HIGHWAY PATROL TEST AUTO BRAKES

SGT. G. E. SCHEUR AD- DRESSED LOCAL SCHOOL CHILDREN

A timely move of vital interest to the human family's welfare is now much in evidence of becoming a reality through the activities of a state campaign wherein the Department of Public Safety is carrying out an effort to make Texas a safer place in which to live.

On Monday morning of this week Sgt. G. E. Schuer along with a number of State Highway Patrolmen, arrived in Henrietta and stationed themselves between the Henrietta Motor Co. and the Christian church on the Wichita Falls-Dallas highway passing through the town and stopped every motor vehicle that came into the specified zone for inspection.

In carrying out their instructions from Austin, the Sargent and squad of trained men consumed their time in testing and inspecting cars, which included the condition of brakes, mufflers, lights, horns, windshields and steering, giving to each car owner a blue ticket as a clean bill, or pink ticket with any defects there might be checked thereon, and an official order for correction.

Between four and five o'clock on Monday afternoon there had been a checkup of 320 cars, of which 40 percent were found defective, lights and brakes leading in defectiveness.

At 12:55 Sargeant Schaur visited the local school, where he addressed the pupils in the auditorium on "Precaution, and Its Benefits." In his remarks, there was much food for thought for grown-ups, as well as the young citizenry of tomorrow. In compiling statistical facts, he stated that 36,500 human lives were the toll in last year's motor casualties, and that if a let-up in this destruction of human life did not come about through safety systems of safety precautions, that according to statistics, one out of every twenty persons will be killed by car accidents, and 83 percent of that number on straight roads.

He encouraged the children to use every precaution in their daily trips to and from school while on foot and not to be careless in any manner if it so happened that they were driving a car. He requested that such trips should not be too hurriedly, to remember there was a limit on public highways which did not exceed 45 miles an hour, to be sure that at all times the vehicle would stand the state inspection, to keep on the right side of the road and in the event that they should stop for car troubles to drive off the pavement.

In conclusion, he extended a word of thanks to Superintendent F. W. Richardson, Prof. Selvidge, and the entire faculty for the splendid co-operation given him in his period of instruction to the children.

With Sargeant Schauer were Patrolmen D. H. Bradford, W. M. Howell, E. K. Browning, John Lowery and D. H. Shands, all working under orders from Captain John Draper of the Wichita Falls district safety program.

Petrolia Thanks Fire Fighters Here

The citizens of Petrolia expressed their appreciation to the Henrietta fire department for recent assistance given there, (or attempting to give assistance but had the misfortune to overturn the truck be-reaching Petrolia) in the form of a letter and enclosing checks to the amount of $20.00.

The letter received by our Mayor, Frank Bunting, and turned over to the city was a token of appreciation to the Henrietta department in trying to assist in extinguishing a fire that destroyed a number of business houses in Petrolia, the latter part of August.

A similar amount of money was sent to the Wichita Falls fire department.

Governor Allred Receives Letter From National Committee

Governor James V. Allred is in receipt of a letter from Prentiss Moore, chairman of the speakers bureau for the Roosevelt-Garner National Committee for Southern California inviting him to speak there. Mr. Moore says in his letter:

"No one could have greater influence in fomenting public opinion for the Democratic party than yourself; and we are therefore vitally interested in securing your consent to make a day or two swing into Southern California during the month of October. I personally can assure you that your brief stay would be most delightful for you. If you could consider coming we would feel not only honored but far more certain of the success of our party in the forthcoming election.

They had no phone and by the time they could go to a neighbors to turn in the fire alarm and get help, almost everything was gone. Only a very few clothes were sav-

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and others matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquirers must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. When and where was the Battle of Adobe Walls fought and why is it important in Texas history? G. K., Newcastle.

A. The battle was fought, June 27, 1875, at a trading post of that name about 18 miles from the present city of Borger. It broke the strength of the Comanche Indians and marked the turning point of their control of land in Texas. The battle, between 20 white men and 1,500 Indians, resulted in the killing of one white man and 112 Indians, with 300 Indians wounded, the Indians being completely routed.

Q. We believe that the Kelly Plow Company, still operated at Longview, is the oldest plow manufactory in the south. Is that true? E. P., Longview.

A. It was organized by George Addison Kelly at Jefferson in 1860. Kelly came to Texas in 1852 at the age of 20 and became foreman of a Jefferson blacksmithing establishment, which he proceeded to make cow bells and other hollow ware, and he later designed and made a plow that proved popular and was the beginning of the present plant.

Q. What is the oldest Drug store in Texas operating continuously under the same name? S. S., Marshall.

A. "Sedberry's Drug Store" at Jefferson, established in 1865, claims that distinction.

Q. When and where was the first congress held in the combined Mexican state of Coahuila and Texas? A. Z., Donna.

A. Aug. 15, 1824, at Saltillo, Coahuila.

Q. I have seen mention recently of a place called "Dugout." Where was it? T. A., Cross Plains.

A. There was a thriving village, church and school community of that name in McCulloch county about 1877-80.

Yankees Defeated The Giants In World Series

What turned out to be the fastest word series baseball games ever seen, heard or witnessed, ended Tuesday, when the New York Yankees annexed the fourth winning game making them the worlds champion team, they having defeated the last New York Giants four out of six. It was no easy job, as the Giants proved to them the day before on the stadium grounds by their defeat before one of the largest crowds present during the entire series.

Baseball fans throughout the nation took advantage of the radios and listened in on every play and in fact, every pitched ball. The Leader force had a radio in the office, and did not miss any part of the games, and really enjoyed each.

We could write columns about the games, the superb pitching of both teams, and the slugging of the Yankees, but space forbids that. But baseball fans will have to admit that the Yankees and the Giants are, as demonstrated, the two fastest baseball teams in America, or elsewhere. The home-run hitting of Lew Gehrig and the superb pitching of Hubbell are outstanding in the sum totals of feats. In fact, each of the players of both teams is an expert, and according to our thinking there are none better than they.

The game Monday was exciting as any to which we ever listened. The closing game Tuesday, was no slouch. It proved to be a slug-fest with the Yankees really showing the Giants just how it is done. The score was 13 to 6 in favor of the Yankees. Try as hard as they did, in the game Monday the Yankees just could not get their hits sufficient to win. Both teams are pretty evenly matched, with the Yankees having the edge on the Giants in batting.

In the first game of the series President Franklin Delano Roosevelt with his sons, and Messrs. Jim Farley and Secretary McIntyre were present, the president throwing the first ball.

Schumaker, pitching for the Giants Monday struck out ten Yankees, winning 5 to 4. The winning run was Joe Moore's but the game was Schumacher's while the long hit to center by Manager Bill Terry scored the winning run.

In the Dixie series, Birmingham and Tulsa were fighting for the championship in that field, the first two games being played at Birmingham. In next issue we shall give the outcome of that contest.

IT'S JUST AS GOOD AS NEW

An old gentleman was asked what he thought of a local clothing merchant.

"He's all right" declared the old man, "I bought an overcoat from him twenty-six years ago. I paid twenty-five dollars for it, and it's just as good as new to-day."

There is a man who has proved again the value of buying at home.

Not all merchandise will stand twenty-six years of hard and continuous service. Not all purchasers want them to last that long. But when you buy any article from a local store, you have every reason to expect your money's worth.

Just as a matter of information, we have seen some wonderful values in our home stores. If you are in the market, we would advise you to see them. They are good to look at.

And we are ready to believe that most of them, like the one above referred to, will give twenty-six years of service if you give them the same care the old gentleman did.

OUR GOVERNOR SAYS:

Having just returned from a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee and the State Democratic convention at Fort Worth we are forcibly reminded that politics is in the air and that we are to have an election in November.

Quite a few newspaper men were in evidence at both meetings. On the Executive Committee are Sterling P. Hart of Commerce, Sam Fore, Jr. of Floresville, Charles K. Devall of Mt. Vernon, and myself. At the state convention a number of newspaper men and members of the Texas Press Association were in attendance as delegates. We are glad to see newspaper men taking an active part in the affairs of the Democratic party for, as we see it, it is the duty of newspapermen to make this a better country in which to live. They, as moulders of public opinion, can do no more than perhaps any other class in assisting the party and thus making of this a better country.

The necessity for a large vote in the November election was stressed at the convention. The Democratic National convention at Philadelphia in June adopted a resolution eliminating the two-thirds rule which Texas desired to retain. But at the instance of the Texas delegation a resolution was passed, basing representation at the national conventions on the number of Democratic votes cast in general elections.

If Texas Democrats follow past custom and vote lightly in the November election, it will cut down the size of the Texas delegation to the national convention and injure Texas influence. Chairman Blalock stated:

"This constitutes one of the most important problems before Texas Democrats. Texas has been the leading state in the Washington Government, due to our power in national conventions, but with the two-thirds rule abrogated, it forces us to get out the vote in November for Roosevelt and Garner."

Rehabilitation Loans Being Made

Rehabilitation loans for the new crop year are now being authorized by the Resettlement administration, but lack of funds requires the number and amount to be more restricted than during the past year, it was announced today by S. D. Johnson, county supervisor for Wichita, Clay and Archer counties.

"New borrowers in drouth or flood areas will receive what we term emergency loans, for purchase of seed, feed and supplies for human subsistence," the supervisor said. "We are not authorized to make any new 'standard' rehabilitation' loans, which are for purchase of teams and equipment, as well as supplies. We made such standard loans last winter to many farmers of these counties, a large number of whom were thereby enabled to buy teams and equipment and to continue farming operations or to resume operations. Where these previous borrowers now require supplementary loans, we are authorized to make them for the purchase of necessary supplies."

The supervisor said that most of the previous borrowers will repay this fall the amount borrowed for "consumable" goods, such as food, clothing, seed and feed. They have up to five years in which to repay the amount advanced for "recoverable" goods such as team and tools.

Borrowers who have demonstrated that they cannot be rehabilitated will be dropped from the program. In passing judgement on these, due consideration will be given to obstacles encountered, such as adverse weather conditions, poor land, and sickness. First consideration for supplementary loans and grants will be given to those whose past performance "has demonstrated thrift, initiative, a willingness to work, a co-operative attitude and a proper regard for their obligations."

WICHITA FALLS LOSES RELIEF FLOUR TO WACO TEXAS

Failure of the city and county to assume freight charges of $114.66 lost to county relief clients a carload of flour valued at $2,400, according to R. B. Cunningham, district supervisor of surplus commodities.

For more than a week the flour, 2,400 sacks, had been available, providing freight charges from Dallas were paid. Monday relief authorities at Austin notified Mr. Cunningham that if the county wanted flour, action would have to be taken immediately.

In turn, Mr. Cunningham notified city and county authorities of the situation. He was promised an early answer on the matter but never received one, he said.

Wednesday he was notified by officials of Hardeman, Childress and Wilbarger counties that the three counties would pay the charges if they could receive the flour.

A telephone communication with Austin revealed that they had spoken too late. The flour was dispatched to McLennan county Tuesday.

Mr. Cunningham announced however, that distribution of surplus commodities in Wichita Falls which had stopped Sept. 19 due to lack of funds, had been resumed this week on the agreement of the city to pay a pro-rata share of distribution costs.

There has been an increase in demands for commodities in the county as WPA workers have been unable to work during the rainy spell of three weeks and consequently have received but little pay.

Works progress administration officers said that outdoor projects would be reopened as soon as the ground dries sufficiently and workers would be allowed to make up their lost time.—Wichita Falls Record News.

Well now isn't that just too bad that the poor of Wichita county should lose that much flour. It would have paid those in charge to have borrowed the $114.00 and had the $2,400 worth of flour for those who really needed it. As secretary Henry A. Wallace would say, "We want the farmers and the poor to get a square deal."

As Colonel Geo. Robinson of the Houston Post would say, "Jones and Smith pay the freight." Well they didn't have the money to pay it and so Waco grabbed it.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION BY GOV. JAMES V. ALLRED

The ballot form is now being prepared. A sample will be sent to county judges before Oct. 1, Secretary of State B. P. Matocha said. It will be about the size of an ordinary eight-column newspaper.

Ernest W. Clemens, San Antonio, was last to make application for a place on the ballot. He will run as Republican candidate for congress. Sixteen of the Democratic candidates for Congress have opponents.

Presidential tickets have been filed by Democrats, Republicans Union, Socialist, Communist and Prohibition parties.

COURTESY PAYS

It is an interesting story coming from Virginia that Washington and Lee University will receive a bequest of $1,500,000 because at one time in the past an unknown student on the campus was very courteous and friendly to a visitor who at that time was unknown.

The visitor turned out to be a millionaire who was considering giving to some college the desirable sum of $1,500,000. To help decide which one would be the fortunate recipient the millionaire decided to pay an announced visit to each of the several institutions. He was impressed by the courtesy of the undergraduate he met on the W & L campus, and when he died left the money to that institution.

Courtesy doesn't cost much, but it can pay big dividends. Even if the reward is not material, as in the above case, being thoughtful and considerate is worth the life of the man or woman who practices such courtesies in everyday life.

A SIGN OF ENVY

Business men who are competitors need not be jealous and envious of each other. Those who show this littleness are to be pitied more than condemned, for they have a narrow viewpoint of life and are usually moved by the bitter knowledge that the other man is succeeding where they are failing.

Cooperation is much better. Friendliness makes more friends and wins more business than being surly. The general public soon knows why you criticize your competitor in business, and discounts what you say. Caustic remarks about the man in your own line of business only reveals the disappointment in your own soul and advertises that he is beating you in business you both follow. However, here in Henrietta we do not believe such envy exists between business men.

INTERVIEW WITH A BASEBALL PITCHER AND HIS SCRAP BOOK

In talking to Ray Harrell, who is property of the Saint Louis Cardinals, We learned many interesting things. Anyone who knows him personally will agree with me that he is of the "tight lipped" type and will not, readily tell of his work in baseball. He will however, answer, all questions in a most interesting manner.

Mr. Harrell, or Ray, as he is better known to friends and baseball fans, has been optioned out to Rochester, N. Y. class AA ball for the past three years. During this time he was recalled by the Cardinals last year in time for Spring Training in Bradentown, Fla., and remained in St. Louis with that club until July 4, and was then sent to Rochester.

Ray did not do so well at the beginning of this past season on account of a minor operation which set him back for some time, but as the close of the season drew near he did great things for his club. In looking through Ray's scrap book that has been so neatly arranged by his "better half" I found the following quoted from the Rochester Democrat Chronicle.

"Ray Harrell, Wing's fire ball ace slipped a strike past the Toronto, Canada, Maple Leafs fifteen times to set a new high for the International League season, and at the same time held the Leafs to a pair of singles throughout the game. Ray was deprived of a shut-out when Mills made an error to allow a score, making the final reading, 4-1"

The following is a paragraph taken from a Toronto, Canada, newspaper, "Harrell, the whiffo man climbed the hill with a record of 57 strikeouts in Previous 45 innings —Juscta Breeze.

The Rochester Journal says, "In a recent vote as to the value of base-ball players in the International League, Leroy Herrman of the Toronto Leafs and Ray Harrell of the Rochester Red Wings have been considered the curve ball aces of the entire circuit.

In answer to my question as to the different type of ball he throws, Ray said, "I depend mostly on the effectiveness of my fast ball and curve ball, but I use what is known as "change of pace" and the knuckle ball also.

Ray has just received his official notice of his transfer back to the Cardinals for the 1937 season. The Cardinals will train in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Ray looke competent of staying with the St. Louis club, as he is 6 ft. 1 in. in height, weighing 185

He states, "Yes it has been my ambition to remain on a major club and do my part in bringing the club out on top at the close of the season. If I can keep good health, I expect to stay in Saint Louis next season and do greater and better things than I've ever done before.

Mrs. Harrell, four year old son, Joe Lynn and Mr. Harrell's sister, Miss Dorothy, will make their home near Byers, Texas for the coming winter months.

FFA Boys Met Last Thursday At Noon

The FFA boys met at 12:30 noon Thursday, Oct. in Mrs. C. B. McDonald's music room in the Lulu Johnson school building to organize a harmonica band. There were 23 boys that joined, which is a large number for one band. With Mrs. C. B. McDonald as the director we will soon have a band that the chapter will be proud of.

Our advisor, Mr. Knight, Thawie Burch, Woodrow Carmichael, Edwin Dale, and Carle Sanzenbacher had an enjoyable try to Decatur, Thursday night, Oct. 6 to take part in a FFA district meeting. There was a district FFA chapter organized, composed of FFA boys from, Clay, Montague and Wise Counties. Carle Sanzenbacher was elected treasurer of the chapter. They decided to have a meeting every first Tuesday night.

We are glad to report that all the FFA boys of our chapter have selected their projects, and several have started their projects and are doing nicely on them.

The area supervisor was here Tuesday and complimented us on our splendid work. He said that our chapter was among the largest of the state.
