LET'S SHOW 'EM WHAT WE HAVE.

That Glorious Rain

We had just about got to the point where we had to have rain, and we got it in abundance.

The cloud made up in the west late last Friday afternoon and came over, giving us about one inch rainfall. The north side of the county got another rain about middle of the afternoon, that gave them another half inch, but the rainfall is reported much lighter in the extreme western part of the county. However they got a light shower Sunday week, the one Friday and another good one reported Monday afternoon, gives them a good season.

This rain insures the maturing of old corn and all early feed stuff, and with a few showers in August—and we generally get them—all the young feed will mature, insuring a crop that will be almost impossible for Terry county people to harvest, unless they get more hands. Grass is good; stock fat and everybody is 'jest agrinnin'.

The Woman In Front Of The Counter.

The press of the Nation has had much to say in favor of the woman behind the counter no doubt there is room for improving her condition. The whole world sympathizes with the woman who toils. But I want to say a few words in favor of the women in front of the counter. We have 259,000 farm laborers in Texas and the average wage is six dollars per week without board and we have 220,000 tenant farmers who make very little, if any, more than the farm laborers, making a total of 470,000 men, mostly heads of families, that work for 80 per cent of our entire farm population. A half million farmer's wives stand in front of the counter and a few pennies added to their weekly pittance will buy the baby a new dress, the mother a pair of shoes and the father a shirt. Many people seem to think that because the farmer's wife gets plenty of fresh air and sunshine, she should be happy and these are God-given privileges, but it takes something more than a beneficent nature to educate children, build homes and provide the families with the comforts of life. In re-adjusting the wage scale of industry don't over look the woman in front of the counter.—By Mrs. E. P. Turaer.

Big Picnic At Scudday School House.

On Wednesday of last week, the citizens of southeast Terry, met at Scudday School House, at the genuine neighborhood picnic. Every body for miles around came, with well filled baskets. The occasion was to have been a fish fry, but the fish could not be caught on the account of muddy tank bottoms. Fish or no fish, the people met together as neighborhoods should meet and a general good time followed. There was plenty of ice cold lemonade which cost only the effort of dipping it out of the barrel.

The principle features of the day was some nice music furnished by Mr. Tisdale and Miss Elmer Brooks, on the violin and guitar; but the fun of all fun came when W. J. French got to throwing at the negro baby. Every time the babe was hit a boy would fall out of a swing into a tank of water. Laying aside all jokes W. J. can make Cristy Mathewson ashamed of himself throwing a ball. Every pop (some pops) he knocked the babe in the tank. The occasion closed with a nice social at Mr. Jno. Scudday's which crowned the features of the day for the young people. Plenty of ice cream and other refreshments were served. They say they will have another next year, you had better go.

One Present.

The Need of Cheap Money.

Farmer Radford has directed attention in a very vivid manner to the need of cheap money on the farm. The statistics which he presents show the farms having a net earning power of four per cent and the farmer paying an average interest rate of 9.97.

The farmer is not the only one who needs cheap money. It is as badly in all other lines of industry, although many of the trades can come more nearly shifting the burden than can the farmer. The high interest rate is undoubtedly contributing toward farm peasantry, which is a most alarming specter wherever it occurs. No civilization can better its citizens than by placing a home within the reach of all.

Captures Big Lobo.

John Corbett, of San Angelo, a famous West Texas trapper, captured "Big Ben", a blue Mexican lobo wolf that ranchmen of the Pecos country have been anxious to have out of the way for several years. For doing so he received a cash reward of $100.

The animal was so large and vicious that he could pull down a horse like the other loboes pulled down steer yearlings. His hunger caused him to kill at least three large animals a week.—Seminole Sentinel.

The 1913 and 1914 Bulletin of the Simmons College of Abilene, has just reached our desk, and we must say that it is not only a climax of the printers art, but is brim full of information relative to this great institution. A perusal of the faculty disclose the fact that it has one of the strongest to be had at any price.

It is reported from Missouri and Kansas that their corn crop is a total failure, and that indicates high priced corn. While we dislike to hear of any calamity visiting any part of the country, the fact that they have failed will insure a market for our surplus crop. Terry nearly always ships corn, even the dry years, and if present conditions keep up, we are going to make a bumper, this year.

Every month, the Texas Health Bulletin reaches our desk, chuck full of useful information. The articles appearing each month on sex hygiene and other advice to boys, girls and their parents, not to mention the hints on sanitation, diseases, their origin, etc., are worth untold value to Texas. We wish this Bulletin could go into every home in the State, and it can for that matter, for it is free for the asking. Just write Dr. Ralph Steiner, Pres. Board of Health, Austin, Texas.

In last week's Crosbyton Review, the editor permitted one of its readers to use two full columns of poetry to lambast other churches and to praise his own to the sky. We always thought Bro. White too liberal minded to permit such rot as this. Church people are too much estranged at best, and such breaks as this one, opens a chasm that will admit the devil and his whole force to come in at one time. There might be one way to get the Herald to publish such tomrottery, and that would be as advertising matter and marked up as such. And we doubt our even doing that.

The Lynn County News made a great fuss last week over some very modest peaches that only measured seven-eighths inches around. Why Bro; M. V. Brownfield raised some year before last that measured nearly twelve inches in circumference, so did O. M. Daniels, Edwin Groves and others. These were the peaches we captured first prize at the Dallas Fair with in 1913. There are plenty this year that will go over ten inches in circumference; if you don't believe it, Simon Holgate, of Gomez, will show you. Why man, we have plums that will measure up with your peaches. Don't believe it eh? Well, we appoint, Edwin Groves a committee of one to show you when he comes to Tahoka again and he may also open your eyes with a few bunches of real grapes. Come to Terry.

Pertty soon the people of Terry county are going to be called upon to entertain hundreds of strangers, at Brownfield, Aug. 8th and again at Gomez some time in September or October, and all should unite in making the events successes. The reunion no less than the Fair is a Terry county institution and all should, and we believe are ready to co operate to make it a go. Therefore every body in a reasonable distance, say fifteen miles from Brownfield or Gomez, should lend assistance by bringing a well filled basket of provisions. It is a burden on either town to provide for all, as both are small places, and we believe the rural families will all respond liberally, as lots of good cookies can always be found on the well supplied farm with very little cost. Friends and fellow Territes, let's make Aug. 8th heard around the world.

Some of our Congress men at Washington are strongly advocating intervention in Mexico. Many hundreds of murders could have been prohibited if Uncle Sam had "stepped in" some time ago. It has really been the only salutation of the problem from the beginning.—Stanton Reporter.

You are wrong Kent; dead wrong. If we should invade the country of these nasty half bred heathens, then the sure enough murders would come off, costing us thousands of the flower of our manhood, millions of dollars and a gorrilla war that might last till Gabriel blows his horn. Let's attend to our our own business and let them alone. What if there are several thousand Americans in that God-forsaken and panic-stricken country? Are they tied down there? Did they go there at the earnest solicitation of our Uncle Samuel? Not on your daily pepsin punch. On the other hand, he has advertised the fact broad cast that the United States, and especially that portion called Texas, is good enough for any man. They went to h— of their own accord and now let them clear out or bust the cord.

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SUCCESS IN PEANUTS.

Recommended as One Crop in Diversification Scheme.

Believed That as Large Returns Can be Secured as From Cotton, Even Before the Advent of the Little Boll Weevil.

(By H. C. THOMPSON.)

With the advent of the boll weevil in Mississippi, farmers and agricultural workers of the state and national government began to look for a money crop which would in part at least take the place of cotton. Peanuts had been grown successfully in Louisiana for a few years so it was natural for the farmers of Mississippi to give them a trial. Aside from a small area in the southwestern section of the state, where a few enterprising men have been growing peanuts for two or three years, the industry is a new one. This is the first year in most sections and the acreage for market is about 50,000 with indications for a large increase next year.

While I do not claim any big things for peanuts, and do not advise anyone to grow them who has no confidence in them, I do believe that we can secure as large or larger returns per acre than has been secured from cotton, even before the advent of the boll weevil. I do not believe in growing peanuts to the exclusion of other crops, but recommend them as one crop to be used in the scheme of diversification now being advocated.

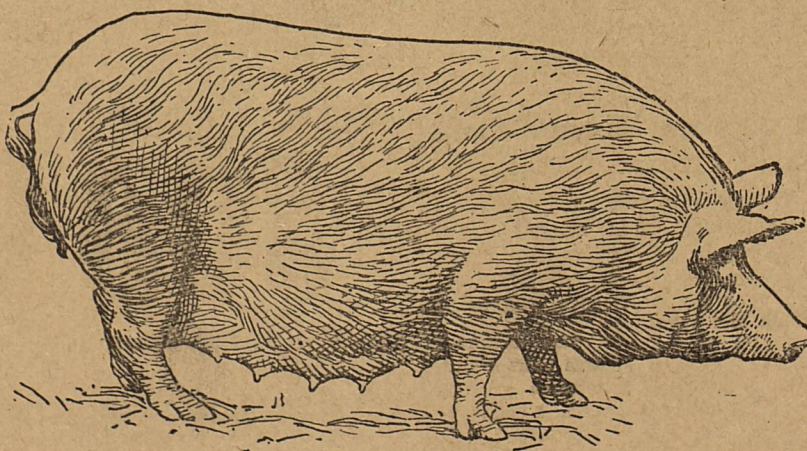

The boll weevil forced you to change your methods and in a few years you will be better off than you ever have been, because you have been taught to live at home. Wherever we find a section or a man growing feed for the stock and food for the table we find a prosperous section or a prosperous man. It is a well known fact that in years past the Southern states spent half of their cotton crop for necessities of life that could better be produced at home. The solution of the problem, therefore, is to reduce your acreage of cotton and grow other crops. The results being secured in Mississippi this year indicate that peanuts is one crop that should be grown.

The peanut crop is not what it should be this year, because of the poor stand, the lack of proper preparation of soil, lack of good cultivation, and unfavorable weather conditions. Wherever we find a good stand and where the peanuts were properly cultivated we find a good yield. Many farmers who planted peanuts had no faith in the crop, and what work they did was done in a half-hearted way. We would not expect good results from any other crop under these conditions, and should not expect them from peanuts. Considering all of these factors the crop is good. The yield will vary all the way from 10 to 75 bushels per acre, with the average for the state 25 to 30 bushels per acre. Thirty bushels is about an average, but is not a good yield any more than one-third of a bale of cotton is a good yield. We find many farmers securing 40, 50 or 60 bushels of peanuts and from three-fourths to a ton of hay per acre.

Throughout Mississippi we find a poor stand of peanuts and a resulting poor yield. The poor stand is due to the use of immature and broken seed and to poor preparation of the seed bed and unfavorable weather conditions. The immaturity of the nuts was due to the fact that they were harvested too soon and picked from the vines before they were properly filled out. The nuts were badly broken in threshing. We will look for better results next year, because the farmers will save their own seed and in many cases pick them off by hand. Each farmer who is growing peanuts, should save his own seed and make a selection of the best plants at harvest time. The ideal plant is one with a heavy yield of large, uniform nuts clustered around the base. Whenever such a plant is found it should be thrown aside and put up in a separate "seed stack."

BERKSHIRES EXCEL FOR FAMILY PORK

Splendid Type of Swine.

Berkshire hogs have been grown on my farm for two years. The sows are provided with individual houses, and the plan is to have them farrow in April. From 25 to 30 pigs has been the annual crop so far; however, I intend to breed more extensively in the near future. When pigs come in April it is possible to turn them and the sows out on pasture shortly after. Succulent feed cannot be substituted unless under expensive methods, and it has been my experience that the same gains and growth cannot be obtained as with good grass, says a writer in the Swine Breeder.

Berkshires are, in my opinion, a splendid type, because they are a large and healthy pig. They make the best gains on a given amount of feed and finish up smoothly with a large proportion of lean pork. From the standpoint of the consumer, they lead all breeds in quality and marbling of flesh. Aside from this, the sows rank among the most prolific of the lard type, besides making good mothers to large litters. To farrow ten, twelve, or even more pigs, and raise two or three is not very profitable, but the good sow seldom loses any.

I have a yearling boar in service at present, but prefer an aged sire, either one or two years old. Young sires are satisfactory, but do not give the service of an older pig, besides, the individuality of the sire cannot be determined until they have produced a number of litters.

Bro. L. C. Scott noted a curious incident a few days ago that demonstrates the theory that it is but a short step between animal instinct and human reasoning power. One of his hounds gave birth to a litter of pups, and a few days later was strychnine poisoned and died. The mother of this hound seeing her dead and the pups uncared for, carried the little fellows, her "grandchildren" over to her own bed, away from their mother's dead body. — Lamesa News.

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief From Suffering.

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Joseph Snyder, of Tiffin, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says:

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, clammy feeling,— could not stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr.

Miles' Nervine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle until I was entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SNYDER, 262 Hudson St., Tiffin, Ohio.

Many remedies are recommended for diseases of the nervous system that fail to produce results because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in such cases so many times that it is unnecessary to make claims for it. You can prove its merits for yourself by getting a bottle of your druggist, who will return the price if you receive no benefit.

Knocking the Editor

Of course you knock the editor. It appears to be considered by some as "real smart;" others knock on the local paper because it is a custom; still others knock against the editor because he has spoken in praise of someone they dislike. One of our exchanges covers the situation completely when it says that if the editor knocks your business through the columns of his paper or says anything uncomplimentary about you personally, you would nurse a grudge against him to your grave, and as time rolled by it would grow and grow in size till you would find it as hard to hold as a baby elephant soaked in grease. Now is such the case with the editor? He hears that you have ridiculed and run down his paper, that you have told the people on the streets that it could not come into your home; and then when you come along and tell him that your daughter has graduated, he praises her to the skies; says that she is the pride of the community, that she is the smartest thing on the earth, and that her honest parents have just cause to be proud of her. You can mark your paper "refused," stick it back in the office and boast of the fact to all your friends, humiliating him as much as you can, but if your son gets into trouble, rather than hurt your feelings he suppresses everything connected with the unfortunate case at the risk of being called a numskull who can never get hold of the news. He hears your denunciation, feels the sting of it all, and sometimes suffers financial loss as a consequence, but never uses the columns of his paper to even up. On the other hand, if you have anything to boost, he will boost it for you; if honors come to you or yours, he takes pride in heralding it abroad, and if death steals into your home, he will go to the bottom of his heart for tender expressions of love for the departed one and condolence for those who are left to mourn. You might sometimes think of these things while endeavoring by word or deed to belittle the editor and his usefulness in the community. You might put a brighter push on your Christianity by following his example.

Harris Happenings.

Messrs. Jim Wright and Ed Spear, left Tuesday for Fluvanna Ed carried a horse to sell or trade.

Roy Harris made a trip to Lubbock, last week. Mr. McLane accompanied him.

Glenn Harris left Thursday for Lubbock, on his way to South Dakota, and Minnesota. Glenn is a very popular member of our "younger set" and will be greatly missed.

Mr. Stephenson, of Plainview, bought down some prospectors in a car last Sunday, to look at his section of land which he bought from Mr. Hub Hooker, two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Brit Clare spent last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Christenson.

Mrs. McMillian and little son, Dyuglas, spent last Sunday at Mrs. Wright's.

Mesdames W. H. Harris and B. Clare, visited Mrs. Hub Hooker, last Sunday.

Mr. Christenson left Monday for Tahoka, after freight for Jno. B. Slaughter.

Mr. Fitzgerald sold his steer yearlings to Mr. John Yates. They delivered them Sunday.

Ellington Bros. left Friday for Lubbock, to deliver their steers to Mr. George of that place.

Mesdames B. C. Christenson, W. H. Harris and F. M. Ellington called on Mrs. B. Clare, last Saturday.

When we wrote up our news last week, we had not heard that Mrs. Wolforth arrived home Sunday afternoon, bringing her mother Mrs. Scott with her.

We had good rains here again yesterday, (Monday.)

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lupton came through Monday in their car. Misses Kavanaugh and Julia Mahoney, of Amarillo, and Mr. Houston, of Colorado City, came out with them, for a weeks visit on the ranch. Mr. Houston has made several friends on his previous visits, who will regret very much to hear that his wife died three weeks ago.

Notice Correspondents.

Herald Correspondents will meet directly after dinner in the District Court room, Aug. 8th, for a short chat and introductions, before the old soldiers programme begins. Now let's all be on hand promptly or you are going to miss something real interesting. Don't forget.

Don't Forget Dinner.

This county is entering an era of prosperity like she has never seen before, and lets show our prosperity and our hospitality by a big dinner and a fine entertainment on Aug. 8th. Terry county will have hundreds of guests on that occasion. Let's everybody do our whole duty or stay at home, especially Brownfield people.

Notice Fair Directors.

The Directors of the Terry County Fair are hereby called to meet at the Court House in Brownfield, Texas at three o'clock p. m. Saturday, Aug. 2nd. By order of

W. D. Winn, Pres.

Howard James arrived last week from Tatum N. M. and is working on the Merc. building.

All the talk these days lead to but the big celebration, Aug. 8th.

Lee Allmon is working on the Merc. building; also Buster Almon and Ernest Burnett.

Many people with sour stomach find relief in Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. Try them yourself. [Advertisement.]

We understand that John Waltrip, our old bachelor friend of the Groves settlement, is digging an underground silo. Let the good work go on.

M. V. Brownfield had Otis Harper to plow down the banks in front of the Bank building this week, the low places filled in and the walk elevated between there and the Merc. building. Hurrah for M. V.

Children like Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets because they taste like candy. Try them next time. [Advertisement.]

SWINGING OFF A WAGON BOX

Detailed Instructions, With Illustration, Showing How to Make Handy Device.

One of our subscribers sends the following suggestion for swinging off a wagon box, says the Homestead. B is a piece of 4x4 with a series of holes bored in it near the center, to balance the box, A is a chain fastening B to the framework above. D is a small double block, E is a single block, F is the rope, the hook G at the end of B fastens into a chain at the end of the box. H is a ring stapled to the opposite end of the box, to which the block E is fastened. When ready to raise the box pull on the rope and the box will swing free.

GOMEZ DOTS

On last Friday evening, a nice rain shower came over this part of the country. Then on Friday night we had an excellent rain. It rained all night, but we enjoyed it very much.

The Bible School this past week was very interesting. Bro. Dixon from Brownfield, the pastor and also Bro. Miller, from near Tahoka, were teachers. All who attended report an interesting study of the Bible. The meeting begun last week and will continue this week, while the Bible school has closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Leech have been in town this week attending church. They have a sick child which has been having fever but hope she will be better soon.

Every one is busy with their crops after the rain. The crops had begun to twist, but look refreshed after the shower.

Mesdames. Holland and Fletcher have been visting Mrs. Jim Key; also have been attending church here.

Mrs. Dixon came over on Tuesday and Friday from Brownfield.

Mr. Jim Burnett and family and Mr. Simon Holgate and family, Mrs. Whisnant, Miss Zellica Knox and Mr. Knox, went fishing one day last week. They report a fine time and lots of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hurst and Robbie Hurst came in Saturday to visit kin people.

Robbie Hurst is visting his brother, Mr. Ben Hurst.

Mr. Cherry came in Monday morning with a load of feed. We suppose he has ripe feed.

Rev. Balch was sick on last Saturday night, and prayer meeting was held instead of preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Rambo. and families, have been attending the meeting and the Bible School.

The summer school closed last week, as all the pupils are goging to be busy with crops and attending meetings.

Mr. W. H. Black went to Tahoka Monday, to get cement for his silo.

On last Saturday evening near Mr. Robinson's, Mr. F. D. Lemley's oldest girl (while returning from Tahoka on a freight wagon) happened to the bad accident of falling off the wagon and getting run over by one wheel. It is thought that the wheel ran over her right side close to her lower ribs, but it is thought she will recover soon.

Mr. I. H. Hudson's silo will be finished this week. We suppose that Gomez will look like a new place when all the silos are erected.

Grandmother Price, mother of Mrs. L. T. Brooks, was stricken with paralysis Sunday night, and has been very sick up to present. She is resting well, and we hope she will soon recover.

Mrs. R. E. Cleveland, daughter of Mrs. L. T. Brooks, and little daughter Virginia came in Monday night to be at the bed side of Grandmother Price. West Wind.

WHAT IS A SILO?

It might be said in answer that it is a device whereby a farmer may turn his live stock into a field of green corn, kaffir, milo, cow-peas or alfafa every day in the year.

The Ames Portable Silo is to feed stuffs what the preserving jar is to food stuffs. It preserves them while they are in season for use when they are out of season. Green feed placed in it is preserved and retains its succulence indefinitely.

With an Ames Portable Silo a farmer may keep on a few acres as large herds as his neighbors without a silo can keep on a large ranch. Silage is a fattening as well as maintenance ration.

Two years ago a government test of feeding value of silage was made in Donley County. One lot of 25 steers was fed silage with a little cotton seed meal. Another lot of 25 was fed cotton seed meal and hulls. The silage fed lot gained a little more than two pounds per day while the meal and hull fed lot gained a little less than two pounds. The silage fed lot sold at $6.25; the meal and hull lot sold at $5.95. The net profit on the silage was $10.27 per head; the net profit on the meal and hull lot was 67 cents.

The farmer who does not own an Ames Portable Silo cannot compete with his neighbor who is up-to date and provides cheap green feed for his live stock every day in the year.

The Ames Portable Silo can be taken down and moved from rented ground or from place to place on the farm or ranch and it will not blow down or fall to pieces from shrinkage.

Writing An Ad.

A bargain well told in the columns of the press is the most important information that can be imparted to the public and every merchant has articles for sale on his shelf and goods hidden behind his counter that the people need and are anxious to buy. To publicly present the merits of an article in a comprehensive and convincing manner is a most valuable talent in business and a most useful service to the community. Many merchants make the mistake of expecting the ad to sell the goods. The local paper can attract the customers to the store but the merchants must sell them, and if he has misrepresented the goods or is inefficient in the art of salesmanship he must suffer the consequences. A dead store is one that has no bargains and the merchant who expects his goods to sell themselves has missed his calling. — By W. Holt Harris.

Lindsey European Letters.

Judge Lindsey, chairman of the Farm Life Commission, is giving the Texas press an interesting and instructive account of his European trip with the American commission now studying the industrial life of the East.

Our civilization is scarily in its teens, and these grown-ups have passed many mile-posts in human affairs that we must plod slowly by, and Judge Lindsey and the Commission are reading the sign boards they have left behind. There is much to learn from the experience of the nations, and it some times takes Mother Earth centuries to tell the story of her abundant and to give up the secrets of her hidden wealth.

The right to sell cold drinks, confections and novelties, on the picnic grounds, Aug. 8th, was sold Saturday for $50. Alvin Duke was the successful bidder.
