DRANK RADIATOR WATER

W. O. L. Westgard of the Three As Tells Some Experiences.

The experiences of W. O. L. Westgard, field representative of the American Automobile Association, while blazing the way for the all-Southern transcontinental motor highway between Los Angeles and New York, were both novel and numerous. Mr. Westgard is back at his desk at the national headquarters of the association, 437 Fifth Avenue, after a fortnight's rest, and is compiling a map and information for the fourth and last surveyed transcontinental route, which is to be published next spring.

His trail led him across the Arizona desert, in the shadow of great canyons, and up and over the stony grades in Tennessee and North Carolina. He is most optimistic, however, over the missionary work accomplished by the Pathfinding car in the interest of good roads, and firmly believes that within two years, or by the time the Panama Exhibition opens, this last route mapped will more than meet the demands for good going.

Perhaps his most trying experience was when, with his fellow travelers, including a motion picture man and Lord Branston of England, he had to drink water out of the radiator while stalled in the hot, shifting sands of the Arizona desert, when the supply of drinking water ran out. He says the only way to build a permanent road across the desert is to construct a trestle, for the roadbed shifts eternally and is obliterated in a day.

"Yuma, Ariz., was certainly the hottest place I was ever in," said Mr. Westgard yesterday, "and the road in Southern California were in very bad shape. We were treated royally at Phoenix, Tucson and Globe in Ariz. In fact, the people out there could not seem to do enough for us, and it was a continual program of banquets, given generally by the local Chambers of Commerce.

From Roswell, New Mexico, we struck fine going. At the Texas line we were met by a party from Brownfield, the county seat of Terry County, including County Judge, Geo. W. Neil, and they piloted us across the Plains of the Panhandle to Brownfield, where we spent the night. The roads here are excellent, and we could just spin along so comfortably, in fact, that our English guest made up for lost sleep en route. Brownfield is forty-five miles from Lubbock, the nearest railroad station on the Santa Fe, and it is wonderful what they are doing out there in the way of farm cultivation and good roads.

Arriving at Sweetwater, which is at the southern edge of the cap rock region, from which the Plains extend northward at an elevation of 3,000 feet, we traveled due east to Fort Worth and Dallas. I never saw people so enthusiastic about good roads as they are in Texas, and we were given a rousing welcome all along the line. In Arkansas we ran into a ten days rain, and in one section it took us a week to make thirty-five miles. We had to use block and tackle to get up the grades, and a four mule team had hard work pulling us out of the Arkansas mud in places. We hit stony and steep grades in North Carolina, but the mountain scenery almost atoned for the bad roads. They are just as keen on good roads, though, in North Carolina as in Texas.

We left Los Angeles on Aug. 9, and arrived in Washington D. D., on Oct. 16. Lord Branston and the motion picture man left us shortly after we were pulled out of a mud hole in Tennessee."—New York Times.

Educational Department

WHAT THE SCHOOLS OF TERRY COUNTY NEED MOST.

The Schools of Terry county need consolidation more than any other one thing where such a course is practicable.

Instead of having one room, one teacher schools, with small enrollment, short terms, and poorly paid, overworked teachers, two or more of the small schools should be consolidated into a High School with more teachers, longer school terms, better school houses and equipment for teaching.

Ex-Superintendent Bralley says, "The consolidation of school districts and the transportation of children to and from school at public expense are in successful operation, at this time, in thirty-two States of the American Union; and in each of these states the results, universally conceded, from the plan are better school houses with adequate equipment, larger enrollment of children, more regular attendance, elimination of tardiness, protection of the health and morals of the children in going to, and returning from school, better gradation of school, longer school terms, better trained teachers, and a decided improvement in educational sentiment, all without marked increase in the cost of school maintenance."

Under the present system it is impossible to have the efficiency in the rural schools that we should have. No one teacher can successfully do all the work needed in such a school, and as a rule the school is too small and the fund is not sufficient to employ more than one teacher.

But owing to the sparsely settled condition of our county such a system is not practicable, except in a very few instances. We hope that in the near future we may have conditions more favorable for the consolidation of schools than we have at present.

One thing all the schools in the County need is an interested patronage. The schools need patrons who will send their children regularly, who will talk for, work for, and stand by whatever is good in the school, and if some things are not just as they should be in the school, work for the betterment of those conditions.

If the school fund is not sufficient for the actual needs of the school, work and vote for an increase of the special school tax, even if it should add a few more dollars to your taxes. What is a few dollars compared to better educational advantages for your children? Whatever the conditions, stand up for the good in your school and work for better conditions. Do not be a Knock er.

Come to think of it, the bank statements of Brownfield, Plains, Seminole, Tahoka, Slaton and Lubbock, all show oocles of spondulix; but the reason is apparent, being on account of heavy deposits the editors are making.

The Terry County Fair belongs to every man, woman and child in the county, and all should take enough interest to attend the coming meeting. Just because there is a board of directors, is no sign they own it; they are merely the guardians of the people's property.

A fellow in this county who received an order of dry goods and groceries a few days ago, from a mail order house, liked to have fallen backward when he saw the freight was $18.00; he never thought before that his home merchant had a little freight to pay, and now we believe he has his eyes open.—Seminole Sentinel.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

KATY IMPROVEMENT WORK SUSPENDED.

Credit of Road Impaired by Hostility on Part of the State.

The announcement of President Schaff of the M. K. & T. Railway that his road would suspend extension and improvement work pending settlement of the $105,000,000 lawsuit, it is understood, has affected the expenditure of several million dollars on their properties and the litigation has created a feeling of distrust in railroad and financial circles.

The Katy railroad operates 1,610 miles of line in Texas, it touches most of the important cities, penetrates the most productive region of the state and one-half our population is tributary to its tracks. It is such an important factor in the industrial affairs of the State that its affliction is felt by a large number of our people and the litigation becomes one of general interest to the public.

The Attorney General seeks to prevent the Katy from leasing the Texas Central lines, alleges an unfair division of the rates on interstate business and claims violation of the general office law. In discussing this feature of the litigation, President Schaff said: "The action of the Governor and Attorney General in preventing the M. K. & T. of Texas from availing itself of this legislation has been most discouraging, especially in view of the overwhelming demand from all sections of the State for the passage of this law." Concerning the division of rates he calls attention to the offer made to the Texas Railroad Commission to co-operate with them in an investigation of this subject. It is a well known fact that the M. K. & T. Railway Company of Texas has its general offices in Dallas and that the president and general manager of the road reside in the State.

In discussing the effects of the suit upon the future policy of the road, Mr. Schaff said:

"All work of improvement and extension will necessarily have to be suspended, as we cannot afford to take the responsibility of expending additional money for improving and extending railroad property in Texas in the face of the hostile attitude of the State administration manifested in his litigation. The suit has destroyed the credit of the road in the money markets of the world until the company's rights have been determined in court."

MEN WHO ARE PUSHING THE BIG TULSA SHOW

No set of men have ever worked harder to make an exposition successful than that behind the International

O. D. Hunt.

Dry-Farming Congress at Tulsa. Two groups of men control its work. One, known as the Oklahoma Board of Control, is headed by O. D. Hunt, president of the Queen Bee Stove company of Tulsa, and one of the most prominent business men of the city. His associates are L. K. Cone, C. S. Avery, William Stryker, Eugene Lorton and C. A. Sanderson, all of Tulsa.

The second is known as the International Board of Governors. Its head is W. I. Drummond, of Elid, Oklahoma. With him are the Honorable W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, Regina; Honorable George Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture for Alberta, Edmonton; C. R. Root, of Denver Colorado; W. M. Jardine, of Manhattan, Kansas; A. M. Ferguson, of Sherman, Texas; O. D. Hunt, of Tulsa, and John T. Burns. Mr. Burns is the permanent secretary of the Congress and the man who, through his peculiar ability for organization, has made it the most important farm organization in the world today. Mrs. Eleanor L. Burns is secretary of the International Congress of Farm Women, a branch of the Dry-Farming Congress, and through it she wields a mighty influence on the lives of tens of thousands of women in many nations.

The big Brownfield-Sawyer ranches have consolidated on a dipping vat which is being constructed on the draw, two miles southeast of town, of concrete. Work begin Monday, and the engine was brought out the first of the week. This vat will also be used for dipping the town cows.

Mr. E. Thompson has purchased the McAdams residence and had it loaded last Thursday to move out to his place, two miles southwest of town, but after going about a block the teams stalled on account of the great weight and the mushy condition of the earth. They then hired Walter Gainer of Gomez, to move it, which he will do in the near future.

Mr. George Stiles, of Hamilton county, who owns a section of land in Terry county, was here last week. Mr. Stiles is very proud of his land and says he will write an article on Terry county for publication when he returns home. He would likely move out here, but his father died some two months ago, and he will remain on his old ranch and take care of his mother. He said the Herald was better than their paper, but we don't know that he was saying much as we never saw any of their papers.

J. W. Welch came in yesterday from Lubbock with a big load of coal, and reports the coal men say there will be no more nigger-head this season.

Installs Gasoline Pump.

The Brownfield Hardware Co. had a pit dug Tuesday near their gallery in which a five barrel tank was sunk and the latest automatic gasoline pump attached. Now, like in all first class cities, all you have to do is drive your car up, insert the hose in the tank, turn a crank and your car is soon filled.

The outfit cost between $200 and $300, and these people are to be congratulated in displaying their confidence in the future of Brownfield and Terry county.

Listen Business Men of Brownfield.

A goodly portion of those interested in the Terry County Fair living at Gomez and the west side, have expressed their willingness to make Brownfield the permanent headquarters of the fair, providing Brownfield will show a willingness to provide grounds, buildings, etc. and it is very important that they be on hand in full force and show a determination to prepare plans to build to in the future.

Now don't be so foolish as to think the west side people in turning the headquarters over to us, are going to require that we spend an enormous amount the first year, or that they propose to quit contributing time and money to its maintenance, but they do expect us to make some move toward grounds and buildings that will make our fair a permanent fixture for all time to come.

Let's everybody turn out.

Oysters

It is seldom we people this far from the railroad get a chance to eat oysters, and now that the Mother's Club will serve 2,000 big, fat ones next Thursday; and cheaper than one obtain them at any first class restaurant, with pickles and catsup, we hearty eaters cannot miss the opportunity to devour our fill of these delicious bivalves.

The ladies will begin serving then fresh or fried at 4 p. m. next Thursday, which is Thanksgiving day.

That being a holiday, people from the country can come in the afternoon and have a good time with us, eating, making merry and offering thanks for good health and this bounteous year.

The money obtained from the supper will be used in a worthy cause, that of beautifying the school building and grounds, and making it an attractive place for the children.

Value of Advertising

By W. Holt Harris, Chairman of Mercantile Committee Commercial Sec. Assn.

A modern business concern with its wide awake eyes on the balance sheet cannot overlook the fact that advertising pays big dividends. Printer's ink, distributed through the columns of the local paper, is the best advertising medium, and no merchant can climb the ladder of success without it. Truth in advertising is manifestly essential. It creates confidence, and confidence is the first requisite for securing buyers. Honesty creates good will. The good will of the purchaser is both desirable and necessary in successful selling.

Successful selling consists not only of furnishing the buyer with the commodity he desires. It is the least of the service he performs in selling. The manner in which the article is transferred to the purchaser, the courtesy kindness and decency with which the transaction is made is supremely important. This is the policy of the advertisers of this paper.

Many people with sour stomach find relief in Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. Try them yourself. [Advertisement.]

KING COTTON WILL SIT ON HIS THRONE AT THE TEXAS COTTON PALACE.

The Fleecy Staple Shown in All Forms From Planting to Making Cloth.

Cotton shown in all its forms from the plant to cloth will be one of the leading educational features of the Cotton Palace at Waco opening November 1st and closing November 16th.

All the subjects of King Cotton will assemble at the Palace. The by-products of both lint and seed will sit around the throne in the order of their importance and the manufacturing processes will be demonstrated in important instances. It is here all subjects will give an annual account to their king and the record will be one of glorious conquest and achievement. By visiting the throne room of King Cotton, one will be convinced that the half has never been told.

In the production of cotton per capita we excel any other country on the globe, and without our cotton the world would go naked and shiver with cold. Civilization has assigned to Texas the monumental task of clothing 300,000,000 people. To perform this gigantic mission, a half million plows must turn 12,000,000 acres of fertile soil per annum and over 2,000,000 people cultivate myriads of plants whose tiny looms weave from earth and air a fleecy staple that runs 4,600 gins, operates 113 compresses, runs 194 oil mills that crush 2,000,000 tons of seed, runs 30,000,000 spindles and fills the counters of two hemispheres with the most serviceable raiment the world has ever known. The story of the growth, utility and power of the world's greatest industry will be presented in a most convincing and unforgettable manner.

The whir of the machinery as it takes the fibre from the boll and transforms it into a beautiful garment for the wardrobe of mankind, is one of the most instructive and important lessons in Twentieth century civilization.

The turning of cottonseed from waste into profit is the most wonderful industrial achievement of the age. The seed, considered worthless a quarter of a century ago, now brings the Texas farmer $40,000,000 per annum. The by-products of this marvelous seed are legion and they will be on exhibition at the Palace, each telling a simple story of usefulness and power.

Seriously Hurt

Mr. Alf Howard, aged 59 years, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon, near the Abbot place, while returning home from Brownfield, caused by his team running away while he was opening a gate, running the wagon over him.

There was an ugly scalp wound over the forehead, and the skull fractured in three places, two near the nose and the other near the edge of the hair above the eyes, three ribs broken and pressing into the lungs.

He managed to get to an old house where he was not found until next day about 11 a. m. by Leslie Green who had been to town to visit home folks and was returning to the Mallet ranch. Being lost in the fog, he went to the house to enquire directions and found Mr. Howard in this condition. Leslie rode on to the U— ranch and he and Mr. Gordon brought Mr. Howard to town in Mr. Gordon's car.

Mr. Howard's condition being so critical that he needed expert surgical attention, Dr. Treadaway phoned for Dr. Ponton of the Post Sanitarium, who arrived here Sunday night at about 9:30, and left Monday morning with Mr. Howard in his car, for the sanitarium at Post, and the latest phone messages report him doing fairly well. Mr. Howard says he never was unconscious, but this is not probable, as there was a great quantity of blood where the accident occurred.

It might be explained that the reason his family did not miss him is that they maintain two places and they did not know which one he would return to Saturday night.

Judge Ray Brownfield.

Mr. D. J. Broughton and family, of Brownfield, spent Saturday night and Sunday here visiting Ed Moore and wife.

J. W. Spear and wife, accompanied by Mrs. R. K. Benton and little son, went to Brownfield last Friday, and spent the night visiting Mr. Dooley's family near Gomez. They stopped on their return.

Mrs. Joe Lane and Miss Mary Pulliam visited out at Plains and stopped here on their return. Mrs. Duke of Brownfield, who had been out there visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Pulliam, came back with them.

The engine at the gin has not been working properly for several days, so that ginning is progressing slowly. Quite a crowd of waggons of cotton are standing there waiting the repairs. An expert machinist cannot be secured here, and the engineer cannot remedy the defect which is a lack of power.

gins and shoes, but if he doesn't enjoy going so far to trade and then having his trouble all over again, why the solution is easy, just trade nearer home where his trade will be appreciated so much that the merchant will be careful and not make such mistakes.—No, the solution isn't so easy either, West Wind. If you will just peruse the columns of the Herald real close, you will notice that with the exception of A. P. More, who does not handle shoes, that there is not another merchant nearer than Brownfield that noise it abroad each week that they have the goods, including shoes to sell. Brit Clare is an up-to date fellow, that reads closely, and he like others, has found out that the merchant that uses printers ink sells goods cheaper. No, Brit will come back to Brownfield, as he had rather be mismated occasionally by a modern merchant using modern methods than to be mated by an "old rut" merchant that dont think enough of his goods to toot up their merits. Stay with the advertiser.—Ed.

Well, Vance Glover has a new air gun, a present from Robert Hurst of Lubbock, and Vance is the proudest boy in Terry. He wouldn't think of changing places with Gov. Colquitt. He and Raymond Adams hunt all day.

Mr. Winn carried a four horse load of cotton seed home from the gin, Tuesday.

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are especially well adapted to women and children. The Sisters of Christian Charity, 531 Charles St., Luzerne, Pa., who attend many cases of sickness say of them:

"Some time ago we began using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and find that we like them very much. Their action is excellent and we are grateful for having been made acquainted with them. We have had good results in every case and the Sisters are very much pleased."

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, no matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned. All parents know how hard it is to give the average child "medicine," even though the taste is partially disguised. In using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, however, this difficulty is overcome. The shape of the tablets, their appearance and candy-like taste at once appeal to any child, with the result that they are taken without objection.

The rich chocolate flavor and absence of other taste, make Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets the ideal remedy for children.

If the first box fails to benefit, the price is returned. Ask your druggist. A box of 25 doses costs only 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.
