HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

After having attended a protracted meeting at Buzzard Knob for more than a week, Sidney Hocks returned home Monday morning and swore off, after which he took his gun, a quart of licker and a pair of loaded dice down to the creek and threw them in. Yesterday he went to the creek, but has little hope of recovering them.

The Hogwallow Improvement Society has been in communication with a gentleman at Tickville who wants to know what the opening is here for a first class bone yard. The Improvement Society has sent him encouraging words, and offers to assist in the way of contributions, in every way possible.

Fit Smith had a rabbit supper night before last, and during his sleep had an exciting dream. He thought he was being chased by a pack of dogs, and went through many brush piles and brier patches. When he woke up he found himself under the woodpile.

Yam Sims has been calculating on going into the cattle business and will leave tomorrow for Tickville where he will inspect the train when it comes in, with a view to getting on to the way the cow catcher is made.

A mule was in the act of kicking Miss Hostetter Hocks yesterday, in front of the blacksmith shop, but when she turned and looked at him right hard, the animal immediately jumped the fence and scurried off across the field.

Frisby Hancock had the misfortune to lose his knife this week, just as the whittling season was about to get in full bloom. At the time he missed it he was sitting on the fence in the midst of a long winded civil war snake story that was very interesting, and his hearers are assisting him in hunting for the knife so that he can finish the story.

The Hog Ford preacher delivered a strong sermon Sunday morning in condemnation of the turkey trot dance and advised all members of his congregation to dispose of their turkeys as soon as possible.

The Blind man of the Calf Ribs community came into Hogwallow yesterday riding his blind mule that wore a blind bridle. He knew when he got to the postoffice by the ticking of the postmaster's watch.

Raz Barlow took his fiddle over to Luke Mathews's house the other night and rendered a piece entitled, "A Midsummer Night's serenade." To make the affair more realistic he wore his summer necktie.

Sim Flinders, our well known rat trap inventor and Hog Ford Sunday school teacher, has returned from a flying business trip to Bounding Billows, Rye Straw, the Gander Creek graveyard and other points. He reports that he has lately been at work on a still newer device, in the way of a rat trap, that will completely outdo Edison or any of the others. This one is made on the style of a clock with a pendulum, and when the rat sees it he begins chasing it to and fro. The rat soon becomes exhausted and remains in its bed the rest of the night.

Frisby Hancock fell in with an agent for a patent separator while over at Bounding Billows the other day, but could not get interested, he and his wife having already done so.

Isaac Hellwanger was approached from the rear by a tombstone agent the fore part of this week, but was not in the market at this time, he having just purchased a fresh supply of patent medicine.

A gentleman near Rye Straw we understand, tried to celebrate his wooden wedding the other day by drinking a pint of wood alcohol.

FOR SALE: East half Clifford home section, near Meadow; fine land; special price for cash and quick sale. W. H. Thompson, Abernathy, Texas.

NEEDMORE

By Blue Jay

The people of this community are making good use of the fine weather.

John Williams is picking cotton for Mr. Windham this week.

Doss Windham has gone to Lubbock again this week.

Elsie Beall is getting up on time this week, Walter has gone to work for Mr. McPhaul.

Miss Abbie Howard and Miss Lottie Atkinson report a nice time at Joe Beall's Sunday evening.

Mr. Carson and wife spent Sunday evening at Uncle Bill Howard's.

Mrs. Windham and Miss Eula Howard spent a pleasant night at Jim Lewis' last Sunday night.

Doss Windham and Roy Cardwell visited Meadow Sunday.

Scott Walker and Jake Beall are all smiles this week, they visited Mr. Rose (the fat man) last Sunday.

Bro. Durham preached an excellent sermon at Needmore Sunday. He and Mr. Green took dinner with Uncle Bill Howard.

George Smith attended the ball games at Brownfield, Saturday.

Roy Cardwell spent Saturday night and Sunday night at Mr. Beall's (look out O. C.)

Mr. Walker is hauling in his feed this week.

Mr. Bell is getting on nicely with his field work.

I guess Mr. Smith is still working in the field, I haven't heard from him yet.

Brock Gist visited at Mr. Bell's Sunday.

FARMERS: We have on hand about 2000 envelopes that we are no longer keeping in stock, that we will print your name and address on for 50c per hundred, or sell you 100 for 25c without name and address. This is almost as cheap as the blank envelopes and they will always return to you.

This editor has had something to be thankful for this week, too. About the middle of last week, J. C. Green killed a fine porker, and that good lady of his remembered the Herald with several nice messes of old country sausage, and a liberal piece of a shoulder. My! it is ideal to live among good people.

Harris

By Sand Bur

Mr. Sam Poyner and family from Millsap Texas, came in last Tuesday and will occupy the McKitchen place. Mrs. Poyner is a sister to Mrs. Hul Hooker.

We understand that Mr. Poyner has been employed to teach the school in that district and that the people will begin building the school house right away.

Mesdames Mon Yates, Marlin Ellington and Satterwhite and children visited Mrs. W. H. Harris last Wednesday.

Ellington Bros. left for Meadow with their fat cattle Sunday to be ready to ship when their father does.

Judge and Mrs. J. T. Gainer visited at J. E. Fitzgerald's last Sunday and spent Sunday night at J. M. McMillan's on their return trip to Plains.

Marlin Ellington and wife took Mrs. Mon Yates to her father's in Gomez last Sunday.

J. W. Hooker started back to his home in Lubbock last Saturday. He loaded back home with feed. Hub Hooker and Sam Poyner went with him. They will bring back freight.

Ye scribe spent a pleasant day with Mesdames W. H. and Clyde Harris last Sunday.

Mr. Chisholm, who lives down south of here on the draw, was at Harris last Sunday.

Another Preacher Story.

Appropus of the story we ran a few weeks ago concerning the preacher that resigned to accept a position as chaplain in a jail, and told his members that he was going to prepare a place for them, a friend told us one that was a good comparison.

The ministers dutiful wife was busy one day sewing buttons on the minister's coat, when one of devout sisters called for a short chat. She had not been in long when her curiosity was aroused over the button the preacher's wife was tacking on, and finally said:

"Why sister so-and-so, that button is just like the one my husband lost off his coat."

"It may be, solemnly but firmly replied the minister's wife, it was taken up in the collection last Sunday."

Will pay 20c a dozen for eggs J. R. Hill.

Meadow

By Sandy

The many friends of Phillip and Terrel Allen will be grieved to hear of the death of their brother, Will Allen, who was accidentally killed in a coal mine in Young County. Phillip and Terrel and a brother, Harry, of Littlefield left Lubbock by auto Wednesday week to attend the funeral. They returned last Tuesday.

Remember preaching at 12 o'clock, first Sunday and dinner immediately afterward. He will also preach Saturday night before the first Sunday. Lets all make an effort to go.

J. W. Peeler has a case of the La grippe this week.

Little S. C. Arnett has been right sick with a cold and cough.

Mrs. Forrest Ellington is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ellington.

Forrest and Floyd Ellington came in from Harris with a bunch of cows last Monday.

S. C. Arnett and wife were in Lubbock Monday.

Hamp Territt and children, of Stephenville are visiting at A. W. Blankenships. Mr. Territt is a brother of Mrs. Blankenship.

Joe and Jim Peeler made a trip to Lubbock for freight last week.

Mrs. Boyd and children and Miss Grady spent Friday night and Saturday of last week in Lubbock.

Mrs. Haswell went to stay with Mrs. Otis Copeland for a few weeks.

The L Seven outfit started to Lubbock Wednesday, with cattle to be delivered Friday.

Oran Bigham returned to his home in Mexico, Saturday.

The young folks enjoyed a singing at Mr. and Mrs. Hering's Sunday night.

Hope Timmons went to Lubbock, Monday.

Some of the Gomez readers were giving us Hail Columbia this week, for not getting their Herald on Saturday as usual. The Postmaster had a big sale on in his store, and in the rush neglected to put them out. But if he repeats the performance, we'll have the witches to ride him all night. We are all subject to mistakes, however.

The Old Fashioned Mothers

Thank God some of us have an old-fashioned mother. Not a woman of the period, painted and enameled, with all her society manners and fine dresses, white jeweled hands that never felt the clasp of baby fingers, but a dear old-fashioned mother with a sweet voice, ever into whose clear depth the love light shone, and brown hair just threaded with silver, lying smooth upon her faded cheek. The hands, worn with toil, gently guided our steps in childhood and smoothed our cheeks in sickness, ever reaching out to us in yearning tenderness. Blessed is the memory of an old-fashioned mother. It floats to us like the beautiful perfume of some wood blossoms. The music of other voices may be lost, but the enchanting memory of her's will echo in our soul forever.—Ex.

Married

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Powell, in this city, Miss Mamie to Mr. Rufus Rush, of Lubbock, in the presence of a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, at 9 p. m. Wednesday evening, Rev. J. B. McReynolds, pastor of the Brownfield Methodist Church, officiating.

Miss Mamie was practically raised in this city, and received the foundation of her education here, is liked by all who know her and loved by her friends.

Mr. Rush is said to be a young man of fine qualities, coming from one of the best families in Lubbock.

Among those attending from a distance were: Chas. Rush and wife, Ains Robinson and Miss Wheelock of Lubbock; Miss Kathryn Powell, of Plainview and Mrs. Abernathy and sons, Dick and John Jarrot, of the Abernathy ranch, in the north part of the county.

After the ceremony, Mrs. Dee Brownfield gave a parlor dance in honor of the occasion, which was to be repeated in Lubbock last night.

Tokio

By Digger

We have had a right nice rain and looks like it might rain some more.

Mrs. Wes Lovelace and children spent last Sunday evening at T. E. Lovelace's.

J. W. Spear's son in law, Mr. Cox, came in the other day. He has come to live.

W. I. and T. E. Lovelace went to Brownfield Sunday.

Bob and Dick Lovelace started to Tahoka today after his things. Ed and John Spears also went.

J. D. Wrotan and J. S. Day were in Tokio this afternoon.

School has started again after a months vacation.

Ed Spears moved his horses down on the lower place Sunday.

Glenn and Roy Harris, Jim Wright, John Spears and Ed Spears were in Tokio last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Orie Ellington and Mrs. Mon Yates were in Tokio Sunday evening.

There were two men here today in a car, from Iowa, on their way to California.

Uncle Bill Howard brought in a bag of beans for some of the merchants, Saturday.

Dick Brownfield brought in 80 head of yearlings from his west pasture, this week, and will put them on ensilage in a few weeks.

Ray Brownfield and wife left last week for Waco, to visit Mrs. Brownfield's parents, and where Ray will purchase his winter's supply of cotton seed cake.

A young lady from Georgetown is teaching a dancing school here this week.

E. T. Stapp was in attending the cheap sale, this week.

The Herald did a nice job of card work for the Higginbotham Harris Lumber Co., of Tahoka, this week.

William Peters took advantage of our cheap envelope offer, this week.

A. M. McBurnett was here for the first time in a good while one day this week. From the same community was Mr. Telford and John Waltrip.

Jack Smith was at the Closing Out Sale, this week, shopping.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theford's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man." Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theford's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c. N. C. 127.

Mrs. Dee Brownfield gave a bridal shower, Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Mamie Powell, who was married Wednesday night. We understand that she received many nice presents.

On account of sickness in our family, Miss Ivy Green, that princess among young ladies, came down and helped us out with getting the Herald in the mail last Friday. Thanks!

Chas. Copeland was in visiting home folk Sunday.

We understand that Geo. Bragg is negotiating for the Brownfield garage. Geo. is a good workman, and will treat the people right.

Mr. Richardson went out to F. E. Walters' this week to work his car over.

We learn that the seats for the Auditorium have arrived, and will be put down in a few days, ready for the next play.

Geo. Black Jr. was over Monday with a load of turnips and peanuts.

H. H. Longbreak made a business trip to Gomez, Wednesday.

Will Mathis has traded his car to M. Yates.

We call your attention to J. H. Hall's barber card in this issue, which will be found among the other professional cards. Mr. Hall is indeed an artist with the razor and shears, and if you patronize him once, you will go back.

Albert Rushing was in from the ranch Sunday.

We have been here nearly six years, and when we came here, Geo. E. Tiernan had been in the Sheriff and Collectors office for a number of years, and it seems strange to see him out on the streets, once more a private citizen. We suppose he is one of the few men that ever did serve as sheriff as long as he did without making an enemy, but we believe the present incumbent will do his best to make such a record. We went over this week to see how he looked in his office, and found him very busy, but greeting his constituents with the same old West Texas greeting they have so long been used to. While he is yet a little slow in making out your tax receipt, he will gather speed in time. Right now he wants them to be right, when they are filled out.

R. C. Graves came in this week with 370 head of two year old steers from New Mexico and will put them in his pasture south of town. They were well averaged steers and were in good condition.

Geo. E. Tiernan sold his 83 head of steers this week to W. C. Mathis. They were two year olds. Consideration secret.

Messrs. Lard of Miami Texas, and J. J. Beals, a live stock commission man of Carlsbad New Mexico, were here last week and purchased 640 head of two year old steers from Jack Bryan. We did not learn the price paid.

Dee Brownfield sold some thing like 300 head of two year old steers to Chas. Donaldson, of Hereford, last week, to be delivered at Tahoka, at once. Consideration $10,000.00.

the farmers' battles and who planted the flag of agriculture on the parapets of success. A man out of the loins of agriculture and out of the heart of business, unflinched by combinations and untutored by politicians. A man tutored in the school of poverty and disciplined in the university of success, whose ambition is without guile and whose patriotism is without greed, called from the hearthstone of the common people to rule over the land.

A plain man who can hear the feeble cry of the weak and the just complaints of the strong; who has toiled by the side of those who labor and worked with those who plan. A man whose life is attuned to the song of the plow, the shrill whistle of the locomotive, the clatter of the dinner pail and whose heart feels the mighty surge of progress as it beats against the border line. A man who owes no debt to his friends and no grudge to his foes, but who answers the call of his country and serves for the joy of service.

A man whose life has been hissed by demagogues, whose heart has been stung by fanatics and whose back has felt the rod of prejudice. The people's friend, the politician's foe and the investor's hope. Whatever may be his will or ambition, fears or hopes, joys or sorrows, he is to wield the scepter of power and will soon be your Governor and mine.

Rev. Durham, the Baptist minister, filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

Clint Rambo and wife have been visiting out at his father's for several days, and on Monday Clint came in and carried Dr. Maddux out to see their baby, as it was sick.

Mrs. Dr. Maddux has been right sick with lagrippe since last Friday, but is better now.

S. H. Key has gone to Tahoka with cotton, and will bring back gin supplies. The gin ground is covered with wagons, all the time and they gin from dawn till dark.

Murpha Luna and Mr. Ward, from Plains, spent last Sunday night at the hotel. They came over after cotton seed.

News from Willow, Okla., Monday, stated that little Hunter Kencie was sick with typhoid.

Ed McPhaul was in Monday.

Mrs. Ben Hurst is staying at her parents, while Ben moves, as stock moving is not a quick job. She and Mrs. R. W. Glover visited at Bob Snodgrass' from Friday to Saturday, and Mrs. Snodgrass and children came home with them until Bob came in for them Sunday.

Booth Hays and Mr. Chisholm came in last week from a trip to the El Paso country.

H. L. Ware came in from the ranch, Sunday.

Miss Scheiffer, the music teacher, spent last Saturday and Sunday, with friends here.

Mrs. Will Snodgrass and little Dall were in attending church, Sunday. Will is helping Jack Bryan and Ben Hurst move their stock to the Lynn county ranch.

Sam Funderburk and wife visited out at Mr. Wright's two miles north of town, Sunday.

J. M. and Mrs. W. B. Hays and little Edna, were in trading last Saturday.

Mrs. W. B. Snodgrass was in trading and visiting one day last week, and paid ye scribe a much appreciated call.

Mrs. Arthur Moore and children, visited out at Ben Brannon's last Saturday night and Sunday.

Chas. Moore and wife visited in town Sunday.

A card from Kansas states that Mrs. Carrol Phillips is thought to be improving.

Mrs. Mon Yates is back at H. L. Ware's, from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ellington, of Harris. Mrs. Geo. Snodgrass and children were at Mr. Ware's, Sunday.

Hugh Williams carried a bale of cotton home from the gin Tuesday morning, and he says it is ten cent cotton. Bravo! If all the farmers would haul their cotton home instead of the market, it would all be ten cent cotton in side of ninety days. There is just as much more grain made this year as there is cotton, compared to ordinary crop years, but it is selling at customary fall prices—no panic prices about feed. Why? It is more perishable than cotton, and takes more room to store it, but the farmer for ages past, has held that it was worth 50c to raise a bushel of corn, and they don't often take less. Now when some of them are almost giving away their cotton, just try to buy feed and you will find that one and all demand the usual fall prices, and that isn't all, they won't sell if they don't get a fair price. Now why don't they be as determined for a just price for their cotton? If they had not made the cotton, they would have managed to live without it altogether. Why not hold it awhile. It won't go lower? Cotton statistics of past years show that it always goes up in the winter, when the bulk of the crop has past out of the farmer's hands, and this season is not likely to be an exception to the rule. (The logic in your editorial sounds good, but you are a little off on statistics, a Texas as a whole is 10,000,000 bushels short on corn and nearly 1,000,000 bales long on cotton, according to Federal statistics we have been receiving. Again, the farmer can often make more money by feeding than selling his feed—but as yet, we have not to this time found anything that will successfully eat cotton but worms and wevils, and they did not prove very successful to augment the meat supply. However, we believe King Cotton will soon come to the front.—Ed)

Welcome! new correspondents; come often. Digger, we missed you last week; don't get too busy, or just plain old tired, and quit our ranks, for we would miss you. True, news items are often hard to get, but "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Monday night's rain made cotton too wet to pick, and town was full of people. Tuesday. We noticed on the street, Jim Royston, Grover Lewis, O. Curlin, S. B. and Wood Johnson, C. C. Short, Mr. Wright, W. B. Hays and wife, Mrs. J. M. Hays and Bro. Mc-

Reynolds, and cotton hands by the dozen.

I. H. Hudson went to Lubbock and back, Monday.

Form In Line, Please.

We are doing a superior line of printing in our job department just now, and our sale bills are the talk of the county. Week before last we got out an order of bills for a farmer north of town and they were so attractive and nifty that he couldn't begin to take care of the crowds that flocked to the sale. After getting the top price for every animal, implement and article on the hill, the auctioneer simply couldn't stop. The people just clamored for more. The farmer in the hope of driving them away, put up his mother-in-law. She brought $160 on the hoof. Then he offered his mortgage for sale. A lifelong friendship between two old neighbors was shattered as each tried to outbid the other. It was finally knocked down to the richer man who was promptly knocked down by the poorer. He sold the weeds along the roadside. He sold a gold brick that he bought in Chicago during the World's Fair. He sold the hats in the road in front of his place and then offered to sell the secret of where he had the sale bills printed. We cannot give the results as the returns are not all in. They are bidding yet. That's the kind of sale bills we print. Give us a call.

The girl's basket ball team, and the boys' baseball team, went to Gomez yesterday to match some games. Results next week.
