The Spectator...

By Mary Brecheen

The Old-Timer gave his views of the energy crisis this week with his definition of the word economist. He says an economist is a person who can write a ten-page report on why people use more fuel in cold weather.

"I'll buy that."
It reminds me of a story I heard once about a young nursing student, recently removed from the Appalachian mountain country. Seems that the student was assisting in the delivery room of a large hospital and when the task was accomplished, the baby cleaned up, etc., the doctor, while filling out the necessary forms, asked one of the more experienced nurses, "Was that a boy or a girl?" The older nurse, because of the excitement and hurry and maybe even the drum-routine to which she was accustomed, admitted that she simply didn't know the sex of the child--had not really noticed. To which the eager student hastily replied, "Now if you really want to know, I can tell you."
"Some things in life are so simple and so obvious."

We're surrounded with so many things that are really complex and so many problems that are bigger than mere man that it is a mystery to me why some folks go about looking for the difficult and even use their so-called learning to create complexities.

I make no apologies when I say that it is offensive to me to read of those who openly doubt the Biblical account of creation and other stories in the Bible which do not follow a logical reasoning pattern as we know it.
Agreed that it is man's prerogative to doubt, but sense a weakening in all other areas when we so assiduously read such as appeared in the January 1st issue of Newsweek in a discussion of the movie "In Search of Noah's Ark."

The writer of the article says, "All but fundamentalist theologians believe that the Genesis story of Noah and the flood is no more than a tale. 'It's from epic legend,' scoffs Prof. Frank M. Cross, Jr. of Harvard Divinity School." Man's wisdom sometimes gets him in deep water.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's book Uncle Tom's Cabin was one of the sixteen books which actually changed the course of human events in that its frank revelation of the evils of slavery united the Civil War.
Alex Haley's novel Roots seems to be of the same caliber, with a few exceptions.
Had Uncle Tom's Cabin been televised when it was written in the 1850's, it might have had even a greater impact than the Civil War.
Talk about man's inhumanity to man!

Foster Homes Being Sought In This Area

The State Department of Public Welfare is looking for foster homes for low-income aged, blind, or disabled adults whose homes are no longer safe or who, for one reason or another, have no homes.
"We are seeking warm-hearted people who have room in their homes for one to three aged or disabled persons who are not related to them. The foster family must be willing to help provide opportunities for social, recreational, and religious activities as appropriate, as well as room and board," says Rochelle Romboka, social worker from Post.
Cost of the care is shared by the individual and the welfare department. Payment to the foster family is $220 per person per month.
Mrs. Romboka asked persons interested in learning more about providing this service to contact her at Box 897 or 302 West 8th Street, in Post, 79356, or to call her at 806-495-2881.

Justice of the Peace N. E. Wood of Tahoka was summoned to the scene of a shooting in the Oscar Roberts pasture four and one-half miles north and one-half mile west of West Point on Sunday night of this week, at approximately 9 o'clock.
Game wardens Keith, McCartney, and Kriebel of Brownfield had found the body and notified Terry County Sheriff Homer Parker and highway patrolmen from Brownfield, not realizing they were in Lynn County.

Authorities identified the victim as Gregorio Solis, 23, and believe that he had been dead since about 2 o'clock on Saturday.

Wood ruled suicide and that death was caused by a 25 caliber pistol.

Sheriff Norvel Redwine notified the victim's father who told officers that his son had left home early on Saturday after telling his family of the contemplated suicide.

Cotton Prices Increase, Says USDA's Lubbock Cotton Office

Exchange's Spot Quotations advanced about $22.50 per bale from the previous week. The base price for grade 41, staple 34, mikes 3.5-4.9 was 66.35 cents on Friday, January 28, up 450 points

Knowledge Gained In First-Aid Course Is Practical For Tahoka Lady

Most mothers of young children would consider their time too precious to give up four nights in one week in order to take a first-aid course.

And some might even have the contagious notion, "out of sight, out of mind," when it comes to improving one's ability to help the other fellow.

Neither of the above ideas occurred to Mrs. Billy Miller recently when she had the opportunity to take a first-aid course being taught by Volunteer Fireman Jerry Ford, assisted by Mrs. Miller's husband, Billy.

Tahoka's volunteer firemen have access to the course occasionally, in order to renew their three-year first-aid certificates. When it was taught in January of this year, Arnetta Miller was one of four women in Tahoka who availed themselves of the training in artificial respiration, care of fractures and sprains, what to do in case of shock, what to do for the drowning victim, and some training in counteractions for poisoning.

At the end of the 8-hour course, on Friday night, January 21st, there was a quiz which Mrs. Miller passed with flying colors, proof being her three-year certificate which identifies her as one who has completed the course.

But the real test, the practical part, came less than a week later, on Tuesday, January 25th, when the young mother of two daughters was on her way to Lubbock and arrived at the scene of an accident which involved a six-year-old child who had been hit by a truck.

Partly because of her concern for the injured child and largely because of confidence and knowledge gained in the recent study, Mrs. Miller was able to administer aid to the injured child and very possibly saved a life.

Small in stature, but long on compassion, she remarked ever so modestly, "I don't know that I saved the child's life, but I would like to think that something I learned gave me the courage and ability to act quickly under the circumstances."

Without a doubt, the parents of six-year-old Paula Gail Wylie of Lubbock will be forever grateful to Arnetta Miller for her unselfishness and concern and for the knowledge she used to save the life of their little girl.

Other women in Tahoka who are newly certified in first-aid techniques are Alice Ballard, Brenda Isbell, and Janie McMillan.

Obtain Proof of Crop Ownership With Grain Warehouse Receipt

AUSTIN—All Texas grain farmers are urged to obtain official grain warehouse receipts for their stored crop, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

"Farmers who receive nothing more than weight tickets as proof of deposit of their grain should exchange them for official receipts as soon as possible to ensure maximum protection under the law," White said.

In the event of a grain warehouse failure, a weight ticket holder could easily be haggling before taking possession of his grain, since scale tickets in themselves do not necessarily constitute legal proof of ownership.

On the other hand, White stated, warehouse receipts, obtained upon request from any grain warehouse, provide clearcut proof of ownership as legal negotiable instruments.

According to the Texas Department of Agriculture officials, warehouse receipts would have priority in any case of forced closure or bankruptcy.

Sherry Etheredge Says

Consumers may find that "85 m.p.h." is the top speed listed on their car speedometers, some day, says Claudia Kerbel, a consumer information specialist.

A proposal currently being considered by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration would require car makers to limit the speed indicator to 85 m.p.h. (137 kilometers per hour), she said, noting that the public may indicate their opinion on the proposal before March 14.

"This does not mean cars could not travel faster—they just could not indicate speeds above 85 m.p.h.," the specialist added.

She is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A & M University System.

Several studies on the effects of the nationwide 55 m.p.h. speed limit have shown that slower, more uniform speeds are primarily responsible for the significant drop in the fatality rate," Ms. Kerbel said.

"Existing speedometers which register speeds of 120 m.p.h.—or greater—are using more than half of the dial to indicate illegal and dangerous speeds. The proposed standard will help remove the immature driver's temptation to test the top speed of his vehicle.

"Also, it will make the speedometer dials more precise and easier to read—in the range of speeds normally driven," she said.

If adopted, the proposal will become effective in September, 1979.

Comments are now being sought on the proposed standard, and consumers may write, before March 14, 1977, to: Docket Section (No. 76 06), National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room 5108, 400 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590.

Farmers Plan Fewer Poults

AUSTIN--Texas consumers may find fewer turkeys on their grocery shelves in 1977 if the state's producers carry out intentions to raise four per cent fewer birds, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Producers throughout the turkey-producing counties indicate intentions to raise approximately 8,900,000 heavy breed poults in 1977, down from 9,300,000 head produced last year.

"Of course, the actual number of turkeys raised may vary from intentions, depending on a variety of factors. The price of feed, supply and price of hatching eggs and poults, and prices growers receive from turkeys during the next few months will all have a bearing on production," White explained.

Texas farmers spend more than $5 and one quarter billion a year in total production expenses. They spend over $457 million a year on fuel for major crops, with about 2.5 million tons of fertilizer and minerals used annually in the state to produce food and fiber, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN--There is now in service in the House of Representatives a telephone system for use by the deaf citizens of this state.

This TTY, or telephone for the deaf, is available for deaf constituents to call their representatives and for House members to call their deaf constituents. It is located in offices behind the House Chamber.

This is the first time any legislative body in any state has offered such a service. We are hopeful that it will be helpful in providing deaf citizens of Texas a means for active input into the legislative process.

The TTY is a telephone system much like the one found in the newsrooms of most daily newspapers. It translates telephone frequencies into typewritten messages.

Deaf people are made aware of calls coming into their machine by flashing lights on the machine.

When calls are received on the machine for a particular member, a message is taken and routed to the member. After the member receives the notice of the call, the machine is available for him to return the call.

In the past, the invisible handicap of the deaf has often prevented their full participation in government. It has caused them to rely almost entirely on printed material for information about upcoming legislation.

I am hopeful that the telephone system will reach deaf people of the sources of the House, these resources are the the hearing citizens of the State.

The telephone number to reach the Telephone Deaf in the House, Code 512 475-3498, calling from outside the Austin area will have regular long charges to reach the House.

The service will be of the present legislative session. At the end of an evaluation will be to determine how a special system was able to make a difference to whether the fixture in the House.

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News
Compiled From Sources Of The
TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

A Corny Story . . . Cattle On Feed Decline . . . Not So Sweet.

Texas farmers apparently are going to continue to make corn a "cinderella crop" in this state.

A fantastic average per acre yield of 120 bushels per acre was recorded last year; this is 33 bushels more per acre than the national average.

Texas farmers this year intend to increase corn acreage to 2,000,000 acres; this would be up 21 per cent from a year ago.

Most of the corn in Texas is grown under irrigation on the High Plains. Individual yields of 150 bushels per acre and more are not uncommon.

And though Texas ranks 11th nationally in corn production, it produces more per acre than the traditional major midwest corn producing states. Acres in the state last year were at an all-time high, and this year will set another new record for corn.

In other major crops this year, Texas farmers intend to increase cotton acres 15 per cent compared to a year ago. Sorghum acres will be down 14 per cent from last year.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service also notes that oat seedings are expected to be up 2 per cent, barley seeding will be down 27 per cent, soybean acres will be down 7 per cent, and rice acres are expected to decline 6 per cent.

The figures are prospective plantings for the state based on Jan. 1 expectations of the state's farmers.

CATTLE FEEDING in Texas is down 9 per cent from a year ago and is down 1 per cent from a month ago. As of Jan. 1, there were 1,710,000 cattle on feed. Steers accounted for 56 per cent of the total.

In the 23 states reporting on cattle on feed, a 3 per cent reduction was noted compared to a year ago.

In this state, feeders intend to market 950,000 cattle through March 31. This would be 14 per cent lower than marketed during the first quarter of 1976.

Nationwide, cattle feeders intend to market 4 per cent fewer numbers this quarter than compared to 1976.

NO SO SWEET. That's the conclusion of the latest report on Texas honey production. The product is still sweet, but the quantity was down in 1976.

Honey production totaled 9,400,000 pounds during 1976; this is 27 per cent below the 1975 production.

Colonies of bees in the state during 1976 were estimated at 200,000 compared to 208,000 during 1975.

The colonies averaged 47 pounds of honey per colony, which is a decrease of 15 pounds per colony from the previous year.

Total value of the honey and beeswax during 1976 is estimated at $4,475,000 compared to $6,151,000 in 1975.

The legislative policy adopted January 18 by the Board of Directors of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. indicates much improved confidence among High Plains cotton producers in their ability to produce and sell cotton at a profit with a minimum of assistance from government farm programs.

Evidence of this is seen in the board's agreement to "favor a long-range government cotton program which follows a market-oriented philosophy . . ."

The strongest indication came in the policy section which deals with the Commodity Credit Corporation loan program. The directors overwhelmingly voted to work for a CCC loan that will, among other things, "continue to base the loan price on average market prices."

Discussion revealed that the board favors a loan price high enough to give protection against total price disaster and be useful as a marketing tool, but not so high as to encourage cotton production in foreign countries and in less efficient cotton growing areas of the U.S.

There is a feeling in some quarters that the cotton loan price should be at or near the cost of production. But throughout the PCG discussion fear was expressed that such a loan would lead to surplus production in the U.S. and abroad, low prices and an almost certain return to government restrictions on cotton production.

This fear more than any other factor led to the directors' decision that loan prices in future programs, as now, should be directly connected to market prices.

Other parts of the PCG policy call for a CCC program that will:

- strengthen to the greatest extent possible producer advice and participation in the administration of the loan program and management of CCC stocks;
- promote the orderly marketing of cotton, assist in crop financing, and assure adequate U.S. production without unduly encouraging an increase in foreign production;
- improve the data and procedure under which the loan is calculated;
- provide for a mechanism whereby for any given year the spread between the loan rate and the target price shall not exceed ten percent;
- determine and announce as final a minimum loan level by November 1 of the calendar year preceding the marketing year for which the loan is to be effective;
- establish CCC interest rates not in excess of the cost of money to government; and
- authorize producers to renew loans for a period of at least eight months beyond the current ten-month maximum loan period.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sims of Garland are the parents of a new baby girl, born January 5th and weighing eight pounds. She has been named Cathrine Michelle. The mother is the former Dana Akin and the couple has two other children. Grandpa Ed and Grandma Audrey have been in Garland since before Christmas, but came home on Friday.

$40 was raised on it.

Mrs. E. B. Gaither has been visiting relatives in Irving the past week. She was accompanied by a grand-daughter from Lubbock.

Mrs. Wanda Farr, first-grade teacher, is able to be home after spending several days in Lynn County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Paul Ford of Lubbock visited his grandparents, the J. L. Fords, on Sunday and attended church services with them.

Judge Abernathy of Plainview presided at a meeting on Thursday at the Senior Citizens Center when an area meeting was held to consider the growing needs of older Americans.

Representatives were present from Terry, Lynn, Yoakum, and Garza Counties.

It was noted that much help is available of which many people are not aware. Steps are to be taken to educate senior citizens along those lines.

Regular meeting of the local club will be this Friday, a noon meal.

Installation of new officers was held in Rebekah Lodge on Tuesday night after a "pot luck" supper at 7 p.m.

District Deputy President Christine Weeks of Lamesa and five other members of that Lodge were on hand for the installation.

Elected officers are Willie Mae Childress, Noble Grand; Evelyn Burr, Vice Grand; Leona Waldrip, Secretary; and Trudy Schuknecht, Treasurer.

A drawing was held at the close of the meeting and Doris Raines of Lamesa was the winner of the oil painting the Lodge has been working with to raise money. About

Christy Shelton, Danny Bell Are Wed In Church Ceremony

Miss Christy Lou Shelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis D. Shelton of Lubbock, and granddaughter of Mrs. S. L. Shelton of Tahoka, became the bride of Danny Bell on Friday night, February 4, at First Presbyterian Church in Lubbock.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lester Bell of Lubbock.

The Reverend Sam B. Laine, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Lubbock, officiated at the ceremony when the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The background setting was an original lacy arch, gracefully holding ninety-six candles. On each side were two pair of fifteen-point candle arches at different depths and levels, dispersed with airy palm greenery. Lining the long cathedral aisle were five-foot votive markers, each holding a trio of clear crystal hobnail votive candles and decorated with boxwood greenery.

The bride was gownned in a petal white silk-faced peau-de-soie wedding dress, adorned with lace and pearl bead work. The Basque bodice was accented with lace and a duchess neckline with lace edging and pearls. Lantern sleeves fell from the molded bodice to the lace-edged cuffs. A lace floweret encircled waistline flowed into a circular skirt and chapel train encircled with lace flowerets. She wore a point-de-Paris lace floweret-covered capulet, from which drifted her altar veil of imported silk illusion which was accented by seed pearls and lace flowerets.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white silk peonies, snapdragons, violets, and roses with fresh baby's breath and greenery and streamers of green velvet tubing.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gill Livingston, sister of the bride, from Arlington, Virginia. She wore a long Tropicana gown of apricot crepe with a Greek influence. Graceful bodice-length capes in front with high a high wedding band neckline fell into swallow-tails at the back of the gown. She carried a crescent bouquet of gladiola blooms with touches of dried starflowers in shades of shrimp, apricot and beige.

Bridesmaids, whose attire and bouquets were identical to the matron of honor, were Mrs. Al Grayson of Dallas, Mrs. Jimmy Ramage of Clyde, and Miss Lee Archer, also of Dallas.

Flower girl was Lori Devault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Devault of Lubbock. She carried a basket of flowers in the bride's colors and wore a long dress of floral printed crepe with flounce on cape and bottom of the dress. The neckline was edged with white lace with a velvet ribbon at the waist.

Ted Bell of Lubbock, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Steve Shelton, brother of the bride, Lubbock; Commander Gill Livingston, the bride's brother-in-law, from Arlington, Virginia; Kenneth Payne, Lubbock; and Bobo Hester, Casper, Wyoming.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length seafoam green gown with empire bodice and a chiffon overlay with handpainted flowers in apricot and muted coral. She carried a purse corsage of white gardenias with stephanotis and velvet tubing in green.

The mother of the groom wore a long printed apricot crepe knit with Cape collar and belt of matching chiffon and carried a purse corsage of white gardenias with stephanotis and velvet tubing in green.

Robert McKinsey provided organ and piano music at the reception where the twenty-foot bride's table covered with a white satin tablecloth held two five-point silver candelabra with fresh flowers in shades of apricot. Guests were served a three-tiered wedding cake, scalloped with eight eight-inch round cakes done in pale apricot with fresh and icing flowers in shades of apricot, with fresh greenery, set atop a center four-foot round table as the focal point.

Mrs. Bell is a graduate of Texas Tech University where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is manager of Calico Cottage in South Plains Mall.

Bell attended Texas Tech and is employed with Armstrong Mechanical Company in Lubbock.

Following a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the couple will be at home at 4705 80th Street in Lubbock.

Cotton Grades Lower, Prices Are Higher In 1976-77 Season

In a final news release for the 1976-77 cotton season, Paul Dickson in the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office reports that cotton grades were slightly lower this year, compared with last year. Predominant grades this year in the area served by the Lubbock office were grades 42 (19 percent), 33 (12 percent), and 43 (23 percent), compared with grades 41 (14 percent), 42 (38 percent), and 52 (18 percent) last year. More samples were reduced one grade because of bark. Forty-one percent were reduced this season compared with 26 percent last year.

Cotton prices advanced sharply, Dickson said. In spite of weaker prices from early December through mid-January, growers received 15 to 25 cents per pound above year-ago levels.

benefits, but every two dollars they earn above $3,000 may cause a reduction of one dollar in their social security benefits for the year. No matter how much they earn in 1977, they can get their full benefit for any month in which they do not earn more than $250 in wages (up from $230 in 1976) and do not perform substantial services in self-employment.

The contribution and benefit base is the maximum amount of earnings in a year that are creditable toward social security benefits and are taxable under social security. The new base of $16,500 will provide additional income to the social security program without increasing the taxes of workers who earn $15,300 or less in a year, McKeel said.

He noted that the social security tax rate, now at 5.85 percent of taxable earnings for employees and employers each, and 7.9 percent of taxable earnings for self-employed people, will remain unchanged in 1977. Questions regarding security may be directed to the Lubbock office, calling, collect, 762-7290 to McKeel at the County courthouse, second and fourth floors, from nine until noon. Persons needing to claim may follow the procedure.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS INC.

The search for solutions to cotton's problems dominated the functions at the recent National Cotton Council convention in Orlando, Florida. But in off-stage conversations, optimism was the order of the day.

So reported Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, on his return February 1977. "It seemed to me a big majority at the meeting, representing all segments of our industry, expect 1977 to be a good year for cotton," he said, "with prices improving and holding satisfactory levels through harvest of the 1977 crop."

Cotton prices received by farmers in calendar 1976, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, across the belt averaged 60.6 cents per pound, up from 42.9 cents in 1975. While food and feed grains, major alternative crops, were bringing severe price declines, causing some to expect a huge rise in cotton acreage, overproduction and sharply lower prices for cotton in 1977 and 1978.

Such a possibility certainly exists," agrees Johnson, "but prevailing opinion in Orlando was that U.S. and foreign acreage and production increases in 1977 aren't likely to be large."

SDA's report in January put U.S. planting intentions this year at 12.8 million acres, up 10 percent from the 11.6 million planted in 1976. Many at the NCC convention believe domestic foreign markets can absorb the production from 12.8 million acres without collapsing prices. They cite expected cotton stocks of less than 20 million bales on August 1, 1977, the lowest since 1924, and a U.S. carryover on that date down to near 3 million, down from 3.7 million the previous August.

"Also, there are a lot of people who doubt that plantings this spring will actually reach the 12.8 million intentions figure," Johnson notes. "And they could be right," he adds, in view of water problems in the far West, three years of poor crops for many farmers in the Delta, Mid-South and Southeast, price prospects for land-competitive soybeans, too much acreage in the Rio Grande Valley and less than ideal soil moisture on the High Plains.

Johnson's own thoughts about 1977 price prospects are pretty in agreement with those found in Orlando. "Barring extremely favorable growing seasons in all major cotton producing regions of the world and/or an economic recession, world production this year isn't expected to exceed world consumption. And since we have tight supplies and fairly strong prices now, I see no reason at this point to expect any sustained downward pressure on prices for the rest of the year."

GOVERNOR DOLPH BRISCOE, right, has issued a proclamation designating February as Heart Month in Texas and urging all citizens to support the American Heart Association's efforts to distribute heart-saving information and gather funds for its research, education and service programs. Present with the governor at signing ceremonies was Robert L. Hardesty, chairman of the American Heart Association's 1977 fund-raising drive and associate deputy chancellor for the University of Texas System. The AHA's statewide fund-raising goal is $3,100,000.
