HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

Fit Smith climbed into his chimney Monday to uncork it for the winter and got fastened; could not get up or down, and as a last resort his wife built a fire from dog hair in the fireplace and smoked him out.

Miss Fruzie Allsop is looking paler this week. It is said to be caused by her having administered an overdose of chalk with matrimonial intent.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band took supper with Ellick Hellwanger Monday night. They are trying to get him to pay up his dues.

A dawg fight attracted a lot of attention and broke up a conversation at the Hog Ford Moonshine still house the other day. One of the dawgs belonged to Poke Eazley and the other to Washington Potlocks, and the difficulty came up over some misunderstanding between their owners.

Tobe Moseley's mule is able to walk around again after being propped up against a persimmon tree for several days.

Columbus Allsop's head has been itching for several days. He says it is because Christmas is coming.

The Dog Hill preacher will be surprised by his congregation when they give him a Christmas present they have already bought. The preacher is greatly surprised everytime his congregation gives him anything.

Fletcher Henstep's gees are being fattened for Christmas, and have been turned loose in the Musket Ridge corn patches. They will wear lanterns as it is late before they get in at night.

Miss Hostetter Hocks has pulled off her plain gold band ring, as it is not stylish to wear much now.

The mule rode by Yam Sims was seen hitched for several hours at the fence in front of the home of the Widow, in the Calf Ribs neighborhood Sunday evening. Yam is so slow he should put his mule on the pasture when he goes courting.

An increased attendance is expected at the Hog Ford church next Sunday as the preacher is going to try out a new sermon. Slim Pickens has received thro' the mails a bottle of dandruff cure, and he is taking two tea spoonfuls after each meal.

Columbus Allsop's wagon broke down on the road leading to Hog Ford Tuesday morning. He has not yet decided wheather he will have it repaired or not.

The Hog Ford stillhouse has been condemned by the preacher at Dog Hill, and he says it ought to be torn down. That would be quite a job for the preacher to tackle by himself.

Cricket Hicks, who is known by a large number of people, on account of the many positions he has held in Hogwallow and surrounding communities, both as a workingman and an agent for various patents, earned his first dollar hardly before he had reached the age of discretion. One day shortly after he had given up his job of ringing the bell at the Dog Hill church every fourth Sunday, he was walking along the road in the Calf Ribs neighborhood, when he was overtaken by a stranger, who approached Cricket in an amiable way. A conversation ensued, and the stranger asked Cricket if he would do a favor for him. Cricket, of course, having no other position at the time, replied that he would gladly accomodate him.

The stranger then said that he had promised to contribute a dollar to the Ladies' Aid of the Hog Ford church to go into the fund to buy some stove pipe, and as he did not have time to go by Hog Ford, he said he would be much obliged if Cricket would take the dollar for him. Cricket, of course, consented to do so, and the money was turned over to him and the stranger went on his way down the road. Though many prominent men of wealth declare that they still have the first dollar they ever got hold of, there are a good many like Cricket, who spent his as soon as possible.

Mrs. J. W. Neill, of Austin, is visiting her son, Judge Geo. W. Neill. The Judge will leave with her the latter part of the week for Big Springs, where she will visit two daughters who live near Auto.

Thresher Coming

J. T. May informed us this week that Mr. Carryway, of Lubbock, would be down here before long with a bran new gasoline thresher, and would appreciate all the threshing the people would give him. He will start down this way in a few days, threshing as he comes, and will probably reach Brownfield the last of this month.

Mr. Carryway is an experienced hand with machinery, and our people need have no uneasiness as to his ability of giving them a good job, and his prices are customary. We understand that he can thresh in the bundle providing the bundles are not too long. Save your business for him.

FARMERS: We have on hand about 2000 envelopes that we are no longer keeping in stock, that we will print your name and address on for 50c per hundred, or sell you 100 for 25c without name and address. This is almost as cheap as the blank envelopes and they will always return to you.

A horse got scared and threw one of Horace Randal's little daughters, near the blacksmith shop this week. It seems that the horse fell as he made the jump, but the little girl escaped with a few scratches, but the saddle was a wreck.

Will pay 20c a dozen for eggs. J. R. Hill.

In conversation with C. S. Cardwell this week, he informed us that he would have in a new switch board in the near future that will be a big improvement over the old one. We are glad to see the business interests of the town making improvements, as it displays their confidence in our little town.

The Play

With one or two exceptions, we have attended every play that has been pulled off here in the past six years, but the one Saturday night cooped the prize from all angles, save possibly, comedy.

All participants did well, but some almost soared among the professional. Of course its hard to see the faults of home talent, but we had some strangers present, and one traveling man said: "I see many troupes in my territory that make our best towns, but the play last night equaled most of them, and surpassed some. I certainly enjoyed it."

The play was under the auspices of the Home Mission Society, who will give one half the receipts, $55.40, toward seating the auditorium. We want to say in behalf of this society, that they put up the stage with a play, and have a right to claim the lead in getting our little opera house in the order it is today, and what it soon will be.

Commissioners Court

The Commissioners met with Judge Neill Monday, approved and allowed all accounts that were on hand, discussed some road business, relating to the one leading south from Gomez, opened and counted the election returns, and transacted other business that came up. Saturday was set for the date to approve the bonds of the incoming officials, and to take their oaths.

A new bird, to us, has invaded this part of the county. They are about the size of a lar, are of a smooty color, and make a noise resembling that of a cat. Some pronounce them a Mexican bird, having seen them in the Capitan mountains.—Brownfield Herald

The bat appeared in Slaton this fall, the first that ninety-nine percent of the people had ever seen on the plains. The squirrel will come as soon as a few groves get nicely started.—Slatonite.

Bats delight to habitate vacant buildings—Lubbock has neither.—Lubbock Avalanche.

When we wrote the above piece, we did not think it would run into politics and get two editors on the war path, but people are prone to get batty over nothing. Why, we have seen bats live in hollow trees and caves as well as vacant buildings, but as Brownfield has neither, the "leather-whing" bat has never taken his abode here. But back to the new birds, and for the uninformed, one of our citizens who has traveled a good deal in New and Old Mexico, says the Mexicans call them the pennon bird (if that is the way to spell it) and that they inhabit the mountainous regions of that country. Some say they think they have only recently come here on account of grain, and will leave every spring to rear their young in the mountains, and will finally become a pest to this country. One citizen, who is a close observer, says he saw the first one two years ago, by itself, and tried to kill it, but could never get close enough. We imagine he was the spy that the old bird Moses had sent out to spy out the land of Cannan.

Will Mathis and family, accompanied by Geo. Tiernan and Miss Eldora Lewis, went to Lubbock this week on a shopping expedition, in the Mathis car.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Mr. Hall of Littlefield, came in this week and bought the City Barber Shop from Fred Scud-day. Mr. Hall has had ten years experience in the barber business, and is one of the best we have ever had here. We ask that you give Mr. Hall your business. He will rent a house in a few days, and move his wife down here. We welcome them to our little town.

B. L. Thompson and family, from Polytechnic Texas, came in this week and will occupy the Lee Allmon home until school is out, when they will move to their farm in West Terry. They formerly lived here, but moved to the Fort two years ago, where Mr. Thompson was engaged in the carpenter business. Welcome back home.

Burnett Bros., have traded their building on the north side to C. S. Cardwell for a small building Mr. Cardwell has been using as a telephone ware room, and are moving it out to their ranch in which they will store feed. Mr. Cardwell will move his building to a lot just west of the old drug store stand, and fit it up for his telephone exchange. This will make it much handier for the public.

West Wind phoned us Wednesday morning that a telegram had been received in Gomez to the effect that a little daughter of Mrs. Blanche Thomas, who lives in Wichita Falls, had been stricken with diphtheria, and that Mrs. Thomas' mother and sister, Mrs. A. P. Seitz and Mrs. Joe Lane left that morning in Lane's car for Lubbock to take train for Wichita Falls.

Dr. Treadaway reports the arrival of a fine girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lewis, on the 11 inst.

Uncle Joe Beal, from the Needmore community, was down this week looking for a house to move his family in for school. We think he got the Johnson house that belongs to Powell and Banowsky.

Mr. Welton, of Jones county, came in this week and will look at the wintners section with the intention of buying, or rather trading. Mr. Welton appears to be a fine citizen and we hope he will move up right away.

Do your best to be on hand tomorrow at the farmers meeting.

Frank Proctor, wife and baby were in town this week, shopping. They say they have just begun to gather corn, and will get about thirty bushels per acre. Frank said he would bring in some apples of the second crop in a few days. They are from a June apple, the first crop of which were large yellow fellows, and very mealy. This second crop is small, and he says they are bursting open and falling off.

J. T. May and family, who have lived in Brownfield for the past two years, returned last week to make their home in Lubbock once more. We are glad to welcome these people back and hope they will make their stay permanent.—Lubbock Avalanche.

This item is a mistake, Mr. May and family have not moved to Lubbock as they intend to return here the first of the year.

Geo. Bragg left Monday for Plainview to carry D. B. Watson's car that he left here recently on account of the heavy rains.

Mrs. Percy Spencer and baby left for their home in Lubbock last Saturday, after a long visit here.

Rev. McReynolds preached his first sermon here Sunday night since his return from Seymour. He took his text from those three most comforting verses in the Bible, being the three first verses of the 14th Chapter of St. John. In connection with this scripture, he referred to his own recent great sorrow, and we don't believe there was a person present that was not greatly benefited by the discourse.

The Methodist Sunday School observed Rally Day last Sunday morning with appropriate recitations and songs, which were highly appreciated by the audience. A collection was taken after the exercises of between three and four dollars, which will be sent to their publishing house and used to buy Sunday School literature in places where they are not able to buy it.

S. H. Key of Gomez, was attending Commissioners Court here Monday.

Will Gainer, representing the Gainer Land Co., of Plains, gave the Herald a nice order for stationery this week. The Herald appreciates the nice orders we are now getting from our neighbors on the west.

E. N. Eicke and Son Hughes were in Friday night after the house moving skids, as they have taken the contract to move the house from the Randal place to where W. K. Dickinson Jr. now lives. W. K. will join this house on his present house, making him plenty room. The Randal place now belongs to the Dickinson ranch.

We had a letter this week from Chas. Stewart, who now lives at Temple, asking us to forward the Herald to his new address. Didn't say what he was doing.

Miss Gladys Walters was kicked very badly by a horse last Sunday, and only recently was thrown by one into a wire fence. When asked why they didn't use their car, she said she was afraid it would kick too.

Messrs. Powell, Banowsky, Bell Ross and Criswell all went to Tulia this week to attend District Court, as witnesses in the McClusky. They report that the defendant plead guilty of selling mortgaged property and asked for a suspended sentence, which will likely be granted, in as much as he promises to settle with the First National Bank of Tulia, right away.

Earl Hill made a trip to Lubbock this week to carry a load of passengers.

J. T. May has purchased several hundred pounds of re-cleaned Sudan seed and is offering to the people of Terry County and elsewhere for that matter, at about half what others are wanting for the same class of seed. Everybody that has had any dealings with J. T. heretofore, know that he will do you right in a deal, and we recommend that you patronize him, first because he is a home man, and second because you know he will do you right.

Election Returns

The Commissioner's Court counted the vote Monday and found there had only been 79 votes cast in the county, less than a third of the primary vote. The vote was solid Democrat, no other party getting a vote. All the State and County officials receiving from 77 to 79 votes, there being two or three that scratched some of the names.

Of course it is to be regretted that the vote was so light, but no one can blame the farmers for staying with their crops at this time of year, but there were people right here in town, yes on the streets, that did not vote. This should not be so.

As to the amendments, the one pertaining to the initiative and referendum received 36 for and 19 against. The one proposing to increase the pay and lengthen the term of the regular session of the Legislature, received 16 for and 32 against. The one relating to Sea walls received 21 for and 27 against.

Lee Allmon and family loaded up Wednesday evening and started for Floyd county where they will make their home for at least a year and maybe longer. Herald hopes them much success in their new home.

On Saturday night Mrs. Boyd and Miss Grady entertained with a Halloween party. The house was beautifully decorated in jack o' lanterns, pumpkin heads and the guests on arrival were met by ghosts and witches of all sizes. Contests and fortune telling were the amusements of the evening after which a prize was awarded Mr. S. C. and Dudley Arnett for biting the biggest piece out of the apple.

Refreshments of cake, punch, homemade candy, popcorn and fruit were served. Some excellent music was rendered by Miss Grady after which the guests departed with thanks to the hostess for a very pleasant evening.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Arnett and son, S. C. Arnett, Messrs. Phillip and Terrell Allen, Will Mathis, Johnny Lovelady, Dock Peeler, Elbert Evans, Jack Nettles, Floyd Ellington, Frank Boyd, Edgar Timmons and Dudley Arnett. Misses Pearl Ellington, Rena Peeler, Lucile Boyd, Rowena Grady, and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dickinson.

Mrs. Will Elkin of Midland, sister to Oscar Boyd, visited at his home this week.

Geo. Rose and family are at Meadow for a few days.

Bigham who has been working for Mr. Peeler was quite sick a day or two last week but is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bass Arnett and son from the Spade Ranch visited at the L Seven Ranch, last Saturday.

A good daily will only cost you $3.25 from now to Dec. 15, 1915, with Herald one year, $3.75. If you want one of the best dailies in the State, mail or hand us a check for $3.25, for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, at once.

We had a letter last week from E. N. Hicks, nephew of Mrs. I. H. Hudson, who left here last spring for his old home in Virginia. E. N. said he was doing well but needed the Herald in his business, and sent the price for it. Well here she comes my boy.

Joe Griffith came in last Friday from Mangum, Okla. He has been gone for two months and seemed glad to get home. He says crops are fine there, wages low and plenty hands, so he came back to Terry, where no matter how good the crops, the pay is good and hands needed.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Key on last Friday, a ten pound baby girl. Mother and baby doing well.

Mr. Tom Yates spent a few days in town, this week.

Walter Gainer, Bert Ingram and E. W. Maddux all went to Tahoka for freight, last week.

W. D. Winn carried six bales of cotton home from the gin at one load, last Friday.

Cotton picking is $1.00 per 100 and some pickers are making from $4 to $4.50 per day. Right good wages for farm labor.

Booth Hays was at the hotel Friday night.

Joe Lane made a trip to Lubbock last week.

Mr. Mashburn, a former Terry county citizen, who moved back east a year ago, came back two months ago, and last week his wife and daughter came in. Mrs. Mashburn will spend the winter in town, to send her little daughter to school, and Mr. Mashburn will work on the Lane ranch.

Bert Kennedy from the south side and B. McPherson of Brownfield, were here Saturday.

Bob Snodgrass and family came in last Saturday for mail and groceries.

Mr. Pulliam, of Plains, spent last Thursday night at the hotel.

Roy and Glenn Harris of north west Terry, visited Mr. Simms Sunday afternoon and night, and their brother, Clyde and wife, returned home with them Monday for a week's visit.

A letter from Mrs. Ross Kenney at Willow, Okla., states that she is able to sit up after her long spell of typhoid.

Mr. Robinson, a cow buyer of Comanche, was at the hotel last Saturday.

Mrs. Mon Yates is spending this week with Mrs. Ben Hurst out at the ranch.

A. P. Seitz and wife, and Mrs. Reeves, visited out at W. A. Fulton's last Sunday.

HILL & SON, PROPRIETORS

W. C. Mathis and family passed through Monday enroute to Geo. McWhorter's.

As to that Hogwallow News, if your readers there like it, continue to print it. Those here who don't like it, don't have to read it. As for sending you 25 names of your subscribers on this side who would perfer the news of other towns near us to the Hogwallow items, I think I could easily get that number by taking time to go after them, but its your paper, and we have no desire to run it in opposition to your wishes, and besides a majority rule is fair and there are more people in east than in west Terry. Personally I dislike it, but I and others like me, can read something else. (We have no desire whatever to run anything over any of our readers, even though they be in the minority; we are no Joe Cannon. On the other hand, we are trying our best to please all—an impossibility—and have more than 400 readers to please, and if the home paper don't supply the young people a little fun, the Nick Carter weeklies will get their goats. A brilliant Terry school marm says she is taking the Herald to keep up with Dunk. We older people have had our fling, but let us not forget we were once young.—Ed.)

We understand that J. W. Gordon recently purchased the old D. K. Taylor place, north of here

Mrs. W. B. Hays and little Edna, were here Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Burnett and children, were visiting here Sunday.

Mr. Ikard came in from the railroad Monday with a load of groceries for A. P. Moore.

W. D. Winn and Bert Shepherd have gone to Tahoka.

R. W. Glover, wife and Ben Hurst, made a flying trip to Warren, N. M. Monday and Tuesday.

Sam Bigger of Plains, spent Tuesday night in town, enroute to the railroad.

Joe Lane has been here four or five days in succession, and when we asked him whether he was taking recreation, or on business, he just started his auto and said as he moved off, "I'm going home."

Pleasant Valley

Silent Sammy.

Elzie Eicke and Elbert Hughes moved the old Randal house up to W. K. Dickinson's place, last week.

Miss Lilly Holt, who is attending school at Tahoka, visited the home folks Sunday.

Edwin Holt came in Saturday night from the lower S ranch with his bunch of cows. He will locate on the Dickinson place now occupied by Mrs. C. E. Moore.

Olen Moos, of Pecos, is visiting Jack Smith and family.

Dick Caldwell came down from Lubbock Monday after a bunch of cattle for W. K. Dickinson of Lubbock.

Clay Hughes went to Lubbock Monday after supplies for the — ranch.

Hubert Holt went to Mexico last week after a herd for Dickinson & Holt.

Miss Etta Kinard has returned home from J. Barrett's.

W. K. Dickinson and wife attended the party at O. F. Boyd's, Saturday night, and report a pleasant time.

John Scott and Ila Holt attended the play at Brownfield, Friday night.

The Pleasant Valley school started Monday and is progressing nicely.

Come often Sammy, you do well, but tell us for our own protection, who you are, in your next, and also, just write on one side of paper, as we might not see all your letter.—Editor.
