stolen, or forced. Genuine peace must be practiced, cultivated, and sought in the only place where it can exist—in the individual mind, heart, and soul.

We are now preparing to celebrate the arrival of One who came to enfold us with a total act of love, an act of Redemption which would free us from permanent loneliness. Let us reach forth with the love and peace which He can give us. Let us carry forth the commandment to "love one another" with such zeal that others may see His life in ours. Let us be as the early Christians were turning the world upside down with the love and peace of the Christ Child. Let us dare to speak about peace and love in a world that is ripped and torn with the pains of human hatred and war. Only the Spirit of Peace, "which passeth all understanding" can bring sanity to our world.

The 12th Day of Christmas

On the twelfth day of Christmas Our teachers brought to us; Twelve new spelling words, Eleven hair complaints, Ten different tests, Nine new algebra formulae, Eight scientific reports, A seven page theme, Six chapters in history, Five pages out of the dictionary to write, Four phone calls to parents, Three new patties, Two bookkeeping problems, And finals at the end of the semester.

Senior Scene

"Bounce, bounce, bounce, dribble, dribble"—what on earth do these strange sounds represent? A hungry hippo bouncing across the floor? Rubber baby buggy bumpers with babies? No, but you're getting warmer. As any home side basketball player could tell you, it was the Crowell basketball tournament which was held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Senior boys on the team this year are Grover Reed, Jackie Blackburn, Jackie Houck, Rocky Bachman, and John Urquiza. Yea, senior ball hoppers!

Seniors making the all-district football team were Rex Driver, offensive fullback; Rocky Bachman, defensive tackle, and John Urquiza, defensive safety.

Only 6 more school days till Christmas.

Senior Spotlight

Jackie Houck is the 5-11 senior in the spotlight. Born on March 23, 1954, his parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Woodard. He has blue eyes and light red hair.

Jackie enjoys basketball, football, snow skiing, roller derby and swimming. His favorites include: food, any kind; color, red; song, "Last Date;" actor, John Wayne, actress, Ann Margaret, subject, study hall; and hobby, exploring.

Junior Jive

Many quotes were heard flying around CHS. A few of this week's best are: Darla Powers, "Geometry is pusillanimous!"; Debbie Harris, "Study hall is estatic"; and Danny Johnson, "Basketball is great, cause it lets me out of half of English class!" Stay tuned to this column for more famous quotes as the weeks go by.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at CHS. Juniors certainly enjoyed decorating Mrs. Drabek's Christmas tree last Friday. We're also eagerly looking forward to eating the peppermint sticks that are hanging tantalizingly on the tree.

Freshmen Fun!

Last week we were all hoping that the teachers would let up on the homework because of the basketball tournament. Of course homework continued and everyone was trying to get their homework done before the games.

The following teams participated in our tournament: Rule, Electra, Harrold, Vernon, Northside and Chillicothe.

The Crowell girls won FIRST place in the tournament, defeating Harrold, Chillicothe, and Electra.

The next tournament will be held at Benjamin Dec. 14, 15, 16.

Cafeteria Menu Dec. 18-21

Monday: ham, creamed potatoes, green beans, beet pickles, hot rolls, milk, Jello with fruit.

Tuesday: turkey and dressing, giblet gravy, English peas, celery sticks, cranberry sauce, light bread, milk, peaches and whipped cream.

Wednesday: sandwiches, baked beans, potato chips, lettuce and pickle slices, milk, red plum cobbler.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

By Bill Boykin

Austin, Tex.—Proposals for major "reform" statutes and changes in the House and Senate rules have been drawn by Texas legislative leaders.

Rep. Price Daniel, Jr., Liberty, slated to be the next Speaker of the House of Representatives, has announced a nine-point "reform" program.

Several Senate members and Lt. Gov.-elect Bill Hobby, Houston, have discussed proposals to change some of the "reform" rules adopted by the fourth called session of the 62nd Legislature.

Speaking to a seminar sponsored by the Texas Society of Association Executives, Daniel listed these proposed changes in state statutes—which he feels are necessary because of a "mandate" of Texas voters this year:

1. A one term limit for the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

2. Elimination of the pledge card system for election of the House Speaker—where pledges are exchanged for support of legislation.

3. Disclosure by the Speaker of contributions to support his campaign for that office.

4. A limit on the number of conferees on tax bills.

5. A new "open records" law which would provide more access to public documents—with certain guidelines and safeguards.

6. Improvement of campaign contribution laws.

7. Tightening of the laws governing lobbyist registration.

8. An ethics code for legislators.

9. Changes in the state's "open meetings" law to provide the public with more information about actions of governmental bodies.

Daniel said these proposed "reform" measures should not be tagged with "liberal" or "conservative" labels.

"Liberal and conservative labels are unfair to the 77 new members of the Legislature. They have not yet cast a vote. The new members will be more independent and reform minded, because that's what the voters demanded in the election.

Thursday: beef stew, mixed greens, carrot sticks, corn bread, milk, chocolate cake.

primary, run-off and general elections this year," he added.

"I don't believe we should overreact to the problems of the past," he said when he discussed major changes in House rules which will be introduced.

CITIZENS CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION WILL BE SELECTED

Elected leaders of the three branches of state government—executive, legislative and judicial—will be appointing 36 Texans to a citizens' commission to study needed constitutional changes and report its recommendations next November.

A resolution to create this citizens' commission will be introduced in the 63rd Legislature, and the 36 appointees will be selected by a committee of the elected leaders of state government.

This committee will probably include the Governor, Lt. Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Presiding Judge of the Criminal Appeals Court.

At a recent meeting of leaders in the drive for constitutional reform, the addition of the Attorney General to that committee was supported.

LAWMAKERS LOOK AT BUDGET

Key lawmakers who make up the Legislative Budget Board met here this week to take a look at multi-billion-dollar state spending plans the legislature must pass on soon.

Other signs of preparation for a vital and stormy 63rd legislative session are apparent.

Lt. Gov.-elect Hobby has moved into temporary offices and has assembled a staff.

Speaker-elect Daniel also is putting together a staff.

Both the incoming Lieutenant Governor and Speaker are working on their assignments to key standing committees which process legislation, although they prefer not to talk too much publicly about this important chore.

The Legislature, under new leadership and with a near-record crop of freshmen members, faces a staggering array of tasks.

In addition to the usual problems of making spending fit income, lawmakers have assigned themselves a monumental task of furthering legislative reform.

A hangover from the 1971 session is House of Representatives redistricting which must be redone or left to a federal court for boundary realignment.

Big decisions will also be necessary in the education field if the U. S. Supreme Court upholds a December 1971 decision invalidating the present Texas system of financing public school education.

IMPORT CURB PLEA RE-STATE

The Interstate Oil Compact Commission again urged strengthening of the federal mandatory oil import control program.

However, U. S. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington told the 34-state group at a meeting in Houston a special Senate committee already has determined domestic oil and gas reserves are inadequate.

IOCC further called for a comprehensive national energy policy to assure dependable domestic supplies and lessen the need for foreign oil and gas imports.

COURTS SPEAK

While upholding a 1,001-year sentence for rape, the Court of Criminal Appeals pointed out such sentences serve no purpose, since those under them are eligible for release on parole in 20 years.

The Court of Criminal Appeals approved Governor Smith's commuting 11 death penalty cases to life imprisonment. One judge dissented, holding the defendants were entitled to new trials.

AG OPINIONS

A law making it a penal offense to provide alcoholic beverages to inmates of the Texas Prison System does not apply to county jails, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:

The State Department of Public Welfare may contract with the State Building Commission and Board of Control for renovation of the John H. Reagan State Office Building fifth floor to install computers and improve a defective elevator system.

Card of Thanks

Low-Flying F-105 Aircraft Schedule Announced over This Section of Texas

Fort Worth—F-105 pilots of the 48th Tactical Fighter Group, a major U. S. Air Force reserve unit based at Carswell Air Force Base, began flying low altitude training missions over Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma on Saturday, December 9.

Air Force Reserve officials also announced that pilots of the Air National Guard would be using the same two routes in the training which is designed to teach pilots to make high speed flights high enough to get under enemy defenses and reach the target area. Officials said two flights of four aircraft each would use the routes Monday through Friday. Established routes would continue to be in operation indefinitely, officials said.

Large poultry farms, or congested areas.

It was also announced that no sonic boom (the sound created when planes exceed the speed of sound) is expected to result from these flights which will be around 1,500 feet in altitude. Speed will be 480 knots or less.

Both routes will make lazy sickle shaped patterns, ending near Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

The first route will start about 20 miles west of Denton, Texas, go northwest over the southern edge of Lake Arrowhead and west over Lake Kemp to Truscott, Texas. It will then look northeast to a point north of Quanah, Texas, and east to the simulated target area which is about 12 miles northeast of Frederick, Okla.

The other route will start 20 miles north of Mineral Wells, Texas, travel west to Millers Creek, then angle northwest to a point near Childress, Texas, and loop eastward to Frederick, Okla. From there, the route will go northeast to the simulated target area, which is about 20 miles west of Lawton, Okla.

Another route will start at a point roughly 20 miles west of Denton, Texas, and go north to Lone Grove, Okla. (about 15 miles west of Ardmore, Okla.) where it will swing to the northwest to a point about 60 miles west of Oklahoma City, make a loop and swing south to the Wichita Mountains in Oklahoma, a few miles northwest of Lawton.

Final Set-Aside Program Payments to Be Mailed to Wheat Growers

Checks totaling $32 million in final payments under the 1972 wheat program will be mailed beginning December 1, 1972, to approximately 976,000 participating farms, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced Monday.

This year, USDA officials point out, market influences have been strong, capped by the historic and unprecedented sales to the Soviet Union. As a result, wheat producers have obtained more farm income from the market place and relied less on federal payments, according to a news release from the local ASCS office, Mrs. Jean Reeder, executive director.

Prices received for wheat in mid-November averaged $1.97 per bushel—66 cents per bushel above the mid-November prices of a year ago. The net value of this year's wheat crop, including payments made to farmers under the set-aside program, is expected to reach $3.3 billion, about a quarter of a billion dollars more than the 1971 crop.

The December payment is in addition to $691 million mailed to wheat producers in July. Together, the two payments assure that all program participants will get 100 per cent of parity on that portion of their 1972 wheat which is used for domestic food, Mrs. Reeder said.

The December payment — 6 cents per bushel—is the difference between the face value of the certificate determined to be $1.34 per bushel—and the preliminary payment of $1.28 per bushel mailed in July. The face value of the certificate is the difference between 100 per cent of the July 1 parity price of $3.02 per bushel and the national average wheat price of $1.68 per bushel received by farmers for the five-month period July through November.

Letter to Editor

December 4, 1972

Dear Bill,
With Congress not in session now, my time allows a lot of reflection. Soon another man will take my seat. I have had it for eleven years and that's what I want to talk about.

You and countless thousands of friends have placed in me the greatest trust and the most humbling responsibility over those years that anyone can ever hope to have. To have had your trust in my ability to speak for North Texas here in Washington is a personal treasure. The responsibilities of this office have not been burdensome to me as they have been for many colleagues. The telling difference is not between them and me, however. They just haven't had people like you supporting them.

Eleven years ago I took my turn at a job which will never be finished. If I could do it, I would like to walk up to everyone in North Texas and say "Thank you." At the same time, and more importantly, I would impart to each a measure of the tremendous faith which I have developed in our area.

The former 13th Congressional District has consistently distinguished itself in its progressive willingness to pull together and advance, both economically and socially. We're not far from people who have chosen other courses preferring negativism and complaint to the hard work and forward determination of the people of our part of Texas.

My job has been exciting. I remained enthusiastic and I have been challenged continuously by North Texans who want things done, people who aren't content with sitting back and complaining. The determined attitudes of our people must not deteriorate, and I see no reason why they should.

Although we all know that the government continues to function day by day, it is hard for me to realize that for the first time in more than a decade I will not be a part of it. Personally, I will leave and take up my former profession. Although this is perhaps the most saddening experience I have ever had, it's the reassurance that our system is a very strong one, and that there are people like you behind it, that will work to erase my personal feeling of loss.

As for my own plans, I intend to stay here in Washington and open a law office. An attractive offer has been extended to me by an established Dallas firm to become a partner and represent interests of the Southwest here in the nation's capital. I look forward to our friendship continuing as a result of this good offer, Bill, and I intend to be back to see you and my hundreds of friends in North Texas just as often as possible.

Please feel free to get in touch with me whenever I can be of help to you. I want us to stay in contact, and I want to share in continuing to get things done for North Texas.

Warmest personal regards,
Graham Purcell.

Home Businessmen give us

VALUES

nobody else can match

IT'S A FACT . . . our home merchants and service establishments give us a special type of Bargain every time we spend a dollar with them.

◆ And no competitors of theirs in another town or city can give us . . . who live in this area . . . anything like as good a deal when we're shopping.

◆ It's simple economics. The dollar we spend at home buys about the same goods or service that it will buy anywhere else . . . but . . . to make every purchase at home a better bargain, we also get to share in, and to profit from the more prosperous community that larger trade volume naturally builds.

◆ And this Extra Value . . . which we do not get when we spend our money in somebody else's community . . . is the real key to our own greater individual prosperity and enjoyment of life . . . and far more valuable in the long run than the merchandise we're buying.

It Pays to Buy Where You Live

their son, Gary, and his wife,
Sherry, and their new grandson,
Christopher Ray. Gary Wright was visiting from Bethesda, Maryland, for the week end of December 2 and 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kirby and children, Lee Ann and Gary, of Sola, Norway, spent the week end here visiting Mrs. Kirby's mother, Mrs. Alene Williams. The Kirby family will leave December 23
from Houston for England enroute back to their home in Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Norman of Albany and their daughter, Mrs.
Dewey Martyn, and daughter, Melissa, of Abilene have been here
a few days visiting Mrs. C. C.
Ribble, Mrs. Ruth Gobin, Tom Greening, and other relatives and friends. Mr. Norman and Mrs.
Martyn returned home Tuesday, while Mrs. Norman remained for

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cooper returned home December 7 from a ton, Va. While there they visited Old Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

This was their second visit to Williamsburg, but they found it still exciting and much to see and enjoy. They visited a few days with another son, Bob, and his family in Dallas, and the rest of the time with another son, Paul, and his wife and small son in Waxahachie. They also visited with their daughter, Mary, and her husband and two sons from Waco in the Paul Cooper home.

Really "Bitter"
"We have witnessed some hotly-contested political races over the years, and the ill will generated by some of these contests is very evident. But as compared to people of the Philippine Islands, we in this country don't really know the meaning of 'bitter' as applied to political contests. (When the newly-elected mayor of the city of Malabon, which is north of Manila, was opening a Christmas gift . . . it blew up and killed him. Now that's what you call being bitter over the outcome of an election." —

Light for the Soul

A Christian believer, talking to an atheistic evolutionist one time,
took his watch out of his pocket,
noted the time and put it back in again, saying to his friend:
"This is a wonderful watch; never misses a second. I never have to do anything to it, yet it keeps perfect time."

"What make is it," asked the evolutionist. "O, no make," was the reply. "Well, who manufactured it?" "O, no one. It just put itself together somehow."

"Nonsense," said the atheist.
"A watch can't just come into existence. Somebody had to manufacture it."

"That's true," replied the Christian, "yet you expect me to believe that this vast universe with its billions of planets and stars, all revolving in perfect order, just came about by itself; that it has no Designer, no Creator, and no one to keep it running. Isn't that nonsense?"

According to the Bible, God holds the pagan world responsible for its idolatry and declares:
"They are without excuse" (Rom.
1:20) because all that the heathen witness about God every day calls for their worship and praise and thanksgiving (Rom. 1:20, 21). But they have not had this attitude.
They have denied and rejected God and, as St. Paul says, they "became vain in their imagina-

4-H'ers Earn Rewards Thru Decision-Making

SPECIAL — "Decisions . . .
Decisions . . . To many people they are the culmination of soul searching and frustration. But they don't have to be," says Lois Howard, program associate with the National 4-H Service Committee, Chicago.
To prove her point, Miss Howard calls attention to the national 4-H home management program supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported by Tupperware Home Parties.
"A major emphasis in the program is on learning to use the decision-making process," she relates.
"We really want to help
young people make sound choices and decisions based on their resources — time, money, energy, personal skills and knowledge," Miss Howard says. "And we encourage young people to think in terms of their own personal values, goals and experiences and the contributions their decisions can make to a happy home," she added.
Some 45 4-H'ers from as many states who have made noteworthy achievements in the home management program will be attending National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. Judged tops in their respective states these young people will be the guests of Tupperware Home Parties.
Previously having earned recognition in their counties, four medals of honor are offered in each county, they now become eligible for consideration in the awarding of eight $700 scholarships. The scholarships are to be awarded by Tupperware with announcement at National 4-H Congress.
One of the 1971 national winners in 4-H home management, Kathleen Brooks, Tim-nath, Colo., was also a winner at home. With her program skills she helped her family design their new house and then to make decisions about decoration, furnishings and painting.
Another 1971 scholarship
winner, Stephanie Ballantine, Raleigh, N.C., tested her management abilities when her mother took a month's trip and left her in charge of the nine-member family. As a result, Miss Ballantine feels that all young people should be given an opportunity to show they can handle responsibilities.
To build on their skills as decision-makers, young people may sign up for home management projects through their county extension office.

Miss Kay Shirley Named Honoree at Bridal Luncheon

Miss Kay Shirley, bride-elect of Doug Miller of Vernon, was honored with a bridal luncheon Saturday in the home of Mrs. Lorraine Carter. Mrs. Gordon Bell was co-hostess.

The buffet table was laid with a white linen cloth and held a miniature Christmas tree ornamented with tiny white doves, red birds and red velvet bows. The appointments were of silver and crystal.

The bride-elect quartet table was laid with a white drawn-work linen cloth accented by red velvet ribbon. The other quartet tables were covered with red and white stripe linen. All had centerpieces of holly and tiny red tapers. Place cards carried out the red berry holly theme, and favors were red velvet bells with sprigs of baby's breath.

The mantel and staircase of the home were decked with garlands of holly and red satin balls and white turtle doves enhanced the Christmas tree.

The hostesses presented Miss Shirley with pieces of her Franciscan ware.

Guests included the bride-elect; her mother, Mrs. Ray Shirley; and the groom's mother, Mrs. A. J. Edsell of Vernon and Wichita Falls. Others were Mes. Mike Higgins of Albany, Ga., Harry Joyner of Wichita Falls, T. R. Jenne of Wichita Falls, Fred Vercera, Jr., T. S. Haney, Walter Ramsey and Misses Kathy and Kristi Shirley and Frances Jenne of Wichita Falls.

The one-day meeting was held in fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church, with Dr. George LeBeau, internist at the Medical & Surgical Clinic in Wichita Falls, and Miss Beth Vaughan of Dallas, as featured speakers.

Dr. LeBeau spoke on "Clinical Significance of Laboratory Findings" and "Cardiovascular Pharmacology."

Miss Vaughan, who is an instructor at Texas Woman's University, spoke on "Nursing Care of the Acute Myocardial Infarction Patient in General Hospitals."

Chairmen of the workshop, sponsored by the Baylor County Division of the American Heart Association, were Barbara Laws, R. N., and Lois Wells, R. N., co-chairmen of the Division's Professional Education Committee.

A GIFT TO GROW ON

Traditionally, we place an extra candle on a child's birthday cake—one for each year, and one "to grow on." As Christmas nears with its intrinsic tradition of helping the needy, CARE asks us to remember the world's hungry children, whose birthday prospects are reflected in these grim statistics:

In the emerging nations, children under five form 20 per cent of the population but represent over 60 per cent of the deaths, with malnutrition the biggest killer. Of those who survive, more than half will be retarded physically or mentally because of malnutrition.

To prevent such tragedies, the holiday-season CARE Food Crusade appeal seeks $7,500,000 to help feed 28 million people, nearly all children, during the coming year. At baby and pre-school centers, schools and other sites, the young will be served regularly—not just to keep them alive but to build healthy bodies and sound minds, so they may grow into productive adults. Linked with CARE self-help and medical aid, the food gifts develop future self-sufficiency in 34 countries from Latin America to Africa, Asia and the Middle East.

Because host governments share operating costs and the U. S. donates farm abundance, our dollars are multiplied. For example: $5 gives 1,500 youngsters a protein-rich bowl of porridge, $10 serves a full lunch to 900 children; $25 helps feed 25 pupils for three months. From India, a schoolboy wrote: "To the American People . . . Our soul thanks you." His words will echo in the hearts of millions of children, and their parents, if you send your contribution check to:

109 North Akard Street, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Farmcast

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Winter weather stops harvest . . . Consumers sound off . . . Confined feeding regulations rejected . . . Cold weather slows screwworm.

Old man winter slowed harvest of Texas agricultural products from the Panhandle to the Rio Grande Valley. Citrus harvest was at a slower pace due to cold, wet weather. Cotton and grain sorghum harvest on the High and Low plains was delayed by snow and freezing weather.

Peanut and soybean harvest was also cut back due to the weather! farmers were also unable to complete seeding of wheat and oats.

But in spite of the bad weather, overall harvest is generally ahead of last year. Cotton harvest for the state is now more than 40 per cent complete compared with less than a third a year ago. Grain sorghum harvest, on the other hand, is slightly below last year at this time. Peanut harvest is virtually complete. Sugarbeet harvest is 60 per cent finished compared to only about 50 per cent at this time last year. Soybean harvest is behind this year compared to 1971; this year the crop is about three-fourths gathered; a year ago harvesting of soybeans was 85 per cent complete.

Pecan harvest is again slowed due to the weather for the third straight week in a row.

Wheat seeding throughout the state is almost complete as is oat planting. Flax seeding is 75 per cent complete compared with slightly more than half a year ago.

CONSUMERS had their chance to sound off recently regarding dairy products. A survey of consumers was sponsored recently by the Texas Department of Agriculture to give the dairy industry information on consumer acceptance of dairy products.

FUN AND GAMES—Cotton sportswear separates set the mood for holiday party games like dunking for apples. Making the party scene from left to right: a printed smock with shoulder-ruffles and blue knit pants; a neat layered look in cotton knit separates; and a ribless corduroy jumper that's ruffled over a white eyelet shirt. hit only 10 per cent of their free throws in the two games.

In their first game, they lost to the Vernon JV 58 to 51 with Randy Prince leading the way for locals with 22 points. They next lost to Chillicothe in consolation action 44-39 with Melvin West-over leading the locals in scoring with 13 points.

Varsity Boys
The CHS varsity Wildcat team Thursday night defeated Chillicothe 65 to 41. Excellent floor play by the locals helped greatly in the win. Jackie Blackburn with 14 and Jackie Houck with 12 were the leading scorers Wildcats.

On Friday, Crowell lost to a talented Harrold quintet 52 to 45. Houck pumped in 13 points. The Cats were very cold in this one and hit only 26 per cent of their shots.

In Saturday's action, the Cats were trying for third place, but ended the tournament in fourth place after losing to the Vernon junior varsity 37 to 35. Both teams were very cold throughout the contest with Crowell especially so as the Cats hit only 16 per cent of their field shots.

All-Tournament Selections
Girls named to the all-tournament team were:

Crowell: Cheryl Branch, Carolyn Sparkman and Sandra Whitfield.

Chillicothe: Kay McClellan. Electra: Lisa Rodwalt, Marilyn Monroe, Lorraine Waggoner. Named to the boys all tournament were:

Game Officers Have Busy Week

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department law enforcement officers in Kerr County pulled the plug on illegal hunting activities when they found a Beaumont man and his family with a motel bathtub full of cut-up deer meat.

The two officers, Larry Holloway and Dale Brown, arrested a man who was hunting at night. They went to the man's motel and found that the family had been busy with an earlier kill and had stored the meat in the tub.

A Kerr County judge fined the man $205.50 for hunting at night. As it turned out, the bathtub incident was just the start of a busy week for officers Holloway and Brown.

In six days of patrolling, the officers:

—Arrested two men from Oklahoma and charged them with hunting at night. They were fined $105.50 each.

—Apprehended two North Carolina men who were hunting at night. They were fined $205.50 each.

—Arrested a Utopia man for hunting at night. He was fined $205.50.

—Caught five men from McKinney with three illegal deer. The men were charged with hunting at night and fined $205.50 each.

Total fines for the six days totaled $2,471.50.

West Side H. D. Club

The Westside H. D. Club enjoyed the traditional Christmas party in the home of Mrs. George Riethmayer on December 5. Prayer was led by Mrs. Homer Ketchersid after which Mrs. J. W. Fielder read the story, "The little star that lost his way the night Christ was born." "Because his generous heart prompted him to help those who needed him, the little star became the Star of Bethlehem," Mrs. Fielder said.

Ten members and one visitor received gifts from the beautiful Christmas tree. Secret pal gifts were exchanged and secret pals were revealed. The hostess served a refreshment plate of fruit cake and Christmas goodies. The next meeting will be in January.

Total of 122,100 Cotton Samples Classed at Altus

The USDA Cotton Division Classing Office at Altus graded 29,900 samples for the week ending December 8, and the season total stood at 122,100 samples classed. This is estimated at about 40 per cent of this season's crop, according to C. E. Cox, officer in charge at Altus. Last year at this time, total classed was only 15,800 samples, while two years ago at this date 145,000 had been classed.

Total classed from North Texas counties this year stood at 18,500 samples, compared with 485 samples last year at this date, and 18,300 two years ago.

Grades on North Texas cotton classed during the week were 65 per cent white and 34 per cent light spotted.

The Agricultural Marketing Service reported that the cotton market in the territory was more active last week. Demand was stronger, although prices fluctuated up and down within about a hundred point range. Average prices on predominant qualities were about 475 to 650 points above government loan rates. Cottonseed prices remained steady at $51 per ton.
