CHICAGO MARKET.

UNION STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO, ILL., AUG. 7, 1885.
(Special Telegram to the Journal.)
Hunter & Evans sold for C. C. Slaughter, 427 cattle 963 lbs $3.95. These were out of the Arapahoe country; for Dobkins, 69 cattle 963 lbs, at $3.50; Campbell, Lancaster sold a lot of 974 lbs cattle to canners at $3.50; Gregory, Cooley & Co. sold for Warren, 115 head 775 lbs, $3.60; Dobkins, 109 head 550 lbs, $3.70; for Christian, 68 cows and steers 775 lbs, $3.30; for Dickey Cattle company, 186 head 901 lbs, $4.00; 20 head 1002 lbs, $4.00; 26 cows 550 lbs, $3.30; 16 stags 1005 lbs, $3.12; general market for Texas cattle 10 to 15 cents higher to-day, making advance of fully 25 cents over last week. The Indian Territory cattle are beginning to come; we need them just now. Robert Strabers says the market could use 1,500 to 2,000 more head each day than are coming. There does not seem to be much fear of serious glut in the market on account of the Indian trouble. Texas sheep are steady and quoted at $2.00 @ $3.00 per 100 lbs, good enough demand for all good stock.

Mr. F. M. Maddox, who is well known to our readers by this time, just returned this week from a trip to Moberly, Wheeler county, where he reports everything in fine condition.

Maj. G. W. Littlefield, a wealthy and influential stockman of the capital city, returned last night after an absence of nearly a month. He has been on the wing most of his absence.

Mr. Perry Day, who is largely interested in the Indian Territory, dropped in on us this week. He is just from Ogallala, Neb., where he went to sell two herds of cattle taken from his Territory ranch.

Michigan is laboring in the throes of a new cattle disease, which manifests itself by great groaning at the end of twenty-four or forty-eight hours they expire, and an examination shows the lining of the stomach to be entirely eaten away. Veterinary science and skill should step to the front now!

ST. LOUIS MARKET.

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, East St. Louis, Ill., Aug. 7, 1885.
(Special Telegram to the Journal.)
The supply of grass Texas was comparatively light to-day, and prices advanced ten cents per hundred. The demand from buyers, shippers and canners was larger. Texas steers brought in extremes three to four cents. Indian steers $3.50 @ $4.50. Quality of Texas not of the best. Hunter, Evans & Co. sold 19 Texas, of 990 lbs., at $3.80; 200, of 570 lbs., at $3.65; 70, of 540 lbs., at $3.50; 50 head, 540 lbs., at $3.25; a string of common Texas, of 720 lbs, brought 3 cents; forty Indian steers, of 1080 lbs, brought $4.50.

Hogs dull and fifty cents lower. Good fat sheep scarce, and forty cents higher. Common and medium dull.

KANSAS CITY MARKET.

KANSAS CITY, MO., Aug. 7, 1885.
(Special Telegram to the Journal.)
Receipts of cattle on Tuesday 1914, yesterday 1900, to-day 1975 head. The market since my letter of Monday has been weak and otherwise slow, with a shading of prices on grass Texas. To-day grass Texas steers, averaging 800 to 925 lbs, sold at $3.00 @ $3.25.

A lot of grass Texas cows, good averaging 544 lbs, sold at $2.80. Corn fed cattle were in better supply the past day or two. Native, Texas, and Colorado, grass Colorado steers, averaging 850 to 1020 lbs, sold at $3.05 @ $3.60. Stockers and feeders are quiet but steady.

Hogs were in fairly large receipts 14,302 head on Tuesday, 12,710 yesterday, and 13,304 to-day. The market has been weak, 29 @ 30¢ lower within the past two days. Light sold to-day at $1.20 @ $1.40, and heavy and mixed at $3.90 @ $4.15.

Sheep were quiet; Kansas muttons averaging 116 lbs, sold to-day at 3 cents.

THE CATTLE TRAIL.

No Improvement in Handling Stock.

Editor Texas Live Stock Journal:
A few facts may be of some interest to your many readers if you will allow me to give them through your valuable paper. I have taken a trip this spring by way of Abilene, Colorado, thence north in the Panhandle and back home again on a round trip. I noticed a great improvement in cattle; all seem to be trying to improve their stock, and to economize in every way to meet the hard times. I find no improvement in the way of handling cattle. We see everything moved on the jump. Here we go boys, 15 or 20 miles to a round-up, we ride at the rate of seven miles per hour and often more. We out our cattle and go back at almost the same speed, reach camp with horses rode down, and I often noticed the blood dripping from their sides and shoulders. The cattle are all so footsore, lame, and driven so it will take a month to get over it. We often see yearlings that are a little hard to drive roped, beat, spurred, their eyes crammed full of sand, and vary often killed with abuse. I cannot believe that owners of stock know altogether just how rough stock are handled. If they did surely they could redress the damage done to them by the utter recklessness of every movement in the handling of range cattle.

We notice the way of branding herds. Yes, we see two or three brands down off their horses talking together, letting the cattle scatter over territory sufficient for three times the size of the herd, then they get on their horses, round them in on the jump, which is an injury to both horse and cow to some extent. Also when they drive on to the bad ground the movement is still too rapid, crowding them up, and causing the cattle to step on one another's feet. It accounts for 75 per cent. of the trail cattle being lame. There are other causes for the poor condition of driven cattle that could be prevented if the trail bosses would take more interest, stay about the herd and see what is going on, instead of being in camp so much of the time. There is as much in a boss knowing how to handle men as there is in knowing how to handle cattle. A man not knowing how to handle men, especially without showing partiality, is not a fit subject to be intrusted with the management of a trail herd. I claim to know of what I speak, having been on the trail almost yearly since 1871, and I think a man ought to earn something in that time. If any stockman wants a man to handle stock on the civilized or reform order, or one that will practice what he preaches on cattle can get me by paying enough and addressing me through the JOURNAL. TRAIL DRIVER.

PECOS VALLEY STOCKMEN.

Arrangements for the Fall Round-ups.

TOYAH, TEXAS, Aug. 3.—The annual meeting of the Pecos Valley Stock-Growing association was held here to-day. Judge Frazier was chosen chairman, James Harrison, secretary; W. D. Casey, foreman of the general round-up on the west side of the Pecos river; Jeff Chisum, on the east side; William Johnson on Toyah creek and Davis' mountains; J. S. Slack, on the Delaware river and south to Toyah. The Pecos round-up is to commence September 15, at the south side of Pulliam's range, extending north to the line of New Mexico. The Toyah creek and Davis mountain round-up is to commence at Rhoads' ranch, to split at Leon water, one branch coming up Toyah creek and the other up Limpio canyon. Meeting at Phantom lake they will then work to San Martine springs, resting there six days. They will then meet at Slaughter's ranch on Black river and work back to Toyah.

The Re-Union.
Any shortcomings or delay incident to the issuance of the TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL this week is due and should be charged up to Mr. F. P.
Holland, of the Texas Farm and Ranch, published twice each month, at Dallas, Texas at $1.00 per annum, strictly in advance. He arrived here on Monday fully equipped for any kind of warfare, having several thousand copies of his paper in a wagon, and a huge blue and white striped tent. He intimated his intention to take in the re-union here, and further, that for this occasion the blue stripes meant Farm and Ranch, and the white stripes meant TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL.
Says he, "Come on." You are moving your traps from your old quarters into a new building. Your printers are striking for lower wages, and your subscribers are nearly all veterans, and it don't make much trouble if your sheet has less trash than usual in it.

Let us go to the bubbling beer stand and partake of the good things provided for the support of the inner man?
Of course we went and remained three days stipulating first that no compulsion should be enforced to carry us within hearing distance of the rostrum when the band was not playing. We had a good time, Holland rustled for beef and we ate it. Holland rustled for bread and we took it and sent for beer.
Then we wanted salt, or ice, or water, or lemonade, and he went for it, and he must have had a good time. He took many a trip. Had it not been for Holland few minutes would have sufficed for us at the re-union, and the paper would have continued to be issued as heretofore without any unusual delay. The consequence is that in addition to his being responsible for the shortcomings of the Farm and Ranch, we are about to institute suit for damages to the TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL, and the fact that the two papers jointly obtained 1201 subscribers at the grounds is no extenuation or excuse for his conduct. Next time there is a re-union we hope to damage him in the same manner as he has damaged us.

Rail Talk and Trail Talk.
There is considerable comment by interested parties on the question of rail or transit for stock going to northern ranges from the southern breeding grounds, and most of it is idle. Here-before no objection was raised to cattle shipped from Southern to Northern Texas and then driven, and heretofore the only question the trail men had to decide has been merely the question of economy. Hereafter, however, the regulations stockmen of other states have been able to impose on the traffic will prevent the little transport we have been accustomed to during the past two years from becoming a regular and certain factor in the trade, and the consequence naturally follows that we must have more rail transit or less of it, and unless we really have a through rail trail the stockmen will seek to make easy passage through the northern states and territories by accepting the risks and inconveniences of working through partially fenced country in Texas they would prefer to avoid.

Taking the rail and the grass trail side by side the rail will win every time. There is no stockman in Texas who being offered a through ticket for stock so their destination but would accept if the terms were reasonable, and who would not shape his contracts that one man could make delivery at receiving points, the cattle to be driven by the receiving outfits the short distance to their ranges. When this can be done then trail driving will cease, and matters will adjust themselves. At present however the distance southern railroads can move cattle is only sufficient to furnish a sample of what might be but is not.

The road that will carry any number of trail cattle must at least reach the parallel 36 of North latitude, which is the accepted quarantine line as between northern and southern ranges, and the further north it goes the greater must be the volume of shipments, provided such a road conformed somewhat in direction to the regular grass trail route.

Failing in this the grass trail will prevail and every herd will go "by land" to their destination, and Texas stockmen must stand for the old Dodge trail so far as it can be used, and for the trail as established at Dallas and opened up by Secretary Lamar. There is talk of rail trails and paper trails, but for want of something better, now only visible as a possibility. Texas stockmen will hold and maintain a right-of-way through the state of Texas to the regular crossing, then by the beaten track over Uncle Sam's public domain, over country that furnishes grass and water for their cattle.

It will be time to talk of rail trails when such trails exist.

The Leases.
To the time of going to press no indication appeared that the President had taken any action to modify his order, but knowing the great interests at stake and the representations that can rightly be made to obtain such a change as may permit the removal of cattle to be done without serious loss, we cannot believe that the strict enforcement of the proclamation will be insisted on.
The Right Sign.
At the new building of the JOURNAL the interior view is adorned with a gold and black sign bearing the legend "subscriber for the TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL, $2.00 per annum."

This sign is the work of the renowned Durham Bull artist, Professor W. J.
Houlahan, who to use the expression of Mayor Fulton, of Galveston, is "pretty slick" with the camel hair pencil. The legend is so suggestive that so far, few reading and admiring the sign, have failed to step promptly to the captain's office to deposit the required amount. Our readers are requested to call, admire the sign and deliver it.

For Sale.
Fine cattle and sheep ranch, one of the best in Concho county. Contains twelve sections, (7,800 acres), lying in almost a solid square. Plenty of water springs have never gone dry. Water in many places at a depth of three to six feet, grass is very fine. Draws run from east to west affording best of winter protection. A good house of five rooms on the premises. Will be sold cheap and on easy terms; for further particulars enquire of ALEX. GLASS,
Wheeling, West Va.
or W. W. GLASS, Esq., Concho county, Texas.

FORT WORTH
And General Range Notes.

Mr. Powell of Jack, was at the reunion.
The price of Texas range cattle has moved upward lately.

Mr. George C. Scott of Iola, Grimes county, came in during the week to make a sale of stock cattle.

Mr. D. Donovan of Warrensburg, Missouri, ranching at the Cherokee strip, was here after cattle during reunion week.

Mr. S. L. Smith, a prosperous sheep raiser of Colorado vicinity, called on the JOURNAL editor while in the Fort for the re-union.

Mr. H. Ely, sheep raiser of Erath county, paid his respects and renewed his subscription on Saturday before returning home.

Adjutant General Kirk paid Holland's headquarters a visit while at the re-union grounds and did many prominent ex-Confederates.

Mr. Henry Exall of Lampasas, dealer in hard and live stock, and formerly of Tarrant county, paid a visit to the JOURNAL force while in town.

Four car loads of barbed wire went through this week from St. Louis to the Western Land and Live Stock company, of Colorado City, Texas.

It is reported that Childress & Davis, of Throckmorton county, sold to Nick Eaton of the Panhandle, a lot of ones and twos at $16.00 and $21.00 respectively.

T. C. Shoemaker left the range long enough to come to town to attend the re-union. He was just shipping out a string of cattle for Messrs. White of the Panhandle.

Henry Strong of Wichita Falls, owner of the celebrated Baldridge churn, the churns said by competent authority to surpass all others, is in town and may do some public churning before he leaves.

Messrs. G. A. & R. I. Page, well-known as reliable and responsible breeders of sheep, are preparing to move their annual consignment of bucks to Texas, and will bring anything ordered.

Messrs. Keenan, Johns, Alexander and J. JOURNAL man stood off until provisions were in sight and then dined with Mr. Holland of the Farm and Ranch. The host spent most of his time at the bakery rustling for bread.

Brooks & Mills took a contract from Tuck Boaz to put up 60 miles of fence around the pasture of the Western Land and Live Stock company, in Lubbock county, at $20 per mile. The material being furnished by the company.

Colonel S. P. Cunningham returned home after his trip to the seat of the rail troubles. He says that by the time he arrived there the herds were moving and that there was no outbreak of disease amongst any of the cattle.

Captain Tom West of Jack, was in at Fort Worth during re-union week, and when last seen was holding the controlling interest in a watermelon wagon, and was pushing to town for a second load. From the captain's appearance we judge he was doing nobly.

Mr. Rhodes, of Walworth, Walton & Rhodes, of the Cherokee strip, purchased of Henry Black of Stevens county, 1,000 steers paying $13.00 for ones, $17.00 for twos and $22.00 for threes and up. These are a superior lot of cattle.

Mr. J. J. McKinney of Hillsboro, Texas, was up the re-union, and while in the city called on the JOURNAL editor. Mr. McKinney has about 300 head of fine stock cattle for sale. He says the range in his part of the country is getting pretty thin.

A. F. Tuit, live commission dealer in land and live stock sold and delivered to Horace Ropes of New Mexico, 500 yearlings and two-year-old heifers at $11.00 for ones, $16.50 for twos, delivered here. They were a nice lot of heifers and cheap at the price.

Mr. W. P. Lenoir of Refugio, Refugio county, Texas, was in the Fort during the week and called to see the JOURNAL. He brought to town with him one car load of fine young mares also one car of young horses, and 48 head of yearling mules all in good fix.
They were raised by Mr. E. Ray of Goliad county. Mr. Lenoir will either sell them or rent a pasture and put them on it.

At a meeting of stockholders of the S. R. E. Land and Cattle company, on the 21st of July, J. P. Smith, J. H.
Jeter, J. F. Evans, E. G. Thurman and McKean were elected directors.
J. P. Smith was re-elected president;
J. F. Evans, vice-president; J. R. Jeter, Secretary, and E. G. Thurman general manager and treasurer. All commissions should be directed to J. R.
Jeter, secretary.

Tuck Boaz, manager of the Western Land and Live Stock company, bought 5,000 cattle of L. B. Harris in one lot and brand, Tom Green county heads. The price was $15.00 per head counted at Mr. Harris' pasture.
The stock is an average of the county as to class, being cows and calves, yearlings, steers and heifers, dry cows and three-year-old steers. The herd is pretty well bred up, and the Durham bulls go in at the average price. This is a cheap bunch of cattle and the company are in luck to have so good a rustler for a manager as we know Mr.
Boaz to be.

MAJOR CAMPBELL BROWN, of Spring Hill, Tennessee, the owner of Ewell Farm is well known as a breeder of Jerseys, and whose magnificent herd stands first on the list of dairy cattle. His trotters and pacers are of the best and fastest, and his Southdowns are of the best mutton stock. Major Brown has an advertisement with us and by arrangement the JOURNAL will present to our readers some excellent cuts of his famous dairy stock.

Constructed in 1865.
LARGEST LIVE STOCK MARKET IN THE WORLD

CAPACITY FOR LIVE STOCK:
20,000 Cattle; 150,000 Hogs; 10,000 Sheep; 1,500 Horses

The entire system of the railroads in the West center here, making the Union Stock Yards the most accessible point in the country. The large capacity of the Yards; the facilities for unloading, feeding and reshipping are unlimited. The city of packing homes located here, together with a large bank capital and some eighty different commission firms, who have had years of experience in the business, also an army of eastern and foreign buyers, insures that to the Union Stock Yards in the whole country. This is strictly a cash market. Each shipper or owner is furnished with a separate yard or pen for the safe keeping, feeding and watering his stock, with but one charge of yardage during the entire time his stock remains on the market. Buyers from all parts of the country are constantly in the market for the purchase of stock cattle, stock hogs and sheep. A regular horse market is established here which is claiming the attention of buyers and sellers from all parts of the country; this is the best point in America for the sale or purchase of blooded stock of all kinds. To the stock growers and shippers of Texas, Kansas and the West Territories, you are invited to become acquainted with us by billing your stock through to the active and quick market of Chicago.

Jamaica Grasses.

John R. Brahan, of St. Ann, Jamaica, is on a tour of inspection through Texas. While in San Antonio he was shown the JOURNAL'S specimen of Guinea grass, and stated that there are on the island two prominent grasses. One kind is this which has been grown from seed imported last winter by Drs. Crothers and Johnston, and is used in Jamaica for hay. The other grass is much shorter in growth and used for grazing. This latter is called "Para" grass; is hardy and kills out even Bermuda grass; it is very highly spoken of by Mr. Brahan, who thinks it would prove to be a very useful grass for Texas. The JOURNAL is in communication with the United States Consul regarding these grasses, and will report his reply to our readers.

HORNS AND HOOF.

Col. T. C. Frost is in New York. Capt. Sidney Tuttle, of Frio, was in San Antonio. Bro. Thompson of Bee county continues with us. W. J. B. Patterson has gone to the seashore for the summer. Capt. Sid. Tuttle is risking his precious life in Austin about this time. Major Hinkle is somewhat under the weather, but he won't go to bed. Henry Scott this week sold 500 cows and calves to Wm. Ragand at $23 all around, delivered on ranch. That live saddle firm, Ramsay & Ford, fitted out twelve men for a drive for Schreiner, of Kerr county. W. G. Todd, of Bandera, one of the liveliest and most energetic of sheep and cattlemen visited the branch office this week. "Cow Driver" Fenley, of Uvalde, was putting on style last week in the Alamo city exhibiting a duplex walking cane and buggy whip. Major G. W. Angle is again home from an Eastern trip, and is ready to supply any amount of land to those Indian Territory wanderers. That youthful and good looking traveling agent of the great Santa Fe road, Starr S. Jones, is again with his young associates of San Antonio. W. S. Carothers again escaped from that we become place, Arden, and is growing young again in San Antonio air. Mrs. W. S. is in Saldillo, Mexico. F. F. Collins has sufficiently recovered from his sick spell to start on a trip to Wisconsin. The JOURNAL earnestly wishes for his speedy return to health. Dr. Carothers has some milo maize on his ranch in La Salle—well, the doctor promises to send up some samples, and we will then measure them and state exact facts. Captain Jim Lucy is recovering from an ugly little sick spell, and attributes his rapid recovery to Dr. Amos Graves' prescription to "take a little sugar in his'n."

Jno. O. and Tom Dewees have made two more shipments of calves to the St. Louis and Kansas City markets. They sent on 420 last week of the prettiest kind of animals. From Archie Clark's patch the JOURNAL office received another installment of Guinea grass this week. It measured several feet and is certainly a fine looking bay grass. It remains to be determined how much dry weather the Guinea species can stand. "Vindex," the rustler for the Taylor Texas, darkened the door of the JOURNAL branch office last week. He came daily endorsed by editor Brown, but still we watched him. These newspaper fellows are pesky critters. Come again Vindex and see us. Captain B. F. Buzard passed through the Alamo city last week en route to the lakes of Minnesota. He very kindly loaned this office a large wall map just published showing all the ranches and cattle brands in the Cherokee strip, and ranches in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe district. Carothers & Searight, of Austin, (The Dolores Land and Cattle Co.) are preparing a splendid piece of Williamson county land as a hog ranch. They are putting around it a first class wire hog-tight fence. When this firm undertakes any enterprise the brand afterwards found on that enterprise is "success."

The JOURNAL'S branch office was this week honored by a visit from that veteran Angora goat breeder, Col. W. Landrum, of Uvalde. It is there an authority, and a thoroughly reliable one on the Angora goat. Col. Landrum is that authority. His many years experience in California and five years in Texas has fitted him to speak whereof he knows. You should read his advertisement and special offer in another column. Dr. R. R. Gilbert, one of the well known journalists of Texas, and formerly of New Orleans, has gotten out a new paper in San Antonio, devoted especially to real estate interests and their "developers"—railroads and kindred subjects. The proof sheet shown the JOURNAL man shows the paper will be a daisy, and the proprietor is fitted by long experience and every virtue to receive that success which doubtless his paper will command. Long may the West Texas Weekly Star shine!

The JOURNAL'S San Antonio branch office was this week considerably crowded by a pumpkin of mammoth size, sent from Cotulla, La Salle county, by that "prince of good fellows," John A. Kerr. He wrote to say that the fifty-four-pounder was only one of his baby pumpkins. It was raised near Cotulla by Mr. Freeman, who by hard and intelligent work has demonstrated what the man with the hoe can do in La Salle county. A watermelon was recently sent from Cotulla weighing 70 pounds. It is the county for farmers.

To Wool Growers. We offer fleece twine tied in hanks, proper lengths for tying fleeces at four and a-half cents per pound. Send in your orders to BEGG BROS., San Antonio.

CHICAGO MARKET LETTER.

Notes, News and Comments About Beef and Beef Men, Especially Texas Beef and Beef Men.

The Excitement About the Indian Leases Intensifying.—Personal Mention.

Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

UNION STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO, AUG. 7, 1885.

The chief topic of conversation lately has been the trouble concerning the Indian leases which the President has declared null and void.

"Why," said a man who has cattle in the section in question, "it is the most arbitrary order I ever knew a President to issue; all of the troops of the United States army could not drive those cattle out of there in forty days; it is simply preposterous! To put the cattle on the neutral strip means driving them into worse than a slaughter pen, as the range there is already badly overcrowded. We have tested the Kansas and Colorado quarantine laws and find them to be inexorable; our cattle include a great many fresh young animals driven from Texas and the surrounding states and territories will not allow us to cross their lines."

This does seem a very hard row of stumps, and any way that the matter can now be fixed will entail very great hardship on those who are mostly interested. Hunter, Evans & Co. have ranges in the Cherokee Strip and in Nebraska, and as they have old cattle that can be moved, they will simply be put to the heavy expense of moving when they are not ready to move, but the majority of those who have cattle in the Cheyenne and Arapahoe countries will suffer tremendous losses as they have fresh cattle that cannot be moved into the surrounding country until the advent of frost, and the question is, what are they going to do? Even those who are inclined to support the position of the President in having the Indian lands evacuated by the cattlemen, say that he is entirely unreasonable in his demand that the cattle shall be removed so soon.

As a general proposition, not many people seem inclined to very seriously condemn him for removing the cattlemen who seem to have caused not a little disturbance in that country, but his action is undoubtedly ill advised, in that he is demanding something, which if not entirely impossible, is sure to entail great loss and ruin on many. The condition of the cattle market in case a big share of these cattle are dumped onto it in a lump, can better be imagined than described—"the bottom will simply drop out."

At a meeting of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange to-day, a strong resolution requesting the president to extend the time a reasonable length was passed. The cattle market to-day was steady and the following were among the Texas cattle sales:

Table with columns: No., Av. Wt., No., Av. Wt., Price. Lists various cattle sales with weights and prices.

Two wrongs never make one right, and if the cattlemen have no right to be on the Indian lands the president has no right to cause them needless hardship and loss.

Receipts here during July were: 158,878 cattle; 149,154 hogs, and 50,100 sheep, showing a decline $3,000 cattle and an increase of 110,000 hogs and 8,000 sheep. It is fully expected that receipts during the next three months will be much heavier than last year.

Hogs are selling as follows: Rough and mixed, $4 25@4 50; shipping, $4 55@4 90; light weights, $4 80@5 40. One year ago the same kind of hogs sold at $5 40@5 70, $5 70@5 95 and $5 40@6 00, respectively. Present prices for hogs are higher than they have been since last March. It will be seen that light weights are 50 cents higher than heavy hogs.

H. J. Canfield sent in from Waco some 1,095 lb cattle which sold at $4 40; also 40 head average 1,000 lbs at $3 75; and 70 head average 997 lbs at $3 75. C. C. Slaughter & Co. had on the market 265 head average 1014 lbs Texans which sold at $4 00.

Worsham & Co. had on the market 833 head of 812 lb cattle which sold at $3 70; 84 head average 739 lbs at the same price, and 153 head average 838 lbs at $3 50. Burns bought for Eastman 70 head of 1132 lb cornfed wintered Texans at $5 05. These cattle were bought here eight months ago at $3 40, and have been fattening on the Illinois farm of William Harpole.

J. H. Houghton, Treasurer of the Austin Cattle Co., is spending the summer in Chicago with his wife and young son. Texas calves averaging 216 to 220 lbs sold at $4 25@4 50. W. A. Jackson, of Hillsboro, Texas, the well-known cattleman who disappeared a month or so ago leaving debts to the extent of some $100,000, did not take any money of any consequence from here, as has been stated. He was here with a shipment of cattle about six weeks ago, which sold for $4,400; but there was a draft against them for $4,800 which had already been paid. His commission men here gave him $10 in currency and are therefore only out about $50, which was fairly well secured. About three weeks ago Jackson sent a cable to a man in St. Louis to inform his wife that he was scurrying in Cuba. This was the first intimation of his whereabouts, but it is understood that there is no treaty with Spain or Cuba that will reach him. It is a noteworthy fact and one for Texas cattlemen to remember, is that Texas cattle, cornfed in Texas sell just as well as those cornfed in Illinois. Jesse Sherwood sold two cars of 1,009 lb cornfed Texans at $1 50. They were fed by S. S. Dewees at Alexander, Illinois. A train of the Espuela cattle sold at $3 60. The Standard Cattle Co. had on the market 21 cars of 1,003 lb Texas cattle which sold at $4 25. "Rattler" says the eight cars of Texas cattle bought at St. Louis and sold here at a profit of $1,200, were placed on the Chicago market "some days afterwards when prices had jumped up largely, hence the profit." Now Rattler knows when he says this that the cattle were not resold here "some days" after but the very next day after; but after all I ought not to complain as "Rattler," kindly for Chicago, makes it appear that there was nothing unnatural or unusual in the case. "Rattler" is too smart a man to live in St. Louis. A. C. H.

FROM CHICAGO.

Suggestions to Shippers.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, August 6, 1885.

As your valuable JOURNAL reaches the center and circumference of our immense grazing country or region, and as our interest in it is part of the interest of the shippers, we take the liberty to offer a few suggestions, that occurs to us as a rule. First, for this season of the year advanced as it is, Texan cattle have never come to us so low in order, as now, and considering the order have never sold as well except the preceding two or three years. Hence we are led to believe that our market is wrongfully charged with rotteness and demoralization. The charge properly belongs to the order in which cattle are received; we have received few consignments of three-year-old beefs that were ripe, that have sold well up to former seasons, all of which goes to show that we are not suffering so much in price as in quality or maturity. Therefore we suggest secondly, that nothing should be shipped unless reasonably ripe, unless imperatively demanded by necessity and the only necessity we now apprehend for such shipments must be financial, or inadequate feed or pasture. Present low prices (so called) are not anticipated, and we feel and hope to realize that we have nothing to fear for the near future from the chronic croaker, who is constantly and diligently predicting our ruin. What we want is good goods, and for which we feel safe in offering fair prices. Truly yours, D. C. WAGNER, for WAGNER BROS & Co.

P. S.—The President in his recent proclamation threatens the stability of the future more than any other factor now in view. Yours, WAGNER BROS & Co.

A. Pancoast & Son, San Antonio, Texas, for fine clothing, hats and furnishing goods.

ST. LOUIS MARKET LETTER. Sales of Texas Cattle—Still in an Anxious Bench. Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILLINOIS, Aug. 4 1885. After consulting the sales made the past week and examining and comparing prices with those of the week previous I do not see much change one way or the other. True, prices have fluctuated some, and buyers have tried mighty hard to break them down, still they held up considering the hard times and excitement among the cattlemen of the Indian Nation. The receipts were quite large. The bulk of which consisted of grass Texas. Good and fat Texas steers of 975 to 1020 lbs, readily brought $4 25 per 100 lbs, which is as high, if not higher than Chicago quotations. The range in extremes was from $2 70@4 25 per 100 lbs. The bulk of the offerings consisted of pretty decent steers of 800 lbs or thereabouts and brought from $3 40 @ $3 60 per 100 lbs. Very thin Texas steers of 555 to 600 lbs brought $2 50@2 60, but those were exceptional cases. In fact the canners that brought $2 75@2 80 per 100 lbs were common steers. Texas cows brought $2 60@3 10 to $3 10 per 100 lbs.

Yesterday and to-day supply firm and although of grass Texas and Indians price steady on decent grades. Here are a few representative sales:

W. A. Jackson, of Hillsboro, Texas, the well-known cattleman who disappeared a month or so ago leaving debts to the extent of some $100,000, did not take any money of any consequence from here, as has been stated. He was here with a shipment of cattle about six weeks ago, which sold for $4,400; but there was a draft against them for $4,800 which had already been paid. His commission men here gave him $10 in currency and are therefore only Native steers, from common to choice, suffered more in declines than Texans, there being taken off fully 20 to 35 cents per 100 lbs. A fancy native bullock of 1500 lbs will only command $5.75 per 100 lbs, and the cost of feeding is five times as much as that of a grass Texas. Reports from London and Liverpool are by no means flattering. Exporters say the market for cattle the worst of the season, which explains the big and steady reduction in values on matured natives. So far this season none of our markets have been overcrowded with fat Texas steers. Common and medium are plentiful and dull, while good Texas have maintained their own pretty well. Thus it will be seen that it pays for ranchmen to hold back and fatten and only send to market that which is good. The hog market was pretty active the past week and good prices have again advanced. Offerings were comparatively light, and the demand larger for good smooth corn fed hogs. But comparatively few Texas hogs come in, and were not very fat, being somewhat grasy, yet brought fair enough figures, namely, from $4 40 @ $4 70 per 100 lbs. The hogs in question averaged 160 to 170 lbs, and perhaps, these figures could not be obtained to-day. Buyers are very cautious as regards taking grass hogs. The Texas horse market continues slow and unchanged. Offerings are not very large, still ample to meet all requirements. Demand moderate and altogether for good smooth animals. Prices in extremes are still quoted $20 @ $50 per head. Our cattle kings are still on the anxious bench as regards the enforcement of the president's order of removal from the Indian Nation. The committee is in Washington and trying hard to obtain an extension of time. Will they get it? That remains to be seen. RATTLER.

Fine Angora Bucks. For thirty days from 10th August I will sell pure bred Angora bucks for $40 less than their regular sale value. This I do to give them a general spread over the country and show their breeding. Will guarantee every animal to be and bred as represented. Can fill order for any kind of goat desired. W. M. LANDRUM, Uvalde, Texas.

The Texas Drive Through Colorado. GIBBS-DEMOCRAT. DENVER, CO., July 22.—Dr. Faville, Colorado state veterinarian, is now on the southern border of the state, inspecting the cattle herds now seeking admission into the state. He has spent almost the entire time since the drive began in that region in the performance of his duties. At first he gave bills of health as state veterinarian and secretary of the veterinary sanitary board, in accordance with instructions from the board. Since the attorney general decided that all bills must be signed by the chairman of board, only bills so signed have been given. He furnishes a statement of the cattle which have been shipped and driven into and through the state from Texas and New Mexico as follows: Adams & Harris, 2500 head from Lincoln county and Seven Rivers, N. M.; shipped to Pueblo and driven to Cheyenne. J. H. Pressnal, 2300 head from Lincoln county, N. M., for Cheyenne. Heilman Childers, 3300 head from the Pecos, N. M., for Cheyenne. The Matador Land and Cattle company, 3000 head from Northern Texas for Ocalla. The Espuela Land and Cattle company, 2600 head from Crosby and Montie counties, Texas, for Ocalla. J. H. The total number driven in and through the state up to date is 24,500. He thinks about 100,000 are to come. Probably 100,000 head have been driven to the Northern range along the Eastern line of the state to Nebraska. The total number shipped North through Denver is 85,000 head. Dr. Faville says that all the cattle, so far, that have passed through or entered the state are from regions which are not infected with Texas fever. Governor Eaton, Hon. J. L. Brush, chairman of the state veterinary board, and J. A. Cooper, president of the Colorado Cattle Growers' Association have united in a dispatch to Secretary Lamar requesting that a passage may be allowed for cattle through the New and Old Strip, and protesting against the present obstruction of the herds. These gentlemen represent the sentiments of the cattlemen of North Colorado.

Mr. Ryburn of Sisson, Cass, Thorp, Ryburn & Co., of the half circle ranch, was in town Thursday and we learned from him that he had been just received returns from 318 steers, mostly 3-year olds, averaging about 900 pounds, that he had shipped to Chicago. They netted about $25 a head. Had they not made a run on the drive up, Mr. Ryburn says they would have averaged from 910 to 915—Tom Green Times Enterprise.

"You are drunk again," said the Marshal. "The last time you got drunk you never stopped till you had stowed away a whole beef steer under your shirt in whisky, and you now intend to follow that with your load of oats." "O well," hiccoughed the countryman, you know that steer (he) want some oats anyhow, and you better bet he'll get 'em!" And he did.—Ex.

DALLAS.

BRANCH OFFICE TEXAS LIVE STOCK JOURNAL, OFFICE 707 MAIN STREET, P. H. SHEVILIN MANAGER, DALLAS, TEX., AUG. 7, 1885.

Railway Magnates.

A party of Missouri Pacific railway officials composed of H. M. Hoxie, third vice-president; W. H. Newman, traffic manager; Joseph Herring, superintendent of the I. & G. N.; Warder Cummings, superintendent of the T. & P., arrived in Dallas Wednesday noon. E. W. McCullough, general passenger agent who reached the city in advance of the party, in company with W. H. Abrams, land commissioner, met the party on arrival.

Trades and Traders.

The trading season for the purchase of Texas yearlings, so far as Dallas is the medium of transfer, is about over. It is to be hoped that it has proven a profitable one to both the purchaser and seller as well as the middle man. The STOCK JOURNAL is keenly interested in all such transactions, closely watches their progress and ardently hopes for their successful and satisfactory consummation.

The Indian Leases.

The Dallas representative of the STOCK JOURNAL has interviewed the most prominent cattle growers of this city touching the ultimatum of President Cleveland in ordering the cattlemen off the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation, and while with one accord the parties interviewed seemed to think that Grover is not made of the timber that breaks, yet many expressed the hope that in this instance the chief executive would see fit to modify or rescind his order.

DALLAS DOTS.

Dallas is preparing for the fog. Col. J. H. Britten was in Dallas on Tuesday. J. G. Johns has just returned from a trip out west. W. H. Allen, of Terrell, was in Dallas during the week. A. J. Jasper of Hillsboro, has been with us for a couple of days.

not return to Dallas where he now has headquarters, for several days.

B. W. McCullough, general passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific Railway company, reached Dallas last Tuesday in advance of the expected party of railway magnates.

E. M. Powell has gone to Murphyville, Presidio county, and will be absent several days. Mr. Powell owns the 54,000 acre "Ranch Almyra," and his present trip has reference to a lease of that property.

Prof. Cummins, of this city, has about perfected arrangements with a moneyed syndicate to bore an artesian well. The professor is confident that as good a quality of water can be found here as that discovered in Fort Worth. In fact, he thinks it is an extension of the same bed.

Messrs. Herring and Ives, of the Dominion Cattle company, whose ranch is located in Lipscomb county, and who have been in Dallas and vicinity for some time, gathering and inspecting some 5000 yearlings which they purchased for their company, have returned North.

HORSE GOSSIP.

Phallas Beats Majolica. Turf Field and Farm.

A pleasant breeze blew across the New York Driving Club track on Friday, July 24, making existence delightful there. It was a great relief from the roasting spell which had rested upon the metropolis for so many days, and greetings were exchanged on all sides with earnest cordiality.

This memorandum of agreement, entered into this 17th day of June, 1885, witnesseth that Nathan Straus has matched the bay gelding Majolica against J. I. Case's brown stallion Phallas, for twenty-five hundred dollars a side, half forfeit, race to come off on the grounds of the Driving Club of New York on Friday, July 24, 1885, or next good day and track, National Trotting association rules to govern.

Nathan Straus and J. I. Case have each deposited with Hamilton Busbey, at the office of the Turf, Field and Farm, twelve hundred and fifty dollars, which is to be forfeited by the one who does not lodge, on or before 4 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 23, 1885, an additional twelve hundred and fifty in the hands of the editor of the Turf, Field and Farm.

Mr. Charles H. Raymond was selected by Mr. Straus to represent him in the stand, and Mr. Case chose for his judge Mr. Sim Hoagland, a fragrant reminder of the palmy days of Hiram Woodruff. The third judge was Mr. Mathew Riley. There was no public betting; the Driving Club patiently bows to the law; but the private quotations were $100 on Phallas to $50 on Majolica.

It was a duel to the death and no phase of it escaped observation. Phallas courageously continued the uphill journey around the point of rocks, and the watches split on him at the three-quarter pole in 1:41. Murphy saw he could not win the heat, and he prudently took the horse in hand down the home-stretch and the suspense was broken.

George Medley was making a "bix to do" for a grand dance. Now Mr. Editor I do not suppose you have ever seen a Western or frontier ball; some folks suppose the boys dance with their pants in their boots and the spurs jingle and keep time with the music, while the aforesaid cowboy, swings the cow girl around unmercifully, but I want to deny right here that assertion; imagine my surprise when on entering Mr. Medley's spacious and nicely fitted residence, I found the young men dressed in the height of fashion, while ribbons and laces set off the faces of their pretty sweethearts and wives.

phense was broken. Phallas jogged under the wire in 2:16. In the second heat Phallas made one of his snappy breaks and lost ground. Majolica going level and like a bullet, drew to the front, cutting in, and taking the pole. The fractional time to the three-quarter pole was just the same as in the first heat, only the watches split on Majolica instead of the stallion. Up the hill the superior strength and bull-dog courage of Phallas told again, and the battle was practically over. Majolica was eased and Phallas jogged across the score in 2:18. Great crowds gathered around both horses in the cooling-out grounds, and regrets were expressed that the son of Startle had not come to battle in richer bloom. He was clearly not himself, and Murphy was depressed. The third heat was tame. Phallas had it his own way, and the time was 3:41, 1:08 1/2, 2:26 1/2. It was not the race of which hope had whispered; still it was a contest full of earnestness. The winner took all, and the boodle which was carried to Racine was not light. The verdict of thousands was, Great is the son of Dictator and Betsy Trotwood.

Wherever Malaria Exists,

The bilious are its certain prey. In intermittent and remittent fever, dumb ague and ague cake, the liver is always seriously affected, and the blood contaminated with bile. One of the chief reasons why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is such a sure defense against chills and fever and every form of malaria disease, is that it does away with liability to the disease, by reforming irregularity of the biliary organ in advance of the arrival of the season when the disease is prevalent. There is no finer fortifying preparative for those about visiting or emigrating to locality where the miasma-taint exists. There is no certain immunity from disease in an endemic or epidemic form, to be secured by the use of the average tonics and anti-spasmodics. But where quinine fails the Bitters succeeds both in preventing and curing. Moreover, it removes every vestige of dyspepsia, and overcomes constipation, rheumatism, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, and tranquillizes and strengthens the nervous system.

KANSAS CITY MARKET LETTER.

A Cool Change—The Market—The Lease Troubles.

[Regular Correspondence Texas Live Stock Journal.]

KANSAS CITY, MO., August 3, 1885.

The weather has been intensely warm since my last letter, until today, when a cool change in the temperature have been relished by both man and beast. The receipts for cattle have been quite light; 1114 on Friday, 230 on Saturday and 926 head today. The market has been steady and fairly active to the extent of the supply on sale, which consisted chiefly of grass Texas, Colorado and New Mexico steers. New Mexico stockers averaging $15 lbs sold $3.00. Colorado half breed steers averaging 1018 to 1108 lbs sold at $4.15 @ 25; good grass Colorado steers averaging 1069 to 1086 lbs at $3.55. 461 grass Texas steers, averaging 880 lbs sold to-day at $3.40, indicating a better feeling to the market and higher values. There were but few corned steers on sale, and the quality of those, which were offered was generally medium. In proportion to the receipts there was a fair sprinkling of native cows, which sold at $2.50 @ 3.40. Stockers and feeders were quiet.

Hogs were in moderate receipt; 6,612 head having been on sale to-day. Lights sold at $4.40 @ 4.80, and heavy and mixed at $4.25 @ 4.40. Sheep were also in moderate supply. A lot of Kansas mutton, averaging 99 lbs, sold to-day at $2.90.

The order for the cattlemen to vacate the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation continues to cause comment, and a committee of citizens, not cattlemen, left last night for Washington to intercede with President Cleveland for further time.

Eli Titus, of Hewins & Titus, was in the city this past week. H. D. Rogers, manager of Nelse Morris' ranch, 80 miles west of Colorado City, Texas, is in the city.

FROM NOLAN COUNTY,

The Journal's Lazy man Among the Cowboys—He goes to a Big Dance.

SWEETWATER, TEXAS, August 1. Editor Texas Live Stock Journal:

"Whoa"; and "Major Hinkle", stopped right gladly for we were at the AKX ranch, for the fame of Mr. Geo. Gardner's hospitality to the weary traveler is known far and wide, and even the poor animal felt that he too would fare well. Mr. Gardner bid us light which we did joyfully, and he fixed us up a repast that would make some of your city caterers blush; right from his door he shoots the flying antelope, and from the spring below he catches the finest fish and drinks the coolest water in the west. I know you will want to question this as a fact, but the "eaten" of the puddin is deproven of it. The AKX ranch lays in the centre of this country, on the head of the Oak Creek and the grass and water are in abundance. The weary traveler feels at home here, and anyone being fortunate enough to "drop" in here will be happy as a bumble bee in the sun.

Regretfully leaving the boys I turned the "Major's" head towards Fish Creek which is so renowned for its peedies. I knew that my reception there would be a good one, although I did not expect to be received by a brass band, as a certain tenderfoot did. On my arrival that "foine fellow" George Medley was making a "bix to
