Christmas Will Be A Lively One

Crops Were Good and Spirit of Good Cheer Prevails.

Terry county people have much to be thankful for this year, as they have made excellent feed crops and cattle, horses, mules, sheep and hogs have held a good price, almost topped the market all along. Good showers and rains have come, making plenty of grass, nature's free gift to the herdsmen. While the cotton crop has fell several hundred bales below that of last year, the average per acre was probably a little better. The peach crop was almost a failure, but grapes, plums and apples did fine.

Now the people should and do feel like celebrating the year end holidays in a fitting manner; not extravagantly, but with nice and appropriate gifts with compliments of the season to cheer both youth and age. Our merchants assisted by Santa Claus have made appropriate arrangements to look after the wants of all.

To Terry county children we want to say that you can now come in with your Santa Claus Letters.

That Brownfield Pounding

In the evening time after the day's labor is done, we love to sit before the fire and as the glowing embers flicker and play with their own light, we love to meditate upon the day's scenes.

The human brain is made like a moving picture film and we can twin the roll at will. So it will be in the evening tide of life: "Our day is but a little life and our whole life is but a day repeated." Many scenes are described in a roll of seventy years length and they all converge into each other, and yet clamorous for each, his individual place; the commonplace, the pathetic, the comical and the sublime. In the evening of life if we shall have a peaceful one, we expect to twin the roll to one scene exclusive, of all others and look upon it again. For on last Monday night we Open Letter to Our Subscribers.

Brownfield, Texas, 11-22, 1912

Dear Friends:

This is the time of year that most people have some surplus cash, and it is a good time to pay off old scores. The Herald has probably 200 subscribers who are in arrears, and we dislike very, very much to erase their names. It would be like cutting the cords of affection binding one to their dearest friends, and the Herald and readers are just a big family. So please do not let us cut you off.

The Herald has stayed here through thick and thin, adversity and prosperity, preaching the pure gospel of the advantages of the GREAT SOUTH PLAINS. We don't say it boastfully but we believe the Herald is directly responsible in no small way, for the enhancement in the value of your land. Have you done your part? Don't you think the Herald has benefited you a dollar's worth? We don't want your dollar as a donation, but propose to give you your money's worth in 52 bristling, newsy issues of the Herald concerning Terry County. While you are enjoying your Thanksgiving, don't forget to make the Herald thankful to you for a small remittance.

Respectfully,

A. J. Stricklin, Editor

were startled by a babble of voices and here they came. Young people, old people, middle aged people; large people, small people middle sized people; fat people, lean people and people; fathers, mothers, husbands, wives, followed each other as for their lives. Young men, men not so young and boys. Girls pretty, prettier, prettiest. Methodist, Baptist Baptists, Christians, Presbyterian, everybody; they were God's children out on the God inspired mission of dispensing light and cheer; and that was not all they dispensed. They left many of the comforts of life behind to attest the truth that they had done their work well. The pounding was great; the spirit prompting it greater, and the Christian love prevailing was greatest. We never saw a town that could beat Brownfield doing

For the benefit of the little folks we wish to say that the "Trade at Home" series of comic pictures will be started again before long. While the little fellows didn't realize the lesson inculcated in these plates, the doings and misfortune of the old man amused them very much. The lesson will come to them later in life.

The German Government has organized a big oil monopoly to fight the Standard Oil Co. U. S. A., and our State Department is protecting against such steps, and at the same time our Atty. Generals department is playing like its trying to dissect the tentacles of the same octopus in America. Of course a little, measley county editor isn't supposed to ask questions, and mustn't expect answers if he does, but it doesn't keep this rural ink-dobber from wondering just how our great cabinet harmonizes katy did and katy-didn't.

A Tarrant county jury of twelve honest and respectable men, say that J. B. Sneed is not guilty of the murder of A. G. Boyce Si. Judge Swayne, under whom the case was tried, denounced the verdict as a disgrace to Texas, while the foreman of the jury explained that they believed that in Texas a man had a right to protect the sanctity of the home, even by use of firearms. From this distance, it seems to us that after Judge Swayne had delivered his charge, which he considered both fair to defendant and the State, his duty was finished, and the deliberations of jury was no concern of his, however reverse to his exalted opinion. A jury is chosen of course, not to render a verdict on sentimentality, but facts and evidence, and it is this, according to the thinking of anyone, all they have to do is hold their piece. Harsh criticism does not remedy matters.

People who have no pride in their home, town, county, state or country, lack a great deal of a mixture of self respect and patriotism. When you find a man down on his neighbors and general surroundings, give him a wide berth. Don't gnaw a bone with a mangy cur. He is a dangerous humbra and wants all his germ little bunk to himself. If all were of his caliber a threat of a future hell would be useless; it would already be here. Thank goodness! only a few of these hybrids are among us. Consider the love of home among those poor Balkian people, who fight like demons for a rock hut on the side of a still rockier mountain, or a shack in a barren valley. Then consider our lovely, level, fertile Plains. Should we not be hospitable and patriotic. Yes a man lack a lot when he has the chronic grumbles. He's sick, and ought to be pitied if pitty could penetrate poisoned hide.

Our merchants are well stocked with new and seasonable goods at reasonable prices, and one is on a wild goose chase to send their money away from home for wearing apparel or other necessities of life. Every time you send a dollar away from home, you injure your home merchant, your school, your church, your neighbor and yourself. When you have built up your own town and community, then there will be plenty of time to help a few New York and Chicago millionaires to flood their coffers. But when you have built up your own town to the point of where your dollar will not be a big item, then you will suddenly realize that home is a good place, a nice place, and the real place to spend your money. Not only our merchants need your trade, but the Herald is among you helping willingly and unbegrudgingly every forward move. It also wants your name on its subscription books, your job work and your advertising account.

"Back To Texas Soil"

The following few prices make farm life in Texas look good: Land selling in New York City at $270 a square foot and above; in Chicago chickens and butter each selling at 50 cents a pound in high class stores, and guaranteed eggs at 60 cents; in Germany the wholesale price of swine is 18 cents, beef 22 1-2 cents, and veal higher, these prices compelling people to eat horse meat more than heretofore. Wheat, rye and several other necessities are beyond the reach of the poor.

The editor of "Cotton and Cotton Oil News" in a recent editorial said: "The eternal cry of the world is 'back to the farm', or more correctly in Texas, 'stay on the farm'. The rural delivery, parcels post, rural telephone, modern roads and interurbans are doing much to change the face of things and make the country a more pleasant place of abode. Conditions are rapidly obtaining under which it will be up to a large per cent of the dwellers of the great cities in the North to go the farm or starve, and Texas with its low priced lands and open winter climate is the place to anchor."

This is good logic, and in line with the song of the negro who couldn't get enough "chicken and corn" in the city and wanted to get back to the old Texas place.

Take me back to Texas soil
Whar grow de cane an' co'n;
I'se wandered far from home.
Take me back whar I wuz bo'n.

The following from our friend, who claims to keep books for the City National Bank of Dallas, but who may in reality be its brazen flunkey, is self-explanatory, and may be judged according as one knows the author, for what its really worth:

Dallas, 11—28th, 1912.

Mr. A. J. Stricklin,
Brownfield, Texas.

Dear Judge:—

I saw your Terry County exhibit at the Fair this year and have become quite interested in your country, extremely so, since learning that you captured a few prizes on your display of fruit, viz: "Mesquite Beans and Acorns". I tried to find out some thing about the country from the "KID" with your show but he couldnt tell me a thing except that it was "The best Gosh Darned Country this side of Yoakum Co"

I may "ooze" out that way next summer and look the country over, but in the meantime you may send me the Herald. The enclosed "skillet" will help hold you together until I get there.

I think "Jeff and Matt" are in town today, so I guess I better see that show, and not waste too much time writing to you.

So long, Judge.

Texas Ahead In Raw Material Says Dunlap

Waxahachie, Tex., Dec.—Mr. O. E. Dunlap of this city was Chairman of the Committee on the Establishment of Cotton Mills and the Fabrication of Cotton into Cloth, appointed by the Texas Welfare Commission for the purpose of encouraging this line of industry within the State. Mr. Dunlap has practical knowledge of the business and his investigation has thrown much light upon the subject.

He shows that there are fifteen cotton mills operating in Texas, with an aggregate capital stock of $2,220,000, running 112,401 spindles and consuming 40,000 bales of cotton per annum. The conditions described by Mr. Dunlap as necessary factory conditions are: cheap money, cheap labor, cheap fuel and adequate transportation facilities. The

New England State have the advantage over Texas in all these important factors, but in raw material Texas surpasses all States in the Union. We produced 4,297,000 bales last year and consumed less than one per cent. In urging the location of more cotton mills in Texas Mr. Dunlap said:

O. E. Dunlap.

"I recommend the establishment at suitable locations of cotton mills with a minimum spindle capacity of not less than 10,000 spindles and with ample capital to fully construct and complete the plant, leaving it, when finished, free from debt, and a surplus for operation."

Protect Against Rabbits and Mice. These animals may be kept from injuring the trunks of trees by boxing, or by placing a piece of galvanized wire screen around the tree trunk and covering it to a height of about 20 inches. This will also prevent sunscald, and it costs much less than to replace the trees after the rabbits have injured them. The snow should be well tramped about young apple trees to prevent mice from injuring the bark under the snow crust.

GOMEZ DOTS

Dec. 3rd.

Thanksgiving day here was observed by most of the citizens and all the school by attending service at the Baptist Church. Bro. Jameson preached one of his best sermons after which there was an interesting testimonial service. When services was over quite a crowd, among whom was the writer, adjourned to a surprise dinner at the residence of Bro. A. P. Moore and a surprise it proved to be to more people than Bro. Moore and wife, though they were the ones on whom the joke was supposed to be. All Bro. Moore's daughters and daughters-in-law cooked a splendid dinner and just at noon they drove up to Bro. Moore's with their dinner and all their family. That dinner couldn't have been improved and the pleasure and happiness of those who attended it will live in their memories as one of life's brightest gems. May each and every on who participated in that dinner live to enjoy many happy Thanksgivings in the future is the sincere wish of this writer.

Miss Jewell Nichols, of Hamilton county, a sister of Mrs. Geo. McWhorter, came out to visit the later on the lazy S ranch a month ago and Miss Jewell spent last week visiting the family of A. P. Moore here.

On the eve before Thanksgiving Mr. Tom Pruitt and family arrived in Gomez; some weeks ago Mr. Pruitt left us for Redland, N. M., where he intended to make his home—well we didn't ask any questions nor guy one bit; he is back and has come to stay and has rented the blacksmith shop and will run it next year. They are occupying Simon Holgate's house just west of Prof. Harrison's. We are all glad to have this excellent family back among us, and it is indeed pleasant to us old timers who never move away from here, to know that those who do go are glad to get back.

Will McPhaul, Oscar Adams and others, came in on an auto from Plains last Friday evening and stayed over until late Saturday evening. Oscar reported his family well and says they are getting along real well in their new home in N. M. Mr.

McPhaul says he don't know where he lives as he has been out all the fall buying cattle and when he gets a herd some one makes a bid on them and he sells before he gets them located and then he is off to hunt more. When he left here he was on his way to receive a herd of 1000 that came from the west.

Dee Hunter and wife came in Saturday evening and Dee went out to J. C. Ivey's ranch to work awhile. Mrs. Hunter will remain here at her father's, during his absence.

On Thanksgiving evening Jim and Arthur Moore and Lester McPherson left for the sand hills northwest of here. They went to bring in some property from the place Arthur Moore has had leased. They intend to spend some time hunting. They have not returned yet.

Last Sunday Messrs. Matt and George McPherson and families left us permanently, so they said. Mr. Matt to Paducah and Mr. George to Comanche. We wish them success in their new homes.

This (Tuesday) morning Mr. Kelley is loading to start to Plains and will start today. We wish them prosperity in their new home.

Mr. Jim Smith, one of Terry's old settlers was here several days last week and this.

Miss Mattie Yeates of Yoakum county, was the guest of Mrs. Early Key last week and this. She was with Mrs. Key Thanksgiving; also last Sunday visiting Mrs. Sam Key.

El Dumas was here from Plains last Monday.

George McWhorter and wife came down from the lazy S ranch last week to visit Will Matthews' family and are still here.

Mr. West left early this morning for the railroad and Messrs. Glover and Joe Whitla will leave before noon.

Mr. Sam Funderburk had a chill yesterday and is not able to be up at this writing.

Mr. George Black, Jr. raised a crop of red peanuts this year and the sale of them for seed is so rapid that he says they will soon be gone. He had an order from Randall county this week. West Wind.

Sheriff's Sale; Real Estate

Whereas by virtue of an order of sale issued out of the District Court of Terry County Texas, on the 3rd day of December, A. D. 1912, on a judgment therein rendered on the 29th day of October, A. Morris against G. E. Lockhart, J. R. Lanier and G. W. Taylor for the sum of $843.00 with interest thereon from Oct. 29th, 1912, at ten percent per annum and costs of suit:

I, Geo. E. Tierman, Sheriff of Terry County Texas, did on the 3rd day of December, A. D. 1912, levy on the following described real estate, situated in Terry county, Texas, levied upon as the property of the defendants, to-wit: The Southeast one fourth (S. Cotton Seed Products

Value $2,891,000

Value $3,700,000

Value $29,350,000

THE VALUE OF COTTON SEED IS FIVE TIMES GREATER THAN THE WHEAT AND OAT CROP COMBINED.

From the manner in which lint cotton has conquered its rivals in the field of production and consumption, one would think the victory complete, but the half has not been told. Cotton seed, a quarter of a century ago considered a poisonous product has demonstrated its merit as a food for man and beast. The Federal Agricultural Department recognizes sixty commercial uses for cottonseed and its by-products. Twenty-four per cent of the cottonseed crushed in the United States is harvested in Texas.

The Texas Welfare Commission will investigate the production and marketing of cottonseed and its by-products. R. E. Huff of Wichita Falls is chairman of the sub-committee having the subject in charge.

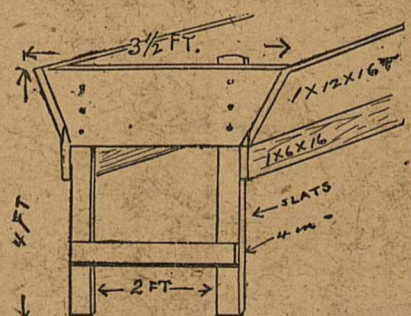

TROUGH FOR FEEDING SHEEP

Description of Receptacle That Will Give Each Animal Fourteen Inches of Feeding Space.

(By W. H. UNDERWOOD.)
Use 2 by 4's, four feet long, for corner posts. These are set two feet apart, and a four-inch trough is built one foot from the ground, using 12-inch boards for the bottom of the trough.

At the top of the rack on the end a 12-inch board is sawed to a bevel and nailed as shown. A 12-inch board is then nailed along this bevel on either side at the top of the rack. This gives a wide space to put in the hay, etc., so it will feed down gradually. Below this is nailed a 6-inch fence-board.

Trough for Feeding Sheep.

Common 6-inch fencing boards are used for slats, which should be cut about two and one-half feet long in order to lap enough for nailing to the top of the trough and the bottom of the 6-inch board near the top of the rack. The slats should be set about eight inches apart.

This gives each sheep fourteen inches of feeding space, and thirty sheep can feed at a 16-foot trough. The trough can be used for feeding either grain or roughage.

Irregularity in feeding—that is, a good ration one day and a poor one the next, will play havoc with the best of cows.

things and we're never made to feel more at home.

Well we had a good time together socially even though there was not room enough to sit down and after a very interesting and pointed talk by Bro. Dixon, our Baptist pastor, and a prayer by the writer, our visitors departed, but as they went, each of them took something of ours also. It was this: They took possession of our heart's best and richest gift—love! God bless these people! Our people! God's people! After our friends were gone and the quietude of our own little domestic life fell upon us again, we sat for a long time and talked, and then hand in hand we knelt and asked God for guidance that we may lead this year, people aright.

In conclusion we would say to each and every one who was present on that good night. Come again and we will see that you have more to eat than you did upon that night.

Harris Happenings.

Dec. 5th

T. J. Conley killed four big porkers last Wednesday. Thursday he carried them to Plains and delivered them to people he had previously contracted them to at 10 cent per pound.

W. H. Harris made a trip to Lubbock last week after groceries for the store. He also brought back his Xmas goods which had been shipped to Lubbock.

Marlin Ellington left Wednesday for his father's place near Meadow. After doing some work there he will return by Lubbock and bring a load of cotton-seed cake.

Will Belcher of Yoakum County passed through Friday with a small herd of cattle. We suppose he was carrying them to Lubbock.

Lynn Harris took his father, mother, and sisters to Plains in his automobile last Sunday. They visited the Hagne family there.

Messrs Lester McPherson, Arthur Moore and Jim Moore came out Sunday to move a wind mill of Mr. Arthur Moore's. We understand Mr. Moore will move to New Mexico.

TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

XXXIX. FACTIONS

JULIUS CAESAR, Crassus and Pompey formed a triumvirate which ruled Rome and reaped a rich harvest off Roman civilization. It was the most powerful political faction known in human history. It destroyed the confidence of the people in the government and hastened the downfall of Rome, which resulted in plunging the world into the dark ages. Factions are always formed to reap, they never sow, and while disbursing one class of property among all others, they levy a heavy tribute for their labors. A pooling of political power is the most dangerous trust that was ever formed in ancient or modern civilization.

THE ROMAN TRIUMVIRATE.

Let that country that would travel the trunk lines of progress beware of factions that chase each other, dagger in hand, across the political arena, avoid the bitter clash of classes that cause fear and consternation to roll over the land like a flood, and put out the smoldering fires of discord before they burst into flaming revolution and the iron moan of a decayed nation fills the land.
