District Court

The April term of District court was called together Monday by Judge Spencer, with Atty. Lockhart, D. J. Broughton, clerk and Geo. E. Tiernan, Sheriff, all in their places. The Judge empaneled the Grand Jury and immediately set them to work, and after two days labor returned five bills of indictment, all felonies. The following is their report. "We the Grand Jury of this term of court, have found five bills; there being nothing else worthy of our attention, we ask to be discharged. We have searched diligently into any and all crimes that have been brought to our notice, and find nothing further than the bills returned.

The following cases were tried without jury, as the Petit Jury was discharged Tuesday noon.

State of Texas vs. Frank Haynes, alleged theft; dismissed by motion of District Attorney as main witness for State was absent, and the evidence not sufficient to convict.

E. S. Buffington vs. E. E. Buffington, suit to cover title to survey No. 35, in Block 4. Judgment for plaintiff.

H. G. Loper vs. J. O. Green et al; suit on note. Judgment for Plaintiff.

Yours Very Truly,
George Stiles.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of thanking the good people of Brownfield and Terry county for their liberal donations after our great misfortune in losing most of our household goods by fire, recently. It is a great blessing to live in such a community. Again let us thank you.

Respt.

G. E. Lockhart

It is with pleasure that we are permitted to again present the name of the above gentleman and citizen for reelection to the office of District Attorney of this district. There is not much that we can say in these columns about the subject of this sketch that most of the citizens of this county don't already know, as he was once a citizen of the county, and it was here that he did most toward his rapid ascent up the ladder of fame. Suffice to say that he came here from Scurry county, and taught the Gomez Public School a term or two, built up a good land and abstract business, all the time putting all his spare time to the study of law. Later he took a course in the University of Texas, and since that time has steadily gone forward until now he is recognized as one of the leading attorneys of the Plains. He has only held the office one term and believing that he has made good in every way, we feel that he is entitled to re-election. When we asked "Lock", as he is familiarly known here, what he wanted us to tell the people, he said: "Anything you want to, but I want the fact emphasized that I want the office again." We ask that you give his candidacy careful consideration.

Mrs. W. R. Spencer paid the Herald an appreciated call this week.

By Digger

There are a great many people planting their crop. All seem to be very busy.

There was church at J Cross Sunday and a very good crowd. After Sunday School, Bro. Williams preached us a mighty good sermon.

Mr. Bridges and wife and T. E. Lovelace, spent Sunday with Wes Lovelace and family.

Mr. Merrit was in Tokio, Monday.

Wes and Norman Lovelace have gone up to Mr. Merrit's to look at some cattle.

Norman Lovelace and wife spent Sunday evening with Jim Wright and wife and Bob Lovelace and wife. All had a good time.

Mrs. Wrotan was at Tokio, Saturday.

Tom Lovelace from Brownfield, was up here around Tokio, last week.

Mrs. Armstrong has a big boy, it is getting along nicely.

H. L. Ware was out at church Sunday.

Dr. Treadaway went out in Yoakum county last week to see Mr. Young's little girl, who has been very sick but is getting along nicely.

John Smith got burnt very badly one night last week. He was making a fire with gasoline and the can exploded and caught on fire and burnt him pretty bad. His wounds are getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. Cherry and sister, spent Sunday with Mrs. Benton.

H. L. Ware will move out on his ranch Monday. We will all be glad to have them back in our community.

J. W. Hamm was in Tokio, this afternoon.

The Ellington boys have some calves here for the inspector to inspect. They are taking them to Mexico.

G. W. Snodgrass was in Tokio this afternoon, also the Rushing boys.

THOSE wanting under-ground silos, will do well to figure with us as we are well equipped with tools and can plaster. Address C. M. Fitzgerald & Miller, Lubbock, Texas.

There is one farmer in the county at least that lives off the farm, and that is Rev. M. D. Williams. Every other day you will see him load up with milk, butter and eggs and come to town. Some people make fun of this kind of marketing, but you will always notice that the man who sells what he cannot use at home is not always mortgaging his stock for supplies.

The pains of neuralgia seldom fail to yield to Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Ask for them yourself. [Advertisement.]

Society

Mrs. W. G. Hardin, Ed.

Doubtless the editors noticed my failure to come up with my part last week, this was due to various causes, namely lagrippe and a failure on the part of our townpeople to supply the material, which would have been my subject, but as this is, I hope, a sufficient plea for pardon. I will proceed to record the doings in our little city as faithfully as I can. I wish the people would inform the Society Editor when she doesn't happen to be one of the number, otherwise we might unintentionally leave some good society locals unchronicled.

Misses Annie Hamilton and Bertha Lowe made a very short but pleasant visit to the Braidfoot ranch. We heard the former, by chance, relating her adventure to a friend, and all it would take to make her the happiest girl in the world is a nice man like her host, a ranch like that and an automobile. Is there an eligible young bachelor in Terry?

We visited the suburban home of M. D. Williams Sunday evening. We enjoyed the time spent there very much. Mrs. Williams took some bread and asked Robbe Marion to go with her to see the fishes eat. It was very interesting to her but none the less to her parents. We should like to see that place in a few months from now, for the way Mrs. Williams has the soil turned, we believe she will have a crop.

We were told Sunday evening that a couple of our young people were married, and we almost believed it. We are not as a rule so easy, but it has grown to be such a likely probability with those young people, seeing the time is not far hence; we just bit, that's all.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist Church and a few visitors, were entertained at the W. A. Bell residence, by Mesdames Welch and Walters. Good papers were read by Mesdames Green and Dixon, which were appealing to women of any denomination, portraying the Christ life and our duty in regard to habits to be formed in the life of the child by our own daily practice. The meeting being purely a business one, matters pertaining to church affairs and its upbuilding, were discussed. Refreshments of cake and punch were served and the meeting adjourned to meet next with Mrs. Welch, and I have an invitation.

The young people all went out to Pleasant Valley, Saturday night. The occasion, the closing of a singing school, taught at that place by Prof. Clyde Lewis. On account of colds, we had to forego the pleasure, but we heard many hearty expressions of praise from those who did go.

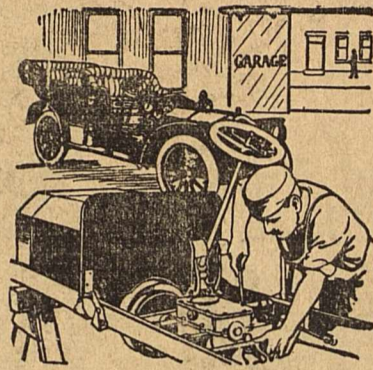

We were made sad last Monday by the message that Grandma Banowsky was very low, in fact no life expected. Mr. Banowsky immediately left for her bedside. We hope with the anxious ones, that such a life as her's might be spared yet awhile, and as she once asked us to do, when she was trying to accomplish some good church work, which we all knew she was physically unable to do, she called our minds to Moses and bade us uphold her hands, would that we could do the same now in this her hour of need. But knowing we cannot, we will trust her to the care of the Father she is trusting and with her loved ones, wait, watch and hope.

Mr. Hobbs, who lives in the northern part of the county, brought in some branches of peach, plum, apricot and cherry, this week that were well loaded.

Mr. Hobbs says he will have plenty fruit for his own purposes this year, and probably some to spare. He owns the old Abbot place, has one of the best orchards in the county.

Tom May and family came in this week from the Sawyer ranch in New Mexico and says that if it ever rains out there he has got some big tanks ready to catch the water.

The Sawyer outfit left Monday for Midland, where they will receive and bring back a herd of steers.

The Herald printed some programs this week for the closing exercises of the Gomez Public School.

Don H. Bigger the hustling candidate for Representative of this district, was in attendance at court this week, and informed us that he had received considerable encouragement. Don is an old timer of the newspaper business, and of course as is natural, hung out with ye editor considerably. He forgot his cards, and we hit him for some of his candidate money for cards while here.

Hon. R. A. Sowder, of Lubbock was here this week in the interest of his candidacy for the office of District Attorney.

While here Mr. Sowder called on the Herald, and we found him a pleasant conversationalist, and a very agreeable gentleman, and fair in every way to his opponent. If there is anything that gets on our nerves, it is a mud slinger on a campaign. After personally meeting Mr. Sowder, we are even more convinced that should the people decide to make him their choice, he will make a good attorney.

ISOLATION AND DRUDGERY THE TWIN ENEMIES OF AGRICULTURE.

The Rural Church the Guiding Star of Progress.

The New Rural Civilization.

By Peter Radford.

We are confronting a new rural civilization. It is so radically different from the life of the past that it may well be called new, not merely because of its characteristics, but because of its triumph in rural co-operation and leadership. The utilization of modern agencies, and the use of farm machinery have greatly increased the efficiency of the farmers, broadened their vision and made life more satisfying.

The most serious enemies to country life are isolation and drudgery, and perhaps the worst of the two is isolation. It is the curse of the country. The hunger of young people for companionship has been disregarded and in various ways the social instincts have had their revenge. The fruits of modern inventive skill and enterprise have enriched country life and afforded the facilities of banishing forever the extreme isolation which used to vex the farm household of the past. The telephone is a great social asset in the rural home; the rural free delivery brings the world's daily message to the door; the parcels post delivers ten million packages per annum at a half million homes and the automobile annihilates distance, making isolation a myth. The building of public highways has brought communities and farm homes closer together.

The Slave of Drudgery.

It is a dramatic moment on the farm when machinery emancipates the slave of drudgery. The evolution of farm machinery is a continued story of human ingenuity. One man now, by the aid of modern mechanical devices, can do as much as five or ten men used to perform and the work is less burdensome and more fascinating. The miracle of conquest will lift the curse of drudgery that has crushed the courage out of farm boys and caused them to retreat to the cities. There are many labor-saving devices for the homes that can relieve the wife of back-breaking tasks. Labor-saving machinery has wrought educational problems that have engaged the attention of the boys, relieved the housewife and added new economies and values to farming and has taken away self pity and given them a genuine pride in their calling. We need to take full advantage of these facilities.

Co-Operation the Key-Note.

One test of modern civilization is the capacity for co-operation. The selfish days of the independent farmer are rapidly passing and we are beginning to catch the vision and share the profits of organized efforts. There are many farm machines adapted to serving a community, but organization of farmers is required to purchase and operate them on a co-operative basis, and new laws are needed to permit these transactions.

New Tasks for the Rural Church

The rural church has been slow to adjust itself to the new order of things. The churches are discovering new opportunities for service, broader community usefulness and a greater social mission. The church must gird itself for new tasks and under a new virile type of leadership undertake real community building with the modern church as the center of activity and source of inspiration and guidance. The triumph over isolation and the gradual emancipation from drudgery, the development of good roads, telephones, rural mail service and the wonderful evolution of farm machinery make for religious advancement. The increase in intelligence, new social consciousness, growing spirit of co-operation, added efficiency of rural institutions, character, home building and better rural morals afford opportunities for a community-serving church to demonstrate its power. The rural church to fulfill its mission must swing around it the influences for progress.

THE WOMAN IN THE FIELD

The Farm Woman Needs Relief
More Than Her City Sister.

By Peter Radford.

Much has been said and more written about the woman in the factory and behind the counter, but how about the woman who works in the field? I want to say a few words in her behalf. I regret a necessity that compels woman to work for a livelihood and I favor not only shortening her hours, but freeing her from manual labor entirely. I crave for society that high standard of excellence where the home is woman's throne and her life is devoted to molding the character and elevating the thought of the rising generation. But so long as want, greed and misfortune prevail in this world, women, through choice or necessity, will work, and perhaps they will work at one task or another as many hours per day as they please.

We may pity the weak and admire the strong in their struggle, but the farm woman is entitled to her share of sympathy and reward.

All Must Toil.

The labor problem, as relates to men, is a most vexatious one and when we apply it to women it becomes more seriously complicated. We will always have to work unless some political genius can put a law on the statute book that will enable us to live without labor. So long as every person must meet toil face to face, the best we can do is to equitably distribute the burdens and reward of labor, and if there is to be a revision of wages and a shortening of hours, I want the farm woman to get her share. She has more reason to complain than any other class of toilers. She has, as a rule, fewer comforts, fewer pleasures, less recreation and less opportunity for enjoyment than her sister in the city. She has not so many conveniences and fewer luxuries and less to be thankful for than women who live in the town, but she toils on, a model of consistency, patience and womanly devotion. Certainly she should be the first to be rewarded.

The Real Labor Problem is on the Farm.

The great dailies with flaming headlines deplore the lot of women who toil in the cities, the city pulpit thunders with sympathy for her and the legislators orate in her behalf, but not a line is written, a word said or a speech delivered in the interest of the million women who labor on the farm. Where one woman works in the cities in Texas, there are a hundred mothers toiling in the field, and no mention is made of it. Is the woman in the city entitled to any more consideration than the woman on the farm? I contend that she is not. The city woman may be more easily restrained by legislation and she may have a more attentive audience when she cries aloud, but the real labor problem, insofar as it relates to women and children, is on the farm. It is there we find the mother, drenched in perspiration, and the child, its lips wet with mother's milk, wielding the hoe and gathering the harvest, toiling day in and day out without hope of reward.

The City Life Puny.

The farm women work from sun until sun. They do their housework and lull a half million babes to sleep after the chickens go to roost and they get breakfast and milk the cows before the lark sings. The city woman frequently chafes under hardships that the farm women would consider a blessing. The city people are great talkers and oftentimes greatly magnify their troubles and enlarge their accomplishments. This characteristic permeates organized society as well as enters into the individual life of cities. There are orphan asylums which are doing commendable work and should be encouraged, that boast of their accomplishments, but I have seen widows in the country make a crop, drink branch water and eat corn-bread and molasses and raise more children and better children than many of these city orphan asylums. The cities need to get back to the soil with their ideals. They are hysterical, puny and feeble in their conception of life, its requirements and its opportunities.

Food is Foundation.

Food and food production for the dairy lies at the foundation of successful dairying. Unless the foundation is well laid the business will be a failure.

Jno. W. Cone and Judge Ferguson, spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Brit Clare, on their return trip to Lubbock.

W. H. Harris and son, Roy, made a trip to Lubbock this week after supplies. They took four big hogs up there and sold them at 7c, on foot, and twenty-six cured hams and shoulders at 18c and 16c, respectively.

A very pleasant and profitable school term closed here last Wednesday under the very capable management of Miss Mabel Latham. Judge Gainer was present and spoke a few words of praise and encouragement to both teacher and pupils.

The younger set enjoyed the party at F. M. Ellington's, Wednesday night. Mrs. Ellington is a charming hostess and going there means being entertained, therefore all are desirous of a repetition of the event.

The Misses Latham visited the Misses Harris from Wednesday afternoon until Friday afternoon.

Hub Long passed through Friday with 1500 head of stock cattle, which they were moving from Yoakum to Kent county. A Mr. Sawyer, who had been taking care of the cattle up here, was moving along with his family.

L. H. Hooker and J. M. McMillian came in from court at Plains, last Thursday afternoon.

Pool & Holloway passed thru Saturday with 500 head of four year old steers, which they were taking to Abernathy to ship.

R. W. Glover, the assessor, was around Saturday. He spent Saturday night and Sunday with Brit Clare and family.

We received our Library books Saturday and that night a crowd of us met at W. H. Harris', where we numbered the books and spent a very sociable evening playing 42, etc. Delicious cakes were served with coffee and tea for refreshments.

Mr. Latham and daughter, Miss Lola, of Bronco, came in Saturday after the other daughters, Misses Mabel, (our teacher) Jewel and Thelma, who have been attending school here. We have never met more refined and lovable girls than the Misses Latham, and we wish we could have kept them with us.

The Malletts left Sunday for Midland to bring back a herd which they have been pasturing down there during the winter.

L. H. Hooker and two little sons, Arvel and Fern, started to Lubbock, Monday.

B. C. Christenson and F. M. Ellington are attending court in Brownfield, this week.

Millard Ellington came in from King, N. M., last Sunday afternoon and will spend some time here.

Howard Wingo is working for the Malletts again.

Brit Clare went to Brownfield Monday on business.

Thanks, Mr. Editor, for the roses you handed us.

On Kentucky Campaigner

Senator Ollie James likes to tell jokes on his friends and is responsible for the following one:

Oscar Turner and Judge James Bennett were opposing candidates for Congress in Kentucky. They had long been bosom friends and did not let their political fight interfere with their friendship in fact they made the campaign together.

"One night about dusk they rode up to a farmers house and asked to spend the night. It was too dark for their host to recognize them. As they were unhitching their horses Judge Bennett asked the farmer whom he intended to vote for.

"For Turner," he answered promptly; "Everybody around here's going to vote for Oscar."

The judge thinking to be funny at the expense of his friend remarked: "I am surprisid at that! why, don't you know Turner is drunk all the time. He couldn't possibly stay sober long enough to attend to the public's business."

"Yes," said the rustic, "I've heard that he drinks a powerful sight, but we uns believe he's got more sense drunk than Bennetts got sober!"

Needless to say they never told the farmer who they were, but they had a great argument the next day as to whom the joke was on.—Ex.

Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many people before their time. Often, before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Rosa Bonner, 825 N. 18th St., Birmingham, Ala., says:

"I have been suffering with nervous prostration for nine or ten years. Have tried many of the best doctors in Birmingham, but they all failed to reach my case. I would feel as if I was smothering; finally I went into convulsions. My little girl saw advertised in the papers and I at once began to take it. I continued to take it for some time and now I am well."

If you are troubled with loss of appetite, poor digestion, weakness, inability to sleep; if you are in a general run down condition and unable to bear your part of the daily grind of life, you need something to strengthen your nerves. You may not realize what the matter with you, but that is no reason why you should delay treatment.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

has proven its value in nervous disorders for thirty years, and merits a trial, no matter how many other remedies have failed to help you.

Sold by all druggists. If first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned.

Clint Rambo moved into Mrs. Stapps house Monday, so there is one vacant cottage in town.

Paul Hudson has recovered from his spell of pneumonia, and was in town last Friday.

A. P. Moore says he has the sweetest job in town, for he sold twelve sacks of sugar last week. Well, some of his customers may be sweetening up some.

The graduating class this year for our school will be the largest in number and youngest in age (from 15 to 17 years) that we have ever had. The entire closing exercises will be free.

Ben Wolfarth is in from the ranch this week.

Mr. Rambo and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holgate visited at Simon Holgate's, Sunday.

Dr. Treadaway passed thru here both Sunday and Monday going west, but we failed to learn who who was sick.

H. L. Ware is suffering with glandular trouble in the throat.

We stated just after the last freeze that all our fruit was killed, but we were mistaken; the grapes and mulberries are not hurt, and the J. C. Lewis orchard just west of the square has some peaches left. We have grape vines that were cuttings, not rooted, set out just 13 months ago that have from three to five bunches of grapes to the vine. Grapes set in this sandy land and given plenty of water, will make fruit without any cultivation at all, and if properly cared for are the surest fruit crop of any, as they bloom late, and are hardier than other fruit.

We have some garden lemon seed to give away to anyone that wants them. Send self addressed stamped envelope to West Wind, Gomez, Texas. They make fine preserves.

Earl Hargett passed through last week with their horses, which they had wintered on their Yoakum county ranch, and carried them to their new home at Shallowater in Lubbock county.

D. 1914, same being the 27th day of April, 1914, then and there to answer the plaintiff's petition, filed in a suit in said court on the 24th day of February, A. D. 1914, wherein E. S. Buffington is plaintiff and the above named parties, together with A. J. Beardsley, are defendants; file number of said suit being 211. The nature of plaintiff's demands are as follows, to-wit:

That the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple, and has possession of the following described lands, situated in Terry county, Texas; being 640 acres, known as Survey No. 35, in Block 4-X, about 13 miles N., 27 E. from the center of the county, located by virtue of Certificate No. 318, issued to the Central & Montgomery Ry. Co., and patented to A. J. Beardsley, with field notes as follows:

Beginning at stake the N. E. cor. or Survey No. 34, this Block for the S. E. cor. of this survey; thence north 1900 vrs. to stake for N. E. cor. this survey; thence west 1900 vrs. to stake for N. W. cor.; thence south 1900 vrs. to stake for S. W. cor.; thence east 1900 vrs. to the beginning.

That the other defendants are setting up some claims, or title to said land, to plaintiff unknown, in that they have transferred certificate to lands, of the same number as to this plaintiff's land. That these claims constitute a cloud on plaintiff's title to said land, and plaintiff pleads the three, five and ten years' limitation to same, and prays that all claims, right and title of each of the defendants be divested out of them and vested in plaintiff; that he be quieted in the title and possession of said land, and that the error in his deed be corrected and remedied.
