Wanda Gill (left) of New Home, Tex. and Rosie Silveria of Tulare, Calif. discuss cotton promotions over dinner at Ciba-Geigy's Agricultural Division Headquarters in Greensboro. The women are two of 12 representatives from various regional women's groups on the firm's Cotton Promotion Advisory Group. The group was formed to help Ciba-Geigy develop better cotton promotional materials for use by local consumer groups. Prime topic for the women was the use of cotton in home decorating.

Mrs. Wanda Gill Attends Cotton Meet

Mrs. Wanda Gill of New Home, Texas recently attended the charter meeting of the newly formed Cotton Promotion Advisory Group in Greensboro, N.

Representatives from across the Cotton Belt are meeting under the auspices of the Ciba-Geigy Corporation, a major producer of cotton chemicals. Each of the 12 members of the new group represents a women's cotton promotion organization and will serve for two years.

Mrs. Gill represents the Lynn County Women's Cotton Promotion Association. She and the other members will meet annually to discuss the various techniques being used by each to promote consumer interest in cotton.

The group will also serve as an advisory board for Ciba-Geigy. They will examine the firm's national cotton promotional materials for use in their local markets and exchange ideas with the firm's personnel for future projects.

The group's inaugural meeting consisted of a two-day discussion of cotton's leading role in home decorating. In addition to brainstorming sessions at Ciba-Geigy's Agricultural Division headquarters in Greensboro, the group presented the firm's 1974 cotton promotion project at Alderman studios in nearby High Point. There, three room settings created by regional interior designers to illustrate creative uses of cotton were being photographed for the home furnishing pages of the November-December issue of BRIDES magazine.

At the studio, the cotton group met Ruth MacLeod, home furnishings editor of the magazine in New York, and Dan Carithers, fashion director of Rich's Home Stores in Atlanta, one of the room designers. They later participated with the group in a seminar on the "how to's" of cotton promotion on the local level.

Ms. MacLeod and Carithers were introduced by Rich Hansen, manager of Public Relations for Ciba-Geigy's Agricultural Division. He explained that Ciba-Geigy has been helping growers promote cotton for several years. "Home furnishing is an exciting market for cotton fabric," he noted, "and one that is often overlooked in cotton promotion."

Ms. MacLeod described BRIDES readers as being the throes of decorating and "doing it themselves." Special "do it yourself" projects were an integral part of each room. Ms. MacLeod explained that this will help young homemakers translate the designer's ideas into their own use.

Before conducting a tour of the three sets, Carithers spoke on the actual design of the rooms. He explained that he and designers William Gaylord of AID, San Francisco; and Alfred Ferraro of Chesterfield Interiors, Dallas created the rooms to meet the demands of busy, contemporary life styles.

Mrs. Gill will receive a promotion package prepared by Ciba-Geigy including a full range of materials for her use in future cotton promotions. Of special interest is the brochure entitled "Cotton for Great Living", which describes the three designers' rooms and contains projects from each. The booklet can be obtained by sending $.25 to R. G. Hansen, P.O. Box 11422, Greensboro, N.C., 27409.

Summer Band Rehearsals Begins

The Tahoka High School band will start its summer rehearsals the first week in August. The band will meet Monday, August 5 and 12, Tuesday, 6th and 13th and Thursdays, 8th and 15th from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the band hall.

Mr. Tucker, band director, asks all band members, old and new to bring their instruments and attend each rehearsal.

Football Players To Meet Aug. 6

All high school athletes taking football are to report to the fieldhouse Tuesday, Aug. 6 at 1:30 p.m. for physicals. Shoes will be issued Aug. 7, at 5 p.m.

Workouts will begin Monday Aug. 12.

Oil And Gas Income Increased

Current higher prices for crude oil and natural gas produced in Lynn County point to a significant jump in 1974 income for county land and royalty owners who last year received $117,712 as their share of the county's output, according to a study by Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

"With the average price of Texas crude oil now at about $6.70 a barrel, compared with the 1973 average of $3.84 a barrel, and with some newly discovered natural gas selling intrastate for more than $1 per thousand cubic feet, the outlook for the economy of producing communities is encouraging if prices hold up," according to Sherman Hunt, Dallas, Association president.

"Should price rollback schemes and other tax and control proposals now underway in Congress be successful, current economic gains will evaporate," Hunt said.

The Association's study shows that crude oil and natural gas produced last year in Lynn County was valued at $941,698, ranking the county 172nd in the state. Crude oil production of 241,263 barrels was valued at $926,450 and 80.3 million cubic feet of natural gas at $15,248.

Statewide, crude oil prices for 1974 are estimated to be some 74 percent higher than 1973. This expectation has stimulated a revival of drilling in Texas, with well completions the first five months of 1974 at 4,013, a 19 percent jump over the same 1973 period.

From the county's 1973 output, the State of Texas collected $42,617 in oil production taxes and $1,144 from natural gas.

Also adding to the dollar flow in the county last year were drilling activities, on which producers spent $380,760, all of which was lost in five dryholes.

Immunization Clinic Aug. 2

Carolyn Haley Says . . .

"To know how to grow old is the master work of wisdom". (Henri Frederic Amiel). Giant strides have been made in the United States in increasing man's life expectancy. Through increased knowledge and preventive medicine, better diets and control of life-taking communicable diseases, man's chances of living longer have been increased greatly.

While the increased life expectancy of man has many advantages, it also has caused circumstances which did not exist among previous generations of Americans.

Shortly after World War II, it was recognized that this country was developing a sizeable population of older people, that they had unique problems and interests, and that very little was really known about them as a group. Let's take a look at some statistics.

In 1970, Texas, with 9 percent of the population over 65, ranked below the nation as a whole, in which 10 percent of the population was over 65. However, the 1970 statistics for Lynn County show that 10.8 percent of its population as over 65. This was 984 people.

I want to break down the Lynn County statistics because I feel it will be an eye-opener for many of us. According to the statistics, of the 10.8 percent over 65, only 2.0 percent lived in institutions. Fifty-seven percent lived in rural areas.

The racial composition of the older Americans in Lynn County in 1970 looked like this: Black-4.1 percent; Mexican American-9.9 percent; and white-86 percent.

The statistics also show that 34.7 percent were below the poverty level.

Probably no other group in America has been more thoroughly studied in the past 15-20 years than the aging. His health. His housing. His employment. His happiness. His habits. Nearly everything about him. And this is good. We all want to live a long time but few of us want to be old. Since the life span is continuing to lengthen, the chances are that we are all going to live longer and longer.

Lynn County News

What does all of this mean? It means we need to recognize our older adults for past contributions and continuing contributions they are making in our society. It also brings our attention to the fact that all of us can enjoy this phase of the life cycle. We can recognize old age not as a disease-but as a time of life. And just as other stages of life do, it has its challenges and rewards, its tasks and responsibilities.

My major program of work the next year will be in this area of the aging, so you will be seeing and hearing more about it in the months to come. Let's remember that our older American are a national resource from which we can tap. Their energies and free time can be used for our country's advantage and their own.

A quote from General Douglas McArthur:

By profession I am a soldier. I take pride in that fact. But I am more proud, infinitely more, to be a father. A soldier destroys in order to build; a father only builds, never destroys. The one has the potentialities of death, the other embodies creation and life. While the hordes of death are mighty, the battalions of life are mightier still. Steen-Wied Repeat Double Ring Vows

Miss Jo Nan Steen and David Randall Wied were united in marriage Saturday, July 27, at 8:00 p.m., in the First Baptist Church of Wilson, with the Rev. E.K. Shepherd officiating the double ring candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Steen of Wilson and Mrs. M.G. Wied and the late Mr. Wied.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza, fashioned with a narrow band of scalloped chantilly lace at the high neckline, on the lantern sleeves and on the cuffs. Bands of lace accented an empire bodice, encircled the waist and continued down the front of the A-line skirt with lace at the hemline.

A Juliet cap of matching lace held a chapel train length mantilla veil with matching lace around the edge.

She carried white feathered carnations and gypsophelia in a cascade arrangement.

Terie Steen attended her sister as maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Misses Judy Bevers of Dallas, cousin of the bride and Glyne Moore of Lubbock. Junior bridesmaid was Miss D'Lyn Briggs of Lubbock, also a cousin of the bride.

Attendants wore formal length gowns of blue embroidered dotted swiss fashioned with a low rounded neckline and cap sleeves. Indigo blue velvet ribbon bands accented the above normal waistline. They carried nosegays of white daisies and wore wisps of baby's breath in their hair.

Keith Wied of Wilson, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groom's attendants were Greg Wied, brother of the groom and Don Alan Steen of Dimmitt, brother of the bride. Ushers were Darrow Talkmitt of Wilson and Steve Teinert of Victoria, cousin of the groom.

Candles were lighted by Rhon Teinert and Paul Teinert of

The Board of Directors of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. met in Lubbock July 24, heard staff reports and adopted a budget of $213,100 for the fiscal year 1974-75 to finance the 25-county organization's research, promotion, services and market development activity.

The new budget is $13,200 above the budget for 1973-74, which according to PCG President Don Marble of South Plains, reflects "the increased cost of doing business in every walk of life."

Finance Committee Chairman Lloyd Cline of Lamesa also noted that the budget calls for spending considerably more than the organization can expect to receive in dues from the 1974 crop. Acreage totals and the condition of area cotton fields are such that no more than half the 2.9 million bales harvested in 1973 can be expected in 1974. Almost all PCG dues are paid on a per-bale basis, "so a year of low production automatically means a year of low revenue for the organization," Cline said, "making a certain amount of deficit spending a necessity if the organization is not to neglect its obligations to the membership."

The 1973-74 PCG budget of $199,900 was underspent by over $28,000 as a result of economizing that became possible after its adoption. Actual expenditures for the year, Cline told the Board, were $171,124 compared to total revenue of $257,466. "This has helped to build a reserve with which we can continue PCG's agricultural and utilization research programs, fiber research, services and reports, legislative services and market development efforts," said Cline.

The items named by Cline, along with advertising, publications, travel and salaries comprise the major portion of the PCG budget.

Lynn County News

In addition to the adoption of the budget the Board heard staff reports on PCG actions taken in connection with farm program disaster payments and farm safety regulations proposed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Ed Dean, PCG Field Service Director, reported that PCG had requested hearings on the proposed OSHA regulations and was continuing its efforts to see that final regulations when issued are fair and equitable. He said hearings were expected to be held in the near future.

One of the most pressing problems facing area farmers in recent weeks has been what PCG terms the "inequitable" administration of the current farm program's disaster provisions. "By using Federal Crop Insurance Corporation appraisal methods and by the adoption of an unfair formula for figuring disaster payments when one allotment crop is substituted for another," reported Executive Assistant Cotton Fanning, "USDA is denying full disaster relief and forcing uneconomical farming practices in areas hard hit by hail, wind and drought."

Noting that the disaster clause of the present law was included largely as a result of PCG insistence when the program was being written in 1973, he went on to say "we have objected loudly and clearly in Washington to the inequitable treatment being received by area farmers and will continue to do so."

Fanning advised the Board that a delegation of High and Rolling Plains farmers were meeting in Washington July 25 with Undersecretary of Agriculture Phil Campbell, Congressmen George Mahon, Bob Poage and Omar Burlison, Senators Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower and perhaps others in the latest attempt to rectify the disaster payments situation.

In the delegation were PCG Board Chairman Ray Joe Riley of Hart, board member and past president Donnell Echols of Patricia, Donovan Phipps of Welch and C.A. Daugherty of Fluvanna. With the exception of Riley's expenses cost of the trip was borne by Chambers of Commerce in Lamesa and Snyder.

son on the Plains is relatively short and any condition that speeds cotton development is usually beneficial.

Accelerated development would hasten cotton fruiting, thus shortening the recovery period. Stalks will be shorter and bolls will be set closer to the ground but at least they'll have more of an opportunity to develop fully.

Events, as in past years, include bareback bronc riding, calf roping, saddle bronc, barrel racing, team roping, and bull riding.

Wild mare races also will be featured nightly.

Prizes of $100, $50 and $25 will be offered for the best floats.

The main office will open Monday morning, Aug. 5. The telephone number is 495-2510.

Gardeners Get New Insight About Insects

Home gardeners who didn't emerge victorious in their battle with insects this year probably gained new insight into some of the problems faced by farmers.

Even long-time gardeners and farmers are sometimes puzzled over insect behavior patterns. One frequently asked question is why a certain insect turns up in great numbers one year when it was hardly seen at all the previous year.

A simple explanation is offered by New Mexico State University scientists as to insect dynamics:

Suppose two male and two female grasshoppers inhabit a square yard of rangeland. Out of the 200 eggs a female grasshopper normally lays, only two would need to hatch to maintain the same level of population. This would represent only a 1 percent hatching success.

If there's a 1 percent increase in hatching, it would mean eight grasshoppers to the square yard—a level considered damaging.

But if there's a 3 percent increase in hatching, a real plague would result.

BILL GRIFFIN SAYS . . . . .

Warm temperatures prevailing over the Texas High Plains during recent months are believed to the primary cause of faster than normal development of early planted crops.

All crops require a specific number of heat units to pass from one developmental stage to the next. Records kept by the U.S. Weather Service at Lubbock show that temperatures for April, May and June were several degrees above normal, and crops planted during these months accumulated or are accumulating the heat units needed to push them into the reproductive stage earlier.

Moisture stress or lack of water tends to speed up development especially as the plant nears the reproductive stage. Also, cloudy conditions and rainfall tend to reduce both soil and air temperature. This natural "temperature control" failed this year due to the drought.

"The question now," Supak says, "is what effect are these environmental conditions going to have on production? To a large extent, this will depend on the crop, the planting date and the general condition of the crop or whether it has endured hail and wind damage or has been severely stressed for moisture."

COTTON

Early planted cotton has already benefited from this peculiar set of environmental conditions. The incidence of seedling diseases normally associated with cool, wet weather in the spring has been essentially nil. Further, the growing sea-

Lindley-Atwell Married Friday

On Friday, July 26 at 4 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church, Teresa Lindley and Jeff Atwell repeated wedding vows. Reverend Frank Oglesby performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white silk lillies and greenery.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dee H. Lindley of Ropesville and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Atwell.

Miss Lindley given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional Victorian style gown of white silk organza accented in pearl beaded bands of Venise lace. The molded bodice featured a yoked effect of lace and tucked organza with a high duchess wedding ring neckline edged in the bands of Venise lace and clusters of pearls. Long sleeves were accented in the bands of Venise lace and bands of the tucked organza, with small clusters of pearls. The slight A-line skirt was also encircled with bands of Venise lace and bands of tucked organza at the hemline, which fell into a slight train. The entire silhouette was complemented by a long full veil of illusion edged in Venise lace which was attached to a Victorian white capulett. The capulett was trimmed in bands of Venise lace and tucked organza. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid accented with gypsophelia, silk stephanotis, and tiny blue silk buds. She carried a lace handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, the late Mrs. Joy Lindley.

Maid of honor was Debbie Arant of Ropesville. Lisa Atwell, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both attendants wore Victorian Garden frocks of white voile with tiny blue forget-me-nots scattered over the baby doll puff sleeves and fitted bodice. The lace trim created an apron design. They wore white summer hats banded in blue grossgrain ribbon with bows and streamers marking the center back completed their ensembles. They carried nosegays of blue and white silk blossoms accented with gypsophelia and blue and white ribbon. David Turner served as best man. Bruce Franklin, cousin of the bride, was groomsman. Serving as ushers were Clyde Curry of Lubbock and Ladd Roberts.

Southern and Haney Wells, pianist and organist, played traditional wedding music. Sandra Arnwine, of Ropesville, sang "The Wedding Song" and "We've Only Just Begun".

The eternal candle was lighted by the couple signifying the joining of two lives into one. Becky Franklin, cousin of the bride, registered guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carter of Lubbock honored the couple with a reception immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table laid with a white peau do soie cloth had crystal and gold appointments and was centered with a candelabra arrangement of blue and white silk flowers accented with gypsophelia and votive candles. A white three tiered cake adorned with doves on the top tier, was served by Miss Becky Braden of Ropesville. Mrs. Dee Lindley, sister-in-law of the bride, assisted. Guests received blue silk rice tulips. These and other floral arrangements were designed by Mrs. Kenneth Carter.

The bride is a graduate of Ropesville High School and is attending Texas Tech University.

The groom is a graduate of Tahoka High School and is a junior at Texas Tech University majoring in marketing.

After a honeymoon trip to Acapulco, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

A SHORT REPORT

By REPRESENTATIVE E. L. SHORT

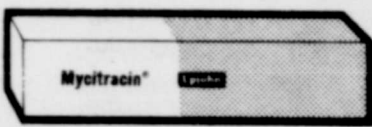

Many counties in West and Central Texas are in terrible shape because of the drought. Nothing, in my opinion, will run the price of food and fibers up more than the shortages which come about because supply is much shorter than the demand. I have just learned that many of the counties do not know or have not realized the importance of their governing bodies, mainly the County Judge of the Counties who is the first one to initiate the preliminary movement so that the people of the counties may become eligible for government loans and assistance from the United States Department of Agriculture. "The County Judge should contact the Farmers Home Administration in his County immediately and request that his county be surveyed for disaster relief. After this survey is made, the County Judge contacts the Governor's Office for further negotiating the request. The County Judge should also notify the local FHA Office, that he is contacting the Governor's Office and ask him to send his copy of the survey to the State Director of the FHA. If it is determined that the County qualifies, the recommendation and survey will eventually collide and get together in Washington at the Secretary of Agriculture's Office. The preceding statement only relates to Agricultural products."

"People with cattle that feel they have a drought condition should also contact their County Judge but in this case the County Judge should work through the Agricultural Stabilization Office (A.S.C.S.). I am aware of only one county, Bailey County, that has begun to initiate relief for people in the cattle business."

"A bill passed by both houses in Washington is lying on the President's desk that would give some relief to all phases of the cattle industry in price support payments to alleviate cattlemen's hardships all over the nation. It would be well to contact your Congressman as well as the President to encourage him to sign this bill."

"The consumer at this time might think that food products at the super market are high but without relief and an incentive for the farmers and ranchers to stay in business to keep the supply and demand partially balanced, we have yet to see what higher prices are really about."

John C. White, Commissioner

Historic Anthrax . . . Agricultural Miracles . . . Maize Harvest Continuing . . . Milk Production Down

THE OUTBREAK of anthrax in Falls County--which appears to be under control at this time--stimulated a little digging to find out about the disease. The Texas Department of Health, in one of its bulletins, speculated that Moses might have had anthrax in mind when he told Pharaoh that a "grievous murrain" would come on all cattle, horses, oxen and sheep in Egypt if Egyptians didn't stop oppressing the Israelites. It is known that anthrax has appeared world wide, that it will attack almost all animals, including man, but that it appears to prefer cattle and horses. Man and swine appear to have greater resistance to anthrax infection. Anthrax externally may appear to be sores or carbuncles. Internally, it may be mistaken for pneumonia or bloat in cattle. It is usually fatal to infected cattle in a very short time, and its germs may live for many months and be a source of danger in previously infested areas for years. The authorities say that anthrax should be suspected when animals die suddenly, especially in areas where the disease has been a problem previously. The great Louis Pasteur is responsible for developing a vaccine that can protect animals from anthrax.

AMONG THE miracles of agriculture are the increased yields made possible by new varieties developed in such crops as grain sorghums, rice, soybeans, etc. One of the most dramatic has been in sorghums (maize). Before 1956, yields of maize were seldom more than 1,000 pounds an acre. Then came the hybrids and yields rose to more than 2,000 pounds an acre; and eight or ten years ago, yields went to 3,000 pounds or more per acre. Now Texas experiment stations are working on twin-seed hybrids that may increase yields 10-20 per cent more. Work is being done to develop strains that are more resistant to drought, to disease, and to insects. Production had already made grain sorghums the Number 2 crop (behind cotton) in Texas, and sorghums played a prominent part in the development of feedlots, another development in agriculture during the second half of this Century.

HARVESTING of maize is underway, or complete, all the way from the Coast through the Blacklands, as hot, dry weather allows in most places. Drought on the High Plains delayed or prevented planting, and it appears that Texas' yields of maize this year may be below 1973. The estimate is that 6,600,000 acres were planted this year, compared to 8,100,000 last year . . . Acres in corn this year in Texas, however, is estimated at 980,000 acres, compared to 750,000 acres last year. Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service says this is the largest acreage planted to corn in Texas since 1962.

JUNE WAS Dairy Month, and milk production in Texas was 287 million pounds. That is two per cent more than in June, 1973, but five per cent less than in May, 1974. Average milk production per cow was 820 pounds during June, and that is 30 pounds above June, 1973 and 40 pounds below the average for May of this year. Price for wholesale milk for June was placed at $9.55 per hundred.

DeForest Kelley, more commonly known as Dr. "Bones" McCoy, co-star of NBC-TV's "Star Trek" is presently at the Hayloft Dinner Theater in Lubbock from July 23-Aug. 24 (closing date tentative).

DeForest Kelley has appeared in numerous TV programs such as "Gunsmoke", "Rawhide", and "Bonanza". Also among his movie credits are "Gun Fight at O.K. Corral", "Raintree County", and "The Law and Jake Wade". He is now appearing in "Beginner's Luck".

"BEGINNERS LUCK REVIEW"

After 8 years of marriage Paul Burnett decided he wanted a night out, so he bought a bowling ball; not for bowling but to cover up another sport he had in mind--an affair with a girl from his office. From the moment of his nervous arrival at her apartment, everything goes hilariously wrong and ends in disaster when the building catches fire, bringing firemen and newspaper photographers. A picture of Paul emerging from the burning building with his bowling ball appears in the morning paper that is the end of Paul's extra-martial affair, and also his marriage. A year later Paul and his ex-wife, Sally have met accidentally while racing for the same cab, and Paul has injured his knee while seeing Sally to the door. She sympathetically attends to his knee, and after a few drinks they end up spending the night together. Paul thinks that he is now back in Sally's good graces, but is chagrined to learn that during her year of freedom she has acquired a number of other suitors; one in particular, wants to marry her at once. Paul's efforts to talk this marriage over to win Sally back for himself provide continuous laughter in this uproarious and sophisticated comedy.

Curry Family Reunion Held

Nine of the 11 children of the late Rev. and Mrs. J.T. Curry met Sunday July 28 in the home of Belva Whittington, 2509 N. Second, Tahoka for a family reunion.

Third Armored Division Reunion Held

The 27th Annual Reunion of the Third Armored Division (Spearhead) Association was held at the Leamington Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota during the week of July 24th to 27th.

In attendance from this area were Joe D., Betty, and Vicki Unfred of New Home and Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Brosch of Slaton. Brosch and Unfred were members of the Spearhead Division during World War II.

The Third Armored Division Association, consisting of over 1400 active members, is one of the best attended reunions of the World War II veterans' groups. The 4 day event was climaxed with a banquet Saturday evening with over 1170 in attendance. Highlights of the eventful weekend started with the Early Bird Registration on Wednesday, July 24th, followed that evening by a real Hawaiian Luau and an Aquatennial Torchlight Parade, similar to the New Orleans Mardi Gras. Celebrities in the parade included Captain Kangaroo and Hubert Humphrey. Thursday was filled with tours of the very beautiful twin cities area, brewery, Betty Crocker headquarters, Billy Graham's home church and headquarters.

Joe D. missed most of the tours having been elected to the Board of Governors of the organization last year, and this year was elevated to vice president of the South which includes an area from New Mexico to the eastern seaboard to the Virginia area. There are 4 vice presidents elected to serve the entire continental United States, Alaska and Hawaii.

At the conclusion of the general meeting on Friday morning, the ladies were treated to a Ladies' Luncheon featuring a style show of "Fashion Flashbacks". The men of the group broke from their meeting to enjoy their annual unit luncheons. Friday afternoon—more tours and Friday night the Spearhead dance until 1 a.m. Brosch thinks the music gets faster each year (?). Saturday morning the memorial service was held in the beautiful Westminster Presbyterian Church by representatives of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. At 4 p.m. each Saturday of the reunion, a Catholic Mass and a Protestant service is held for those wishing to attend. Sunday morning is pack up, goodbye, and go home time. Another great reunion for the record book.

In 1975, the group will meet at Seven Springs, Penn., a world famous mountain resort in western Pennsylvania 60 miles east of Pittsburgh.

Any Spearheader who would like to know more about the Association should contact either E.L. Brosch or Joe D. Unfred for further information.

Cane Growers See Big Crop

AUSTIN—A yield of 1.1 million tons of sugar cane producing up to 115,000 tons of raw sugar has been predicted for the 1974 Texas sugar cane crop in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The crop, the second planted in Texas in more than 50 years, has been increased to 29,200 acres, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

Sugar cane production returned to Texas last year for the first time since 1923 when 112 farmers invested $30 million and 25,000 acres to grow the crop and produce raw sugar.

A new mill, the W. R. Cowley Sugar House, was built between Santa Rosa and La Villa with the cane farmers' investment. The mill processes raw sugar which is then sent to Sugar Land, Texas' only sugar refinery.

The grower's investment was hurt last December when an early freeze took them by surprise and ruined part of the crop. This year they are hoping to avoid such costly

Thursday, August 1, weather conditions. "The addition of cane production to Texas agriculture has been a boon not only to increased production, but to the economy of the state well," Commissioner White said.

cousin, Mrs. M.M. Styles near New Deal. We had planned to spend the day preparing beans, peas and corn for freezing and canning but the early morning rain took care of that. I returned home Monday afternoon.

While working with a crew roofing a house, Jimmy Dulin fell from a ladder and broke his leg late Friday. He is able to be home but will be "laid up" for several weeks.

Members of Hazel Bennett's Sunday School class met in the home of the teacher on Monday night, for a business meeting and social hour. Mrs. Anna Pennington was co-hostess. Devotional was led by Mrs. John Hill. New officers were elected and members revealed their "secret pals" for the past year. The class presented the teacher with a lovely lock- et and chain, for her birth- day. Homemade ice cream and cake was served to the 12 mem- bers attending.

Our sympathy to the Lamb and Hancock families in the loss of their loved one, Mrs. R.A.(Hil- da) Lamb of Wilson. She died in her home early Monday e- vening after a lengthy illness. Services are pending at Slaton at the time this is being writ- ten.

Shower Honors Terri - Gary

Miss Terri Landrum and Gary McElroy were honored with a Wedding Shower Saturday night, July 26, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.O. Reed, 1700 N. 7th St. Special guests were the couple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Landrum of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. R.E. McElroy.

Miss Teri Pebsworth regis- tered guests, serving at the refreshment table were Misses Becky Franklin and Sheri Short. The co-hostesses were Mmes. J.O. Reed, Dan Curry, Jesse Dorman, Dayton Parker, Clif- ton Hamilton, David Reed, Fred Zedlitz, L.A. Forsythe, Fred McGinty, Phil Jennings, Mary Brecheen, and J.A. Pebsworth Jr. The hostesses gift to the couple was a bedspread.

The engaged couple plan to marry August 16 in the home of the groom.

Lions Elect New International President

SAN FRANCISCO, CALI-FORNIA—Johnny Balbo of Oak Brook, Illinois, was elected President of the International Association of
 Lions Clubs at their 57th
 Annual Convention in San Francisco, California. Lions
 International is the largest humanitarian service club organization in the world. It is a non-political, non-sectarian
 association with over one million members in 146 nations
 and geographic areas.

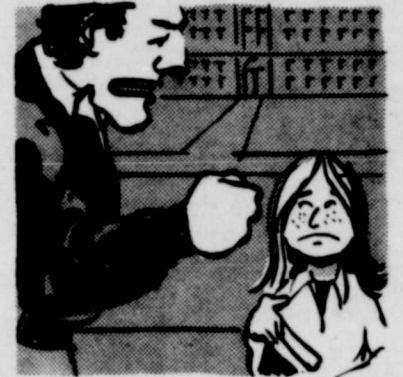

A former professional
 wrestler and World Light-
 Heavyweight Champion from 1947-49, Balbo has been a member of the La Grange,
 Illinois, Lions Club since 1952. Now a mobile home park owner, Balbo is a director of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness
 and a trustee of Leader Dog
 School for the Blind, Rochester, Michigan, and Hadley
 School for the Blind in Win-
 netka, Illinois.

President Balbo's theme
 for his year in office, "Lion-
 ism: a Heritage Challenging
 Tomorrow," exhorts Lions
 everywhere to build upon
 their strong history of service
 to meet the future needs of
 the handicapped, the lonely
 and the under-privileged of
 the world.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

School's "Long Arm"

Big Eddie, an oversized teenager, liked to bully the girls on their way home from school.
 When several parents finally complained to school officials, Eddie
 was placed on probation.
 But at that point, his own parents decided to take a hand. Filing
 a lawsuit against the school, they claimed their son's punishment
 was illegal.

"All of these incidents happened after school, away from school grounds," they pointed out.
 "Therefore, the whole matter was
 outside the school's jurisdiction.
 Problems of this kind ought to be handled by the parents, not by the school."

However, the court upheld the
 probation order against Eddie.
 The court said schools have a
 "long arm" reaching any misconduct by students, even away from school, that disrupts the educational process. Said the judge:

"The true test (is) not the time
 or place of the offense, but its effect upon the morale or efficiency
 of the school."

Still, to justify disciplinary action, the harm to the school must
 be substantial.

Thus, another court voided the
 suspension of a high school athlete
 who had been found in a car containing several bottles of beer.
 The bottles were not his. He had not been drinking. And the incident took place during vacation.
 The court said there was not enough harm to the educational process to justify the penalty.

In a third case, two students
 were suspended for publishing an
 "underground" newspaper, which they had distributed off school
 premises.

Evidence in a court hearing indicated that the newspaper did indeed contain criticism of the school. But the criticism was not
 1) libellous;
 2) inflammatory; or
 3) obscene.

The court thereupon lifted the
 suspension, saying that school authorities had overreacted. They should have been particularly
 wary, said the court, of infringing
 on the constitutional right of freedom of the press.

A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

Lions Elect New International President

SAN FRANCISCO, CALI-FORNIA—Johnny Balbo of
 Oak Brook, Illinois, was elected President of the International Association of
 Lions Clubs at their 57th
 Annual Convention in San Francisco, California. Lions
 International is the largest
 humanitarian service club organization in the world. It is a non-political, non-sectarian
 association with over one million members in 146 nations
 and geographic areas.

A former professional
 wrestler and World Light-
 Heavyweight Champion from 1947-49, Balbo has been a
 member of the La Grange,
 Illinois, Lions Club since
 1952. Now a mobile home
 park owner, Balbo is a director of the Illinois Society for
 the Prevention of Blindness
 and a trustee of Leader Dog
 School for the Blind, Rochester, Michigan, and Hadley
 School for the Blind in Win-
 netka, Illinois.

President Balbo's theme
 for his year in office, "Lion-
 ism: a Heritage Challenging
 Tomorrow," exhorts Lions
 everywhere to build upon
 their strong history of service
 to meet the future needs of
 the handicapped, the lonely
 and the under-privileged of
 the world.

School's "Long Arm"

Big Eddie, an oversized teenager, liked to bully the girls on
 their way home from school.
 When several parents finally complained to school officials, Eddie
 was placed on probation.
 But at that point, his own parents decided to take a hand. Filing
 a lawsuit against the school, they claimed their son's punishment
 was illegal.

"All of these incidents happened after school, away from
 school grounds," they pointed out.
 "Therefore, the whole matter was
 outside the school's jurisdiction.
 Problems of this kind ought to be handled by the parents, not by the
 school."

However, the court upheld the
 probation order against Eddie.
 The court said schools have a
 "long arm" reaching any misconduct by students, even away from
 school, that disrupts the educational process. Said the judge:

"The true test (is) not the time
 or place of the offense, but its effect upon the morale or efficiency
 of the school."

Still, to justify disciplinary action, the harm to the school must
 be substantial.

Thus, another court voided the
 suspension of a high school athlete
 who had been found in a car containing several bottles of beer.
 The bottles were not his. He had not been drinking. And the incident took place during vacation.
 The court said there was not
 enough harm to the educational
 process to justify the penalty.

In a third case, two students
 were suspended for publishing an
 "underground" newspaper, which
 they had distributed off school
 premises.

Evidence in a court hearing indicated that the newspaper did indeed contain criticism of the school. But the criticism was not

- 1) libellous;
- 2) inflammatory; or
- 3) obscene.

The court thereupon lifted the
 suspension, saying that school authorities had overreacted. They should have been particularly
 wary, said the court, of infringing
 on the constitutional right of freedom of the press.
