GROCERIES

WHOLESALE

Heretofore, we have boosted our retail department, which is in every way complete, but in this ad we want to talk about our large and growing wholesale business. In going into this large grocery business, we felt we would be called on to furnish groceries in large or small quantities. We therefore made preparation for a wholesale business, which is complete. Let us figure on your business large or small.

Gomez Dots.

Quite a lot of strangers in town for the past few days; some of them drummers and some prospectors.

Mr. Parks, who lives six miles west of town, came in this week from a trip to Parker county. He reports that country in a good condition but says after living out here on the plains, that country sure does look rough.

Mr. Ross Kensie and wife, will leave Friday for Erath county where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Kensie came here last fall and during the few months he has lived among us his pleasant disposition, courteous manners, and strict adherence to truth and honor in his daily life; has won for him the respect and friendship of all good people here. His wife, formerly Miss Blanche Hunter, was one of Terry county's best loved and most charming girls, and we sincerely regret to lose them from our town. May they have health and happiness in their new home, is the wish of all their friends.

We had a wedding in our quiet little town last Sunday, when at the residence of Mr. Ross Kensie, Rev. Hill spoke the solemn words that united the lives of Mr. Mon Yates and Miss Della Ware. Both young people are too well known to need any introduction to your readers, as Mr. Yates has been for quite a while a citizen of this country, and Miss Della was raised here. Her father being actually the first merchant in Terry county. After the wedding a splendid dinner was served which was much enjoyed by all present. We join with their many friends in wishing this excellent young couple a long life of health and happiness.

Newly arrived in Gomez on last Thursday morning the fourth, Miss — Snodgrass. The young lady has come to stay and if looks are any index of character, she will prove one of our charming belles in the years of the bright future.

Earnest Broughton had the misfortune on last Sunday evening to fall off a donkey and fracture his arm just above the wrist. Dr. Maddux dressed the injured arm and he is getting along nicely.

School will close Friday and on next Monday night, the closing entertainment will be given under the directions of our excellent teachers. The young people have taken much pains in getting up this entertainment and we hope it will be a success.

Mr. Claud Hayes, of the south west part of the county, was in town two or three days this week. We didn't learn his business.

Rev. Jamerson, came in from La Mesa Monday; where he says they had a splendid meeting.

Spring vegetables such as radishes, mustard and onions are quite plentiful now.

Mr. Guy Taylor moved out to the Blankenship place this week where he will make a crop.

Mr. Copeland will move to his farm next week. We will certainly miss these good citizens from our midst.

Quite a lot of our citizens have been attending court the past week.

The party at Mr. Ross Kensie's on last Saturday night was much enjoyed by all present.

Dr. Ellis spent last Wednesday night in town.

Messrs. John and Booth Hays, and S. W. Jenkins, were in town this last week.

Reports from the ranches in this and adjoining counties, are that quite a lot of cattle have died this spring from eating shinnery leaves.

Mr. Geo. Bragg is now a citizen of Yoakum county and his many friends here wish him success in his new home.

PRIDE DOTS

Hello! Mr. Editor. How are you this beautiful morning. (I am feeling most magnangoatious, thanks, which is the same as saying that I slumber profusely—Ed.) I am as gay as a lark since that darn sandstorm passed over and the rain came and settled the dust.

Planting is the order of the day in this part of the country. Your Uncle is going down the rows. Says he's got to make something this year.

Mr. J. C. Preston and wife, went to Lamesa, one day this week.

Mr. J. K. Epperson took Mr. Warren Spry to the railroad this week, where he took train for Portland, Oregon, where he will meet his father, S. P. Spry.

Mr. C. B. Marson came in from Big Springs loaded with freight for Mr. Lowe, our big-hearted merchant at Pride.

Mr. John Robinson moved a house on his place this week, that he bought from Mr. Vaughan.

Mr. C. H. Martin came home this week from Gaines county, where he had been seeing after some cattle that he had bought from Mr. Will Trimble.

Mr. A. J. Baker, of Plains, was down in this part of the country last week, shaking hands with his old friends.

Grandma Cathey has been real feeble the last week or two.

All kinds of stock look fine in this part of the country. Grass is fine, and if nothing happens to the fruit, there will be a fine crop

Mr. J. K. Epperson says those incubators are doing fine. The yard is filling up with little chicks. Look out, Mr. Badger, you are in danger. Come down Mr. Editor and bring your better half with you, and we will feast on that yard of chickens and nice fruit.

If this don't find its way to the waste basket, I will write again. Excuse my long absence.

THUMB-JUNE.

The Most Unique Wedding Ever Seen in Brownfield

We cannot sing like angels nor preach like Paul; neither can we portray before those absent a scene like this wedding as vividly as it appeared to us. The only reason we make the above explanation is to show our hopeless inadequacy to report the Thumb-June nuptials, as one would have to resort to the best fairy tales to find a worthy comparison, and as we are neither fairy nor a son of one, we know little of their behavior and will have to resort to our limited supply of hoss sense.

During the whole season, nothing has been more talked than the engagement of Mr. Thumb to the queen of this season's debutants, and this grand wedding in the stately old Gothic church around the corner, was a fitting climax to this short romance. To the low, sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding masterpiece, the select of the most select, the bluest of the blue blooded, from the aged to the youth and maiden, began a show, but steady march into church, where they were seremoniously seated by almost mechanical ushers in braids and very high colars.

The impressive ceremony that made this popular couple just one, was said by the Right Rev. William Wertmer in robes of state, who bound them up in wedlocks and padlocks for sure enough. The couple was attended by flashing best men, beautiful brides maids and sweet little flower girls galore, who acted their stunts very toned. Captain June gave his daughter away with dignity and much emphasis on the giving, while the mother of the bride shed tears of joy.

Of course the beautiful bride was dressed to kill in crepe over cream satin, with a bridal veil that trailed something less than 1000 yards behind, as she was being led to slaughter by the groom who wore a top notch suit of conventional black

The sightseers, the mere cattle were permitted to take the galleries, which they soon packed but none were turned away that we heard of. There was no demonstration as at the Vanderbilt affair as the police had the building well under control.

The honeymoon will be spent in Phillamayork, and as no preparation has been made for a big "brown stone" it is supposed they will spung on their indulgent parents.

If the Herald dont wish them much happiness, then it does not know crowder peas from cattle ticks and every delinquent subscriber who don't wish them happiness, stands a good chance to have his name erased.

We heard many expressions of regret this week from farmers who were courting, that they could not be at home planting corn and cotton.

PLANTING SEED OF ALL KINDS

Millet, maize, kaffir, white and yellow dent seed corn, Spanish goobers, cane, alfalfa, and cotton seed. We are headquarters for wire, coal, grain, stock salt, cotton seed product and blacksmith coal, and remember our wagon yard is free. Come and see.

Baseball Game.

Notice was given Wednesday that the Tahoka baseball boys would come over and cross bat with our boys on Thursday afternoon. Upon receipt of this information our boys began to get ready.

Well the Tahoka boys came and after a very interesting nine ending game, Tahoka was the winner by a score of 9 to 5. The game was full of errors from start to finish on both sides, which goes to show that each team would profit greatly by a lot of practice, especially Brownfield. The home boys have not practiced enough to keep a snail limber since the Lubbock game nearly two months ago. Boys you will have to practice and just keep on practicing if you are ambitious of winning games this season and don't be afraid of getting those new suits dirty.

The Tahoka boys were a nice jolly set and very little rag chewing was noticeable.

District Court.

District Court convened here Monday with District Attorney J. E. Vickers at the bat and Judge Geo. R. Bean, of Lubbock, as special Judge after Tuesday afternoon, as Judge Spencer was disqualified in most of the cases.

The big land suit was disposed of Monday morning, of B. S. Wisdons, administrator vs. C. H. Earnest which was compromised, Mr. Earnest keeping seven and one half sections and giving the heirs one half section.

Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday was taken up in the case of State of Texas vs. Walk Hendricks. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty after being out only six minutes and read amid a tremendous applause.

Next case was State vs. Jewel Baker and Berlin Dickenson. For lack of evidence there was no pleading. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge asked visitors not to applaud.

The rest of the day was taken up by minor cases.

Mr. Horace Randal has moved out to his place just over the line in Lynn county where he aims to cultivate a large acreage this year. He will move his family to town for school agin this fall.

Mr. W. B. Carson came in this week and gently reminded us that pay day had rolled around and we relieved him of a dollar. Mr. Carson said he had much rather be at home planting than to be here attending court this beautiful weather.

Mrs. Annie Srygley, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. T. McClung, of Springtown, Tex. arrived in Brownfield this week to visit their son and brother, Prof. W. G. Hardin. Mrs. Srygley will remain in Brownfield all summer, while Mrs. McClung will probably return home in a week or two.

Among the lawyers present at this term of court were: Percy Spencer, Geo. W. Neill, and B. M. Hunter, Brownfield; W. L. Dalton, Plainview; G. E. Lockhart, Tahoka; Royal D. Smith and L. W. Sandusky, Colorado; and J. E. Vickers, W. D. Benson, Geo. R. Bean, W. F. Schenck, W. H. Bledsoe, Lubbock and E. S. Rowe of Plains.

Mr. Lee Cowan, of Hockley county, accompanied by his beautiful daughters, Misses Grace and Clara, were in town this week attending court as witnesses, and being old acquaintances of Mrs. Stricklin, spent the week very pleasantly with the Herald folks. Misses Grace and Clara are attending the Lubbock High School this year, but had to stop on account of court.

Prof. Brock Gist closed a very successful term of school at Meadow last Friday, considering circumstances. He said people may call him farmer Gist. Surely the call of the farm is enticing this beautiful spring weather, but while writing this we are thinking of good old garden old garden sass and rosten-ears and not spring poetry.

Cotton Acreage.

The cotton acreage in Terry county for the year 1911 is variously estimated at from two to three thousand acres; probably the first named figures will be nearer the correct figures, and with an ordinary crop this will mean that Terry county will produce somewhere in the neighborhood of one thousand bales of cotton.

We are no hand to figure the chickens before the eggs hatch—have missed many important settings and the hens besides—but are figuring on a probability that is in no way an impossibility. Therefore if the farmers of Terry county are so fortunate as to produce eight hundred bales of cotton and get seventy-five dollars per bale for seed and all, they will turn over to the coffers of our county the neat sum of just sixty thousand dollars in old cold, talking cash, which according to present population will mean just forty dollars for each man, woman and child in the county.

In basing these figures we do not take into consideration the immense piles of corn, maize, kafir and sorghum that will be produced in abundance with lots to spare. Truly old Terry will head them all.

That it requires less than a thousand dollars for a student to complete a four years course at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is the information that Col. R. T. Miner, President of the College, has furnished to Willmot, Manager of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. The inquiry from Manager Willmot came in the interest of a Texas boy who was awarded a thousand dollars for an act of heroism. The young man wants to complete his education with the money and Manager Willmot believes he ought to take a course in scientific agriculture. The question was "can a young man complete a four years course with one thousand dollars."

In answering the inquiry Col. Milner calls attention to the Lesson VI.—Second Quarter, For May 7, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxvi, 8-21. Memory Verses, 19, 20—Golden Text, Prov. xvi, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

As we consider the lives of these kings of Judah we must remember that the throne at Jerusalem is called the throne of the Lord, and those who reigned there were kings for the Lord their God (I Chron. xxix, 23; II Chron.

ix, 3). There were eight kings of whom it is written that they "did right in the sight of the Lord," and this Uzziah, or Azariah, was one of the eight (verse 4; II Kings xv, 1-3). But they only did right in some measure, some more, some less, and all failed in many things. The time is still future when the twelve tribes shall be one kingdom and a king sitting on the throne of David at Jerusalem who shall reign in righteousness, bringing peace, quietness and assurance to all His people and to all the world (Ezek. xxxvii, 21, 22; Isa. xxxii, 1, 17). But it shall be, for the month of the Lord hath spoken it. "They shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord, and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem" (Jer. iii, 17). At that day it shall be said "The King of Israel, even Jehovah, is in the midst of thee; thou shalt not see evil any more" (Zeph. iii, 15). "And Jehovah shall be king over all the earth" (Zech. xiv, 9). In those days the kingdom and nation that will not serve Israel shall perish and be utterly wasted (Isa. lx, 12). Although Uzziah reigned fifty-two years, his whole story is found in this one lesson chapter and in the first seven verses of II Kings xv. In his days Isaiah and Amos were the prophets, the Lord's messengers (Isa. i, 1; Amos i, 1), full of rebuke for sin, but also of prediction of a glorious future for Israel when she shall receive her Messiah. Every good king should turn our thoughts to the Son of God, the King of Israel (John i, 49), and their failures set Him forth more brightly as the one who will never fail nor be discouraged. Uzziah seems to have been greatly helped by a prophet named Zechariah, who had visions of God (verse 5)—not the one who wrote "the book bearing his name, for he lived after the captivity, nor the one of II Chron. xxiv, 20, 21, who was stoned to death for his faithfulness. It is a great thing to see God, and this we can do in Jesus Christ, who said "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father" (John xiv, 9). We can by the Spirit behold the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (II Cor. iv, 4, 6), and thus we shall be enabled to help others to see Him, too, and know Him. While this prophet helped him he sought the Lord, and God made him to prosper (verse 5). He seems to have been prospered through most of his reign. God helped him against his enemies, other nations brought gifts to him, and his name spread abroad (verses 7, 8). Thus God honors those who honor Him. It was so during part of the reign of Solomon when the queen of Sheba and all kings of the earth sought him and brought him gifts (II Chron. ix, 8, 9, 22-24). So it shall be in an unprecedented degree when Jesus Christ shall be King in Jerusalem. Then shall all nations, like the wise men from the east, bring their treasures unto Him (Isa. lx, 9-11). Uzziah was so greatly blessed that he became self sufficient, strong in himself instead of in the Lord, and then he fell. He presumed to take upon him the office of a priest and to burn incense in the house of God, and the Lord smote him with leprosy, and he became a leper unto the day of his death and had to live in a separate house. The only King of Israel who will be a priest upon his throne will be the man whose name is the Branch (Zech. vi, 12, 13). He will be a priest forever after the order of Malchizedek, who was both priest and king (Gen. xiv, 18; Ps. cx, 4; Heb. vii, 1, 17). If we are redeemed we are kings and priests unto God and shall reign with Christ when He reigns (Rev. i, 6; v, 9, 10). Back of this sin of Uzziah it is not difficult to see the great adversary who said "I will be like the Most High" and who said to Eve, "Ye shall be as gods" (Isa. xiv, 14; Gen. iii, 5). Humility, not pride, is the characteristic of a true child of God, realizing that we are not sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God (I Cor. iii, 5). The only way for us is to be "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might," having no confidence in ourselves, for in us—that is, in our flesh—dwelleth no good thing (Eph. vi, 10; Phil. iii, 3; Rom. vii, 18). We have a great High Priest who is touched with a feeling of our infirmities and who is able to save to the uttermost all of those who come unto God by Him. Let us rejoice in Him and serve Him with all humility, remembering to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. All self righteousness, self sufficiency, pride and ambition to be somebody or something apart from Jesus Christ we must shun as we would the devil himself. It is written of Uzziah that "as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper" (verse 5). This is in accord with Josh. i, 7, 8; Ps. i, 1-3. True seeking is always according to Jer. xxix, 11, and the exhortations thereto are very plain in Isa. lv, 6; Zeph. ii, 3. Consider Hezekiah in II Chron. xxxi, 20, 21, and also see Ezra vii, 10.

The burdock, one of the most common and sturdy of weeds known to every property owner, is a biennial—that is, lives two years. The young plants may be killed easily with the hoe, while those that are in their second year may be put out of business by running the root through with a spade a couple of inches below the crown. ing white, make them easier to dress and give the carcass a neat appearance. As layers: White Wyandottes are steady and will produce eggs every month in the year and many of them. The largest proportion of them will be produced when eggs sell high, therefore the profit. They are not persistent sitters, although making the best of mothers, and are excellent foragers." The incubators are started by Mr. Williams the middle of January, and the combined capacity is about 1,500 eggs. The hatching is continued up to July 1. Mr. Williams built a two story incubator brooder house, which he calls his chicken factory.

Last Legislature O. K.

The Texas Commercial Secretaries Association has just completed a comparison of the Acts of the last legislature with those of previous sessions and finds the Thirty-second Legislature one of the safest and most stable Legislative bodies that ever assembled in Austin. The modern test of a Legislature is the amount of property destroyed. The Thirty-second Legislature destroyed absolutely no property, which is an enviable distinction that no other Legislative body of recent years enjoys.

The statutes show that the destructive tendency of legislation began to develop nearly a quarter of a century ago and reached its climax in the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Legislatures when approximately one hundred million dollars worth of property was destroyed by legislation. These figures may seem startling to those who have not given the consideration and the basis of computation may be of interest to those who may care to make the calculation.

The value of an industrial investment is, as a rule, determined by the dividend it will pay and it is a business rule that one dollar of net revenue per annum gives $25 of value to the body of the property. Therefore, when the state takes a dollar unnecessarily or unjustly from an enterprise (private or corporate) which depends upon its net revenue for property value, we destroy $25 worth of the property and especially is this true with properties not able to shift their burdens. That particular dollar which the state takes from a legitimate enterprise by process of law, however great the hardship it may work, is of course not destroyed; it is simply transferred to the state or distributed to other lines of industry or individuals, but the remaining $24 of the $25 above referred to is destroyed as completely as if the property had been gutted by fire.

On this basis of computation, an examination of the numerous Acts of the Thirtieth and Thirty-first legislatures placing unjust and new burdens upon industry by taxation and regulation will very quickly run the total amount of property destroyed up to $100,000,000 to say nothing of the intangible damages which accrued from the business disturbances following such radical changes.

Constructive legislation is, of course, always desirable and is a thing to be hoped for, but if we can escape destruction at the hands of a legislature, we ought to be satisfied.

Star of Empire Moving Texasward.

When Uncle Sam wants to boast to other nations of his power and resources, he tells them about Texas. To show foreign powers the iron ore in East Texas—the stuff dreadnaughts and cannon are made of—is a stronger argument for peace than a standing army. To give the nation a bird's eye view of our ranges and pastures—8,000,000 head of cattle, 3,000,000 hogs and 1,000,000 sheep, makes the whole world marvel at a country that can produce such meat and is the strongest possible argument for free trade with foreign countries. To show them our harvest fields—we clothe and feed the world—brings the nations of the earth to a full realization of how dependent they are upon Texas for their existence.

Uncle Sam has been holding Texas in reserve for some time but he is now moving the star of his empire Texasward and in another decade will find Texas in the front rank in empire building.

Obituary

Whereas it has pleased our heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom to call from our midst our beloved sister Fulton (formerly, Sallie Thomas) which occurred at the family home, three miles south of Gomez, Mar. 31st 1911. She was born in Freestone county Texas, Nov. 1, 1875; was married to our beloved Bro. Fulton, Oct. 3, 1897. Moved to this Co. in Nov. 1902. She leaves a husband and five small children, the oldest twelve, the youngest an infant.

She professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church at Gomez in Aug., 1905; was a devoted member up to her death. The church feels they have lost one of their most faithful members for her place in church was always filled unless providentially hindered. But we feel that our loss is her eternal gain. She has gone to that happy home that Jesus said he would go to prepare for his dear children. May God help us to fact that the College charges no tuition, and that only necessary expenses are charged—that is, the same expense that would be necessary if the boy remained at home. The fixed charges of a session, are $168. This includes board, laundry, room, lights, water, and fuel and a medical fee. Added to this are expenses of uniform, books and laboratory fee, which will not run over $55. Thus it will be seen that the full charges will be $223. If a boy is careful with his uniform, he will not have to buy a new one each year, and that frugality will reduce his expenses. So it is readily apparent that less than a thousand dollars will carry a student through the four years course, and will leave him three months in summer to work if he desires to do so.

The Texas Hog

The dinner bell of the nation rings out the praises of the Texas hog and he is diligently sought after by the consumers of both continents.

No domestic animal has ever made such sacrifices to meet the demands of progress as the hog. He has given half of his life and fifty-six pounds of flesh to meet the market demand for young stock. Certainly the human race has made no such sacrifice for success as this dumb brute. According to the census reports of the Federal department of agriculture the average weight of the hog has decreased from 275 pounds to 219 pounds during the past thirty years and he is now going to the market one year earlier than formerly.

1910 VALUE PER HEAD $7.70.

As a revenue producer he undoubtedly excels any other animal on the globe and enjoys the distinction of being the only animal that can swell a bank account by emptying a swill barrel. The hog is the most prolific of all domestic animals. As a rule the hog is not troubled with competitors, although King Cotton has made an effort to imitate his by-products by putting on the market a compound substitute for lard, but whenever the fat of the hog can supply the market his counterfeit quickly disappears.

The hog has thickly populated the rural districts of Texas and his rapid approach has so alarmed city councils that numerous ordinances have been passed prohibiting him from entering the city limits, but when properly dressed and cooked he quickly wins the favor of both aldermen and citizens.

The Texas swine is the most prosperous of all hogs in the United States. According to the census reports of the Federal department of agriculture on Jan. 1, 1911, the average value of hogs of all ages in Texas was $7.70, which is an increase of 372 per cent since 1870. No state in the Union can compare with us in increase in value per head of hogs. The total value of all hogs of all ages at the present time is approximately $25,000,000. We have shown an increase of $39,000 in number and $17,000,000 in value during the past decade.

Texas is one of the best hog countries on the globe and the animal fattens economically under natural conditions.

Levity aside, Neil H. D. 1912, by authority of this section, meet in session in the city of Austin, and pass efficient laws to enforce this section; providing, further, that this section shall not prevent any session of the Legislature from passing any law to enforce the same; and, providing, further, that all laws in force when this amendment is adopted, providing penalties or forfeitures in relation to the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors, shall remain in full force and effect until modified or repealed; fixing the time for the election for the adoption or rejection of said proposed constitutional amendment, directing a proclamation therefor and making certain provisions for said election and the ballot thereof, and method of voting; prescribing certain duties for the Governor of this State, and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of said election.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by striking out and repealing Section 20 thereof, and substituting in lieu of said Section 20 the following:

All voters favoring said proposed amendment shall erase the words "Against Prohibition" by making a mark through the same, and those opposing it shall erase the words "For Prohibition." If a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "For Prohibition" said amendment shall be declared adopted. If a majority of the votes shall be "Against Prohibition" said amendment shall be lost and so declared.

All the provisions of the general election laws as amended and in force at the time of said election shall govern in all respects as to the qualifications of the electors, the method of holding such election, and in all other respects, as far as such election laws can be made applicable.

SEC. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.
