Babe Ruth Team Second In State

The Lynn County Babe Ruth all-stars finished second in the Babe Ruth State tournament held at Graham, Texas losing out to a strong Del Rio team in a nine inning game played Thursday, August 2. The two teams had advanced to the finals of the double elimination tournament by having only one loss each. Each team's loss had come at the hands of the other team. The game Thursday had all the makings of a true championship game as the teams, behind great pitching, ended the regulation seven innings tied at 1-1. The eighth inning was scoreless, but in the top of the ninth Del Rio pushed across three runs and then held off a battling Lynn County team for the 4-1 victory. For Lynn County David Glenn went the distance, giving up 2 hits, striking out 16 and walking 6. For Del Rio Richard Tavala gave up 3 hits, struck out 8 and walked five.

The Lynn County team, though they lost the tournament, won the hearts of the citizens of Graham and the tournament officials with their friendly and respectful ways off the field, and their hustle and determination on the field.

Each boy on the team gave the game of baseball everything he had throughout the tournament.

Brilliant defensive plays were turned in by Roy Villereall at third base, Mitch Raindl at shortstop, Dan Mott and Jay Kelly at second, Alan Nettles at first, and Jesse Garza, Britt Brooks, Dan Mott and Ricky Harston in the outfield, always ready when they were needed, and giving tremendous support to the players on the field, were Jesse Guzman, Mikey Ramirez, Mark Tekell, Vink Miller, Clint Gardner and alternate Ronnie Sharp.

A special word of praise must go to the two workhorses of the team, Benny Hancock and David Glenn as these two boys alternated in pitching and catching every game of tournament play. Both boys turned in brilliant performances, both on the mound and behind the plate, and for their performances, both boys were selected to the all-state tournament team.

Also all of Lynn County owes a word of thanks to manager, Joe Brooks, Coaches Jimmy Fillingim and Gary McCord, and Lynn County Babe Ruth President, Loamuh Harston.

DR. PROHL PROPOSED DISTRICT GOVERNOR

Bruce Pember of Slaton, a former district Rotary governor, was a guest at Tahoka Rotary Club last Thursday and proposed that Dr. Emil Prohl of the local club be sponsored as a candidate for District Governor for the year 1975-76 from the 573 District, which comprises nearly fifty clubs in Northwest Texas. He received a hearty response from local club members.

"The Energy Crisis" was the subject of an informative talk at the club by Bob Brummall of Lubbock, district manager of Southwestern Public Service Co. With six percent of the world's population, he said, the U. S. uses 33 percent of the world's energy, and electric usage doubles every 10 years.

Solving the "crisis", however, is a long range problem. He outlined the sources of producing our electrical energy, including natural gas, coal, gas from coal, and nuclear. Right now, he revealed, SWPSC is already building a plant to utilize coal to produce electricity. Ultimately, nuclear power will probably be used, but this will take at least ten years to develop if such a program were to be started right now.

Fortunately for this area, Pioneer Natural Gas has arranged enough reserves to keep electrical generating plants in this area going for a long time except when peak loads developed such as happened recently when area industry was asked to reduce electrical and gas usage.

Leighton Knox arranged the program, and Harold Roberts introduced the speaker.

Comment August, 1973

The flowers withered on their stems, The leaves hung limp and wan, Within the trees a wistful breeze Whispered and was gone.

-Anne Mary Lawler.

There are a number of interesting dates in the month of August. Perhaps the most nostalgic is August 14th, the day President Truman announced the surrender of Japan, ending World War II, in 1945.

Hitler committed suicide in the face of Germany's defeat and his imminent captures in Berlin by the Russians on the last day of April. German surrendered on the 8th of May, ending the war in Europe. But the Japanese struggled on, even though President Truman and the retiring Prime Minister of Great Britain, Winston Churchill, gave Tokyo a virtual ultimatum at Potsdam on July 26th, warning that unless they surrendered the nation faced "prompted and utter destruction".

The massive U.S. fleet steamed into Tokyo Bay and sank the remainder of the Japanese fleet. Army and Navy bombers struck hard at many targets. The Japanese fought on—until the first atom bomb fell on August 6th, on Hiroshima. In a few days another was used, and further warnings were issued. These new weapons and the horror of their destructive potential proved decisive. Japan surrendered, almost certainly thereby avoiding hundreds of thousands of casualties which would have been suffered in an invasion of Japan itself.

On the 14th, in 1935—ten years earlier—social security was established in the United States, amid cries from the opposition that it would ruin the nation. Columbus sailed from Palos, Spain, on August 3rd, 1492, in his voyage to the New World. And David Crockett was born August 17th, 1786, in Hawkins County, Tennessee.

A political assassination in 1935 took the life of Huey Long of Louisiana, then the virtual dictator of that state, who was born August 30, 1893, in Winfield, Louisiana. And finally, the worst earthquake known east of the Mississippi occurred August 31st, 1886. It was most disastrous at Charleston, South Carolina, but was felt from Jacksonville, Florida, north to Canada, and west to Iowa.

Letter To Editor

Dear Sir:

I am a resident of Tahoka, and I am presently employed at the Fun Valley Family Resort in South Fork Colorado. I would like to tell the citizens of Tahoka that there is no gasoline shortage in the southern part of Colorado.

The shortage has been confined to the areas of Colorado Springs,

Denver, and Pueblo.

Since we are not having any problem with the gas shortage, I would like to extend an invitation to one and all to come visit Southern Colorado, Fun Valley, and see the Old West Hotel. Yours, truly, Carlton Harvick Fun Valley South Fork, CO

The only Tahoka school meet of the current year will be held next Tuesday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock in the local gym, with the Olton and Tahoka teams meeting in from 12 to 16 fights.

Olton has an excellent bunch of scrappers and took the trophy at the recent Lubbock Golden Gloves meet, Tahoka also has some crowdpleasers; in fact most of the youngsters on the local team like to slug it out in the ring.

Coach Jim Foust announces that most of the following boys will see action against Olton; Charley and Harley Schulz, Robbie Dorman, Raymond Jenkins, Bill Short, Ronny Browning, Bobby Call, Brownie Williams, Wayne Brasher, Bennie Brookshire, Howard Wood, A. W. McClellan, Edward Miller, Charles Brookshire, Max Morris, Roy Riddle and Paul Hill.

Admission fees to the bouts will be 30 and 65 cents.

Leroy Edwards, Route 1, Tahoka, Billy Spears, Route 4, Tahoka, Gilbert Steinhauser, Rt. 2, Wilson, 4-H members have been named winners in the County Poultry program sponsored by Sears Roebuck Foundation, cooperating with the Extension Service. These boys selected New Hampshire Reds for their demonstrations. They will receive 300 pure bred unsexed chicks on March 5th, and will strive to complete an outstanding poultry demonstration.

The demonstration will be judged by a District committee approximately 6 months from the date of arrival of the chicks. The basis for judging will be the record of demonstration, methods used in brooding equipment, range equipment, feeding practices and the general condition of the demonstration at the time the District committee judges the demonstration.

The awards will be on the basis of Blue, Red and White awards. Blue award demonstration will get 3 points, Red award 2 points; white award 1 point. $11.11 per point will be awarded in purchase orders to be used to buy equipment that will improve the poultry demonstration.

Carl Self, who operated a furniture store here under the name of Self Furniture Co. discontinued business here last week and moved his stock of furniture to Lubbock, where he has opened a store. He had been here less than a year, occupying the Fenton Building next door north of the Agriculture Building.

While he was loading out, however, Bruce Reid, who comes from Paris, Texas, began unloading another stock of furniture into the building being vacated by Self and opened for business early this week.

While regretting Mr. Self's removal from Tahoka, the people of the town will welcome Mr. Reid and his family to our city. His family consists of a wife and one daughter, and they will occupy a residence out near the high school vacated just this week by G. B. McElroy and family.

The New Home P. T. A. has postponed their regular meeting until Monday night, February 21, because of the basketball tournament to be held at New Home, according to announcement sent in by Mrs. H. D. Dean.

An interesting program is expected with Mrs. Lloys R. McCormick giving a devotional "flannelgraph" and some representatives of the United States Army Air Forces presenting two films on World Peace. The films are "Design For Peace," and "It's Your America." A report on the school's financial standing will be given by one of the Board members, and a general discussion will follow.

A good attendance is expected for this meeting.

While the News editor was in Wilson last Friday morning he was escorted by John Heck around to the Baptist Church and shown the extensive changes and improvements that are being made in the basement of that building.

Formerly used as the church auditorium, the basement is now being cut into many modern-style Sunday School rooms, which are being redecorated and furnished with up-to-date equipment. The kitchen and dining room are also being modernized.

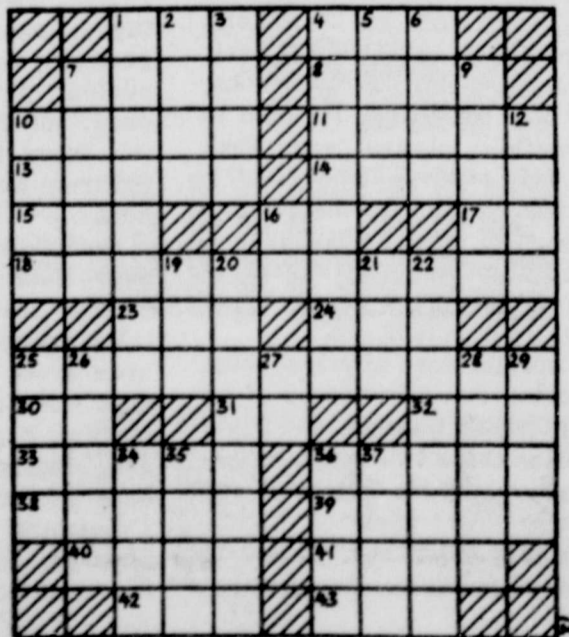

When these improvements are completed, the Church, which its size on the South Plains, will likewise have one of the most commodious and serviceable Sunday School and B. T. U. workshops of any church in this area.

Last week end Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell and children visited Mrs. Kidwell's mother, Mrs. W. R. Rogers, down to Oak, near Bowie, for a visit with her sister. W. T. says people who think it is hot in the South Plains haven't seen anything. He says the temperature there was 106 degrees in the house at 10 a.m. and the humidity was high.

KINDERGARTEN PLANS ANNOUNCED AT WILSON SCHOOL

The 63rd Legislature amended the laws pertaining to the State Foundation Kindergarten Program to provide for the attendance of all five-year olds as of the beginning of the 1973-74 school year.

Due to the difficulty of providing practical busing arrangements for half-day sessions the Wilson ISD Board of Education approved this plan:

Five-year-olds who are economically deprive (family income of $3,000 or under per year) or who have a first language other than English will attend kindergarten on a full day basis for 180 days. All other children who will be five years old by September 1, 1973, may begin kindergarten, attending on a full day basis, on January 3, 1974.

Although attendance in kindergarten is not included in the compulsory school attendance law, school officials urge the attendance of all those who are eligible.

Youths "Speak Out" in 4-H Public Speaking

Youth today have strong opinions on many different subjects. And they aren't afraid to express their feelings. Through the national 4-H public speaking program, sponsored by Union Oil Company of California, 4-H boys and girls are encouraged to "speak out" on topics important to them.

Public speaking skills are stressed in the Cooperative Extension Service conducted program. 4-H'ers also are encouraged to use their talents in their everyday communications.

Besides the satisfaction of improving communicating ideas and thoughts to others, 4-H'ers in the program are eligible for other recognition.

Up to four medals of honor are awarded to outstanding 4-H public speakers in each county. The top 4-H boy and girl public speaker in each state receives a $50 U.S. Savings Bond from Union Oil and a chance to be one of 18 sectional winners in the 4-H public speaking program. These youths receive expense-paid trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29.

At that event, six national winners are announced. Each receives a $700 educational scholarship provided by the company.

One of the 1972 national winners says, "Old and young alike will listen if I have something worthwhile to say and present it to the best of my ability." She is Jill Hopper, of Pueblo, Colo., an active 4-H public speaker who makes some 50 speeches a year.

In addition to appearing before local audiences, Miss Hopper has narrated local 4-H Dress Revues, made radio appearances promoting 4-H, assisted younger members in their public speaking work, and won many awards for her oratorical ability.

To hear these young speakers and to get further information on the 4-H public speaking program, contact the county extension office.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Open end spinning and other new spinning and weaving systems that appear to be "just around the corner" may bring to reality a long-time dream of High Plains cotton producers, according to Ray Joe Riley of Hart, President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The dream: Textile plants on the High Plains consuming a significant percentage of each year's High Plains cotton crop.

Since its inception in 1956 PCG, representing producers in 25 counties surrounding Lubbock, parallel efforts to improve export and domestic markets and market prices for Plains cotton through fiber quality improvement research, the provision of technical services to cotton customers, crop quality analyses, spinning performance tests and a number of other activities.

"All of these efforts have helped to keep this area's cotton moving in world markets," Riley said, "and more often than not at prices that otherwise would have been considerably lower.

"And now we are more hopeful than ever before that our first goal, that of consequential textile manufacturing on the Plains itself, may be attainable," he continues, "and if so, even greater benefits to our producers can be expected."

Riley's new optimism for the future is built around open end spinning and its potential for efficient use of Plains-type cottons in the manufacture of quality yarns in the coarser counts, for which there is a substantial market.

Preliminary tests by the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University, since confirmed by others, indicate that low micronaire cottons on the open end system produce yarns equal to or superior to other cottons.

Several textile companies have been approached by PCG, Riley says, and have shown interest in open end spinning on the Plains. A Japanese company is known to be considering eight Plains locations and one in Louisiana as the site of a $22 million open end plant. Another, smaller plant, appears much closer to reality.

Riley is also encouraged by the results of a recent textile feasibility study, based primarily on open end spinning, by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and two national consulting companies. Data from this study, released July 26, showed ample market opportunities, availability of labor, water and other utilities.

"If we can just get a single plant going on the Plains showing profits above the profits of plants in other locations," Riley believes, "we'll be in an excellent position to attract more and more textile activity. And I think this first plant will be an accomplished fact before too long."

Looking a little farther into the future Riley points to another new process, still in the development stage, with perhaps even more revolutionary potential -- the "twistless" or "zerotwist" system. Yarn from this process is formed of parallel fibers bonded together with a water soluble adhesive. The adhesive is washed out after the yarn is woven or knitted into fabric. Surprisingly to most, but now proven, is that the resultant fabric is as strong as or stronger than similar constructions of twisted yarn.

"While this system still has to be perfected," Riley says, "every indication we've had from work so far shows that neither micronaire nor staple length is of any great importance in determining either processing efficiency or the quality of end products."

TIGOT has ordered six units of the zero twist process to be placed at Tech's Textile Research Center where development work will be carried

Youths Learn, Earn in 4-H Swine Program

Young hog producers are looking at a better than average year. While production costs are up, pork prices are favorable. And the youths are eligible for scholarships, trips and other recognition awards through the national 4-H swine program.

Sponsored by Moorman Mfg. Co., boys and girls enrolled in the program get broad practical experiences in the business of hog production. Breeding, feeding, marketing and disease prevention are just some of the things stressed in the program, supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Aiding these 4-H producers with recognition and incentives is Moorman Mfg.

out under a TIGOT - TRC contract. Three of the units are expected at Tech by late August, with the others coming about two months later. Testing of the system is already underway in the laboratories of Nijverdal-Ten Cate of Almelo, Holland, where the original patent rights are held.

"PCG is encouraging all of these developments, plus looking at others," Riley concluded, "and we have high hopes that we are on the brink of textile development on the Plains that will greatly stabilize and enhance the markets available to our members."

Co., donor of awards in the program. Up to four medals of honor are offered to outstanding 4-H'ers in the program in each county. Each state winner in the 4-H swine program receives an expense-paid trip to the 52nd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29. At that event, six national winners are to be announced and awarded $700 educational scholarships courtesy of the donor.

In addition to first hand experience and perhaps an award, the 4-H swine growers accomplish some noteworthy results. A 1972 national winner from Colorado built from scratch one of the finest Duroc herds in the state. Craig Saxton, of Yuma, provided both the labor and management for his prize-winning Duroc operation. He also has entered his herd in the state swine testing program with the hopes of improving efficiency and desired pork quality.

Girls, too, like to work with swine projects. And one who didn't even live on a farm, but managed to raise grand champion hogs in state competition is Vickie Smith, of Lusk, Wyo.

She admits that wasn't easy to find a place to keep her animals nor to commute from home to care for them. Her successes in meeting the challenges paid off with a $700 scholarship and a national winner designation.

Information on the 4-H swine program and how to participate can be obtained from the county extension office.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS.....

Producers of feedgrains should be on the lookout for the August Crop Report. This report is more than its usual importance because of the threat of export controls on grain and the nature of the 1973 economic program.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture Crop Report will be issued August 9 and will contain the first production forecast for 1973 grain sorghum, and soybean crops by the Reporting Service.

Production projections that were published following the July Report were based on historical yield data. Actual conditions are surveyed for the first time as of August 1.

The report should assist producers in planning the marketing of their crops at harvest.

There was a lot of inverse reasoning in the grain markets following the rather favorable July crop report. The record crops projected appeared to relieve the threat of export controls for new crop grains and markets rallied to new highs. The August forecast of feed supplies will give an idea as to whether stronger export restrictions are likely.

The recently published report on Stocks of Grain in All Positions contained no surprises. As of July 1, all feedgrain stocks were below the year earlier figures. Grain sorghum stocks were down 27 percent and corn supplies were 15 percent below the 1972 level. Also, soybean stocks hit a July 1 seven-year low.

Lynn County News

Meadows noted. Thus he urged livestock producers and pet owners to be especially alert for screwworm infestations.

About 80 percent of the screwworm cases have been occurring in the southern-most 11 counties of Texas. However, El Paso and Hudspeth Counties in Far West Texas have also recorded cases. In fact, El Paso County has already recorded six cases, more by this time of the year than any other year since the Screwworm Eradication Program began in 1962.

According to Meadows, current eradication efforts involve a two pronged attack on the vicious flesh-eating livestock pest. Infested herds are being sprayed with a pesticide free of charge. The Texas Animal Health Commission, in cooperation with the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, is conducting this service for all livestock producers who submit a confirmed screwworm sample.

Sterile fly drops are also continuing at the rate of 1,000 to 2,000 flies per square mile each week in areas where cases are confirmed.

"But the spraying and fly drops are only part of the eradication program," pointed out the veterinarian. "We need the cooperation of all livestock producers and pet owners in inspecting and treating infested animals to make the program really effective."

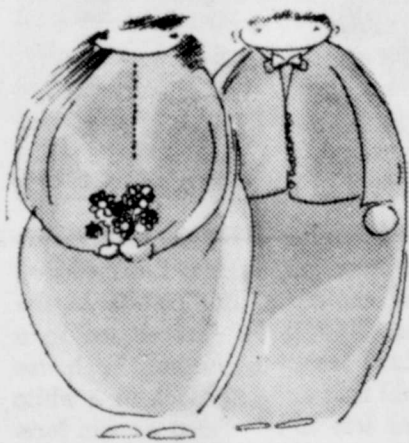

Screwworm sample collection kits are available at any county Extension office and from livestock inspectors and veterinarians. All worm samples should be sent to the Mission Lab, Box 969, Mission, Texas 78572.

Texas Recorded 600 Cases Of Screwworms

Texas had recorded well over 600 cases of screwworms for 1973 as July drew to a close, and indications are that the year's total will climb rapidly in the next few months.

"The hot summer weather and recent rains have spurred the spread of screwworms in South and Southwest Texas," said Dr. M. E. Meadows, veterinarian in charge of screwworm eradication operations at Mission. "From now until November 1 is considered the crucial time in the screwworm program,"

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Grain Stocks Down ... Egg Production Down ... Texas Lamb Crop Down ... Wool Production Down ... Sheep and Lambs on Feed Increases.

Phase Three and Phase Three and a Half can't be blamed for all of it, but nevertheless production of a number of Texas agricultural products shows declines. One of the exceptions is sheep and lamb feeding which shows an increase from a year ago but still a decline from a few months ago.

As for grains on hand, only stocks of oats are above levels of a year ago. Texas' stocks as of July 1 for the four feed grains--corn, oats, barley and sorghum--are estimated at 95,000,000 bushels, down 50,000,000 bushels from a year ago.

Grain sorghum was responsible for most of the decrease. Stocks of wheat, rye and soybeans are also below a year ago.

Old crop carryover of wheat is estimated at 20,200,000 bushels compared to 42,100,000 bushels a year ago.

Sorghum stocks stored in all positions are estimated at 79,000,000 bushels compared with 129,000,000 bushels a year ago.

Corn stocks are about the same as a year ago. Old crop oat stocks are 700,000 bushels higher than a year ago. Soybean stocks are estimated at 2,700,000 bushels compared to 3,600,000 bushels a year ago.

Nationwide, stocks of all grains are estimated 67,900,000 tons, which is 17 per cent less than a year ago. April-June grain disappearance totaled a record high of 51,300,000 tons, 14 per cent more than the same quarter in 1972.

All of the above figures relate to grains produced in 1972 and earlier. The 1973 crops are not a part of this report.

EGG production in Texas during June is four per cent below a year ago and five per cent below last month. Texas' layers totaled 11,100,000 during June, which is seven per cent below a year ago and two per cent under May's total.

The number of layers throughout the nation totaled 285,000,000; this is five per cent below last year and two per cent under last month.

LAMB crop in Texas (lambs born during the period Oct. 1, 1972 through June 30, 1973) is estimated at 1,964,000 head; this is down 15 per cent from the 2,302,000 head last year.

Nationwide, the 1973 lamb crop is estimated at 11,400,000 head. This is down nine per cent from the 1972 crop of 12,500,000 head.

The January 1, 1973 number of breeding ewes one year old and older totaled 12,100,000. This is a decrease of six per cent from a year earlier while ewe lambs under one year were down four per cent.

SHEEP and lambs on feed in Texas as of July 1 is up 13 per cent from a year ago. This, however, is 28 per cent below March. Sheep and lambs on feed are those intended for slaughter being fed a ration of grain or other concentrates or on pastures and expected within the next three months to go to market.

Marketings of fed sheep during March through June at 229,000 head were 3,000 head below the same period a year ago.

Redwine, who recently resigned as an officer of the Denver City police department, replaces Redwine had been a Denver City policeman since December 1, 1971. He is a native of Lynn County and was a farmer before going into law enforcement work.

Entertaining three applicants for a choice job, Thomas Edison based his choice on the results of the test. The three were seated in a circle facing each other. Each was told that either a black or a white dot was to be placed on his forehead.

ALL 3 DOTS WERE BLACK!

At a signal, each was to begin tapping on the table if he saw a black dot on any forehead, and to stop tapping only if he could determine the color of the dot on his own forehead.

After a few moments one stopped. He correctly had determined his was black. How did he know!

GRASSROOTS OPINION

Americus, Ga., Times-Record: "One of (the) innovations of the Postal Service, no longer under congressional control, is the elimination of localities from postmarks. Instead the receiver finds only 'U.S. Postal Service' printed on the outside of the letter. The Postal Service offers several reasons why this represents progress, why this is necessary, etc. Whatever the justification however, they are outweighed by the very obvious fact that this system hides from the addressee the point of mailing and the exact time, traditional means by which he can trace postal service. More progress this and the Postal Service will have unintentionally furthered proposition to return postal service to congressional control to a considerable degree."

Lennox, S.D., Independent: "A system that penalizes the workers taxes and rewards the non-workers with hand-outs cannot work, because the work needed to support such a system won't get done."

Do-Nothing-ism

In some modern minds, the legendary Confucian advice to "see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil" has been translated into one simple rule: "Don't get involved." Do nothing, says this rule, and you won't get into trouble.

To a considerable degree, do-nothing-ism has been sanctioned by the common law. Traditionally we have been reluctant to impose any legal penalty for the mere failure to be helpful.

For example, courts have turned down damage claims against the following individuals:

1) a man who watched impassively while a young woman drowned, even though he could easily have gone to her aid;

2) a man who called no warning to a neighbor's child whom he saw hammering on a tube of gunpowder;

3) a man who failed to remove a rock from the roadway, even though he knew it was a menace to traffic.

In each case the moral duty was plain enough. But the courts all agreed that moral duties were a matter of conscience, not law.

In recent years, however, the law has been requiring people to lend a hand in an increasing number of situations—notably, when there is a special relationship between the parties.

Thus, courts have imposed an affirmative duty on a host toward his guest, on a store toward its customer, on a hotel toward its patron, on a railroad toward its passengers.

Legislators, too, may create a duty to act in specific circumstances. Under hit-and-run statutes, for instance, a motorist may be required to give aid to accident victims regardless of whether he was legally to blame for the accident.

This kind of responsibility is based neither on fault nor on any special relationship. Rather, it is based on a humanitarian feeling that when the moral duty is so clear, the law ought to put muscle behind it.

This year professional photographers are making it easier for you to have a good family portrait taken. August has been designated Family Portrait Month, and professional photographers all over the country are providing special offers and services during August to make sure that having a family portrait is an easy and pleasurable experience.

Why did the photographers pick August? "They feel it is an especially good time for having a portrait taken," said C. Edmund Finney. "For most families, it's the best time for getting everyone together before the school season begins." Chances are that you and your children will have some new fall clothes to wear for your portrait, too. And August is a good time to have a family portrait taken outdoors... when all the late summer flowers and foliage are at their peak.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Writing the nearly - century- Texas constitution is turning out to be stickier job than many...

Constitutional Revision Commission went into overtime in recent three-day meeting... but still failed to come up with a final agenda...

While, legislative plan for the 1974 Constitution convention, at which lawyers will actually propose a new constitution, disagreed on the final stage - setting...

Some members suggested a voting machine (which was rejected) and new desks for the chamber. Senate planning committee spokesmen indicated they would be satisfied to bring their desks over from across the rotunda and set them in the House middle aisle...

House revision panel agreed to keep the provision for property taxation in the constitution for state purposes, but to let the legislature to separate laws governing local property taxation...

To retain the state highway fund, the state highway users gasoline tax, with four-fifths of the revenue earmarked for highway building and one-fifth for public schools. A provision was made for abolishing the highway fund levy on state property with support of two-thirds of the legislature...

To keep the Permanent Unemployment Fund and Permanent...

School funds in the constitution. The university fund would be altered somewhat to include present and future branches of the University of Texas and Texas A & M University.

+ To add to the constitution a guarantee of "equitable" financial support for all schools and districts rich and poor.

+ To retain as constitutional elected members of the executive branch only the governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general, with the legislature empowered to decide if the comptroller, treasurer, secretary of state, land commissioner and railroad commission should be elected or appointed by the governor.

"HOUSES" CLOSED -- Two landmark bawdy houses - - in La Grange and Sealy -- were closed by local officials on request of state officials.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe, Atty. Gen. John Hill and Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir sought action after reports aired by a Houston television station.

Briscoe acknowledged he had received calls from La Grange area citizens both supporting and opposing the action. He said he had been told he would be petitioned by a group who want the famed "Chicken Ranch" reopened.

Hill and Speir said they found no link with organized crime in operation of the houses, but Attorney General Hill added: "It is an illegal operation. The local officials were requested to take action. They took it."

RATE RAISE EXPECTED -- An increase in some workmen's compensation insurance rates is due under a new law increasing benefits for those injured or killed in job accidents.

An average 19.5 per cent hike in the rates employers must pay for the coverage is anticipated under a State Insurance Board staff proposal, which would become effective if approved between September 1 and September 15.

Rates would have gone up 22.8 per cent in the absence of the federal antinflation program, a Board actuary indicated.

Under new law effective September, an injured worker can get up to a maximum of $63 a week in benefits, an increase from the present $49 top.

AG OPINIONS -- A national bank does not come under definition of governmental bodies or institutions which are required to comply with the new open records act, Attorney General Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

+ A Laredo fireman injured on duty in entitled to benefits under the state Firemen's Relief and Retirement Law.

+ State government branches and their services (excepting political subdivisions but including hospitals and colleges) are covered under the Texas Unemployment Act.

+ Subordinated capital notes of the Harlingen National Bank are part of its indebtedness and are not to be considered capital in determining value of shares for taxation.

+ School trustees are authorized to purchase insurance to cover cost of litigation of award of damages growing out of official acts.

+ The Amusement Machine Commission has power to promulgate regulations to cover the number of machines owned by the holder of permit to sell alcoholic beverages for on-premises consumption.

- Qualifications for Texas Air Control Board membership are set by Article 4477-5, Vernon's Civil Statutes. Conduct in office will be governed in part after January 1 by provisions of the 1973 ethics law, and members could be removed from office for violation.

+ The State Commission for the Blind is not authorized to require employees to deposit with it salary warrants issued to them or to charge a fee to employees for making the advances.

+ A district attorney can be removed only under special statutes and not by an ex parte order of district courts. A county attorney (in some counties) will serve during temporary disqualification or absence.

+ A court reporter who prepares the narration of the facts from a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus is entitled to be compensated for preparation by the state or country.

APPOINTMENTS -- Thirteen representatives of industry and the general public were named by Governor Brixcoe to serve on the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

They are L. H. True, Wimberly; T. L. Austin Jr., Dallas; Willard Barr, Ft. Worth; George R. Brown, Houston; H. Will Cain, Houston; Thomas B. Cowden, Austin; Edwin L. Cox, Dallas; Michael T. Halbounty, Houston; Dr. J. R. Maxfield Jr., Dallas; Dr. John J. McKetta Jr., Austin; Sam Naifeh, Orange; and P. H. Robinson, Houston.

G. R. Stanford of Houston is deputy executive director of the Texas Offshore Terminal Commission.

Sens. W. E. Snelson of Midland and Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells were appointed to the Legislative Budget Board. Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston was appointed by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby to succeed former Sen. Charles Herring of Austin as chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee.

Hal H. Hood of Austin was appointed state Firemen's Pension Commissioner, succeeding Mrs. Marie Winters of Austin who resigned.

William Lyons of Lufkin has joined Lieutenant Governor Hobby's staff.

Thomas Black of Austin is a new assistant attorney general. RANGERS HONORED -- Ground was broken last weekend for a Texas Ranger Hall of Fame to be located on the banks of the Brazos River at Waco.

Carolyn Haley Says...

"Why are my jars not sealing?" "Why is there loss of liquid in my canned foods?" Have you ever asked yourself these questions? Today I'm going to give some suggestions as to why these and other defects occur in home canned products.

REASONS WHY JARS DO NOT OR CANNOT SEAL

1. Using make - shift supplies
  - a. Off - standard jars called a packers' jar. (ex - mayonnaise jars, peanut butter jars) - mouths are not accurate width - lids ride on edge - Sealing edges not level - have dips.
  - b. One piece caps instead of screw band and flat lid.
2. Using screw bands that are not in good condition - have dents, rusty spots are pried up edges.

3. Not screwing band tight against sealing edge before processing.
4. Using jars with nicks or cracks on sealing surface or have sharp sealing edge.
5. Failure to wipe sealing edge clean - particles of food left on can permit air to seep back into jar.
6. Food, seeds, or grease lodged between lid of jar when liquid is lost during processing - prevents sealing or is responsible for later release of seal.
7. Lack of heat.

REASONS WHY FOOD SPOILS

1. Not working fast enough (speed) and with small amounts of food at a time.
2. Pressure cooker not accurate - should be tested once a year.
3. Not processing at correct temperature.
  - a. In pressure cooker - 10 lbs at sea level or 240 degrees F. - Failed to test pressure cooker. - Failed to exhaust pressure cooker - 10 minutes after full flow of steam from petcock - Failed to keep pressure to make adjustment from elevation. - Failed to keep pressure accurate - less than 12 lbs. will not complete sterilization of bacteria in vegetables and meats (Tahoka is 3,000 ft. above sea level, thus 11 1/2 to 12 is correct.)
  - b. In Boiling Water Bath. - Not having water at rolling boil when jar is place in canner. - Not having water 1" or more above top of all jars throughout entire processing time. - Not keeping water at rolling boil entire processing time. - Not checking time table carefully for product being canned. - Not making adjustment for elevation - added minutes for each 1,000 feet as instructed on time tables.
  - c. In open kettle method. - Failed to fill one jar at a time with boiling product and seal it. Filling several jars at one time allows food to cool before cap is put on. - Not enough heat left to create vacuum when jar is capped. - Removed kettle from heat while filling jars. - Product does not stay at boiling point. -

Product put in last jars practically cold.

4. Improper cooling of jars after processing is finished.
  - a. Failed to take jars out of cooker when gauge is 0 degrees.
  - b. Failed to take jars out of boiling water bath when processing time is up.
  - c. Failed to properly cool jars of processed food. - Jars set apart - about 1 inch between each jar. - Jars are not covered.

LOSS OF LIQUID IN PRESSURE CANNING

1. Filling jars to full
  - a. Non - starchy - to within 1/2 inch of top.
  - b. Starchy - to within 1 inch of top.
  - c. Liquid for all vegetables - 1/2 inch of top.

Lynn County News

NOTE: If jar is too full, product will boil over and start a siphoning. Leaving 1/2 inch head space at top gives room for product to boil and not boil over.

2. Packing food too tight in jar.
3. Allowing pressure to fluctuate during processing.
4. Too high pressure.
5. Too sudden changes in temperature when processing period is over. If the cooker cools too quickly while the contents of the jar remain at a much higher temperature, the liquid will boil over - Just like when the tea kettle boils over - the pressure inside is greater than outside the jar. The contents of the jar and the cooker have to cool down gradually from the 240 degrees F to 212 degrees F. The "coming down" period has to gradual and even.

6. Opening the petcock before the pressure has returned to zero. When the pressure has returned to zero, open the petcock very cautiously and if steam escapes, close and wait a few minutes. This avoids cooling the atmosphere around the jars too fast which causes liquid to boil over.

7. Letting the cooker stand too long after pressure returns to zero. It should be opened within one to two minutes after it returns to zero.
8. Removing the jars too quickly after removing the cover. Let the jars remain in the cooker a few minutes after removing the cover, or until the boiling in the jars is less vigorous.
9. Leakage of steam at petcock or around lid of pressure cooker.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

Newly grown potatoes are reaching the markets and this food can be served daily in many different and delicious ways. German potato salad goes well with many vegetables--especially fresh string beans.

German Potato Salad

- 8 medium sized potatoes
- 2 hard boiled eggs chopped
- 1 onion minced
- 3 slices bacon
- 1 egg
- 3 T vinegar.

Boil potatoes in their jackets. When well done pour off the water and remove lid allowing potatoes to dry off. Next pare and chop or slice while hot. Add boiled eggs which have been chopped and the minced onion. Fry the bacon cut into bits and when crisp remove from the grease. Add the hot drippings to 1 well beaten egg, very gradually. When the mixture is thick as mayonnaise, add vinegar, slowly. Beat well and add to the potatoes, being careful that the salad dressing reaches every bit of the potato mixture.

To vary this recipe omit the eggs and follow same directions--pour hot bacon fat over potatoes then follow with vinegar. Toss until well mixed and keep warm until served.

Federal Land Bank's Loan Rates Increase

Jay Dee House, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Tahoka, announced today that the billing rate of Federal Land Bank farm and ranch variable interest rate loans is being increased from 7 percent to 7 and one-third percent effective August 1, 1973. The rate on rural residence loans is being increased from 7 1/2 percent to 8 1/4 percent. The variable interest rate loan plan which was introduced by the Houston Bank in July, 1969, lets the rate "float" over the variations in the money market.

"Continued high interest rates in the money market have made it necessary for the Bank to take this action. Interest rates have risen rapidly since early 1973 and the Bank has delayed action until this time in order to determine whether or not these rate increases were temporary", Mr. House stated. The Bank recently marketed an issue of bonds which sold at an average effective cost of 7.6 percent. "It now appears that present interest levels will probably not change materially until the end of the year", Mr. House stated.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long - term real estate loans on farm and ranch land and rural residences throughout Texas and now has more than 775 million dollars in volume of loans outstanding. The local association makes and services loans in Lynn and Garza Counties. Officers and directors of the association are Fred McGinty, President, Avery Moore, Vice President, L. A. Forsythe, J. D. McCampbell and Joe D. Unfred.

A speed-fiend we know bought a car painted red on one side blue on the other. "What's the idea of doing your up like that?" we asked. "It's for when I get hauled up before the judges for speeding," our young-man-in-a-hurry ought to hear the witnesses contradicting one another."

"Don't you know what I mean? I hold up my arm," hollered traffic cop as an old lady was about to cross the street against the light. "I ought to," she replied. "I was a school teacher for twenty-five years."
