HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

Fit Smith has brought in a very strange looking bird that he captured in the Gimlet Creek bottoms. The bird is a curiosity and slightly resembles Raz Barlow.

Jefferson Potlock's wagon broke down in the road near Rye Straw the other day. The collapse did not come as a shock as the wagon had been in a declining condition for some time. Dock Hocks, our blacksmith, happened along, but could not repair the wagon, as he did not have his anvil with him.

Washington Hocks had a narrow escape while crossing the railroad track near Tickville Tuesday morning. He was driving his team of oxen and when he got on the track he remembered that the train would be along in only a few hours.

The Excelsior Fiddling band played in public at Tickville the other day, and took up collection, but failed to get anything, as a blind man was playing right across the street from them.

Raz Barlow found a pint of old licker in a last year's birds nest Sunday. Ellick Hellwanger is now buying up the right of all old bird's nests in this section.

Washington Hocks' thermometer got out of fix last week and registered seventy degrees below zero. Fortunately, Wash had plenty of wood on hand and stayed close indoors.

A dawg came trotting into Hogwallow yesterday and stopped at the postoffice long enough to look in. The postmaster was dozing on the inside, and hearing the loose planks rattle on the porch hollered and said there was no mail.

Members of the Hog Ford Baptist Church will have a business meeting Sunday to take up the case of Frisby Hancock, one of their members, who was seen lurking around the front door of the Dog Hill Methodist church last Sunday.

The train due into Tickville Tuesday or Wednesday of every week, did not arrive until Thursday of last week on account of a narrow escape from a wreck while the train was running through the Calf Ribs neighborhood. Only the presence of mind of the engineer is probably all that prevented the wreck, he having jumped from the cab and run around in front of the engine and stopped it just as it was about to run into a switch.

Dock Hocks says a dose of medicine for the stomach is taken into the mouth and swallowed. And that the same performance is necessary when a dose is taken for the head. It seems to him a sort of an out-of-the-way route to reach the head.

Attention! Attention!

All Customers owing us accounts, large or small, of long standing or recent date, are hereby earnestly requested to come without delay and make settlement. We are owing our jobbers for the goods you have used and we are dependent upon our collections for money with which to pay our debts. Please do not keep us waiting. We must have the money.

Cupid Wins.

Walter Scudday slipped off to Lubbock last week, in his daddy's car, but few people knew his errand, but they found out late Friday afternoon, when a phone message came in from Mrs. B. F. Dixon, of Lubbock, asking the sheriff to stop her daughter and Mr. Scudday. Sheriff Lewis and Judge Neill went out in the latter's car as far as the Miles ranch to meet them and talk the matter over to them, as they were both of age and the sheriff had no authority to arrest them but Cupid scored again, for the couple turned off directly they left Lubbock, and went by Tahoka, where they were married.

It seems that Miss Mary Dixon, the bride, was at the school house at Lubbock, where Walter found her, thus two of our boys, Earl Hill and Walter, have each pulled one over the Lubbock and Tahoka Public schools this term. Anyway the couple has numerous friends here, and the Herald concurs in the congratulation that they are receiving, and wish them a pleasant journey down the stream of time.

FOR TRADE—2800 acres land located 23 mi. S. E. Pecos city on mail route; all fenced, plenty of good water, 4 room house, well, windmill, tank, corrells, 4 a. farm. Would trade all or 1600, including improvements. What have you. See or write Jack Smith, Brownfield or Mrs. E. A. Moss, Meadow, Texas.

Miss Norma Dixon, daughter of Rev. B. F. Dixon, of Lubbock, is visiting friends in Brownfield during the Holidays.

Miss Lucille Treadaway came in from Plainview Saturday, where she is attending school. The Dr. went up after her in his car.

An Opinion

The Allison Liquor Law is no more; Messrs. Harper and Davidson decreed it, Mr. Pendergast, the Anthony of Austin desenting unto its death, thus, in the words of the latter, "making every depot in Texas a saloon." The reason to us is apparent, altho' we hate to think our Court of Criminal Appeals is not above their little prejudices, and can not render an opinion, either pro or anti, according to law and evidence, but one can tract then by their private convictions, when it comes to deciding a question of the liquor business. We, the lay legalites, are not versed in law enough to know really who is really right or wrong, according to law, but we do believe that this Statute was permitted to be come a law by the anti contentment of the Legislature, and signed by an anti Governor, believing it would be the death of local option in close counties at least, but they, and many pros for that matter, were doomed to disappointment, for the counties that had elections thereafter, kept going dry, and it would seem that the erstwhile antis in those counties are helping the pros. Thus the death of the Allison Liquor Law.

See the Tumms Bros., about shelling your corn, can shell in the shuck.

Miss Nettie Sawyer came in Saturday from an extended trip east. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Ora, who is attending school at Amarillo.

Cousin Kate is coming.

Elder D. C. Lofton did not preach here Sunday, as the weather was so disagreeable that he did not have any audience.

Arlie Eicke came in Sunday from O'Donnell, where he has been at work for the past three months.

Son Hughes and Edwin Holt, went to Lubbock, Monday, after freight.

Hubert Holt is making trips over east quite often these days.

John Scott left for Crowell, Monday, where he will spend the holidays with home folks. We regret to lose him.

Holts dehorned calves, Friday, and on account of hands being scarce, Ila and Viola Holt and Etta Kinard were called to the pens and believe me, they made hands. Ask Clay and Hubert.

Jac: Smith took a bale of cotton to Tahoka last week.

Dub Dickinson and wife left the first of the week for Lubbock, where they will spend Xmas.

Mr. Beard and Dr. Miles went to Tahoka last Friday.

DIED last Saturday, one of the fine D—steers at 4:45 from blackleg. When found, he was too far gone to call in a doctor. His body was laid to rest in the Pleasant Valley Cemetery. A large crowd attended the funeral, and prayers and funeral services were held by Clay Hughes.

Jessie Boon came in last week to visit his brother, Chas.

Be sure and see Cousin Kate. She will be here Saturday night, Jan. 2nd, at the School Auditorium.

We understand that the suit of Pyeatt vs Sheriff Keller at Plains last week resulted in a fine of $1 against the defendant, and that the plaintiff appealed.

We didn't see our last weeks letter in the Herald but as we entrusted it to our brother to post and as men are very forgetful of such matters, we think probably it never reached the Herald in time for publication. (Never did reach us. Ah! the frailty of mere men.—Ed.)

Well, Silent Sammy, if you know the respect we have for the Dunk Bots articles, you would realize we passed a compliment when we said you: letters were almost as good as Dunk's. We didn't say you reminded us of Dunk as you infered in your letter, for we don't know that we have ever seen either of you. We merely make this correction for fear Dunk may get riled about it.

Well as the Herald does not usually come out Christmas week we suppose this will be the last letter for the year 1914. For three years and ten months we have been reporting the news from our village. The first year we failed to report in two issues since then we have not missed a single issue. It has not always been convenient or easy to get the news or to have time to write but when anyone will do a job they always can. We have done the work as well as we could but but think it could have been improved by one who had more time and better opportunities for getting news, so if anyone wants the job we are perfectly willing to hand it over, like Uncle Sams postmasters we will hold on to our job until our successor is sworn in but if any one thinks they can make the Gomez column of the Herald more interesting just call on ye editor and take the oath of office and we will step down and out. (You are o. k. come ahead.—Ed.)

Welcome back Cricket, you sure do take long naps between letters.

Say Sandy we sure appreciated that comparison you made between the Herald correspondents and Dunk Botts, however there is no accounting for human preferences as the old woman said when she kissed the calf. If that's your taste we don't object to your saying so. Blue Jay come oftener. Silent Sam and Sand Bar don't make comparisons, things printed do not look or sound like the same thing spoken. Here's wishing a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year for all of you.

As we all drift down the river of time to the final gates of the beyond, may we each and all leave behind, a record of work well and faithfully done.

Elsewhere in this issue, you will find a local reader of the Merc. Please read it.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles,
but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

He was accompanied by two little sawed off and hammed down, wooden faced looking fellows, one black and the other white, and while they sat on his knees and worked their lips, it is believed that the ventriloquist did all the talking.

Fletcher Henstep attended an entertainment at Bounding Bil-lows Saturday night. He took all of his dawgs along, as they were admitted free.

Yam Sims has bought a new hat. He got one this time that would fit so tight it would not jar off when his mule got to trotting.

The crop of snakes was short last year, according to the figures of Fit Smith. The people need snakes and smallpox in their midst to keep in the practice of running.

A snake is nothing more than an overgrown fishing worm with a bad disposition.

Frisby Hancock got mad at the railroad that runs into Tickville last week and has been talking about it to its back.

The Postmaster has installed a big, long wood stove at the Postoffice to enable the mail carrier to warm his feet.

The Mail Carrier is trying out a new kind of a bit on his horse as he has had a hard time in the past trying to get the horse stopped, once he was started, and would always have to begin slowing down just this side of Musket Ridge. He says when his horse gets started right good he is almost as hard to get stopped as some newspapers.

See the Timms Bros., about shelling your corn, can shell in the shuck.

We wish about 200 of our subscribers would send us a dollar each in the next two weeks: It would considerably relieve the pressure of the High Cost-of-Living at this office, and enable us to approach the tax collector on the subject of a voting permit this year. Now don't rush us to death cashing money orders and checks.

Correspondents Contest

After carefully going over the files of the Herald this week, we find that the following is the number of letters each Correspondent wrote during 1914:

West Wind 51; Sand Bur 46; Sandy 42; Digger 37; Blue Jay 7; Silent Sammy 5 and Cricket 3.

The Conditions were 45 for a 1st and 25 for a 2nd prize, therefore you will see that West Wind and Sand Bur are entitled to 1st and Sandy and Digger to second prizes. First prize will be a year's subscription to Ladies Home Journal or its equivalent in cash, and second prize will be Holland's Magazine for one year, or its equivalent in cash. Prize winners will please notify us at once their preference.

To sum it all up, West Wind alone has contributed something near 75 columns for the Herald during 1914, and the others will easily carry it to the 150 mark. Now we do not consider the little prizes we are giving, anything near pay the writers for their trouble, though no other county paper that we know of gives anything, but is a gift from the editor to show his esteem and appreciation toward each co-worker that are trying so hard to make the Herald appreciated by the readers, and besides these little tokens of our esteem, we also extend our thanks to one and all for these favors, and wish each a happy and prosperous New Year.

These prizes and conditions will be the same this year as last, and we sincerely hope that all will win a prize next year. Sandy just missed a first prize, but her substitute missed several issues last summer that knocked her out.

Rebekahs Install

The Brownfield Rebekah Lodge installed the following officers for the coming term, Tuesday night Mrs. Dollie Fowler, N. G., Mrs. J. V. Drinkard, V. G., Miss Eldora Lewis being off on a trip, there was no secretary installed, Mrs. J. C. Green, Treasurer, besides the appointive officers.

Among other things that transpired, was that the Secretary was requested to subscribe for several copies of the Texas Odd Fellow for the lodge. It was further decided to meet in the hall on Thursday, Jan. 14th, for the purpose of quilting two quilts for the Odd Fellows Orphan home. Every Rebekah, wife of an Odd Fellow, or others that feel so inclined, are invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

It is a nice, warm room with a good stove and plenty of fuel, and with a nice cold dinner, you are sure to have a good time with your neighbors.

FOR TRADE—2800 acres land located 23 mi. S. E. Pecos city on mail route; all fenced, plenty of good water, 4 room house, well, windmill, tank, corrals, 4 a. farm. Would trade all or 1600, including improvements. What have you. See or write Jack Smith, Brownfield or Mrs. E. A. Moss, Meadow, Texas.

Dee Moore has traded his interest in the Lubbock Plains mail line to Mr. Cox, of Plains. Mr. Cox is a splendid young man and together with Sam Moore will continue to give the same courteous treatment to the traveling public that they have been receiving.

Mr. Hall has put a counter in the barber shop, and has added a nice line of candies.

Meadow

By Sandy

The holidays are over and New Year begun, we should all get to work with a will and do all the good we can.

Very few were out to preaching Sunday. Hope more may come next Sunday. I believe we are to have preaching every Sunday except the fifth, so lets none of us forget and all try to come. Do not stand back on a little bad weather, we wouldn't if it were a Christmas tree, party or picnic. We older ones should set the example, so lets all go every Sunday and work together in that we can accomplish something worth while. Remember each meeting is to be in the p. m. at 3 o'clock.

Those who were away for Christmas were, Mr. Ater and wife and little daughter, Ruby, to Roscoe to visit Mr. Ater's parents. Mr. Evans and family, to Amarillo, Clarendon and Goodnight visiting relatives and friends. Mr. S. C. Arnett and wife and S. C. Jr., Dudley Arnett and Mrs. Helpman to Colorado City. Mrs. Newt Copeland to Dermott to see her parents. Doc and Joe Peeler to La mesa visiting a brother.

Marlin Ellington and wife and Millard Ellington of Harris were over Christmas day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ellington.

We heard the Timmons men had several wolf chases during the holidays, but never learned whether they captured any game.

Mrs. Herring and sons spent Christmas day and night with her uncle Joe Beall.

Miss Pearl Evans gave a supper Christmas night to a few of her friends. We only learned the Misses Robinson and Messrs. Nettle were there but we feel sure all who were present had quite an enjoyable evening in that home.

Mr. Clifton Wood and wife of Slater Mo., were guests of R. G. Wood for several days. Mr. Wood is a nephew of R. G. Wood. R. G. says he will have to build more house, for when these relate to others what a remarkable outing they had on Rich Lake more of his kin will be coming. Mr. and Mrs. Wood came out from Lubbock in J. D. Caldwell's service car, Thursday before

New Year and returned on the mail car last Monday.

Mr. Perritt and Miss Alice Rose were married New Years eve, and are living on A. W. Blankenship's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Copeland were in Lubbock shopping a day or two before Christmas Day.

Mr. G. W. Ellington and wife and two daughters, Misses Grace and Pearl, were shopping in Lubbock Monday before Christmas.

We missed the paper very much last week, and hope the editor and family and every one had a very enjoyable holiday.

Harris

By Sand Bur

West Wind advised us to not make any comparisons as things don't look the same in print as when spoken. We realize that is true but say, ought not all the correspondents to accept criticizing in the same good natured manner in which it is given? At our meeting two years ago Sweet William suggested that we criticize each other and it met with favor from all present. What does each one think of it?

We heard that Jay McPhaul and Miss Myrtis Walker married during the holidays, but suppose this will be reported in other items.

J. M. McMillan and family visited relatives in Callahan and adjoining counties during the holidays.

John Spear and family have gone to T. C. Ivey's ranch to work.

Add Cox and family have moved on J. W. Spear's place near J Cross.

W. H. Harris and family gave a dinner to a few of their friends on Xmas Day.

H. F. Wingo has been staying at J. M. McMillan's taking care of the things while the family were away.

The Younger set enjoyed parties at the following places during the holidays: Jim Wright's on Xmas night, Marlin Ellington's on Saturday night after Xmas and B. C. Christenson's on New Year's night.

Pringle Hooker was right sick for several days and suffered considerably from sticking a nail in his knee just above the knee cap but we believe he has about recovered now.

Roy Harris has his splendid new feed mill and is at present crushing feed for H. L. Ware. He runs it with his gasoline engine. Jim Center has a new 2 horse power mill.

T. J. Conley went to Gomez Thursday returning Friday.

Miss Fern Harris has a beautiful little Collie dog which she purchased from some travelers last Wednesday.

The Harris School closed Dec. 23 and Mrs. Bell, the teacher, left next day for her home in Lockney. Mr. Frank Gruver of Lockney met her in Lubbock and they were quietly married there on Xmas day.

Mrs. Gruver is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Matthews, one of the most highly respected families in Lockney where they have lived for the past thirteen years, and beloved by all who know her.

Mr. Gruver is a young man of sterling character who with his brother is doing a thriving general merchantile business in Lockney.

May prosperity and good fortune attend them through life.

WHEN in Lubbock go to the City Grain and Coal Co., for grain, coal, hay and feed of all kinds. One block south Nicolette hotel in Downing old stand. W. J. (Dad) Luna, Manager. Give us a trial and be convinced.

C. S. Cardwell moved his building to the Daniel lot this week, preparatory to installing his new switch board as soon as an expert arrives from Dallas.

Mr. Moseley moved on the Heflin place that he recently purchased, during the holidays and his children started to school Monday.

Marriages.

DUKE-FOWLER

The above young couple kindly surprised their many friends last Saturday evening, when they had Judge Neill tie the knot that linked them together for life, not that anyone thought for a moment they never intended to marry, but was a little premature to expectations. The ceremony took place between the Courthouse and the Judge's residence, just a few minutes before the play.

Mrs. Fowler is the daughter of Esquire and Mrs. E. L. Duke, has long been a resident of this county, and there is no young lady more beloved, or will make a better helpmate than she.

Mr. Fowler is a young man of fine characteristics, and he has many friends and well wishers. We understand that he will take charge of the Miles ranch next week, where they will make their home.

Herald joins in congratulations.

WALKER—McPHAUL

Judge Haynes of Lubbock, spoke the words Tuesday night, Dec., 29th that made above young couple husband and wife. They are both so popular and well known in the county that an introduction is hardly necessary.

Suffice to say that Miss Myrtis is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walker, of the north side, and as she was for awhile an employe of the Herald, we have no hesitancy in saying that she was one of the choicest brides ever selected in old Terry, and Terry is noted for the best.

Jay is one of our coming young ranchmen, and has already accumulated quite a lot of this worlds goods, and will make a good husband. They will locate on his ranch in northwest Terry.

Herald extends congratulations.

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to those who rendered us aid in the play, "Cousin Kate", to each one who took part in the play, to Mr. Jno. S. Powell, the manager, for his valuable assistance, to Miss Lottie Atkinson, the prompter and to the Herald for advertising.

Among the others who have handed us the coin to keep 'er coming lately were: D. R. Carter, Sam Funderburk and Walter Gainer of Gomez; Joe Beall and O. F. Boyd of Meadow; O. L. Allen of Plainview; Mrs. Zellica Price of Loop and Walter Gracey of Brownfield. Walter Gainer said he got a laugh out of the Herald every once in a while. We are glad that at least one person in the county can appreciate the Herald just right. Most folks we have noticed reading it, will turn up their nose and remark to their neighbor that they don't see anything funny about that, when they read one of our witty pieces.

They left Lubbock at 5 p. m. A few years ago, before the advent of the car, this would have been considered an impossible event.

Messrs. T. B. Gallaher, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe, and Mr. Ensley, both of Amarillo, and Messrs. Hollingsworth, Shelby and Molyneux, all of Slaton, are down this week Nimroding with J. R. Hill. They report lots of game and plenty of fun.

The play Saturday night was well attended and well received though there was some dispute over its standing as compared with other recent productions here. Of course it was a departure from the usual run of plays staged here, and while some thought it the best yet, others looking from their point of view thought it not so good. Anyway, all those engaged did well, and all were agreed that they got their money's worth many times over. The receipts were in the neighborhood of $15.00

Rev. J. B. McReynolds, pastor of the Methodist church last year, was here recently after the balance of his household goods, where they will be carried to Andrews, by wagons, his present location. He asked us to say for him, that he was never among a more high minded people, or never was treated better anywhere than here, and that he could not leave without thanking them through the Herald for their kindness. It will be attached behind the regular car, and it will save them hiring an extra car and driver. They also aim to purchase some new cars in the near future, so they will always have one in reserve.

About the most conspicuous improvement we noticed in our recent trip to Lubbock was their new lighting system, and when we say system, we don't mean one little 30 candle power bulb stuck up on a cedar post, but we mean three powerful shielded lights on iron ornamental post like you see in the larger cities. The people of Lubbock are proud of their little city and we don't blame them.

Mr. Black, who owns the old Groves homestead, has sold the same to a man by the name of Harris from down east somewhere. The latter will move up in a few weeks.

New Years greeting to all.

We had a real quiet pleasant holiday. Xmas eve there was a little snow and the weather was cloudy and cold so our Xmas tree was postponed until Xmas night. We had a real nice tree and as usual everybody was good natured and happy and not a jar of any kind to mar the occasion. There was so many Christmas dinners and parties that we can't name them all and will only say that the Lord may have bestowed more of nature's blessings on other places than Terry county but decidedly there was no better cooks nor more genial kind hearted people. The young folks enjoyed every night of the week in some kind of social pleasure and are now back in school.

KEY—BLACK

On last New Years morning, Mr. Hosey Key and Miss Willis Black drove over to Rev. Lofton's to get married and finding him away from home they started on to Brownfield. Before they got there they met Rev. J. C. Lewis and he performed the ceremony that united the lives of these two popular young people. Hosey is the youngest living son of S. H. Key, and needs no introduction to Terry County people as he has been raised here in Gomez. He is in every sense a perfect gentleman and has the respect of all who know him. Miss Willis is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Black and we echo the sentiment of all who know her when we say that, no fairer flower ever bloomed on our wind swept plains, in feature, disposition and manners. She is altogether lovable. May life's brightest sunshine illuminate their pathway now and ever.

Mrs. Wolfarth and Miss Nora left Monday for Tucson Arizona, where Miss Nora will spend the remainder of the winter for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Wolfarth will return here in a short time.

At a dinner at Robert Holgate's here on Christmas Day. Mr. Word Price and Miss Zellica Knox, announced their marriage which took place the 28th of last August, at Brownfield. Judge Neill officiating. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams on New Years morn a fine boy. Both mother and babe doing well.

Mr. S. H. Key and daughter, Jewell went to Tahoka on New Years day for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart. They returned Sunday.

Messrs A. W. Moore, Ben Brannon, Walter Gainer, Geo. McPherson, E. E. Simms, Lester McPherson and O. Curlin, each carried a load of corn to Tahoka last week. They got 65c per bu. for it and there are thousands of bushels here in Terry more than is needed for home consumption, yet to be sold.

Fred Brannon of Midland visited his brother, Ben Brannon here during the holidays.

Will Lemon and wife of O'Donnel visited at Prof. White's New Years, returning home Monday. Mrs. Lemon is a sister to Prof. White.

The school in the Winn-Myers community opened last Monday morning. Mrs. Hosey Key is teaching there this term.

Sam Bigger of Plains, was here this week.

Ben Hurst and wife visited at R. W. Glover's on New Years, returning home Sunday.

Messrs. Tom Glover and Ben Hurst and their wives and Mrs. R. W. Glover and Vance attended the play at Brownfield last Saturday night. They say the play was excellent.

Mesdames J. M. and W. B. Hays came in Monday afternoon for the mail and groceries.

Brownfield Merc. Co.
We understand that about 13 new pupils entered school Monday. Some time ago, Prof. Huckleberry informed us that it looked like they were as full up as possible, but that there was always room for one more.

Rev. M. D. Williams returned last week from Durban Texas, where he has an appointment to preach monthly. By the way, this preacher-farmer had a ten acre patch of cotton this year that is yielding nine bales, and the prairie dogs got a good acre of it.

My Dear Bill

IT'S awfully good of you to write me about that company in your town wanting a good man of my trade. But honestly, Bill, I don't want the job. Of course they want good men—for prohibition has driven all the competent men out of the town.

There isn't a beer saloon in the place. You work and sleep—that's your daily programme. May suit you, Bill, but I like to get out and talk things over with the boys once in a while. I want some place to go after a hard day's work where I can get a glass of beer if I want one.

I know you can get a drink down there when you feel like it. But that isn't the point. The saloon is my club. You sneak into the back door of some blind pig or speak-easy and pay good money for stuff not fit to drink. No sneaking for mine, Bill. I'm a Temperance man—a real temperance man. That's why I'm going to stay right here where I can drink beer moderately and above board.

Those speak-easies get you, Bill, sooner or later. They've made drunkards of a lot of good men right in your township. I'd rather stay where my personal liberty isn't interfered with. Thanks for your interest in me.
Yours truly, JOHN.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
