Largest Photograph.

The largest photographic picture in existence is being exhibited in Berlin.
It is about 40 feet by 5 feet, and represents a view of the Bay of Naples.

Czar's Menu Tablet.

The menu card placed on the table of the Czar is printed in red letters on a pure ivory tablet, surmounted by the imperial crest and arms.

Colombian Railways.

Colombia has little more than 300 miles of railway and not a mile of road has been built in ten years.

German Orchards.

Germany has on an average of 80 orchard trees to the square mile.

ALFONSO DODGING BOMBS.

The anarchists of Spain tried to blow up King Alfonso with bombs one day last week. The anarchs are pretty gay in that kingdom at present. The particulars have not come to light yet.

Young man or young woman if you have a mother living, love her. One little rose to her while the is living is worth vastly more to her than all the flowers you can pile on her coffin after she is dead. One little kind word is worth more to her than all the money you can expend at her funeral. Your mother may be growing old, if so, love her, be kind to her. She loves you and will do more for you than any other person living, so take her as the best friend you have or will have.—Ex.

TEXAS CAN SPARE THEM.

Texas had two legal executions last Friday: Ed Johnson, colored, who killed a white man named Taylor for his money, and another negro who murdered and tortured a little girl. They were hanged in the counties in which they had committed their crimes, after being given a trial.
Both confessed their crime on the scaffold, sang a hymn, and took their adieus of this world,
and went into the hereafter, and were ready for their long journey to the happy beyond.

France Gets the Moroccan Plum.

France has been awarded the supremacy in Morocco, and Germany can now take a back seat.
The Algeiras conference has so decided. Bill Hohenzollern has been aching for a fight, with a nation that he knows he can whip ever since he has ascended the German throne. First it was Venezuela, then Hayti, on this continent, where he found out that his Dutch bluff was all gas.
He came very near getting into trouble at Manilla when Dewey first went there. In Europe he is some pumpkins, and probably could whip to a frazzle any nation but Russia and England.
Of course the other powers,
France, Austria, Italy and others always have an eye open for him and when he goes to push some weak power they just unite and tell him to cut that out. It was found necessary in the Morocco matter to call upon Russia, who sided with France in the final show-down.

London's Paupers.

London's social condition is distressing. Inside the so-called outer belt it has a pauper population of 107,000 souls, and this figure does not include vagrants or the insane poor. Twenty-one per cent of the entire population over sixty-five years of age, exclusive again of vagrants or insane, are paupers.

Volunteer Missionaries.

Bishop Andrews stated at a meeting held in Brooklyn that 9,000 of the young men in the colleges have volunteered for foreign mission work, of whom 3,000 are now in the field, 4,000 are preparing for the work and the others were ready if the churches would send them out.

School Entertainment.

The closing exercises of the Brownfield Public School, at the school house, last Friday night was a decided success. At an early hour the crowd began to gather and very soon the house was crowded with a most orderly and appreciative audience. The program which follows was presented in its entirety, and too much praise cannot be bestowed on each and every participant.

Special Session Commissioners' Court.

The Court having convened in special session on Monday the 26th day of March, A. E. 1906, for the purpose of opening the polls and counting the votes cast at a Special Election held at the several voting places in Terry county, Texas, on Wednesday, March 14th, A. D. 1906, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in Terry County, Texas, and there being present on said day the County Judge and all the County Commissioners of Terry County, and the Court having opened the polls of said election, and counted the votes and verified the returns thereof, and it appearing to the Court that there were cast at said election eighty-two (82) votes, and that sixty-eight (68) votes were cast at said election "For Prohibition" and that fourteen (14) votes were cast "Against Prohibition." It is therefore ordered by the Court that the sale of intoxicating liquors in Terry County, Texas, be and is hereby absolutely prohibited except for the purpose and under the regulations prescribed in Title 69 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, until such time as the qualified voters of Terry county, Texas, may at a legal election held in said county for that purpose, by a majority vote decide otherwise.

Mistakes of Candidates.

A candidate can defeat himself, but it takes several to pull down another fellow. But the average candidate makes the mistake of thinking he can beat a rival as easily as himself—a grievous blunder, which often passes into a political crime under Tallie's and's definition.

CURRENT CACKLE.

The railroad rate regulation bill is still hanging fire in Congress.

John D. Rockefeller recently retired to Lakewood, New Jersey, to avoid being served with subpoenas, and he pulled the subpoena-hole in after him,

There has been some earthquakes over in Sicily, and it struck a penitentiary. If the convicts would have been aware of its coming, they could have arose in their might and overpowered their guards, but they didn't.

When a man gets so mean and swears to a falsehood, in order to put his own mother in prison for 18 months, after her death acknowledged it, his name should be associated with everything that is depraved. His name is Ralph Leisle, and we are glad to note that he is in the Michigan penitentiary for five years.

The man-hunt after the Wickliffe brothers in the Indian Territory is still progressing. The marshals wantonly shot a crippled Indian boy one day last week, while on a hunt for these men; this unfortunate occurrence seems to have greatly exasperated the full-blood Cherokees against the marshals. The Wickliffs belong to the full-bloods.

There is some queer laws and customs in this old world of ours. In France you can hire a substitute to fight your duels, while in China, if you are sentenced to death and can get some one to take your place at the appointed time and get your head cut off at public expense. There has been instances, where this has been done in that country, in fact there is a law permitting this to be done.

In the states of Ohio, Iowa and Kansas have sprung up simultaneously a movement to have railroad fares reduced from 3 to 2 cents a mile for passenger service. This is really a "feeler" of the railroads themselves, as they have intimated that in this event they will make ministers, delegations to conventions, excursionists and all pay the same. In reality, the roads would not lose a cent, but the public would travel more.

Crows Killed in Cruel Way.

In Italy crows, which injure the crops, are destroyed in the following cruel manner: A hole is dug in the ground, at the bottom of which is placed some decayed meat. A funnel-shaped wedge of paper is then inserted into the hole, the upper edge of the paper being coated with birdlime. A crow sees the food from afar, descends to grasp it in his beak, and when he has firm hold of it he rises up again. His head is, however, swathed with the paper cap and in his mad endeavor to rid himself of it he circles up to extraordinary heights in the air, revolving constantly and at so rapid a pace that, soon overcome with giddiness, he falls to the earth dead.

The output of coal in India has increased six-fold since 1880. It now exceeds 6,000,000 tons a year, and the supply is considered practically inexhaustible.

Would Seize Women's Hats.

Enthusiastic members of London's Audobon society propose a law to authorize the confiscation of all hats decorated with the skins of song birds.

Right Sort of a Girl.

The Cincinnati girl who married a poor young man who thought her poor also and then informed him after marriage that she is worth $500,000 seems to be of the good old American variety of girl who was not in the market for counts of no account.

DEMOCRAT.

A SCHOOL DAY.

WILL F. MCSPARRON.

"Now John," the District teacher says,
With frown that scarce can hide
The dimpling smiles around her mouth,
Where Cupid's hosts abide.
What have you done to Mary Ann,
That she is crying so?
Don't say 'twas nothing—don't, I say,
For John that can't be so;
"For Mary Ann would never cry
at nothing I am sure,
And if you've wouged justice,
John, you know the only cure,
Is punishment; so come, stand up,
Transgression must abide
The pain attendant on the scheme
That makes it justified.

So John steps forth, with sunburnt face,
And hair all in a tumble,
His laughing eyes a contrast to His drooping mouth so humble.
"Now Mary, you must tell me all I see that John will not,
And if He's been unkind or rude,
I'll whip him on the spot."
"W-we w-were p-playing p-prisoner's D-base,
An' h-he is s-such a t-tease,
An' w-when I w-wasent I-lookin',
ma'am,
H-he k-kissed me, if you please."
Upon the teacher's face the smiles
Have triumphed a'er the frown,
A pleasant thought runs through her mind:

The stick comes harmless down.
But outraged law must be avenged;
Behone, ye smiles, begone!
Away, ye little dreams of love,
Come on, ye frowns, come on!
"I think I'll have to whip you,
John,
Such conduct breaks the rule.
No boy, except u naughty one,
Would kiss a girl at school."

Again the teacher's rod is raised
A Nemesis she stands,
A premium were put on sin,
If punished by such hands!
As when the bee explores th
rose,
We see the petals tumble,
So trembled Mary's rosebud lips,
Her heart would not dissemble,
"I wouldn't whip him very hard—"
The stick stops in its fall—
'It wasn't right to do it, but—It didn't hurt at all!"
"What made you cry, then,
Mary Ann?"
The school's noise makes a pause,
And out upon the listening air,
From Mary Ann comes—"BE-CAUSE!"

Texas Justice.

Oscar Baker, was tried at Snyder, for an attempted assassination of a Mr. Autry, which occurred on March 19th, and in less than ten days he was indicted, tried and sentenced to the penitentiary for nine years. The cause was over the administration of an estate. Anyway, this instance shows that the law can be and is frequently enforced promptly and with dispatch. This trial took place in Snyder, Scurry county, Texas, where the offense was committed.

Will be Given Another Chance.

That lawyer, Albert Patrick, who is under a death sentence in New York for the poisoning of millionaire Rice ought to go free. Not because he didn't do it do we think so, but because of the ingenuousness of his propositions to establish his innocence. He has made arrangements with Prosecuting Attorney Jerome to take two "stiffs" and embalm them as old Rice was embalmed, and after a suitable time have an autopsy performed on the stomachs of the two. At the inquest it was averred by the Coroner's jury that Rice's spirit took its flight through the effects of chloroform, which was one of the ingredients that embalmed Rice.

NOT MUCH RELIGION TO CHANGE.

Ena, a Battenberg princess of England, and a granddaughter of Queen Victoria of blessed memory, and a Protestant of the Church of England, is to marry His Most Catholic Majesty, King Alphonso of Spain. The Princess has consented to change her religion to the Roman church, and this fact has greatly stirred up the Protestants of old England. Sometimes people who have no religion at all, will raise a racket and disturbance because some body, at rare intervals, have a spark or atom—enough to make a change. People that king and queen it over this world have no more religion than other people, and sometimes not so much. Ena, in order to get a husband that has a job and a throne, just faced about in her belief, which is no more deceitful than to use powder and paint on the face,

HAS FOUR HUNDRED SUPERIORS.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, formerly Miss Alice Roosevelt, will have to make 400 calls in Washington City, is what old Mrs. Grundy has laid out for her. The rules of official society is that whenever a man has a superior in office, his wife must call upon the wife of his superior, and as Longworth is only a Congress the Cabinet, the Supreme Court and the Senate with Smoot and his four wives, as well as the foreign ministers are all "above" officially, Mrs. Longworth. When she was Miss Roosevelt she had no superior, now she has four hundred. If we were her we would hire an able-bodied substitute to make these calls, and let old Mrs. Grundy turn her tongue loose.

The Jewish New Year.

The Jewish New Year is in August, but as the 1st of January is regarded by Jews as a civil rather than a religious holiday they observe it with the rest of the population.

IT IS THE GUN AND NOT THE MAN BEHIND IT.

Since Judge Humphreys has decided that it was the corporations and not the individual composing it that violated the anti-trust law in the packers cases, it is beginning to dawn upon the public that some judge may yet decide that it is not the individual who aims and pulls the trigger of the gun that speeds the assassin's bullet on its deadly mission, but that it is the gun that done the business.

WHAT NICE PEOPLE OUR FILIPPINO COUSINS ARE!

Governor Curry, in the island of Samar, in the Philippines, had a narrow escape from the Pulajam tribe. He tried the persuasion act, and trusted to the good faith and fair words of barbarians, who induced him to come to a place of agreement with a small escort, but when they met, the Pulajams turned loose and killed and wounded half his party. The governor dodged into the brush and flitted about for thirty-six hours, was made to swim a river, and had his clothes torn, and went hungry. We relate this circumstance to show what a nice, peaceable lot our cousins in the Philippines are. This government would save itself a lot of trouble if they would put that dependency up to auction, and let some other nation get their fingers burnt. The real question is: whether these people are worth assimilating benevolently, or to kill or sell them.

A Trust That Can Keep House With No Wolf at its Door.

The United States Steel Trust last year, netted more profits to the holders of its shares than the assessed valuation of either Delaware, Idaho, North Dakota or Utah, or New Mexico and Arizona put together. This was done after expenses and taxes were paid. The trust part of this concern consists of a mountain of gall, or rather a whole range of it. It has a protective tariff sky-high behind it so that it can keep prices up and is thus protected from foreign competition; but in its dealings with interior competitors it uses the club of either underselling, or dictating to railroads which they have under their thumbs—in fact it is the hub in the railroad wheel, as it owns about all the steel rails in America.

I have numerous calls for ranches, large and small in Yoakum, Terry and Gaines counties. If you will list your property with me I will send you a buyer.

A Question of Happiness.
"The old, old story," exclaimed the husband with a long-drawn sigh, as he laid down his paper. "Another man committed suicide because his home was unhappy." "And did that make his home any happier?" asked his wife. "Or doesn't the paper say?"

As long as is the elk, a pint of oats fed to it will kill it.

The Lord has been very good to even the lazy farmer this year, for the corn, though not planted until the middle of June, has all ripened up in fine shape.

The great trouble with that much boomed wheat country of the Canadian northwest is that there is only work for the farmer about three months in the year, and the rest of the time he has to loaf.

It seems almost impossible to preserve any of our game animals and birds or our best food and game fish by any sort of legislation. It seems to be born in the average American that all wild life belongs to him if he can get at it, no matter what the law may be.

It never pays to foster any sort of a manufacturing industry which is under the control of a trust, for just as soon as it is well started the trust may buy it up and let it remain idle. This thing has been done in almost countless instances with oatmeal mills, paper mills and many other enterprises.

A good deal of fuss is made over the turkey as a centerpiece for the Thanksgiving dinner when, if people did but know it, a six-week-old sucking pig stuffed and baked, with a small cob in his mouth, can in point of palatability and flavor eclipse any old gobbler ever cooked. Try the pig and see—and do not forget to put the cob in his mouth.

A case came to our notice lately where the profit connected with growing hogs was well illustrated. Two shots were bought in May at $5 each. They were fed until the 1st of September, the food all bought save the grass. When sold they brought $30, and, deducting the cost of the food, they made the owner a clean profit of 95 per cent on his investment.

Tunics for Turkish Soldiers.
Fifteen thousand woolen tunics have been given by the Sultan of Turkey for the use of soldiers stationed at Adrianople and Salonika.

Paper Barrel for Wine.
Wine manufacturers in Greece, it is said, propose using barrels made of paper for their wine.

Few Golden Weddings.

W. L. Morrow, last week, was summoned to the bedside of a sick brother who lives in Jones county, Texas, and started at once, but in reaching Sparenberg learned by phone that his brother was dead and buried, and on last Saturday evening passed through town on his way back home. We certainly need a telephone.

Satan Forgot Himself.

It is said that when Satan falls asleep and his imps on this earth does a good, wise and generous act, that it is because the "old man" is not near them with his prod. Father Gopon, who headed the workmen in Russia a year ago, and had numbers shot down by his side, and the soldiers spared because he was a priest, and who to avoid arrest by the police, went off like a cannon ball to London, was given permission to return, with a promise of immunity from prosecution by Count Witte if he remained quiet and behaved himself. No sooner had he got back and snuffed the air of his native heath, than a son of Belial of a beauocrat wrote a piece in the paper, accusing Gopon of gambling with other people's money. Now he wants the government to try him so that he can vindicate himself against the gambling. The government don't want to try him because his case is really a hanging one. Gopon should not be so touchy about a little charge of gambling but then his case either shows the forbearance of the government or the power of the priesthood.

A SQUARE DEAL.

The first revolution or political upheaval that history gives an account of was Moses' in Egypt. The labor problem was at the bottom of it. It wasn't settled right then, and isn't yet. The Egyptians worked the Hebrews to a blue frazzle, and even monopolized the straw to make brick with, but they did not send them down in the bowels of the earth to face fire-damps, caving roofs, premature dynamite explosions, and then when they came to the surface to be skinned by pluck-me-stores and to be sold whisky at fifty times the cost of production. Egyptian bondage was undoubtedly tough, but modern finance excels it. A square deal was not what Mosses contended for but for the privilege of throwing up his job and skipping out for a new diggings. The miners now contemplating a strike might read that part of Moses' career with profit to themselves. In ancient times, when men differed in political affairs, the "ins" generally obtained the upper hands of the "outs," and there was a scattering or an exodus. The nations in those times would not adjust themselves to a new order of things. They would conquer each other, and with it went their laws and dynasties. In modern times, however, governments are made to consider the right and wrong of things. This government can not say to the negro "you MUST go to Liberia!" or to a miner "you must work for a certain price!" That is left for the employer and laborer to agree upon. Now the real issue in this miner's strike is, is it right to give large operators an opportunity to crush smaller ones, and then raise the price and reduce wages upon a necessity? and rake in millions by artificial laws that are bent to suit them. Roosevelt talks about "A Square Deal" which means a fair share all along the line. Take a ton of coal—the miner gets 75 cents and somebody else gets $9.25, while the miner is still plucked of a portion of his 75 cents. The real object of a government in this commercial age is to prevent its citizens from oppressing one another.

The Economical Chinese.

The Chinese are a very economical people. In North China the people will eat horse, mule, monkey or any animal, and they will eat all the animal, even when it has died of disease. The smallest children are sent out to gather fuel. One may see boys up in trees beating off leaves as if they were fruit and not a straw is allowed to allow to lie idle on the ground. In ordinary houses a dim light which costs almost nothing will be placed in a hole in a dividing wall so as to light two apartments. An old woman who was hobbling along pain-going to the home of a relative so fully was asked where she was going. She explained that she was as to die in a place near the family graveyard and thus avoid the expense of coffinbearers for a long distance.
