Every energetic and painstaking editor wants to give his readers the news of each week, but often falls short because of the anxiety over the forthcoming. Why don’t friends of newspapers exert themselves a little in this respect? They could help do a local publication what they all want it to be, a full and faithful chronicle of passing events. It helps the paper, but not more than so those who are readers and who wish to know that it is transpiring.—Alito Herald.

Candidate cards at the Voice office.

Boys, meet me on the street.—As usual.
Sam Peyntz is driving the mail back from here to Chicago this week.

R. Coffey and Lee Perry from the J. cross ranch, were in town Tuesday.

G. M. Hardin and J. R. Hill, of Brownfield, were in the city Tuesday.

T. A. Holly and H. L. Ward, left Monday morning with well drill to drill a well for Our Jones, in the city. This is one of the first settlers of Terry county and has as good claim as any. It is for sale and the promise of the people of Terry county if elected to keep the office faithful and efficient clerk.

J. T. Gainer, tells us that he has not been treated to but on one cigar by the candidate.

Mr. Thompson of Gainer county was a pleasant caller at the voice office Wednesday. He reports everything dry in Gainer county.

H. J. Eppley, taxassessor of Martin county, was here the week assessing taxes.

Mrs. Jim Smith, of north Terry, was in town shopping Tuesday. She reports no rain for his north.

Take your meals at the Boswick restaurant on east side square.

There were two gentlemen here this week prospecting. One was from Arkansas, the other we failed to learn from whence he came.

R. Conley, from the J. cross ranch, was in town yesterday, (Thursday,) and reported the establishment Wednesday of some three night light at the ranch, but says out about R. K. Youngblood, three or four miles west of here, the boys fell out of the cornfield gave old “mother earth” a thorough soaking.

Jim and Charlie Craig, and H. J. Eppley, taxassessor of Martin county, were here last Saturday and Sunday visiting their brother and friend, J. W. Craig. They left for Brazil Monday, accompanied by J. W. Craig’s little son, Walter.

J. R. Oglesby and family, of Clarendon, Donley county, have returned to their home in south Terry. Mr. Oglesby says as he drove through Lubbock county, he learned that the ranchmen were killing calves in order to keep the “ devils” out.

From the books of the list of lots given away by the local manager of the town site company, it looks like the town section no longer belongs to the old town site company; but to Terry county.

W. T. Dixon, who has the well he has just finished for M. V. Brownfield, 13 miles east of here, has sold the best deals in Terry county. He says he has 90 feet clear and deep and that the well was tested and found to furnish 30 gallons a minute.

Beo. A. B. Roberts, three miles south of town, was here yesterday, (Thursday,) and says that the rain Wednesday evening made the ground too wet to plow at his place.

The Big Springs paper is making an effort to give the people a free advertisement in this issue. There are good clever men and will make it to your interest to read it, and see what is in it. Notice their advertisement and see what they will do.

Mr. A. M. Arnot announces in an issue of the Voice as a candidate for county clerk for Terry county at the special election May 28.

The Voice will be one of the first settlers of Terry county and has as good claim as any. It is for sale and the promise of the people of Terry county if elected to keep the office faithful and efficient clerk.

Everybody remembers the children day, and be present. They have the program in this issue, which no doubt will be a success.

The committee have selected a program and have not three times a week at the schoolhouse and give the three or four hours practice each time the program is on. Everybody remember them the day, the fif-th Sunday in this month. All those who feel like they would like to attend have a welcome in to join us with.

In announcing myself as a candidate for the office of county treasurer, I do so, feeling that I am qualified to fill this office, and ask the voters of Terry county to investigate for yourselves and if you decide that I am the man for the office I will appreciate your support.

Respectfully,
J. W. Peveler

In last week paper we failed to give notice of Brownfield having a postoffice. The office was established Wednesday of last week, it will be a three weeks after merchandise for our merchandise, and I ask the voters of Terry county if elected to keep the " devils" out of their hands.

Mr. A. M. Arnot, from the north part of the county, was in town yesterday, (Thursday,) and reported a fine rain Wednesday evening in his section.

Bruce Gainer and Leslie McPherson, went to Big Springs last Tuesday night to look over for Mr. McPherson, and Leslie went to board the train for Comanche county.

Mr. A. M. Arnot, from Hockley county, spent Wednesday in Georgie enroute for Big Springs.

H. H. Harris, from Yoakum county, was a pleasant caller at the Voice office Wednesday. Mr. Harris reports cattle doing very well in Yoakum county, and says they are on the line of Terry and Yoakum county and have as good claims as any in this county. Where Heaven Is.

A minister one day preached upon heaven. Next morning he was going to town and met one of his old, wealthy members. His brother stopped the preacher and said: "Pastor, you preached a sermon yesterday about heaven; but you didn’t tell me where heaven is."

"Ah," said the preacher, "I left that out of the opportunity this morning. I have just returned from the hill-top up yonder. In ordinary days I am a member of our Church. She is sick in bed with fever; her two little children are sick in the other bed, and she has not a bit of coal, nor a stick of wood, nor flour, nor meat, nor any bread. If you will go down and buy a sovereign’s worth of things—nice provisions—and send them up to her, and then go there and say, ‘My sister, I have brought these provisions in the name of our Lord and Saviour,’ then she will feel better and read the 23rd Psalm, and then go down on your knees and pray—and if you don’t have heaven before you get through, I’ll pay the bill.

The next morning the man said: ‘Pastor, I saw heaven and spent fifteen minutes in heaven as sure as you are a living.’ —Rev. Comstock, Tyler.

Loving Words.

Loving words will cost but little, Journeying up the hill of life; But make them the grandest you use.

Stronger, braver for the strife,
Do you count them only trifles?
What earth exerts, sun and rain,
Never was a kind word wasted.

Never one was said in vain,
When the cares of life are many
And her heart is in a heavy's grave.
Think of weak ones close beside you—
If you love them, tell them so.

And beneath their cheering sunshine
What to earth are sun and rain?
Loving words will cost but little,
For such as you a e listening. —Baptist Teacher.

A Broken Promise

Lawyer: What can I do for you madam?

Client: I want a divorce from my husband.

Lawyer: Upon what grounds do you desire to bring suit?

Client: He has been faithful to his marriage vow.

Lawyer: In what particular has he failed?

Client: He promised to die for me and he has not done it.

He was a good lawyer, —George A. Vision.
