Albuquerque Bonuses.

More Towns Along the Right of Way Promises Financial Support.

From the Record.

Men who are behind the Fort Worth & Albuquerque railroad proposition declare that if this city should come up with the same degree of co-operation as the western portion of the state has done, that it would not require a week to secure all the funds needed to make the proposition a go. The committee is still receiving encouraging propositions from many western towns looking toward the carrying of the road to those places.

One of the very liberal offers in proportion to the size of the town came Saturday from Emma, which promises to be responsible for a bonus of $50,000. Texico, N. M., also promises to fall in line with a handsome purse, but by far the most liberal offer that has been made by any of the towns is that coming from Brownfield, Terry county. It offers a cash bonus of $50,000.

160 acres of land at Brownfield for depot site and trask facilities, and a right of way through the entire county.

The following letter from Hon. George W. Neill, County Judge, is self explanatory.

Brownfield, Tex, June. 30.—Fort Worth—Gentlemen: Please inform the parties promoting the Fort Worth & Albuquerque road, whose name I do not know, that this town and county are very anxious to have the road pass through here, and and we will give them $50,000 bonus, right of way entirely through Terry county and 160 acres of land adjoining the town for depot site, yard purpose, etc. We mean business, are ready to do business, and any farther information desired is forthcoming for the asking.

We have a splendid agriculture county, with 2,000 people, and it is settling up fast with farmers and stockmen. Thanking you for this favor, I am very respectfully, George W. Neill.

County Judge,

Committees Appointed

To Look After the Various Details of the Coming Reunion.

Quite a number of to Veterans gathered at the Court House last Saturday evening, to arrange for the Barbecue they are to hold 13th, and 14th of August.

W. M. Howard was elected Chairman of the meeting, Jno. W. Cone Secretary, the following committees were appointed:

On Arrangements, J. R. Coble, Neil. H. Bigger, J. R. Hill, W. N. Copeland, Geo. Tiernan.

On program, G. W. Wilkins, T. J. Price, D. Robinson, W. R. Harris, W. M. Howard.

On Entertainment, J. R. Hill, W. R. Spencer, Dr. Ellis.

On Badges and Flags: Geo. W. Neill, J. L. Randal.

The Veterans were enthusiastic, and are working hard to entertain the people at the Barbecue, and are expecting a successful meeting.

Heed This Advice.

From San Antonio Express.

Summer has arrived. Now comes the flies, every day now means more danger from typhoid and other diseases, the germs of which flies disseminate. Flies travel from filth to the table. Every one carries from 1,000,000 to 6,000,000 germs. They breed at the rate of 120 every ten days. That means that one fly can be the parent of millions in a season. The principal breeding place of the fly is the manure pile. In justice to your neighbors as well as yourself, keep that well covered with chloride of lime and remove the refuse every ten days. Don't be too fastidious to place fly paper in every place where it is possible to catch a fly. Keep the house well screened. Do not buy from a grocery who does not keep his vegetables screened; boycott the butcher who allows flies to crawl at will over his wares. And no matter where you are, swat the fly.

Committee Meeting.

The Herald is requested to state that committee on arrangements for the Old Soldiers Reunion and barbecue will hold a meeting next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Those wanting to secure privileges to run cold drink stand etc. on that date should attend and put in their bids, as the privileges will be let to the highest bidder, in order to raise money to defray expenses of the Reunion and barbecue.

Bailey County Organized.

Monday, Messrs. J. W. Johnson, John Wiltarding, Harry Bricker and Emil Wellsandt, of Hurley, were in Dimmitt to bring the polls of Bailey county election, which was held last Saturday over the county, and the election carried for organization 36 to 0. The polls were light, as the south part of the county did not vote.—Demitt P. ...

The Seminole Sentinel pointed out nine railroads headed their way in its last issue. Lubbock is supposed to have about the same number on their maps. Surely Brownfield will get a feeder,

Since the county offered a bounty of 3 cents apiece for rabbit scalps, the "small boy with the target" has done deadly execution among the varmints. Some have reported as high as fifty scalps already. We regard this as a fine investment for the county.

We are not running Terry Co. farms or farmers, but we wish to suggest that if any farmer that has land that has not been planted, it is not too late to plant June corn. Remember that Central and East Texas have a complete corn failure, and if you make a good late crop, you will have just that much more $1 per bushel corn to sell next spring.

How many people are there in the county that have good photographs of their homes, ranches or live stock, or scenery of any description. We want to have engravings made from the photos and publish them in the Herald, that people elsewhere may see the beautiful homes it is possible to make on the Texas Plains. Who will be the first to respond.

It is real sad to listen to people who are coming in from Central Texas talk about their corn crop being a total failure. Unless they can have rains enough to raise a crop of June corn on the same ground it will throw these people in hard shape on the feed proposition next year. Knowing the habit of the people of Central Texas to plant just barely enough feed to run them with a good yield, and their besetting hobby to put every acre possible to cotton, it is a wonder to us they stay upon their feet as well as they do. They expect failures like this occasionally, and we can't see far our lives why they don't plant plenty of oats or millet, which is harvested before and after corn respectively, and thereby have three chances in one for a feed crop.

The country newspapers are at present utilizing a great deal of space and energy in the defence of the home merchant against the depredations of the mail order house. This is entirely right and strictly to the interest of the home town in general, but at the same time the merchant should not sit idly by while the newspaper makes his fight. He should put forth an effort in his own behalf by judiciously advertising his business and by treating his customers with politeness and courtesy. He should not overlook the fact that the mail order house is his competitor and a wide-awake one at that, one who places and keeps in almost every home of the merchants' should be customers, prices and descriptions of his wares and who treats those who deal with them with the greatest consideration, continually assuring them, and making them feel that their trade is appreciated. Every really successful merchant advertises for customers and once he gains them, holds them by fair prices and polite and courteous treatment.—Seminole Sentinel.

Our next issue will be a six-column folio, instead of a five column as heretofore, and we are going to try and make it a red letter issue, telling of the possibilities of Terry county from every point of view. The lawyer, doctor, minister, merchant, farmer, blacksmith school teacher, county officials and paperman, will each give his views on Terry county next week. We have talked with several who have promised to contribute for this issue, and if we fail to see you, please do not feel slighted, but come right on with your experience. We don't care if we have a dozen letters from each profession, they will keep till we publish all. Come one come all, and let's all be editor next week. Especially are the ladies invited to tell the good sisters of the east and north how the old blue hen lays; how many chickens you can raise in a season, and how easy. Tell them how much butter you make and sell, or any other industry that is dear to the heart of every woman.

That the housefly is the most abominable nuisance the American people, or any other people have, is fast dawning to their awakening scientific minds. A few years ago, people gave the fly credit only as a summer pest ever ready to disturb one's noon nap with their everlasting tickle-ing, or else embarrass one by dropping into their milk, coffee or soup at inopportune times and places.

Modern scientific researches has exploded and dispelled the old time foggyism about the origin of disease, and has proven conclusively that nine tenths of the diseases to which the human family is subject are caused from the minute and deadly germ. Since it is proven that each fly carries millions of germs, and since the least observant know the habit of the fly—constantly migrating from one heap of filth to another—we know that it stands to reason that he is the greatest germ spreader known to mankind.

If the fly was of a wild disposition as many scavengers are, danger from contagion would somewhat be eliminated. But on the contrary he is very tame, bringing his disease bearing germs into our homes. Declare war on the FLY.

Birthday Party.

On last Tuesday afternoon July 6th, little Miss Willie Daniel gave a birthday party, at her home one mile from town, this being her 10th anniversary. She invited twenty-two of her playmates and sent her father to gather them up in a large wagon, in real hay riding style. Amusements consisting of innocent games were played until lunch was announced, and all gathered in to partake of the dainties prepared for them. The editor saw the gleeful little fellows as they were being unloaded in front of the post office when they return and we almost wished we could push back the years that separate us from childhood and dream the dreams and live the realities of springtime youth once more. But alas! our time has been spent whether for good or bad and we begrudge not the joys that are their's now. For the sake of humanity and for the generation that must assume our worries and cares in the near future, make their few happy days that are allowed them just as sunny as possible.

Messrs. Neil. H. Biggers, and R. R. Hughes took a spin out to Ray Brownfield's ranch Thursday, and come in Friday afternoon. They report a big time, and we believe it, their faces were simply wreathed in smiles.

Mr. R. W. Glover, of Gomez, came in this week and handed us $2; one for one year's subscription to the Herald, and one for a card of his hotel and livery business. Mr. Glover runs a good up-to-date hotel. How do we know? We've tried him.

Miss Irene Copeland returned home this week from a long and pleasant visit to her friend Mrs. Lola Green of Ft. Worth.

Miss Pearl Steward returned this week from Willis Point, Van Zandt county, where she has been visiting her parents since school closed here. She reports a corn failure in that country, except in the bottoms, and that is not good. She will enter school here again in September. Her many friends here was glad to see her return.

Mr. M. F. Ball of Montague county has bought the well improved farms of J. R. Morris and J. L. Clark, two miles southwest of Gomez. Total consideration $15,000. Mr. Ball is a fine gentleman and we are glad to have him locate with us. Mr. Morris will probably go to southwest Texas and Mr. Clark will remain in Terry county.

Jim Burnett happened to an accident yesterday that came near being serious. He climbed upon his windmill to turn it off when the wind suddenly changed causing the wheel to strike him on the head. The blow was not quite strong enough to knock him off the tower, therefore the accident just left him with a sore cranium to nurse for a few days.

Miss Esther Love who has been spending quite a long vacation with her sister Mrs. P. E. Riley returned to her home at Austin this week. Miss Love came here a perfect stranger, but with her splendid disposition, and natural tact for winning friends, she leaves a host of staunch friends and well wishers, who hope she will pay us another visit in the near future.

Atty. G. E. Lockhart, of Gomez, returned this week from Austin, Texas, where he has been attending the Law Department of the State University for some time. Mr. Lockhart passed the examination, was admitted to the bar, and returns proudly bearing his sheep skin. We hope Mr. Lockhart all the success possible in the practice of law in his chosen county and State.

The trustees of Brownfield Public School, have employed Miss Rena Short, of Arlington, Tex to again help them out in the coming session. Miss Short taught here last year and gave perfect satisfaction. She is not only a splendid teacher in the literary department of our public school, but her place is hard to fill in Sunday school, and the song service.

A fine shower fell yesterday, which will greatly refresh the growing crops. Now they say a man that is a fool, or has been in the county less than six months is allowed to prophesy. At present we come in as the later, and and may take out license under the former when our days of freedom shall have ceased—but as we were going to say we believe the weatherman is getting his outfit in shape to give us a good one. Most of the farmers say that another good rain will make them a fine corn crop.

Ed. Ellis returned Wednesday from a visit to home folks at Maxdale Texas. Ed. says he had an elephant time while he was gone, and every body enjoying good health, but very sorry crops. He traveled over a good portion of Bell, Hill, Johnson, and Tarrant counties while he was gone. He says they will not make any corn in these Cos., and very little cotton, which will mean a black eye to the best portion of the famous blackland belt of Texas. We are real sorry to hear this, as Central Texas used to be our old stamping grounds and is filled with good, God fearing people.

Mrs. Almeda Dial recieved a letter from L. O. Daniel, head of the millinery firm by that name in Paris France, New York city and Dallas Texas. He is in Paris taking in all the places where fashion is created, and all the gatherings where fashionable millinery is naturally displayed. He is also interviewing all the best milliners of Paris as to shapes and colors to be worn during the fall and winter season. If you buy a hat from Mrs. Dial this coming season you will have the assurance of wearing just what is being worn in Paris, London, New York, Chicago other fashion centers.

We took a stroll yesterday morning around the square and dropped into W.G. Myree harness and saddle established which we found stocked to its full capacity. His walls and counters are literally lined with everything new in the harness line, with several boxes yet unpacked for lack of room to display them. His stock is by far the best ever brought to Terry county and he will sell them on a close margin. His latest arrivals consist of collars, hames, tugs, pads, bridles, whips, lines and blankets. He will keep on hand, or order you a saddle from the famous Middlemen Bros. Saddlery Graham Texas, which they guarantee second to none. Mr. Myers can make most anything you need in his line. Better see him and get the pick of his new harness.

Brownfield Lubbock Auto Line.

We are glad to announce an enterprise that has been badly needed and sadly neglected for a long time. That is an auto line from Brownfield to Lubbock. The traffic and travel between the two towns has been heavy for some time and is steadily increasing, and with the advent of the Santa Fe into the latter, within the next two or three months, travel between the towns will double and thruple.

The promoter of this enterprise is Chas. Copeland, one of our most energetic young men, who has an eye for business. We are sure the line will be a paying proposition from the start, and with the coming of the Santa Fe, Brownfield will get the bulk of her mail and express from Lubbock, not to mention the immense amount of prospectors that will pour in from that source in order to still be able to get cheap homes in Terry county and at the same time within a reasonable distance from a railroad.

Mr. Copeland informed the Herald man that he expected to put in a good road with first-class stock gaps, in order that he might make the best time possible. The fare will be the same to everybody, at all times. Four dollars one way, or seven dollars for the round trip, and go and come every day.

It is to be hoped that the wagons will keep off this road and not keep it cut up and in bad shape.

Plainview Railroad News

Engine 184, pulling a complete work train, arrived in Plainview Wednesday evening and the laborers at once set out to work, arranging their quarters to be ready to start Thursday morning on the track laying of the Lubbock line. There was about a hundred and twenty men in the bunch when they were checked in Thursday morning and work was immediately started with laying steel. Despite the recent heavy rains the grade was found to be in excellent condition and very little preparatory work was necessary before the first rails were laid. It is said, and on good authority that the laying of steel will have been completed within ninety days.

Everything along the line is in excellent condition for the work and the men will meet with very little difficulty on their way across the prairie between here and Lubbock:—Plainview Herald.

Arkansaw Hills.

"They's some parts of that Arkansaw country where the hills is steeper than all git out," said Gib Morgan. "Steepest I ever seed. Why I was coming along one day an' I run into a drove of hawks, I notice they all had slits cut in their ears. I was kinder curious about it an' I stop to see what the slit was for. Simple enuf. I was tellin' you the hills was steep there. Well, them hawks was on to it. When they had to come down hill they put one of their hind legs in a slet in an ear and roughlocked themselves down the hill. Talk about hawg and steep hills! Gid dap." —Ex.
