A TRIP TO HOCKLEY COUNTY

The Editor Enjoys an Outing in Good Company.

On last Sunday morning Lence Price came by bright and early on his way to the Primrose community to visit his girl, but Lence is not selfish, and therefore we did not feel a bit surprised when he asked us—us includes our wife and ourself—to go with him to see his girl, which we accepted with thanks.

We don't want Lence to know we said so, but we wanted to see the country and the other folks as well as his girl, although he has a lovely girl who is worth going some to see.

We had not gone far in that direction until we entered a country altogether new to us, but a very lovely one withal, and as a whole that part of Terry county possess the cream of our farmers, as is evidenced by the clean fields with faultlessly straight rows, big feed ricks, cribs of corn and other cereals, beautifully kept premises, fat stock etc. If you have any pessimistic ideas in your head it would certainly ease your pain to take a trip through that section. Why they have enough feed in that Needmore and Primrose country to feed all of Terry county, people, stock and all. The very birds of the air seemed to sing "prosperity" and we know positively that we did not notice the birds and their songs particularly just because we were going to help a young man see his girl. Not a bit.

We arrived at the home of Mr. Lee Cowan about noon and smelt sausages and back-bones cooking way before we arrived, and as this home is just across the line of Terry and Hockley counties we stopped—not because we were just across the line, or that we smelt hog cooking, but because it was the home of the particular young lady we started out to see and of course we here unloaded.

During the afternoon we spent the time very pleasantly with this excellent gentleman and entertaining family and viewed his splendid young orchard, shade trees etc. Mr. Cowan has one of the thriftiest young orchards in this part of the country, and besides the usual canning and preserving done during the summer, they have their Xmas apples put up from their own orchard. When a family can do that they are beginning to live. He has out nine bales of cotton and some more to gather, besides a nice lot of swine of all sizes and a nice herd of fat cattle, plenty of horses etc. You might as well talk to an oak about going back East as this man. What does he want to go back for anyway? He can raise just as much cotton out here, more and better hogs and other live stock. The health of his family is almost perfect. He has water almost chemically pure. He has plenty of room, good rich level land to till and his family is content and happy. Why this here editor never thought of a high protective tariff nor of high cost of living while up there, and we don't suppose Mr. Cowan ever does.

What's the use when he has all he wants and plenty more growing. He's progressive too, for a big pile of lumber lay in his yard which means a bigger and nicer dwelling, but an energetic man can't be anything but progressive in this part of country—even the extreme lazy are some times seen to pat a foot, or bat an eye.

On our way up there we noticed that some farmers are already preparing for another crop. We noticed the soil already tilled on Mr. G. A. Whitley's choice farm, but he is always abreast of the foremost, but he has keen competition for the first place in that community, for he has such rivals as W. H. Gist, Wm. Howard and Jim Lewis to deal with.

We didn't get home till nearly 11 p. m. Sunday night and we thought of our summer's wages on our way back. It was cold.

GETS THIGH BROKEN

Son of O. M. Daniel, Victim of Roping Contests.

Just after Public school closed yesterday afternoon, several of the little boys gathered at O. M. Daniel's and began practicing roping one another, this being a favorite sport with all western boys.

The boys were passing Geo. Cardwell like cattle or horses and he was practicing putting the twine over the hoofs, and was very successful in lassoing little six year old B. L. Daniel, but the jerk light as it was; it was sufficient to break his thigh.

Dr. J. W. Ellis, was called immediately and with the able(?) assistance of Bert French, put the wounded member in plaster paris. The little fellow is resting well at this writing.

It is not sufficient to dwell the danger or even cruelty of this sport, or try to get the boys to desist from the practice, as we understand that practically every parents in town has already lectured the "would be cowboys", backed up with a threat sufficiently forceful to keep lariat ropes hanging peacefully in the barns for a good long time.

Rowe-Carpenter

A quiet little wedding took place last Sunday night at the Clerk's office at 8 o'clock p. m. The contracting parties were Mr. E. S. Rowe, a promising young lawyer of Plains, and Miss Susie Carpenter, the charming daughter of the sheriff of Yoakum county. The short, but impressive ceremony was said by Judge Geo. W. Neill, in the presence of the following witnesses:

Misses James, Hamilton, Hill and Hutcheson, and Messrs; Price, James, Adams, Powell, and Bert and Henry French.

These young people are prominent in Plains society and the Herald wishes them a smooth path along the journey of life.

M and M Club.

Mrs. W. E. Ellis was hostess to the Maids and Matrons at her home Saturday afternoon Dec. 2nd. After the usual Club business a most instructive lesson on Coriolanus was conducted by Mrs. J. L. Randal.

Last but not least of the afternoon pleasures were the delicious refreshments of sandwiches, pickles and tea. The Club adjourned to meet Dec. 16 with Mrs. V. E. Hargett.

Messrs. J. R. Hill and Tom May were visitors in the city of Lubbock this week.

WE WOULD SAY TO THE TERRY CO. TRADE and was sent on its way; shall I say rejoicing? More likely re- pining. After long jumps it ar- rives a useful gem, on the shores of the sea of life. It has learned first that "it is not the only peb- ble on the beech." If it should happen to be a gem, it has found out this; that a moss covered dia- mond looks just like a moss-cov- ered quartz, or moss-coered agate or moss-covered anything else. But the polished diamond may be seen and enjoyed afar, and the stronger the light placed upon it and the nearer it is brought the more brilliant it be- comes; while the polished quartz, agate or polished anything else is different and "whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Literally speaking, Mr Taft may be far sighted. He thought he saw a political upheval in Can- ada. Was the ground shaking under his own feet, or what might it have been? He thought he saw Canada at the parting of the ways—was it the United States? He thinks he will be elected president in 1012, judg- ing by his past prophesies—what might it be? Mr. Taft would do well to put on his convex glasses and have another look at things.

He probably thinks
Land slides in Eurasia,
Cold waves in the Arctic sea,
But all's well, weather fair
In the land of the free.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

cured Mrs. C. C. Gokey, of a stub- born case of heart disease, such as thousands are now suffering with. Read what she says:

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had grown so weak that it was impossible for me to do thirty minutes work in a whole day. I suffered intense pains in my left side and under the left shoulder blade, I could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath that I thought I should never be able to take a full breath again. The least excitement would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half-bottle of the Heart Remedy be- fore I could see a marked change in my condition. I began to sleep well, had a good appetite, and im- proved so rapidly that when I had taken six bottles I was completely cured.

Horace Randal carried a bale of what is known as the bank cotton to Tahoka last week, and received nearly a quarter of a cent above the average price of common cotton. We noticed a sample of this cotton at the bank and while no sort of an expert, we could readily see by compar- ison with ordinary cotton that it's fiber was much finer and con- tained a silky gloss, though the staple was scarcely longer than the ordinary cotton. The Brown- field State Bank distributed fifty bushel of this cotton among the farmers last spring because it was recommended for its small amount of foliage and early maturing qualities. The farmers have taken care to carefull save all the seed and there be enough to go around pretty well next year. It is reported that W. B. Carson was so careful with his bushel of seed that he got a 515

lb. bale and have plenty of seed next year for himself and may be some for his neighbors.

A rolling stone gathers no moss, but it becomes polished. The jagged edges are worn down so that it can rest easily at al- most any place, and not become a constant source of annoyance to all who come in contract with it. It becomes clear and brilliant and reflects its surroundings with the vanity and color of the gem. A diamond in the rough is valuable, but the polished dia- mond is more beautiful and more useful.

The rolling stone at one time lay oblivious even in the midst of turbulent streams of activity. Life surged by and hurried on, and the pebble grew green—but more likely with envy than with moss. Finally the stone was moved from some force without

Red Cross Seals

Mrs. O. B. Colquitt yesterday received a gift the intrinsic value of which was only one cent, but which she declared she would not part with for less than $1,000, and then only on the condition that the $1,000 should be given to charity. The gift was a red cross Christmas seal, the first seal received in Texas this year. It came on the back of a letter addressed to the Texas anti-Tuberculosis Association, state agent for the sale of Red cross Christmas seals in Texas. The letter was from the national Anti-Tuberculosis association office in Washington, and announced that the first consignment of 750,000 seals had been shipped to Texas. Dr. L. B. Bibb, secretary of the Texas organization, conceived the idea of presenting the first Christmas seal to the first lady of Texas as a recognition of her great interest in the work of prevention of tuberculosis and in all benevolent work. A committee was appointed to make the presentation consisting of Dr. Ralph Steiner, president state Board of health, chairman; Miss Kate Daffan and Dr. L. B. Bibb, of Austin, and Mr. R. J. Newton of San Antonio. Dr Steiner, as chairman of the committee presented the seal and predicated that it was the forerunner of more than 1,000,000 Red Cross seals which would be sold in Texas before Christmas to secure funds for anti-tuberculosis work.

Dr. Steiner said that in some states and cities the first seal received was sold at auction and brought as high as $1,000. The Texas workers preferred to present the first seal to the first lady of the State as an evidence of their appreciation of her deep interest in all philanthropic work.

Mrs Colquitt expressed her than as to the committee and her appreciation of the gift. She said "tho' this stamp be valued at only one cent, I will hold it more highly. It stands for so much that is noble in humanity that no monetary value can be placed upon it. It represents to me the unselfish devotion of the members of your organization and your efforts to answer that world-old question, 'am I my brother's keeper?'"

Governor Colquitt endorsed his wife's sentiments briefly, and thanked the committee and through them the association, for its work and expressed the the deepest interest therein.

The success of the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals became assured yesterday, when Mrs. Colquitt accepted the chairmanship of the general committee and the direction of the campaign.

Mrs. Colquitt is now appointing local committees in every city throughout the state to manage the sale of the Christmas seals.

Mrs. V. H. Trammell has been asked to serve as chairman here.

The  Split
Log Drag
In Grand Old Texas

THE proper maintenance of a public highway is as important as its construction. It costs a few thousand dollars per mile to build macadam highways but by the intelligent use of a split log drag, dirt roads can be kept in good condition at a nominal expense. The drag can be built for five dollars, and operated at a cost of from $4.00 to $6.00 per day. The road mileage which a split log drag can keep in proper condition varies according to the character of the road and the amount of rainfall, but the average mileage assigned a split log drag is 12 miles. The average cost of operating the drags, according to the Federal Agricultural estimate, is $3.20 per mile.

There Are 656 Split Log Drags in Operation in Texas.

In some cases the drags are built and operated at the expense of the county; in others the county furnishes the drags and the farmers along the route operate them.

Every County May not be able to permanently Improve its Public Highways, but every County can operate Split Log Drags.

The Pacific Monthly.

The Pacific Monthly of Portland, Oregon, is publishing a series of splendid articles about the various industries in the West. The September number contained an article on Success with Cherries. The October number had a beautiful illustrated article on Success in Growing Apples. Other articles shortly to be published are Success with Live Stock, Success in Growing Walnuts, Success with Fodder Crops. These articles are written by experts, and are not only authoritative, but very interesting.

In addition to the above, The Pacific Monthly each month publishes a large number of clean, wholesome, readable stories and strong independent articles on the question of the day.

The price of The Pacific Monthly is $1.50 a year. To introduce it to new readers, it will be sent for six months for $0.50 if this paper is mentioned.

A Letter.

Lubbock, Texas, 11 28-11.
To every citizen of Terry county: In about ten days I will have for distribution 200 catalogs full of good values in my line and I would be pleased to have one in every home in the county. If you have or have not a mail order catalog drop me a postal, phone or call in person for one of these. They will cost you nothing and their frequent use will save you dollars. Make a comparison with other catalogs and note the saving. Give me your order. Save the trouble and expense of money orders or drafts and look to me for the prompt and proper handling of your order as well as the safe arrival of the goods; you will find this arrangement more satisfactory than dealing with strangers at a distance as well as less expensive. Every article shown in my catalog will be shipped from one point, hence it will not be necessary that you buy more than you want to make a shipment as is the case with regular mail order houses that ship from a dozen or more factories. Every article shown will be sold under an absolute guarantee of satisfaction.

Can you conceive of any reason why I should not sell you as cheaply as any catalog house? Have you any reason for not giving me your order? You take no chances and need pay only a part of the purchase price before goods are received and if not in good order and entirely satisfactory your partial payment will be refunded on the spot. No monkey business, delay or trouble in returning goods. Write, phone or call for a catalog in about ten days. They are free.

FURNITURE and UNDERTAKING.
LUBBOCK, TEXAS.

The best farmer is the man who bestows the most thought and care on his soil, keeping it up to the highest state of fertility. Also, if he is an animal farmer, he must do the same by his animals.

To Keep Hogs Where They Belong.
This will illustrate a contrivance which I am using, says a correspondent of the National Stockman and Farmer. It becomes necessary sometimes to pasture adjoining fields with cattle and horses, leaving the hogs in either field. My plan is this: Nail boards from the ground up, say about sixteen inches, at or upon the main gate posts. Then plant two stub posts, say about fourteen inches from gate posts, nailing boards to them also, same height. The principal is this: The cattle and horses can step over or between these obstructions, while the hogs cannot jump them. They can go through or between, but in order to jump our hogship must "square" himself, as this last arrangement prevents him from taking this square position.

Shutting Off Drafts.
Every crack, crevice or hole in or about the windows in which plants are kept during winter should be closed by pasting paper over the smaller ones, stuffing with soft paper or rags the larger and wherever it can be employed filling with well beaten putty.

While the plump little eight pound hen turkey or twelve pound gobbler which you had for your Thanksgiving dinner would not make so much of show as the forty pound gobbler which adorned the White House table, you may derive consolation from the fact that it wasn't so tough either, as the big bird in question was a patriarch of the flock and had spurs two and a half inches long.

see the editor of the Herald. He may be able to save you money on them.

Mr. Harrison, of the Sligo country, was in this week and purchased a gasoline engine from the Brownfield Hardware Co., which he will use to thresh and bale his broom-corn crop. We learn that he produced 31-2

Mr. Bernice McClung, of Springtown, was here Saturday and Sunday on a prospecting tour, and visited his uncle W. G. Hardin while here. He owns 80 acres of good land in Terry county. He will probably buy a tailor shop at Lubbock and locate his family there.

Jim Walker of the Groves Chappel neighborhood interested in peanut planting in Terry county next year. We will write an article on this important industry next week and ask those who raised them this year to contribute something on their culture and harvest in the Herald columns.

Prof. Hunter returned Monday from Plainview where he went to attend the district teacher's institute. He informed us that there wasn't much doing, but a new meeting is called for Tahoka next time, at which place it is hoped that some business will be transacted.

Joe Fisher, one of our prominent and prosperous farmers, was in town this week with two fine, dressed porkers which netted something like 250 pounds each, and brought him nine cents per pound, or a total of something like $45. These shoats were fattened on this year's corn raised right here in Terry county. Yes you can make a living in Terry county, then some.

Jno. S. Powell, our thriving, sheep man, sent us the coin for another year's worth of the Herald and with it came a note saying: "Find check for $1; we can not do without the Herald. It has become a part of our family." Such words of encouragement go a long way toward encouraging an editor, and if he has any vim at all, such a boost will put him to even greater efforts.

The Wood-Pile Philosopher.

Mr. Erastus Johnson, the only colored man in Wobrook-in-the-Hills, has thought out many of the secrets of easing the toil that he knows best, and, is ever ready to impart them to others.

"When they comes to me for advice," he said recently to one of the summer campers' "I alwus tell 'em it depends on what their profession is. If they've arrived at the dignity o' sawin' wood, I alwus tell 'em to saw the biggest. "If they asks why, an' they mostly does, I say, 'So's you'll only have the little sticks to saw when you gets tuckered out.' "An' I'll tell ye now," concluded Erastus, graciously, quiet as if the camper had ask for "pointers" on a back-yard job, "it's jes' the same with pilin'; put the big sticks to the bottom. It's mighty bilious exercise a-liftin' of 'em to the top."

To Our Customers.

We again thank you for your patronage, but time has come for settlement. All knowing themselves indebted to us in any way will please come in and make some arrangements for settlement.

Yours for business
J. T. May.

Interest charged on past due accounts.

The fellow who goes with hair and beard untrimmed, dirt on his neck and in his ears, belongs exactly to the same class as the woman who goes about the house in a dirty, slovenly old wrapper when one neat and clean would not cost a cent more. Both are sinners and should repent—should clean up and try to make themselves as winsome and attractive as possible. A little gumption and the same amount of soap won't remove freckles, cure a hair lip or make over ugly features, but they will go a long way toward making a pretty unlovely individual look clean and presentable.

More boys go to the bad every year because they are not made to feel that they amount to something than from any other cause. The ball is started to rolling when they are little fellows and treated as if they were all round nuisances, and it's kept up until the job is finished. Those who have a hand in this process of degeneration apparently forget that the boys (and girls) are the best asset the country has, not excepting all the blue ribbon winners at the big stock shows. Give the boys something to do and try to cultivate in them a feeling that they amount to something in the busy workaday life and many of them will be saved from failure and utter misery.

Roughly a horse will eat as much hay per day during the year as it weighs in hundred pounds; hence a horse weighing 1,200 pounds would eat twelve times 365, or 4,380 pounds of hay. This estimate is on the supposition that a fair grain ration is fed. If this were increased or diminished a trifle less or more hay would need to be fed.

Sheep Earn Their Keep.
Sheep are not found on farms as frequently as they should be. Many farmers do not know the advantages of keeping a few sheep or this would not be true. Try a few well bred sheep and you will be convinced of their value as a farm animal.

Guard the Family Health

Health is often endangered by unsanitary cooking utensils. Physicians have found that cancer is caused by enamel ware chipping off and irritating the stomach.

If you have children or invalids in the family beware of cheap cooking utensils that crack, scale, peel off, tarnish and rust. Disease germs lurk in the worn places and there is further danger of tainting the food. Health is too precious to take risks with it.

Be safe. Use

Pure Spun Aluminum Cooking Utensils

which are guaranteed for 15 years constant service and will never spoil food nor endanger health.

This new ware is featherweight, beautiful, easy to clean—does not tarnish nor rust. The slight extra cost is more than made up by long service and absolute safety.

Look For Trade mark on Every Piece

IS THE HERALD TOO "BREEZY?"

A Question Answered. We Don't Have to Lie.

Every once in a while a rumor reaches our ears of an opinion dwelling in some fertile(?) mind back East to the effect that the Herald is a windy sheet. In other words, as they would say in Congress, the Easterners believe the Herald Prevaricates occasionally, or to plain like Texas people, they believe the Herald "lies" out right. Just why such an opinion should exist we can't fathom.

Occasionally one of our home people refer to the Herald as the "Bladder" but then we don't pay any attention to that as he was probably the lad who blew up the Bladder, without taking the pains to get a quill. Any way he reads the paper thoroughly or he would not know what the contents, and we had rather he would read our paper and call it whatever he pleases than to hear it slyly called "gun.waddin'." A paper that is read by the people is at least a good advertising medium, if it has no other influence for good in the community.

As to the breezy idea abroad, we haven't the faintest idea at this distance just how it slipped the hobble and started and we wont even try to corral it, as its done below the cap-rock. However not long since, a young man who had just returned from Rotan, said that a gentleman asked him while in that city, if the Herald editor wasn't "windy." Upon being informed that the Herald stayed in the bounds of reason and truth, this inquiring gentleman had no further comment, but probably retained a large portion of his original opinion.

The only comment we wish to offer to the above, is, that the gentleman probably never visited Terry county, and therefore does not know that Terry is as far the superior of the Rotan country, as the Nile valley is the clay gullies of sunny Tennessee. He cannot poor mortal, realize that while the people of that country are squeezing and mortgaging everything mortgagable to get thru the winter and start another crop, Terry county farmers are toiling early and late harvesting the one just made and wondering if they will get through in time to start another crop.

No we dont have to get windy about Terry county as it produces the evidences of fruitfulness without any boasting whatever, but it is second nature for an appreciative body who has been gaining strength and enjoying the exquisite flavor of her products to talk her enomous proportions. She gets "blue ribbons" pinned on her lovely bosom to prove her worthiness.

We have heard of other windy rumors, but treat them as a huge joke. It is those who have never feasted their optics upon the regal greatness of our county, who think they know the most about it, and class us with the Ananias club. Terry produces the goods and is willing to show reasonable people; but those who have eyes that see not, we would advise that they let the little windy racket rest.

J. V. Newsom handed us a check this week which puts his time more than one year in advance, or up to Vol. 9 No. 7. Such a subscriber is a beauty and a joy forever. Let others be a joy, today.

There's many a man engaged in tilling the soil who is wont to poke fun at the agricultural college professors and lead pencil farming in general, has got up at 4 a. m. to do chores and has wound up with them at bedtime and has literally grown gray headed at the farming business, who has not up to the present time learned the simplest and most important truth in agriculture—that a fellow can't keep skinning his land year after year in the raising and selling of raw grain products and not have his good acres become destitute and impoverished any more than he can lift himself by pulling on his boot straps or make water run uphill. The fact is if the lead pencil were used by more farmers in simple processes of addition and subtraction in the several lines of farm work there would be more profits on paper and in the bank at the end of the year.

The state of Wisconsin has a law which went into effect Dec. 1 of the present year which makes it unlawful to sell or otherwise transfer any bull, sow or heifer over six months old for other than breeding purposes or to export from the state or slaughter any animals unless the same shall have within a period of two years prior to such sale been tuberculin tested by some competent person approved by the state sanitary live stock board and been found free from tuberculosis. This law, which should be used as a pattern in other states, is supplemented by a state dairy law which makes unlawful the sale of milk and cream from diseased animals. In case the test applied shows animals are affected with tuberculosis the owner on their being slaughtered receives three-fourths of the appraised value, which in no case shall exceed $55, while if no lesions of tuberculosis are found on slaughtering the full appraised value of the carcass is received.

Some one who has tried it says that scattering concentrated lye in their runways will fix the rats. The stuff gets on their feet and burns them, and they next put their feet to their mouths to lick the lye off, and this finishes them.

A rat trap that works like a charm may be rigged up by sprinkling a couple of handfuls of bran over the surface of half a pailful of water, with some sort of an approach fixed so that the rodents can get into the pail without difficulty. We have seen this tried and know that it works well.

The Marlin Repeating Shotgun
12 or 16 GAUGE

Made famous by its dependability. The solid top and side ejection keep gases and powder away from your eyes; help quick, effective repeat shots. Rain, sleet, snow and foreign matter can't get into the action. The mechanism is strong, simple, wear-resisting. The double extractors pull any shell instantly; two special safety devices prevent accidental discharge while action is unlocked, and an automatic recoil block makes bang fires harmless. All Marlins are strongly made, finely balanced, accurate, hard hitting guns, and are the quickest and easiest to take down and clean. Illustration shows Model 24 grade "A" 12 gauge; it has all the features that make for a perfect gun. KEEP HALF THE MONEY YOU HAVE BEEN IN THE HABIT OF PAYING FOR LIVING EXPENSES

SOLVE THE VITAL HIGH COST OF LIVING PROBLEM

HERE IS THE WAY

THE problem of supplying a family with plenty of food of the best quality is a perplexing one. To the man and woman of moderate means it may seem a problem that cannot be solved. If you are a housewife, you understand how discouraging it is to have the price of beef or butter or lard go up. You know that if the rise in prices is very much, your plans are upset. It is unpleasant to cut down on the quantity or quality of the food your family eats. Yet, you must when this happens. You must if you want to make ends meet and are still a slave to the old-time plan of paying four or five profits to four or five middlemen for food.

Now, look here! This cost of living problem is vital to you, isn't it? It really is a problem that you must solve.

Then you've got to save money, haven't you?

But, do you know the real way to economize? Do you know a way to economize that will not inconvenience you one bit?

There is a way. Over two million people have discovered it. Over two million people, every year, buy food, clothes, furniture, stoves—almost everything they need to use in any way—from Montgomery Ward & Co. on the one profit plan.

Now, how have they solved the serious "high cost of living" problem? How will you be able to solve it by buying life's necessities from us?

Simply by doing this—by paying only one-half to four-fifths of the money you have been spending elsewhere for life's necessities, and getting in return from us better merchandise than you heretofore have been using.

We will explain the matter to you. The reason you can save 20 to 50 per cent on the dollar from us, is, of course, because our prices are lower—is because we buy and sell 60 carloads of stoves, for instance, in a year where a small dealer only buys and sells half of one carload in a year. Now, you yourself know that if you buy a dozen pairs of stockings you will get a lower price on each pair of stockings than if you had only bought one pair.

That is the way we do business. But, we buy and sell hundreds of thousands of pairs of stockings, for instance, and get the rock bottom price.

Then, we give you the advantage of our ability to buy in such great lots. We ask you to pay only a very slight advance over the prices we pay.

Is that clear? Do you see that you really can save money by buying from Montgomery Ward & Co.? Well, just try it once. Just send us a small order. See for yourself that every article is of first quality. Begin to save. You must.

THIS UNLIMITED GUARANTEE PROTECTS YOU— "SATISFACTION—OR MONEY REFUNDED"

Remember that we guarantee—positively guarantee—that every purchase you make will please you. In filling your order, we will make every effort to satisfy your requirements. But, if by any chance you should not be fully pleased, send your purchase back. We will refund your money without question, or we will make any exchange or alteration of the merchandise that you wish. Furthermore, we will pay all the transportation charges you have paid.

The way to start buying from us is to get from us as many of our money-saving books as you can use.

The grocery book is number 11. We issue a new grocery book every two months. When you send us your name, we will put it on our list to receive this book regularly.

There are 37 other books—clothes, stoves, furniture, sewing machines, organs, pianos, wall paper—everything you need and want to make the winter months pleasant.

Mark the books you want on the coupon. Tear or cut out the coupon, fill it out with your name and address. We will send you the books that will help you as soon as we hear from you. The sooner you send the coupon, though, the sooner you will get the books that will start you on the right way to solve the serious "high cost of living" problem.

GOMEZ DOTS

After three weeks constant use; the heating stoves are getting a rest this week.

Our gin is running on full time now, and some of the farmers say the cotton won't all be out until after Xmas.

Mrs. Will Snodgrass received a telegram Tuesday morning, stating that her father, who lives at Eva, Oklahoma, was dangerously ill. She left that afternoon for that city.

The singing at Mr. Will Black's on Thanksgiving evening, was well attended and all enjoyed it.

Thanksgiving services at the Baptist church was well attended and enjoyed by all present.

Oral Adams got in from Lubbock, Wednesday, after five days absence.

Andrew Simms is proving a quick time freighter as he is gone for the third trip in eight or ten days time.

D.B. Watson has gone to Plains this week.

Miss Gay Broughton will be in to visit the home folks the last of this week, for the first time since her school at Slide began.

Rev. Jamerson preached here last Sunday for the first time since his return from conference. He preached a good sermon and everyone is glad to welcome him

Mr. Copeland brought some coconuts here and some of them had a perfectly formed coconuts inside the first one; that may be a common thing but its new to us.

Mr. Benton from the west side brought in cotton and stayed at the hotel Tuesday night.

Messrs. McPhaul and Criswell were here Tuesday.

Miss Ella Broughton informs us that she will return to her home at Abilene next week. Miss Ella has made many friends during her stay here who will regret to have her leave.

Two of Plains, popular young people, Mr. Rowe and Miss Susie Carpenter, passed through here Sunday evening on their way to Brownfield to get married.

Mr. Thompson, of Brownwood father of Mrs. Oscar Adams, is here visiting Mrs. Adams.

W. C. Matthews, R. W. Glover and Mr. Key are the only ones we hear of who are not done hauling feed and they are sure breaking the 8 hour law trying to get done before Xmas.

Mr. Dee Hunter and wife are visiting Mrs. Hunter's parents at this writing.

We saw a load of movers in town Wednesday evening and heard a man say "I'm moving out to my land three miles from here," also heard him say "I've never been here before." We failed to learn their names—but welcome thrice welcome to Terry, the land of sunshine and health; of sand and big crops, may you prosper and be happy. West Wind.
