HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent.

HOGWALLOW SOCIETY

Cricket Hicks, who has been confined in the Rye Straw jail with a complication of charges, will be given a comin-out party Saturday night by the jailer's daughter.

Everybody except Yam Sims has been invited to the social struggle at the home of Miss Cordelia Hellwanger next Saturday night. Yam will probably go any way if he sets his head.

Miss Hostetter Hocks is preparing to sing at the entertainment at Bounding Billows Saturday night. She just sung there a few weeks ago. Nobody will go from this vicinity as everybody here knows her.

Raz Barlow has been invited to bring his fiddle to the candy pulling that comes off at Musket Ridge Saturday night, and he is practicing up on a lot of sweet tunes.

HOGWALLOW THEATRICAL NEWS

The curtain at the opera house at Tickville has been worn out by being raised and lowered so often, and until a new one can be bought the audience will have to keep its eyes closed between acts.

Jefferson Potlocks says some men with their promises are like a lot of fiddlers—They are all the time tuning up but never play.

The Rye Straw Store Keeper has decided that in these days of competition and high tax, he can make more by cutting an inch or two off his yard stick than he can in regular profits.

The Tickville Tidings, in its last issue, called an entertainment a rare treat. Raz Barlow says that is not what he calls a rare treat. He says when a fellow calls you out behind a stump and gives you a drink of raw whiskey, then you have had a rare treat.

Frisby Hancock's brother-in-law died near Rye Straw Tuesday, and Frisby will drive his black horse for a while.

After a brief mental rest the Wild Onion School Teacher has again opened school and the scholars are learning very fast. Little Fidity Flinders, who within the past few months got behind with his studies, has caught up with the rest of the class by tearing a few leaves out of his book.

Raz Barlow has improved the appearance of his home with an enlarged picture of Miss Fruzie Allsop.

HOGWALLOW POLITICS

The Trustees met at the Wild Onion school building Monday afternoon to decide whether or not they would let the Wild Onion School teacher keep on teaching the school. The teacher was present at the meeting, and delivered an address, taking up each of the trustees at a time and complimenting him very nicely for his ability as a trustee. He declared that never in his life had he met a finer lot of trustees, nor a set of gentlemen with fairer minds and broader views, and was of the opinion that their equal could not be found. He wound up his address by announcing that he had "wrote an article about them and was going to have it published in the Tickville Tidings." The trustees then went into business session and unanimously chose the teacher for another term.

The Deputy Constable has levied on a cow and calf owned by one of the Potlocks, near the Wild Onion school house, for an old debt, and left for there yesterday to spend the night with him to keep him from getting mad.

Resolutions

Whereas in the providence of Almighty God, he has called from this world, the devoted wife of Bro. J. B. McReynolds:

Therefore be it resolved by the Brownfield Lodge No. 530, I. O. O. F., that we extend to the bereaved ones our sincere sympathy and condolence:

That a copy of these minutes be furnished Bro. McReynolds, another to the Terry Co. Herald for publication, and one to the local Odd Fellow Lodge for their minutes.

Respectfully Submitted,

Everybody Pleased With The Fair

Success from every angle is the unanimous verdict of those who came. Small crowd present.

We have seen larger crowds in Brownfield by far than there was here last Tuesday, but we never saw a prouder crowd, for the simple reason that they saw the products of old Terry at their very best. Owing to a slight misunderstanding of dates there were a third less people here and probably that much less products than there would have been had the dates been well understood. Then, to, probably the fact that it looked somewhat like rain, and there being so much stuff in the field yet, cut quite a swath in the crowd. Anyway we had plenty of that good old Terry county dinner, and that always evens matters up.

We are going to try to give a list of those that won blue ribbons or prizes here that day, and if we leave anyones name out, please do not feel hurt, but let us know the next time you see us and we will gladly rectify the same. We will not try to give the names of those who won second prizes, as that would lengthen matters too much.

LIVE STOCK

W. B. Carson, best display of live stock; blue ribbon and $5.00
W. B. Carson, best two year old filley; $1.00

A. P. Seitz, best filley colt; $1.00
Jno. E. Gracey, best mule colt; $1.00

T. J. Price, best stallion; $2.50
Will say for the benefit of those who may inquire about the matter that there still remains five $1 prizes yet uncalled for in the stock department, as follows: Best two year old gelding; best yearling jack; best year old filley; all purpose; best year old horse or filley colt, any breed; best year old horse colt, all purpose. If you had any stock of the above description, that took first prize, call on the Herald for the names of parties who gave them. Or if you have won a prize in any department and don't understand who is to pay you, ask us.

FARM AND ORCHARD

Red Maize, E. T. Stapp; White maize, W. B. Carson; Red kaffir, J. C. Lewis; White kaffir, Earl Williams; Feterita, E. T. Stapp; June corn, W. G. Hardin; White corn, J. P. Nichols; Yellow corn, E. T. Stapp; Red corn, J. T. King; Mixed corn, W. G. Hardin; Two other kinds, Thomas DeShazo; Sudan, J. C. Lewis; Best display apples, E. N. Groves; Watermelon, John Peters (though T. J. Price had a heavier melon, 73 pounds, and got the dollar.) Best stalk cotton, W. G. Hardin; Best peck potatoes, W. G. Hardin; Best bundle ribbon cane, (seeded) E. T. Stapp; Best general display, Wm. Howard; Best peck peanuts, Geo. Black Jr.

The managers of this department write under this that, "A large number of garden truck and miscellaneous arts without competition, therefore, a record was not kept."

G. W. SNIDER TAHOKA, TEXAS

Everytime we think our watchful waiting is about over in Mexico, we have to sit down and wait some more; will they never catch up?

Everybody with any self respect hates a liar, but when a person deliberately tells us one, when we know it is when they are telling it, we have absolutely no more use for that person.

We noticed that the Seminole Sentinel we received this week was printed forepart behind. Editor Bachman is a new hand at the business, and even us old hands are as full of mistakes as a strainer is holes; therefore he need not feel hurt at any cutting criticisms he may receive; he will live to learn how alright.

Nearly every one is saying that they thought the time for big wars was over, and so thought we, but none of us had taken into consideration the fact that the war lords of Europe have been preparing for years to be the master, and the further fact that they can declare war without the consent of Congress. Take for instance the United States and Canada, they have lived peaceably for one hundred years, in fact never fought unless the war was started in Europe, and there is not a fort the whole length of their 2500 mile boundary. Nations like six-shooter people; when they are itching for trouble, they generally find it.

Every once in a while, some of the business men of Brownfield, ask us why we don't boost this town as a trading point more, that a sight of our trade is going to other towns and to mail order houses. If even a casual reader will glance over our advertising columns, they will readily see why we don't and why they do.

They will see that the combined ads of all the business men of Brownfield, average little more than $20. per month, and as they send away for most of their stationery, the total business exceeds $30 per month very little asking you to pardon us for personal reference. Anyone who has been buying groceries lately, know this amount goes but a mighty little way toward feeding four hungry mouths. We get nearly twice this amount at Lubbock, and nearly as much at Tahoka, and with the county and outside business we manage to live. Some of the business men of Brownfield are doing the very best they can, and we appreciate it but there are others who range from nothing to 30c to 50 cents a week for advertising. No wonder no more people come here; couldn't tell to save their lives what there is here, by looking at their ads. A town is invariably judged by its newspaper, and if it were not for our headlines, a stranger would think the Herald was published in Lubbock, and merely carrying a few little foreign advertisements from this place. Hereofore, we have been bringing this money home, and spending it for our monthly bills with these 30c merchants, but we are going to cut it out, as we believe our business belongs to the people who deal with us. Possibly they think a paper a non-essential, but we are going to hang and rattle, not that we are mortgaged up to our eyes and can't, for on the other hand the Herald owes no man a cent, and we can drag it to greener and more appreciated fields any time, but with the loyal support of Lubbock and Tahoka, we are going to stay on till the time comes when some live wires invade this territory, for our time to laugh. We could get plenty of foreign mail order ads, but out of respect to the business men of Lubbock and Tahoka who spend in the neighborhood of $800.00 a year with us, we will not take them. Gentle reader, you may think we have been attacked with a good case of the grouch this week, but when the support of the home town is less than it takes to keep a leghorn hen and chickens alive, we've not the heart to say: "Come to this city to do your trading, or Mr. Doolittle, our foremost and progressive, general whang dang merchant has just received a car of such and such," when we know there is no more progress about them than a terrapin. How can an editor have the heart to drag the people over the coals for ordering by mail, when the merchant has his stationery printed in St. Louis. The catalogue house does advertise, as Fort Worth dispatches will bear us out that four car loads of catalogues were recently unloaded there by one firm, for mailing to Texas people alone, postage being in excess of six thousand dollars. We are mad at no one, and hope they are not mad, but we have begged, argued and pled our last. We don't ask quarters and don't propose to give any, but when the business men of Brownfield want space, they can get it, and then we are ready to boost them with box car letters. They either think their business needs no publicity, or else to drotted stingy to buy space, one or the other.

FOR SALE:—Two good residence lots, in first addition to Brownfield, about two and one half blocks from the square. These are corner lots fronting south or west. Price $75 Apply at Herald office.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

No one would be willing to do more to lighten the burdens, increase the safety, comforts and profits of those who labor in commerce and industry than their fellow toilers in agriculture. But how about the farmer who bows his back to feed and clothe the world and who works from sun until sun? Is he not also entitled to an increase in pay and a shortening of hours? Much has been said about the women in the factory and behind the counter, but how about the woman in the field, drenched in perspiration, gathering the harvest, and little children, their lips wet with mother's milk, toiling by her side? Are they not also entitled to consideration? Is not the man who digs in the ground entitled to the same consideration as he who toils at the forge, weaves at the loom and works behind the counter?

The farmer has been bearing his burdens as patiently as the beast he plows, but is patience a bar from justice? The labor problem of Texas today is on the farm and the first attention should be given those who labor in the field.

The Need of Cheap Money.

Agriculture has never been properly financed. The farmer pays a much higher rate of interest as a rule than any other class of borrower and his property, especially that of farm products, is not so readily accepted as a basis of credit as the property of other lines of industry of equal market value.

The farmers of Texas owe $200,000,000 and they pay from ten to thirty per cent per annum interest. This load, more than any other, is breaking the back of the Texas farmer.

A rural or land credit system is needed that will enable a farmer to buy a home on long time at a cheap rate of interest. The land problem in Texas presents extremes that probably do not exist in any other country on the globe. More than half the farmers are landless and we have 11,123 plantations and ranches containing more than 1,000 acres each and 12,833 with 500 to 1,000 acres each. We have more large farms and ranches than any state in the Union.

A statute based on sound business principles that will enable the landless to buy and encourage the large land owner to sell, is much needed and one that merits the most serious consideration of the legislature.

The financial problem of the state and nation is on the farm and first attention should be given those who create the nation's wealth.

Compulsory Education Favored.

Our educational problems cannot be satisfactorily solved by making more liberal appropriations for our Universities and colleges and we may add, district schools.

The educational problem in Texas at this hour is not in the school room. It is in the home and the field. It is a hard struggle for many farmers to keep their children in local schools and 42 per cent fail to do so and not over 5 per cent send their children off to high school, although 60 per cent would gladly do so if they were not restrained by poverty.

We now have 230,000 children of scholastic age that can neither read or write. There can be no excuse given to either God or man that will justify parents in raising their children in ignorance, no matter what hardships it may entail and there should be a law passed compelling children to attend school during the entire school term. Such a statute and better paid teachers and a more practical course of study will increase the efficiency of our boys and girls for the battles of life.

In higher education there is involved a financial obligation which cannot be discharged by statutory enactment. It can only be met by making the business of farming more remunerative through a system of co-operative laws and better marketing methods.

Our educational problem is on the farm, and first attention should be given the country school.

Stock and Bond Law.

The stock and bond law is a masterpiece of constructive legislation that no one would repeal but a few would amend. We are not sufficiently familiar with this subject to offer a suggestion, but at the expense of being considered impertinent we want to ask if this is a perfect piece of legislation? A great portion of our state is yet unrailed and the present facilities are inadequate to properly handle the traffic. The extension and improvement of our railroad properties is a matter we leave in the hands of the railroad commission. We assign this subject to their wisdom, ability and patriotism and do not believe their work should be blocked by opinions or restrained by superstition.

Good roads is a subject of overshadowing importance and additional legislation is much needed. The problem of transportation is on the farm, for the farmer is a beneficiary of all improvements in highways and railroads.

Our Penitentiary System.

Our penitentiaries have been the subject of much public discussion and legislative action. The farmer stands for humane treatment of convicts, efficient business methods in operation and character restoring of the criminals, but does not think the penitentiary should be made a more attractive place to live in than the average citizen possesses. We think convicts should work upon the public highways where they do not compete with free labor, either in agriculture or industry.

We think this subject has been given prominence in the press out of proportion with its importance, as compared with other public measures. There are over a million farmers outside the penitentiary who, we think, are entitled to preference in legislative enactments, over those who are on the inside.

In closing let us say: These conditions challenge the statesmanship of the age. We must select leaders whose ears are attuned to the song of the plow, the music of growing things and the melody of the harvest. Only the strong should shoulder the burden, the swift enter the race and the brave lead the battle. It will not do to choose leaders who will cower under the lash of fear, tremble before the phantom of superstition, kneel and kiss the skirts of fame and fondle the hand of ambition. We need men, strong and powerful, who can rise above factional strife, partisan prejudice and conquer the forces of civilization.

PETER RADFORD, Ex-President,
Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of Texas.

Uncle Bill Howard had the champion apple at the fair, though it was almost rotten. He said it measured 14 inches in circumference when it was first pulled.

Although there was some misunderstanding as to the date of the fair, it proved to be a success from every angle. While the attendance was not up to usual, the stuff that was brought in was above an average.

Jim King was showing us some sample grains of his strawberry corn this week that were fine long fellows. Jim says he will get between 30 and 35 bushels to the acre

HIGHEST cash price paid for cotton delivered at Tahoka, at all times. Brandon & Miller, Tahoka, Texas.

J. T. May informed us this week that he has cut his second crop of feterita, and got 2000 bundles from it, and 2500 from the 1st cutting, making a total of 4500 bundles off five acres, about $25 per acre off $10 land.

Upon rising Wednesday morning, we found a good sprinkling of frost and mercury down to 33 degrees. It is not thought the frost will hurt anything.

Harris

By Sand Bur

The Timms boys came up Monday afternoon and helped T. J. Conley fill his silo. They returned home Thursday.

Brit Clare went to the U-Ranch Wednesday to assist with the dipping there.

Dipping is over with at Cotten's Ranch. Those who were interested say they are indeed glad that work is finished for a time.

Frank Davis is working for W. H. Harris now.

Roy Harris started to Lubbock last Thursday after supplies for the store.

A letter from Mrs. F. M. Ellington at Ranger Lake, N. M. says they have not received a copy of the Herald in over a month and the result is they are getting lonely as if some of the family are gone.

Last week we saw their copy of the Herald handed out to Marlin Ellington here at Harris. Mr. Editor please see that their paper goes to Ranger Lake N. Mex., in the future.

We sent it to Ranger Lake for a while but as the post master over notified us that no such people lived there, we changed it back to Harris.—Ed.

There was no school at Harris last Monday and Tuesday as our teacher accompanied the Misses Fitzgerald up to Cotten's ranch to see some real cattle dipping going on. The girls at least report a jolly good time.

Sandy you voiced our sentiments when you wished you could write as good letters as West Wind, but if events don't happen faster at Meadow than at Harris, you would certainly have to be gifted with your pen if you got up such letters. It is harder to hear of what has happened in a little country neighborhood anyway than it is in Brownfield or Gomez.

West Wind's letters are good but we would really miss yours too, Sandy.

Mesdames Hooker and Merritt and their children went up to Cotten's ranch Thursday to see the dipping.

The dance at B. C. Christenson's last Friday night was enjoyed by all present. The Timms boys furnished the music. Misses Rowena Grady, Grace and Pearl Ellington with Millard and Floyd Ellington were there from Meadow.

Jno. B. Slaughter left Saturday with a herd which he was driving to his ranch near Post City. Mr. Slaughter was out several days dipping his cattle.

Bro. Cox, wife and little daughters spent Saturday night with W. H. Harris and family. Sunday. Bro. Cox preached us two good sermons and the dinner was enough to tempt anyone's appetite.

The Cotten School begins today, Monday, with Miss Pauline Adams of Bronco for teacher. We met Miss Adams during the summer and we feel sure they will be pleased with their teacher.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Alf Bell, Thursday morning, a fine boy.

Bro. B. F. Dixon passed through Monday from Plains, where he had been to fill his regular appointment.

Jno. Peters brought the editor the largest melon last Friday that he has received this year, weighing about 60 lbs. or about all we could carry. It was of the black oval variety. Thanks!

W. B. Carson brought in a sample of his white maize this week of the much sought goose neck variety. Mr. Carson made so much maize this year and the hands were so scarce, he offered one half for the other to get it gathered.

Harry Braidfoot has traded his Hup. to Mr. Cunningham for some sheep, and has also bought the Jno. S. Powell herd of sheep and will run them on his big pasture until they thin out the weeds.

In conversation with Jno. S. Powell this week, he informed us that he did not know what he would do since selling his sheep, that he might buy another herd. The reason he sold them was that they had cleaned out all the weeds in his pasture, and that the grass was getting so rank they were doing no good. It would pay most of our ranchmen to at least run a small herd of sheep until the weeds are thinned and by that time they will like them so well that they will keep them on.

THE HERALD $1

FARMERS: We have on hand about 2000 envelopes that we are no longer keeping in stock, that we will print your name and address on for 50c per hundred, or sell you 100 for 25c without name and address. This is almost as cheap as the blank envelopes and they will always return to you.

Our old friend Geo. Black Sr. of Gomez, and his brother from Stephens county, were over on business this week and brought the editor some nice kershaws. We were pleased to have them to dinner with us.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lowe, Sunday morning, a fine girl.

DON'T forget to order those cheap envelopes the next time you come to town.

Messrs. Muse and Lane, of Cleburne, Texas, old acquaintances of the Adams, were here this week visiting the latter. Mr. Muse is representing some kind of an electrical company.

CHICKENS: Will pay 15c for old roosters, 30c for hens and 25c for friers. J. R. Hill.

We have heard that old expression "what have we done with our summer wages" several times this week, and while some people think it awfully funny, it is so dogged real to us, that we are getting tired of people looking at us when they say it.

We have done got tired of asking people about their crops this year, for every mother's son of them promptly answers, "got a good one, go out and help me gather it." If they could tell us they had a good one without asking us to help them work, we wouldn't mind it. Hereafter, if we fail to say anything to you about your crop, don't think for a moment we are not interested.

Uncle Bill Howard treated the Herald force to a water bucket of nice apples from his orchard this week. Among them were the gano, winesap, and Missouri pippin, all of which were fine. Uncle Bill had the largest display of apples at the fair, having nine varieties. He was followed by Will Alf Bell, with four varieties.

Miss Schieffer, the music and expression teacher, informed us this week that she and her classes had decided to put on exhibitions this term and pay for a piano for the school auditorium, which we must say is very much needed. She says she is able to get one of the best pianos in town at a very low price. We think this real nice in Miss Schieffer, and hope the people will give her undivided support.

Her class will give an exhibition at the school house Saturday night, free. All are invited to be on hand.

Now for a little friendly rivalry between the Dramatic Club and the Music and Expression pupils. Lets see if seats are in the hall first, or will a paid for piano go in first? A treat to the winner.

Cotton occupies 45 per cent of our cultivated area.

Within the past decade the cotton acreage of Texas has increased 25 per cent.

An acre of Texas cotton, in 1912, was worth $27.19, including the value of the seed.

Texas cotton, in 1912, yielded 206 pounds of lint to the acre and had a value of 11 1-2 cents per pound.

Texas is not only the leading cotton-producing unit, but is also the principal exporting center of the globe.

Galveston, Texas, is the world's leading cotton exporting port.

Houston, Texas, is the largest inland port cotton market in the world.

At one planting a seed of Texas cotton will multiply 1,600 times.

To plant the Texas cotton crop requires the services of 500,000 persons, 1,000,000 cultivate it and 2,000,000 persons are kept busy 4 months gathering it.

It costs $15,000,000 to pick the Texas cotton crop, $12,000,000 to gin it and $3,000,000 to compress it.

There are 14 packing houses in Texas.

Texas is the leading meat producing state in the Union. We produce $140,000,000 worth of live stock and products annually.

Gomez

By West Wind

Sunday night and Monday brought the first norther of the season and this, Tuesday, morning is real cool. Gomez people cut sweet potato vines, gathered tomatoes, pepper and melons and carried in all the pot flowers, Monday, but that frost failed to come and we hope now for several weeks warm weather.

The gin is running on full time here now and judging by the wagons loaded with cotton standing over there, they have plenty to do.

Oscar Hargett, a business man of Amarillo, and a cousin to Mrs. Will Snodgrass, came in last Friday for a few days visit.

Mesdames J. T. Gainer, Luna, and Tanda, with Eb Ivey passed through last Saturday enroute to Lubbock. Mesdames Gainer and Luna informed us that they would spend the present week visiting in Lubbock.

Mr. Hudson's silo was filled last week and the filling machinery passed through here going back east.

Mr. Graham and family of Plainview, came in last Thursday for a visit to Guy Taylor and family. They returned home Saturday.

Guy Taylor was loaded, ready to move to South Texas on Monday but did not start on account of the norther. They went out to Mr. Ben Broughton's Monday evening but will leave this week.

Geo. McPherson moved into the house vacated by Guy Taylor and Opal entered school Monday morning.

Joe Lane and Mr. Green went to Brownfield Saturday and Mr. Longbreak and family returned home with Joe for a visit.

Bert Kennedy came in last Thursday and left his wagon and team here, going on to Tahoka in an auto. They returned Friday.

Mr. Green, our blacksmith is back at the shop again after a three weeks absence. He has been running a row binder in and near town.

Here last Saturday, Wood Johnson, Mr. Peters of Brownfield.

Jay McPhaul came in from the railroad Sunday evening accompanied by a gentleman from Ohio, we did not learn his name. He is interested in Terry county land and went out to Mr. Lemleys on Monday.

On Monday Mr. Lemley left his team and wagon with a bale of cotton on the wagon, standing on the street. The horses became frightened and started to run as no one was near enough to catch them. They attained their best speed by the time they reached the school house, but the school boys, after quite a chase heading and turning them finally stopped them. So far as we learned there was no damage done.

Bert Ingram has gone to Lubbock after freight for A. P. Moore.

Miss Lizzie Dumas came in Saturday and she and Miss Nancy went over to Brownfield returning here that evening. They and Miss Nora Wolfarth went out home with Mrs. Copeland and Miss Katie. The young folks all returned here Sunday. Miss Nora went back home with Miss Katie and will spend this week out there.

John Hays and wife passed through here Sunday evening going to the Hays ranch twelve miles southwest of here.

Tom Taylor and family left here last Thursday for their home near King N Mex. They have been here at Mr. Lewis' for the past three weeks. Tom has been assisting in making sorghum and he showed us some that was as nice as any we ever saw. War in Europe and Trust prices on groceries is not causing the farmer who works on the plains to lose any sleep, for he actually can raise a full living at home. True he may have to eliminate sugar and coffee but sorghum and milk make pretty good substitutes and we can and do raise all kind of vegetables field crops and apples, pears, apricots and peaches; also fish fowls, hogs and cattle. Truly there is a good living here for anyone who will work.

T. D. Lewis of Clovis, N. M. and a son of Rev. J. C. Lewis is here visiting his father's family.

Mr. Turner, of Snyder, visited his nephew here, Prof. White on last Saturday and Sunday.

Tom Glover and wife visited out at Bob Snodgrass' on last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Manning, the Bronco Postmaster, stayed here Saturday night enroute to Tahoka, returning Monday.

Ed Moore and wife visited at Mr. Broughton's in Brownfield last Sunday.

Mrs. Turner and daughter of Yoakum county were the guests of Mrs. Reeves on Monday night.

Mrs. Booth Hays was here on business Sunday evening.

Dee Hunter and wife visited here at Mr. Glovers last Saturday night.

Vance Glover drove the team last week to the wagon while his father headed maize and he enjoyed the job as well as any other five year old boy would have done.

Mrs. Geo. McWhorter visited Mrs. W. C. Mathis in Brownfield, on Tuesday.

Robert Griffith is back home for a few days

AGRICULTURAL LEGISLATION NEEDED

The Farm the Place to Study All Legislative Problems.

COURAGEOUS LEADERS NEEDED.

Ft. Worth, Texas.—The principal function performed by government today is to collect taxes, keep records and prevent and punish crime; but that is not sufficient. Government should tip its hat to the Goddess of Opportunity as courageously as it draws a six-shooter on a train robber. We ought to encourage thrift as well as restrain greed. We have been basing legislation upon the extremes of human life—the classes high and low, the depraved and the talented—let us now reach the masses and the extreme will more nearly disappear. Our statutes are filled to overflowing with pity and revenge; let us add opportunity.

The slogan of the Farmers' Union is co-operation. Not only among individual farmers, but between all legitimate and useful occupations. We want to sit around the hearthstone of industry and talk over problems of mutual interest with our neighbors.

We want to invite those who are earnestly searching for information on public questions to get back to the soil with their investigations where, in the stillness of nature, they can climb the mountain-top of wisdom, explore the deep canyons of knowledge and stroll through the quiet valleys of understanding.

There is no problem in civilization that cannot be found in its native state on the farm. The labor, educational, financial, transportation, home-building and all other problems are there. We will discuss a few of them.

The Labor Problem.

We bow to the dignity of labor.
