HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent.

Secretary Bryan is trying to get all nations signed up under a promise not to fight any more but he has not sent the proposition to Raz Barlow and Ellick Hellwanger yet.

There is some talk of the Night Riders organizing in this section for a fall campaign. The wild Onion School Teacher, who can disguise his handwriting and spell bad has been chosen as secretary and will send out a large number of anonymous letters.

The Hogwallow Mail Carrier has been notified that there is a swarm of bees at Tickville to be brought to this place by parcel post. He is not exactly afraid of them, but he can handle them better by bringing them one at a time.

Yam Sims was seen at the Dog Hill church last Sunday. He just went because Miss Flutie Belcher was there.

Washington Hocks is back at home after a weeks stay at the moonshine still on Musket Ridge. He reports a big time and will be able to sit up in a few days.

The rats have carried off nearly all of Tobe Moseley's corn, and he says if he can find out which ones it was they won't eat any more of it.

A traveling man was in Tickville Saturday selling safes, but none of the merchants would buy one as he did not bring one or them to examine.

Tobe Moseley took down his front porch this week and stored it away in the smokehouse, as he will not want to use it any this winter.

The Old Miser went nut hunting Tuesday, and when he got home he found that he had brought along several with worm holes in them. He took them back at once and got good ones instead.

Sim Flinders fell through the loft at the Hog Ford church Sunday morning while preaching was going on. He had gone to the loft to hear the sermon through a crack without paying the preacher anything.

As soon as the hen lays twice more Miss Hostetter Hocks intends to go to Tickville on a shopping expedition.

Miss Fruzie Allsop has just received a booklet entitled, "How to Win Any Man—With a View to Matrimony." She is studying the book thoroughly before trying it out on Yam Sims.

The Mail Carrier desires to announce to his patrons, also his friends, that he will hereafter consider it an insult when a letter is sent special delivery. He thinks if the public cannot trust him and a two cent stamp, they had better not write at all.

The Regulators near Tickville have written a stranger that he will have to mend his ways or take the consequences. The stranger has just moved in and does not know that people in this section are regulated just like watches and clocks.

The Coroner from the Calf Ribs neighborhood reports that he has had two more cases since his last report. Gradually he is coming into prominence as a public official, and in another year or two hopes to be kept so busy that he can give us his side line of bottoming chairs.

A man has to hurry to drink out of a strainer.

The snakes of this vicinity are preparing to depart for their winter quarters. They expect to return early next spring much improved in looks.

Atlas Peck's favorite rat cat died a few days ago, but he says if the news gets out, every rat in the neighborhood will flock to his house.

The Hogwallow Postmaster has handled several post cards lately that contained writing of no importance whatever, and as his time is valuable, he asks his patrons to refrain from writing unless they have something to write about.

HOGWALLOW EDITORIAL

Several complaints have reached concerning the bad condition of the path leading to and from the Moonshine still conducted by Bat Smith, on Musket Ridge. The path is the most traveled one in the community and surely should be kept in good condition. The taxpayers have a fortitude that is highly commendable.

They put up with what Congress does without saying a word about it outside their own respective neighborhoods, but the time comes when suffering ceases to be a virtue, a halt is called. There are many bad places in the above mentioned path, one that is not in any way excusable. That is the place where the path crosses a ditch, just this side of Columbus Allsop's home. This place is also beyond getting over, under certain conditions of both men and the weather. Now it would cost but a mere pittance to remedy the place, and it is of vast importance to the community that it be remedied at an early date.

THE TERRY COUNTY FAIR

Come and Bring Your Products. Long List of Prizes on Farm Products. Basket Picnic.

As the committee was afraid they would give a little publicity about the Fair, which is to be held at the Courthouse Park Oct. 8th, the same being Thursday, we will add a little more, for fear some will think we are expecting no one and will not prepare for anyone. We want to say however that in spite of all the knocking you may hear that we are preparing for the best Fair ever held in Terry county, for the simple reason that we have the goods to make it a go, and there are enough good boosters behind it to insure success.

We might mention again that some two weeks ago, we offered four Farm & Ranch's (yearly subscriptions) and the publishers of Farm & Ranch seeing same, have authorized us to offer four yearly subscriptions to Holland's Magazine, for them. As we had offered Farm & Ranch for things men usually produce, we have put all the Holland's Magazines on the ladies department, as the publishers left that matter up to us.

As most people had given the matter of sending the exhibit to the Dallas Fair over, we thought it a good scheme to go among the business men and see about getting some prizes for the people right here at home who are doing so much agriculturally for Terry county, and we want to say that we met with good success, as the following will show. The Directors met last week and decided on the time, appointed their committees on arrangement, etc, and now everything points to a glorious time on the day of the 8th.

The Directors of the Fair have authorized the following prizes: $5.00 for the best display of stock.

$5.00 for the best agricultural and horticultural display.

$5.00 for the best Textile and Cullinary display.

The Brownfield Mercantile Co. offers the following: Good pair of men's gloves for the three best vines of peanuts. 50 lb sack of Texas Best flour for the best three loaves of light bread made from Texas Best flour. Value $4.00

The Brownfield Land Co. offers the following: $1 for the biggest watermelon, and fifty cents each for the best ten ears of yellow corn, best ten ears of white corn, best ten heads of white and red maize each, best ten heads kaffir and ten heads of feretia. Value $4.00.

E. B. Wright offers the following: 50c each for the best half dozen fryers. Sack of Belle of Wichita Flour for the best cake cooked from Belle of Wichita Flour. Cotton sack for best stalk of cotton. Value $4.65.

Dr. Treadaway offers 50c for the largest musk melon.

Farm and Ranch Pub. Co., offers a years subscription to Holland's Magazine for each of the following: Best crochet work, best tatting, best pound of home made candy and the prettiest fancy quilt. Value $4.00.

The Herald offers four yearly subscriptions to Farm and Ranch for the following: Best head of cabbage, best peck of peanuts (large variety) best trio of Bared Rock and best trio of Rhode Island Red chickens, and a years subscription to the Herald for the best trio of Leghorn chickens. Value $5.00.

D. J. Broughton, $1 for best peck sweet potatoes.

Geo. W. Neill $2 for the nicest 10 lb. bucket of lard.

Fred Scudday $1 for the best two year old filley.

Brownfield Auto Co., $1 for best two year old gelding.

Jack Drinkard $1 for the best mule colt.

J. R. Coble $1 for the best horse or filly colt.

C. S. Cardwell $1 for the best yearling jack.

Brownfield Hardware Co., $2.50 for the best stallion, any breed.

Dee Brownfield, $1 for the best gear old filley.

Besides these there will be some others that haven't yet decided what they will give prizes on, nor how much, but they will be listed and made known the day of the Fair, so you had best bring a good supply of things, so that if you are defeated on one thing, you will have a chance on many others.

Remember to bring that well filled basket that distinguishes all Terry county gatherings, and we will have one more feast this year together. To those who aim to come a distance, we will say that the grass on the town section is good, and there is plenty of water handy. Everything will be arranged that you will have a good time, and we will see that there is not a dull minute while you are here.

Come one and all and bring some products as well as a dinner basket.

Clark-Kimmel Wedding

James H. Kimmel, the popular dry goods salesman at Jno. P. Lewis & Co., and Miss Pearl Clark, one of Lubbock's most popular young ladies, surprised a large circle of friends last Saturday night, when they became husband and wife. Elder Liff Sanders officiated.

Only a very small number of their most intimate friends knew of the marriage until next day.

They are now receiving the heartiest congratulations from their friends and the Avalanche wishes to chime in with a big arm full of the biggest congratulations we have in stock.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Harris

By Sand Bur

Well, Mr. Editor, we were just simply too sick with La grippe and Bronchitis last week to get our news letter off in time for publication. Ugh! that was awful but we are mighty glad to tell you we are able to be around again and eat. (Glad you're up.—Ed.)

Roy Harris has been cutting feed for Mr. Yates for several days. A number of our farmers have been keeping time to the music of a row binder.

Mrs. L. H. Hooker and children and Mrs. Zeffa Bell spent last Sunday with Mrs. J. M. McMillan.

School is progressing nicely our pupils have begun with a vim.

Mrs. R. K. Benton and little William took dinner with Mrs. W. H. Harris last Wednesday.

Mrs. Zeffa Bell visited in the Fitzgerald home last Wednesday night. She also spent Friday night at W. H. Harris' and Saturday night with Mrs. B. Clare. We all like to have 'teacher' visit us.

Jno. B. Slaughter came in with a herd Saturday and will be here some time seeing after his ranching interests here.

J. C. Dooley is out from Gomez today, Sunday, looking after his interests here.

Miss Eula Alexander and brother, George, attended Sunday School at Harris this afternoon.

Miss Ethel Harris accompanied Miss Emma Spear to Tokio Saturday to carry the mail.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theford's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man. Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theford's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c. N. C. 17.

Fire Prevention

Greater love hath no man than to lay down his life for a friend, and the greatest love, it seems to me, ought to be that which saves a friend the fruits of his labors.

Every man is responsible to his fellowman. The fire fiend is no respecter of persons; he walks like a pestilence at times.

You owe it to yourself that your property is kept in condition, wholly unattractive to fire damage, or its master, the fire fiend. But in greater degree, you owe protection to your neighbor through protection of yourself.

Fires are easy to prevent. Seventy-five per cent of them have no cause to occur.

A little foresight, constant care and vigilance will reduce both your fire insurance rates and liability of fire loss. These three are better than all extinguishers ever invented or fighting companies ever formed.

Catch step with your conscience. Join the increasing army of "safety firsters."
By S. W. English, State Fire Marshall.

Our Tahoka Trip

Through the courtesy of Jno. C. Scudday, who was going east to wind up his daughter's business down there, we had an invitation to a seat in his Ford to Tahoka, Wednesday, and gladly accepted, and that is the reason we are a day late with the Herald this week.

We found that there had been many substantial improvements made over there since our last trip, nearly two years ago, especially in the way of sidewalks.

We found our old advertisers, S. N. McDaniel, N. D. Goree and the McAdams Lumber Co., doing a good business at their old stands, though we did not find the time to visit the latter, as we were rushed every minute we were over there. Neither did we have the time to call on our old friend, Editor Crie, of the News, as we learned that he was sick, and could not be at the office.

Among the new advertisers whose ads appear in this issue are, H. C. Smith, formerly a blacksmith of this town, who has a very modern establishment in that city, and will be pleased to see his old friends on either business or pleasure. He also has a first class grist mill and crusher in connection. Then there is Cleve Williams, an Ex-Terryite, who has the best line of harness, saddles and leather goods in this part of the country, and will make them to your special order. Look him up when in Tahoka. Again, there is our old advertiser G. W. Snider, the coal and grain man, that stands ready to fill your wants in his line, and he will give you good stuff too, and all that is coming to you. Try him. The other one is the Edwards Bros., dealers in coal and grain in both retail and wholesale quantities, and are on the track near the depot. We found these gentlemen very courteous and obliging, and we are sure they are fine men to do business with. In connection, they have one of the most modern gin plants in this part of the country which they showed us through, and we want to say that we were astonished to find such a plant over there. They are able to gin your bale while you wait, at the rate of one bale every fifteen minutes.

We returned with freighter, Jimmie Green, who fully instructed us in the mysteries of this business, and we want to say that freighting is not so bad after all, especially if the weather is ideal, as on this trip.

Rev. Durham preached at the Baptist church here, Saturday and Sunday at eleven a. m. and at night.

Rev. Leverage, a trustee of Seth Ward College at Plainview, was here last week from Thursday to Saturday.

Booth Hayes and wife and little Edna, passed through last Thursday enroute home.

Geo. Bragg was here last Thursday, also Saturday.

Walter Gainer carried Mrs. Foreman and little J. A. Jr. to the railroad last Thursday and came in with a big load of coal and other freight Saturday.

Arthur Moore and Alvin Duke went to Tahoka for freight last week.

Willie Adams was sporting a black eye last week the result of (not) riding a calf. Willie said: "Well I did not have a fair show for I did not have any spurs, and he tossed me over his head, but he cannot do it next time."

A letter from Lois Reeves states that she arrived in Waco at 11 o'clock a. m. on Friday, just twenty-six and one half hours after she left here. That's right good time for a mail schedule 55 miles from a railroad at the first of the journey.

The cleaning up and repairs at the gin are almost complete and Mr. Key says he will be ready for cotton sometime next week.

H. L. Ware was in town both Thursday and Saturday last week and will move in this week. He purchased the cottage just north of the blacksmith shop, last Saturday, from Ben Hurst, and will henceforth be a home owner in our town. Mr. Ware stated Saturday that they had killed nine rattlesnakes in and near his yard in a few days time. Snakes seem to be more plentiful this year than they have since the country was first settled.

Will Winn was in town Friday hunting a hand to work. He is suffering from a sore foot and can not work himself.

A big crowd of school children and quite a lot of older folk, enjoyed a reunion in Earley Key's cotton patch last Saturday. There was neither music or a cold drink stand but cotton picking was the amusement, and 85 cents per hundred the price paid for picking and they all had a good time and will meet in the same field next Saturday.

Tom Glover got in last Wednesday evening with his furniture and they moved out home Friday.

Most every one in town is suffering with severe colds and

Mr. C. C. Short and wife visited out at W. H. Fulton's last Sunday.

Mesdames Reeves and Rambo visited Mrs. A. P. Seitz last Sunday.

Prof. White and family visited at Mr. S. H. Key's last Sunday.

September is gone and it has been an ideal month for harvesting, almost no rain, and nearly all clear hot weather. Cotton patches a round Gomez are white. The children picked one hundred pounds at Early Keys last Saturday, and the demand for hands to work is greater than we have ever known. The shockers after the row binder here are getting $2 per day.

Well this will leave in Tuesdays eastbound mail, hope it will get there on time. (Thanks Come early again.—Ed.)

Wiley Bridges was over from Brownfield last Saturday.
