Austin, Tex., Feb. 25-As the Texas Conference of Churches came into existence today, it was announced that the first executive director would be a member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Roy J. Cates, Crowell native, will lead the statewide organization which was formed today by representatives of 13 Protestant denominational units, the 10 dioceses of the Roman Catholic Church and the Greek Orthodox diocese. All of these are in Texas. Most of the Protestant groups formerly belonged to the Texas Council of Churches which voted itself out of existence yesterday.

The Texas Conference of Churches was formally organized in Austin this morning at a constituting ceremony at the First Southern Presbyterian Church. First business session followed immediately at St. David's Episcopal Church.

Cates will resign his present position July 1. He has served since April 1, 1965, on the staff of the Texas Association of Christian Churches, Fort Worth. He is currently director of public relations and assembly.

According to Dr. T. T. Swearingen, TACC executive director, "The loss of Mr. Cates from the staff of the Texas association is "Mingled with this genuine repride that a member of our church will be at the helm in this startling new ecumenical adventure in Texas. The notion persists that we are joined in this by the Campbells, Ainslees, Garrisons, Willetts, Morrisons and their 'kin' of other days."

Jowe really care

Ever have a good radio program drowned out by static? A lot of the good in our world is being drowned out by the static of misunderstanding ... both in families and nations.

Static can be eliminated. So can the problems between people . . . when we really care.

William Henry Alton, C.S.B., an experienced teacher and practitioner of Christian Science, has some very practical ideas to share on this subject. In his talk, he will point out how - by caring enough to put God, divine Love, first in our lives - we can help bring peace to all mankind
