Correction

The News erroneously reported in last week's edition that the price of swimming pool tickets for students was raised by the board from 25c to 50c. This is incorrect: the board raised the price from 25c to 35c. Adult tickets are 50 cents.

Forty-four interested residents of Foard County gathered at the community center in Crowell Thursday morning of last week and enthusiastically expressed their support of the organization of the Foard County Development Corporation.

Although no dues were set, some sort of assessment will be made so that the organization will have money to operate with and some funds with which to help lure industry to the county.

It was an introductory meeting relative to the organization of the non-profit corporation, but it sounded more like a Foard County pep rally as person after person expressed his pleasure at living here and pledging support to assist in any way they can to help the county grow and prosper.

Henry Black, this county's leading civic promoter, served as master of ceremonies for the meeting and told the group that Crowell's population dropped from 1703 in 1960 to 1300 in 1970, and if this downward trend in population is stopped, it is the residents of the county who will have to do it. He said it's never too late, and he expressed optimism that with the wholehearted cooperation of all county residents, this turn-around can be accomplished and the out-migration of people can be made into an in-migration.

He introduced Joe Meador, Texas Office of Economic Opportunity executive, and a 14-year veteran of Chamber of Commerce work, who said "Crowell is a fine place to live. If you don't believe it then leave it."

He said that the development corporation as proposed would be "a community workshop where men and women get together to work to develop a better business climate and to make a better place in which to rear our children."

Felix Taylor, executive director of the EOAC in this area, told the group that when local officials contact agencies about funds to help the area, the first question asked is "What are you doing for yourself?" On most of the programs, at least a 20 per cent contribution by the local community is needed before assistance is given, and this proposed organization would give funds for such purposes. "Do we have people that care?" Mr. Taylor asked.

Enthusiastic support for the proposed organization was expressed publicly by Guy Todd.

1,166 Foard County Residents Eligible to Vote May 6th

Final figures compiled by Mrs. Fred Borchardt, office deputy for Sheriff Edward Howard's tax assessor-collector's office, show that 1,166 Foard County residents registered to vote by April 5, and are therefore eligible to cast ballots in the first primary set for May 6.

The county registration of 1,166 registered exceeds the 1,005 quota as set for Foard County by the Texas Democratic Party. This quota was part of a statewide voter registration campaign called "Operation Everybody!"

Mrs. Borchardt also reported that 1,598 vehicles had been registered for 1972 license plates up to last Thursday afternoon.

Sheriff's Office Also Reports 1,598 Vehicles Registered

Enthusiastic support for the proposed organization was expressed publicly by Guy Todd.

Cancer Fund Drive Will Start April 18

The annual Cancer Crusade fund drive will begin in Foard County, at 9:30 a. m., Tuesday, April 18. This announcement was made Tuesday by Mmes. Jim Mac Gafford and Larry Jones, co-chairmen of the campaign.

Mrs. Gafford said that volunteer workers had been contacted and they will meet in the basement of First Baptist Church next Tuesday to begin the drive.

Full cooperation of all Foard County residents will be appreciated by the workers.

Veterinarian to Be in Crowell Saturday

Foard County residents are reminded this week by City of Crowell officials that Dr. Roger Lacy, Vernon veterinarian, will be at the Scout house here Saturday, April 15, to vaccinate dogs. He will also be here on April 29 for the same purpose.

Mrs. Wilma Cates, City secretary, has announced that the City Council has passed an ordinance requiring that after April 29, all dogs in the city limits found without vaccination tags will be destroyed.

We're Off to a Fine Start . . .

Crowell and Foard County had a "pep rally" here last Thursday morning—one that with the full cooperation of all Foard County residents, could be the turning point in the decline of this county and start a rebuilding of this town and county.

At this pep rally Thursday, young men expressed their pleasure at being able to live in a small town and rear their children in a different atmosphere than that found in the city. Older men expressed their wholehearted cooperation to a project that could eventually change this from a dwindling, dying community to one where jobs are available for those who want them.

We who have lived here for many years, probably fail to appreciate what we really do have. As Joe Meador said last week, "If you don't think this is a great place to live, then leave." Mr. Meador was pointing out that only after we leave can we look back and see what advantages there were in living in towns such as Crowell.

We must all put aside our personal prejudices, look at our neighbors and be glad they live here too and every one work together with a dedicated determination to make Crowell and Foard County a better place to live. We have stood by and watched as deterioration has taken its toll. It's time we quit standing around and watching and get busy!

Program Started to Aid Cotton Farmers' Profits

A coordinated program at increasing yields and for cotton growers was announced last week by Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz and F. Youngker, president of the National Cotton Council.

I pointing up the need of the program, the U. S. Department of Agriculture noted cotton stocks at the end of 1971-72 season on July 1, expected to be the lowest in years and will constitute a four-month supply. Mr. Youngker, a Buckeye cotton grower, stressed the stakes involved in assuring a continuous supply for cotton customers are tremendous and pointed out that the strong demand for textiles all over the world.

He noted that if cotton in recent seasons had just edged the same as in 1964, production costs would have declined instead of increasing 3 1/2 per pound. He said the campaign is much toward advancing practices and handling to "insure preservation of quality inherent in the cotton of cotton we grow."

Grapefruit by Air to Europe

Recently the first air shipment of Texas ruby red grapefruit reached Europe. The ruby reds are selling side-by-side with grapefruit from Israel and are outselling the competition even at four cents more each, reports Gordon Powell, extension fruit and vegetable marketing specialist. Shipment was made via the British Overseas Airline Corporation (BOAC) from New York at 18 cents per pound. The total shipment was 2,100 cartons or 85,000 pounds. Future air shipments are anticipated.

Two Minutes With the Bible

No Time for God
Those who have no time for God should consider what their circumstances would be if He had no time for them; no time to paint the sunsets, no time to send the warm sun's rays or the refreshing showers, no time to make the crops and flowers grow. We doubt that any thinking person would actually want nothing to do with God.
Cain despised God's authority and finally murdered his brother, but when he was driven from the presence of God he said: "My punishment is greater than I can bear" (Gen. 4:13).
One of the saddest sentences in the gospel records is our Lord's prediction that He would say to some: "Depart from Me, I never knew you, ye workers of iniquity" (Matt. 7:23).
Just what it will mean to be "cast into the lake of fire" (Rev. 20:15) we pray God none of our readers will ever find out, but the Scriptures do clearly indicate that those involved will be cast forever out of the presence of God.
Thank God, it is not He who desires this. He paid for our sins at Calvary to reconcile us to Himself (Eph. 2:16). St. Paul declares that God has called believers "into the fellowship of His Son" (I Cor. 1:9) and that at His coming for them they shall "ever be with the Lord," adding: "wherefore, comfort one another with these words" (I Thes. 4:17,18).
"Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (II Cor. 5:20).
God has demonstrated His love for us in Christ. Why not respond by gratefully trusting Christ as your Savior?

Cotton Growers Plan Meetings During April

With their 1972 planting in mind, cotton growers will be in meetings this month throughout the Rolling Plains. Three production meetings, all aimed at increasing net profit from cotton, are scheduled as follows:

April 19, in high school auditorium at Stamford; April 20 in city auditorium at Childress, and April 25 in Nolan County coliseum annex at Sweetwater.

Sponsored by the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Inc. and the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP), all the meetings begin at 1:15 p. m. and end at 4:30.

The advantages of narrow-row cotton production in the Rolling Plains? These, as well as the boll weevil diapause program and other methods of controlling other cotton insects, the value of planting quality seed, a new method of handling seed cotton, and the forward contracting of cotton, will be discussed by specialists whose knowledge is recognized throughout the Cotton Belt.

The R-PEP Task Force for Cotton has scheduled the following speakers at the three meetings: Texas Agricultural Experiment Station cotton breeder, Dr. Levon L. Ray, and Texas Agricultural Extension Service agronomist Dr. Robert B. Metzger, economist Marvin O. Sartin and entomologist Emory P. Boring III.

The "God Is Love" Ministry Witnesses Last Saturday at Methodist Church

Last Saturday, April 8, the "God Is Love" team of Wichita Falls conducted a service of religious music and personal testimony at a noon luncheon at the Crowell Methodist Church as a part of the Lay Witness Mission held at the church.

"The Singing Hills," the musicians of the team, consisted of Mrs. Janie Hill, president and director of the "God Is Love" ministry; her son, David 15; her daughter, Debby 13; and Miss Genevieve Collins, recording secretary of the ministry. They gave a combined service of personal testimony, interspersed with religious music appropriate to their testimony. Two other persons on the team, both of whom were recently converted to Christ as a result of the "God Is Love" street witnessing in the downtown area of Wichita Falls, also gave their personal testimony as to the changes worked in their lives since they accepted Jesus as their personal Lord and Saviour. One of them was Airman Larry Fearing, a recent graduate of the Medical Technician's Course at the U. S. Air Force School of Health Care Sciences at Sheppard AFB. Before entering the Air Force, he had been a gang fighter and drug addict in Sandusky, Ohio. The other was Andrew Edwards, a former gang fighter in the black ghetto of Wichita Falls, who now lives in the Rehabilitation Center operated by the "God Is Love" ministry in Wichita Falls.

Miss Collins, who was born in Crowell, and who had relatives in the audience who still live in Crowell, gave an emotionally touching and spiritually inspiring witness of what Christ has meant in her life. Genevieve said that her mother, the only Christian in her immediate family, had been killed by a tornado seven years ago. Within three years, the four members—father and three children—went their separate ways.

Genevieve, instead of turning to the tawdry night life of the material world, remembered what her Mother had taught her about Jesus. Man's extremity is God's opportunity, so Miss Collins accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Saviour. After that personal confrontation with God, she found that instead of losing her Mother's love, she had gained God's Love, so that her life was changed completely. Instead of just keeping that Love bottled up inside herself, she gave it back to the world through her church activities, her work in the "God Is Love" ministry, and by a daily walk with Jesus. She gave the example of a dammed up river being stagnated; this Love of God is like a river of living water flowing through her to other persons of God's Love.

Rev. Phillip Digby, another member of the "God Is Love" Ministry, currently associated with the West Side Baptist Church in Wichita Falls, described the changes which have occurred in the lives of inmates of the Wichita County jail as a result of the spiritual counseling and visitations to the jail by members of the "God Is Love" team. Both he and Janie Hill discussed the need for reform in the jail system so that those inmates asking for spiritual counseling, Bibles, and religious books and tracts, could receive them without interference by the jail officials.

Two tables were set up, one to display the Bibles, religious books and tracts, and the other to display the vinyl bumper stickers and door stickers used by the "God Is Love" ministry. Other members of the team present were Judy Digby, wife of Rev. Digby, and their three small children, Chris, Brad and Regina; Charles Sparre—a man in his mature years, but a three-months-old-born-again Christian—living at the "God Is Love" Rehabilitation Center in Wichita Falls; and Joe Ford, corresponding secretary of the ministry.

Judging from the generous applause of the packed fellowship hall, the "God Is Love" service was well received by the audience of about 125 persons in attendance. Many of them lingered after the service was over to express personally their appreciation for the team coming from Wichita Falls and conducting the service, and many asked for and received samples of the materials on the display tables. Some of these persons included Rev. Walter L. Driver, Mrs. Moody Bursey, and Henry Bogusch and his wife, DeAnne. Henry works for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in Foard County. He and his wife are active members of the church. Mrs. Bursey, also an active member of the church, had met Janie Hill and other members of the "God Is Love" ministry earlier in the year and was responsible for including them on the Lay Witness Mission program.

Blacksmith Shop Now Located at Tech Museum

An authentic blacksmith shop, now appropriately enshrined not under a spreading chestnut tree but under the wide open West Texas sky on the ranch headquarters outdoor museum site at Texas Tech, was formally dedicated Feb. 22.

The structure, completely restored and outfitted with its original forge, drill and grinding wheel, was moved to the ranch headquarters from the historic Randerbrook-Spade Ranch.

Donors are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Chappell, Jr., formerly of Lubbock and now residents of Waterford, Conn., and Chappell's sister, Mrs. Marian Bassham of Colorado City.

A special guest at the dedication was Otto F. Jones, a long-time employee and manager of the Randerbrook-Spade Ranch and a ranching pioneer who, around 1917, helped construct the building to be dedicated.

Randerbrook Spring in southern

Mitchell County was a famous landmark in early West Texas, used at various times by Indians and the U. S. Cavalry. The Snyder brothers established a buffalo hunters' camp at the spring in the 1870's which evolved into a ranching enterprise.

Isaac L. Ellwood, the first successful developer of barbed wire, purchased the Randerbrook Ranch in 1889 and added the Spade Ranch to the holdings several years later.

At the conclusion of the formal dedication ceremonies, the ring of the smith's hammer and anvil beckoned visitors to the Randerbrook-Spade Blacksmith Shop to

Last Rites for Roscoe Brown Held in Fort Worth

Long-Time Resident of Crowell Died Monday, April 3

Funeral services for Roscoe Brown of Fort Worth, a long-time Crowell resident, were held at Loyal Land Memorial Park in Fort Worth Thursday, April 6. Brown died at his home in Fort Worth Monday, April 3.

Attending the funeral were his brothers and families: Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Brown and twins, Lonnie and Connie of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brown and son, Mack, of Frederick, Okla., and George Brown of Crowell.

Roscoe was born May 27, 1908, and was reared in Crowell.

He is survived by his step-mother, Mrs. Callie Brown of Crowell; four brothers, Joe Bailey Brown of Abilene, John C. Brown of Frederick, Okla., and Jim Brown and George Brown, both of Crowell; and three sisters, Mrs. Cressie Mae Reed of Santa Monica, Calif., Mrs. Virgie Austin of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. June Athey of Fresno, Calif.

He was preceded in death by his father, James Arthur Brown in 1962; and three brothers, Audie B. Brown in 1955; Jeff Martin (Tater) Brown in 1965 and Steven Lewis Brown in 1965.

Henry Black, long-time Crowell school teacher, principal and superintendent, and a former mayor of Crowell, and one of the outstanding boosters and workers for the best interests of Crowell and Foard County, was the principal speaker at the Rotary Club meeting Wednesday of last week, and discussed some of the things which he thinks can and should be done to improve the town and county.

"We should all have an interest in the betterment of the county, and unless we are all interested and do something about it, we'll 'go' as an active community," Mr. Black said.

He suggested that the city of Crowell needs a 1 per cent sales tax to be collected along with the state sales tax which Crowell retailers are already required to collect for Austin. Money estimated to total from $6,000 to $8,000 a year could be used to buy a new fire truck—something that is urgently needed.

He added, in a manner more serious than amusing, that if the county should ever get an outdoor museum the present city fire truck should be the first item to be placed in the museum.

He also stated that at the present time, someone whom he did not name, is interested in constructing a rest home here—another badly needed facility.

He said that with the proper invitation, he feels almost certain that the county can secure another medical doctor within the next year.

"We need a park here, and if we had some money, we can secure matching federal funds for a park construction. Paducah is presently building a new park under this program," Mr. Black added.

Other areas where money obtained from a city sales tax could be used, as pointed out by the ex-mayor, are: alleys in the city need graveling; the present fine system of hard surfaced streets, obtained under the leadership of Mayor Hubert Brown, need some work done on them, and additional sewer lines are needed.

Mr. Black has shown an outstanding amount of interest in the improvement of Crowell and Foard County and works endlessly toward this goal. We need more like him.

Visitors at the meeting, in addition to the speaker were Ken Black of Amarillo and Phil Wilson of Crowell.

Nail Polish Useful to Outdoorsmen

Fingernail polish is finding its way from the cosmetic case to the tackle box.

The brightly-colored stuff has dozens of uses appreciated by the outdoorsman, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The dark red polish can be used to touch up chipped fishing lures, or to add color or patterns to dull-colored lures.

If the silk or nylon winding on a rod begins to unwind, a few drops of either colored or clear polish will stop the damage. Even braided line can be protected by dipping it in polish.

Nail polish also is an excellent sealer for bolts and screws in reels, guns or scopes. Just coat the threads and tighten them down.

It will also waterproof the heads of matches and will burn readily when the match is struck.

Good Habits Save Motorists Money, Tire Experts Say

Proper maintenance and careful driving can save motorists a lot of money, according to the Tire Industry Safety Council.

Industry surveys indicate that many drivers shorten the mileage life of their tires one-fifth by unnecessary wear. A driver who does that is wasting one of every five dollars he spends on tires.

Improper inflation, quick stops and starts, fast cornering and the generally poor mechanical condition of some automobiles are the principal factors cutting down on tire mileage.

Tires underinflated by from 4 to 12 pounds may suffer a 10 to 40 per cent cut in mileage life expectancy.

"Our members spend millions of dollars each year testing and improving their products," says Ross R. Ormsby, chairman of the Tire Industry Safety Council. "We'd like to see the consumer get the full benefits. Proper driving and maintenance habits really help."

Texas Feeding Industry Continues to Grow

By the end of 1970, Texas was pushing Nebraska for second place honors among the nation's top cattle feeding states. The 306 Texas feedlots with 1,000 head or more capacity turned out 97 per cent of the cattle marketed in the state last year. Texas feeders, during calendar year 1970, fed 3.1 million head.

Who's Paying the Tax Bills?

The Public Service Company of Colorado notes that former U. S. Representative Ed Foreman of New Mexico came up with the following statistics which might give us a better idea of who is really paying the federal government's tax bills. His statement is as follows: "If our nation's millionaires were taxed 100 per cent of their incomes each year, the revenue would run the federal government only 29 hours. If all the income from individuals making over $25,000 a year were taken as tax, it would run the government for less than three days. In fact, if all personal income over $10,000 were confiscated, it would run the government only 18 and one-half days. This might be one reason why the majority of Americans, at least those who are paying the bill, want to reduce the size, cost and control of the federal government."

It's the Good Life

"You have only to spend a little time on a farm or live in a rural community to know—it's really the good life. Once you've walked the fields and forests, scanned the hills and valleys, watched and felt the billowing of the wind over fields of golden grain, thrilled at the sight of the flash of light as a gleaming fish breaks a tranquil surface of water, or had your heart soar with the flight of wild birds in a cloud-studded sky—it's then that you feel the closeness of God's earth and its relationship to man and you will carry it with you wherever you go and as long as you live."—Saugerties, N. Riverside H. D. Club

The Riverside Home Demonstration Club had a regular meeting on April 4 in the home of Mrs. Sam Kuehn. Mrs. John S. Ray was presiding officer and a parody of the 23rd Psalm from "Dear Abby" column was presented by Mrs. Allen Shultz. Mrs. Kuehn read the poem, "A Little More." Program topic was safety in the home and it was presented by Mrs. Robert Hammonds. She stated that hair spray should not be used in the bathroom. "Be sure and read labels on all insecticides for household use and garden." Nine members answered roll call with a safety hint.

An all day meeting is set for April 18 in the home of Mrs. Billie Cleveland. It will be a tasting party and those attending should bring a covered dish and the recipe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Setliff shared a tour they made last year with members of the Women's Service League last Thursday at the community center. Mr. Setliff showed vivid slides—principally of England—of historical sites, vegetation and mountains.

When everyone can't join in the laughter.

Persons in All Crafts Must Have Preservers

If you go out in a canoe without a Coast Guard approved life saving device, you could be "up the creek without a paddle."

New water safety laws require all recreational boats, including sailboats, canoes, rowboats and even towed boats, to have one Coast Guard approved life saving device for each person on board. Children 12 and under must wear a vest-type device when the boats are underway.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials who enforce the state's water safety laws say all types of watercraft, not just motorboats, can lead to drownings, and life preservers should give boaters an edge against fatal accidents.

Requests to Transfer Students to Another School Must Be Made by June 1

Parents who wish to transfer children from their home school to a nearby district for the 1972-73 academic year must submit their requests to the receiving school district by June 1, 1972, according to an announcement from the Texas Education Agency.

Once approved by the receiving school board of trustees, the request must then be cleared by the Texas Education Agency. This state approval is a requirement of the order issued by the U. S. District Court in Tyler.

The order, related to the desegregation of schools in Texas, states

Baptists Blast Actions of Texas Legislature

Routine and special interest legislation characterized the last session of the Texas Legislature, but few measures were passed which significantly benefited the people, according to a Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission legislative survey just released. The voting survey is one of the most extensive ever done by any religious group in Texas.

"In the report being received this week by Texas Baptists, fifteen crucial issues are analyzed," said Dr. James M. Dunn, secretary of the Christian life commission. The Christian life commission, social concerns agency of the 1.9-million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas outlines to Texas Baptists how their state representatives voted on "matters of moral concern."

A cover letter accompanying the analysis reveals: "Prairie dogs were declared a public nuisance, but five years of work on major revision of family law died without a hearing on the floor. Lawmakers decided to study cattle branding but refused to authorize a study on care for the mentally ill and mentally retarded. The House could not find $500,000 to save 420 Texans who died each year from kidney disease. It found $1 million for the LBJ Park when only $100,000 had been requested."

The report names legislators who failed to support amendments to the law which gave Texans liquor-by-the-drink. Dr. Dunn added, "In opposing legalization of open saloons in 1970, we predicted that the lobby-dominated legislature would pass loose liquor laws. It did."

The report includes votes in 4 areas in which Dunn says that "Texas is 50th and holding": welfare reform, marijuana penalties, family law and bilingual education.

Dunn pointed out that Texas is the only state that refuses to allow its legislature to set welfare expenditures. The last legislature did not permit Texas voters to consider removing the constitutional restriction on aid to families.

Texas has the harshest penalty in the nation for first-time possession of marijuana. The CLC report includes a record vote on a bill which would have permitted judges to reduce the offense to a misdemeanor in certain instances. The bill failed to pass by eleven votes.

The report outlines the ways that the legislature refused to deal with a revision of family law. Texas and one other state have no paternity law which makes fathers of illegitimate children responsible for their care.

According to a recent HEW report, Dunn says, Texas has the highest school dropout rate of Mexican-Americans in the nation. The CLC report "shows how the legislature once again failed to upgrade bilingual education in Texas," Dunn added.

Other areas dealt with in the report are abortion, annual sessions, conservation and environment, ethics, gambling, public utilities commission, racial discrimination, traffic safety and voting.

The report's cover letter states "Sweeping changes are desperately needed. Whether changes are made will depend on people with Christian values making themselves heard."

Money Being Raised to Host Many Dignitaries on April 28-29 Area Tour

About $800 has been raised by the cities of Childress, Crowell, Quanah, Paducah and Vernon to pay for an air conditioned bus and meals for elected public officials, power, railway and utility officials, business and industrial consultants, state and federal agency officials who will be invited guests of the Economic Opportunity Advancement Corporation (a community action agency) and the Four Winds Industrial Foundation for an economic development tour of Childress, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties on Friday and Saturday, April 28-29, according to Henry Black, Crowell, tour committee chairman. Thirty guests are expected.

This week, a special work team composed of F. W. Taylor, executive director of Economic Opportunities Advancement Corporation, Keith Vaughn, Texas OEO-STAP specialist; and Joe Meador, Texas OEO, has visited every city participating in the tour and met with the task force committee chairmen. Each city will have a portion of the tour and will work up its own itinerary.

"We feel that each city should be able to present to our special guests the things that need to be shown on the tour of each particular community. We all have virtually the same interest and special projects they are working on, as well as special problems that hinder economic development," Black said.

Although each city will have special things to show the visitors, the EOAC and Four Winds Industrial Foundation members hope to achieve input from local, private, state, and federal resources and at the close of the tour will have reason to believe that this five-county area can put together a "complete package" to offer industry and business.

"We hope to find out what we 'will do' locally, and what the power and utility companies, the railway companies and business and industrial consultants 'will do' and what state and federal agencies 'will do'—not what can be done. We need to offer area inducement in such a manner that we know that things will be done by us and the agencies, elected officials, and private sources. Only when we can offer new industrial potentials, new business potentials, and local people who wish to expand industries and businesses a firm "complete package," will our area economic development take on a serious meaning," Black declared.

Traffic Mishaps Kill 3,594 Texans During 1971

Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said the final tabulation of 1971 motor vehicle traffic accidents shows that 3,594 persons died last year on Texas streets and highways. An additional 121,682 were injured and the total economic loss was 71,045 billion.

"The death figure of 3,594 represents a 1 per cent increase over the 1970 toll of 3,560. Actually, with all factors considered, the rise in deaths could have been greater," Speir said.

"For example, vehicle miles driven increased from 68 billion in 1970 to over 70.7 billion for 1971. This represents a rise in total driving of 4 per cent. From another standpoint, the number of licensed Texas drivers rose by nearly 324,000 during the past 12 months to a total near 7 million.

Speir said driving too fast for conditions and driving while intoxicated continued as the primary law violations contributing to fatal mishaps. Other major violations included driving on the wrong side of the roadway and failure to yield the right-of-way.

Children whose mothers died before 1968 may now be eligible for social security benefits, even if previous applications were denied. Changes in social security regulations have enabled thousands of children to receive benefits based on their mothers' work. For more information, contact your nearest social security office.

Farmers Need to Certify Set-Aside Acres Soon

Wheat Must be Destroyed on Set-Aside by May 1st

"If you have not reported your wheat, barley and set-aside acres to the ASCS office, we are asking that you do this as soon as possible. May 1 is the deadline for you to report." This is the opening remark of Mrs. Jean Reeder in the April newsletter of the A. S. C. S. office in Crowell. Mrs. Reeder is county executive director for the ASC here.

She added that measurement service is available if a farmer is in doubt about his acreage. This service should be requested by April 14.

The USDA regulations have been amended to allow a producer to notify (in writing) the ASCS office by October 1, 1972, if he does not wish to harvest the grain on designated set-aside acres. This is the same method used in 1971.

"Wheat must be destroyed on set-aside acres by May 1, 1972, by either grazing or plowing. If you are grazing this acreage, be sure that the wheat is grazed to a point that there is no chance for the wheat to produce a crop of grain, and then you may continue grazing until May 14, 1972," Mrs. Reeder said in concluding the newsletter.

Texas Law Is Invalidated by Court Ruling

The decision of the United States Supreme Court in Dunn v. Blumstein has invalidated state laws which require more than 30 days residency in the state or locality in order to be eligible to vote. The Texas law has now been enjoined by a federal court in the case of Whaley v. Bullock which was decided on March 31, 1972.

Persons who have resided in the state and locality for 30 days and have been registered for 30 days prior to the election in which they wish to vote are now eligible to vote in state and local elections. Persons entering the state may register to vote immediately upon their arrival.

The cut-off deadline for registration for those who wish to vote in the May 6 primary election was the close of business on April 5, 1972.

Addition Made to Last Week's Article

In last week's article concerning Ray Brown's prediction of a million bushel wheat crop for Foard County, the article neglected to say one very important thing: Mr. Brown prophesied the big crop if the grain received everything it needed until harvest. That, of course, included moisture, and as evidenced by last week's rainfall record, that much-needed rain has not yet arrived.

Enthusiasm High at Planning Meeting Here . . .

Jr., Ben Byrd, Ray Shirley, Mike Bird, Mike Manard, Bob Parris, Jon Lee Black, W. N. Chatfield, Mrs. Nelson Oliphant, Cecil Davis, Charles Branch, Irving Fisch, Mrs. Cecil Carpenter, Marion Crowell, Jack Welch, Bud McLain, Mrs. Leo Cates, Homer Johnson and Bill Klepper.

In pointing out that recreation facilities are one of the requisites for obtaining industry, Mr. Black pointed to the construction of a fresh water lake on Pease River, an 80-acre lake on the Copper Breaks State Park a few miles north of Crowell and the brine lake northwest of town.

In pointing out the tremendous possibilities for the state park, Black told about the Big Bend park which is near full to capacity occupancy nearly all the year.

Another speaker at the meeting was Keith Vaughn, a STAP official "loaned" to this area for a year to assist in economic development, and he said that one of his organization's goals is to hunt agricultural industry to use the agricultural resources already available here. He cited guar as an example and said that a major guar processor is interested in placing a guar processing plant for gum in this area. He added that it probably will not be placed in any town, but be located in a rural area near where the crop is produced.

He cited another example, this time with cotton. He said that the cotton farmer receives about $150 for a bale of cotton. By the time this bale of cotton is shipped to the East where it is processed and made into clothing, that single bale of cotton has created 2300 jobs, and increased from $150 to $6,000 in value. He said hopes are great for eventually moving the mills from the East to this section of the nation where the cotton is produced.

In citing the need for an organization needed here in the search for industry, he strongly recommended some organization to "identify with" since no chamber of commerce is located here.

Vaughn said that in order to attract industry, Crowell must have some money with which to use to lure industry and he suggested that this organization would be an aid in raising some money.

At the next meeting, an organization will be formed and officers elected.

Cooking Rice? Right Measurements?

"When the young homemaker's cup runs over to the stove, the cabinet, and the floor, it's time to check cooking instructions.

"It's rare to find a beginning cook who hasn't ended up with rice or spaghetti filling several pans in the kitchen when all she wanted was enough for one simple dish for two," says Mrs. Peggy Meads, Foard County Home Demonstration Agent.

It may be an amusing story to reminisce later, but it's a heart breaker when it happens. How can the homemaker tell how much of these dry products to cook and come out with just the cupful or whatever the recipe calls for?

The agent explained that a recipe calling for the cooked product and not the dry one causes the problem. When a casserole dish, for instance, calls for a cupful of cooked rice and the young homemaker takes this amount of dry rice right from the package, she'll end up with too much. She needs to follow the instructions on the package of the dry ingredients to get the correct amount.

"These dry products can double or even triple in volume," Mrs. Meads said, "one cup of the longer cooking rice ends up as three to four cups once it's cooked. One cup of precooked rice will end up as two cups of fully cooked rice."

Spaghetti, another example of a dry cereal product, is about the same. One cup of dry spaghetti makes about two cups after it's cooked.

"So, read the instruction on the package of any of these dry products you're using," the agent urged. "That's the key to getting the right amount of cooked ingredient to fit a combination dish you're trying to prepare."
