Packed Hourse Greeted Gen'l R. V. Davidson.

When R. V. Davidson, candidate for Governor began his address in the opera house this afternoon, an audience of between six and eight hundred people fully as large as heard either Poindexter, Johnson or Colquitt, and more than a hundred of them women, greeted him.

On the platform with the speaker, sitting from right to left were Jno. Sales, Esq., A. H. Christian, W. P. D. Batjer, Morgan Weaver, D. G. Hill, Esq., Dr. O. H. Cooper, John Bryan, Esq., I. N. Hickman, Esq., G. H. Hill, Esq., T. G. Jackson, Esq., and Ben L. Cox, Esq. The fact that so many prominent members of the Abilene bar had honored the speaker with their presence on the stage was an eloquent tribute to his own prowess as a lawyer.

Dr. O. H. Cooper introduced the speaker with a brief address in which he reminded the audience that under Gen. Davidson's ad-her. Miss Jones was 19 years old and was the daughter of B. Jones and wife who live one mile east of town, and was a most popular young lady, numbering her friends by her acquaintances and was universally esteemed. Her death came as a great shock not only to her parents and relatives but to all who knew her.

The bereaved parents and relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their time of sorrow.

Funeral services were held at the residence Tuesday afternoon after which the remains were laid to rest in Mt. Olive Cemetery to await the resurrection morn.—Big Spring Enterprise.

Miss Belle was well and favorably known in Brownfield, having visited our little city on several occasions, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jack Head.

At the next convention of the Congress which will convene at Houston beginning November 18th, it is almost certain that steps will be taken to throw the full force and influence of the entire organization to assure the passage of the amendment. Present indications are that the convention will be the largest gathering of any kind ever held in the State.

Be Not Deceived.

No doubt many of you saw the report contained in Tuesday's Fort Worth Record, stating that General R. V. Davidson would likely withdraw from the race for governor this week.

LATER

Hello! Mr. Editor how is everything in your country.

This country received a big rain last evening which was very pleasant to the farmers and land ager's.

Bro. Williams of Brownfield preached for us last Saturday and Sunday. We are always glad to have him with us.

Jim Maorg and Grover Lewis of Gomez, are up spending a few days with old friends.

Miss Towey and her father left last week for Sour Lake, Texas, where she will enter school.

Mr. Hubbard's family is visiting at Mr. Arther Cotten's this week.

Old Timer.

Well sir Old Timer, we're feeling lovely both because of rain and also because we are keeping house. Come to see us when in Brownfield.—Ed.

ministration the Galveston schools were the best managed in the state. He said Gen. Davidson was a fit man to fill the shoes of Sam Houston and Jim Hogg, that the state needed a conservative Governor and a man whose character was his best recommendation.

Gen. Davidson's address, which will appear in full in Saturday's Reporter, was along the same general lines of his former addresses. He spoke in an even tone, interspersing his remarks with bits of humor that kept his hearers in a gale of laughter.—Abilene Daily Reporter.

Sudden Death of Young Lady.

The people of our town received another shock Monday when the news went abroad that Miss Belle Jones had died suddenly at 11 a. m. that day. She had only been sick a short time and had not had a physician with her till that morning and he pronounced her doing very well when he left her, and expressed the belief that she would be all right in a few days. Soon after the doctor left it was noticed that she had suddenly grown worse and the physician was recalled, but the young lady died before he could get to the bereaved for the loss of this popular young lady.

To Separate A & M College and State University.

Corpus Christi, Texas, July 4, 1910. In a statement following a meeting held in Houston, the Executive Committee of the Texas Industrial Congress emphatically endorses the proposed constitutional amendment to provide for the segregation of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College from the State University.

The statement sets forth the fact that agriculture is the great basic vocation of Texas, that the prosperity of those engaged in all other lines of activity in the State is proportionate to the prosperity of those engaged in all other lines of activity in the State is proportionate to the prosperity of the farmer and that, in consequence of these facts, the betterment of all conditions affecting the farmer should be the first interest of the people of Texas. It is pointed out that the A. & M. College will never be able to render the fullest possible measure of service to the State until it is placed upon an independent basis and made the object of more lib-long distance telephone, at Austin and he said: "Such a report is absolutely false and without foundation."

At Coleman, on the 21st inst., General Davidson said: "The report that I will withdraw is not true."

Such reports have in my judgment emanated from the fertile imagination of some who desire to detract votes from General Davidson.

I have just returned from a five days trip over a portion of the state and everywhere I found that General Davidson is a very much talked of and admired man, and that he is gaining strength hourly. He is the recognized public servant of our state. He has proved himself equal to every task and has been faithful to every trust.

Under his administration and by his efficient services as Attorney General, over 100,000 acres of school lands were recovered by the state, the sum of approximately $200,000.00 placed in the state treasury; reducing our state tax rates from 12 1-2c to 5 per cent per $100 property valuation, and the law of the state, so often defied by the enemies of good government, fully vindicated and trust mag-

How many of you folks have killed your prairie dogs.

Next Saturday night will wind up the little ball of yarn for the candidates. In Terry county alone, there will be rejoicing in ten homes, while in that many more there will be gnashing of teeth, and the good people (the voters) will be cussed out, sentenced to the rogues gallery, or licensed to join the Ananias Club.

The Herald is opposed to any candidate who will spend more for an office than it is worth. This is the wrong kind of politics and if any thing like this has shown up in this campaign we hope our voters will protest against it with their ballots. When a man spends too much money for an office there is a bug under the chips somewhere. Don't let it be said that it takes a rich man to carry Terry.

The A. & M. College should be completely separated from the University of Texas and each institution permitted to work out its own problems in harmony with its aspirations and traditions. The two institutions have been separate and distinct in administration, and only as a technical construction of constitutional law has the A. & M. College been a branch of the University. Let the constitution be amended so as to recognize the actual fact of administrative separateness. This is the only permanent solution of a difficult question, and the sooner it is settled the better it will be for the cause of higher education.

Talking about prairie dogs, according to the vote last spring that made it a law you will be obliged to kill them this year, and the sooner we get started the shorter our task as the propagation of their specie is rapid almost beyond belief.

One of our citizens whose name we will not mention, but who has several sections of land near Brownfield says he finds that it pays dividends over and above his time and money to kill them. on his place every year, regardless of the fact that his neighbor does not. He says he finds that one prairie dog will consume almost as much grass as a small cow, not to mention the facts that he destroys the roots and leaves the ground bare for weeds and other undesirable plants and herbs.

Give the dogs, "Hail Columbia," "Rough on Rats," "High Life," "Root Bear," "Budwister" or some other dangerous substance, and let's rid our splendid county of another undesirable citizenship.

Crowded school houses are one of the most dangerous things that children have to contend with. At least one half the diseases children contract during their school years are traced directly or indirectly to crowded quarters and bad ventilation. It is a poor investment to a community to out the public school building expenses and pay the price of puny children and tremendous doctor bills.

In a school room large enough for 20 children in which 40 are packed like sardines, there are on an average, 10 per cent that are suffering from one ailment or other, and with close contact with other pupils and continued breathing of the germ laden breath of the unhealthy by the healthy, one need not be surprised that his own child is not suffering with the same malady that his neighbor's children are.

Think these things over folks, before you began to knock about too much school buildings in Brownfield.

Gen. R. V. Davidson is now gaining votes by the thousands every day. The other fellows have pumped thunder till it has become a monotonous crack. They have wailed and moaned the condition of affairs in Texas until the plain, honest people have investigated and found they are still living under the same stable government that such men as Houston, Coke, Reagan and Hogg lived under and made nationally famous; and the hub and den raised by Colquitt, Johnson and Poindexter has become a sounding brass and a tinkling symbol. People will follow the blustering

Uncle Joe Hamilton Announces.

Through the solicitation of his many friends, Uncle Joe (J. T.) Hamilton announces this week for Commissioner of precinct No. 2, Uncle Joe has lived in Terry county a long time and is held in high esteem by all who know him, and although he comes in at the 11th hour he asks you to please write J. T. Hamilton on your ticket when you vote July 23rd.

Even in cities like Dallas, his reception bordered on an ovation often accorded a home-coming hero, and the next day in grand old Kaufman county, the home of an opponent, he received a welcome seldom accorded a candidate.

When you go to make out your ticket next Saturday, don't forget that quiet, unassuming gentleman that says little but does big things.

Such a quiet campaign, you can hear the flip-flap of the wings of the Peace Dove.—Atlanta Constitution.

W. T. Dixon left Thursday for Marfa, Texas, where he will make his future home. Mr. Dixon moved there in order to give his wife the advantage of a warmer climate and mountain air, as she was in ill health. While we hate to give this excellent family up for good, we hope Mrs. Dixon will enjoy better health at their new location.

Not more than half the delegates Brownfield is entitled to, attended the Odd Fellows Association at Tahoka this week as they failed to get conveyance.

About the only disagreeable thing we have discovered so far in married life, is keeping the windmill in repair. Nuff to make an editor cuss not to mention a preacher.

The candidates are sure getting busy these days, as there are only a few more days to tell the dear people how well they are qualified to fill the office, and how good and nice they are.

The singing school that is being taught in Brownfield by Prof. Holtsclaw is being attended by quite a number of pupils of all ages, and one and all report fine progress.

There will be a free for all singing at the Baptist church Saturday night, led by Prof. Holtsclaw. Everybody come out and see the improvement after a first class singing school.

Concerning the meeting that Elder German, of Lockney is to hold in Brownfield, we should have said the 5th instead of the 3rd Sunday in July. Please take notice.

Several people have already taken advantage of our extremely low rates on the Herald during the months of July and August, and are sending them broadcast over the land. Who next?

W. E. Boyd, of Georgetown, came in last week and went over to Plains and purchased a quarter section of land. Mr. Boyd already owned a half section. His family is accompanying him on this long trip.

Will Ed Harris brought the editor a cucumber in this week that measured 13 inches in length and 8 inches in circumference. It was a perfect specimen in every way and was grown in his father's garden. Many thanks! Will E. I.

The Commissioners Court will receive bids at the 1st day of the regular August term which will be the 2nd Monday in August. Let all who want to bid on the rest of the Tahoka road be present and prepared to submit their bids.

Geo. Smith came in one day this week, and while here invited the editor and lady to come down in about three weeks and eat melons. Said we could have all we could eat and haul back. Just put it down in your little book Mr. Smith.

Mr. H. M. Bridges, of the western part of the county, was in Brownfield Tuesday after windmill supplies. In conversation with the Herald man, he said the high wind Saturday night demolished his windmill, but the very excellent rain that followed kindly evened up matters.

Dr. Lively, of Marshall, Texas, delivered one of the best lectures on "Education" or rather "What is Education?" last Sunday night at the Methodist church it has ever been our pleasure to hear, and to a large and interested audience. His reasoning on the subject was superb, and was interspersed with humorous interpretations that often brought forth ripples of laughter and commanded the closest attention of his hearers. The children were able to follow the run of his discourse

PLATFORM

To the Democracy of Texas: If elected Lieutenant Governor I shall preside over the deliberations of the Senate with dignity and speedily dispatch the public business in decency and good order. I shall oppose junketing trips over the State while the State's business is needing attention. I shall oppose the nefarious lobby at all times, but endeavor to see that all legitimate interests have a proper hearing before the appropriate committee.

I am in favor of Local Option, State-wide prohibition, and am in favor of Submission.

I am not endeavoring to make a platform for the Democracy of Texas, but when the Democracy makes a platform I shall endeavor to convert the platform demands so made into statutory law.

A Democrat should carry out his party's instructions or resign his office.

Upon my own record and merits I respectfully solicit your support.

nates forced to bow to the decree of justice.

In General Davidson you find a statesman of the type of Reagan, Coke, Hogg and Culberson. What better could you ask?

I want to ask, as chairman of the Hamilton County Central Davidson Campaign Committee, that you take renewed courage, and let's demonstrate to the enemy that we stand for the only candidate who is fully capable of filling the gubernatorial chair. One who is just, liberal and broad-minded, faithful to his constituency and the people of our great and glorious state.

Will you not go actively to work and lend some of your valuable time to making this campaign one of the most active and aggressive in our county?

If we do our duty we will win this fight. If you favor Mr. Davidson send me your name so that I may add it to his rapidly growing list.

Fellow Democrats, do your duty!

Yours for success,
 John L. Spurlin,
 Chairman Davidson Club.

On Home Trip.

New York, June 30—The Abernathy boys, Louis and Temple,

Who rode from Oklahoma to New York on horseback to be at the welcome of Colonel Roosevelt, will start back next Wednesday by automobile. The brothers will pilot the way in a runabout and their father will follow in a large car. The party intends to camp by the roadside at night. Both boys have been teasing their father to let them see a boxing bout ever since they came to New York and tonight he yielded. They saw the main bout at the Longacre club between Tom Maloney and Kid Boras and went home happy. Club patrons presented them with a pair of boxing gloves and they were made honorary members.

BETTER THAN GOLD MINES.

Northwestern Apple Orchards Expected to Bear Record Crop This Year.

Officers of state horticultural associations and commercial organizations in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana say there is every indication that the fruit crop this year will be the largest and most profitable in the history of the four states. It is predicted that higher prices will prevail as a result of the heavy damage to the fruit crop in the middle western states.

F. A. Huntley, state horticultural commissioner, says that Washington will produce twice as much fruit in 1910 as in 1908, the year of the record crop. Including peaches, apricots, cherries, berries and other soft fruits, the yield will be at least doubled owing to the increased acreage, he adds, while the apple crop will show an increase of about 25 per cent. Oregon, Idaho and Montana will have equally large crops as the result of increased acreage and trees coming into bearing this season. More than 350,000 acres of lands are devoted to orchards in the four states, and pomologists estimate the value of a full crop would undoubtedly equal $175,000,000.

Northwestern apples are in demand in the eastern and middle western states and in Europe and Australia, and the markets are being extended year by year. American and foreign experts who have studied conditions in the northwest refer to the Pacific states as "the world's fruit basket," adding there has been established in a comparatively short time a domain where the first foot of soil properly cultivated is worth more than all the mines from Alaska to Mexico and all the forests from the United States boundary to the Arctic sea. Millions of dollars have been invested in apple lands west of the Rockies during the last decade, and beautiful orchards of young trees today mark the spots where but yesterday was a waste of brown, barren sagebrush covered desert.

Although the domestic and foreign demand for apples has increased, strangely enough the production of the fruit has steadily decreased. The apple crop for 1909, reported to be less than 23,000,000 bushels, for example, was only slightly in excess of one-third of that for the years 1896 and 1900 and much less than the crop for 1905, when the production reached a low figure.

SUMMER PRUNING.

Reasonable Suggestions For Use of Knife on Weak and Declining Plants.

Summer pruning is the best for shade trees. Use the pruning knife freely on the tops of weak and declining plants in order to give them a new start.

Don't prune after the blooming period. Nearly all flowering shrubs bloom on the wood of the previous year's growth.

By cutting back the heads of young plants, a thicker and broader growth is encouraged. Never cut downward on a limb; a ragged wound is usually the result of so doing.

When planting shrubs cut back the branches one half, to balance the root system. To produce a low headed fruit tree, trim off all the branches and cut back the top to eighteen or twenty inches at planting time.

To avoid crotches in mature trees, remove all limbs in two-year-old trees that form crotches with their neighbors. Don't forget to cover the wound made by pruning with tar or common paint, preferably drab.

Do not depend on winter pruning to keep normal shrubs in shape, says Suburban Life. They will never look well. Prune two or three times during the summer.

Remember that summer pruning induces fruit bearing, while winter pruning encourages a heavy growth of wood. Summer pruning should be light, however, and pruning in winter is often necessary in any case.

It is much better to cut away a little wood each year than a large amount occasionally. Begin when the tree is young, and you can shape it any way that you desire. Remember that a low headed tree is easier to spray and easier to pick the fruit from than one whose branches are high in the air.

The Farmer's Uplift.

"What you farmers want is uplift," said the statesman. "That's right," answered the farmer. "I've got a grand piano, steam heat and a private gas plant. All we want now is an elevator in the house."—Washington Star.

THE DAIRYMAN

Dried Beet Pulp as Feed. Dried beet pulp is coming to be a great dairy feed. It's only a short time since it was considered a waste product.

Give Cow a Vacation. A cow should have at least six weeks' vacation between milking periods. If she is milked continually she will not last long.

Cleaning the Udder Well. The cow's udder should be well washed and dried with a coarse cloth before milking, and the milker's hands should be washed after every cow.

Making Butter. Butter to be graded as extra must have a quick, fine and fresh flavor. Its body must be good and uniform. The color must be good for the season when made, properly salted, neither gritty nor flat.

Skim Milk and Cream. Some men that own separators and have good herds of cows report much profit in selling cream to one class of customers and skim milk to another set. Sometimes the same customers want both the cream and skim milk. On account of the separation they pay more for each.
