CAROLYN'S CLATTER

by Carolyn Klaus

Industry and hard work have always been admired traits in America. Most people are by those rules but the rich are under constant scrutiny by middle-America. Below is an example of what could happen to a rich man if he relied wholly on the "hard-work" philosophy so common in our language and thoughts.

Consider what would happen to a good person who refuses to use loopholes and uses hard work to sailing yachts. He decides to invest $1-million of his capital in a pet factory in New York City which will pay him a year to get off the ground, but say 10 percent profit on his invested capital. After his workers have paid federal and local income taxes and the widget factory has paid property taxes, license fees, etc.

After the $100,000 profit, the city clears away $5,700, leaving $94,300. The state takes away about 10 percent of that, leaving $84,855 left. The state clips him for 15 percent of that ($6,728) and leaves him with $78,127. Uncle Sam "nicks" him for 70 percent of that which is $26,689, leaving him with $51,438.

Thus on the investment of $1-million in the first and two years hard work in assembling the enterprise that is risky to begin with, this fellow who turned a profit of $100,000 in the first year, ends up spending $11,438 to spend. He has given up two years on his yacht to gain $5,719 in annual income. If he had invested in tax-free municipal bonds, he would have gained roughly $10,000 in annual income and could have lived on his yacht instead of fighting city taxes, City Hall, and the widgetmakers.

The question is, "Does hard work really pay? Has America gotten to the point of paying idle hands, not only in this but in other things as well?"

O'Donnell School Makes Plans For The Coming Year

Dale Read, superintendent of O'Donnell schools for four years, says they are looking forward to the coming year. Last year their new accreditation plan was approved and they are anxious to get started with the plans the teachers and other staff spent three years developing.

Next year they hope to be moved into their new 4,000-plus square foot building.

The main alterations will be in math and reading and will be initiated in grades 1 through 12 and doubled-up in grades 5 through 8.

The math is a systems program, SAIL math, developed in Oregon. The students will be enrolled in two math classes, one in computation and the other in concepts. During their three-year study they discovered grades 5-8 were losing out a bit which prompted them to give a bit more emphasis in those grades.

Reading will find students returning to basics but with a new method and twist. The scheduling of the reading courses will follow the same pattern as the math courses in that they will "double-up" in grades 5-8.

Opinion of the general public holds that the reading ability of the majority of the average high school student is poor and Dale Read believes the new program in the O'Donnell schools will help to alleviate that problem.

Reading is so important that the school has started a new reading program in kindergarten too. It is a program, Alphaphonics, developed in California by three teachers. It consists of learning the letters in the alphabet as well as their phonetic sounds, according to Bill Schooler, O'Donnell principal.

Last year this same program was used in O'Donnell and was very successful. An invisible, at first, puppet-doll named Astro is used to encourage the children. At the end of the year, kindergarten students were able to read small books.

Every school must provide something more than an academic schedule so I called Coach Otis Summer at O'Donnell and discussed the up-coming sport-football.

He said he was looking forward to the year and felt they had a pretty good chance for a successful season. They will have 8 defensive and 8 offensive starters returning, most of which have been starters for 2 years.

Summers added that a winning season depends a lot on the attitude of the team and staff. He said this year should be a winner if everyone has a good attitude and are ready to make the necessary sacrifices.

Following is the 1978 O'Donnell Football Schedule.

Farmers Need To Buy Cotton Products Or Be Responsible For A Lower Price Level

Jo Carol Long, Tahoka, was recently sent to Austin by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to a school concerning gathering and dispensing of farm statistics.

Jo Carol works with two other women, Barbara White, New Home, and Jolene Tomlinson, Tahoka, in compiling statistics about Lynn County crops. These women can be seen in various fields actually counting cotton blooms or bolls the last week in each month during the growing season. They are a part of an organized team covering the 22 states raising cotton and make their official reports to Texas Crop and Livestock who then compile all the information into a report and add it to the reports of the rest of the nation.

While at the Austin school, Jo Carol heard a speaker, Carl Anderson from Texas A&M (Cotton Marketing Specialist), address the group on the topic "The Outlook of Cotton". The major portions of his speech were:

1. Uncertain supplies & sagging demand highlight the cotton situation.

2. Favorable prices a year ago have led to a 6 million acre world-wide increase this year.

3. Intense competition from manmade fibers.

4. Supplies need cutting before bullish market decreases. We had 5.4 million bales left from last year, by January 1979 we could have 16.4 million on hand.

5. OSHA 'dust standards' haven't helped the mills. According to Mr. Anderson, all of the U.S. is watching to see if Texas cotton burns up; if it does the price will go up. In essence, what his speech boiled down to was, either we buy cotton or we had better wish our neighbors get hailed out or dried out.

"So as you can see, we need to look in our closets and make our choice as to what we want; no cotton prices, bad crops for our neighbors or going to the stores where cotton is in demand in large cities and buying cotton. A lot of man-made materials have to be pressed or sent to the cleaners. A lot of good cotton doesn't need ironing or pressing, so what price are you willing to pay?" questions Jo Carol Long.

Not Official But Damage Says "Tornado"

The weather in Tahoka and the surrounding area played havoc with buildings and untold acres of crops. On Highway 400 some cotton crops look like the fall of the year, nothing but brown sticks remaining of what was a beautiful and promising crop. The estimate of hailed-out cotton ranges around 10,000 acres or more. The hail seemed to cut off on a given line and plummeted once again on a given line, completely destroying one patch of cotton while leaving the one right next to it unharmed.

BILL SCHOOLER displays the set of "Texas Trails" filmstrips, belonging to the O'Donnell schools, that he uses in some of his program presentations.

Texas Trails Program Presented By Bill Schooler

Bill Schooler, principal at O'Donnell schools has given programs for various clubs and organizations for some time. One time when he was scheduled for a program he could not find enough time to devote to the project to develop his idea. As a substitute he presented a program about the "Texas Trails", which were outlined by the Texas Highway Department, and it was so successful he has been asked several times to present the same program.

An education service center unit in the state decided to prepare filmstrips with accompanying tapes about each of the trails mapped by the Highway Department. Mr. Schooler says the pictures are not the greatest anymore but are still good enough to enjoy.

Several hundred miles can be traveled through each filmstrip and different historical facts and beautiful scenery is included in each filmstrip. One of the more interesting ones for Lynn County might be the "Texas Plains Trail" because it goes near Post and Gail and goes right through Wilson.

The filmstrips which run 18-37 minutes in length allow you to travel in easy comfort without driving. The set of sound filmstrips belong to the O'Donnell schools but Mr. Schooler says he would be happy to use them as a program for anyone provided he had the time.

A map of each of the trails with facts of interest along the route can be obtained through the Texas Highway Department.

Bishop Mohr

The Rev. Dr. Vernon A. Mohr, retiring after twenty-two years as President and Bishop of the Southern District of The American Lutheran Church (ALC), has accepted a call to become pastor of the American Church in Copenhagen, Denmark. His term as pastor of that church begins about mid-October.

After receiving the call from the Copenhagen congregation in late June, Dr. Mohr and his wife Elizabeth visited the church leaders there in early July and after due consideration informed the leadership that he would accept.

Mohr, a native of Iowa, went to St. John Lutheran Church in San Antonio in 1945, to serve there as pastor with his father-in-law, the late Rev. Dr. A. L. Wolff, and became head pastor of St. John Church in 1949.

In 1960, he was the first elected Southern District President and Bishop, and served 22 years in that capacity, for the then newly organized American Lutheran Church.

At the District's convention in Odessa early in May, the Rev. Dr. August Wenzel, director of LIFRS (Lutheran Institute for Religious Studies) based at Texas Lutheran College, in Seguin, was elected as successor to Mohr.

While Mohr was president of the Southern District he also served the ALC in various important capacities, including a trip to Africa in

Thursday, August 3, 1978

September and October 1973 at which time he represented the president of the ALC, Dr. David Preus of Minneapolis, Minnesota, in the Inauguration Service of the first Lutheran Bishop in Africa, the Rev. Dr. Todi.

In 1967 Mohr was on leave in Europe after he introduced the Decree for pastors in the Southern District, a non-structural entity unique in the eight Districts of The ALC.

KEEP WATER SAFE

During the summer season, people take to the water in huge numbers, and accident figures reflect it. Swimming pools and beaches are fun, of course, but can be hazardous to the careless or unwary. Near drownings, jellyfish stings, cuts from glass, eye abrasions from windblown sand—all may require a physician's treatment.

Everyone, especially children, should be aware of proper safety rules. Young children should never be permitted to swim unsupervised—no matter how well they claim to be able to swim.

A Visit With Your County Agent

by Stanley Young
Lynn County Agent

Water Wisely To Save Utility Bills

Has your water bill increased astronomically? Maybe an evaluation of your watering methods will result in more efficient use of the available water and at the same time reduce the amount you are paying.

First, check your methods of application. There is no need to apply water any faster than the soil will soak it up. If applied faster than the soil can absorb, the surplus will either run down the curb into the gutter or else flood out your yard. Sandy type soils usually take water up much faster than tight clay soils. If you are watering, use a method of application that fits your soil.

Secondly, use a mulch whenever possible. A good mulch conserves moisture, prevents compaction, keeps temperature lower, reduces weed population and, in case weeds do get a start, allows for easier pulling. Check the depth of the mulch material. Organic mulches tend to decompose or sometimes wash away, so frequent checks and replacement where necessary will help conserve moisture.

While night-time watering is conducive to development of plant diseases, water use efficiency does increase in the early morning and late evening when evaporation rates are lowest.

Last but by no means least is the practice of doing a thorough job of watering whenever the need arises. A thorough watering at 7 to 10 day intervals encourages deep root penetration and full use of the available soil moisture. Just because plants wilt during the heat of the day doesn't mean the soil is dry. Check the moisture content with a soil probe or stake to determine if the soil is dry rather than depending on the appearance of the plant.

Regardless of the size of the water bill, don't stop watering completely as plants can die due to moisture shortage during periods of high temperature and high wind movement. Just try to use the precious resource as efficiently as possible.

In a joint meeting of the "County Committee on Aging" and the "Board of Directors of Lynn County Pioneer Club" on Thursday, July 27, plans were made for scheduling the new 15 passenger bus for use by older citizens without other means of transportation. A transportation committee was appointed after guidelines were set up by Betty Shannon, of the Lubbock office on Aging. The bus will serve persons in O'Donnell, Tahoka, Lakeview, New Home, Wilson, Grassland and Draw. Plans are in the making to have schedules set up by the time the mini-bus is delivered, possibly this week or next. A covered dish luncheon followed the meeting.

A bridal shower was given Saturday afternoon, July 29, in the home of Mrs. Barney James of Lubbock for Dana Peeples, bride-elect of Kevin Gary. The couple plan to marry August 12 in Second Baptist Church, Lubbock. Miss Peeples is employed at J. C. Penney and he works for White Tire Shop, both in Lubbock.

Sixteen persons registered for the July birthday party at the "Senior Citizens Center" on Friday afternoon. Marylee West, W. T. Luttrell and Lou Rusk were the honored guests and drew a gift from the birthday gift box after the group sang "Happy Birthday" to them. Ice cream and decorated birthday cake was served. Games of 42 and bingo were enjoyed until five o'clock. Mable Morgan assisted the center director with hospitalities. This Friday is regular luncheon day at the center.

Bob Krueger Honored At Breakfast

Bob Krueger, independent candidate for the U.S. Senate, was honored at a breakfast sponsored by E. L. Short of Tahoka. The breakfast was held in the Tahoka Cafeteria on Thursday, July 27, and was attended by approximately 25-30 people. Krueger was the only speaker.

Krueger, 41, was born in New Braunfels and graduated from New Braunfels High School and Southern Methodist University. He took his Ph. D. degree from Oxford University in England and became Vice-Provost and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Duke University, the youngest in the University's history.

Following the death of his father, he assumed supervisory responsibilities in the family business, Comal Hosiery Mills, and now is actively involved in the family-owned Krueger Brangus Ranch in East Texas.

Bob Krueger entered his first political race in 1974, when he was elected by the people in the 21st District. He then received 72 percent of the vote when he was re-elected in 1976.

In Washington, Krueger was soon recognized for his intelligence, his depth of understanding and his capacity for hard work. At the end of his first term he was voted the "most effective" of 75 first-term Democrats.

Mrs. Farmer Gives Rotary Program

Mrs. Barbara Farmer of Borden County told of her trip to the historic Yucatan peninsula state in Mexico at last Thursday's Rotary Club meeting.

Headquartering in the capital city, Merida, population 350,000, they visited many of the fantastic ruins, many restored, of the Mayan Indian civilization which dates back to about 1600 B. C., and the Toltec Indians from 800 to 1000 A. D., invaded by Spain's Cortez in 1519 and by Montezuma in 1540.

Mayan Indians developed a remarkable civilization, she said. With no animals and no metals, they built fantastic stone structures, developed remarkable carvings and art work, mathematics, and a calendar. Archaeologists have dev-cloped and restored some of the temples and palaces.

Mrs. Farmer said they were surprised at the cleanliness of the cities, the coolness of buildings, and that there were no flies, all in spite of the fact that the jungles are so very lush.

She made the trip along with 24 other people from the Texas Historical Association.

Dwaine Lusk was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker. Vice-President Jim Solomon presided in the absence of Monte Dodson, the club president.

NEW HOME NEWS

by Florence Davies

The eleven children of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Inman, with members of their families and friends, met Sunday, July 29, for their annual reunion in the Pioneer Memorial Building in Crosbyton. A bountiful dinner was served at noon and the rest of the day was spent just visiting, getting acquainted with new members of the family and taking pictures. Mrs. M. M. (Cora) Shearer of Lamesa was honored as the oldest member of the family, having turned a "Young 80" on July 24. A money tree and individual birthday gifts were presented to her. A beautiful cake was made and decorated by Ornetha Walton and was on the registration table. Mrs. Jim (Maudie) Chandler traveled the furthest distance, coming from Terrebonne, Oregon. Others were: E. M. (Jack) Inman, Snyder, Mrs. J. W. (Melvina) Nelson, Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Winston (Florence) Davies, New Home, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Inman, Muleshoe, John Inman, Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Luther (Nora Bell) Wood, Tahoka, Mary Ellen James, Colorado Springs, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Inman, Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (Ornetha) Walton, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tapley, Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Shearer, Tahoka, Mrs.

Charles J. Siegel and children, Apple Valley, California, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Inman, and daughters, Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman, Crosbyton, Dan Cowan, Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Walton, Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Inman and children, Farwell, Mrs. Eddie Puckett and girls, Sweetwater, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Billie Miller and girls, Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phil Inman and children, Spring Dale, Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. Wendy Inman and children, Colorado City, Mrs. Bill Evans and girls, Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Warren and children, Argile, Rachel and Becky Walton, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freeman, Mador, Bryan Walton and friend Regina, Snyder, Roger Freeman, Lubbock, Greg and Megan Freeman, Lubbock, Babe Cox, Amarillo, Mrs. Nora Freeman, Hale Center, Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Lindley, Ralls, Ruby Shepherd, Brownfield, Mrs. Mae Reep, Plainview, Mrs. Esther Wood, Colorado City, Jane Briggs, Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Redding, Brownfield and some others that failed to register.

Singers from several places in Texas and New Mexico attended the fifth Sunday singing in the Lakeview Baptist Church Sunday. Rev. Don Lane preached his farewell sermon in the morning services.

Southwestern Backs Out On Reactor

Berl Springer, president of Southwestern Public Service Company, said on July 30 that the electric company is withdrawing its offer to provide $100-million and a plant site for building the nation's first gas-cooled breeder reactor.

"This has been a hard decision for us to make. We have been hoping, for nearly four years, that the plant would be built in our service area. However, the program has met with unusual and continuing delays, and the time has come for us to make other plans to be sure that our customers will have plenty of electricity in the future," Springer said.

Southwestern announced in September of 1974 that it had entered into an agreement with General Atomic Company, developer of the gas-cooled nuclear reactor, to provide the plant site and $100-million for a nuclear breeder reactor with an electric generating capability of 300,000 kilowatts.

"When we made our offer in 1974, we made a commitment for a demonstration plant ready to turn our electricity on a daily basis, just like any of our other plants. At that time, it looked like we would get that kind of plant in the early 1980's. It now appears that it will be after 1990 before a plant can be built, and it will be a reasearch project subject to shutdown and testing and not one on which we can depend for day-to-day operation.

Southwestern will continue to research nuclear fusion as a charter member of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation. In the fusion process, the atoms are joined, rather than split, and the hydrogen in seawater is the fuel for making electricity.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, a small tornado touched Tahoka and damaged several buildings in the town outside the town.

Mail Tips For Vacationers

Making arrangements for holding or forwarding mail prior to leaving home for vacations can save customers a lot of misery and inconvenience, officer in charge (OIC) W. P. Ashcraft reminded local residents today.

"An over-flowing mailbox can be an open invitation to burglars," OIC Ashcraft said. "Letting mail or newspapers pile up is advertising the fact that the house or apartment will be empty and unguarded."

Householders should ask a friend or neighbor to check their mailbox daily and to hold their mail until vacation's over.

Or, if they prefer, they can ask the Post Office to hold their mail for up to 30 days, or to forward it to the vacation address.

The postmaster offered these additional tips for taking some of the worry out of vacation planning.

Vacationers should buy enough stamps for scenic postcards and other correspondence before they leave. They may not be conveniently near a post office later.

They should use sufficient postage—ten cents for postcards and 15 cents for weighing one ounce. For letters weighing more than one ounce, additional postage is required.

Mail should be deposited in offices or in drop boxes, where more pickups are made.

Travelers should be sure they have the correct ZIP Code for the person with whom they are corresponding.

The Postmaster might be a good idea to type them on envelopes before leaving home, in case envelopes are lost.

And please write clearly, OIC Ashcraft said.

Whoever sent this gift, please let me know so I may acknowledge your kindness. May I also take this opportunity to thank all of those people who did remember me at this most important time in life.

I hope in all the hustle and bustle I didn't overlook thanking anyone, but if I did; please forgive me and accept my most heartfelt thanks.
