Crops Look Great, Rain Totals 10.11 Inches

With return of sunshine following an unprecedented August rainy spell, Lynn County's 1972 crop prospects again look great.

New records for August rainfall and cool weather have been set this year since there have been 15 days this month that from a trace up to nearly three inches of rain has been recorded.

Rainfall this month has totaled 10.11 inches, with 5.12 inches of this coming in the past week, bringing the year's total to 20.24 inches, about three inches above the normal year's total.

There have been only six days in August this year that the high temperature has exceeded 90 degrees, most days being in the 70's and 80's, with the lowest August temperature on August a cool 73 degrees on August 13. Except for three nights, minimum temperatures have been in the low 60's.

Barring a wet fall, or some other disaster, Lynn county this year will probably turn out the largest cotton crop in history. Although the milo maize acreage is the smallest in many years, this crop also promises to be very fine.

Many farmers, however, are having a terrible battle with the weeds, and a small acreage has been lost to weeds. Looper worms have been in cotton but have caused minor concern, and boll worms have not become a serious threat so far.

Although wet weather has delayed the crop somewhat farmers report cotton stalks are loading up with a tremendous amount of bolls and that these bolls are now maturing rapidly.

Tahoka recorded 2.82 inches of rain in 24 hours Aug. 25 and 26, another 1.5 inches 26 and 27, and .80 Aug. 27 and 28.

Previous record for August rainfall recorded here was in the bumper crop year of 1937 when the total was 7.24 inches. In August, 1966, Tahoka received 4.43 inches, and in August 1971, 4.59 inches.

Also, this August there have been no hot south winds which frequently burn cotton or cut down on production.

Quality Set-Aside Provisions Strengthened For 1973 Programs

Because payment deductions for less-than-average quality set-aside land are being increased for the 1973 programs, producers can be better assured of equitable application of set-aside provisions in the 1973 wheat, feed grain, and cotton programs, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today.

For wheat and feed grain farms, when low-quality acreage is offered for set-aside -- that is acreage not representative of land on which the farm's crops are grown -- the entire payment will be based on the productivity of the set-aside land.

For cotton, the reduction will be computed in the same manner as in 1972, except that the deduction rate will be 13 cents per pound instead of the 1972 rate of 6 cents.

This announcement was made as a result of a study of 1971-72 programs operations which revealed that a few producers with farms having both poor quality and quality cropland have offered the poor quality for set-aside and accepted deductions from their farm payments. The deductions were not enough to offset the monetary advantage gained by producing crops on the quality acreage rather than setting it aside from production.

The great majority of participants in the set-aside programs have offered quality set-aside acreages in both 1971 and 1972, and the increased deduction rates for 1973 will affect relatively few producers.

In both 1971 and 1972, quality of set-aside has been emphasized, with a requirement that set-aside acreage be representative of cropland acreage on a participating farm. Deductions of set-aside payments are made in cases where set-aside land is not

CLIFF GARDNER

Gardner To Play At McMurry

Ablene -- Clifton James Gardner suddenly showed up for fall drills at McMurry College, and suddenly the former Tahoka athletic star has demonstrated his talents to the point he could play a lot of football for the Indians this fall.

Gardner, a 6-1, 178-pounder who lettered last year in basketball at Western Texas College at Snyder is pushing for a starting job in the defensive secondary. "Cliff has fine reactions, and you can attribute those reactions to his natural ability and to basketball," says defensive backfield coach Tommy Estes. "The pros like those backs who have played basketball because they can move well, keep their balance and jump. Cliff is a fine athlete."

At Tahoka, Gardner was All-District first team defense as a senior and also All-District in basketball. He is a 1971 Tahoka graduate and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gardner of 2114 North 1st.

Field Day To Be Held Sept. 13

A field day will be held September 13 at the Soil Conservation Service plant materials center at Knox City, State Conservationist Edward E. Thomas announced this week.

The center serves Texas and Oklahoma. Livestockmen, seed dealers, sportsmen, and others interested in the search for improved plants are being invited to attend the field day.

Harvey Davis of Temple, executive director of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board, will be the principal speaker.

New grasses, forbs, legumes and other plants under evaluation at the center will be discussed during the day. Some 1200 strains of 325 plants are being grown at the center.

Chief goal of the SCS plant materials work is to find new strains of plants that will solve specific conservation problems. Since livestock and wildlife co-exist on the same land, the search extends to grasses, legumes, forbs and shrubs which have dual values. Such plants are needed by landowners and operators for including in range seeding mixtures, for use in travel lane seedings, in border plantings, or for other uses.

Strains that appear promising at Knox City are then

Operation Motorcide Labor Day 1972

Approximately 48 persons are expected to die on Texas streets and highways over Labor Day weekend, according to estimates by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The DPS will conduct Operation Motorcide from 6:00 a.m. Friday through midnight September 4. This will be one of the 78-hour holiday periods which will be critical for all motorists.

Major C. W. Bell, DPS Region 5 Commander said that available uniformed patrolmen will be put into action to maximum enforcement of the laws. Major Bell said, "Each driver should drive defensively at all times." Major Bell suggested that each individual practice driving defensively -- the Texas way!

DPS records show that the majority of traffic fatalities caused by excessive speed are the drinking driver. The reminder the motoring public that 0.10 per cent blood alcohol in one's body is the presumptive level of legal intoxication under Texas law.

Approximately 500 National Guardsmen will assist the uniformed patrolmen in the areas of Tahoka, Tyler, Houston, Corsicana, San Antonio, and other areas. Many of these patrol cars will be riding in the area through the Labor Day weekend to enable the Department to have more personnel on the road.

chance failures. He strongly urges all motorists to be certain that their inspection sticker is up to date.

Capt. Shelton of the Driver License Service warns the unlicensed driver to not jeopardize his life, because last year seven per cent of all 3594 Texas traffic fatalities involved the unlicensed driver!

It is the fervent hope of the DPS that Texans, and out of state motorists, will enjoy this American tradition of celebrating the Labor Day weekend in a sensible, safe manner. Let's prove the statisticians wrong by keeping the actual death count way below the estimated 48 lives predicted to be lost. This responsibility is in the hands of those behind the wheel.

Below is a list of rules to drive by, in order to celebrate Labor Day next year.

1. Don't mix gasoline with alcohol.

2. Use seat belts. Your chances of survival in a major accident are five times greater when you are buckled up.

3. Slow down, drive according to the traffic, weather, vehicle condition, and your own physical condition. Lives lost do not make up for the small amount of time you think you save!

4. Obey all traffic laws. They were ordained by Texans to keep the Texas motorist safe and alive for all times!

If this week is accident free, then we'll all celebrate Labor Day in '73!

LINDA HUFFAKER SAYS ...

Homemade jellies and jams are special treats for hot days. Biscuits -- and sometimes -- clothes. It's just as sticky to wipe off as jelly and fruit juice stains. But fabrics as it is off the skin. To avoid lingering and permanent stains in garments, treat all fruit stains immediately. If the garment is worth saving, it's worth the trouble. Follow stain removal steps. Some fruit stains are difficult to remove and you may have to repeat a procedure several times. You can remove most fruit stains or at least lighten them. Start by removing the stain with water, because hot, soapy water can set it permanently. The first step, then, is to sponge it with cool soapy water. Citrus fruit stains may be visible after drying, but will turn yellow with age and heat and become difficult to remove. For stains on white cotton linens, stretch the fabric over a bowl and fasten it with an elastic band or string. Pour boiling water from a height of one to three feet through the spot. Launder as usual according to normal procedures. For other washable fabrics such as synthetics and colored cotton, rise or soak the stains in cold water. Work detergent into the stain and launder the garment following similar procedures. If necessary, apply a hydrogen peroxide or sodium perborate wash to the stain. You can also add a few drops of ammonia. Wait 15 to 30 minutes and then wash, following regular washing directions. This works especially well for cherry, plum, pear and peach stains. It's always wise to test for color fastness. Certain finishes and fabrics react differently. The season of fresh fruits will be less noticeable -- except at the breakfast table -- if you act promptly. RECIPE OF THE WEEK: Stikki Dessert 1 cup graham cracker crumbs 1/2 cup margarine 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 pk. ## STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Lt. Governor-elect Bill Hobby called for an era of "getting together and working together to solve Texas' problems" at his fund raising dinner in Austin.

"We have been through some of the most turbulent campaigns in our recent history -- campaigns that left some wounds," he stressed.

"We need to see to it that those wounds heal without leaving scars. "State governments are resuming their roles as vital members of the federal-state partnership," Hobby added. "Our federal system cannot work unless the states and the local governments perform their functions responsibly and effectively."

Hobby told the audience of Democratic leaders that Texas something to give the nation -- simple virtues of courtesy and neighborliness.

He talked of the "new mood now running at tidal proportions throughout the state," and said he believed the entire nation could find hope and an example here in Texas.

"Only history will record whether or not Texans invested the conscience, the commitment and the effort to create a humane and just society in our state," Hobby concluded.

LABOR DAY DEATHS PREDICTED -- Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, estimates that statewide traffic accidents over the 78-hour Labor Day Weekend will claim 45 lives.

The Labor Day holiday, as designated by the National Safety Council, extends from 6 p.m. Friday, September 1, to midnight Monday, September 4.

At the close of the Labor Day period last year, a DPS tabulation revealed 41 persons had died in 34 traffic accidents in the state. Late deaths pushed the toll to 43 persons killed in 36 accidents.

Speir said the DPS and local law enforcement agencies will be taking all possible steps to reduce the holiday death toll. A special "Operation Motorcade" will be in progress over the Labor Day weekend and tabulations on rural and urban fatal accidents will be reported to the news media of Texas three times daily.

As is customary on major holidays, says Speir, all available highway patrolmen will be placed on duty throughout the state. They will make full use of radar and breath testing instruments in an effort to curtail the major cause of fatal accidents--excessive speed and drunk driving.

Joining law enforcement officers in the effort to reduce loss of lives during the holiday period will be about 500 Texas National Guardsmen who will operate jeep patrols to assist motorists and to ride partners with DPS patrolmen.

The guardsmen, all volunteers, will concentrate their efforts in 107 Texas counties in far east, central and south Texas.

Speaking of "Operation Motorcade", Colonel Speir said, "these educational and enforcement programs will have an impact, but a great deal of the responsibility for accident reduction rests in the hands of individual Texans."

"I am appealing to all our citizens to join with us in saving lives by 'Driving Friendly', both during the holiday and throughout the remainder of the year," the DPS director said.

future of the cities of Texas," says former Dallas Mayor Erik Jonsson, chairman of the TML Committee of the Future.

Seguin Mayor Alfred Koebig, TML president, commented: "We know from experience that the usefulness of any institution is based largely on its ability to keep pace with present and emerging needs; and it is our hope that the Municipal League's goal-setting process will provide information and decisions so that work to solve urban problems can begin now rather than when the problems become acutely serious."

SIGNS OF THE TIMES -- Texas Highway Department has joined a nationwide symbol sign program to bring all highway signing into conformance with the so-called international sign program used in many other nations.

Richard Oliver, traffic engineer for the State Highway Department recently reported to the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee that the more important regulatory signs such as "Yield", "Do Not Enter" and "Wrong Way" are now being installed at critical locations, while other signs are being changed over on a maintenance replacement basis.

He explained the target date for full compliance with the National Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices is January, 1977. Full compliance with the National Manual is expected to cost the State of Texas $6 million for sign installation over the five-year period. Other cost will include $4.5 million for conversion of highway markings and $250,000 for installation of traffic signals.

"A folder describing the signs and new pavement markings is in preparation," said Oliver.

AGING TARGET AREAS ESTABLISHED -- The Governor's Committee on Aging has approved 10 urban target areas for establishment of Area Agencies on Aging. Rural areas will be designated soon.

The Area Agencies on Aging will provide the governor's committee with planning for federal nutrition programs and related services, as well as additional programs for the elderly as they develop. Selected as target areas were the counties of Harris, Jefferson, Orange, Bexar, Dallas, Tarrant, Travis, El Paso, McLennan, Nueces, Hidalgo and Cameron. The areas were selected according to numbers of persons 65 and older, numbers of elderly below the poverty level and proportions of minority groups.

CAPTOL HIT BY STORM -- Tornado winds raked the state capitol grounds August 22 ripping several giant elm trees out of the ground, roots and all, and smashing several windows in the capitol building itself. Tourists were sent scurrying from the first floor rotunda of the building when shattered glass from windows in the dome, 260 feet above, came showering down along with a mini-deluge of rain-water.

Capitol employees had windows repaired and the rotunda cleaned of glass and water by the following day, but several days were required to clear debris from shattered trees from the capitol grounds. Fortunately, there were no injuries.

A NOTE FROM THE HUNTER -- Recent action by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission requires that any portion of the meat from a deer kill given to a fellow hunter must have a note signed by the hunter making the kill with his name, address, hunting license number and the date and location of the kill.

Game management officers believe the requirement will insure that deer are harvested legally and identified as such--regardless of how many different people get the meat.

Marlin Hawthorne remains a patient in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

Past Days In Lynn County

copied from Oct. 6, 1950

The Tahoka Bulldogs now have a real, live mascot, a registered English Bulldog six months of age and named "Sourdough Sam."

The mascot was presented the boys Wednesday night at a dinner given the entire Bulldog squad and their coaches, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ottie Carter.

The dinner was given by seven mothers, Mmes. Carter, Rufus Slover, Jack Brice, Paul Halamicek, Pete Curry, Weldon Martin, and Curtis Stevens.

In addition to the above mothers, and the 37 squad members, and the three coaches and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jacobs, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bartley, were present.

Following the dinner the "T" Club held its regular weekly meeting with Lynn Carl Halamicek presiding, and this was the first meeting the club was held this year to which the coaches were invited.

It was at the club meeting that the new mascot was presented, "Sourdough Sam" was bought in Odessa by Pete Curry. The boys had intended to pay for the dog out of their own pockets, but Henry Short on Thursday was making up a "pot" among fans to buy the mascot for the boys.

Work of getting the Lynn County Fair grounds ready for the annual show here next week and started this week. The event will be held Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14.

Many have expressed the intention of entering agricultural and livestock contests, and the women's building is expected to be filled with exhibits. All citizens are invited to enter any products of which they are proud.

Premiums will be paid this year by the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

About twenty merchants have bought space in the Merchants building, north of the Women's building a quoinset building made available to the Fair for the first time.

A parade will be held Friday which will form in front of Tahoka Grade School at 1:30 p.m. The band, Sheriff's posse, merchants and organization floats, queen candidates, school students, and others will take part in the parade.

Norton Rides have been engaged to furnish the entertainment at the fair grounds.

The new owner says the gin has been thoroughly rebuilt with much new equipment installed and the other repaired, and that the firm is prepared to give first class service.

Mr. High comes to Tahoka from Thackerville, Oklahoma, where he has been in the ginning business all his life. In fact, his father and his grandfather were ginners before him. He and his wife and two children and the three ginners he brought with him expect to make their permanent home in Thackerville just across the Texas line north of Gainesville.

The new owner expects to remain on the job the year around and will deal in planting seed and have available other services to farmers. He also buys cotton and ships direct to the mills.

Members of the Tahoka Bulldog football squad, the three coaches and their wives were honored with a buffet style dinner at the Legion Hall Wednesday evening by a group of High School girls and mothers of the girls.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS ...

How good are the good bugs? That's the question being answered by Dr. George Teetes, a grain sorghum insect researcher for Texas A&M University, located at Lubbock. The emphasis on the utilization of naturally occurring beneficial insects has brought about the need to determine the efficiency of these beneficial insects. This is one area of research being conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station employee, who is working on the development of a management system for the greenbug on grain sorghum.

"Since we no longer talk in terms of total elimination of insect pests, we must learn much more about the beneficial insects that we plan to depend on," states the researcher. "This is especially true when we use naturally occurring predators and parasites in conjunction with insecticides to keep insect pests below damaging numbers," Teetes continues.

"The 'environment' regulates insect populations, but both the biotic and abiotic components must be considered," states Teetes. The abiotic components, such as wind, rain, blowing sand, sunlight and temperatures are factors which are difficult or impossible to manipulate, but their effect on insect populations can be measured quantitatively. "What we are doing is attempting to remove portions of the harsh abiotic environment and then measure how greenbug numbers increase under these situations," states the scientist. When the biotic components (predators and parasites) are removed, the effect on greenbugs can also be determined. By use of various methods including cages out in the grain sorghum field, we can measure how much effect predators and parasites have on greenbugs and we can get some idea of the ratio of 'good bugs to bad bugs' that must be present to have an effect.

When we simultaneously remove the harsh abiotic and biotic components, we in essence allow insects (greenbugs) to increase at the rate commonly referred to as their innate capacity for increase. It is under these situations that we can see how Mother Nature through time has equalized forces to naturally regulate animal numbers.

From our studies, we have realized several very important principles. For example, rain, especially hard blowing rains typical for the High Plains, drastically effects greenbugs. When greenbugs are protected from rain, it would be expected that their numbers would increase greatly. Basically, this is true however, when greenbugs are protected from rain, their predators are also protected and greenbugs don't increase to the point that would be expected.

Of all the many factors, such as economic thresholds and the use of selective insecticides that go together to develop a pest management program, we still lack much information on the natural forces regulating pest populations.

We plan to increase our emphasis in research in this area.

Farmers Encouraged To Watch For Midge In Late Grain

Midge are increasing rapidly on late blooming sorghum fields. Growers are cautioned to watch these fields closely, since economic damage occurs when adult midge numbers exceed an average of 2 per head. First application should be made when 30-50 per cent of heads have just begun to bloom. Repeat in 3-5 days if midge population warrants. The adult midge is orange-colored and resembles a fruit fly. The best way to check for midge is to place a fruit jar or plastic bag over the head of sorghum. The midge will fly to the top and can be easily counted. Check for the proper chemical from your local chemical dealer or aerial applicator.

REMEMBER THIS APPLIES ONLY TO GRAIN SORGHUM FIELDS WHICH ARE JUST BEGINNING TO BLOOM

The Lion's Line

Bill Payne, Civil Defense Director for the city of Lubbock was guest speaker at Lions last week.

Payne is a Slaton native and was a member of the Lubbock Fire Department for fifteen years before becoming the C. D. Director.

Lubbock's Civil Defense Program was outlined and Payne noted that the name Civil Defense has been dropped from government jargon and is now known as the Department of Civil Preparedness.

The agency comes under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense.

A longtime advocate of emergency preparedness, Payne stated the our nation has never been more vulnerable to liberals who would destroy our framework of civil defense, than it is now.

Payne urged Lions to become interested in emergency preparedness, and encouraged them to tell others.

Payne was introduced by his longtime friend, Lion Pat Patterson.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, on August 23, 24 and 25 served as local host to 13 cotton producers, ginners and Production Credit Association people from Arkansas and Louisiana as they made an extensive tour of High Plains farms and other agricultural establishments. Sponsoring the tour were the Agricultural Council of West Memphis, Arkansas and Louisiana Cotton Producers Association, Lake Providence, Louisiana.

Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President, said "We were delighted to have these cotton people in Lubbock and on the Plains as a means to promoting better understanding of problems in cotton production and with government programs as they affect these two important segments of the cotton belt." The group arrived in Lubbock shortly after noon on August 23, visited the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech that afternoon and spent the evening in an informal discussion with cotton producer members of the PCG Executive Committee and others.

The following two-day schedule for the out-of-state producers included visits to Plains Cotton Cooperative, where they were shown that organization's automated instrument classing line and heard a discussion of PCCA's marketing procedures, Texas A&M Research and Extension Center to examine narrow-row cotton production and the equipment necessary to its success, J. D. Smith's dry-land cotton and grain sorghum farm west of Littlefield, Ray Joe Riley's irrigated cotton and grain sorghum farm north of Springlake, the dry processing corn plant at Dimmitt, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, Lubbock Feed Lot, the Roy Forkner gin in the Canyon community, the Don Anderson farms in Crosby County, and White River Lake.

Ray Joe Riley is current PCG president. Smith, Forkner and Anderson are past presidents. Tour director was Cecil Williams, Executive Vice President of the Agricultural Council of Arkansas, which has a close working relationship with Louisiana Cotton Producers Association. Others on the tour from Arkansas were Tom Murchison of Coy, who is president of the ACA, Bunn McCollum of Hughes, Harold Henry of Brinkley, Jodie Ellis of McCrory, John Currie of Wilmot, Henry Morshemer of Parkdale, Terry Dills of West Memphis, and Jack Runsick of Helena.

From Louisiana were Duke Barr of Oak Ridge, Al Prudhomme of Natchitoches, and B. U. Miller and Bob Rife both of Ferriday. Various members of the Arkansas - Louisiana delegation were heard to comment that the tour had been both interesting and educational, and to express their appreciation for the hospitality shown by PCG and others at tour stops.

Mr. Gary Gardner, Superintendent of Wilson School, would like to inform the patrons of the Wilson ISD concerning THE TEXAS MOTOR VEHICLE LAWS CONCERNING OVERTAKING AND PASSING SCHOOL BUS. "Sec. 104. Overtaking and Passing School Bus. (A) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway inside or outside of a business or residence district upon meeting or overtaking any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle before reaching such school bus when there is in operation on said school bus a visual signal as specified in Section 124 of this act, and said driver shall not proceed until such school bus resumes motion or is signaled by the school bus driver to proceed or the visual signals are no longer actuated. (b) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled-access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is a part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway."
