NEW COTTON PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

The new cotton program which governs the industry for the years 1974 through 1977, as it was explained to High Plains farmers at county meetings and in the area by officials of the Plains Cotton Association, Inc., shapes up as "considerably less than is needed, if properly administered a program with which we can contend as the nation's leading cotton producing area."

Major provisions of the program, with PCG comment as to their application on the High Plains, are as follows:

Minimum national allotment of 11 million acres, compared to this year's 10 million acre allotment. Allotment for the 25 counties surrounding Lubbock therefore should be about 10 percent more than this year's allotment of 8,145 acres. And, generally speaking individual farm allotments will be up 10 percent.

Price support payments equal the difference between 38c per pound and the national average price paid to all farmers for all cotton during the calendar year in which the crop is planted, meaning all farmers will get the same payment regardless of the price at which their personal crops are sold. If the national average price paid to farmers for all cotton, January through December of 1974, for example, comes to 30 cents a pound, then all farmers would get a payment of 8 cents per pound times their projected yield times their base allotment. Of course if the average market price comes to 38 cents or more, there will be no payment. Projected yield is to be calculated as under the present program -- a three year average of actual yields adjusted for adverse weather factors.

Generally speaking, the average High Plains cotton runs approximately three cents a pound below "average of the crop." Therefore the total "guaranteed" return on the High Plains from allotted acreage should average in the neighborhood of 35 cents. PCG emphasizes, however, that this calculation is based on average market conditions and average crop quality and might be totally in error under a given set of conditions.

Target price will be adjusted in 1976 and 1977 to reflect any changes in cost of production and or production efficiency as evidenced by yields.

In cases of natural disaster which prevents planting, destroys crop or reduces yield below two-thirds of a normal crop, payment will be one-third of the target price (12.66 cents in 1974 and 1975) times projected yield times allotted acres.

Loan is to be set at 90 percent of the three-year average price of American cotton in world market, based on Middling - inch cotton. Loan can be adjusted to 90 percent of the current year's world price if 90 percent of the three-year average is above the current world price. USDA's method of calculating the average price of American cotton in world markets has not been determined.

Sale and lease of allotments will be permitted, even to farms with no allotment.

Payments will be limited to $20 thousand per person, total for all crops. Rules for determining weather corporations and their stockholders are to be considered as "persons" will be in accordance with regulations issued December 18, 1970.

Present skip-row rules remain in effect.

Authorization for annual transfer of $10 million from CCC funds to Cotton Incorporated is continued, but use of funds is restricted to research efforts.

In the event the Secretary sees prospects of oversupply he is given authorization to limit planting of cotton beyond base allotments.

Provision which prohibits grazing on cotton set-aside during five principal months of growing season under the present program is removed, and the Secretary is specifically authorized to permit hay, triticale, oats, rye, wheat, and feed grains to be planted on cotton set-aside.

grades 6-8 and Tahoka High School had enrolled 301 in grades 9-12. The total enrollment in the schools compares to 1,007 enrolled during the first two days of the 1972-73 school term.

As these figures were released Superintendent Harold Reynolds stated that more students were expected to initially enroll during the remainder of the week. The enrollment in the schools is expected to exceed 1,100 during the first three months of the school term.

Kevin Wood 4-H Record Winner

Some 146 4-H'ers put their years of experience and hard work on the line in district senior record book competition yesterday, and when it was over, 34 winners had been selected to represent District 2 in state competition next month.

The winning books representing 30 4-H awards programs were announced by district Extension agents Billy C. Gunter and Catherine B. Crawford.

The record books will compete at the state level against the best from 12 other districts of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

209 junior level record books also were judged. Blue, red and white ribbons were awarded.

Compiling their years of work into a binder complete with clippings, photos, and records of achievements, the senior 4-H'ers are competing for scholarships, plaques, government bonds, a trip to the National 4-H Congress in November, and other awards.

For the young leaders of tomorrow, record book competition is the critical measurement of their achievements over the years, said Mrs. Crawford. Records reveal their consistency in achieving goals, their experience in 4-H projects and activities, their experiences in leadership development, and their growth and development in personal, community and civic responsibilities.

The local senior 4-H'er whose record books will compete in state competition from Lynn County is Kevin Wood.

Babe Ruth Stars Honored

The Lynn County Babe Ruth Baseball All-Star team was honored Saturday night with a swimming party at the public pool in Tahoka, by the parents of the team and Joe D. Unfred. Afterwards, cake and ice cream were served and the team, in appreciation, proudly presented Coaches Joe Brooks and Jimmy Fillingim with gold baseball glove trophies and autographed baseballs.

The All-Star team won the district tournament at Lamesa in July. The next day the team travelled to Graham, where they competed in the State tournament. The Lynn County team was the only team to win three consecutive games in the tournament. After having difficulty in finding a game time because of bad weather, the Lynn County "Plowboys" were finally eliminated in a 9 inning championship game by the score of 4-1.

This is the first Babe Ruth team from Lynn County to win district and second at State, and is one which the entire county and district should be extremely proud of.

FARM news

Farmcast

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

STOCKER cattle on Texas farms and ranches as of July 1 is estimated by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service at 5,495,000 head. This compared with 4,911,000 as of Jan. 1. Stocker cattle exclude cows, replacement heifers, 500 pounds and above, bulls, and cattle on feed.

Stocker cattle numbers as of July 1 are sharply above Jan. 1 where the cow-calf operations are dominant. Numbers as of July 1 are down from Jan. 1 levels on the northern High plains where Jan. 1 numbers were at a higher level because of stocker cattle shipped in for winter wheat pastures.

Stocker heifer, steer and bull calves under 500 pounds total 4,534,000 head, which represents 73 per cent of the 1973 estimated calf crop.

SCREWORM build-ups are expected throughout the state as the fall season approaches. Generally, this has been one of the best screwworm-free years in Texas in a decade.

With the fall season's approach, producers are urged to check livestock regularly, treat wounds on livestock for screwworm control, and submit suspected screwworm samples to the fly laboratory at Mission for verification.

Cooperating with this plan can mean a continuance of the success of the screwworm eradication program the rest of this year, officials at the fly lab at Mission say.

Crop conditions throughout the state are described in almost unbelievable words: excellent, best ever, prospects couldn't be better.

Already, a wheat crop of more than twice the size of last year has been harvested in Texas, a total of 95,200,000 bushels plus a new record high per acre yield of 28 bushels. Texas is the fourth ranking state in the nation in winter wheat production.

Grain sorghum harvest is virtually complete in Central Texas with excellent yields reported. Several farmers have reported yields of 5,000 pounds and above on dryland. Prices, too, are the best ever.

Over the state, grain sorghum harvest is halfway finished. On the High and Low plains, good rains have increased dryland crop potentials.

Peanut harvest is active in the southern half of the state, but is still behind last year's schedule. A good dryland crop is now indicated.

Producers To Elect Businessman Director

Lynn County cotton producers and agribusinessmen will elect a Businessman Director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. at an 8:00 p.m. meeting on Tuesday, August 28 in the Lyntegar Meeting Room Tahoka.

Announcement of the election comes from R. C. Carroll Jr. of O'Donnell, current Lynn County Businessman Director to the 25-county commodity organization, and Joe D. Unfred, of New Home, Producer Director. Each of the counties in PGC territory has two directors, one a businessman, usually a cotton grower as well, and the other a cotton producer. They serve two-year terms, with businessmen elected on odd years and producers on even years. Each is eligible for re-election every second year. Carroll and Unfred said interested parties are urged to attend, and that both farmers and businessmen are eligible to vote in the election.

In addition to the election Unfred said a member of members of the PGC staff will be on hand "to bring us up to date on cotton activities and to answer any questions concerning the recently passed farm bill for 1974 through 1977." He added "Directors to PGC are the men who determine the organization's policies and actions on legislation, research, promotion, finances and other matters vital to the cotton economy of Lynn County, and all cotton people should make every effort to be on hand for this election."

Highest Cotton Prices Predicted

COLLEGE STATION... Favorable weather so far this season points to a successful Texas cotton crop that will pay farmers their highest cotton prices since 1951.

"Tight supplies and relatively strong demands, both domestic and export, indicate that the average 1973-74 cotton price to the farmer will be higher than in the past season even though mid-season demand will again be weak," says Charles Baker, marketing economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Early season cotton last year was heavily contracted to cover domestic needs for the last quarter of 1972. However, the anticipated large crop resulted in a weak mid-season market with prices unduly depressed. Domestic mills and foreign buyers sharpened demand in late 1972 and early 1973, resulting in depletion of uncommitted stocks, contracts for much of the 1973-74 crop and record prices," explain the Texas A&M University System specialists. Texas, the nation's leading cotton producing state since 1880 produced 4.1 million bales in 1970 on 5,570 acres for a total value of 535 million. The 1973 Texas crop, planted on 5,700 acres, should produce three percent more than the 1972 total and have a value exceeding $700 million for the first time since 1960.

During the 1972-73 season, domestic mill use of cotton dropped to 7.7 million bales, a 34-year low, while exports rose to a 10-year high of 4.8 million bales. The large 1972 crop of 13,700 bales enabled carry-over stocks on August 1 this year to rise to 4.5 million bales compared with the 20-year low of 3.3 million a year earlier, points out the economist.

Although domestic use of cotton is down due to imported cotton fabrics and increased use of synthetics and blends, cotton still remains "king" in Texas, contends Baker.

Kyoto Is Japanese Headquarters for Pair

Mrs. Clara Toler and Mrs. Cleo Ferguson, Public School Librarian, have recently returned to Stephenville from a month-long visit to the other side of the world. They could tell it was the other side because almost everything was opposite to the way it is on this side.

They made their headquarters for the month in Kyoto, Japan, which was the imperial capital of that country until about a hundred years ago, a position it held for 1,000 years. Kyoto is now considered the cultural and art center of Japan, with the finest of paintings architecture, and landscape gardening that the country has to offer. Mrs. Toler's son John has been living in Kyoto for the past year.

The ladies stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sugino, who have divided their old Japanese-style house into apartments. Their sitting room was a classic Japanese room, decorated with a scroll painting in the tokonoma alcove done by Mr. Sugino's grandfather, a Chinese Sung Dynasty incense burner and a Ming Dynasty garden with bamboo, maples, and a flowering pomegranate tree. This home-away-from-home was located within a five minute walk from the famous Golden Pavilion, which was originally constructed in 1397, nearly 600 years ago. It was, however, burned to the ground in recent years by an insane priest (an event immortalized in a novel by Yukio Mishima) and reconstructed in 1955. The upper floors of the pavilion are covered with gold leaf, as in the original.

Besides the Golden Pavilion, points of interest which they visited in Kyoto included Nijo Castle, consisting of enormous moated walls protecting a palace style building richly decorated with murals on the walls and doors, painted ceiling, heavily carved transoms, and with "nightingale floors" that sound like singing birds when walked upon. Outside the building is an ancient pond garden, with many stones, trees, artificial waterfalls, and inhabited by huge gold, red, and white carp. A vastly different impression was given by the simple stone garden of Ryoanji. This abstract garden, one of the most unusual in the world, is made up entirely of sand and stones, and was designed in 1450 by Soami, one of Japan's most respected names in art and landscape gardening.

Across town, on the eastern edge of the city, they visited the Silver Pavilion, built in 1483, with its quiet, calm atmosphere.

Food in Japan was found to be surprising, to say the least, not only for its relatively high cost. The first Japanese meal experienced by the ladies was the most traditional one of their trip. A purely vegetarian meal served in a traditional room whose sliding doors looked out onto a fresh green garden, it began appropriately enough for the opposite side of the world, with dessert. A sweet cake was served and then the bitter ceremonial tea before red lacquer dishes were brought containing many concoctions, made mainly with the nourishing soybean, rice, and fresh vegetables. Some of the party tried Japanese beer with the meal, but a Coca Cola was produced for Mrs. Toler. Other unusual meals were had at the home of Mr. Koji Mori, where they are eggplant with 'miso (soybean) paste, beef and chicken flavored with soy sauce, a salad of cucumbers and octopus, etc., accompanied by sake, a warmed rice-wine. Shagu-shagu was served when they visited Mr. David Kidd, which is beef and vegetables cooked in a copper container at the table. Teppan-yaki, beef, vegetables, bean-sprouts, was tried at the traditional old-style restaurant owned by Mr. Bob Strickland.

What was perhaps one of the most unusual days of their entire trip was spent seeing a Noh drama. This ancient, classic drama is accompanied by drums, flutes, and chanting, producing a weird background for the slow movements of the masked dancers, costumed in rich silk brocades.

Near the end of their visit in Kyoto, The Gion Festival, one of Japan's three biggest festivals, was held. As the weather was getting unbearably hot by that time, however, and tens of thousands of people had poured into the already overcrowded city for the event, Mrs. Toler decided against going out, and had a chicken dinner prepared by her son instead. Mrs. Ferguson, though braved the adverse conditions to see the ancient wooden carts, hung with tapestries and loaded with young men playing flutes and cymbals, pulled through the streets by about twenty men each. Some of the carts were over three stories high.

Side trips out of Kyoto included a ship cruise through the Seto Inland Sea from Kobe to Beppu, a hot springs resort on Kyushu, a southern island. The sea is dotted with innumerable pine-covered islands, making the 12 hour cruise a pleasant one. At the hot springs they visited hell. Several hells, in fact. The springs bubbling up out of the earth are volcanically heated, and have produced interesting phenomena at several points, which have been labelled Cooking Stove Hell, Blood Pond Hells, and several others. It was on this trip that Mrs. Toler was bitten by a monkey, and she thinks she know whose ancestor it was.

Another trip was made on a comfortable, air-conditioned train through the countryside to Shima peninsula to visit the "pearl farms", accompanied by Mr. Koji Mori. They said the diving girls bringing up pearl-bearing oysters from the bottom of the bay, and made several purchases.

Carolyn Haley Says...

School bells are ringing or will be for many of our school children, and after summer of short-T-shirts, men and mothers are thinking new school clothes. Before shopping, take an inventory of clothing the child has on hand. Examine these items carefully, note their condition, and sort them. Usually some are still wearable, some need minor repairs, and some should be discarded. Next measure each child. This way purchases can be made by size. Over the summer months a child can grow one or two inches in height or width. When shopping for school clothes take full advantage of sales and don't go overboard. Purchase only enough for the first three months of school. In this way, the child won't outgrow them before he wears them. Reading clothing purchases has an advantage--most children are happier with new things periodically rather than all at once. Building a small basic wardrobe around the child's favorite items is the answer. This way items can be mixed or matched. Several factors influence how much clothing is needed. These include the number of children in the family, their ages, and how much the homemaker does for family laundry. As a rule, girls need more clothes than boys--but boys' clothes are more expensive. When purchasing school clothing, consider durability, price, and care requirements. For items receiving the most wear, buy the best quality the family can afford. School clothes and shoes must withstand wear longer than a party dress--which is worn only a few times. Read all labels and hangtags to determine care requirements. Remember drycleaning adds to the initial purchase price--and hand washing takes time. Follow instructions for best results--and best return on money invested. Also consider fashion trends. For example, classic looks and plaids are "big" for fall. Highlighting the girls' scene are cuffed pants, stretch body-shirts, pleated or clared skirts, sweaters and jumpers. These items offer unlimited possibilities for the popular layered look. Jean styling remains the top favorite for boys' fashions. Jeans come in a wide range of fabrics. Denim and corduroy lead the pack followed by knits and stretch wovens. Highly patterned shirts complement solid pants. Also watch for knit sport shirts cotton, polyester and blends, denim work shirts, western shirts and lumberjack plaids. Clothing may not be the only item your school mothers are thinking about--pack lunches may be high on your list too.

Texas heat can't hurt sandwiches in a sack lunch if they're packed frozen. By noon they'll be thawed, and the danger from holding several hours in the summer heat is lessened.

The best idea for sandwiches is to freeze them in individual bags. Since lettuce can't be frozen successfully, include it fresh in a separate bag, and let the luncher assemble his own sandwich.

Another sack-lunch packing idea focuses on thermos equipment. A wide-mouth thermos keeps potato salad, jello or fruit salad cold. It also keeps soup, stew, or a vegetable hot.

Fruits and vegetables usually pose no packing problem, but during hot August and September they're more refreshing than corn and potato chips, especially if kept cold in a thermos.

Planning cool, crisp sack lunches for late-summer picnics and warm back-to-school days pays off in refreshment.

We've just received another shipment of canning booklets. In case some of you are still canning and need more information, call my office and we'll be glad to send you one.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK:

- Onion Rose Salad
- 8 medium Sweet'n Mild onions
- 12 oz. cream cheese milk
- 2 hard-cooked egg yolks
- Watercress
- French Dressing

Peel onions and chill. Soften cheese with milk. Form petals on each onion by cutting from top of onion almost through in W shapes around the onion. Then gently pull petals apart, scoop out inside, chop fine and mix with cream cheese. (Note: petals may stand out if left in ice water for approximately 30 minutes.

CALL 998-4496

As an unexpected and very pleasant surprise visit on Thursday, my nephew's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lemon and Jimmy, age 8, were dinner guests in my home. He is professor of music, teaching French Horn and Orchestra in Emporia State College at Emporia, Kansas. Ronnie grew up in Lubbock and attended Texas Tech 3 years before going into the Navy where he played in the band. Later he played with the New Orleans Symphony Orchestra for several years before returning to Tech for his Masters Degree in Music. He has been at Emporia one year. His wife Kay lived at Andrews when they met at Tech.

Mrs. Edna Brasher has had as guests in her home the past 2 weeks most of her children and grandchildren. On Sunday the Brasher Reunion was held in the American Legion Hall in Plainview. Along with other relatives and friends attending were her sons and daughters families, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook of Longview with their two children; Kenneth Brasher of Athens; Walter Brasher of Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Brasher and family of Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCoullum and 2 children of Lubbock; Wayne Brasher and 2 children of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Streeter and daughter of Riverside, Calif., and Mrs. Onita Ramsey of Longbeach. Wayne of Corona, Calif. was unable to attend but his daughters, Terry and Toy came with others and are remaining for several days with their grandmother as their school begins much later there.

Mr. Archie Riddle underwent surgery on his shoulder last Tuesday in Methodist Hospital. He returned home Friday and is doing very well. The Riddles own and operate Riddle Garage on the O'Donnell Hiway. Their daughter, Charlene, from Mary Neal, Texas was here for the operation but has returned to her home.

Mrs. D. V. Smith visited her cousin, Mrs. Lee R. Smith of Abernathy for several days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Brock and daughters of Houston spent the weekend with his grandmother Mrs. C. T. Oliver and other relatives.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Dink Lyons and Miss Gladys Hackett on the loss of a brother-in-law Mr. Jess Lackey, 84, of Morton who passed away Friday. Funeral was held Sunday at Levelland at 4 p.m. in the Assembly of God Church. Burial was at Muleshoe. Mr. and Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Odessa Smith attended but Mrs. Hackett was not physically able to go. Word has also been received here that another brother-in-law at Roby had a heart attack on Monday and is in the hospital there. Mr. and Mrs. Randall Waldrip and Judy visited here Thursday.

They were on the first leg of their vacation which was to take them to Carlsbad Caverns, El Paso, Jaurez, Mexico and Cloudcroft. They expect to be gone about a week. The Waldrips live in Lamesa and manage theatres there. They have a son Mike who is a student at South Plains College, and another son, Dennis who lives in Lubbock and is a senior at Coronado High School.

I spent Monday and Tuesday in Lubbock with my sister and together we went to New Deal to help a cousin with canning peas and corn. Like old times.

Tahoka Rebekah Lodge will have "Homecoming" this Saturday night, August 25th. Any member or former member with their family is invited to attend and bring a basket lunch which will be spread at 7:30. Fun and Fellowship will follow. Cards have been sent out to all that addresses were available for but if someone was missed it was not intentional. Please pass the word on the anyone you know. Hope to see all you former members there whether you now belong to any Lodge or not.

Our Sympathy to Mrs. Ruby Renfro and Wilton Payne on the loss of their mother and to the A. L. Smith's on losing his sister, Mrs. Homer Hill of Lubbock.

Gratitude is a burden upon our imperfect nature.
