FIFTH ANNUAL TERRY COUNTY FAIR HISTORY

The Best Exhibits and the Most Successful Fair Yet. Partial List of Premiums. At Brownfield Next Year. Uncle Bill Howard off for Dallas

Once more the good people of Terry county have gathered together in a social way and in a business way, to show what the virgin soil of our county will do, and to advertise to the world that we have confidence in our country and have lots of room and want the good people of the crowded areas, to come and make their home among the best and most sociable people on earth. It was our misfortune not to get over there on account of a rush of work, but we sent our better half to take notes and our heart went out also, to the people who were making history in Terry. Mrs. Editor as well as every other person we have interviewed, say without a single exception or the least hesitation that this is the best fair yet, and that the exhibits were good and numerous. Also that there was enough dinner to feed two such crowds. Editor H. B. Murry, of Post, representing the State Department of Agriculture, and Judge Gainer, of Plains, each made splendid talks. The exhibits were carried to Lubbock Saturday for shipment, and Uncle Bill Howard followed, Tuesday, as they will be under his charge during the Dallas Fair.

We will let West Wind and Mr. Funderburk, manager of horse and mule departments tell the rest, and if there are any mistakes please don't rear up and fall back, as it was not done on purpose:

"There was 87 varieties of field garden and orchard products displayed, and owing to the fact that we were only on the ground about one hour late in the afternoon, we found it impossible to get a full list of all exhibits or the names of all who won ribbons. Omissions or mistakes made are not intentional, and we hope no one will get mad, but if you do don't jump on the Editor, for he was not here. I have served the public so long I'm used to being "cussed;" so fire away, but keep out of hearing of West Wind. There was a large crowd and one of the most lovely days we have ever seen. Quite a number of Plains folks were here and those Brownfield folks sure heeded the Herald's command to bring well filled baskets; they sure brought a generous share. The dinner was splendid and plenty for everybody, and all seemed to have a good time and the people of the surrounding country were most all here. The business men of Brownfield were quite conspicuous by their absence; we hope their financial gains on that day rewarded them for ignoring their county fair.

FANCY WORK

Mesdames Robert Holgate and R. H. Banowsky, Judges.

WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS

After reading Sweet William's last piece of poetry, several citizens have vigorously protested against the publication of any more such poetry, saying it is a knock on the county. Now let us look into the facts and see if we can't kindly clear up matters. Sweet William started out by simply demanding that the Commissioners Court put a price on Mr. Jackson Rabbit's head—after the clay roads were finished. Roadster answered him in a vigorous, patriotic strain to the tune of more roads and better ones, entirely ignoring Sweet's plea for a little scalp money—not crap money. The latter feeling a little sore after seeing another favorite apple tree skinned from Dan to Ber Sheba, came back hard—and it did look as if he were knocking, and actually believed old Terry bankrupt. But we know old Sweet better than that; he would not knock good old Terry for a gold mine, no not him. Why don't you remember how he took the priming out of a real estate in a neighboring town last year, because the said land man took a pot shot at the sand lands of Terry? Why bless your life he'd take up his old musket and shoot his last rabbit load at a knocker on Terry. Also Bro. William is too much of a financier not to know how Terry stands. He knows her warrants have never been discounted or her seed begging bread. He also knows that the tax rate has never been raised, but always lowered and is about if not the lowest in Texas, about 40 cents on the hundred. You bet your socks, that poet will be here raising big taters and bigger melons when Gab blows his horn, but a poet has to make things awful lively or lonesome one, or he's no poet. Also Roadster is just as good citizen and almost as smooth poet, and will hold up his end or bust, by Gosh. Now, of course out of county readers don't all understand these two citizens as we of Terry, but see through the glass darkly, but now after this article we will suppose they see William and Roadster face to face. What we propose in the matter is a compromise and call it a draw, and that they each in turn set 'em up to the Herald for his trouble in getting them to sign the Treaty of Terry.

1915 Run May be Via Southern Route.

That the 1915 A. A. National reliability run will traverse the route now being surveyed by W. O. L. Westgard across the Southern States of the Union from Los Angeles to New York via Dallas, is the hint dropped by Senator W. J. Morgan of New York, who is making a tour of Middle Western automobile factories.

It is unofficially stated that the A. A. A. is considering at that time staging one of the biggest transcontinental tours that ever has been held. The idea is so big that all previous enterprises of its kind sink into insignificance. The tremendous enthusiasm shown by the Southerners over the transcontinental highway project brought the matter forcibly before the officials of the A. A. A. who are of the opinion that more than 100 entries can be enlisted because of the great advertising that would be given the tour by the Panama-Pacific Exposition promoters.

The attitude of Texans and of the Southerners generally show beyond a shadow of a doubt, Senator Morgan is quoted as having said, "that there is bound to be several well defined transcontinental highways equally as good as the rock road which is to be dedicated as a lasting memorial to Abraham Lincoln.

The Ocean to Ocean Highway Association has plans for a route through the Middle West and Southwest that are bound to mature as the project is backed by the typical Western brains and energy. There is enumerable good roads associations that have stretches of good roads that they are not going to see isolated like an oasis in the desert of the Western wilderness. Things will be blooming in the good roads line all over the west for the next two years, and once started will never cease.

It is expected that the announcement will be made very soon in regard to the plans of the A. A. A. reliability run from coast to coast. It is said that the proposed tour is intended in no way to detract interest from the Lincoln highway project, but to generate enthusiasm along some of the other routes, so that interest will not die out with the realization of one great ocean-to-ocean highway.—Dallas News.

So you see we are going to get this great tour right thru Terry county, with its world famed automobilist, and long newspaper and magazine articles about the country over which they will pass. Let us make our roads first class and get a free boost worth many times the money and trouble.

J. T. King has received a letter from the President of the Silver Laced Wyandotte Association of Texas, urging him to bring a pen of his birds to the coming Fort Worth Poultry Show. He can't say yet whether he will attend or not.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

Praises Panhandle Fair.

Judge Neill and family returned Monday from Amarillo, where he went to carry the Terry County exhibit. Terry county received one blue, two reds and two white ribbons at the Fair, which was quite surprising, as only a small exhibit, hurriedly gotten together was sent, our main exhibit being gotten together at Gomez, and will go to the Dallas Fair. The prizes were taken on seeded ribbon cane, blue ribbon; one red on red kaffir and one on native grasses; two whites, one on sudan grass and one on Egyptian wheat, and run close on apples and corn.

Judge Neill said that Dawson county had a fine and well gotten up exhibit and took several prizes he also said we would have gotten first on kaffir corn if it had not got wet, turned black and moulded in transit. We will try to have a better exhibit on hand next year.

The Judge reports good crowds, and that the management were enthusiastic over the first trial, and were fair and liberal minded gentlemen. The Amarillo Daily News credited our exhibits to Bailey county and never did correct it.

That Road Fund

The non-resident land owners are responding quite liberally to the circular letter sent out a few weeks ago by the Brownfield Auxiliary of the Southern National Highway. J. R. Hill dug a hill of sweet potatoes in his little patch back of the hotel that weighed six pounds each. He has a space there 25x40 feet that he says he will make $50 worth of potatoes on, thus showing what is possible here irrigating.

Mr. Lovelace who recently moved here from Parker county, has purchased 80 acres of the Welch place, one mile east of town, and left Monday with other freighters for the railroad after lumber and well supplies for his home. Thus another farm is to be opened in Terry. Welcome! We need a thousand more.

A. M. McBurnett was in this week begging help to come out and help him get rid of the prairie chickens as they are eating up his crop. E. L. Duke, one mile south of town, says he has to drive them out of his field every morning. Game law, game wardens or what not, as long as these birds are threatening peoples crops like they are now, they'll never get a jury in Terry county to convict a man for shooting them.

Harris Happenings.

Sweet William's revised version of Casey Jones is pretty good, but he has us confused in regard to what gender Terry belongs to. He uses feminine gender until the last stanza then says: "When poor old Terry dies he'll be buried all alone." Heretofore we have taken pride in the fact that Terry was classed in in feminine gender, but if it is going to die because of a small tax for the betterment of the county, by all means call it "he."

J. M. McMillan made a trip to Gomez Friday after repairs for his row binder.

H. F. Wingo is working for the Mallet's.

McPhaul Bros. cow outfit, passed through Friday, on their way to New Mexico after some cattle they have been pasturing out there.

Rev. Cox preached his last sermon of this conference year here last Sunday. Bro. Cox and his family have so endeared themselves to us until we, without any exceptions, hope to have him returned to us for another year. Bro. Cox with his wife and little daughter, Luetta, spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. B. Clare.

Not much news this week. Everyone is harvesting their crop.

Brownfield on Appraisment

Mr. M. V. Brownfield and wife came over from Brownfield Tuesday afternoon, intending to extend their trip into Mexico where Mr. Brownfield has some cattle interests, but on account of the heavy rains, they spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Plains. The editor of the News asked Mr. Brownfield while here what he thought of the school land appraisal. He said that a good many people in Terry county are benefited in a small degree, but they had not got what they had a right to expect, nor what the framers of the law intended them to have. He said that there had been great discrimination shown in the appraisal there. For instance, he said, some lands were appraised at $6 and $7 per acre and lands adjoining them of identical quality and grade were priced at $4 and $5 per acre. Mr. Brownfield does not own but one high priced section of school land, and that is situated in Yoakum county, four miles northwest of Plains, and is known as the Page McDaniel section. It has been appraised at $7 per acre the highest price placed on any other full section of land in the county, while other lands adjoining the town of Plains have been appraised at $5 per acre. There has evidently been discrimination shown in this instance, but it cannot be for the reason that Mr. Brownfield is a cow man. That this was not the reason why Mr. Brownfield's section was appraised higher than any other land in the county, we can take the case of Messrs. Benson and Ivey, who own a hundred times as many cattle as Mr. Brownfield, yet the board appraised their land at $3.50 per acre. Mr. Brownfield is one of the first ranchmen who came to this part of the Plains country, and unlike many other men ranching on a large scale, he has always been a friend of the settler. He has all the time encouraged the country being settled up by the farmers, and has assisted that class of citizens with money, teams and in many other ways; in fact no other man in the country has done as much for the farmers as he has done. It was by helping the son of an old friend that he came in possession of this Yoakum county section of land. He furnished young McDaniel with money to improve the land and stood for his grocery bills while he was living out the time. After Mr. McDaniel lived out his time he became dissatisfied and Mr. Brownfield bought the land and he moved back to Austin where he now lives. When the land bill was before the legislature last winter, Mr. Brownfield went to Austin at his own expense and remained there working for the peoples' interests until the bill became a law, and when all these things are considered, it looks like he has been unjustly treated in the appraisal of his land, and he and his friends would like to know why it was done.—Yoakum Co. News.

Yes, why? And also, why did they raise the price of his son's and all his special friends' land above everybody else adjoining? A dozen instances can be sited right here in Terry county. Mr. Brownfield himself had no high priced school land in this county. Right here we want to say that Mr. Brownfield is no better friend of ours than hundreds of other stockmen and farmers in the county. We often disagree on important questions, and our business relations amount to only one dollar per year. He hands us that amount in cash, and we hand him 52 issues of the Herald in return, but if he were a rank enemy, we would like to see a little semblance of justice meted out to him, his boys and friends. There is not many farmers in Terry county, who have been here any length of time, but have felt the strong financial hand of Mr. Brownfield directly or indirectly if in a tight, and they are just about as non-plused over this absurd appraisal as he. It is a well known fact that Com. Robison tried to crawfish on the Land Bill when he saw it was going to pass, although heartily in favor of it when he thought there was no shadow of a chance for it to pass, even writing the bill. If he ever was a friend to the bill, something or SOME-BODY caused him to FLOP. We have a faint idea that Mr. Robison believes Mr. Brownfield caught his hand and an extra card up his sleeve, and wants to make it just as hard as possible on him and his friends. Anyway, to our notion, this is the rottenest appraisal ever recorded at Austin, with not a trace of equality and justice toward Mr. Brownfield and many others.

Egyptians Great Fish Eaters.
In the intestines of mummies of 3,000 to 4,000 B. C. have been found vegetable fibers, grain, bones and scales of fishes, and bones and teeth of rodents. Several Nile fishes were identified. One woman had eaten 20 different kinds of fish just before her death and a child had taken a dose of mice, an old remedy for children's diseases.

GOMEZ DOTS

Last weeks Fair overshadowed other things here and the result is we failed to rustle news.

There was a box supper at the tabernacle on Friday night. My but they had a time. Those boxes looked good and the contents tasted fine—but Jim Key got his sights up a little and bid $1.25 for a box that from its size he felt sure contained lots of dainties; he got the box and on opening it found a livechicken.

Mr. J. T. Gainer and family were over from Plains attending the Fair.

Mr. Lemly passed through town Tuesday morning enroute to the railroad with a huge load of cotton.

Mr. Guy Taylor and wife came in Sunday afternoon from Lubbock, where they had been the past two weeks and where Mrs. took treatment for head and eye trouble. We are glad to say she is much improved.

Our Fair exhibits left Saturday for the railroad in charge of Uncle Billie Howard. The exhibit was good, but just about one half what these Terry county people could do if they would only try. If we really wanted the State prize for the best county exhibit, we could get it.

Mother's Club.

A number of the ladies of Brownfield met at the school house Saturday Oct. 11th, 1913, for the purpose of organizing a Mothers' Club, or Parent-Teacher Association.

An interesting paper on "The Aims of a Mothers' Club" was read by Mrs. W. A. Bell, after which the following officers were elected:

Mrs. W. A. Bell, President
Mrs. R. H. Banowsky, Vice Pres.

Miss Bertha Lowe, Sec.
Mrs. Esther Harris, Treas

A committee on By-laws and Constitutions was appointed and afterwards submitted a Constitution, which was voted on and approved by the Club.

Committee on By-laws and Constitution:

Mrs. Banowsky
Mrs. King
Committee on program:
Mrs. W. G. Hardin
Mrs. J. T. King
Mrs. Esther Harris
Committee on Entertainment:
Mrs. R. H. Banowsky

Mrs. Charley Copeland
Mrs. J. W. Welch
Having no further business to transact the Club adjourned to meet again at the school house November, 4th, at 4 o'clock p. m.

Secretary.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health.

Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt., says:

"I was afflicted with constipation and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.
