State Total Is 1.2 Billion Barrels

Foard County's Oil Wells Produced Total of 376,360 Barrels Crude in 1970

Production of Texas crude oil last year again hit an all-time high while additions to reserves continued to lag, according to the latest compilation of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

The state's oil fields produced 1.2 billion barrels of crude bringing the total for the past 81 years of recorded production to 34.1 billion barrels.

"Economic benefits from the production were felt throughout Texas," says Kenneth E. Montague, association president, "as 205 of the state's 254 counties had producing oil wells. It is unfortunate that more oil was produced than was found in Texas—pulling our reserves down for the third straight year."

Son of Crowell Woman Receives Master of Fine Arts Degree

Woody Roddy, son of Mrs. Chester Hughes of Crowell, received his master of fine arts degree at the University of Missouri in Columbia, August 6. His mother and Mrs. Paul Brown attended the graduation exercises.

Sunday, August 1, the gallery in the University Fine Arts building opened a week-long graduate exhibit featuring works of two masters degree candidates, Roddy and John Weinken.

Roddy presented one of his traditional landscape paintings to his mother. A 41-year-old school teacher from Clinton, Mo., Roddy is an ardent outdoorsman. "I like to paint my own world the way I see it," Roddy said. In his self-portrait, he places himself in an autumn setting with his hunting hat and jacket.

There is a nostalgic quality to Roddy's landscapes, some of which were painted in the Columbia area. He likes to paint old barns and houses. "Perhaps it is a tribute to the passing of the family farm," Roddy said.

Roddy enjoys the simple things in life. He likes to hunt in the fall, and he makes his own flintlock rifles. He feels it is more of a sport to know that he only has one shot. He frequently takes along his pastels and sketch pad when he hunts.

Roddy said he first began to draw when he was in the second grade, and his favorite subject was airplanes. About a year ago, he began work on his own biplane which he is building from a kit. "I'm going to get my pilot's license just before I finish it," he said.

Roddy has been working on his master's degree for six summers. He is looking forward to finishing this summer and getting back to Clinton to work on his bi-plane.

Young Medical Trainee Speaker at Local Meeting

Roger Aertker of Fort Worth, a sophomore at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, feels that he is receiving many practical benefits from a 5-week work program with Dr. Walter H. Stapp, according to a commentary of the new program he made at the Women's Service League luncheon last Thursday at the community center.

Sponsored by the Student American Medical Association, the voluntary undertaking is arranged jointly by the participating doctor, hospital, medical school and student. The Foard County Hospital—some 24 beds—is the smallest medical facility taking part in the endeavor designed to give the prospective doctor an insight into the experiences he may face in the future. The student does not receive academic credit for his time. Aertker stated local patients receive much personalized attention from the staff. Introduced by Dr. Stapp, Aertker answered a variety of questions during the program.

Hay hasn't always been only a livestock feed. During the Revolutionary War, colonials built a sturdy fort from 700 pound hay bales in one night. Come morning, British troops were amazed to see the imposing structure and abandoned their planned attack on the heights of Dorchester near Boston.

FOLKLORE—By varying fabric and trim, two different looks are created from the same pattern. Flower-sprigged cotton calico (left) takes on country-girl flavor with a braid and rick rack border on bodice and skirt. At right, striped cotton gets ultra-feminine treatment with Venice lace and butterfly ruffling trim. The skirt border is made from a wide strip of the fabric outlined with lace. All trims by Wm. E. Wright & Sons. Pattern is McCall's No. 2639.

Agriculture's Influence on Texas Economy

While all phases of Texas agriculture added nearly $10 billion to the state's economy in 1970, about 80 per cent of this total was generated from the manufacture and supplying of tools for production and the processing and distribution of agricultural commodities.

The remaining $2 billion consisted of values added in farming and ranching and government payments to agriculture. Cash receipts from farm marketings during 1970 were $8.1 billion compared to $3.0 billion in 1969, says Charles K. Baker, extension marketing specialist. Livestock and livestock products sales totaled $1.95 billion while crop cash receipts were $1.9 billion in 1970.

Baker adds that the total value of farm assets in Texas is about $29 billion including $27 billion for physical assets and $2 billion in financial assets. Real estate taxes paid by Texas farmers were just over $119 million in 1970 compared to a $70.6 million level the year before.

Agribusiness provides employment for 35-40 per cent of the Texas labor force. Farm and ranch operators or members of their families working on farms numbered 190,000. Hired workers on farms and ranches numbered 92,000 and were paid $250 billion in 1970. An additional 1.3 million workers were engaged in off-farm agribusiness employment.

The off-farm percentage has increased as Texas farms have enlarged, commercialized, specialized and mechanized. Baker notes that the rural population has dropped to approximately 2.8 million out of a total of more than 11 million, but many who live in cities own farms for revenue, recreation or other purposes.

Baylor College of Medicine Cuts Tuition For Texas Students

Houston, Tex.—Baylor College of Medicine, the state's only private medical school, will reduce tuition charged medical students who are Texas residents from $700 to $100 per quarter, L. F. McCollum, board chairman, announced.

Commemorative Sorghum Field Day Slated for August 26

A commemorative sorghum field day is slated for August 26 at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research Station at Chillicothe, says Joe Burkett, county agricultural agent.

Field tours begin at 9 a. m. and will feature grain sorghums from early research projects up to modern standard varieties; including experimental hybrids currently being tested.

Burkett says the tours will be highlighted by a discussion by J. Roy Quinby, superintendent of the station for 36 years, who will tell of early research and development of hybrids. Darrell Rose, grain sorghum scientist from the research and extension center at Lubbock, will report on current studies and future potential.

The formal program starts at 11 a. m. and will include addresses by Dr. Jack Williams, president of Texas A&M; Clyde Wells, A&M board chairman; Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of agriculture; and Dr. Rex Thomas, deputy administrator of the USDA Agricultural Research Service.

A barbecue lunch will be sponsored by Chillicothe merchants, according to Burkett. Tickets must be picked up before Aug. 23. They are available at the county agent's office.

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, after the beginning of the state's fiscal year this September, probably in the second quarter of Baylor's 1971-72 academic year. It will not be retroactive.

The new tuition charge, approved at the board's annual meeting, is the same amount currently charged Texas residents by the state medical schools.

The tuition reduction for the 1971-72 academic year is made possible by a $2.5 million appropriation from the 62nd session of the Texas Legislature. Baylor is also expanding its student body and will increase the number of Texas residents attending the college. Of 144 freshmen admitted in July, 67 are Texans.

Nationalization . . .

"Nationalization does not solve the problem of rail deficits, only the problem of who pays for them. Where the railroads are nationalized, the taxpayer invariably foots the bill, and the bill in the case of the United States would be a big one."—William J. Quinn, chairman of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad.

More Personal Bankruptcies in 1970

"More and more Americans are heading for personal financial disaster," observes the Monongahela Power Company, "despite the fact that national income is at an all-time high. Approximately two of every three U. S. families are in debt, and last year, there were more personal bankruptcies, almost 200,000, than at anytime in our history. What has helped bring about this situation is the increasing ease with which one can obtain credit, installment buying, credit cards, bank loans. This year the total personal indebtedness of Americans is expected to reach almost $98 billion, about twice as much as it was a decade ago and ten times the personal indebtedness in 1945."

Farmers only received about 67 per cent of United States Department of Agriculture appropriations in 1970. Out of $12.5 billion spent by the government under the heading of "agriculture" that year, only $8.3 billion directly benefited farmers by supporting farm income, according to Sperry Rand.

Two Minutes With the Bible

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

The last great book of the Bible opens with the words: "The Revelation of Jesus Christ," and from these words it derives its title: "The Revelation." In this book St. John deals largely with the return of Christ in glory to judge and reign.

II Thea. 1:7,8 tells us that one day "The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven . . . in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that . . . obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." This is what the book of the Revelation deals with.

But this phraseology is also used in Paul's epistles, for in Gal. 1:11,12 he says:

"I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of (by) me is not after man, for I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ."

Surely this is not the same "revelation of Jesus Christ" of which John wrote. St. Paul refers not to "the revelation of Jesus Christ" in glory, but to "the revelation of Jesus Christ" in grace while He delays the judgement, not His revelation to the world in person, but His revelation to and through Paul the chief of sinners, saved by grace.

In verses 15,16 of Gal. 1, the apostle says: ". . . it pleased God . . . to reveal His Son in me." What a revelation of grace to a sin-cursed world when God saved Saul, His blaspheming enemy! He tells about it in I Tim. 1:13-16, where he says: "I was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious . . . Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on Him to live everlasting."

This is why Paul says: ". . . it pleased God . . . to reveal His Son in me." By saving the chief of sinners (as Paul calls himself in I Tim. 1:15) God would show us that He is willing to save any sinner. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:13).

Tex. — Legislative Re-Board will meet here to begin consideration of senatorial reapportionment after the Board meets its meeting date. Gov. Smith issued a sharply-worded statement calling on the Board to start work on a Representative redistricting bill also.

Noted the fact that Atty. Gen. Martin's appeal of a court decision invalidating the 1971 legislative act which provides for reapportionment of the Board is not precluded by any eventuality of the Court of Texas. Gov. Smith may uphold or overrule the court's August 2 decision that the Legislature divided more than 20 counties either more than 20 counties, he said, the Legislature could be prepared with a plan to avoid the "million dollar" speculation of the Legislature.

Gov. Ben Barnes, a member of the Legislative Redistricting Commission, expressed surprise at the news. He said the Board has no decision not to consider redistricting, and, indeed, has not even discussed the matter.

Supreme Court Chief Justice W. Calbert said the court will meet within 48 hours of receiving a request for an hearing and can reach a decision in 10 days or less.

political subdivisions eligible for increased grants from federal government for water quality improvement.

Board said it expects 40 or 50 applications for assistance by October 1. It will act on the first ones at its meeting here September 16-17.

Local units can borrow 25 per cent of cost of a sewage treatment project from the state. Federal government will provide 50 to 55 per cent of the cost where a state program exists.

Halsey, Stuart and Co. Inc. and Associates bid effective interest rate of 4.9533 per cent for the issue.

18-20 YEAR OLD VOTE RULE CHANGED — Voter registration has, in effect, been reopened for newly-enfranchised 18-20-year-olds to permit them to sign up at any time prior to March 1, 1972, close of the voting year.

County registrars have been instructed to accept applications from 17, 18, 19 and 20-year olds, with registration certificates to be effective for any election held 30 days or more afterward. Young voters who failed to register during the registration period which ended February 28 may now present their applications to tax assessor-collector either in person or by mail.

They must sign up again October 1 or thereafter to remain eligible to vote in elections beyond March 1, 1972.

Camping Is Billion Dollar Industry

This year nearly fifty million Americans with their tents, trailers and sleeping bags will head for private and public camping sites all the way from Alaska to Florida.

The national camping craze has become a billion dollar industry. How do you account for it? According to Cotton Incorporated, camping, first of all, is fun. It offers freedom from everyday pressures like the telephone and freedom to go where you want to. If you don't like the mountains, you can drive to the beach, or take a float trip down the river. Another big factor is that camping fits most any size budget. There's such a wide choice of accommodations, too—from free tenting grounds to posh resorts with yacht basins and private air strips.

At a typical private park, a family of four can have a great time for about $10.00 a day including food. The only problem is that now there are so many campers, there's a real scramble for space. In Southern California, for example, some campers rent locations for an entire year just to be sure they'll get the site they want, when they want it.

In certain ways, camping has become too sophisticated. Some families own sleek trailers with tile shower baths, stainless steel stoves, air conditioning and cushioned couches. They wheel into a camp site where the first thing they do is turn on the color television. And you guessed it—place a long distance call on the trailer telephone!

Actually, when camping is done in such a high-powered way, it soon loses its appeal and challenge. It becomes too easy and you wind up with a lot of expensive machinery parked in the drive way with the family trying to figure out what to do on the week end.

The best advice is to keep it simple. Get squared away first on basic equipment and those extra items you really need. The most basic item is a tent—and today there's a wide choice of styles, sizes and weights. And colors—like avocado green, sun gold, sky blue, bright red. Tents put on their own fashion show.

The main thing about a tent though is the dependable service it gives. Most tents today, as they always have been, are made of sturdy cotton canvas. It's the preferred tenting material because the fabric lets air circulate freely throughout the tent. This keeps you comfortable and prevents moisture from forming and dripping down inside. Cotton canvas also withstands high winds and lashing rains, and has special chemical finishes for even greater resistance to the elements.

Besides the tent, the camper starting out will need cooking and sleeping equipment, a first aid kit, lanterns and flashlight. Then you can add such accessories as knapsacks, a portable icebox and so on. Take only what you need. It's hard to relax with a lot of gadgets.

If you want all the comforts of home, you might as well stay at home. But you don't have to prove you can survive in the woods either.

Remember to look for the quieter, out-of-the-way places to camp. That's how you get close to nature. And that's what camping is all about.

Where It Comes From

About 80 per cent of the nearly $10 billion added to the Texas economy by agriculture in 1970 was generated from the manufacture and supplying of tools for production and the processing and distribution of agricultural commodities. The remaining $2 billion consisted of values added in farming and ranching and government payments to agriculture, according to Charles K. Baker, extension marketing specialist.

Foard, Hardeman, Wilbarger

FUNDS OKAYED FOR
PROBATION OFFICER

Funds were earmarked last week by the Hardeman, Wilbarg-er and Foard County commissioners' courts to employ an adult probation officer for the 46th Judicial District, according to District Attorney Bill Neal.

Neal, who met with all three commissioners' courts Monday, August 9, said he expected District Judge nominee Rex Sullivan, Jr. of Quanah to name
a man to fill this position by Sept. 1. A salary of $10,000 per year will be paid by the three counties on a pro-rata basis according to the respective population of the three counties.

The probation officer, who must meet certain statutory standards including having successfully completed at least two years of college work, will work with persons who have been convicted of a crime and put on probation. His work will consist mainly of attempting to rehabilitate these persons and also reporting violations of their probation when these occur, Neal stated.

Presently, there is no probation
officer working with these people.
The sheriff of each of the three counties has been handling the office of probation officer for each county in addition to his law enforcement duties.

Neal said there are approximately 75 adult persons who have been convicted of felonies in these three counties who are now on probation. A large number of other persons are on misdemeanor probations also.

Neal said he is also in the process of completing an application to be submitted to the Criminal Justice Council in Austin seeking a federal grant to completely equip the probation officer's office and to pay a full-time secretary for two years. He said that the Nortex Council of Governments has indicated that this application would be approved by it, and it would recommend that the Criminal Justice Council make the grant.

"I think the appointment of a trained probation officer to devoted full time to working with probationers fills one of the two or three greatest needs we have in law enforcement and rehabilitation work in our district," Neal stated.

Annual Style Derby
For U. S. Autos May
Be Coming to An End

"The annual style derby for U.
S. automobiles may be coming to an end. Uniquely American, this system has meant extensive changes, or massive advertising campaigns to convey that impression, every model year. For many years the style derby has reached its debut climax in September and October when new models have been closely guarded secrets and curiosity about how each new car would look has been considerable.
Now, however, the high cost of these yearly changes, which often add nothing to the car's safety or mechanical merit, may be ending.
In a letter to Ford stockholders
the top officers of that company
... notified recipients that 'in future years we plan to change . . .
design less frequently and less extensively.' If this will enable makers to concentrate on practical safety and mechanical improvements, the change is welcome—
and overdue."—Ephrata, Pa., Re-

Substitutes Offered

With a touch of humor, Bill

the fine cultural contribution of

'can you see so many upset stom-

armpits, harsh toilet tissue, dirty clothes, bilious headaches, so much constipation?' We'll probably find our substitute in the pages of the newspapers and magazines where we are encouraged to drink more,
smoke more, buy sexy perfume,
expensive automobiles, high style
clothes, and attend pornographic movies."

If every family in the United States owned its own farm, each of us would be living on 27.5

Meaning of Some
Words Has Changed
Through the Years

"And, speaking of words, isn't it strange how the meaning of some words has changed through the years. Back in Mark Twain's day, the meaning of 'square' was one of the best in our language
... Then, somehow that good, honest word got bent all out of shape and its meaning twisted.
Now, the word 'square' means 'a man who never learned to get away with it. A Joe who volunteers when he doesn't have to. A guy who gets his kicks from trying to do something better than anyone else. A dummy who gets so lost in his work that he has to be reminded to go home. He doesn't fit too well in the current crop of angle-players, corner-cutters, sharpshooters and goof-offs.
He doesn't want to fly and pay later. He's burdened with old-fashioned ideas of honesty, loyalty, courage and thrift.' If you're called 'square' now you don't know whether you're a pretty good guy
or just a plain boob!"—Randolph,

For the Home
Gardener

Everett Janne, extension landscape horticulturist, suggests that home gardeners become familiar with the 1971 All-America Flower Selections. Many of them should be available through nurseries and garden centers of the state. This recognition, he points out, indicates that the flowers are new and different but does not necessarily mean they are better than some of the older varieties which have withstood the test of time.
They are worth a trial, however,
he adds.

The average person on a U. S.

personal income after taxes as the average nonfarm person in 1970. This compares with 77.3 per cent in 1969 and 74.5 per cent in 1968.

NEW LAW REQUIRES
RECORDING BRANDS

All brands and marks on Texas livestock must be re-recorded with county clerks after August 30,
according to a new law passed
during the last session of the Texas Legislature.

Producers will be given a six-month period (August 30, 1971, through February 29, 1972) in which to register these brands and marks and the location on the animal which they are currently using, after which time any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first-come" basis.

The law further states that all such brands and marks must be re-recorded every 10 years. Each county clerk records for his given county only, so many producers
may need to record their brands
in additional counties if their operations are extensive.

The owner shall have the right
during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the

Abraham Lincoln's Counsel in 1863 Is Still Quoted

In a column published in his company's magazine, Ernest G.
Swigert, honorary chairman of the board of the Hyster Company, quoted Abraham Lincoln's counsel in 1863 against socialism in its entirety: "You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by discouraging the rich.
You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

It is the obligation of the county clerk to assure that no more than one brand of a kind be recorded on the same location on the animal in each county. Therefore, no two people in a county may record the same brand in the same location. It is also the responsibility of the county clerk to make certain that in recording any brand for a person, that the part of the animal on which the brand is to be placed be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fineable offense of not less than $10 or more than $50 (Article 1486 P. C.)

The county clerk has in her office applications for the registration and recording of these brands and marks and the certificate of registration which will be given to the owner of the brand at the time of registration. Application will not be taken before September 1.

August Sandwich Month in Texas

August is sandwich month — time to plan nutritious back-to-school packed lunches and after-school snacks, reminds Frances Reasonover, extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University.

The number one rule in planning sandwich lunches and snacks, she says, is to follow the four basic food groups—meat, bread, cereal, fruit-vegetable and milk.

Peanut butter and banana sandwiches are hardy lunch-time treats. Peanut butter represents the meat group; bread, the bread-cereal group; and bananas, the fruit-vegetable group. To supply the valuable vitamins A and C, round out the lunch by adding a small can of tomato juice, an easy source of both these vitamins.

For growing children, add a cheese and tomato sandwich, made with a quick and nutritious spread of canned tomatoes and cheese, or just add a thermos of milk. Either cheese or milk will represent the milk group.

Lettuce and celery are also important sandwich fillers. They add crunchiness variety to mealtime, plus important vitamins and minerals. Be creative when preparing sandwiches and other sack lunch foods, Miss Reasonover suggests, but always keep in mind the four food groups.

Truscott 4-H'ers Hold Achievement Day Last Tuesday

The Truscott 4-H Achievement Day program was held last Tuesday in the Truscott community house. 4-H members giving talks at the program were Bkly Brown and Michael Daniel, Jerry Bob and Duane Daniel, Richard Westbrook, Rhonda Westbrook, Ruth Brown, Renee Westbrook and Jacquelyn Brown. Each member exhibited some examples of the projects they had carried throughout the year. Those exhibiting were the above named and Bernadette and Brenda Greening, and Christy and Tracy Shaw.

Jacquelyn Brown served as master of ceremonies and Renee Westbrook presented a gift to Mrs. Elmo Shaw, adult leader, from the Truscott 4-H Club.

After the program, a reception was held at the Shaws. Ruth Brown and Brenda Greening served the guests from a table featuring green and white, the 4-H colors.

Don't shake the cup! According to extension home economists, flour should be spooned lightly into a measuring cup, then leveled off with a spatula.

French Fries

If your french fried potatoes are often soggy and greasy, the frying fat is probably not hot enough, suggest extension foods and nutrition specialists. The temperature of the fat should be 375-385 degrees F.

Plentiful Foods

Wheat products are featured on the USDA's August Plentiful Foods List, and the hot August days offer good opportunities to use them in sandwiches. Other plentiful foods include peanuts and peanut products, summer vegetables—especially sweet corn, tomatoes, celery, and carrots—broiler-fryers, cranberry juice and sauce, and fluid milk.

More on The Strawberry Popcorn

The article in last week's paper about the strawberry popcorn belonging to Mrs. Clyde Russell reminded another reader of the News, Miss Dorothy Erwin, that she grew some of the corn in a home garden a number of years ago. Her brother, Jim Hill Erwin, brought two of the "strawberries" to the News office last Friday morning.

He said Dorothy planted the corn in the spring of 1962, the year a big hail crossed the south part of the county, destroying the wheat crop in that section. The hail also destroyed the Erwin's strawberry popcorn except for the two clusters which Jim Hill was showing last week.

Voter Registration Applications Accepted From 18, 19, 20 Group

Voter registration applications from 18, 19 and 20-year-olds will be accepted by Foard County tax assessor-collector's office in accordance with the secretary of state's ruling last week.

Secretary of State Martin Dies said Tuesday of last week in Austin that county tax assessor-collectors must register eligible 18-20-year-olds throughout the present voting year which ends in March.

This would enable the under-21 voter to vote in any election up to March 1, 1972. The voter must be registered 30 days prior to the date of an election in which he wants to vote.

It will be necessary for the 18 to 20-year-olds to register again for the 1972 voting year. That registration period starts Oct. 1.

Whipped Cream

Start with a chilled bowl if you're planning on whipping cream, suggest extension home economics specialists. Cream is easiest to whip when the bowl is chilled between 35 and 40 degrees F. Whip cream rapidly, but don't overwhip.

Milk in Baking

Buttermilk and home-soured milk can be used interchangeably in baking, remind extension foods and nutrition specialists. If a recipe calls for sour milk or buttermilk, you can prepare the amount you need from sweet milk by adding one tablespoon vinegar for each cup of milk, then letting the mixture stand 5 minutes.

New Course to Be Offered at Texas Tech University

Lubbock—"Herein lies the tragedy of the age: not that men are poor—all men know something of poverty; not that men are wicked,—who is good? not that men are ignorant,—what is Truth? Nay, but that men know so little of men."

These words are notable first because they comprise a succinct gem of contemporary social comment, and secondly because they were written by a black man.

Taken from "The Souls of Black Folk" by W. E. B. DuBois, this quote is indicative of an acute social consciousness to be found in black literature, according to Dr. Walter McDonald of the Texas Tech University English Department faculty.

It is indicative also, says Dr. McDonald, of a rapidly expanding resource of articulate and meaningful literary expression which would deserve serious critical consideration regardless of any ethnic or racial ties.

From "The Negro Writer and His Roots" by another black author, Jay Saunders Redding: "The writer's ultimate purpose is to use his gifts to develop man's awareness of himself so that he, man, can become a better instrument for living together with other men."

Through a new addition to Texas Tech's English department curriculum this fall, students will be able to examine more closely the "gifts" of the black writer and his contribution to contemporary literature in all genres including novels, essays, short stories, poetry and drama.

The course, English 3310: Contemporary Black Literature, will become an elective within Tech's Ethnic Studies Program, an interdisciplinary approach which leads to an 18-hour minor in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Two Accidents Are Investigated in County During July

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Foard County during the month of July, according to Sgt. Jack Therwanger, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and four persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1971 shows a total of 14 accidents resulting in one person killed, and six persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for July, 1971, shows a total of 564 accidents resulting in 38 persons killed and 324 persons injured. This was 40 more accidents, 28 more fatalities and 38 more injured than during June.

The 38 traffic deaths for the month of July, 1971, occurred in the following counties: Wise, 8; Donley, 5; Wheeler, 4; Lamb and Wichita, 3 each; Oldham, Clay, and Lubbock, 2 each; Deaf Smith, Hall, Parmer, Potter, Archer, Dickens, King, Palo Pinto, and Young, 1 each.

The 38 traffic fatalities in July have been the most that have been recorded during any month of 1971.

NEW JURY LAW NOW IN EFFECT

A revised civil statute which became effective this month will mean more jury duty traffic and more persons serving as jurors.

The new law states that jury wheels will contain only the names on the voter registration list from all precincts in the county. A juror must be a citizen of the state and of the county in which he is to serve and be qualified under the constitution and laws to vote in said county.

Another section has been amended to read "once a prospective juror has been removed from a jury panel . . . for any reason, he shall be immediately dismissed from jury service and shall not be placed on another jury panel until his name is returned to the jury wheel and drawn again as a prospective juror."

The new article on jury service states that all competent jurors are liable to jury service, except (1) all persons over 65 years of age and (2) all females who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of 10 will be the only persons excused from jury duty.

The previous article on jury service excused ministers, physicians, dentists, veterinarians, chiropractors, optometrists, attorneys, some railroad employees, National Guardsmen on active duty, firemen in small towns, nurses, morticians, pharmacists, agents and patrolmen engaged in forestry protection work, and all teachers.

Under the new law, the court may hear any reasonable sworn excuse of a juror, and may release him entirely or until some other day of the term; provided, however, the court shall not excuse any juror for economic reasons unless all parties of record are present and approve such excuse.

The new changes will involve more citizens as jurors as the same persons will not immediately become eligible for service in another approaching trial.

Even with the use of modern pesticides, the average annual loss of crop and livestock production in the U. S. caused by major pests is 33 per cent of the potential or over $14 billion each year. Without pesticides, total crop and livestock production would be cut another 30 per cent.

Texas Legislative Service.
S. B. No. 249
As finally passed and sent to the Governor.

AN ACT
relating to the recording and re-recording of livestock brands and marks; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
Section 1. (a) This Act shall apply to every county in this State. In all the counties, each owner of any livestock mentioned in Chapter 1 of Title 121 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 shall within six months after this Act takes effect, have his mark and brand for such stock recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county. These owners shall record the marks and brands whether the brands and marks have been previously recorded or not.

(b) The owner shall have the right to have his mark and brand recorded in his name who according to the present records of the county first recorded the brand and mark in the county, or in event it can not be ascertained from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

(c) After the expiration of six months from the taking effect of this Act, all records of marks and brands now in existence in the county shall no longer have any force or effect and after the expiration of six months, only the records made after this Act takes effect shall be examined or considered in recording marks and brands in the county.

(d) Immediately upon the taking effect of this Act, the county clerk of the county shall have this Act published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of thirty days. The publication shall be paid for by the county out of the general county fund.

Sec. 2. All clerks in reregistering brands shall comply with Articles 6890 through 6899, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and with Section 1, Chapter 273, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1929, as amended (Article 6899a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and shall also be aware of and comply with Articles 1484, 1485 and 1486 of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 3. All brands and marks registered under the provisions of this Act shall be reregistered every 10 years in the manner prescribed in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 4. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendar in both Houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended; and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Lieutenant Governor,
Speaker of the House.
I hereby certify that S. B. No. 249 passed the Senate on April 15, 1971, by the following vote: Yeas 31, Nays 0; May 21, 1971, Senate concurred in House amendment by a viva voce vote.

Secretary of the Senate.
I hereby certify that S. B. No. 249 passed the House on May 6, 1971, with amendment, by a nonrecord vote.

Chief Clerk of the House.
(This Act is now Article 6899j of Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes.) 7-4tc

33 Million Barrels Of Oil Everyday

Fred L. Hartley, president and chief executive officer of the Union Oil Company of California comments that America has long been the world's leader in the abundant use of large quantities of energy. Americans have, in fact, craved a highly material and comfort-oriented standard of living. With six per cent of the world's population, our country consumes more than 33 per cent of the world's commercial energy. This nation's total energy use, expressed in our common terms of crude oil, now exceeds the equivalent of 33 million barrels of oil everyday.
