CHRISTMAS TIPS

To decorate candles melt the wax from an old candle and use it to stick sprigs of holly (or any other decoration that won't go up in flames) to a new candle. To keep your Christmas tree fresh longer, try putting 1 tsp. of turpentine in the water the January 2-Teacher work tree stands in. This dissolves resin that can seal off its water absorbing vascular system.

NOTES TO SANTA

It's time to write you my yearly letter. This year I want something that I've never asked you for. I want a boyfriend. I'm not particular as long as he is lovable, good-looking, has a nice car, and is not going steady. I hope this isn't too much to ask for, but if you do find me a boyfriend, tell him my address and I'll be waiting.

Thank you, G.W.

Hi Santa.

This Christmas I would like to have a black Mercedes. I have been a good girl this year and I brush my teeth after every meal. I will leave some milk and cookies on the kitchen table for you on Christmas Eve. All my love,

Dear Santa.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Rachel Lozano is in the Senior Spotlight this week. Rachel is the 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Lozano Sr. She is 5'6" tall, has dark brown eyes and black hair. Rachel attends the Catholic Church. Her favorites are: food. Mexican; color, red; song, "Time in a Bottle"; actor, Clint Eastwood; actress, Michael Learned; hobbies, listening to music; and subject, typing. Rachel has been in FHA and Pep Squad. She hasn't yet decided on her future plans.

JUNIOR JIVE

The most wonderful moment of being a Junior has arrived. We ordered our senior rings. What a thrilling moment. So if you see the juniors with smiles on their faces, you'll know why.

The juniors had a class meeting last Thursday to discuss the annual Junior-Senior prom and banquet. The prom will be in May. We chose some committees to get a band and write the prophesy.

Final tests will be given Thursday and Friday. We have to be back in school Jan. 3.

James Streit, director of music at Crowell High School, and several of his music students entertained members of the Rotary Club of Crowell with several musical numbers at the Wednesday, Dec. 11, meeting of the club.

One of the students, Arthur Cerda, played a portion of the number he presented at all-district band tryouts last Saturday. Arthur placed first in the saxaphone section in the all-district band. The district includes all the AAAA schools in Wichita Falls, along with many other AAA, AA, A and B

Mr. Streit played two numbers on the violin with Hal Williams as guitar accompanist. Then the following students presented several Christmas Coffee for carols; Sulema Santos, April Werley, Arthur Cerda, Mollye Center North Wisdom, Amie Brasher, Sylvia Quintero, Vickie Pharis, Karen Successful Statser and Hal Williams. The group concluded by playing San Antonio Rose and Rudolph the Rednosed Reindeer.

Other guests were Bob Brown and Randy Reed.

Members of the Rotary Club and their guests attended the annual Christmas program Monday night. Following a turkey and dressing supper, the club secretary, Bill Posey, who is also Minister of the First Christian Church, gave an appropriate Christmas

Highway Chief Died in Quanah

Herbert W. (Snooz) Edmondson, 59, maintenance supervisor for the Texas Highway Department in Quanah and a frequent visitor in Crowell, died Friday in a Lubbock hospital after a brief illness.

Funeral services were held in Quanah Monday at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Howard Quiett, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Quanah Memorial Park.

Mr. Edmondson was born in Quanah July 10, 1915, and married Natalie Elton in 1936 in Quanah. He was a member of the First Methodist Church. In his capacity as maintenance foreman, he visited in Foard County frequently during the past years, as this county was in his daughters, one son, three brothers, five sisters, and two WSL Speaker grandchildren.

Attending the funeral from Crowell were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Glover, Baylor Weatherred. Dayton Everson, Vernon Whatley, Gerald Myers, Richard Winters, A. A. Manning and J. A. Thomson.

The Crowell girls led all the way in their game, winning 77-49. Sally Gerhardt led the local attack with 31 points. Carolyn Sparkman had 21, Anita Vecera 14 and Kim Norman 11. Theresa Coleman did an outstanding job on defense and Kathy Whitfield continued to be Crowell's leading rebounder. As of this game, the Crowell girls had won 6 and lost only 1.

The Crowell varsity boys won their game 49-44. The game was tied 19-19 at halftime but the Wildcats came out scoring and made 10 points before the Lions scored a single point. Crowell scoring was well balanced among the players: David Bell had 12. Nathan Frater 11. Randy Prince 10. Jack Whitley 9. Melvin Westover 5 and Dee Finley 2. Bell had 12 rebounds while Westover and Frater had 8 each. As of this game, the Wildcats were 5-3 for the season. Randall Ryan is coach of these two teams.

Coach Carl Brock's junior varsity, composed principally of freshmen, with a few sophomores, played the Vernon JV, composed of juniors and seniors, and despite the age difference in the teams, managed to hold the Vernon JV to a 56-34 score. Crowell had a big second quarter scoring 21 points. C. B. Sparkman with 10 points led the Crowell scoring: Rickey Coleman, Daniel Field and Pat Norman had 6 each, Steve Criss and Randell Russell had 2 each and Jay Wall 1. The Foard County couple enplaned in Dallas for the some 10-12 hour flight to Rio where the native language is Portuguese. The city is beautiful with mountains at sea level. Tourism is the principle industry. Cheap labor has become common in this South American country where inflation is also evidenced. Bananas of various sizes grow the year-around.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin enjoyed a variety of foods which were usually richer than those found here. The couple also visited beautiful statues and a nearby island where transportation was by bicycle and horseback. Soccer is the most popular sport.
