"What this county needs is a good general two inch rain" is a remark heard frequently around here all during the previously dry fall season.

Well, those who made that remark or one similar, should be satisfied now as a general rain measuring almost two inches fell over this entire section Tuesday. The rain began about 3 a. m. Tuesday, and by noon, had measured 1 1/2 inches by the government gauge. The rain fell slowly, and was touched off as a norther moved through Tuesday morning. When the rain stopped about mid-afternoon, the official total was 1.6 inches. Up to two inches was reported in the southeast part of the county.

Although the moisture put a temporary halt on cotton gathering operations in the county, the benefits of the moisture will greatly outweigh any disadvantages. This has been a dry fall in the county, and with this moisture packing wheat ground, pasturing of cattle on small grain crops will probably pick up in this area. Farmers and ranchmen were hoping to get enough run-off water from the rain to fill stock tanks which are low over most of the county, and some have even gone dry.

Judges named the top three in the sewing group as follows: Mrs. Amelia Aranda, first; Mrs. Wilma Jean Coleman, second; and Mrs. Laura Mae Niland, third. Other women who modeled their dresses were Lucy Ann McGee, Barbara Tucker, Elizabeth Swearingen, Jessie Morris, Dora Criss, Tanny Byrd, Eva Mae Neill, Brenda Joyce McGee, Ophelia McGee and Laura Mae Niland. Senior Class

Last week was a hectic week for the seniors. Studying for six weeks tests took everyone's extra time. Last Thursday, seniors had a big six weeks' test in English. The material which the test covered was English history. After Thanksgiving, seniors will have a major test over all the English history notes.

Report cards will be passed out this week. Each student will find out how he did last week on his tests.

Everyone, including seniors, seems to be looking forward to the Thanksgiving holidays. Some students will be taking trips while others will be staying home. Whatever a student does, he will be enjoying himself!

Junior Class

The juniors are glad that last week is over. As you know, it was six weeks. The tests were all moderately hard, but if I had to single out one, I would say English was the hardest.

Basketball went into full swing last week, and we wish to remind you to support your local team. Report cards were handed out on Tuesday—just in time for Thanksgiving!

I would like to pass along to you that no other information has been given on the whereabouts of the Blob!

Sophomore News

Last week, sophomores were very busy. Six weeks tests were given on Wednesday and Thursday. I'm sure we are all glad they are behind us now. Report cards were handed out on Tuesday.

Friday, the first girls' basketball scrimmage of the year was held here between Crowell and Benjamin. Sophomore girls on the team this year are Peggy Welch and Jacquie Gillispie. We are backing you all the way, girls.

The newly organized madrigal group has four sophomores in it. They are Kristi McLain, Mickey Owens, Peggy Welch and Pat Cates. Their first performance will be Nov. 27 at a special program at high school. Everyone is invited to come.

Freshmen News

During the past six weeks, the English I students have found a wide variety of studies under the main topic of English grammar. They have also studied various phases of narrative writing.

In reviewing for the six weeks test, Mrs. Bounds mentioned the following: the many parts of the speech, the conjugation of verbs, sentence form, sentence type, sentence voice, sentence mood, sentence pattern. She also suggested that we review sentence diagramming.

Dress Revue

On Thursday, Nov. 21, the first year homemaking girls held a dress revue from 8:30 to 9:15 a. m. The girls invited their mothers and other friends. Coffee, orange juice and doughnuts were served. Everyone thought the girls did a real good job on the dresses, with the assistance of Mrs. Mary Brown.

Special Meaning for Thanksgiving at Texas Prison System

The observance of Thanksgiving day at all the units of the Texas Department of Corrections will have a special meaning for the prison system's 13,000 inmates. It's a day that inmates can reflect on the many blessings they have obtained through the prison's accelerated rehabilitation program made possible from net proceeds of the annual Texas Prison Rodeo.

Following the close of the rodeo held each Sunday in October, it was announced that the 1938 series netted more than any previous four-performance season. According to David Price, rodeo supervisor, rodeo profits are earmarked for educational, religious, recreational, and medical services not financed by the state funds.

Although TDC inmates are considered the best-fed in the nation, special meals, such as turkey with all the trimmings, are served on special occasions. The Thanksgiving day dinner is made possible from the Texas Prison Rodeo funds as is the special Christmas meal.

Prison officials point out that without the Texas Prison Rodeo, inmates would have to do without the numerous improvement programs offered them by the Texas Department of Corrections.

W. Dee Kutach, assistant director for treatment, points out that the prison system is constantly seeking new methods to prepare inmates for a place in society after they are paroled or discharged. "These programs are costly, but as long as the public keeps supporting the Texas Prison Rodeo, we will be able to continue our treatment projects for the benefit of all inmates of TDC," Kutach stated.

Provisions Given on Registering Guns

Detailed procedures for registering machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, sawed-off rifle, silencer, deactivated war trophy and other destructive devices were announced this week by B. Frank White, regional commissioner of Internal Revenue for the Southwest Region.

The Gun Control Act of 1968 requires that weapons and devices of this type must be registered with the Internal Revenue Service by December 1. Mr. White said that copies of Registration Form 4467 are available at Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and other IRS offices. The forms are prepared in three copies, two of which should be mailed to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. 20024. The third copy may be kept by the owner of the firearm or destructive device.

Firearms or destructive devices should not be brought to an IRS office to be registered, Mr. White said.

Under the new law all firearms and destructive devices requiring registration must be identified by a serial number. If a firearm or device does not have a serial number, the owner should phone, visit, or write the nearest IRS Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Office and a number will be assigned.

After obtaining the number, the owner is responsible for affixing it to the firearm or device before completing the registration form. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the nearest Alcohol and Tobacco Tax or other IRS office.

Seventy-Eight New Firms Locate in Texas Last Quarter

There were 78 new industrial firms recorded in Texas during the July-September quarter, according to the Texas Industrial Commission in Austin. Source for the figure is "Texas Industrial Expansion," a publication of the Bureau of Business Research, The University of Texas.

Biggest numerical gainer in new industry during the period was Houston, with 15 new firms. The second highest number of new firms was recorded by Austin with 8. In third place was Dallas, with 4.

Several smaller towns also gained new industries, with Friona, Edinburg and Huntsville each recording two during the quarter.

James H. Harwell, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, pointed out that numerical gains are really only a superficial indicator, since even one relatively small plant may bring a large economic gain to a small community.

Haseloff said the hog weighed about 750 pounds now and is expected to weigh about 1,000 pounds when grown. He is three years old. Both Mr. and Mrs. Haseloff are Foard County natives and attended Crowell High School. Mrs. Haseloff is the former Miss Virginia Coffey.

Last Rites for Mrs. Dave Brisco Sam Powers Held Family Moving at Benjamin to Brownwood

R. C. McCord, Minister of the First Christian Church in Crowell, officiated. Interment was in the Benjamin Cemetery under the direction of Smith Funeral Home of Knox City.

Mrs. Powers died Wednesday in a Colorado Springs hospital after an illness of three weeks.

She was born April 21, 1878, in Sulphur Springs and was the former Miss Mary Waggoner. She and S. W. (Sam) Powers were married Dec. 2, 1902, at Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers made their home at Thalia and also at Crowell for about nine years after World War II. Following the death of her husband, she moved to Colorado in 1956.

She was also preceded in death by one daughter and one son.

Social Security Wants Quick Processing of Claim and Payment

When a person files a claim for social security benefits, whether it be a retirement, disability, or survivor's claim, the thing foremost in his mind is quick processing of his claim and prompt payment.

Jack Ashcraft, social security representative for the Crowell area, said recently that speedy payment of benefits is also the primary goal of the Social Security Administration. However, Mr. Ashcraft pointed out the law requires that certain facts be established in each claim for social security benefits. Thus, employees of the Social Security Administration have a two-sided responsibility—to see that claims are paid promptly, but in accordance with the law.

Mr. Ashcraft listed three areas that cause problems and delays in the processing of social security claims: (1) lack of sufficient age; (2) employees whose wages are incorrectly reported or not reported at all; and (3) self-employed persons who do not file their tax returns correctly or do not file returns at all. All of these matters have to be cleared up before a claim can be completed. It is very important, Mr. Ashcraft emphasized, that anyone who has doubt about the evidence of his age, or about his status as an employee or self-employed person, contact a social security representative before time to file a claim so that problems can be cleared up in advance.

Mr. Ashcraft will be in Crowell again on Dec. 12 at the community center from 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

TRIO OF TOTES—Make a simple tote bag from a yard-length of cotton for Christmas gifts or bazaar items. Vary fabrics and trim for unusual effects. At top, a bright yellow cotton duck tote is appliqued with a big button-centered flower. A shoe applique identifies a polka-dotted shoe tote, and a row of flower cut-outs tacked on with buttons offers another variation.

SEWING MACHINE ARTISTRY—Stitch a pretty picture to hang on your wall or give for Christmas. This unusual wall-hanging of cotton homespun was created by Talon's Department of Design with single fold bias tape and mercerized cotton thread. Flower centers are thread pompons, and the bowl and leaves are outlined and shaded on the machine with free-motion stitching.

Sometimes It's Smart to Act a Little Hoggish

There are times for giving to others . . . and there are times for looking out for ourselves; times when charity is appropriate . . . and times when there's not even spiritual profit in it.

One of the most common and least profitable forms of giving is the making of donations to the growth and prosperity of other communities . . . through unnecessary out-of-town buying.

Trade builds communities. Trade is the father of Prosperity. There is no other source of better jobs, better business, better social facilities.

Except when they're in real need we don't give to strangers the food, clothing and other necessities that our money buys . . . why isn't it also wise to keep for ourselves and our children the community-energizing Vitamin $ that is part of the returns—to someone—for every dollar we spend?

Next to finding oil on the old homestead, getting an oil lease bonus is about the nicest thing that could happen to you. IRS points out that an oil lease bonus payment will qualify for the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance. The annual rental does not. (The annual rental is usually $1.00 per acre). Most folks who have had a lease look forward to it running out without the oil company drilling a dry hole, so they can get another oil lease bonus. However, two lease bonuses are not quite twice as nice as one. You have to restore the depletion allowance that you claimed back several years ago when you got your first lease bonus as income, and pay taxes. Your oil was not depleted during the lease, and the law requires you to give the tax deduc-tion back. This is true regard-

Juniorette Workshop Held Here Was First in General Federation History

The Juniorette Workshop for high school girls in federated clubs which was held in Crowell Saturday was not only the first in Texas Federation history, but also first for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, according to Mrs. Robert Sexauer, president of the Santa Rosa District. She stated that the workshop will be featured in the May issue of the Texas Clubwoman, the issue sponsored by Santa Rosa District.

There were fifty-nine girls and twenty-one adults from Vernon, Quannah, Childress and Crowell registered for the event which was held at the First United Methodist Church. The workshop was conducted by the Sub-Junior Adelpian Club which was assisted by its mother club, the Adelpian Club.

Registration was followed by opening ceremonies in the sanctuary of the church with Harriet Halbert, president of the Sub-Junior Adelpians, presiding. The group was led in prayer by Rev. Walter Driver, pastor, and a welcoming address was given by Mayor Robert Kincaid. Renee Cooper gave the response, and the president of the mother club, Mrs. Elton Carroll, presented a greeting.

Speakers for the morning session were Mrs. W. B. Johnson, trustee and former president of the district, who talked on all phases of federation. Mrs. Lorraine Kent of Vernon, former state parliamentarian of Oklahoma Federation and a sponsor of the Sorosis Juniorette Club, presented four of the club's members, Karen Flesher, Patti Price, Kenda Phelps and Fran Crawford, in a parliamentary skit followed by parliamentary tips.

The first state chairman of Juniorette Clubs, Mrs. Bill Reasoner of Burkburnett, pointed out what other clubs in the state were doing and answered questions on over-all juniorette activities. She stated that the outstanding juniorette member will be selected from candidates submitted by their respective clubs at the state convention in May.

The last event of the morning was a panel of club presidents composed of Karen Flesher of the Sorosis Juniorette Club in Vernon, Deanna Allison of the Alpha Zeta Juniorette Club of Childress, Connie Long of the 1904 Juniorette Club of Quannah, Zerne Gafford of the Sub-Junior Columbian Club of Crowell, and Harriet Halbert.

The luncheon featured Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene, who is a former president of TFWC and is currently serving on the executive boards of both GFWC and TFWC. She reviewed the book of Chief Justice William O. Douglas, "Farewell to Texas." The book brings out the diminishing frontier of Texas, particularly the big thicket area in southeast Texas, which civilization is rapidly eating into to the extent that 50 acres every day is disappearing because of developers, bulldozers or the lumber company saws. Senator Ralph Yarborough introduced a bill on October 20, 1966, and again during this past session of Congress, to establish the area as a National Park, but no action has been taken. The TFWC president, Mrs. Henry Shaper, has declared preservation of the Big Thicket as a special project for her administration.

The founders of the Sub-Junior Adelpian Club, Mmes. George Self of Crowell, Arlie Cassle of Hamlin and Richard Ferguson of Seymour, were special guests of the luncheon. Door prizes given by thirty-two merchants and businessmen of Crowell were drawn and distributed.

The workshop was concluded by a dynamic talk on leadership given by Mrs. Sexauer. Her definition of leadership was "Work — work hooked onto a dream." She pointed out it was young women who organized clubs in the 1890's to do something more worldly than be mothers and keep house, and that these small gatherings united in the General Federation in 1891. That each one had a dream, and that, by uniting, they made many of their dreams come true, as women have powerful influence in the legislation of the states and national government. She cited laws, including the driver's education courses in Texas and the Pure Food and Drug Law nationwide that federated clubwomen have worked to get passed. In her closing remarks, she said she had and would attend many workshops and conventions during her tenure of office, but that she felt this juniorette workshop would be her most important of all.

Gordon Fish and Miss Adelpian Club West Wed Nov. 18 in San Diego, Calif.

The North Chapel of the Naval Training Center in San Diego, Calif., was the setting for the wedding of Miss Linda Kay West and Gordon B. Fish on Monday, November 18.

Mrs. Fish is a daughter of Mrs. Irene West and the late Charles West of San Jose, Calif. Mr. Fish's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fish of Crowell.

Ldr. Vernon, Submarine Chaplain, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked with baskets of white gladioli and carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, David West, was attired in a street length gown of white velvet and lace. It was an A-line design with an inverted back pleat with long bell sleeves. The dress was fashioned by the groom's sister. It also featured a fingertip veil of nylon illusion which fell from a petal point tiara of pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of white glamelias on top a white Bible which was used by Mrs. Robert Fish, and also the groom's sister, Mrs. Robert Shuit.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Kent Perkins. Her dress was of moss green velvet in an A-line design with a mandarin collar. She wore a matching headpiece of tulle, attached to a green velvet headband, and she carried a red carnation cascade.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Robert L. Fish.

Music was furnished by the Naval Training Center chapel organist.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Shuit, and husband at the Marlborough Plaza.

The bride's table was covered with a beige linen cloth, centered with the traditional 3-tier wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom on top.

The bride is a graduate of Camden High School and holds a degree in nursing from San Jose State College.

The groom is a graduate of Crowell High School and attended Abilene Christian College before entering the Navy. He is presently stationed aboard the submarine, the USS Sabalo, and left for Vietnam Nov. 22. Mrs. Fish will remain in San Diego where she is a public health nurse in San Diego County.

A Thanksgiving meditation by Mrs. Walter Ramsey was the opening program feature for the Adelpian Club which met at the club house on Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Mrs. W. B. Tysinger, leader, presented Mrs. Abe Watson, an art teacher from Knox City, who discussed china painting in the home.

Mrs. Watson discussed methods and types of china painting, after which she showed many of her own pieces and discussed the materials and methods by which they were produced.

On display were many pieces which were done by local china painters. The door prize, a beautiful plate done by Mrs. Watson, was presented to Mrs. Henry Borchart.

Gifts for patients at the state hospital were displayed.

Mrs. L. E. Archer and Mrs. Earl Manard were hostesses to eighteen members and the following guests: Miss Dorothy Erwin, Mrs. Lee Black, Mrs. Doyle Kenner, Mrs. Guy Bounds, and the guest speaker, Mrs. Watson. Mrs. E. R. Carpenter of Knox City was also a guest.

New crop citrus fruits, many from the Texas valley area, are adding holiday spirit to local markets, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, extension consumer marketing specialist.

Grapefruit supplies are increasing and price is decreasing. Oranges, tangerines and tangelos are on the market.

Due to limited supplies, apples are not inexpensive but occasional bargains are in sacks of smaller apples. Most of these are the right size for eating out of hand and are as flavorful as the large fruit.

Mrs. Clyatt reports best vegetable buys in carrots, celery, cabbage, cauliflower, turnips, rutabaga, broccoli, sweet potatoes and dry onions.

Beef supplies are ample, but she expects no price changes in the near future. Chuck and rib roasts are currently featured. Figured on a cost per serving basis, boneless roasts often cost no more than the bone-in roasts and are easier to serve.

Turkey prices are up a bit as demand increases. Fryers are featured in many markets as good protein choice.

Egg prices are on the trend again as holiday baking extra cooking gets underway, good values in large grade A eggs are available, Clyatt says.

Frozen Turkeys
Unstuffed frozen turkey be thawed until pliable cooking. Do not thaw completely frozen, stuffed birds cooking, say extension food specialists.

Thanksgiving Service

The traditional Thanksgiving day service in First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Thursday, Nov. 28, will include a period for testimonies of gratitude to God from individuals in the congregation. The service is at 10 a. m. and the church is located at 1825 Lamar, Vernon.

A brief lesson-sermon, consisting of readings from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook, relates gratitude to an understanding of God's goodness and love. The lesson-sermon will be read by the first and second readers of the church.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sirs,
Thank you so much for the scented coat hangers, but more than anything, thanks for helping make our workshop such a wonderful success.

Hard Work Pays Off in 4-H Awards, Visits to Chicago

Two elements are shared by four east central Texas youngsters who will be going to the 47th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Dec. 1-5.

First, they are all willing to work hard and well.

Second, they are all 1968 state winners in 4-H projects. Each was selected by the Texas A&M Cooperative Extension Service.

The four youngsters are: Shirley Dittmar, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dittmar of Pottsville. She is a freshman at Tarleton State College and state winner in the food preservation program.

Connie Mitchell, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mitchell of Strawn. She placed first in the food-nutrition program.

Bobby Williams, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams of Gorman and a freshman at Texas A&M. The program in which he was named the state winner was leadership.

Kerwin Stephens, 16, the field crops science program winner. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens of Comanche.

Young Stephens undoubtedly reflected the feelings of the other three when he explained: "Watching my father work and make decisions looked easy. I soon found out different."

And when Stephens and the others found out that to be good in a specialty required hard work, they all went to work.

To become the field crops science champion Stephens raised five acres of peanuts in each of the last five years, in addition to raising watermelons on seven acres in the last two years.

All that required setting up that her food-nutrition project involves more than working the nearby Leon River, no easy task in itself.

But the work is paying off with more than the trip to Chicago. Profits from the peanuts and watermelons are going into Stephens' college fund.

In his leadership project, Williams found ample opportunity to work hard. Besides involving himself in a myriad of other 4-H programs, he served as a leader of other 4-H members in beef, swine and livestock projects, trained 10 members each year for a 4-H judging team, served as vice chairman of the district 4-H council and served as a junior leader in his club.

It was as a junior leader that Williams perhaps learned best the rewards of leadership.

In helping nine younger members select, feed, groom and show 14 animals, he became frustrated because there wasn't enough time to "get everything done to perfection."

Too, some of the boys seemed to learn slowly indeed.

Then came the day of the show and his frustration mounted, as nothing went quite as he hoped. But then came the reward that changed frustration into "enthusiasm": All the boys' parents came up to him to say thanks.

Miss Mitchell, too, has found that her food-nutrition project involves more than working only for herself. In addition to preparing more than 1,700 meals as a 4-H'er, she has appeared on radio and television in behalf of 4-H and, as a junior leader, has taught basic nutrition to young members.

Too, she has learned that good dining is more than merely eating a balanced meal. As she puts it:

"Mealtime belongs to the family, as members come together perhaps relating their experiences of the day. Make it the nicest part of the day."

Miss Dittmar in nine 4-H years has canned and frozen enough food to feed a big family (or a small army), but much of her effort, too, has been directed to teaching and leading.

In addition to direct teaching of young 4-H'ers, she has given more than 150 demonstrations and exhibits related to food preservation and has made 45 talks.

Why does she teach? "I have been trained to learn by doing," she said, "so that now I can teach to do the same."

All the youngsters will take the expense-paid trip to Chicago as guests of major institutions. Miss Dittmar's host will be Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation, Miss Mitchell's General Foods Corporation, Williams' The Sears-Roebuck Foundation and Stephens' Amchem Products, Inc.

The State Department of Welfare soon will begin to spend their time trying to help solve the problems of people on welfare, instead of checking on their income.

A new policy was announced by State Welfare Commissioner Burton Hackney, after the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare decided to try the new system nationwide.

Persons applying for federal-state grants because they are needy will merely fill out a declaration form, and they will be accepted.

Hackney said states that have tried this system, and then tested it by spot-checking, have found that very few people give untruthful information.

So the time of the highly-trained social welfare workers can be spent trying to arrange job training or other programs to help get recipients off the welfare rolls. In the past, much of their time has been spent in a "policeman's role," checking to make sure that those who get old-age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the needy blind or totally disabled, did not have hidden sources of income.

Medical certification from a doctor still will be required on those claiming benefits as being totally disabled.

A pilot program has been under way in the Austin, Nacogdoches and Houston areas. It will be expanded statewide by July 1.

In a few days high school principals through the nation will get a letter from the Internal Revenue Service. Every year at this time, IRS proves that they do, indeed, give something away. About 750 schools in the northern half of Texas will order free teaching material for more than 100,000 students. Across the nation, more than 25,000 schools will order for 4 1/2 million students. Our nation's teachers, with the help of Internal Revenue's teaching taxes material, puts these students a jump ahead of the rest of us in preparing our income tax return each year. In view of their own experience, most of the parents feel that the young folks sure need this kind of learning. The parents also readily understand why the students make far less errors than their parents after the income tax course. In some communities they offer this training for adults. Maybe your memory of April 15 is still strong enough to get you to promote a little tax training for adults in your community.

JOHN WILLIAM CLOUSER

John William Clouser, a Florida mental hospital escapee, who has vowed not to be taken alive, is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

On the night of April 2, 1964, Clouser and three other inmates escaped from the Florida State Hospital in Chattahoochee and reportedly forced two hospital employees to drive them to the Columbus, Georgia, area. The hostages were robbed but released unharmed. A Federal warrant issued at Montgomery, Alabama, on April 9, 1964, charges Clouser with transporting a stolen car from Georgia to Alabama, where the stolen car was recovered abandoned.

A former police officer, Clouser was admitted to the Florida State Hospital in February, 1964, after being adjudged mentally insane. He was then facing numerous criminal charges and had earlier been convicted of participating in the robbery, kidnapping and beating of two theater managers. His conviction was appealed, however, due to a state error, and he was released and granted a new trial.

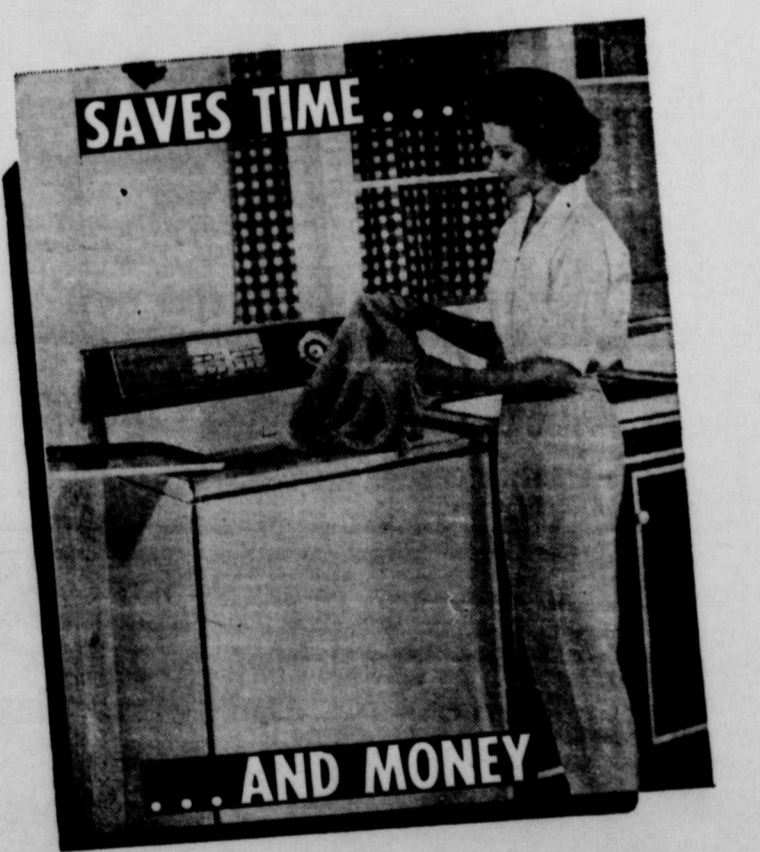

He is a white American, born at Chicago, Illinois, on March 20, 1922. He is 5'9" tall, weighs from 165 to 180 pounds and has blond hair, blue eyes, a stocky build and ruddy complexion. He is tattooed with a panther on his right shoulder and a heart pierced with an arrow on his left shoulder.

He is described as a sadist who would not hesitate to beat a victim to death, is an expert pistol shot, exercises and lifts weights regularly and is proficient in Judo and Karate. Consider him extremely dangerous.

Should you receive any information concerning the whereabouts of John William Clouser, you are requested to immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which may be located on the first page of local telephone directories.

Tiny insects, smaller than a grain of rice, have been responsible for killing 33 1/2 million cubic feet of pine timber in East Texas over the eight year period 1958-1965. ## Methodist Women Have Charter Meeting Sunday

The Crowell Methodist Church held a service of celebration charter meeting Sunday, Nov. 24, at 3 p. m. at the church. The purpose of this nationwide Methodist charter meeting was the infant organization of the present and future Women's Society of Christian Service. This organization is drawn from the ranks of the former Women's Society of World Service of the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the former Methodist Church, and is designed to accommodate the union of these women.

Mrs. A. R. Sanders opened the historic meeting with a musical prelude. Rev. Walter Driver, pastor, gave a talk on the importance of this women's organization within the framework of the church. He stressed the fact that it is a channel for women to use their talents for Christ and His Church.

Mrs. Moody Bursley, president of the local society, gave the call to worship, welcoming the women, and giving an alalogy of the bread as a symbol of the bounty of God's gifts. She also led the group in a silent prayer of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Ruth Kenner and Mrs. Bursley gave the presentation of the histories of the parent groups. Mrs. David Johnson read the scripture taken from Luke.

Mrs. Baylor Weatherhead gave the meditation on the "bread of life," which was symbolized by a loaf placed on the altar surrounded by its four basic ingredients.

Various women presented the ingredients ending with a relevant purpose for life. The ingredients were flour, milk or water, salt and yeast which symbolizes the activity of the Holy Spirit in the women's lives. "The vitality and leaven animating our lives as we understand more fully Christ's purpose and extends his love to all. Mrs. Iva Ballard gave a brief history of the local W.S.C.S. Inspired by her account, Mrs. Bursley, leader, asked each woman to tell her individual history of being a member of the society. It was a moving conclusion to the program and many nostalgic memories were recalled. Each woman gave a testimonial of the many spiritual values gained from service, and the inspiration to their lives that many of the older members, some of whom have passed on, gave them.

Twenty or more women pledged in dedication to their common purpose and to their tasks in the church and the world as they signed the new charter and received their charter membership cards. After the benediction, they were served delicious refreshments from a lovely appointed table by Mrs. Henry Borchardt and others of the Henry Circle.

County Federation

The Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs met at the home of Mrs. John Ray at Riverside Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ed Huskey, president, opened the meeting with a Thanksgiving devotional, followed by a reading, "Your Country," by Mrs. Grady Halbert. It stressed the importance of this nation's religious heritage.

The program leader, Mrs. Robert Hammonds, asked each member to describe the most impressive Thanksgiving day she ever had. The story of the first Thanksgiving was told by Mrs. Ray. It was in 1619 at Berkley House in Virginia. The house is now a museum containing some of the original furnishings.

During the business meeting, "pennies for headquarters" were collected and Mrs. Hubert Brown gave a treasurer's report. She also read the library report of Mrs. Veatrice Brock stating that $10.48 was deposited in September. There have been 22 fiction books bought at a cost of $62.08, leaving a balance as of Nov. 25 of $232.46.

The Columbian Club was hostess for the meeting and served a delicious refreshment plate to twelve members of the four clubs of the county who were present.

No Substitute

There is no substitute for the beauty of a natural Christmas tree provided care is exercised at the time of purchase and the way it is used. Bill Smith, extension forester, suggests an early purchase in order to get a fresh tree. Then store it in the shade and keep it moist by frequent spraying with water. Keep it in water after it is placed until discarded.

Two Minutes With the Bible

The Sins That Are Past

In Chapter 3 of St. Paul's letter to the Romans he declares that God has set forth Christ as a satisfaction for man's sin and that redemption is obtained by faith in "His blood," or His payment for sin at Calvary, entirely apart from works, religions or otherwise (Rom. 3:21-26).

But in this same passage he states that "remission" concerns the "sins that are past" (ver. 25). What does he mean by this?

Some have taught from this verse that when a sinner turns to God for salvation all his sins are forgiven up to that time and now that he is saved he is henceforth responsible for himself. But this would mean that God saves men by His grace only to turn them over again to their own weak and sinful natures. If this were the case, the converted sinner would be lost again the same day, for what Christian believer is wholly free from sin?

Paul rather looks back here at past ages and declares that we now know and proclaim that men like Abel, Noah and Abraham, and also like Moses, David and Daniel (who lived under the law) were actually saved by the redemption wrought by Christ, although this was still future in their day. In other words, Christ died, not only for sins which we have committed, but also for the "sins which are past." The believers of past ages simply believed what God told them then, and God counted them righteous (Gen. 15:6) on the basis of Christ's coming payment for sin.

We have the same truth set forth in Hebrews 9:15, where we are told that Christ's death availed also "for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant," i. e., the law.

How blessed we are to live at a time when God's plan of salvation has been fully revealed, and that we can now look to the Lord Jesus Christ and exclaim with Paul: "He loved me, and gave Himself for me" (Gal. 2:20).

Fresh fruits and vegetables in good supply at most economical prices include apples by the bag, bananas, Tokay grapes, oranges by the bag, potatoes, celery, carrots, cabbage, dry yellow onions, tomatoes, collard greens, sweet potatoes and radishes.

Tax Man Sam Sez

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue gives these statistics on mathematical verification of individual tax returns in his annual report summary for the fiscal year 1967:

—65.4 million returns were mathematically verified;

—3.9 million returns required correction;

—2.4 million were taxpayer errors that caused the taxpayer to underpay his tax. IRS collected $207.5 additional millions from these folks. However,

—1.5 million made errors in favor of the government, and Internal Revenue refunded $94.3 million to these taxpayers who had cheated themselves out of almost $100 million through their own bad arithmetic.

This may not prove that most taxpayers would flunk grammar school arithmetic, but it seems to prove Internal Revenue's repeated warning: "Check it again—carefully—before you mail it." That dollar you save will be your own.
