The Flood Fund.

In compliance with the request of Gov. Colquitt that Texas newspapers open a subscription list for flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana, the Herald will start such a fund with this issue, as reliable information says they will have to be fed for a month yet. Such funds as we collect will be forwarded to National Red Cross Headquarters at Washington, D. C. to be used as they see fit. Let us not forget how nobly Ohio came to the rescue of Galveston when 10000 souls were swept to eternity in that beautiful Texas City.

And especially let us not forget that many Ohio people are heavily interested in Terry county and may, in a few years, become your neighbors. The Herald has nearly 30 subscribers living in Ohio, some of which live in the flooded area, and while we may not be able to send millions of dollars or cars of clothing and food, let us help the best we can. Death and destruction in any part of Uncle Sam's wide domain hurts the other, no matter how wide the distance. Our turn may come next. We have no way telling. Let us do our best and they will be thankful.

Will Use Cars.

Marcy Bros, of Plains and Lubbock, who own the Lubbock-Plains stage line via Meadow, Brownfield and Gomez, will in the near future put on cars between Lubbock and Brownfield, so Mr. Aud Marcy informed the Herald man recently.

The plan is to purchase two light cars of the Ford type, make an auto road straight through from Lubbock to Slide, thence due west, intersecting the old Brownfield-Lubbock auto road and to keep it on to Brownfield. One car is to be kept in reserve and to be used in case people come in at noon and wish to come to Brownfield on the same day, and will come straight through on the old auto road.

The Herald congratulates the boys on this forward movement. They have given good service with teams from the very start, building up a good passenger traffic, which has grown too heavy and important to handle with horses and mules. Again we congratulate them.

Notice

All parties knowing themselves to be indebted to Brooks & Drinkard, please come in and settle their acct by Jan. 1st. After that date we positively will not book any more accounts, as they are usually so small that if don't pay to bother with them.

Respt.

Diversified Farming

Texas leads all States in the Union in diversified farming, as she does in most every other movement for progress and prosperity. We produce in commercial quantities every commodity known to the market and every day in the year there is a harvest going on in the State. Having conquered the realms of agriculture, we are now extending our farming operations into the animal kingdom.

We have a bull-frog, alligator, armadillo, ostrich and many other animal farms, but the latest addition is a polecat farm opened up near Gainesville and the skunk is said to give promise of making a profitable farmer. We will soon be able to dispose of our prairie dogs, go to market with our boll weevils, and sell the Texas fever.

In domesticating nature's delinquents and capitalizing our pests, we are turning waste into profit and that is what makes a country prosperous as well as powerful in commerce. We are like-wise illustrating to the world that Texas is the birth-place of the mighty economic forces of 20th century civilization.

Dont

Don't go from home to do your trading. We will make every effort to supply your needs while the Merc. is temporarily out of business, a thing we very much regret. Come to Brownfield to trade.

Harris Happenings.

W. B. Cotten bought a load of maize from Brit Clare last Wednesday at $18.00 per ton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris called on Mrs. R. K. Benton last Thursday afternoon.

T. J. Conley made a trip to Gomez and Brownfield last Tuesday and Wednesday, he came back talking silos and silos. Some one converted him to the silo belief while he was on that trip.

Walter Frazier took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. B. Clare last Tuesday.

J. C. Dooley and family are now located in their new home near Gomez. We wish them well.

Mrs. Ben Wolfarth and son Easton, called on Mr. and Mrs. B. Clare last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Easton Wolfarth and children from Lubbock visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wolfarth on the ranch last Sunday.

The younger set enjoyed the party at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wright's last Saturday night. All who were present agree that they had a goody good time.

Mrs. R. K. Benton and children expect to move to Slaton next week. Mr. Benton who is still at his brother's at Slaton is said to be improving though he has fever every day.

Roy Harris is expected home any day. He thinks good old Terry county Texas is for ahead of South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Clare and little ones visited Mrs. R. K. Benton and family last Monday.

Our last week's Herald didn't arrive here till Saturday and we were sure scared it wouldn't come at all but "better late than never". We were glad to get it when it did get here.

Sand Bur.

Pleasant Valley.

Edwin Holt made a trip to Lubbock last week. He was accompanied home by Dub Dickerson.

All of Mr. Black's folks are on the sick list this week.

Six of Mr. Holt's children or down with the mumps.

Clay Hughes made a business trip to Tahoka last week.

Mrs. Brock Gist was on the sick list last week.

W. H. Gist and family visited Brock Gist and wife Sunday.

Homer Scott has been on the sick list but is improving.

Did April Fool you? It didn't fool us. We expected high wind and got it.

The carpet of green is creeping every where, and trees are robbing themselves in resplendent glory. Spring is upon us and man, bird and beast show their appreciation

J. P. Morgan, of New York, the world's greatest financier died March 31st at Rome, Italy. Among the many good things that may be engraved upon his monument, it can be said in all truth that he always tried to star his country clear of panics.

We don't suppose there has been a legislative body assembled in Texas since the Republic that has not come in for some changes and counter charges, good and bad, mostly the later, and this one has had a fair share, but less than usual, showing a tendency toward progress. Probably some have expected too much progressive legislation from this session, but let's be reasonable and not expect that august body to be converted from stand-pat hood to modern, initiative, referendum and recall progressivism overnight, but it is coming.

The packing centers are beginning to cast longing eyes over the broad, fertile bosom of the Plains and Panhandle, where they realize the coming of the future finished, beef, pork and mutton area. In this verdant empire, where cattle is king and kaffir is queen, they see the tall form of the silo, the prince, in every way worthy of his ancestors, the king and queen. The three combined will rule this large kingdom so prudently and wisely, that its subjects, in a few more years, will be so wealthy that their poorest will compare favorably with the richest in other countries.

Fattening Cattle in the Panhandle.

Kansas city—More fat cattle have come out of the panhandle this winter than ever before, and of course they have sold at record prices. Charles Hech, of Tulia, had a shipment in Kansas City March 18th, which included 18 yearlings, 671 pounds each, at $8.40, and 9 cows, 1013 pounds average, at $7.00 per hundred pounds. On March 27th M. L. Steel, of Groom, sold 100 head of 1225 pound steers in Kansas City, at $8.25 per hundred pounds. Increase in cattle feeding in the panhandle has been rapid since the introduction of the silo, which permits of storing crops and thus getting every ounce of benefit from them, nearly half of which feeding value was formerly dissipated to the winds. Mr. Steel, whose shipment is referred to here, erected a 300 ton capacity silo last year, which he filled with Kaffir corn. He fed the steers mentioned for 100 days, giving them 40 pounds of silage and 4 pounds of cottonseed meal, and a little ground milo maize, per day. The steers gained 225 pounds each in the 100 days of feeding. Speaking of the possibilities of the silo, Mr. Steel said, when in Kansas City, "So well did this experiment turn out that I will build more silos this season, and next fall will have 1200 tons of the feed on my ranch. This little experiment plainly shows how we can fatten and finish our cattle right at home, and do it at less expense than it can be done up here in the corn belt."

Better than Spanking

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 1812, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of The Herald. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co is an Old and Reliable House. Write them today for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy. (adv.)

Married

Mr. E. M. Hickey, of Yoakum, Texas, and Miss Lillie Hamilton, daughter of S. E. Hamilton of southeast Terry, drove in town last Thursday afternoon and secured their license and were made man and wife by Judge Geo. W. Neill at 4:30 p. m. and left immediately for the brides father's, where they stayed a few days before returning to Mr. Hickey's south Texas home.

Mr. Hickey met Miss Hamilton two years ago when her father lived in South Texas. Herald extends congratulations.

Mr. John W. Cone has made arrangements to leave Lubbock and will locate in Glasier, Hemphill county, Texas, where we learn he will engage in the mercantile business. Mr. Cone has had a great deal of experience as a merchant, having been in business at Mobeeta, Texas, Clayton, New Mexico, and other places before becoming a ranchman. He is a good business man and will no doubt again be successful as a merchant.—Yoakum, County News.

Lawrence Green has purchased Earnest Barnett's interest in that cold drink stand.

A letter from J. W. Harper, who now lives in El Paso, says he can't do without the Herald any longer.

A. P. Moore sent us a dollar along with his ad money, this week to have the Herald visit a friend away back in Tennessee. That's business, tell the glad tiding of great joy to the far away people. Also notice his prices on onion sets.

A. F. Small, of Fort Worth, a former Terryite, forwarded $2.75 on subscription this week and said keep 'er coming.

Several out of county parties have come in with subscription money this week, which we appreciate very much, but are too numerous to mention by name.

Mrs. O. L. Turner left last Friday for a long visit to her parents in Tyler. Shorty will look out a location in New Mexico during her stay.

Will Belcher, of Plains passed through here this week from Fort Worth. Will said all fruits and garden truck in the Fort Worth country, was killed during the freeze last week.

Uncle Dave Earnest, wife and three little daughters, of Plains spent Friday night at the Hill Hotel on their way to Lubbock to visit the family of W. J. Luna.

J. R. Hill came in Saturday after several days stay in Lubbock on business and pleasure—mostly pleasure.

Rev. B. F. Dixon attended the fourth Sunday meeting at Tahoka last week.

Jim Smith and Prof Hunter were in Saturday.

Mrs. S. C. Cardweil paid the Herald office a very pleasant call this week.

Mrs. Jake Johnson has been suffering with the LaGrippe the past week, but we are glad to say she is improving.

Misses Etta and Grace Kinard, who lives five miles northeast of town, paid the Herald a call Wednesday.

Leslie Green happened to the misfortune to get his foot seriously cut on a plow up at Dick Brownfield's Monday. We learn that is required two stitches to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hargett made a trip to Lubbock on Monday to see their son Vergle, who is taking treatment of Dr. Overton, at the Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Braidfoot were in town this week. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Braidfoot's sisters, Misses Dean and Bertha Lowe.

Uncle Joe Bryant of the south-side, was in town one day this week.

Mr. Dunwoody, who is working for Uncle Jack Coble, family came in last week and are now occupying the old Geo. Tiernan house in the west part of town.

Quite a crowd from here attended the play "Turn of The Tide" rendered at Gomez Saturday night. All report a good time.

Mrs. Lillie McPherson, of Gomez, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Horace Adams this week.

Mrs. C. E. Moore and children formerly of this place, have returned after several months sojourn in California. We never learned whether she intends making her home here in the future or not.

Miss Ivy Green was hostess to a party on Friday night in honor of Ben Dixon on his 20th birthday. Games of various kinds were indulged in till a late hour. Delicious sandwiches, olives cake and chocolate was served to about thirty guest. All report a delightful time.

Frank Proctor was in town last Friday with a nice lot of fresh sausage, of which he readily disposed. Mr. Proctor is one of our famers who always has something to sell.

Special Announcement

The most popular general news and farm paper in Texas is The Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. It is read by more people than any other publication in the Southwest. It is the favorite with men readers, women readers and boys and girl readers, because it has something for all of them, and the best to be had at any price. The Terry County Herald and the Semi-Weekly Farm News will be sent a whole year to any address for $1.75. We accept and receipt for all subscriptions at this office. We do all the ordering and take all the risk.

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more. Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

NAPHTHALENE IN ROAD TAR

Systematic Investigation of Effects of Various Constituents Upon its Adaptability is Important.

As a large part of the road work in this country seems destined to be effected by the use of tars in road treatment and construction, a systematic investigation of the effects of various constituents upon the adaptability of tars as road binders is of great importance.

Hence, the recent circular issued by the United States department of agriculture on "The Effect of Naphthalene upon the Consistency of Refined Tars" (Office of public roads, circular No 98) is a valuable contribution to good roads literature. While definite conclusions are not announced, the results strongly indicate four determinate facts:

(1) That the fluxing value of naphthalene for tar pitches is somewhat greater, although quite similar, to the heavier naphthalene-free tar distillates, until the mixture becomes saturated with naphthalene.

(2) That for the harder tar pitches the addition of very small percentages of naphthalene will produce a marked increase in fluidity of the resulting product.

(3) That for the softer pitches the addition of naphthalene in small quantities causes less increase in fluidity than for the harder pitches.

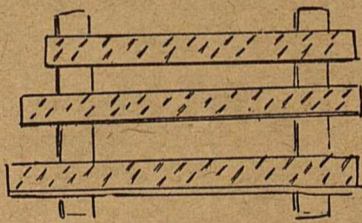

(4) That where naphthalene is added beyond the point of saturation a rapid decrease in the fluidity of tars at temperatures below the melting point of naphthalene is observed, but at temperatures above its melting point the fluidity continues to increase.

Further evidences point to the fact that, within a reasonable degree of accuracy, it should be possible to foretell, by use of the data given in the pamphlet, what consistency to expect from the addition of a given percentage of naphthalene to a tar pitch or refined tar of known consistency, irrespective of the free carbon content of the tar.

CHEAP RACK FOR SEED CORN

Frame May Be Constructed Out of Common Fence Boards With Nails Driven Through on Slant.

Construct a frame from fence boards. This may be of any length or height, and several medium-sized ones are better than one large frame.

Cheap Seed-Corn Rack.

Drive nails through the boards each way on an upward slant. On these nails stick the butts of the corn. Each ear stands out by itself, where it can dry perfectly. By numbering each ear on the board, track of it can be kept when testing for germination. Keep in a cool place and to insure protection from mice swing it up by wires.

Storing Pumpkins in the Field.

You needn't expect to reap much profit from gorging your hogs and cattle on pumpkins for a few days during the harvest season, then cutting off their supply of this valuable feed for another whole year. Store your pumpkins in the field. Pile the pumpkins in a row, as high and as wide as you wish, cover with hay and set up fodder on each side to a thickness of three or four feet. This not only affords ample protection from the cold, but also enables you to form a most profitable balanced ration by adding "the fruit of the vine" as you feed out the corn and fodder.

Dots From Tokio.

Prairie dog poisoning is the order of the day in this part of Terry. Ware and Snodgrass report them as almost a thing of the past.

The party at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wright's Saturday night, was a complete success. Ice cream and cake were served, and the young people went away wishing that the performance might be repeated often.

Brother Sims, of Gomez, stopped at Tokio a few minutes Tuesday, on his way to Tom Ivey's ranch with a load of corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Snodgrass visited Mr. and Mrs. Yates Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brit Clare visited Mrs. R. K. Benton Monday, and Mr. Clare and Jack Benton branded Mr. Benton's horses and yearlings.

We were sorry to learn that Mr. Benton has been having fever again, his temperature being 103 Friday. Mrs. Benton and children intend starting to Slaton in a few days to be with him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wyatt and children, spent Saturday night with Mrs. Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day visited Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ware Sunday.

Mr. George and family of Gomez, spent Monday night at Tokio. They are moving into the McEachen residence. We are glad to welcome them into our community.

Messrs. W. J. Saterwhite, Elmer Ware and J. Merritt have been wrestling with La Grippe for several days, but we learn they are all improving.

Mr. L. Townsen stopped over Sunday night at Tokio. He said he had been suffering with the grippe several days. He was returning from Tahoka with freight.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

GOMEZ DOTS

Well the winter is past, and blooming fruit trees and green earth, tell us spring is here. It has not been long since we had cold severe enough to freeze water pipes, just a little over a week and now it is so warm we dont need fire even at night. And though the sand storms yet stay with us, the farmers and gardeners are working on full time.

The play last Saturday night was a decided success; so say all whom we have heard speak of it. The play was interesting and laughable, and the actors knew and acted their parts perfectly.

Mr. Rhodes left on Tuesday morning for Tahoka.

Mr. E. E. Simms, and Mr. Willie, passed through Tuesday with two large loads of cottonseed cake for Mr. Tom Ivey's ranch.

Grandma Stapp, left on Tuesday morning for Tahoka, where she will take the train to go to Clyde, Comanche, Ft Worth and Rochester, to visit her daughters and other relatives. She will be gone until midsummer.

Bro. Jameson preached two sermons here last Sunday. They were both good but we have heard several person's say that the one at 11 A. M. (subject) The Resurrection, was one of the best they ever heard.

Mrs. A. D. Jamison, of Brownfield, visited Mrs. Guy Taylor on last Monday evening.

Messers Ben Hurst, Bob Snodgrass and Dee Hunter and their wives, were all in attending the play; also Mrs. Copeland and Miss Katie visited friends on last Saturday and stayed over for the play.

On last Sunday Mr. Johnson, of Lubbock, came down in his car to carry Mr. and Mrs. Booth Hays to Lubbock. They will go to Putnam, to place Mrs. Hays under treatment of a specialist, as she is in very bad health.

Mr. John Hays was here on Monday. He is now living at the ranch 14 miles south west of town.

Mrs. A. V. Taylor is out the farm this week.

Mr. Earley Key and wife spent last Saturday night at Mr. A. P. Moore. Earley's school will close this week, and he now intends moving back to town for the summer.

Mrs. Alvin Duke and little Bert, came in Tuesday from Brownfield, to visit her mother Mrs. A. P. Moore.

Mr. West's little boy who has been so low with Pneumonia took a turn for the better on last Saturday night, and is now improving rapidly. Also Mr. Rhodes' baby is improving. All the rest of the sick folks here are up, but we have had quite a time for the past six weeks. There has been more houses that burned a light all night than ever before, at one time.

Little Vance Glover is suffering this week with tonsillitis. He keeps up but suffers real bad, especially at night.

Rev. Lovelady, a former Terry citizen, but now of Post City, is here. There is a Mr. Reed accompanying him, whose home is in Western Canada.

Professor and Mrs. Harrison will give an April-fool party to the school pupils on (this) Tuesday night. Most all of the out of town pupils will be here.

Messers. Lynn Adams and Jim Yates were in town on last Sunday.

Mr. Neyler, from Miami, Arizona, was at the hotel this week on his way to Slaton. He had traveled the entire distance horseback.

Messers. Arthur Moore and Claud Criswell have gone on a trip out into New Mexico and perhaps Arizona. They will be gone several weeks.

Mr. Will Snodgrass' little daughter, Eddie, is boarding at Mr. Simon Holgate's, attending school.

The fruit trees are in full bloom this week. Surely we will have fruit this year, they are so late blooming.

The citizens cleaned out the public tank last Saturday, and put some leathers on the public mill, getting ready for hot weather.

Only one more month of school and both pupils and teachers seem to be working like a race horse on the last quarter.

WATER MOST VALUABLE AGRICULTURAL ASSET.

Enough Wasted Annually to Supply 6,000,000 Acres. Conservation Urged.

The cry of water arising from the arid regions of Texas has caused the Texas Welfare Commission to investigate the subject of irrigation.

The report of the commission shows that we now have 425,000 acres of land under irrigation in Texas today, and of this area 275,000 acres are in rice and 150,000 in general crops and the land is the most valuable in the state.

The report further states that water is our most valuable agricultural asset. According to the report of the division of irrigation investigations of the United States Department of Agriculture, there is wasted into the Gulf of Mexico through the ordinary flow of the Trinity river each year upwards of four million acre feet of water, through the Brazos two million acre feet; through the Colorado one and one-half million acre feet through the Rio Grande five million acre feet, one-half of which we claim. Through these four streams at least ten million acre feet of water is each year lost to Texas which, if conserved, would serve as a supplemental supply of water to at least six million acres of land.

The commission finds millions of acres of fertile soil in southwest and west Texas land without an artificial supply of water that has very little value, and there is no section of the state in which the productive power of the soil will not be immensely increased if, when periods of scant rainfall occur, a supplementary water supply is available and applied. The area to be irrigated is only limited by the extent of the water supply. This supply may be drawn from the natural flow of streams, from their flood discharges by impounding in reservoirs, from artesian and from shallow wells.

The commission suggests a unity of effort between the federal and state governments in the solution of our irrigation problems. The federal government stands ready to spend dollar for dollar in this co-operative work with the state. It is hoped that a co-operative bill along this line may be enacted at the coming session of the legislature.

The Way Out.

A painstaking mother of two children was attempting to give them a serious idea of her anxiety to make them good, and to make plain to their minds the gravity of the task before her. Overcome with the possibility of ever attaining her mother's ideal, three-year-old Frances answered in all earnestness: "Don't try to make us good, mother; just shoot us."—Everybody's Magazine.
