Northwes Texas Conference.

The Northwest Texas Conference met in its 43rd annual session Wednesday morning Nov. 11th. The old town of Waco was the host of the Conference and the daily sessions were held in the beautiful auditorium of the Austin avenue church. Bishop Joseph S. Key was the presiding officer.

Waco had on her fall attire and her magnificent trees with leaves of crimson and purple and saffron and gold delighted the eyes of people from the western part of the State. A cold norther blew up the morning the conference opened and the snap of the air put vim and vigor into everything.

Bishop Key called the conference to order at 9 a. m. and after religious services the election of secretary was called and Dr. John Barcus, who has been the secretary of this conference for many years, was re-elected. The roll was called and 243 clerical delegates and 27 lay delegates answered. This number, of course, was made larger as the conference advanced and other delegates arrived. After a felicitous address of welcome by County Judge McCulloch, the conference proceeded to call the roll of superannuate preachers. These made their reports and were listened to with pleasure and profit as these old men, now retired, were once the active effective men who had much to do in shaping the history and destiny of this the greatest Annual Conference in Southern Methodism. And, by the way, this recalls the fact that a resolution was offered looking to the deviation of this Conference. Many preachers travel as much as 800 and 1000 miles in going to and from the seat of the Conference. This is too much. Two new districts were organized, viz: The Cleburne and the Stamford. This gives us sixteen districts. That times and conditions have changed is evidenced by the statement of J. B. Bolton, presiding elder of Georgetown district, who said that when the Conference first began work in the west that the eastern and Southern districts were used as a basis from which to work, but that now conditions had wholly changed and the west was the base from which the eastern and southern parts of the conference were cared for.

The next session of the conference will be an historic one, for at this conference the committees on division will make their report. This session will be held at Stamford, the seat of the Stamford Collegiate Institute.

Profitable Swine Feeding.

Dr. Warrington in Chemistry on the Farm, states that for each 100 pounds of feed consumed the gains are, for cattle 9 pounds, sheep 11 pounds and pigs 23 pounds, or pigs make nearly two and one-half times as much gain from a given amount of feed as do cattle.

Analysis show that for every 100 pounds of the digestive nutrients consumed cattle gained 12.7, sheep 14.3 and pigs 39.2 pounds, thus showing the great value of hogs on the farm for profit to the farmer, and why it has become an adage that the hog is the rent payer, the mortgage lifter and the farmer's cashier.

The hog can sell the farmer's corn through his stomach at a better price than any other animal on the farm. This makes pigs a desirable farm animal, not only because of the fact that they can convert more pounds of meat out of a given quantity of feed, but because at the present time they can be marketed as a field of grain, not only because there are better prices received for it by feeding it to the hog, but because the farmer looks farther ahead and retains the fertility of the soil in feeding back that produced from it.

The profit of pig feeding depends upon the cost of the feed given them. Therefore anything that cheapens the feed increases the profit, and especially if it is not done at the expense of the health of the hog.—Chicago Live Stock World.

THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD.

It is the object and purpose of this paper first to furnish its readers the local news of Terry county; second, in a condensed form, to give the important news of the Plains country, gathered from its exchanges and other sources. It will make a specialty of reporting all matters pertaining to the agricultural and stock interests of Terry and adjacent counties; will continue to direct the home-seekers' attention to our wonderfully productive lands, what they are producing, and will produce, their cheapness as compared with the lands in other parts of the country, our unexcelled water supply, etc. It will also keep the reader posted in regard to the school lands coming on the market in the future, and all other matters that will interest those who want to keep in touch with this portion of the country.

The subscription price of the paper is $1 per year; 50 cents for six months and for three months 25 cents.

It will be clubbed with the Dallas Semi-Weekly News and other city weekly papers for 75 cents per year—both papers for $1.50 per year.

Send in your subscription and keep posted about the Plains country and about Terry county in particular.

Don't Forget the Election.

So sure that the election will bring prosperity to the American people, I am making the following prices:

100 pounds of sugar $6.50.
Coffee, 8 pounds for $1.
Premium Bucket coffee 90 cents.
Wild Rose Soap, 3 cakes for 25 cents.
Three cakes toilet soap, regular 25 cents size, 15 cents.
Potted Ham 5 cents.
Sardines 5 cents.
100 pounds of salt $1.50.
25 pounds of Box Prunes $1.60.
Honest Snuff, 3 boxes 25 cents.
Grape nuts, 15 cents per box.
Good flour, $3.80 per hundred.

These prices are good at either of my houses, Gomez, Terry county, Glen Park, Yoakum county.

I sell for cash only.

Railroad News.

This paper is glad to state to its readers that the railroad question is settled so far as Terry county and the town of Brownfield is concerned. Mr. M. V. Brownfield closed a contract last Monday with Mr. Lees, president of the C. H. & G. railroad company, by which the company is to build the road to Brownfield. The company accepted a bonus of $100,000 and a section of land adjoining the town. It agrees to commence a permanent survey of the line from Hereford here on December 1st, and to complete the same within ninety days. It also proposes to have grading commence on this section of the line at the earliest possible date, and say that they will have the road finished to Brownfield within a year from this time, notwithstanding the fact that the contract gives them two years to build the road to the south line of the county. They have the money with which to build the road and they realize that the sooner they build it they will receive their bonus.

This railroad proposition is a great thing for Brownfield, a great thing for Terry county and a great thing for this whole section of country. It will make Brownfield a shipping point for a large scope of country, which will embrace the counties of Terry, Yoakum, Cochran, Gaines and a good portion Lynn. It will enable the stockmen to ship their cattle without having to make long drives, it will enable the farmers to ship their products directly to market without having to haul them a hundred miles to a railroad. It will also enable them to get lumber, coal and various other commodities without having to freight them from Big Springs, Plainview or other points of equal distance. In fact, its advantages can not be fully enumerated, realized or appreciated until we have them brought to us.

Conference Appointments.

The following are appointments by conference for the Plainview district:

J. S. Hardie, presiding elder; Brownfield Mission, P. E. Riley; Loving Mission, V. H. Trammell; Barton Mission, W. H. Carr, supply; Dickens circuit, D. B. Doark, supply; Dimmitt Mission, G. H. Bryant; Emma Mission, A. H. Hussey; Flycydada, J. E. Stephens Gomez Mission, C. E. Jameson. C. H. Smith, supernumerary; Hereford, J. W. Story; Hereford Mission, to be supplied; Hale Center circuit, C. E. Clark; Kress Mission, T. F. Robeson; Lubbock, Ben Hardy; Lockney Mission, Thomas Hanks; Plainview, T. S. Barcus, A. B. Roberts supply; Post City Mission, to be supplied; Silvertown circuit, J. A. Laney; Tulia station, S. R. Twity; Turkey Mission, C. D. Pipkin; Tahoka station, J. T. Howell; Wildorado Mission, W. P. Edwards, church extension secretary. C. M. Shuffler.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

The people of Brownfield are to get a railroad. Do they all know who has been the means of securing it for them? Perhaps they do. But we will state that is due to M. V. Brownfield. Without his influence and intercession it would not have come by way of this town. In using his influence for this place, do the people know that Mr. Brownfield made a sacrifice of at least $200,000? Such is the case. The company desired to build on a line several miles east of the town, and to make a new town in Brownfield's pasture, at or near his headquarters. Of course this meant a division of profits with him, and a wonderful increase in the value of his lands. He said, "No, gentlemen. The people of this town stood with me when it was founded and I do not propose to quit them now. They have been my friends and I will stand by them in this matter. The building of a new town would greatly injure many of them, and I do not want to make money when it will injure some one else, and especially my friends."

In speaking of Mr. Brownfield's action in this matter, Mr. Lees said to the editor of this paper, that in a business experience of twenty-five years he had never before known of a single case where a man turned down a chance to make as much money in a legitimate way as Mr. Brownfield has done in this instance; that the people of this town should feel a great pride in having a citizen among them who will sacrifice his own interest for their benefit.

Notwithstanding the fact that the town bears Mr. Brownfield's name, he has comparatively little personal interest in it. What he has done is purely from unselfish motives, but for the welfare of his friends and neighbors, which an appreciative people will always remember with gratitude.

Hon. Bonna Ridgway, member of the Thirtieth legislature from Parker county and re-elected to the Thirty-first, is in the city under treatment for throat trouble. Speaking yesterday of the bill he intends to introduce compelling attendance upon school, he said: "I am very much encouraged by the expressions of approval I have received. A compulsory attendance law would have been impossible in Texas before this time but I am hopeful of getting the bill through. I find upon investigation that several states which now have a long compulsory term, started with a short term. Indiana began with a compulsory term of only three weeks and there was great difficulty in getting the bill through but the term was extended after a short experience without difficulty. The best demonstration of the effect of compulsory attendance is found in Massachusetts which has the longest term, the best system of public schools and the highest average daily wage. I am delighted at the adoption of the local school tax amendment. It will make compulsory attendance easier to accomplish. Texas has made a great stride forward in public education and we must keep it up."—Fort Worth Record

Word has reached here that Mr. J. W. Peeler, of Meadow, intends moving his mercantile business to Brownfield in the near future.

Messrs. Brooks & Cordill are the first merchants in Brownfield to start the delivery system. They deliver groceries to their town customers.

C. S. Williams, ex-district attorney, residing in Plainview, and W. D. Benson, of Lubbock, were looking after legal business in Brownfield Tuesday.

Mr. J. F. Holden and son Cleveland left today for Topeka, Kansas, where they had been subpoenaed as witnesses in the federal court wherein the United States is plaintiff and the Santa Fe railroad company is defendant.

Mr. J. C. Gope, a land man from Centerville, Leon county, has been here a day or two, and this morning closed a deal for a section of land situated in the West part of the county. The deal was made through Bigger Hill & Co.

The real estate firm of Stephens & Lockhart, of Gomez, have arranged to establish an office in Brownfield, which will be in charge of Mr. Lockhart. It is stated that Mr. Stephens will move his family here a little later on. They are honorable gentlemen and good real estate men and we will be glad to have them with us.

Brownfield is soon to have some concrete buildings. Messrs. D. J. Broughton and Thos. DeShazo, of Gomez, have already made arrangements to commence the manufacture of concrete building material, and have a car load of cement at Big Springs which they will haul here at once. They will put their plant on the draw just west of town where there is an abundance of sand and gravel suitable for that purpose.

"The Last Loaf."

"The Last Loaf," an eight cast play will be given at the garage in Brownfield Thanksgiving night and again in the school house at Gomez the following Saturday night, Nov. 28th. The night at Brownfield for the benefit of the public library, the proceeds at Gomez to go to the library here and to seat the school house in Gomez.

The garage will be made comfortable - the schoolhouse in Gomez is already so.

The causes are worthy.

The show is good.

The price 25 cents.

Auto Service.

There will be an automobile run regularly in connection with our livery business. Will haul parties to and from any point in the country where it is possible to run a car. Will serve you on short notice.

LEE ALLMON.

The Yoakum County Times is no more. We learn that D. B. Watson, Will Hubbard, Harry Proctor and L. Townsend were mourners at the funeral services and will wear crape for a period of sixty days. Its remains were taken to New Mexico where a "Monument" already commemorates its short but brilliant career in Texas.

The Brownfield Hardware Co. has bought J. W. Welch's business property on the west side of the square and are moving their goods into it. They are also moving their building off the lot on the northeast corner of the square to the rear of the Welch building to be used as a work shop and storage room. They intend to increase their stock of hardware as will meet the demands of the trade of this part of the country. We have no better men than the gentlemen composing the Brownfield Hardware Company, and we predict for the firm a successful business career in Brownfield.

Ammunition Manufacture

In the manufacture of metallic cartridges the greatest care must be exercised to get them of exact size, both with respect to the shell and the bullet, and the proper charge of powder to get the best possible shooting must be determined by many tests and experiments, after which the loading must be done by such implements as will ensure the accurate measuring of the powder and seating of the bullet. So great has been the development of ammunition making, that the most accurate results in its use are demanded, and the manufacturer is obliged to use machinery that is absolutely unerring in its many operations. The equipment of the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., of New Haven, Conn., is perfect in this respect, and this coupled with their large experience and exact system of rigid inspection and tests, enables them to produce ammunition that is known the world over for its reliable and accurate shooting. Winchester rifle and pistol cartridges are made in all calibers for all sorts of guns, each representing in itself a most exacting standard for that particular cartridge. The Winchester catalog describes all these cartridges, as well as everything else made by this sterling company. It is mailed free upon request.

M. R. Wise, of Sioux, Iowa, is in the looking after his property. This is his second visit to this country and to say that he is entirely satisfied with the country is expressing it very mildly. The fine cotton, corn, feed of all kinds, and potatoes, and so forth, which he has actually seen with his own eyes, is about to convince him that the Stanton country as a farming proposition is one almost if not entirely equal to his own and when the mild climate and cheap lands are taken into consideration, it is away ahead. He has decided to cut this big ranch into small farms and sell it out to actual settlers, which will go readily as the land is very productive, and at the same time it will mean something to Stanton as it is in our trade territory.—Stanton Reporter.

People in all parts of the country are realizing the fact that the Plains is not excelled as an agricultural country. Parties owning vast tracts of land have discovered that it will not pay them to hold their lands for grazing purposes, and many of them are already taking steps to subdivide their pastures and sell to actual settlers. There are but few large pastures in Terry county and with coming of the C. H. & G. railroad they will be converted into homes. But the homeseeker who thinks he can bid his time and buy Plains lands as cheap later on as he can now, will find he was mistaken. Lands in Terry county that are now selling from $8 to $12 per acre will sell in twelve months from this time from $15 to $25 per acre.

Space in this paper is for sale to any one conducting a legitimate business. Our advertising rates are very reasonable and it will pay any person doing business in Terry county to carry an ad in the paper. Try it and see.

J. S. Wells, the old sheriff of Lynn county, was re-elected by a majority of 43 votes according to the returns of the election on the 3rd of November. It will be remembered that J. S. Wells and D. N. Glass tied in the July primary and it was decided that each run the race over at the general election, which resulted as above stated. A report came to Lubbock that Mr. Glass had been successful in the election this time, but from the returns of the election as printed in the Lynn County News show Mr. Wells' majority of 43.

The chief engineer of the Altus, Roswell & El Paso railroad says that he expected to be in Childress in a short time begin survey work on the line between Childress and Hollis, and that with the beginning of the work the headquarters of the road would be moved to Childress. He also states that there was no doubt but what the road would be built on to Lubbock as fast as men and money can do the work.

Chas. W. Watkins, the editor and proprietor of the Crosby County News has leased the plant Loy D. Latimore, of Plainview, who took charge last week. Mr. Watkins states he will spend the winter months in southern Texas for the benefit of his wife's health.

TERRY COUNTY.

THE BEST PLACE TO BUY A CHEAP HOME ON THE PLAINS.

Terry County is thirty miles square, situated eighty miles north from Stanton, on the T. & P. railroad, and about eighty miles southwest from Plainview, terminus of the Santa Fe; was organized in 1904, and has about 2,000 population, ALL WHITE, about 400 homes, mostly farmers and stock farmers, $50 school children, a school house in reach of every community, and a school fund of $15 per scholar. The soil is of a sandy nature, but one half of the county is firm mixed hard land, with enough sand to plow well, level and smooth. Portions of this land is covered with short grass and mesquite and oat-clay bushes; other portions with sage grass and shiner, and a great deal of the county is a mixture of both, with clay foundation. The country being level, not having any running streams or mountains, the land catches and holds every drop of rain that falls—no water is wasted. The grass is splendid grazing for cattle and other stock, and furnishes a living for thousands of cattle every year. The land produces fine corn, kafir corn, maize, sugar cane, cotton equal to and averaged with Central Texas and Oklahoma per year and per acre, while melons, potatoes, onions and vegetables are superior to that of either place. The rainfall is amply sufficient to produce good crops every year, as the farmers who have lived in Terry county for the past four years will bear testimony. Trees of all kinds that have been planted grow very rapidly; the water is pure, free from alkali, gypsum or salt, and found in abundance at 60 to 120 feet. Several large orchards in the county to bear fruit this year, and thousands of young trees set out every season. The climate is dry in winter and early spring, and is as mild as Central Texas, and it is noted that during the past two winters several severe blizzards passed far south of us, one hundred miles east, and never affected this county. Like all prairie counties the wind blows at times rather hard, and on our deepest sandy land will blow the sand when plowed up, but this is not the case with all the county. Fuel is obtained from the large grubs under the mesquite, some of which are six and eight feet long, large as a stove pipe, while some use coal, hauled from the railroad. A man can cultivate a great deal more land here than in Central Texas or Oklahoma.

Brownfield is the county site of Terry county, pretty location, a nice town with nearly 400 inhabitants, several stores, newspaper, church, house, 4-room 2-story school building—nicest on the Plains at present—runs an eight months term free school, good hotel, bank, lumber yard, livery stable, local and long distance telephone, a nice growing town. Auto and mail north and south, daily mail from three ways—daily stage. This town and county has never had an artificial boom, and no better time to invest than now.

Land Prices:
Lands adjoining town, unimproved $12 to $25 per acre. Unimproved 5 miles away at $5 to $10 per acre, unimproved 5 to 15 miles away at $5 to $10 per acre. Improved places with houses, wells, windmills, fences, farms, orchards—a ready made home for $8 to $15 per acre, some near, some a distance away. Some of the more sandy lands, 20 miles away at $2.50 per acre, both school and patented land. These lands can be bought on terms one-fourth to one-half cash, balance in two to six years time at 8 per cent interest, or all cash if preferred. These lands are owned by different people. No one man owns this county. It is the small farmers' country. Any sized tracts can be had from ten acres to ten sections.

YOAKUM COUNTY.

Yoakum county joins Terry on the west. It is very much such a county as Terry in quality of land, water, etc., about the only difference being that it is not so well developed as yet, has very few farmers in it. Yoakum was only organized last September, and now contains between 300 and 400 inhabitants.

Plains:
Plains, situated in the center of the county, is the county site. The town is nicely situated, and just as soon as the county settles up, will make one of the best towns on the Central Plains. Rich lands in Yoakum county sell at from $2 to $1 bonus, and are among the best lands in the county. Patented lands sell at $5 to $6 per acre, and on terms of from one-fourth to one-third cash, balance from three to five years time. There is no better place in the west for a man with small means to get a cheap home than in Yoakum county, nor for the man of large means to invest his capital, because lands in that county are cheaper than in any other section of the Plains country.
