TERRY GETS BLUE RIBBONS

OUR EXHIBITS WIN THREE BLUE RIBBONS.

In the Fruit Contest at the Dallas Fair, Plains Country
Moore than Holds its Own.

In Sunday's Dallas News, over in the Agricultural awards, we find that William Howard of Brownfield took three first awards in the fruit line. The black, cold inexpressive type merely says William Howard of Brownfield took first on Limber Twig apples, Elberta peaches and best collection of peaches. There is also another long list of awards mentioned from the Plains country but they practically express nothing, save that on the apple, peach and plum line, the Plains country, including the counties of Terry, Floyd, Hale and Donley, only allowed. East, North and Central Texas an occasional place. Of course when it comes down to citrus fruits, pecans and figs, they are out of our line and not being represented, other portions of Texas easily carried the day.

True the type expressed the awards in a cold black style, but there are volumes of bright exhilarating reading matter crouched between the lines. No man with an atom of love for the greatest part of Texas in which we live, and which has been so often and grossly misrepresented, can read these mere statements without a quickening pulse and a symptom akin to heart palpitation.

Farmers and business men of Terry and Yoakum county; people of the great Plains country; what does all this mean? First; it means that the famous apple center of North Texas with Gainesville as its center, has been moved in a single season to the great South Plains of Texas.

Second; it means that the blushing peach orchards of East Texas, with Tyler as its center, and the Elberta as its trade mark, it means that they have let Terry county step in and move the center, trade mark and all, three hundred miles west into a thinly populated district that has been given a slap by every Eastern dominated legislature that ever sat together in Texas.

It not only means this, but it also means that this very Terry county Texas, not content with wresting the doated and daffied Elberta from its original home, but has gone several steps forward and with one fell swooped the whole peach collection from East Texas and set it down on the South Plains.

Yes this is enough to rejoice over for a whole year, but we must not rest on our victorious arms. East Texas is thoroughly aroused and will likely put on its fighting clothes next year, and to win in war, strategy means as much as real fighting.

During the sesation of actual fighting between now and the next fair, let us use and strategy at our command. When our tanks freeze over good and hard this year, let's get a good supply of ice and bury at the roots of our favorite peach trees if not all of them, covering same with straw or cane, thus practically insuring another fruit crop. When the mulch is withdrawn late in the spring, it will leave a great moist place where most needed and a very little rain will insure a good peach crop.

We had a letter last week from Uncle Billie Howard, who is representing us at Dallas, but too late to publish. It said in part:

WE WANT YOU TO VISIT US WHEN YOU COME TO LUBBOCK

If you want to buy something or have something to sell, we are at your service. Our stock is unusually complete, including Grain and Hay, Flour and Mill Products of all kinds; Stock salts, Cedar Posts, Wire; also the best grades Nigger Head, Maitland and New Mexico Coal at $7 to $9 per ton. FREE WAGON YARD TO CUSTOMERS.

"We have a fine exhibit, and would pay you to come just to see the Terry and Yoakum county exhibits. We get the attention of the passing multitudes. Will write more later."

To the prospector who has been contemplating a move to Terry, now is the time to come; land will never be cheaper, but such a development for fruits means it will double and thribble in a short while. Get on the ground floor of the banner peach county; the Blue Ribbon county.

LATTER:—Another letter from Uncle Billie as we go to press says "we are in the swim. Terry and Yoakum have just taken a red on display of maize and kafir."

So this makes three blues and a red. Rah! for Terry and Yoakum.

Teacher, Preacher, Editor; the Big Three.

I doubt if there are three professions known to man that promote harmony, education and economy as earnestly, and persistently as do the three above mentioned. Why should they not? Look at them from an unbiased standpoint and see first who they are, what they do and how they live.

They live in luxury. They all own homes and great automobiles; they all live at ease and have nothing to worry about; they all take trips abroad every year, and there is the reason for the good they do. If that is all the truth, we never told a lie in our life. The facts are the Teacher, Preacher and Editor do more work, and get less money for it than any other three important occupations on earth today. They are the real makers of the civilization of the world, and not one in a thousand gets as much money for his labor as the ordinary brick layer, and the three first referred to, work week in and week out while the brick layer works eight hours each day. Well, who is to blame for the condition? That is a question that we are unable to answer, unless it proves itself that when the Teacher, Preacher or the Editor has accumulated a bunch of money, he invariably quits the job and turns it over to some unfortunate broke Cuss who can't do any better. Do we always assist the very party who are most responsible for our success? Or do we forget who was responsible for the success we may have attained.

The average Teacher, Preacher and all the Editors are looked upon by most people (or most people would be glad to have them believe they looked upon them) as a child of charity, and willing to accept something in a charitable way. We had a fellow today offer us a dollar for the Review, and he told us that he cared nothing for it, but wanted to help us out that much, and we handed his dollar back and told him that if for that reason he was subscribing for the County paper, we would refuse to take the money, that when we went to begging we would get a monke and a tin can and stand on the street corners and grind an organ and do the job up yarn. He make an opology, and said that he had just got into such a habit that he spoke unthoughtedly, and finally persuaded us to take the dollar, which we did with thanks and promised value received for the same or would refund it any time we fell short of that obligation. Many others who give to schools or churches, give in the same way "just to help out" when the truth is, they are receiving more benefits from what is invested in the Teacher, Preacher or Editor than in any other way they can invest. Right here the Review will say that we are glad and proud of every dollar's worth of patronage we receive, but for the respect we have for our profession we have never yet taken a dollar, when it was offered us "just to help along" and when we have to do so we will quit the job. I am sorry for the man who looks on three of the greatest professions known to man, Teaching, Preaching and Editing as charity. It takes money to equip for either of the professions; it takes time to develop the ability to make good, and it takes iron nerve to stay on the job at some stages of the game.

WE WOULD SAY TO THE TERRY CO. TRADE

That our stock of coal is complete, and we are ready to fill you bins while the weather is warm and roads are good. It is a recognized fact that our woven, barb and slick wires are the best money can buy. A full line of Post and stays, stock salt, grain and hay. Come; let us reason together and trade some. on pecks half bushels etc., which left us entirely out, as what we had at the Fair was in the head. But we are living to learn. Really we did not expect any awards at all. We were well pleased with a favorable mention from the Dallas News, but the novice of judging pecks instead of heads will put us on our guard, and next year will see us on hand with such cereals put up in all forms.

After a long series of debates arguments and persuasions, the Herald has prevailed on the business men of our little city to give the white, chalky rock in the draw, a trial on the sidewalks. It is being hauled in and thrown into framings where the large chunks are broken with a sledge and the whole mass leveled up nicely. Water from the hose is then turned on at intervals of at least once a day, wherupon the rocky substance begins to slack like lime and settle. This experiment has been conducted by the Brownfield Hardware Company for a week and it is now almost as hard as concrete, but they will finish up with a thin coating of the latter.

"The Only Thing That Will Relieve Neuralgia."

The piercing pains of Neuralgia, which often follows a bad cold or La Grippe, are frequently almost unbearable and few medicines afford any relief to the sufferer.

"I am a rural mail carrier and have been a user of the Dr. Miles medicines for years.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills can't be beaten. They are the only thing I have found that will relieve my neuralgia and I have tried most everything, besides medicine from the doctor. I am willing to tell anyone what the Anti-Pain Pills did for me."

CHARLES HILDERBRANDT,
Box 205 Woodvill, Ohio

If you, like Mr. Hilderbrandt, "have tried most everything" in vain, why not do as he did, fight your aches and pains with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Let the pills bear the brunt of the battle. No matter how stubborn the contest, they will come out victorious.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills stand on their record, which is a long list of cures extending back a generation.

Druggists everywhere sell them. If first package fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.

Winter is coming on in great big icy chunks at a time, but Terry county people have put up plenty of chawing for the four-footed animals and lots of popcorn, gubers and 'taters for the two-footed ones, and the back yards are full of coal, grubs and chips. Let'er snow

According to the new law, people have to take out license to hunt hereafter, but County Clark Price informs us that so far, he has not had an applicant. Our notion is, that the law was never inteneed to protect the game but to make a rich man's hunt and a poor man's work. Next thing we know, we will have to secure license to visit our wife's kin-folks.

Terry county did not take any awards on corn, maize or kaffir, for tke reason, it seems, that we did not have it put up in the right way. Awards were given

Hon. Tom Ball has withdrawn from the race for United States Senator. Possibly he is not a politition after all.

Now that we have a mill in our midst, we can showsome mill products at the next Dallas Fair and they go together. We want to have corn, maize and kaffir meal and chops on display.

The brick work on the First National Bank building, at Tahoka, is completed and workmen are busy finishing the inside preparatory to installing the fixtures, which will be both modern and beautiful.

Wonder why H. Bascum Thomas isn't in the race for something? We have a notion that he is waiting for some scandle to develope, as he has a hankering for that sort of a platform, but maybe later some one high up will make an awkward step and —out comes Bascum.

The buying Power of $1.75

A little money sometimes buys a good deal. For instance, take the subscription price of The Youth's Companion for a year—$1.75. If all the good reading in the 52 weekly issues of the paper were published in book form, according to its kind, it would make about thirty volumes of fiction, science, essays by famous writers, household management and economics, sports and pastimes for boys, natural history, anecdotes, humor, etc. The serial stories alone would fill several volumes. Among these is Ralph Paine's great story of the Boxer Rebellion in China, "The Cross and the Dragon," another is by J. W. Schultz, who was adopted by the Blackfeet when a boy. It is called "The Quest for the Fish-Dog Skin." Another is a glorious girls' story by C. A. Stephens, called "Julia Sylvester." It is a story of a "Mercer" girl in the pioneer days of Oregon and Washington. It will cost you nothing to send for the beautiful Announcement of The Companion for 1912, and we will send with it sample copies of the paper. Do not forget that the new subscriber for 1912 receives a gift of The Companions Calendar for 1912, lithographed in ten colors and gold, and all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911 free from the time the subscription is received.

Only $1.75 now, but on January 1, 1912, the price will be advanced to $2.00.

Texas built on an average of two school houses per day last year, at a cost of $3,000,000. In this we lead the Union. It is criminal to spend such a sum unwisely. It is not only a waste of money, but affects the general efficiency of the schools and the physical, mental and moral welfare of the children.

An analysis of the scholastic population for the present school year shows that there are 199,915 negro children of scholastic age for whom the state appropriates a total of $1,359,422, and that there are 791,494 children of other nationalities for whom there is apportioned $5,382,159.20, making a total apportionment of the State Available School funds

Good Roads.

A Wisconsin farmer, who recently became a good roads convert, tell the cause of his conversion and while his experience may not be duplicated in Texas, yet the point that he makes applies to any State. He had one thousand bushels of potatoes during the recent potato panic which he was holding for a good price. An offer of 92 cents was made in March, but it happened to be a rainy season in Wisconsin and he was unable to get to market. The roads finally dried out, but by the time he got to town, the price had fallen 30 cents.

We notice in the Lynn County News that Miss Wee Bell Hargett has been especially complimented for her efficiency in the primary department of the Tahoka public school, by the county Superintendent. We are not a bit surprised as Brownfield always furnishes the best. Also we will venture that their other two Terry county teachers are making good.

We find that there were still other mistakes in reporting the awards at the Terry County Fair. Grandma Proctor should have gotten credit for bell tomatoes and carrots which were awarded to T. DeShazo and A. V. Taylor, respectively. Grandman is a good gardner and sold vegetables from it nearly every other day during the garden season. She worked hard to be represented at the fair, and we are glad to make this correction.

Uncle Jack Coble hiked out early Tuesday morning in his hack for Lubbock in order to be and hand for the street parade. He was accompanied by Geo. W. Neill, T. J. Price and Tom May. It develops that the only thing that occurred to marr the pleasure of this jolly quartet was that Uncle Jack fell down and busted his fist; not that he looked too much on the glass while it was red or ambercolored, for Lubbock is a DRY town, but simply for the reason that he was in a hurry to get to the picture show where the man was yelling through a phonograph horn and—he wasn't used to concrete sidewalks anyway.

Dairy Wisdom.

The true value of the dairy cow is by necessity fixed by the amount of fat there is in her milk and what it costs to produce it.

The largest milkers are the greatest eaters. This rule is one that you can tie to and follow without danger of being deceived.

The first step in the process of better breeding is to secure and use a sire that inherits from proved ancestors the prepotent power to impress dairy qualities on his offspring.

Breeding heifers too young often results in a dwarf breed.

Milk the cows clean every time if you would keep up a uniform flow of milk.

The percentage of fat in the milk of a cow is evidently fixed by two things—viz, breed and individuality.

With the year around dairying good stables are necessary, where the cows can be fed and milked in a comfortable place.

Getting After Hawks.

A young farmer near Dover, Tenn., has devised a unique device for catching hawks. He has erected a pole about thirty-five feet high and set a steel trap on top. This being a new perch, the hawks invariably fly to it.

The Foreign Dollar.

The foreign dollar is the biggest dollar on the financial horizon. It is the most powerful factor in the world's progress and it moves the star of civilization at will. It follows the line of least resistance and prosperity waits in attendance upon it. It is the most voluminous and congenial of our currency. The foreign dollar is a cautious, leisurely investor, loves good company, is seldom found alone and is quickly woven into the industrial fibre of the State. It soon learns to speak our language, play our games and drink our drinks, and when its presence is no longer desired, it quickly departs. Only gigantic enterprises appeal to it and wherever it goes, it builds empires. It is the development dollar.

The essential element to our progress is the volume of money available for investment. To develop our agricultural, industrial and mineral resources will require an investment of ten billion dollars. Our production will not exceed consumption more than fifty million dollars per annum, which is hardly sufficient to run our errands and to no perceptible extent can it take part in the development of the State's resources. This is a work that must be done by the foreign dollar. We do not increase our wealth when we borrow from each other but when we negotiate a loan on the outside of the State, we bring money into Texas, or when foreign capital moves to Texas, we have increased our wealth. It is the foreign dollar that must develop Texas.

The Need of Cheap Money.

An illustration of the importance of cheap money to our prosperity may be obtained when we consider that of the total value of all farms which is $1,822,713,000, only $583,268,160 is owned in fee simple by the farmers operating the farms and the balance of $1,239,444,840, is mortgaged or operated by tenant farmers. Reduce the rate of interest one cent per annum on this enormous sum and we have a saving of $12,000,000. Of course the tenant farmer does not owe for the farms, but it is his ambition to acquire the property and he is, as a rule, a waiting customer for money to buy a home and cheap money will improve his opportunity for buying a farm and lighten his burden. The Texas farmer needs cheap money.

GOMEZ DOTS

Mr. Spears, who lives 12 miles west of town, was quite seriously sick last Monday night. Dr. Maddux was called out there. He is better at this writing.

Mr. Jones, of Sterling county moved through town Thursday enroute to his land three miles North of town. He owns the West half of the Shields place. We extend a cordial welcome to our new neighbors.

Mr. Joe Lane was at the Hotel Monday night on his return from Cisco.

Rev. Lovelady and son, accompanied by D. B. Watson, left here Tuesday morning for Post City.

Presiding Elder Terry, was in town last Monday night and went to Lubbock Tuesday morning in Walter Gainer's car.

Our gin has been running on full time this week. Ninety bales of cotton ginned up to now and still they come.

Rev. Thomas preached at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock; also in the afternoon.

The young folks enjoyed a singing at the Baptist church Sunday night.

A. P. Moore says he believes in patronizing home industries; consequently he has all his job printing done in Brownfield.

Tom Yeats was in town Sunday. We didn't ask his business but we think if anyone is interested a certain young lady might enlighten them.

A party at I. H. Hudson's on Thursday night given in honor of Miss Gay Broughton, before she leaves to begin her school at Slide, was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Horace Adams and daughter, Miss Clemmie, went to Brownfield Thursday.

Mr. Green left for Lubbock Wednesday morning after a load of freight.

Mrs. Robert Holgate and children, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. De-Shazo.

Mr. Rutherford and family, moved into the Lewis house last week for the benefit of the school.

We have learned that Mr. Jones who we said was moving to his place, was moving into one of the Guy Taylor houses, where he will remain during the school term.

Mesdames Capell of Dublin and Cooper of Gordon, sisters of Mrs. Simon Holgate, were visiting her last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Holgate, accompanied by their visitors, went out to the Youngblood place Tuesday to fish.

No school this week as the farmers announced that they just had to have help to gather the cotton; so professor gave a weeks holiday and all the juvenile population are pulling the fleecy staple. My! how important the average 10 year old boy eels when he announces that he has picked 150-lbs., and at 1 ct., per pound it is indeed good wages.

Mr. Eubanks moved into the Will Allen house today, so there is just one more house to rent in Gomez, and if you want it better speak quick or it will be taken.

West Wind.

Will Alf Bell made a flying business trip to Lubbock and Tahoka this week.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did." Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

and for the sake of self respect and for the respect of the other fellow, when you pay either one a dollar for duties performed, or to be performed, don't mention "just to help out." If I was a preacher I would cuss when a good brother made such a remark, and as a teacher I would swear a streak and as an editor I would simply refuse to take the money and explain to the Ignoramus who offers it that I am not a Child of Charity.

I will add again that there are no other professions on earth that work so hard; that are so little appreciated or respected, and so much underpaid as the Teacher, Preacher and the Editor.—Crosbyton Review.

Here is our hand and heart Bro., for the Herald seconds the motion and calls for a vote. It is indeed interesting to contemplate the insignificance of some people's ideas, including a few editors. One has to almost use an X-ray to find them.

Some two or three weeks ago, we read in one of our exchanges where a subscriber had called in to renew and announced that he wouldn't give two bits for the paper, but "just wanted to help the town." The editor thought it funny and took the dollar, for instead of scoring the brazen insult good fashion, he merely said "next." Just such editors (?) are more responsible than any other one thing for the low estimate placed upon the editorial profession. There is still another line of customers, if plentiful would cause many a poor editor to try the rough-on-rat route. We speak of the fellow who gets away behind on your books then comes in to argue that he knows his subscription is paid up to date. The Herald encountered such a one not so very long ago, and told him that when we got ready to cheat or steal, a few hundred or thousand bucks may tempt us, but that a matter of one dollar wasn't quit as big as a wagon wheel yet.

But teacher, preacher and editor, isn't it pleasant after coming into contact with the like of one or two above, you meet three or four others that encourages you on the way, and when he hands you the coin he smiles and makes you know that your efforts for mankind are appreciated by him. Though he does not say so, he is the real man that is "just helping the town."

Yes, there be some very pleasant people in this old world after all.

TERRY COUNTY GETS ITS FIRST SNOW.

Last year we received our first snow before we did a frost, and this year the stunt was repeated, and on exactly the same date, October 21st. If this is any sign of a duck's nest we are not wise to it and if any reader should investigate further into the matter, we would advise them to consult Mr. Lick or some other variety of weather prognosticators.

The wind blew almost a gale from the northeast all day last Friday, which was very damp and indicated rain, though no one said so—this being West Texas—and about 10:30 p. m. sleet began falling, and at 12 o'clock Friday night (we were awake) the ground was entirely covered

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

VII. JESTING.

KING Henry V. paid his fool a princely sum for his services and King Richard II. knighted his royal jester, but in no instances were the jokers given power to govern. Ability to perform the service was one of the first qualifications in mediaeval government, but under our form of government a candidate can be elected for Railroad Commissioner with scarcely more than a cussing knowledge of the railroad business and we may elect a Comptroller who can hardly add a column of figures and these illustrations could be multiplied indefinitely. Our queer campaign antics would make a benighted king roar with laughter, as well as make the judicious weep.

THE KING'S JESTER.

We can gridiron the State with railroads and dot it with factories at happy homes by electing to the Railroad Commission and to the Legislature men who can feel the mighty surge of civilization as it beats against our border line; who can see the world forces of progress marshalling in the dim horizon of the future and who know how to lay corner stones of empires. Texas needs great men.

with snow. Sometime between then and dawn, the weather moderated and the snow was gone by 10 o'clock Saturday.

This little snow with what rain and sleet that fell, gave us a very good top season.
