JUST CRUISING

(By the Captain)

The turbulent waters of the European war zones have had quite a bit of "oil of reason" poured on them during the past few days, and looking at the situation from this angle a week later, it doesn't seem likely now that war will result, at least immediately, from any more "crabs" by either Hitler or Mussolini. The "oil of reason" referred to has been the quick stiffening of Britain's diplomatic leaders in their policy towards aiding Rumania, Poland, Greece, Turkey. Britain has made her intentions known through the providing of some two million pounds by conscription, and is providing the needed funds with which to pay them by taxing tobacco and dress reports state. We do believe it will now be necessary to be used in war, and even if it will not be necessary, this move seems to have been the only kind of language used by the dictators, for Hitler has again advised Hitler to make any move that will bring Europe into war. It has been the subject in every day's press over the radio, and in most conversation since last September after Hitler's speech to the Reichstag delivered at 5 to 6:30 central standard time this morning (Friday, April 28th), we have the subject of war to be read from the front pages for some time. And it should Congressman Martin Dies of Texas led the East Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting and the many things he said was such just about covered the bill. It must be borne in mind that Dies is heading the House investigating committee which is into the "workings of the 'isms'" now said to be operating in our country. Mr. Dies said we have more to fear from those from within than we do from those on the outside." He referred to the propaganda being spread here and there by nazism, and communism. He also further and said "the dishonourable politicians who go about the country promising our people something for nothing and more than can now be delivered are to be feared than any other group in the land for they have first secured the confidence of the people and then they would deceive.

Age assistance pensioners are being a call from an organization called "Texas Pensioners Union" at Austin asking one to mail a dollar bill to be used in the payment of pensions up to $30 each. This organization may be anything it says in its literature is, and may have for its purpose the securing of the full $30 payment to every pensioner, but it is really seems necessary for $300.00 to carry on the work. Everyone knows that in union there is strength, but it would be best to take time to investigate this organization before sending them two of the dollars now being received by many of these fine old people. True, on the other hand, there are some now securing pensions who are no more entitled to it than Adam's off ox, but that still wouldn't justify those who really are entitled to it, under the circumstances, to part with one or two dollars of their small pensions. We suggest, therefore, that our pensioners just wait a little while; if it later looks like your one dollar might secure an increase for you, there will be plenty of time to send in your dollar bill. But remember the legislature has yet to pass a bill providing the needed funds with which to continue paying what you are now getting from the state, so you will have plenty of time to thoroughly study the situation over.

The government is seeking to trade England our surplus wheat and cotton for rubber and tin, and reports say that the bartering has reached the point where it will likely be done. It will be one way of removing these surpluses and if it will aid our farmers in securing better prices for what they will "be permitted" to plant this year, then it ought to be done, if at all possible. Never was any harm in trading something you have and no need for something the other fellow has which you need, especially so if he needs what you are offering him badly, as is the case with the surplus wheat and cotton.

Everybody, most, makes fun of the methods used in the "isms" countries and you hear many say they would hate to live in one of those countries where the people are told what to do and what not to do. Did you ever stop to think that right here in our grand and glorious old USA our highest tribunal has ruled already that a farmer in our country cannot plant or harvest what he might desire to plant? Well, it is true and ere this thing is over, this same ruling is going to apply to all kinds of business; starts with one, then two, then more, until it covers everything! Of course, you must admit that it is done "over here" in order to "help the poor farmers out," but it matters not what the reason, just so long as it "gets over!" Better try to enjoy what little freedom you still have for if this thing keeps on, "the land of the free and the home of the brave" will just be a memory, just like it is over there.

Bear in mind that the old home town will never be any better than you help to make it. If you just go along and let the other fellow do all the work and he makes all the plans and then carries them out to suit his own personal idea, then you have little reason to criticize. A thousand oil fields will not "make Henrietta," if people who want to come to our city and go into some kind of business are not permitted to do so because of some kind of a ruling, whether it be local or otherwise.

He heads the First National Bank in Dallas, sixth largest bank in the U.-S. He planned the present method of financing the Southwestern oil industry.

All Texas seems to be represented in the house of the 46th. The members claim "no occupation." Mrs. John Kosanke Chairman NCTTC

With the appointment today of Mrs. John Kosanke, of Henrietta, as Chairman of a National Consumers Tax Commission unit, Henrietta women are joining a nation-wide educational movement "to study taxes and oppose those that penalize the consumer."

Mrs. Kosanke succeeds Mrs. W. D. Myers.

Her appointment was announced by Mrs. Kenneth C. Frazier, pres. of the NCTC, a non-political woman's organization composed of hundreds of local units bound together "by the common desire to reduce the load of hidden taxes, which bear heaviest on lower-income families."

This is a movement every woman should support," said Mrs. Frazier, in welcoming the new Chairman. "Women do almost 85% of the consumer buying of the nation. Through this educational program every woman learns for herself how much she pays in hidden taxes, taxes that raise the price of articles she buys."

The drive is led in this state by Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, as the commission's Texts national committee member.

WOMEN'S CLUBS ENTERTAIN FOR LIBRARY FUND

One of the most elaborate affairs of the year was given on Friday April 21, when the Clay County Federation of Women's Clubs entertained with a Bluebonnet tea for the benefit of the Clay County Library, with representatives of the Clubs of Henrietta acting as hostesses.

For the occasion the home of Mrs. John Firestone was beautifully decorated with Bluebonnets to emphasize San Jacinto Day. The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. J. W. Douthitt and presented to Mrs. L. C. Worthington, the Federation President, and to Mesdames Chas. Graham, Chas. Melton, Wayne Lefevre, and Lois Cummings who composed the receiving line.

Mesdames P. H. Boddy and Troy Douthitt invited the guests into the dining room where they were presented with a Bluebonnet corsage. Tea, sandwiches, cookies, and mints were served from a lace covered table centered with a large silver Lone Star, bordered with bluebonnets and centered with Six Flags of Texas. Plate favors were small placecards bearing account of the unveiling of the San Jacinto monument at Houston, the compliments of Mrs. J. W. Douthitt. Mesdames David A. Greer, of the Unity Club, Gus Blakely of the P. T. A., B. P. Schwend and Walter Koethe of the Delphian Club, Miss Dorothy McKinney of the Nevin Club, and Mrs. A. V. Atkins of the Junior Delphian Club, alternated at the tea table. They were assisted by Mesdames Earl Hall, Fred Oheim, Ambrose Douthitt, John Firestone, Rex Gates and Miss Lula Johnson.

National Piano Playing Tournament

Plans have been completed for the National Piano Playing Tournament which will be held in Wichita Falls May 8, 9, 10, according to Mrs. C. B. McDonald, local chairman.

The National Piano Playing Tournament is now history. Ten years ago in a Texas city of Abilene, Mr. Irl Allison, then the Dean of Music conceived the plan and held the first at Hardin-Simmons university, competition ever held that was non-competitive, pupil against pupil. 46 students played that year.

Piano tournament members now number around ten thousand and participants are from Boston to Los Angeles.

Music pupils in Texas who play in the tournament are eligible to compete for the Harold Von Mickwitz Memorial Awards, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

$600 in cash prizes for Texas piano students. Carl Wiseman, Texas State College for Women, Denton, is state chairman.

Carl Berggren, Swedish pianist of Minneapolis, will serve as judge for the tournament in Wichita Falls. Both teachers and pupils are looking forward to an interesting tournament.

Senior Play Enjoyed By Large Crowd

The Senior class play, "Trouble Comes To Town" was presented by the class Friday evening, April 22nd to a large and appreciative audience.

Each participant did his or her part well, and many were the expressions heard by the audience of a complimentary nature of the fine ability displayed by those young ladies and young gentlemen for the splendid way they performed. It is a fact, we have talent in this little city for stage plays, and it would not surprise us to hear Hollywood calling for some actors of that cast.

Tommie Howard and Luther Guy Hagard really went to town in their parts, in fact, each member did well. Billy Hilgenfeld played his part to a perfection, the young doctor was very clever in his act. Each of the young ladies were perfect and it is remarkable the way they so skillfully handled their parts.

Those taking part in the play were Luther Guy Hagard, Tommy Howard, Maedelle Roach, Frankie Zell Hanson, Beverly Thaxton, Billy Hilgenfeld, Dorothy Hill, Sarah Neville, Billy Dan Blakely, and Marie Street.

Mrs. Goodman keeps up to the minute with everything that she is interested in. She is one of the active and prominent members of the Texas Clubs, the Press Association. Mrs. Goodman is engaged at present in writing a book dealing with Texas Wild Life, to be illustrated by pictures by an outstanding photographer, of animal life in the natural setting.

By BOYCE HOUSE

A page from the diary of a pilgrim to Mexico:

The car zig-zags around turns through the mountains, one right after another, but at last straightens out briefly and, in the valley below and on the side of the mountain beyond is Taxco, an artist's dream. There still remains the drive into the town, up the steepest streets and around the sharpest corners before the panting automobile halts in the shade of the little park.

Everywhere one looks is a picture—ancient buildings along the narrow thorough fares that are paved with cobblestones, which in some places are arranged in patterns; an old staircase; water gushing into the pool of the ancient fountain—all touched by mellow shadows and ineffable quietness; and in the foreground, or to the side or as a background or perhaps only its rose-hued tower of exquisitely chiseled stone and its dome of bright, vari-colored tile lifting above the vistas of little white buildings with their red roofs, stand Taxco's church, one of the most beautiful on the American continent.

The edifice was built by Frenchman who made a vast fortune from the mines here. "God gives to Borda, and Borda to God," he said, and spent 1,500,000 pesos in erecting the temple, which took ten years, being completed in 1758. In addition, he gave ceremonial vessels worth more millions of pesos. The interior of the church is gorgeous with 12 altars elaborately carved wood, covered with gold.

From Taxco went a large part of the gold and silver that were carried to Spain to make that nation the most powerful in the world. Not all the heavy Spanish galleons reached port, for Sir Francis Drake and other bold privateers were prying the ocean.

"How many a ballad of sea-fights and how many a tale of buried treasure had its inception in Taxco," one muses in Bertha's Place," partaking of one of the cocktails that the senora herself prepares, a beverage that has been praised by world-famous artists and writers.

The mines today turn out only a fraction of their former wealth but the silver tradition is carried on in a score of shops by artists at work fashioning bracelets, rings, urns and dishes in beautiful shapes and patterns.

Along the street come four men bearing a platform on which is a black casket; it is small, that of a child. Death invades even peaceful lovely Taxco.

Luncheon in the patio of Hotel Los Arcos where vines clamber over the walls and little blossoms sway in time to the dreamy music, climb up the stone steps for a view from the roof, one more visit to Senora Bertha's—and then a reluctant farewell to Taxco.

In the recent flurry of orders issued by the State Railroad Commission majority, commentators seem to have missed the big point. Allowables of some fields were reduced; there were protests, and the allowables were restored. "Looks like they backed up," some folks remarked.

But, in all the shifting, the order lifting the Saturday shutdowns has remained. It had been claimed that the industry couldn't stand the lifting of the shutdowns but there was so much excitement over reduced allowables that the ending of the shutdown practically escaped attention, —and that highly important act stands. Incidentally, the industry seems to be surviving quite nicely, thank you.

The whole thing reminds one of a football play in which all the players but one go in one direction but actually the ball has been handed to this player and he ambles along unnoticed and breaks into the open field. Borrowing gridiron phraseology, Chariman Lon Smith spun, gave the pigskin to Jerry Sadler and that sensational half-back got loose for a touchdown.

Oldest joke contest entry: A stranger asked, "Do you have a criminal lawyer in this town?"

"Yes, but we can't prove it on him."

"Many of the bills pending in the legislature appear to be selfish attempts at various forms of class legislation; too many people want to do something to someone, or do something for someone at the expense of someone else," declares an open letter written by Sterling Hart of the Commerce Journal.

"A law passed two years ago prohibiting dentists advertising prices is monopolistic. . . . The fair trade act is another proposed law of the same nature. Why not give the buying public a break? The proposed optometry bill is a brother of the above-mentioned dentist' law. If it passes, poor people will pay more for their glasses. The barbers' bill is another of the same ilk . . . There are other bills of similar character. They may all be identified and classified by their earmarks of 'selfishness'. Let's keep down taxes and retain our liberties. Let's not try to see how hard we can make it on 'business,' the thing that has made this country great, and the only thing that can keep it great.

Dr. Buckner will have his offices in the new duplex apartment recently erected by W. A. McMurry Warns Pensioners Not To Send Their Money

In a long distance telephone call from Austin Wednesday morning to The Leader, Rep. Houston McMurry requested us to warn the Old Age Pensioners not to send a dollar to the newly formed "Texas Pension Union," as the House has appointed a special committee to investigate this organization, and Mr. McMurry is a member of this special committee.

Mr. McMurry stated that they have a box in the Capitol station, but that they had not called for their mail during the past two days, as the House committee has issued orders for them to be brought before this committee for questioning.

Mr. McMurry stated that many of those listed on the letterhead of the Union had already been contacted and had said they had no connection with the Union. Jan Anderson is listed as secretary and Ben Ford, as president.

Mr. Pack Lowry of K. M. A. was the guest Saturday evening of his cousin, Mr. Bob Douglas and family. Miss Ann Miller of Lincoln, Neb., is visiting relatives here.
