Dedication services for the new building of the First Baptist Church of Crowell have been set for 3 p.m. Sunday, June 22, Rev. Joe Ainsworth, pastor, announced this week, and members of the Baptist congregation are inviting all residents of the area to attend the dedication and also the open house of the new building. Open house for the church, which is located on the north edge of Crowell on State Highway 283 will be held from 4:30 until 6 p.m. Sunday.

The new building is of brick construction and covers some 13,000 square feet of space. The sanctuary, which is carpeted in red, will seat over 300 people including the choir and small overflow balcony at the back of the auditorium. The entire building is carpeted with the exception of the kitchen area and the seven restrooms. The educational part of the structure has spaces for 29 different Sunday school classes, as well as the pastor's office secretary's office.

The new structure was built by Johnny Ray and Associates of Amarillo at a contract cost of $273,000. Ground was broken by church officials last October 27, and the early days of construction were hindered by the wet fall and winter.

The building is on ground The Shirley-Youree Drug level for the convenience of older persons. The floor of the santuary is level rather than sloping to the front, and should provide a clear view of the pulpit and choir from anywhere in the auditorium.

Central heating and cooling units will provide comfortable temperatures in the building year-around.

Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of First Baptist Church in Plainview, will be the speaker for the dedication service. Rev. McLeod is first vice president of the largest yield ever One elevator man said ed and as of Monday Monday that he estimates ng that total brought to that only about 5 or 6 per selling their wheat now. Most are waiting in hopes of a price rise soon. Monday noon, market price was $2.89 per bushel.

Back in the late winter, local elevator man Ray Brown predicted a 20-bushel average for the county's 100,000 acres. A short time later, most of the county's wheat went through a stage that alarmed most producers and caused them to think the wheat would hardly be producing any grain. However, that all changed up, and a bigger-thananticipated crop was harvested.

Most of the out-of-town combine crews have already headed north, and only a few remain to cut the scattered fields still not harvested.

Farmers are busy plowing over and getting the land ready to soak up any summer rains which fall.

Scattered Showers Fall Friday

Scattered sections of the county received some rain last Friday afternoon. About a half inch was reported east of Margaret.

Stubble Fire Extinguished

A fire last Friday afternoon at the Otis Gafford ranch west of Crowell burned about 30 acres of wheat stubble and a small section of pasture land, the Crowell Volunteer Fire Department reported. Maintainers were used to stop the blaze.

No problem confronting nis Congress, or this nation, as proved to be more ontroversial than that of ishioning a comprehensive ut equitable energy rogram. Short-sighted action by the majority of the Congress in all but eliminating the depletion allowance also eliminated the one strong incentive on the books for increasing production. Since there is no chance of reviving the depletion allowance at this time, the incentive of some form of decontrol, phased over a period of years, must I regret that on June 4, two days before the Labor Department announced that the national unemployment had reached 9.2 percentthe highest since 1941-Congress failed by a margin of five votes to override President Ford's veto of the Emergency Jobs Appropriations Bill. The bill contained funding for several programs that were of particular interest to residents of the 13th Congressional District. Summer Jobs Program for students and the Community Service Employment Older Americans. I voted to override the veto because it makes good economic sense to take people off the welfare and unemployment rolls, where they consume tax payers money, and place them in jobs in where they can support themselves. The House and the Senate approved a substitute job bill this week that will provide funds only for the summer jobs program. I hope the President will sign

It is essential that in the future the CIA focus its resources toward its legitimate and necessary responsibility-to provide a foreign intelligence network second to none. Farm sales hit record highs in 1974, but incomes didn't. Gross farm returns were an estimated $5 billion over 1973's record, but still not enough to offset spiraling farm production costs.

These boomed to an all-time high of $75 billion, according to the USDA, and trimmed net returns by about $5 billion from 1973's record $32 billion.

Jerry McLain Is Rotary Speaker

Rotarian Jerry McLain, a member of the Rotary Club of Crowell for the past year who has attended only 15 of the past 52 local meetings, yet still has a perfect attendance record for the year, was the speaker at the Wednesday, June 11, meeting of the local club. McLain, a student at Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, made up his attendance at the Portales Rotary Club during the school year which permitted him to maintain his perfect attendance.

McLain is studying radio and television at the university and stated in his talk here that he is particularly interested in television news broadcasting. He said that radio and television both have become merely recordings and commercials, and he views the news broadcasting field as a more interesting field than disc jocky work. McLain said that commercial television got started in 1953 and it was 1968 when color television became available on local shows on the Wichita Falls stations. McLain went to work for radio station KOLJ in Quanah at the age of 17. McLain showed slides of television cameras and other equipment used on the college owned television station at the university he attends. He said last year there were 55 radio and TV majors at the college. He will be returning to Portales July 1 and will work at the TV station full time until the fall term begins at which time he will be doing part-time work at the station.

VEGETABLES Fruit rot in certain vegetables is a common disorder in home gardens this time of the year, according to a vegetable specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Called "blossomend rot," the problem is especially prevalent in tomatoes, squash and peppers. The disorder is identified by water-soaked areas near the base of the fruit which rapidly turn dark and eventually rot. The problem results from either too much moisture or not enough. Therefore, proper watering is important, mulching can help to equalize mositure around plants. Applying lime or gypsum before planting may also be of some help.

Terms Session "Successful"

Austin...State Senator Ray Farabee has termed the 64th Session of the Texas Legislature as "Generally good and productive.

In reference to his legislative program Farabee explained that he had not gone to Austin with a suitcase full of bills. "However, as situations in need of legislative action were brought to my attention," the Senator said,

"I was glad to be of help." Farabee noted that while the introduction and passage of legislation is an important part of his responsibility, an equally important duty is to determine the impact of legislation on the 30th Senatorial District.

The Senator also noted that, "Many times legislation is introduced to take care of a specific problem in a particular area of the state but adversely affects another area of the state. For example, the Legislature considered a bill which would have regulated ambulance service in the state. The bill set up standards so rigid that it would have put many rural

I would like to have seen a bill which required utilities to adopt uniform accounting procedures while providing local officials with any technical assistance they might request. In doing so I believe we could have kept control at the local level rather than shifting it to Austin," the Senator stated. In the area of school finance reform Farabee said that it was inevitable that Texas' system of school finance be reformed. The Senator said, however, that he voted against the school finance bill because he felt its impact would be too severe on some schools in Farabee did indicate though several other rural Senators Weather Hampers Little League Baseball Action

Foard County Little League baseball, in addition to having action postponed a week because of harvest, has been getting some bad time from the weather and for the second week, only one night of action took place during the past week. Friday night, a light rain and an electrical storm prevented players from action, and on Tuesday night of last week the games were played in a "winter time" atmosphere as a cold north wind dropped the temperature to the mid 50s. In the first game, the Crowell State Bank came from behind to defeat the Foard County Mill 10-7. Jeff Christopher, Kim Baker, Larry Criss and Dan Klepper all got in some action on the mound for the Bank, while Ronnie Wasia pitched 3 full innings for the Mill with the most important bills dealt with the high costs of medical malpractice insurance. Farabee explained that his bill was an attempt to provide for patient compensation in the event of a legitimate malpractice claim while providing a structure to help bring down the high costs of medical malpractice insurance. "The net result of these higher rates." Senator Farbee successfully carried the bill through the Senate but it failed to pass in the House by two votes. Other bills by the Senator dealt with reducing juvenile crime, making it easier for the self-employed to set up retirement funds, prohibiting the sale of children in Texas, and recodification of Texas Seed Law. A number of Senator Farabee's bills dealt with matters of local concerns such as new water or hospital districts. For example, one of the bills Senator Farabee sponsored made it possible for the Greenbelt Water Authority

Statistics Tell Story of Dangers of Death by Fire

Fire outdoors can be dangerous. Barbecuing, camping, and boating trigger thoughts of recreational fun that good weather and leisure time bring. But any one of these good times can become a fiery catastrophe. Take out-door cooking. Flammable liquids (the use of which happens to be forbidden to the Boy Scouts) can be used safely as long as you remember that they can cause explosions, serious burns and even death because the vapors explode near heat or flame.

For outdoor safety, flam-

Most frequent causes of building fires are, in this order: electrical; smoking and matches; heating and cooking equipment; children and matches; open flames and sparks; incendiary or suspicious actions; flammable liquids; lightning; chimneys and flues; and spontaneous ignition. Faulty and misused electrical installations and equipment, which lead the list, are responsible for nearly 150 thousand fires each year.

April Bonds Sales Total $1,019.00

George Self, County Chairman for the Savings Bonds Program in Foard County, reported sales of Series E and H United States Savings Bonds in the amount of $1.019 for April 1975. Sales for the first four months of the year totaled $4,010 which represents 7 percent of their assigned dollar goal of $60,000.

WHEAT RECORD BRINGS LOWER PRICES-Wheat producers will see lower prices for their crop due to the expected record harvest, points out a grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Harvesting of the nation's two-billionbushel crop is under way. and prices should fluctuate between the $2.75-$3 per bushel level. World wheat production is also expected to be up, and this will put more pressure on U.S. exports. Increased feeding of wheat to cattle could bolster the wheat market.

EXTENSION POULTRY VET APPOINTED

Health management programs for broilers, commercial layers and pullet replacements will receive particular emphasis from a newly appointed poultry veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Dr. Roger B. Harvey, who will be located at Texas A&M University, will direct his educational efforts to disease prevention in poultry flocks and in determining problem areas and the need for poultry educational health programs.

Fire annually costs the nation more than $3 billion in direct losses. The cost is untold billions more in terms of jobs ended, production suspended, sales lost, accounts payable records destroyed-Meaning lost income for owners and employees alike.
