> All-state candidate, Joe Colbert, led his team in scoring with 27 points. Lonnie Hurd followed with 10.

The Wildcats trailed by only 2 points at the close of the first quarter. Billy Hord had 6 points and 7 rebounds during this period. However, Paducah stretched its lead to 10 points at the half and were never threatened again.

Scoring honors went to Lynn Rader, who had 18 points and 6 rebounds. Billy Hord was close behind with 15 points and 12 rebounds

Joe Ray Burkett, Charles Dodd, Bob Bird, Gary Cates and Gary Eddy are the other boys on the Wildcat squad. Final score 64-49.

The girls team lost to Paducah in their final game 65-27. It was an especially sad occasion for several of the Crowell girls. Seniors playing their last game were Cindy Erwin, Kay Looney, Mary Sue Carpenter, Ann Russell, Janis Whitley and Pam Borchardt. These girls had played basketball together since they were in grade school.

The Dragonettes were led by Mary Hart with 14 points and I. McGuire with 11.

For Crowell, Janis Whitley scored 18, Kay Looney 5 and Cindy Erwin 4.
