bound. There was no good reason for crying "Away with Him" and "Crucify Him." They hated Him "without a cause."

But in the same way we might ask: Why should He die for sinners? Why should He pay for their sins? He had done nothing wrong? Ah, it was in love that He deliberately gave Himself into the hands of sinful men, that He, the sinless One, might pay for their sins. He did not die His own death, for death is "the wages of sin." He died OUR death, paying for OUR sins. So, as men hated Him "without a cause" except their own sinful hearts, Christ has "justified" the believer "without a cause" (except his own divine love.)

And so it is that we can proclaim the glorious news God has sent us to tell all kinds, that His righteousness conferred "upon all those who believe . . . being justified by His Grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus."

September Is Better Breakfast Month

September is Better Breakfast Month. As children start to school, make sure they are prepared for the academic nutrition-wise.

Nutritionists say that breakfast should provide a fourth to a fifth of the day's calories and protein.

Statistics show that the teen-agers suffer from inadequate nutrition. Breakfast of adequate nutrition, of the magnitude of the two most common diet deficiencies in young people are often a lack in their intake of vitamin C, a citrus fruit at breakfast help take care of this requirement.

The necessary calcium is provided, in part, by a glass of milk or cup of milk over cereal.

Expansion of Four-County EOAC Is Planned

County Judge Henry Scott of Vernon was re-elected president Thursday night in a quarterly meeting of directors of the four-county Economic Opportunities Advancement Corporation in Crowell in which an Office of Economic Opportunities field representative called for a more streamlined operation of the Community Action Agency; raises were approved for EOAC staff members, and additional staff positions were authorized.

Other officers re-elected at the meeting in the local community center were Judge Garland Turner of Quanah, vice president; and Mayor Robert Kincaid of Crowell, secretary-treasurer.

The salary of Executive Director Don Ross Malone was increased 3.2 per cent to $9,579 annually and the salary of office secretary Mrs. Karla Wilkins, was increased from $360 to $400 per month. Salary of the field coordinator, Mrs. Bill Neal of Quanah, was fixed at $610 per month.

Board members approved a recommendation by Mr. Malone for creation of additional staff positions—a four-county Neighborhood Center Director at a salary of $500 to $600 per month, a control and management assistant for the central office at a salary of $600 per month, and a housing coordinator, whose salary was not designated.

Mrs. Wilkins, in a report on funded programs, reported a total of $104,602 in Federal funds have been received by the EOAC, with these funds matched by local communities giving 30 per cent in kind.

The grants received, together with balances as of July 31, were listed as:

Conduct and administration—$30,063, with balance of $12,167; Hardeman County Neighborhood Center, $14,715, with balance of $8,748; Cottle County Neighborhood Center, $11,440 with balance of $7,592; Wilbarger County Neighborhood Center, $18,407, with balance of $13,387.06; Northside Summer Head Start Program,

$3,714, with balance of $385.54; Harrold Summer Head Start program, $4,045, with balance of $341.66; Lockett Head Start program starting Sept. 15, $15,128; and 4-county summer recreation, $7,080, with balance of $5,081.

Mrs. Wilkins said that it appears a planned Licensed Vocational Nurse training program will shortly receive final approval. The participating hospitals have agreed to pay the LVNs $1.40 an hour during training.

No definite date for starting the program can be set until approval is granted.

Mrs. Neal said it is likely an "Operation Mainstream" program will get final approval shortly for October 2 beginning and asked the board to set up a screening committee for applications for the three administrative jobs to be available. She asked that the applicants be screened within the next 15 days. The screening committee selected includes Robert Kincaid and Jimmy Quintero of Crowell, Clyde Smith and Clara Colbert of Paducah, Manuel Garza and O. L. Thompson of Quanah and Peggy Williams and Ken Clark of Vernon.

Applications are to be submitted to the Crowell OEO or Vernon Texas Employment Commission office. The funding will be for one year.

The job openings are subject to labor department criteria. However, Mr. Malone said the director of Operation Mainstream will receive a monthly salary of $600; counselor-coordinator, $500; and secretary-bookkeeper, $300. The main office will be in the community center in Crowell.

The Operation Mainstream application is for $139,000 with 40 "work stations" or job openings in the four-county area. Job openings are for the unemployed or under-employed. The employee will receive $1.40 per hour. The employees will work under the supervision of county and city governments in community betterment and beautification projects. The employees will clean vacant lots, cemeteries, repair county or city roads and sidewalks, and other similar projects. There will also be remedial education classes in connection with the program. The counselor will be available for individual consultations. Mrs. Neal said the jobs will be mainly for men.

For the coming year, Mr. Malone said the office will apply for the following projects: (1) Neighborhood Center refunding in Hardeman, Cottle and Wilbarger counties with a probable one to be opened for Foard County; (2) Operation Mainstream; (3) LVN school; (4) Vocational schools for mechanics, auto body repairmen, clerk-typists, and household and small appliance repairmen; (5) Planned parenthood; and (6) three new staff members — a housing coordinator, neighborhood center director and management and control person.

In other business, the board voted to accept the auditor's report for the period ending March 31; and voted to have annual auditing at the close of the office's fiscal year, November 30.

Judge Scott introduced Jim Duck, field representative of the Southwest Region OEO office in Austin.

Mr. Duck made a report at the close of the meeting in which he reminded the board that the community action program is intended to be run on a local level with people deciding what they want, and in this to involve as many people as possible within the counties. He suggested that the board streamline its operation, and develop definite procedures.

Mr. Duck specifically proposed creation of personnel screening committees and setting up of permanent committees for personnel, health, education and manpower to go over the work program. He said professional people of the community who are not on the board could act in advisory capacity in their respective fields to these committees to consider application for projects.

Mr. Duck also suggested more frequent meetings than the present quarterly ones.

Mrs. Neal introduced the Neighborhood Center directors for Cottle, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties who gave reports on the summer programs as well as planned winter programs for their respective centers.

New Catalog Put Out on Federal Assistance Programs

"The latest piece of mail to come across the desk has been a new government publication, 'Catalog of Federal Assistance Programs,' and don't let the name mislead you, that is just what it is and it is, no small pamphlet either. It is almost identical in size to the latest Sears Roebuck catalog. . . . This new offering . . . has a nice color cover as well as different colored pages, apparently an attempt to make all the give-aways more palatable to the taxpayers."—Faith, S. D., Independent.

USE THE WANT ADS TO BUY TO SELL TO RENT TO TRADE TO HIRE

Austin, Tex.—With the tolling of school bells, some 2,598,000 students are back in Texas classrooms. Enrollment is 42,000 more than last year.

An estimated 122,000 professional people (teachers, principals and superintendents) are required in the 1,275 school districts in Texas.

Texas State Teachers Association reported a month ago that there were only 450 applications for 1,951 vacancies.

Texas Education Agency estimates $1,350,500,000 will be spent on public school education in 1967-68. This is a four per cent, or $55,700,000 increase over last year.

During the coming year, Texas will be spending $505 for each pupil. Average cost per child for 1966-67 was $479.

With an anticipated continuing teacher shortage, TEA expects an increase in the number of teaching aides employed to do clerical and other non-teaching tasks. Nearly 5,000 of these aides are expected to be employed over the state, compared with 4,317 in 1966-67.

While enrollment continues to grow, some observers have noted that the two per cent increase this year is not nearly as dramatic as the increases in prior years.

Grades one to six will enroll approximately 1,418,000 pupils and grades seven to 12 about 1,179,000.

CITY SALES TAX — A dozen Texas cities—including Austin—are rushing into special elections on the new one per cent local option sales tax which became legal on August 28.

Here's what the big hurry is all about: local levies approved in elections this month will be collectible January 1. Election after October 1 would not provide money in the till until April 1.

Thirty days' notice is necessary to call elections—either by order of city governing bodies or in response to petition by citizens.

First cities to vote on the sales tax will be Elgin and El Paso. Their elections will be held on September 27.

Aransas Pass, Corpus Christi, Electra, Henrietta, Nacogdoches, Orange Grove, Texarkana and Wichita Falls will vote Sept. 28.

Voters in Austin and Taylor will go to the polls on September 30.

CONNALLY UNDECIDED — Gov. John Connally returned from his African hunting expedition undecided whether he wants to travel Texas campaign trails again.

He told reporters that he may take several weeks or even months to make up his mind whether to seek a fourth term.

Lieut. Gov. Preston Smith says he will run for governor whether Connally does or not.

Other candidates said to be considering 1968 races are:

- Don Yarborough of Houston, a liberal who has opposed Connally twice. He may run for the gubernatorial post again next year.
- Former Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, who may run for lieutenant governor.
- House Speaker Ben Barnes who is ready to announce for lieutenant governor if Connally runs again and for governor if Connally retires.

NEW LAWS EFFECTIVE — Major new laws went into effect within the last week.

Among the most significant:

- "Medicaid" implementing act to provide free medical benefits to 350,000 Texans on welfare rolls;
- Minimum age for drivers increased to 16;
- Changes in the 1965 Texas Code of Criminal Procedure designed to strengthen law enforcement officers;
- New hours for Texas liquor stores—10 a. m. to 9 p. m. except Sunday;
- Eligibility of 10,000 non-citizens for old age assistance payments—if they have lived in the U. S. 25 years or more.

Should Take Close Look at Indians

"Any man who thinks he is going to be happy and prosperous by letting the government take care of him should take a close look at the American Indian."—Alamo, Texas, News.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Ross of Brownwood spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ross and attended the Baker reunion.

Railroad History Was Made in 1897

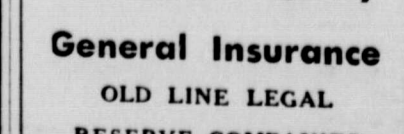

Railroad history was made in 1897 when a steam locomotive in East Texas was completely powered by natural gas. The first and only gas-fired steam engine in history, it ran for 29 years before being retired. Today, 50 years later, liquefied natural gas is being developed as a fuel for super-sonic transportation.

More than 20 thousand bridges are on the 68 thousand miles of Texas highways.

Peculiar Federal Projects
Don Brotzman, U. S. Representative from Colorado, recently noted: "More peculiar federal projects have been brought to my attention since I objected . . . to several strange scholarly research grants, including $15,000 to the University of California at Los Angeles for preparation of a dictionary of folklore, magic, and witchcraft. Now I find that you, the taxpayer, are also spending $5,000 for analysis of violin varnish used prior to 1737, $20,000 to study German cockroaches, and $11,782 for a social history of French medicine from 1789-1815."
