"TWO BITS WORTH"

BY JOHNNY VALENTINE

The County Editor Says that one of life's big disappointments is discovering that the man who writes the advertisement for a bank is not the same man who makes the loans.

TBW
Construction work has already begun at the site of the new First National Bank building in Tahoka. As we can vouch for, Mr. Ed Lampe, who contracted to build the banking house, doesn't fool around. He also built the new Lynn County Hospital which was finished way ahead of schedule. Mr. Lampe does a lot of business in Tahoka and we are proud to see him back in town.

TBW
This coming Sunday is Easter and we would like to urge all our readers to be careful if you are traveling over the holiday.

TBW
Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Riddle have recently purchased Tahoka Cafeteria from Tommy Chandler and we feel sure they will be an asset to that business. Best of Luck in your new business venture.

TBW
Strutting around on Easter morning, a rooster spied a basket of brightly colored eggs. He shook his head and thought for a time. Then he made a bee-line across the yard and kicked the daylight out of the peacock.

TBW
We received the news Monday that the Haberdasher was coming to Tahoka. Not being familiar with this word we turned to Mr. Webster to get the low down on it. A dealer in accessory articles of men's wear. The shop of such a dealer. Be watching for it. It will be opening in the near future.

TBW
Six people are fired or lose jobs because of inability to get along with others, to every one who loses a job because of inability to do the work. A bore is a person who talks about herself, when all you want to do is talk about yourself.

All some people need to make a mountain out of a molehill is a little dirt.
Many a romance begins by splashing waterfall and ends by a drippy faucet.

The Tahoka Garden Club has done a beautiful job with the triangle by the courthouse. If you haven't noticed it this year drive by.

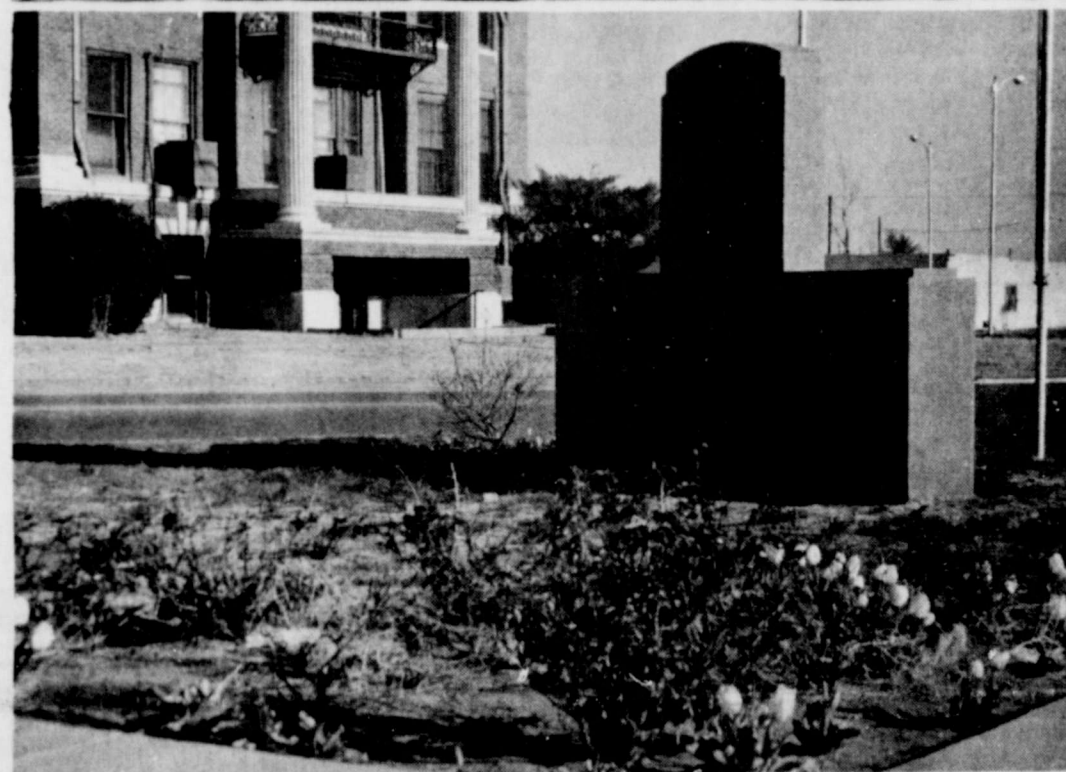

Benefit Style Show At Wilson Tonight

There will be a benefit spring style show, Thursday, April 8, (tonight) at 7:30 p.m. in the Wilson High School auditorium.

Mrs. Alex Sanders is a patient in West Texas Hospital Lubbock, suffering from a heart attack, last Friday.

GARDEN CLUB HELPS BEAUTIFY CITY--The three photographs above show one of the many projects of the Tahoka Garden Club that helps beautify the city of Tahoka. The ladies have put a lot of work on the diamond by the courthouse in the heart of Tahoka and it's really paid off, it's a beauty.

Newly Elected City Council Members Take Oath Of Office

The Tahoka City Council canvassed the ballots of the Saturday, April 3, City Election at the Monday night meeting of the board and the election was okayed as was.

Mayor Meldon Leslie and H. B. McCord, Jr. took their oaths of office as well as the new member Ed Hamilton.

The motion was made to audit the city books and the audit was given to Robert Abbe, CPA.

Pat Patterson received a certificate for 20 years service with the Tahoka VFD and the city council went on record in appreciation of the service he has given.

New stop signs will be installed by the city. The three signs being installed will be at Ave. J and N. 5th north and south and Ave. J and Lockwood and S. 1st and Ave. J. The monthly bills were paid by the council.

Present at the meeting were city manager, Milton Uzzle, H. B. McCord Jr., Alton Cain, Johnny Valentine, Ed Hamilton, Bob Haney and Mayor Meldon Leslie.

Griffin Speaks At Rotary Club

County Agent Bill Griffin spoke at the Rotary Club Thursday on the current program of the Extension Service, to $3.76 Billion in '76."

During the years 1968 and 1969 Texas farmers and ranchers received $2.76 billion from sale of crops and livestock, and 35 to 40 percent of gainfully employed persons in Texas were employed in some phase of the total agricultural industry.

Since everyone in Lynn county is directly or indirectly dependent on agriculture, all our people have a vital interest in increased farm income.

Mr. Griffin broke down the state goals to a Lynn County basis and indicated a possible increase of from $21 million in here in 1969 to $26 million by 1976.

He has figures showing $19,828,000 receipts from crops in 1969 and $1,278,000 from livestock.

Co Must Vote On Proposal Separate Sheriff, Tax Offices

Under Texas law, when a county's population drops below 10,000 the offices of sheriff and tax assessor and collector are automatically combined. However, a county of less than 10,000 population is permitted under a 1954 constitutional amendment to maintain separate offices if approved by voters of the county.

The 1970 census showed Lynn County has dropped below 10,000 in population, and the offices will be combined automatically beginning in 1973 unless citizens vote otherwise.

Lynn County Commissioners' Court is calling an election for May 18 to decide the issue. This is the same day on which four Constitutional Amendments will be submitted to Texas voters.

County Judge V. F. Jones says he and the four commissioners are decidedly of the opinion the offices should be kept separate as they are now for three or four major reasons.

In the first place, the two offices are in no way related. Then, there is the fact that an officer qualified for sheriff, or one qualified for tax assessor and collector, may not in any way be qualified for the other office since the two offices are not related in any way. In the third place, very little if any tax money could be saved by combining the two offices. And, fourthly, Lynn County's physical set-up, with the sheriff's office at the jail and the tax office in the court house, would not be conducive to efficient operation of either office.

However, Judge Jones says, this is strictly up to the desires of the tax paying citizens of Lynn county who should express their wishes in the May 18 election.

Several community projects were discussed and approved at the monthly meeting of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday noon at Tahoka Cafeteria, when 14 directors met with President D-wain Lusk.

C. Of C. Approves Several Projects

Several community projects were discussed and approved at the monthly meeting of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday noon at Tahoka Cafeteria, when 14 directors met with President D-wain Lusk.

The board voted to work with the new Babe Ruth Baseball League, headed by C. R. Burleson of O'Donnell, in attempting to secure a full size baseball field in Tahoka for a county-wide team made up of 16 to 18 year old boys to play in a league with Lamesa, Slaton, Post and other similar towns. H. B. McCord Jr., J. D. Atwell, and Meldon Leslie were named to a committee to work on the diamond site. The committee is seeking a site at least 400 by 400 feet in size and asks help from the public.

The C. of C. is also cooperating with the Tahoka Rodeo Association in promoting the up-coming rodeo here, and Maurice Small, C. of C. secretary, reported the parade at the event again promises to be one of the best as several riding groups have already accepted invitations to participate.

Judge V. F. Jones, Lynn County's director in the Highway 87 Association, reported he will attend the annual meeting being held this year in Lamesa.

Mayor Meldon Leslie and Frank Hill were appointed as delegates to attend a meeting of National Manufacturers Association in Dallas May 18-19-20 to contact some representatives interested in locating small plants in a small West Texas town. Southwestern Public Service Co. is financing a booth for this and other towns at the meeting.

Mr. Lusk joined Mrs. Billie White, distributive education director in Tahoka High School, in asking that Tahoka business men wishing to hire students for part time work contact her so that such jobs could be included in the local program for school credit.

The C. of C. and City is asking the State Highway Department to change the reading on markers at intersection of US 87 and US 380 to read "Downtown Tahoka" instead of "Lockwood Street".

State office of the Highway Department has promised to consider including a picture of the Tahoka Daisy in the next color brochure it designs of Texas wildflowers.

Honor Students Named At Tahoka High School

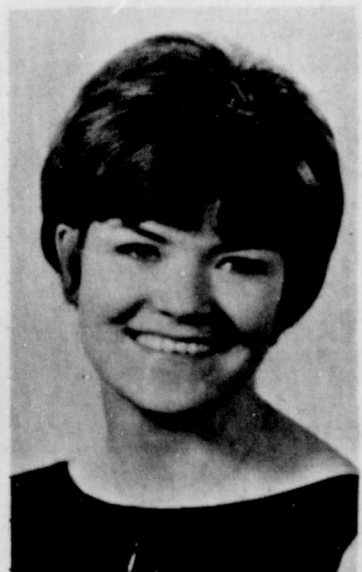

Valedictorian of the 1971 graduating class of Tahoka High School is Donnie Lou Dudgeon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rush Dudgeon. Elissa Gail Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hill, is Salutatorian.

Honor graduates of Tahoka High School are selected using a policy outlined in the student handbook. This provides for points based on numerical grades received in all solid subjects taken during the last three years of high school. Bonus points are awarded for successful completion of Foreign Language, Chemistry, Physics, Trigonometry and Elementary Analysis. Thus students taking the maximum solid subjects each year and those taking more difficult subjects have an opportunity to earn more points than students taking less solids and/or less difficult subjects. A further provision of the policy prevents any student with a grade below 70 on any reporting period from being eligible to be listed as an honor graduate.

Other students in the 1971 senior class eligible to be listed as honor graduates are Terry Ayers, Helen Pena, Frank Barham and Elda Cruce. These four, plus Donnie Dudgeon and Elissa Chandler, comprise 10 per cent of the class of fifty-seven students and are to be commended for an outstanding effort. These six will

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

BY RICHARD L. CHRISTIE

Dust storms that have ravaged Texas in recent weeks may get worse before they get better warns the head of the state's U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Clyde W. Graham, SCS State Conservationist, says Texas dust storms have reached alarming intensity. "Acres damaged by wind erosion this blow season are already higher than any year since 1965," Graham reports. "If we don't get widespread rains soon, wind erosion damages may reach mid-1950 levels."

Graham said the record-breaking drought is a major cause of the problem. Many areas report winter rainfall to be the lowest since records were started.

"Dry weather last fall kept many farmers from planting cover crops," Graham continued. "The drought has also reduced the effectiveness of emergency tillage which some farmers rely on to prevent wind erosion. And high wind velocities in the December to May blow season always seem to accompany a severe drought."

He said the combination of drought, high winds and lack of cover was causing serious land damage across a wide section of the state. The storms are also creating health problems for people with respiratory ailments.

Reports from SCS offices tell of roads and streets blocked with sand and 6-foot drifts against houses. And it's not just a farm problem. Sandy land being stripped bare for urban developments is blowing, too.

About 2 million acres of land in Texas has been damaged by wind erosion this year which is about the same as 1965. This compares to only 126,000 damaged last year. The most wind erosion in the past 20 years occurred during the 1956 blow season when 2.7 million acres were damaged.

Graham expressed concern that the 2 million figure for 1971 may double unless it rains soon.

He pointed out, however, that conservation programs pushed by his agency and by local soil and water conservation districts have been extremely valuable in curtailing wind damages this year. While the 2 million acre figure is high, it isn't close to the 15 million acres damaged during Dust Bowl days of the 1930's. "It's remarkable how land covered with a good surface mulch of crop residue is being protected from wind erosion," Graham said. "Farms and ranches covered with conservation measures installed under the Great Plains Conservation Program are weathering the wind storms especially well."

Graham said that in the last 15 years some 500,000 acres of cropland subject to wind damage in Northwest Texas have been planted to protective grasses. Nearly a million acres of depleted rangeland have also been seeded. Better grassland management is holding down wind erosion on range and pasture land.

"But 2 million acres of land being damaged by wind this year is simply intolerable," Graham said, "especially when you realize it could have been prevented. It's easy to blame it all on the drought but that's only part of the cause. We've been urging people for years to do a better job of leaving crop residues on the soil surface. Many listen but some donot."

Graham said that when you have good moisture, as we have had in recent years, wind velocity drops. And emergency tillage works as a good stand-by measure. As a result, people get by without wind damage during good rainfall years in spite of the fact that their land may be bare. This lulls many farmers into complacency and they ignore sound conservation farming principles.

Farm Bureau News

If you haven't started your letter-writing concerning any bills that haven't been voted on as yet in the legislation, it would be wise to do promptly as it won't be long until adjournment. Representative E. L. Short and Senator H. L. (Doc) Blanchard can be written in care of State Capitol, Austin, Texas 78711.

Bills of interests last week were as follows:
FARM-TO-MARKET ROADS: H. B. 1138 by Smith, a bill which would transfer farm-to-market road funds to the foundation school program and the general fund, was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the Committee on Appropriations. Representative Smith says that his purpose in introducing this bill is to reduce the amount of the tax bill which must be passed this session by $30 million. Representative Smith also maintains that the Farm-To-Market Road program has been effectively completed, and that it is no longer necessary to earmark funds for this purpose.

LIVESTOCK: S. B. 771 by Hall, a bill to prohibit livestock from running at large on any U. S. Highway, State Highway, or numbered farm-to-market roads, was introduced in the Senate and referred to the Committee on Agriculture and livestock. This bill differs from the present statute in that the present statute refers only to State Highways enclosed by fences. The penalty is the same - a fine up to $200, with each day constituting a separate offense.

FIREARMS: H. B. 1449 by Atwell, a bill providing that no license or registration fee or tax shall ever be imposed on firearms, was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the Committee on State Affairs. Section 1 of this bill reads as follows: "Every citizen has the right to acquire, possess and bear arms for the lawful defense of life, limb, property, and government and for training and practice in order to achieve a level of competence appropriate there to, including the right to own and use firearms for marksmanship, hunting, and other lawful purposes. No license fee or tax shall ever be imposed on firearms transferred owned, possessed, or transported for the above purposes."

H. B. 1000 by Graves, a bill providing a system for the registration of handguns and for licensing persons owning handguns, was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the Committee on State Affairs.

ANNUAL LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS: H. J. R. 65 by Silber and others, a proposed Constitutional Amendment to provide for annual sessions of the Legislature, was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

FOUR YEAR TERMS: H. J. R. 71 by Poerner and Uher, a proposed Constitutional Amendment to provide four year terms of office for the governor and other state officials who are elected state-wide, was introduced in the House of Representatives and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments. Four year terms would be provided for the governor, the lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, land office Commissioner, and other statutory officers who now have two-year terms. This bill provides for 4-year staggered terms for Representatives, and 6-year staggered terms for Senators.

REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION: S. B. 723 by Mauzy, a bill providing that the 63rd Legislature shall convene on October 2, 1973, for the purpose of drafting a new Constitution for Texas, was introduced in the Senate and referred to the Committee on State Affairs.

MINIMUM WAGE INCREASE: S. B. 551 by Bernal, a bill which would increase the minimum wage farm labor to levels required under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act, was heard before the Senate Committee on Labor and Management Relations and was reported out favorably as expected. "Hearing" isn't quite the right word for what happened because no hearing notice was posted and few, if any, even knew the hearing was being held.

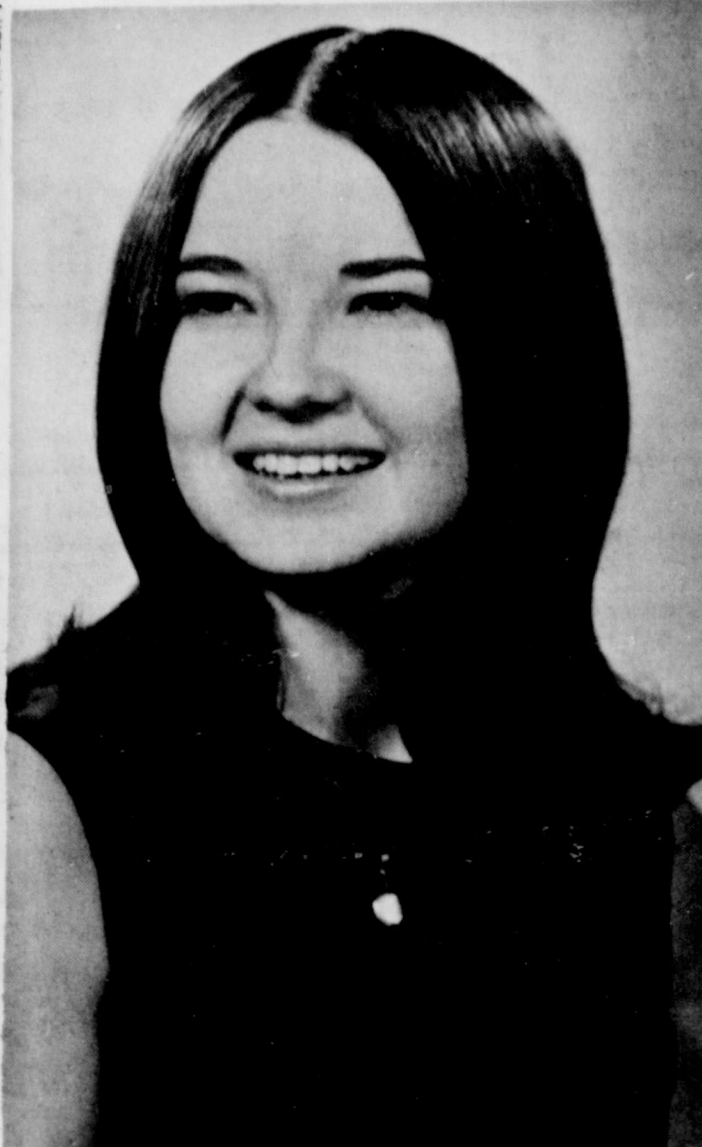

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME: H. B. 506 by Sanchez and Poerner, a bill to exempt Texas from provisions of the federal Uniform Act, was brought to the floor of the House of Representatives for debate and failed to pass by a vote of 87 against and 60 for.

Candidates Talk At Meeting Here

Ten of the 14 candidates for city and school district offices made brief talks at the public meeting last Friday night in the Community Center.

"Junior" Montemayor, who presided at the meeting, attended principally by Mexican-Americans, explained that the meeting was called principally as a get-acquainted affair and to hear the candidates.

Several agreed the meeting was most profitable, if for no other reason than to help some of those attending feel they are an important part of the community and should take more interest in local civic affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Viertel of Moran visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Viertel, last week end.

Mr. Otto Carter is a patient in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hubbard and girls of Lorenzo visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hubbard, last Sunday.

J. W. Armontrout, 93, of New Home was carried to Mercy Hospital in Slaton Tuesday night, by White Ambulance, suffering a possible stroke.

Foot in the Door

To the bus driver waiting at the wheel, it seemed that the fat lady was his final customer. But behind her, unseen by the driver, a girl was also preparing to come aboard. She had already gotten one foot in the door when he closed it and started to move.

The girl was flung to the pavement and injured. In due course, she sued the bus company for damages.

"Even if his view was blocked by that fat lady," she told the court, "he had no right to close the door without double-checking. After all, a common carrier owes a high degree of care to its passengers."

"Maybe so," conceded the company. "But this girl was not yet a passenger. She had paid no fare. She had not really gotten aboard. We do regret the incident, but we are not legally liable."

Nevertheless, the court held that the girl was indeed a passenger, entitled to extra care, and granted her claim.

This is the prevailing rule, that a person may acquire the special status of "passenger" even before he is inside the vehicle. It is usually enough that he has shown his readiness to come aboard—and that the company has shown its readiness to accept him.

But the readiness on both sides must coincide. Take this case: A man rushed up to a bus just after the door had closed. He knocked on the glass, but the bus was already beginning to roll. The man slipped, fell, and got hit by the rear wheel.

REV. TURNER AND REV. CARLOS McLEOD

Could he collect damages from the company? A court said no, because he had not gained the status of a passenger. The court pointed out that he had not shown his readiness to ride until the driver had stopped showing his readiness to accept him.

A parallel problem arises at journey's end: at what moment does the passenger lose his special status?

In another case a passenger alighted at a bus stop, began to cross the street, and was knocked down by a second bus passing the one he had just left. Here, he claimed damages on the theory that his driver should have warned him that another bus was following.

But the court said the driver could not be blamed, because the man had lost his status as a passenger. Once safely discharged, said the court, a passenger turns into just another pedestrian.

CHUCK HOSKINS KILLS BOBCAT

Chuck Hoskins Kills Bobcat

Chuck Hoskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoskins, recently killed a bobcat in his fathers pasture, 4 miles west of Tahoka. He has also killed 4 coyotes in the past two weeks.

Chuck has also caught a falcon, which he is trying to train. All of these animals were caught in traps made by Jack and Chuck.

Texas Auction Sales Increase

Sales were above a year earlier for cattle and calves, sheep, goats and hogs at the livestock auction markets inspected by the Texas Animal Health Commission, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Cattle and calves marketed through auctions during January numbered 610,000 head, 13 percent above a year ago and 45 percent above December.

Sheep sales at livestock auctions during January at 79,000 head were 41 percent above a year ago.

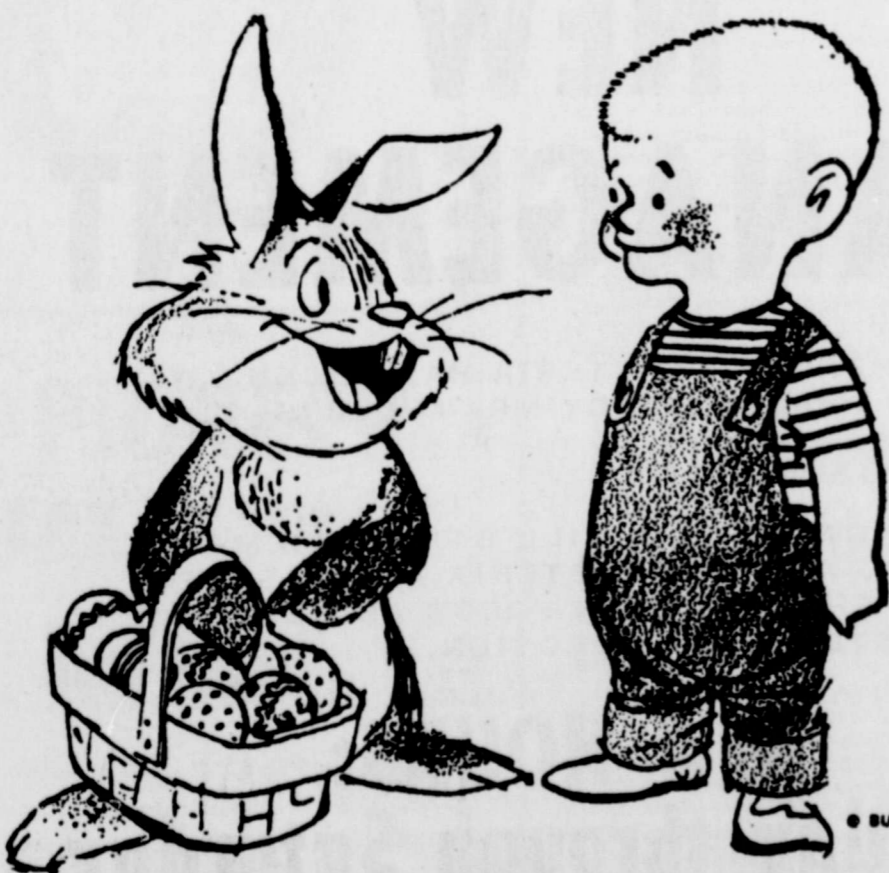

Hogs sold during January at 60,000 were 18 percent above a year ago and 30 percent above December.

WATCH FOR OAK POISONING

Cattle grazing in pastures in which sand shin oak is growing should be watched carefully. Dr. James M. Armstrong, Extension veterinarian, warns that the plant is very palatable and toxic to cattle when it first buds in the spring. The blossoms, buds, leaves and stems are all toxic. Since grazing is very short in areas where the oak is found, stockmen should take special note if cattle are grazing the plant.

TEXAS CALF CROP UP

Calves born on Texas farms and ranches during 1970 totaled 5,378,000 head, up 2 percent from 1969. The increased calf crop, says the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, was due primarily to the greater number of cows since the calf crop percentage remained stable, 78 percent compared to 89 for '69. Cows and heifers 2 years and older numbered 6,118,000 head, up 3 percent.

At the beer election held here last Friday Tahoka again voted dry. The vote was 217 for beer and 266 against it. There were two mutilated or unintelligible ballots that were not counted, making a total of 485 votes cast. Thus the vote cast fell something like 75 or 100 short of the voting strength of the city. It is believed that the larger part of those not voting leaned to the dry side.

Texas Cattle, Numbers Continue Upwards

Texas cattle numbers rose for the sixth straight year in 1970 while lamb and sheep numbers moved upward for the first time since 1961, according to livestock inventory figures from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

In addition to this report, the 1970 calf crop, the 1970 lamb crop, and the Feb. 1 cattle on feed report were also released.

Beef cow populations, cattle on feed, and the Texas calf crop also showed increases.

Texas cattle numbers on January 1, 1971 showed a three percent gain over year ago levels. Sheep and lamb numbers gained two percent in contrast to the continued decline of the national totals. Stock sheep recorded an even larger increase in the state, a three percent rise from last Jan. 1.

Beef cow populations in Texas reached 5.8 million head on Jan. 1, 1971, showing a four percent increase over the revised 5.6 million head recorded last year.

Dr. Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist, noted that for the first time heifers weighing 500 pounds and over being kept for cow replacement were also recorded. These numbered 754,000 in 1971 - a gain of three percent over the 1970 level.

The Texas calf crop reached 5.4 million head in 1970, a two percent gain over the 1969 figure. Dr. Uvacek noted that the number of calves born as a percent of cows and heifers two years and older on hand the first of the year moved down slightly to 88 percent.

He added that for the first time this year, the USDA reported the number of calves born as a percent of cows and heifers that had actually calved. This percentage was 91 percent for Texas and averages 94 percent for the nation. Texas' 1970 lamb crop was estimated at 2.4 million head - a four percent increase over 1969. The number of breeding ewes, one year and older on Jan. 1, 1970 were down drastically, causing the percentage lamb crop to rise to 92 percent - a gain of 12 percentage points over last year.

Texas cattle on feed on Feb. 1, 1971 reached 1.6 million head, showing an increase of 12 percent from more than a year ago. Feedlots with capacities of 1,000 head or more held 97 percent of the cattle on feed on Feb. 1.

Dr. Uvacek said that of the 257 such feedlots in Texas, only 185 were operating while the other 72 lots were completely empty.

Early Weaning Of Lambs Advised

Under present drought conditions, many sheep producers should take advantage of early weaning and drylot feeding of lambs, suggests Dr. Maurice Shelton of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station's Agricultural Research Center at McGregor.

Good young lambs should not be allowed to become "dogged," he emphasizes. He adds that it is more efficient to separate the ewes and lambs if extensive feeding becomes necessary.

COTTON FARMERS HAVE CHANCE TO CASH IN ON CROP

Cotton the old standby in Texas and one of the State's leading industries has a chance to make the economy of the State really hum.

An optimistic outlook for cotton appears. Demand outstripped production in 1970 and is carrying on during this year. Buyers and merchants are in the country now contracting for this year's crop, not yet planted.

A new agricultural act will give many of our State's growers an opportunity to take advantage of the situation and plant more cotton. A unique feature in the new law allows a cotton farmer to protect his paying yield against being lowered.

This feature will allow him to plant as much cotton as he feels necessary in order to harvest at least as much cotton as the amount on which he will receive payment. Another feature allows a grower to plant his crop in a two-row skip pattern and comply with set-aside provisions.

In many areas this will assist him in improving his yields per acre.

When you consider the Texas cotton crop brought farmers in this state over $400 million dollars in 1970, which was worth over two billion dollars to the economy as it moved through the channels of trade and processing, a likely 20% increase could mean over 80 million additional dollars to Texas Cotton farmers this year and hum this State's economy to the tune of over $400 million additional dollars. . . who needs it, we all do!

Forecasts Advised

Consideration of marketing forecasts in planning feeding operations will usually pay good dividends.

By using the price forecasts, higher profit periods could be utilized by feeding more cattle and the effects of loss periods could be reduced by feeding fewer head, explained Dr. Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist.

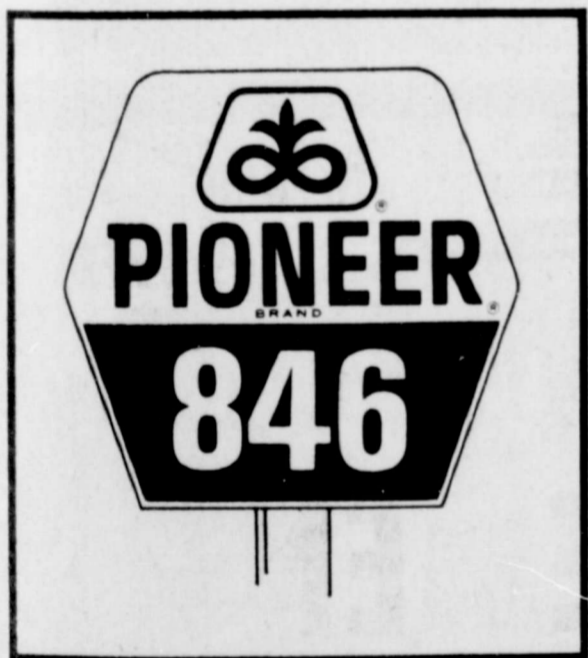

He noted that computers, statistical analysts, and marketing specialists are now making reliable price predictions for planning both feeding and calf production.

In the United States there are two major types of feeders - the "farmer-feeder" and the large commercial feeder.

The "farmer-feeder", common in the Mid-West, is basically a crop farmer who usually raises corn. Feeding cattle, hogs, or sheep is just another way of marketing his cash crop, Uvacek said.

His feeding is usually carried on in the winter when all the field work is done and labor is available.

The commercial feeder in the Southwest and in the Southern Great Plains States must maintain a certain proportion of his capacity if his feedlot is to operate profitably.

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Gov. Preston Smith has called on President Nixon to declare 60 Texas counties eligible for drought disaster relief and requested initial allocation of $5 million in federal aid.

All the counties, said Smith, received less than 1.5 inches of accumulated rainfall in the past six months, creating drought conditions which adversely affect ranches, farms, dairies, businesses and employment throughout the entire state.

Smith said he would not call for emergency disaster legislation from the state legislature because of the "extremely critical" state financial problem. State and local health, employment, agriculture and welfare agencies, the Governor stated, are performing emergency disaster duties as required.

Governor asked an initial allocation of $5 million. In addition, he urged that the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Department of Labor, Health, Education and Welfare and Small Business Administration representatives be assigned to counties to collaborate with state and local officials in inspections, cost estimates and technical guidance.

Texas counties included in the request (others may be added), ranging from the tip of South Texas to the top of the Panhandle, are:

Armstrong, Aransas, Atascosa, Bandera, Bee, Bexar, Blanco, Brooks, Burnet, Caldwell, Cameron, Carson, Childress, Coke, Comal, Cottle, Dewitt, Dickens, Duval, Uvalde, El Paso, Frio, Garza, Gillespie; Goliad, Gonzales, Guadalupe, Hidalgo, Hutchinson, Jim Hogg, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kendall, Kennedy, Kerr, Kimble, King, Kleberg, Dimmit, LaSalle, Lipscomb, Live Oak, McMullen, Medina, Nueces, Oldham, Potter;

Refugio, San Patricio, Schleicher, Starr, Stone, Swisher, Val Verde, Webb, Willacy, Wilson, Zapata, and Zavala.

WELFARE CUT AVERTED? -Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes announced a way has been found to prevent the sharp cut on May 1 in aid to needy families with dependent children.

Legislation has been introduced to permit the Welfare Department to transfer and spend for AFDC necessary sums not to exceed $6.8 million for the rest of this fiscal year ending August 31.

Barnes said about $5 million is available in a contingency fund of the Welfare Department, and an additional $1 million or more will come from federal matching money.

A comptroller's office representative said there is no question but what funds can be used to avert the scheduled AFDC reduction. Welfare Board on March 22 ordered the May cut which would bring the average AFDC family grant down from $188 a month to $80 and eliminate some 4,500 families from the rolls entirely.

APPOINTMENTS - Governor Smith named T. Louis Austin Jr. of Dallas to Texas Board of Corrections, succeeding Walter Pfluger of San Angelo on the key agency which supervises the state prison system policy.

Smith reappointed Reagan Houston III of San Antonio as a member of the Board of Regents of Texas Woman's University and also named John Shivers of Austin and Mrs. Marcella Perry of Houston as new members of the TWU Board.

Douglas Bergman and Walter C. Todd of Dallas were reappointed to the Stephen F. Austin State University Board, and Robert C. Gray of Austin was added.

H. J. Shands Sr. of Lufkin will replace Arthur Temple Jr. of Diboll on the Board of Directors of the Neches River Conservation District.

COURTS SPEAK - Third Court of Civil Appeals here ruled that welfare applicants who are turned down by the Welfare Department for aid have no right to appeal to state courts since assistance is not a "vested property right."

Court of Criminal Appeals in a Coryell County case held that a district judge has no power to credit a prisoner's time in county jail while he is appealing his conviction toward his eventual prison sentence.

State Supreme Court concluded that a man who built a cabin on an otherwise unoccupied island in Galveston Bay and camped there off-and-on for 10 years did not gain title to it by adverse possession. Court said possession must continue through a 10-year period to take title under adverse possession.

AG OPINIONS - A compact of water districts and river authorities may act for the state in getting $40 million in federal funds which the state might otherwise lose for 1970-71, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

+ An independent school district may solicit bids from class ring manufacturers and grant exclusive privilege to one such manufacturer to service voluntary student purchases of rings. Whether grant can extend for five years is a question before federal courts.

+ Section of a bill pertaining to abandonment of mineral estate without notice or hearing is unconstitutional, but balance of legislation is not.

TRAFFIC TOLL - Governor Smith expressed "deep concern and dissatisfaction" over the 1970 Texas traffic toll.

Smith noted an increase of nine in fatalities - a rise to 3560 in 1970 - over 1969 and an economic loss toll over $1 billion.

Governor said his only encouragement is that, with nearly 500,000 more drivers and a billion more miles traveled over the preceding year, the official death rate per-mile-traveled remained the same as 1969.

Smith pledged aid through news campaigns and called for public support of legislation, police concentration on traffic offenses and forceful treatment of violators by judges. SCHOOL SANCTIONS URGED - Texas Classroom Teachers Association's professional rights and responsibilities commission will recommend to the TCTA executive board that sanctions be invoked against Crystal City Independent School District.

If sanctions are ordered, state and national accrediting agencies will be notified of unsatisfactory conditions for both students and teachers in the district. Teachers will be encouraged not to accept employment in the school system.

Some eight or nine teachers will not be rehired there according to a TCTA attorney after an investigation.

TRAVEL GUIDE OUT - Texas looks better than ever, boasts the new "Texas, Land of Contrast," travel guide just released by the Texas Highway Department.

Combining tourist information about 371 cities and towns, the 200-page publication also lists state parks, major lakes, national forests, national recreation areas, Big Bend National Park, Padre Island, National Seashore, campground guide and basic hunting and fishing facts.

Book will be distributed at highway department tourist bureaus and by mail in response to out-of-state inquiries. It contains nearly 4,000 items of tourist and travel information and 400 color photographs.

Easter Seal Appeal Will Close Sunday

A last minute appeal for support of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its program of services to the handicapped was issued today by Mr. J. M. Small who is the Easter Seal Representative in Lynn County. The Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services for over 21,000 physically handicapped children and adults in Texas last year, Mr. Small said, and this program needs to be expanded. Many people are going without services that would increase the productivity of their lives and make them happier. With increased growth of the Easter Seal Society, more and more of these people will be reached, he added.

The Society is carrying on a continuing program to seek out the disabled who are doing without services and see that they receive the help they need. As Easter Seal Representative Mr. Small is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society.

The Easter Seal Society of Texas helps support 20 treatment facilities in Texas where crippled children and adults are treated, regardless of their ability to pay. Physical occupational and speech therapy are offered to help the handicapped overcome their disabilities. A complete referral program to ensure equal rehabilitation services to every person in Texas is included in Easter Seal Society services.

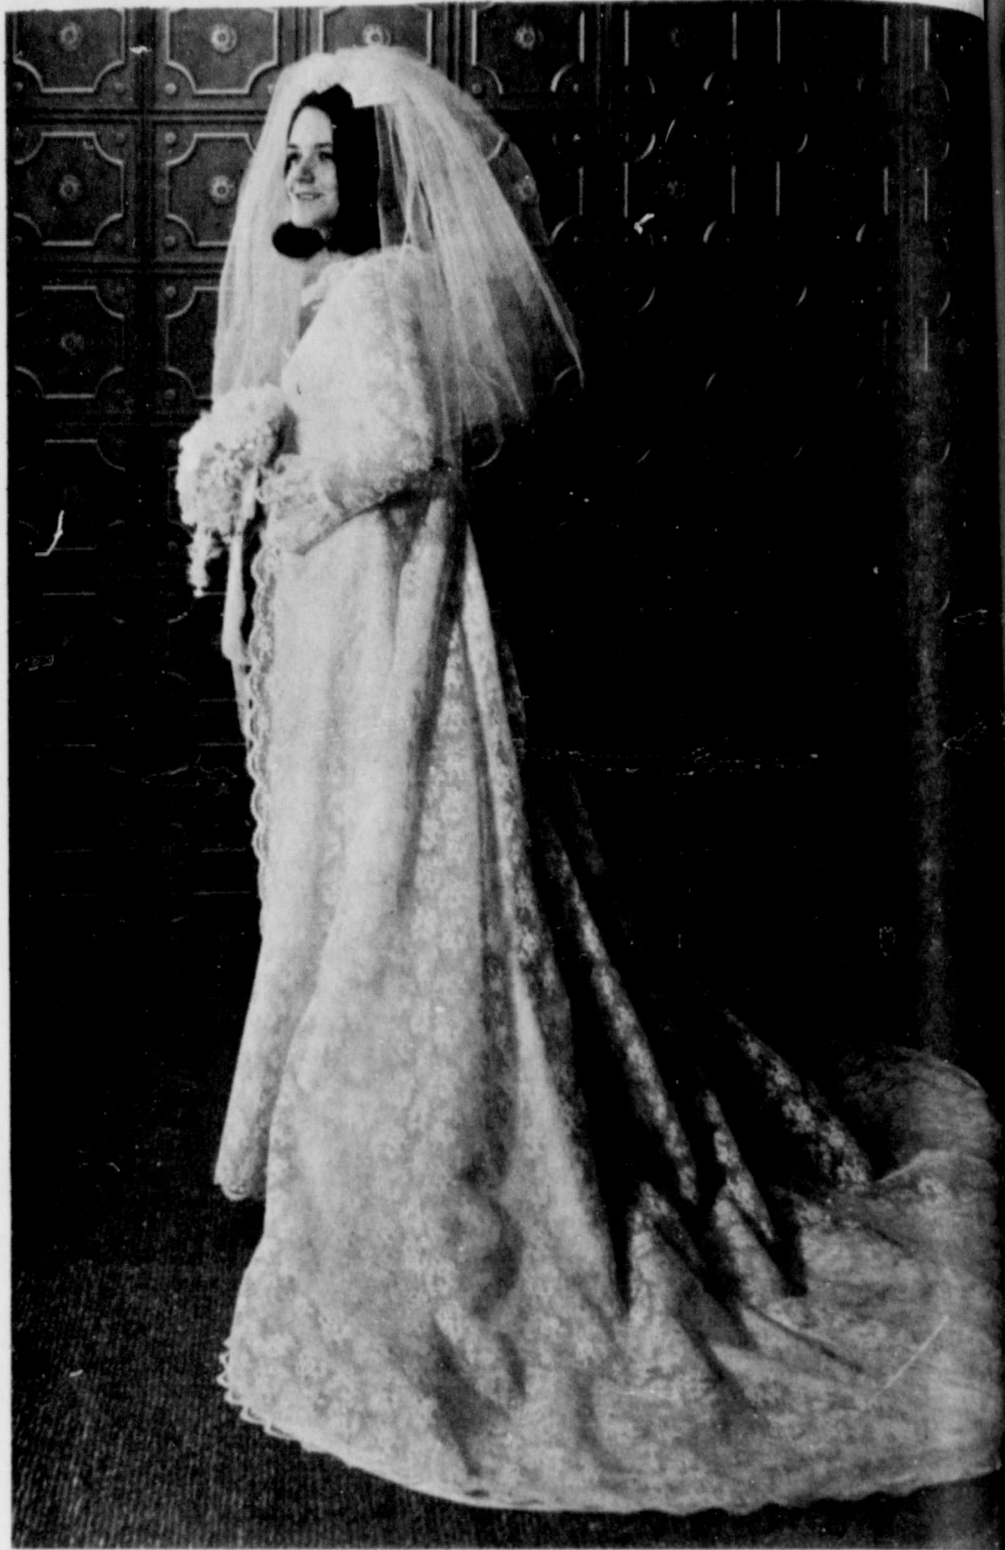

The Easter Seal Appeal will close Easter Sunday, April 11, and full support should be given the Easter Seal Society by every citizen of Lynn County, he added.

This cotton strips clean, yields big. It's Coker 4104, now improved for 1971.

It's the cotton to plant for highest returns this year. Check the Loan. Coker 4104 staple averages 1-1/16" or better. "Mike" is in the premium range. Fiber strength, 80,000 to 90,000 psi. Many mills have bought it and like its spinning properties.

Our improved strain of Coker 4104 for 1971 is earlier maturing, higher yielding - and has even better micronaire than last year's strain. The plants are vigorous and erect, with enough storm resistance to stay in the burr and wait on the stripper.

This cotton has good drought tolerance too, as proved in many High Plains areas last season.

$12.00 more per acre

"In 1969 Coker 4104 looked like the best variety my neighbor had, so I planted some in '70. I made $12.00 more per acre with Coker 4104 than the next closest variety. I have to stretch my water, but 4104 holds up very well and reacts faster when you do get the water to it than any cotton I've planted."

ADRIN TAYLOR, Ralls, Texas

A quarter-bale better per acre

"I've had good luck with Coker 4104; it's been my best variety for two years now. It beat another variety by better than 1/4 bale per acre. I plan to plant more 4104."

ROY LEE KNIGHT, Abernathy, Texas

503 bales from 412 acres

"Coker 4104 was my best cotton in 1969 so I planted all my acreage to it in 1970. I had 412 acres, some solid, some skip-row and light water - 50 acres total dryland - and made 503 bales. We had absolutely no rain after the cotton came up."

BILLY CRUMP, Ralls, Texas

See your ginner for seed now. It's a money-makin' cotton!

Balance Of Nature

THE BALANCE OF NATURE

In the beginning God created the Heavens and the Earth. The earth was waste and void. Darkness was upon the face of the deep. The Spirit of God moved upon the face of the water and God said, "Let there be light." There was light, and it was good. Then God created the grass, trees, the beasts, the birds - every living thing to reproduce after its kind.

And in a garden, eastward in Eden, He put man. But man rebelled and God drove him from the Garden to forage over the earth and to compete with the beasts of the field for his food. Aimlessly he wandered, seeking his food among plants and creatures of the shore, the stream, the forest, the plain. He struggled, fitfully and fearfully to survive. IT WAS "THE BALANCE OF NATURE"

Slowly at first, then more rapidly, man began to multiply. He learned to domesticate animals and plants. He gathered his kind into villages and his plants and animals into farms. Food soon became more abundant. All men no longer needed to be farmers. Some became artisans, teachers, doctors and builders. Some even became dreamers, philosophers and politicians.

THIS WAS SOCIETY

With God-given talent, man used his imagination, his logic, his ingenuity. . . and through the application of scientific methods learned to feed, to clothe, shelter and enjoy himself. His numbers increased. Villages became towns, cities, nations. He built roads, ships, rockets, television and computers. He conquered distance, time, and even space.

Life became secure. Food and fiber were synthesized from myriad substances. Men called farmers became efficient users of science and produced for himself and for 40 doctors, lawyers and all.

To produce so well, he had to use machinery, scientific methods, new breeds, and chemicals. Feed additives to protect and increase livestock production were needed. Disease, vermin, insects and weeds were fought with knowledge.

THUS HAD COME THE AGE OF SCIENCE

Most men revelled in better food, longer life, happier years, greater fulfillment. . . a chance to dream, a time to love and the opportunity to engage in leisure time pursuits, which brought gladness to the heart.

But soon it came to pass that certain albeit secure and well nourished men, filled with indifference, ignorance and egoism, disapproved of the farmer's use of scientific method. They spoke harshly of his techniques of breeding, feeding and protecting plants and animals. They condemned the Farmer and all who aided him for disrupting the ecology for disturbing the Balance of Nature. They yearned noisily for the illusion of the "good old days" when nature took its course. And the Farmer, now a small minority, could not be heard, some even contending that he was no longer needed.

With food in abundance, they persuaded the lawmakers and rulers to pass laws. Science was abolished from the farm. The land was riddled of pesticide, medicants, fertilizers, and preservatives. Slowly at first, but with a gathering thrush, insects, disease, weeds and vermin returned to inherit the earth, to thrive on crops, to claim the animal. Abundance turned to famine, disease ravaged man's flesh and killed his kin.

And trying feebly to raise their own food, executives, clerks, artisans and professionals failed miserably. Hungry, angry, frustrated, they tried to satisfy their needs from others equally destitute. Wars flourished, millions perished from conflict, hunger and disease. Aimlessly man wandered, seeking food among plants and creatures of the shore, the streams and the plains. He struggled fitfully and fearfully to survive. He had returned once again to . . .

Bill Griffin, County Agent Says.....

Good management, including fertilizing, mowing and watering, will be even more important in the weeks ahead so far as the home lawn is concerned. Under the current weather conditions, low moisture and climbing temperatures, the job ahead could be a real toughy, explains Bill.

Turf requires adequate amounts of plant food if it is to stay green and maintain growth under drought conditions. Water requirements necessarily will have to be increased to take care of the lack of rainfall. And, under-watering should be avoided if at all possible. Soak the soil to a depth of several inches at each watering; thus maintaining a good turf. In the long run, the amount of water used will be no more and may be less than when light sprinkling of the lawn is practiced. Lawns should receive an application of a complete fertilizer in the spring about the time growth begins and another in the fall a month ahead of the first frost, says the county agent. During the summer, an application of nitrogen every 30 to 40 days will keep the lawn green and growing and the ground covered. Ground cover is important during periods of high temperature, he adds.

Nitrogen is the key element in turf production. It produces vegetative growth and gives the plant a deep green color. Phosphorus stimulates development of a good root system and potassium affects the physiological processes of the plant. A deficiency of nitrogen causes stunted plant growth and the condition often referred to as "firing". Slow growth results from the lack of phosphorus and a shortage of potassium causes the entire plant to "dry up" and take on a brownish color.
