H. K. Halsey of Decatur, a prominent and extensive stockman, was in Fort Worth last week.

John R. Jones, a banker and cattleman of Memphis, Tex., was a visitor in the city last week.

G. W. Maloney of Santa Anna, a considerable land and stock owner, was in the city Wednesday.

Governor J. F. Brown of the Seminole Nation, called at the Journal office Monday on his return trip from South Texas.

W. A. Sansom formerly of Alvarado and at present manager of the Standard Live Stock Commission company, visited the city Saturday.

Mr. R. Dungan of Arlington, an old patron of the Journal, made a friendly call Wednesday. Says farmers are all hard at work this way.

A. B. Robertson of Colorado City, a prominent cattleman and president of the Texas and Pacific Cattle Raisers' association, is in the city.

W. H. Glascock of Brunswick, Mo., has five varieties of Northern seed corn. See his ad. elsewhere and write him, mentioning the Journal.

M. E. Singleton of Waxahachie was in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, R. K. Erwin, the well-known manager of the Standard company.

Captain W. J. Gonde of Quannah and his son, John R. Gode, accompanied by the wife of the latter, were among Fort Worth's visitors last week.

John R. Jones, a banker and cattleman of Memphis, Texas, and W. M. Purdue, a prominent lawyer of the same place, were in the city Tuesday.

M. L. Sykes of Christian, a prosperous stock farmer and a good friend of the Journal, dropped into the Journal office for a few minutes' chat Thursday.

Amongst the prominent cattlemen in the city Sunday were A. J. Gamel of Chickasha, Arch Gibson and J. C. Arnett of Adair, and Sam Cuthbert of Baird.

C. V. Rogers of Ardmore, I. T., L. G. Willis of Vinita, I. T., and Fox Denberry of Chelsea, I. T., all well known stockmen, were down from the Territory Tuesday.

G. S. White of Weatherford, accompanied by Mrs. White, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. White is a well-known cattleman, ranching in Hardeman and Childress counties.

Wm. Hittson of Mineral Wells, D. L. Knox of Jackboro, L. M. Webb of Bellevue, E. D. Farmer and Chas. McFarland of Aledo, were amongst the visiting cattlemen here Tuesday.

M. Hovencamp, J. D. Williams, L. C. Hold, C. C. Cunningham, W. H. Walker, E. A. Hamilton and English & Biggs were amongst the stock raiser patrons with shipments this week.

D. D. Swearingin and wife of Quannah visited Fort Worth last week. Mr. Swearingin is an extensive cattle operator and interested in the well-known O X brand of Hardeman and Childress counties.

J. A. Johnston of J. H. Johnston & Co., prominent cattle dealers of Kansas City, Mo., was at the stock yards Sunday with forty-eight cars of cattle from Tempe, Ariz., to Kansas City and Chicago markets.

R. N. Graham, cattle commission broker of this city, has long and attractive list of offerings in this issue, both above and below quarantine line, which is worth the attention of intending buyers.

B. F. Dunn of McAlester, Calvin Branch of Plano, H. B. Schaefer of Hunter, D. Mason of Kemp, J. C. Max of Pottsboro and P. Matloby of Caddo, I. T., were amongst the stockmen at the yards Wednesday.

The Krieger-Fischer Saddle company of Louisville, Ky., offer 480 acres of land in the far-famed black-land belt of Texas for sale or trade. See their advertisement and write them, mentioning this paper.

A. B. Robertson of Colorado City, a well-known cattleman, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Robertson anticipates a large attendance at the meeting of the Texas and Pacific Cattle Raisers' association at Midland on the 21st inst.

R. G. Fussell, a substantial cattleman of Kerens, visited the Journal office Friday and notched his name up a year on the subscription list. Mr. Fussell is on the market with cattle, which he offers at reasonable prices.

W. B. Tullis of Quannah, a prominent cattleman and member of the state sanitary commission, was in the city Wednesday night on his way to Midland to attend the meeting of the Texas and Pacific Cattle Raisers' association.

O. F. Dornblaser, editor and proprietor of the Grandview Sentinel was in the Monday and made the Journal a fraternal call. Mr. Dornblaser expected to attend the Farmers' congress meeting on the following day, where he is booked for an address.

G. W. Medley of Valentine, Arch Gibson of Wagoner, I. T., John Gamel of Mason, W. T. Spurgin of Paul's Valley, Harris & Luevley of Hearne, Sam Wilhelm and W. J. Arnett of Morgan were among the visiting cattlemen here Monday.

G. W. Castleberry of Rockdale, J. M. Coffin of Itaska, J. M. Henderson of Pottsboro, J. F. Aldridge of St. Joe, W. B. Kirvey of Kaufman and A. W. Shelton of Weiborn were amongst the visitors in town last week, being at the yards with hogs and cattle.

A. W. Thompson, the cattle exporter, left Wednesday night for Canada, after a fruitless endeavor to make up another train of cattle for export. Mr. Thompson found suitable cattle, but claimed the owners with one or two exceptions, held them above their market value.

Frank Booth, a solid farmer and stockraiser of Birdville, Tex., was a caller at the Journal office to renew his subscription Monday. Mr. Booth is feeding some steers on straight corn, chopped, and has a bunch of hogs following. All the farmers in his neighborhood are very busy planting oats, he informs us.

L. Lash of Estelline, an old employe of the Mill Irons in Harrison, was in the city this week on his return from a visit to relatives in Bowie county, and made the Journal a pleasant social and business call. Mr. Lash says cattle have wintered nicely here in the county, and if no bad weather from now on there will be plenty of early new grass and fat stock.

Hon. W. B. Plemons of Amarillo, one of the foremost lawyers in the Panhandle, was in Fort Worth Monday. Judge Plemons is one of the members of the last Texas legislative body, probably worked harder for the passage of the school land bill for relief of the Panhandle settlers than anyone else. The Judge is now a candidate for congress in the Thirtieth congressional district, and will doubtless make a strong race.

B. F. Wedel of Heidenheimer introduces himself through the Journal's advertising columns this week. As a successful breeder of and authority on Poland-China hogs Mr. Wedel is recognized throughout the state. He also handles Holstein cattle, Plymouth Rock chickens and Mammoth Bronze turkeys. Write him when needing anything in his line. The Journal guarantees you in advance fair, square dealings. Please mention this paper when writing.

Captain J. L. Pennington, general live stock agent of the Santa Fe, dropped into the Journal office Friday. In chatting about live stock prospects, Captain Pennington mentioned that Secretary Morton would move slowly in the matter of modifying his recent order. Captain Pennington also remarked that whilst it would entail a great deal of trouble to apply for Texas cattlemen's advantage in the long run if quarantine was perpetuated, in cases where the annual clearing of fensers would be stopped, cattlemen would hold their steers till fit for market and thereby get all there was in an animal out of him. Captain Pennington was just in receipt of a letter from Hon. Robert L. Klieber, chairman of the state live stock sanitary board, in which he expressed the opinion that Secretary Morton would adopt the Texas quarantine line, which he states will be guarded by the state rangers.

W. K. Bell of Palo Pinto showed his genial presence in the Journal office Wednesday and as usual was in good humor with himself and all mankind. Mr. Bell reports some losses amongst his stock from blackleg, which he says has taken off fully 20 per cent of the calves in Palo Pinto county this season. He intends adopting the vaccinating system at once as a preventive. Mr. Bell is enthusiastic about the new system, which he thinks will fill the bill from every standpoint. Talking about Mexican importations, Mr. Bell says it is another exemplification of the fable of the boy and the frog. It's all right, said Mr. Bell, for the fellows with depleted pastures, and for those who have been dabbling in the business, but for the men who have been years improving their stock and now hoping to make a little money out of them, it's a very different thing.

Col. C. C. Poole of the Sunflower farm, Aledo, an old adherent of the Journal, made a social call bright and early Monday morning. The colonel is now in the cotton nest, and ready to give pointers on all matters pertaining thereto. As a sample of the Sunflower farm products Col. Poole brought in a few ears of corn, which are unusually fine. One of them measured 29 inches in circumference one way, and 31 inches the other. He planted about the latter end of August, three-quarters of an acre, broadcast, on thoroughly well-prepared land, from which about 200 bushels were realized. These met with ready sale at an average of about 75 cents per bushel or $300 per acre, which beats cotton badly, and shows what Parker county can do in the way of truck farming. This crop furnished an abundance for the table, feed for the hogs, and a big lot for sale. It is a pointer to farmers to go lighter on cotton, and more on garden truck.

Farm work has been considerably retarded in that section of a wet weather, but there is now a splendid season in the ground, and if no further rains come, farming operations will make good headway. Col. Poole remarked the fourth of the year, a considerable cattle on feed in his neighborhood, Charles McFarland having about 800, E. D. Farmer 1200 and H. O. Hill-dreth 500.

Hon. A. S. Reed when asked today what will be the effect upon the cattle interests of Texas if the quarantine line is established by the state, in his culture in his recent orders is adhered to, said: "I think the immediate effect would be to lower prices, especially in that portion of the state above the line established by the sanitary board. The ultimate effect, however, I am disposed to believe, would prove advantageous to the cattle interests of the state, as it would have a tendency to force us to build up a home market. It is a well known fact that the Texas cattleman has been persistently flooded in every market in which his produce has been sold. His produce has been traded for a number of years. Hostile legislation on the part of the neighboring states and territories has forced him to buy his way into those states and territories for the simple principle of trading in their markets and in addition we pay enormous sums as tribute to commission houses, stock yards, railroad companies and other gatherers. One-fourth the sum annually expended by our cattlemen in buying the privilege of selling other people our products would, if judiciously expended, provide yards and a market right at our doors that would not only prove advantageous to ourselves, but would 'put the boot on the other foot,' and force our hostile neighbors to come to us for trading instead of our going to them. I think the great need of Texas is a home market and I trust to see our stock associations take up this question, and if they do this and act with their accustomed vigor a very few years will place us in a position where we can laugh at the effects of any quarantine regulations to place us at a disadvantage. The ideas of the average Texas cattleman have very much broadened in the last few years. The time was when most of them spent nearly all of their time on their ranches and mixed but little with the outside world. Now, however, he has learned the full significance of the expression, 'push and enterprise,' and as a result he is fast learning the value of concentrated effort. This is but illustrated in the wonderful success of the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas. If the recent action of Secretary Morton should prove the means of inducing the cattlemen to combine for a home market then this action will prove a blessing in disguise. I hope it will have this effect and I believe it will."

GEO. B. LOVING & CO. (INCORPORATED.)

Commission Dealers in CATTLE AND RANCHES. SCOTT-HARROLD BUILDING.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

We do not under any circumstances buy or sell on our own account, but do an exclusive commission business, thus giving our clients the full benefit of any advance in the market.

We are in correspondence with a large number of both buyers and sellers, and are therefore in position to render efficient, prompt and satisfactory service to those who may wish to buy or sell any number or class of cattle or cattle ranches.

In all our transactions we invariably represent the seller who is, in the event of sale through us, expected to pay the usual commission, which should always be included in any price quoted, and is due and payable when contract is closed and earnest money paid.

Our business is thoroughly organized and systematized, consequently we are in better position than ever before to find buyers and close sales promptly for those who have cattle or ranches for sale. We therefore ask sellers to write or call on us, and at the same time we confidently say to buyers that they should by all means examine our list before buying. Respectfully,

GEO. B. LOVING & CO.

POULTRY.

VERY SOUND ADVICE.

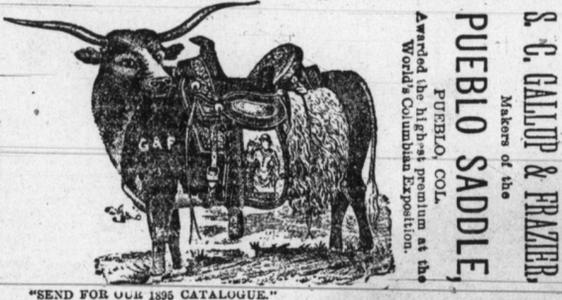

Mr. W. F. Proctor concludes an article in the Poultry Monthly with the following words of wisdom: "When the long evenings are ushered in and the fancier is performing his duty by the wintry blast to seek the chimney-corner, then is his time to bring out his file of back numbers. Probably nine-tenths of their contents have been forgotten, if ever more than hastily scanned when received. The present competition necessitates not only a good degree of general intelligence, but also a special application to its intellectual phase. The most successful fanciers I know are exponents of this rule. One must read, re-read and think deeply in order to become properly conversant with the subject. My advice to the beginner who had alternative of good stock to start his career with, or ample and reliable sources of information, would be to accept the latter if restricted to one. The best of stock will inevitably depreciate in unskilled hands. In selecting sources of information, do not overlook the class of papers which a fair price is demanded, as the natural offset of the pains and expense required to make them of real value. No amount of cheap trash can find any comparison with the better class of papers. It is looking over the back files of such papers, while the shiftless man stacks away in the attic corner that I am inspired with these suggestions."

HONORS FOR TEXAS' POULTRY.

At the International Poultry show now in session in Washington, D. C., Savage Bros. of Belton, Tex., made five entries and received two first, one second and one third prize. The Texas chickens were exhibited against entries from the United States, Canada, England and Scotland. The Savage Bros. were very successful, and feel that they have made a big score for Texas.

RAISING TURKEYS.

(By a Successful Turkey Raiser.) Hide Park, Fort Worth, Feb. 1, 1905. Editor Texas Stock and Farm Journal: Having sold out my entire stock of turkeys, through advertising in your paper, I will take this method of answering the many letters of inquiry, how to raise turkeys. First begin by keeping the turkeys gentle, by feeding a little every morning regularly, and they will wait around until they are fed and will not wander so far away to make their nests. The eggs must be gathered in each evening, for if left out they may be chilled. Eggs that are chilled or kept over two weeks never hatch well, and if they hatch at all they come out so the shell weak and rarely live. I am very careful with the eggs. Prefer gathering them myself and keep them in such a way that I always set those that have been on hand the longest. Am careful to turn the eggs every two days, first on the small end and then the large end alternately. Prefer setting the eggs under the turkey hen, but often set a few chicken hens at the same time. The chicken hen will be more apt to bring them home to roost at night. Set the turkey hen where she will not be disturbed. She will break the eggs if disturbed. Set her on the ground under a coop. Give her twenty-one eggs, make a good nest, and in twenty-eight days you can expect to find the little fellows all ready to follow the mother in her rambles, and if allowed to move off at her own will she will stop wherever darkness overtakes her, and will perhaps bring back half, sometimes one. But you must confine the mother in a large coop, slatted on the front, that the little ones may run in or out or they will be trampled to death. Then they are liable to follow anything or anybody away from the coop. So have a pen made of twelve inch boards. Let the coop make one side and three back half, sometimes one. These boards ten feet long nailed together will be the right size for one hen and twenty-five young turkeys. Keep the hen with the young confined in this way until they are two weeks old, then open the coop and pen some fine morning and feed them with curd or cheese made from clabber, which, I think, the very best thing for young turkeys, but they can be raised on soaked bread or corn bread; never feed wet or soft meal dough. I killed hundreds before I learned to feed properly. Do not feed too often while confined in the pen—three times a day is often enough; have also killed them by overfeeding. I read in some paper last year where some lady had greased her little turkeys for hoo. My experience is: The first Bronze turkey eggs I ever possessed were from nine eggs bought from a party and brought home on

MARKETS.

FORT WORTH MARKETS. Nothing specially worthy of note transpired in the local markets during the past week. Hog receipts were uniform, about 3,000 being received each day in face of a dull market. About 2,500 head of cattle were handled nearly 500 head being sold in this market, the balance being transit cattle.

Table with columns for Hogs, Cattle, and various market prices. Includes sub-sections for 'REPRESENTATIVE SALES' and 'DALLAS MARKETS'.

DALLAS MARKETS. Market report from A. C. Thomas' yards: Extra choice fat steers, $2.50 @ 3.00; Fair to good steers, 1.25 @ 2.25; Common to fair steers, 1.60 @ 2.00.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET. New Orleans, Feb. 18.—Liberal receipts of beefs and the market is fairly supplied with this class of cattle. Good fat stock is fairly in demand, but there is no material improvement in prices.

CHICAGO MARKETS. Chicago, Ill., Feb. 19.—Today's receipts were heavy for some time past, but business was fairly good, prices averaging 10c lower for beef cattle. Today's sales of native steers were on a par with the previous day.

ST. LOUIS LIVESTOCK. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 6,000; shipments, 2,400. Market weak, 10c lower. Texas steers, $2.75 @ 3.50; Texas cows, $2.25 @ 3.25; beef steers, $3.20 @ 4.25; native cows, $1.75 @ 2.50.

NEWS AND NOTES. Frank Cook, an Ellis county farmer, butchered a hog which weighed 738 1-2 pounds. The Sterling City News reports several losses among cattle from blackleg in that locality.

STANDARD. The Standard now has a branch office at Fort Worth, R. K. Erwin in charge. J. F. Butz, salesman, where the same care will be given consignments as has characterized the Chicago house.

STANDARD. The Standard would be pleased to favor from all cattle men in Texas and the Indian Territory who contemplate shipping, and we will furnish markets on application.

STANDARD. A possible danger that lurks in the slat used by children at school is thus pointed out by the national board of health magazine: "The common practice which prevails in schools is to hand slates to children without any attempt being made to insure that each child shall have the same slate time after time."

THE HOME PAPER. When a man reads the prettiest girl in the country, where did you look for the notice that was so much to you and so little to every one else?

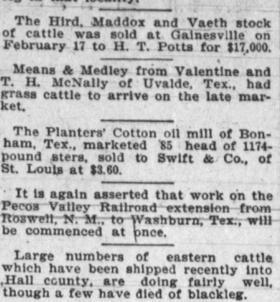

THE GIRL FOR A WIFE. You may talk of the girls who are brilliant and gay, and in a showy, eye-catching way, and are with accomplishments, knowledge and art considered progressive and awfully smart.

OUR NEIGHBOR'S MISTAKES. It is easier for us to see the mistakes of others than our own. In looking about I see one farmer carrying his corn from his crib a few rods away from his barn to feed his horses.

FAMILIAR POLKS. The man who could not trust his feelings is supposed to do business on a cash principle. The lady who went off in hysterics came back on the L road.

ST. LOUIS LIVESTOCK. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 6,000; shipments, 2,400. Market weak, 10c lower. Texas steers, $2.75 @ 3.50; Texas cows, $2.25 @ 3.25; beef steers, $3.20 @ 4.25; native cows, $1.75 @ 2.50.

THE STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO.

The Largest Live Stock Market in the World.

CAPACITY, 50,000 Cattle, 200,000 Hogs, 30,000 Sheep, 6,000 Horses.

The entire railway system of middle and Western America centers here, making it the most accessible yard to reach in the country. The facilities for loading, feeding and shipping are unlimited. Over sixty packing houses are located in close proximity to the yards...

THE GREATEST HORSE MARKET IN AMERICA.

THE DEXTER PARK HORSE EXCHANGE, with its dome lighted amphitheater, with a tiled driveway through the center an eighth of a mile long, and seven to eight acres of the greatest horse show arena in the country for the sale or exhibition of "trappy" turnouts, coaches, fine drivers or speedy horses. Besides this, there are daily auction sales established here...

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS.

MOST COMPLETE AND COMMODIOUS IN THE WEST. And second largest in the world. The entire railroad system of the West and Southwest centering at Kansas City has direct rail connection with these yards, with ample facilities for receiving and reshipping stock.

Table with columns: Official Receipts for 1895, Cattle and Calves, Hogs, Sheep, Horses and Mules, Cars. Total Sold in Kansas City in 1895.

CHARGES—YARDAGE: Cattle 25 cents per head; Hogs, 8 cents per head; Sheep, 5 cents per head. E. B. EDWARDS, Prop. Livery, Boarding, Commission and Sales Stables.

EXCHANGE STABLES.

E. B. EDWARDS, Prop. Livery, Boarding, Commission and Sales Stables. Cor. Rusk and First Sts., Fort Worth, Tex.

SHEEP AND WOOL.

SHEEP EXPERIMENTS. An experiment is just beginning at the Iowa experiment station, the result of which will be looked for by sheep raisers in general. Past experiments showing the waste or gain of wool in keeping or storing had its interest to the wool grower, but the sheep breeder of today is much less concerned with it.

COLORADO CATTLE PROCLAMATION.

Governor McIntyre has issued a proclamation forbidding the importation of cattle and horses into Colorado from California, Texas, Oklahoma and all states and territories south of the thirty-sixth parallel of north latitude...

RECEIPTS OF TEXAS CATTLE DURING THE MONTH OF JANUARY.

Receipts of Texas cattle during the month of January have been heavier than ever received here before during the first month of the year. They were in fact, more than 100 have disappeared entirely. The men who destroyed the fence and stampeded the herd were very much concerned about, warning the cattlemen to desist from occupying lands to which they had no title or lease...

ALFAFA WILL CERTAINLY MAKE BEEF, AND FOR CHEAPNESS IT HAS NO EQUAL.

Alfalfa will certainly make beef, and for cheapness it has no equal in all the feed stuffs ever heard of. To quote: J. C. Davidson of Bent county bought a carload of alfalfa in November 1894, which weighed 1030 pounds. He fed them on alfalfa and sold them January 21 to Miller Bros. & Hyde of Osage Kan. when they weighed 1284 pounds.—Denver Field and Farm.

SEEKING IS BELIEVING.

The verdict of all who have used the Journal's sewing machine is that it is as good as any high priced machine made. There is no office rent to pay, no agents' commission, or other expenses, and you really get as good a machine as the best standard makes, at a price of 100 cents.

All genuine Spooner Horse Collars have this trade mark. All others are imitations of inferior quality.
