HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

Several candidates were in this section this week. They all claim to be nice men.

Sim Flinders spent one day last week at Tickville and returned home with three bottles of some kind of patent medicine. His testimonial declares that after taking two doses of it he broke up a singing on Musket Ridge.

Columbus Allsop upon returning from church at Dog Hill last Sunday complained of his feet having hurt all during the sermon. He thought at first it was his conscience.

Miss Hostetter Hocks has ordered some beauty secrets from Chicago. She has them sent under an assumed name and will put them on her cheeks behind closed doors.

Poke Eazley began digging a cistern at his home on Musket Ridge yesterday. He will dig as long as the dirt is loose.

Slim Pickens has gone through the winter without an overcoat but he has some awful deep pockets.

The Blind Man of the Calf Ribs neighborhood has been appointed instructor of the Excelsior Fiddling Band, which is being reorganized after a suspension of some time pending the arrival of a new string for the bass fiddle.

Washington Hocks bought a horse last Monday from a gentleman over near Rye Straw, age and consideration unknown.

The house on Musket Ridge occupied by Isaac Hellwanger was destroyed by fire late Wednesday night. The house was more than covered by insurance. It is not known whether or how the fire started as nobody has inquired.

Jefferson Potlocks, who has not touched a drop since the first of the year, when he became a total abstainer, was in Tickville the other day and passed a saloon three times before going in.

During the hard times, caused by the war, together with the talk of the outgoing Republican postmaster at Tickville, the moonshine still on Musket Ridge is compelled to run also in the daytime.

The Wild Onion school teacher has started up his school again. He was compelled to dismiss several weeks ago when all the scholars got to knowing as much as he did. Now, however, he has again got a good start and hopes to keep ahead the rest of the term.

The Tin Peddler was in our midst this week and sold Miss Flutie Belcher an engagement ring.

Raz Barlow got a haircut one day this week, and now complains that his derby is too small.

Wash Hocks presented the editor of the Tickville Tidings with a large turnip last Saturday. The editor had both Wash and the turnip for dinner.

The Calf Ribs M. E. Church elected stewards for the ensuing year at a meeting Monday night. In the selection of men there is a majority in favor of the Democrats.

Yam Sims has gone to chewing wax again. It is strange how some of our worthy young men have a tendency toward recklessness. If he keeps on this downward course he will soon be wanting the women to vote.

The Excelsior Fiddling band was scheduled to furnish music for a party near Bounding Billows Saturday night, and was present, but failed to render any music because they could not think of anything to play.

GET your seed sweet potatoes from J. C. Lewis. Both kinds

Judge Neill is sending out circulars to the different automobile owners of the county, to get them to donate toward fixing up a permanent auto road to Lubbock, leading out north from Brownfield, to the county line of this and Hockley counties.

Commissioners Court

The court met in regular monthly session Monday, with all members present, and transacted the following business:

Special school tax election ordered for the Brownfield school district for the purpose of voting the additional 15c of the 50c, and to be held the first Saturday in April; C. S. Cardwell, R. H. Banowsky and T. J. Price, election officers.

Drag ordered for the public roads.

Bond of the Brownfield State Bank, as county depository, approved and accepted.

All accounts allowed. School election supplies ordered from Geo. D. Barnard.

Tilson Bill Passed

Austin Tex., Feb. 25.—The Senate passed the Tilson bill appropriating a hundred thousand dollars for bounties on jack rabbits at 5c each, with an amendment providing for $2 a head on lobo wolves.

It now goes to the governor for his signature.—Plainview News.

Can Carry The Money.

You that are owing the Brownfield Merc. will please come in and settle your accounts, as we need the money, and are plenty able to carry all the money you owe us. Don't think for a moment the load will worry us, but as you are probably tired of carrying our money, we will be pleased to take charge of same.

Brownfield Merc. Co.

To the married man who can not get along without his drinks, the following is suggested as a means of freedom from the saloon:

Start a saloon in your own house. Be the only customer. You will have no license to pay. Go to your wife, give her two dollars to buy a gallon of whiskey, and remember that there are 69 drinks in one gallon. Buy your drinks from no one but your wife and by the time the first gallon is gone she will have $8 to put in the bank, and $2 to start business again. Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have enough to bury you decently, educate the children, buy a house and lot, marry a decent man and quit thinking about you.—Atchison Globe.

Don Biggers Resigns, James Dow Announces

Mad with a committee, of which he was a member, because they acted on a measure without consulting him, Don H. Biggers; representative of this district, filed his resignation last Tuesday, with the Governor, as a member of the legislature. Up to the present writing we have not heard whether or no his resignation has been accepted.

Should Don Biggers cease to be a member of the legislature, Jas. L. Dow has his hat in the ring for the vacant seat. Dow is the successful editor of the Avalanche, and is the best man on the plains available for the position.—Tahoka News.

Notice to Creditors

You that are indebted to me, are hereby requested to come in at once and settle your accounts especially those of long standing, as I must have the money. We have waited long and patiently on some of our customers, and now we expect a prompt settlement.

Respt. E. B. Wright.

The Play

The play last Saturday night was well attended, considering the weather, and considering the encouragement the actors got from the audience, it caught the popular favor. Of course we are no authoritative critic, but to our individual notion, the Deacon was somewhat above the average for plays staged at the local play house.

We could not compliment any individual actor or actress without passing it on the whole troupe as each and all did their part well, leaving out the usual sing song methods of most all amateurs, and going after it in real professional style. To say the least, we believe the people got their money's worth and are glad they attended, and not altogether because of the use to which the funds will be devoted.

Total receipts for the night, $49.65.

Harris

By Sand Bur

Whew-ee! such weather as we are having in March. We think father time must have gotten his February and March weather mixed this year. The last ten days have certainly been enough to cause worry wrinkles in the cow man's face.

Millard Ellington went to Meadow last Friday.

Marvin Shelburne is staying at Brit Clare's looking after U—cattle there.

H. F. Wingo went to Lubbock after a load of freight last week.

Bro Hughes filled his regular appointment here last Sunday and preached two sermons to an attentive audience. He left here Sunday afternoon expecting to preach in Plains that night.

J. C. Dooley is out today, Monday, seeing after his interests here.

Roy Harris is drilling a well for B. C. Christenson. Mr. Christenson wants a well and windmill nearer his house than his present well is, as he expects to set out an orchard this spring and must have water for it.

Miss Emma Spear is visiting her brother, John Spear, and family on T. C. Ivey's ranch.

In regard to mailing our letter earlier in the week we will say that our letters stay over night at Tokio as our mail leaves Harris about noon and the eastbound mail passes Tokio in the early morning, ordinarily. It doesn't seem at all convenient for us to go to the office Sunday afternoon or Monday morning. I suppose we could do it or else mail our letters Saturday afternoon. How is it? The other correspondents? We are willing to do our part. (We were talking to correspondents that we knew was convenient for them to get in Tuesday. You are of course excusable.—Ed.)

The Harris Sunday School was discontinued during the cold months as everyone has so far to go, but we will order literature for the next quarter and expect to have Sunday School the first Sunday in April.

Little Miss Gertrude Wingo is spending this week with Mrs. J. M. McMillan.

Another big snow is falling this (Thursday) morning, before the one Monday got off the ground. There has been so much bad weather this week and so few people have come to town that we have no local matter much to report. The merchants are running short on groceries and tobacco, and we are getting real anxious about the latter item.

J. R. Smith and family, were in shopping the first of the week.

Note the change in Martin and Wolcott's ad. They have plenty of fresh greens from South Texas now, and await your order.

On account of the almost impassable condition of the road, the mail men failed to make their daily trip one day last week, and Tuesday of this week.

What has become of our strange birds that did inhabit the court yard trees at night? Have they migrated back to the mountains of N. Mexico.

Dee Brownfield and family started to visit Mrs. Brownfield's father at White Mountain N. M., last week, and got as far as Roswell, there they found that the route to the mountains was almost impassable, and returned home.

We call your attention to the statement of the First State Bank of Plains, Texas, in this issue. You will not be surprised at their healthy statement when we tell you that Cashier R. M. Kendrick is regarded as one of the best and most conservative bankers in this part of the country.

T. J. Price was in this week from the ranch after supplies, and informed us that he was acquainted with most of the parties in the shooting at Graham last week, that being his former home town.

Rev. Durham filled his regular appointment at the Baptist Church last Sunday.

While the snow was on the ground last Tuesday, Judge Neill and the editor armed themselves and went over to the Judge's pasture to see how the cattle were standing the spell. We found them doing well considering the weather, as he is feeding the cake and sorghum in the bundle and we also slew several jack rabbits that dared get up in front.

Your attention is directed to the statement of the Brownfield State Bank in this issue of the Herald. It shows a strong healthy condition, and while the loans are rather high, it shows that cashier Bell is doing all in his power to accommodate his customers, and to take care of their business.

Homer Winston came in this week to visit his parents, after spending a year or two in the eastern part of the state.

Hugh Williams left this week for points in the east on pleasure and business.

SILVER Wyandotte eggs for sale, fresh at all times; $1.50 per fifteen. J. T. King, Brownfield, Texas.

Hershall Timmons, of the Meadow country sent in its renewal last week by his brother, Hope, and they together subscribed for a copy to go to their mother at Graham Texas.

NATION'S LABOR PROBLEM

Over a million and a Half Women Work as Farm Hands in the United States.

By Peter Radford
Lecturer National Farmers' Union.

Our government never faced so tremendous a problem as that now lying dormant at the doors of Congress and the legislatures, and which, when aroused, will shake this nation from center to circumference, and make civilization hide its face in shame. That problem is—women in the field.

The last Federal census reports show we now have 1,514,000 women working in the field, most of them south of the Mason and Dixon line. There were approximately a million negro slaves working in the fields when liberated by the emancipation proclamation. We have freed our slaves and our women have taken their places in bondage. We have broken the shackles off the negroes and welded them upon our daughters.

The Chain-Gang of Civilization.

A million women in bondage in the southern fields form the chain-gang of civilization—the industrial tragedy of the age. There is no overseer quite so cruel as that of unrestrained greed, no whip that stings like the lash of suborned destiny, and no auctioneer's block quite so revolting as that of organized avarice.

The president of the United States was recently lauded by the press, and very properly so, for suggesting mediation between the engineers and railroad managers in adjusting their schedule of time and pay. The engineers threatened to strike if their wages were not increased from approximately ten to eleven dollars per day and service reduced from ten to eight hours and a similar readjustment of the overtime schedule. Our women are working in the field, many of them barefooted, for less than 50 cents per day, and their schedule is the rising sun and the evening star, and after the day's work is over they milk the cows, slop the hogs and rock the baby to sleep. Is anyone mediating over their problems, and to whom shall they threaten a strike?

Congress has listened approvingly to those who toil at the forge and behind the counter, and many of our statesmen have smiled at the threats and have fanned the flame of unrest among industrial laborers. But women are as surely the final victims of industrial warfare as they are the burden-bearers in the war between nations, and those who arbitrate and mediate the differences between capital and labor should not forget that when the expenses of any industry are unnecessarily increased, society foats the bill by drafting a new consignment of women from the home to the field.

Pinch No Crumb From Women's Crust of Bread.

No financial award can be made without some one footing the bill, and we commend to those who accept the responsibility of the distribution of industrial justice, the still small voice of the woman in the field as she pleads for mercy, and we beg that they pinch no crumb from her crust of bread or put another patch upon her ragged garments.

We beg that they listen to the scream of horror from the eagle on every American dollar that is wrung from the brow of toiling women and hear the Goddess of Justice hiss at a verdict that increases the want of woman to satisfy the greed of man.

The women behind the counter and in the factory cry aloud for sympathy and the press thunders out in their defense and the pulpit pleads for mercy, but how about the woman in the field? Will not these powerful exponents of human rights turn their talent, energy and influence to her relief? Will the Goddess of Liberty enthroned at Washinton hold the calloused hand and soothe the feverish brow of her sex who sows and reaps the nation's harvest or will she permit the male of the species to shove women—weak and weary—from the bread-line of industry to the back alleys of poverty?

Women and Children First.

The census enumerators tell us that the 1,514,000 women who work in the fields as farm hands 409,000 are sixteen years of age and under. What is the final destiny of a nation whose future mothers spend their girlhood days behind the plow, pitching hay and hauling manure, and what is to become of womanly culture and refinement that grace the home, charm society and enthruse man to leap to glory in noble achievements if our daughters are raised in the society of the ox and the companionship of the plow?

In that strata between the ages of sixteen and forty-five are 950,000 women working as farm hands and many of them with suckling babes tugging at their breast, as drenched in perspiration, they wield the scythe and guide the plow. What is to become of that nation where poverty breaks the crowns of the queens of the home; despair hurls a mother's love from its throne and hunger drives innocent children from the school-room to the hoe?

The census bureau shows that 155,000 of these women are forty-five years of age and over. There is no more pitiful sight in civilization than these saintly mothers of Israel stooped with age, drudging in the field from sun until sun and at night drenching their dingy pillows with the tears of despair as their aching hearts take it all to God in prayer. Civilization strikes them a blow when it should give them a crown, and their only friend is He who broke bread with beggars and said: "Come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest."

Texas, the home of Sam Houston and the adopted land of David Crockett! The Lone Star State!—baptized in the blood of martyrs and paid for by the lives of sainted heroes who, with the sword and the cross, slayed tyranny and conquered evil! Our Southland! the world's custodian of chivalry, the champion of human rights and the defender of the oppressed,—shall we permit our maidens fair to be torn from the hearthstone by the ruthless hand of destiny and chained to the plow? Shall we permit our faithful wives whom we covenanted with God to cherish and protect, to be hurled from the home to the harvest field and our mothers dear to be driven from the old arm chair to the cotton patch?

In rescuing our citizens from the forces of civilization can we not apply to our fair Dixie land the rule of the sea—women and children first?

There must be a readjustment of the wage scale of industry so that the woman can be taken from the field or given a reasonable wage for her services. Perhaps the issue has never been fairly raised but the Farmers' Union, with a membership of ten millions, puts its organized forces squarely behind the issue and we now enter upon the docket of civilization the case of "The Woman in the Field" and demand an immediate trial.

Old men have visions, young men have dreams. Successful farmers plow deep while sluggards sleep.

Whatever change the tenant farmer makes, it is bound to be for the better—it couldn't be for the worse.

The soil is like a man's bank account. It can soon be exhausted by withdrawing and never depositing.

The growing of legumes will retard soil depletion and greatly add to its power to produce.

Baker and the unknown heirs of John H. Baker, Nancy Baker, and the unknown heirs of Nancy Baker are defendants, the cause of action being alleged in substance as follows:

That heretofore, to-wit, on the first day of January, A. D. 1915, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises, situated in Yoakum County Tex., holding and claiming the same in fee simple to-wit: all of section No. 7, in Block D, located by virtue of Certificate No. 20, issued to John H. Gibson, and containing 640 acres of land; All of section No. 6, in Block D, located by virtue of Certificate No. 19, issued to John H. Gibson, and containing 640 acres of land; All of section No. 381, in Block D, located by virtue of certificate No. 59, issued to John H. Gibson, and containing 640 acres of land; All of section No. 382, in Block D, located by virtue of Certificate No. 39, issued to John H. Gibson, containing 640 acres of land.

That on the day and year last aforesaid, the defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof, to his damages ($5,000.00); that the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is ($500.00).

And for special plea herein, comes the plaintiff, and says, that he and those under whom he claims have had, and held continuance, peaceable and adverse possession under title and color of title from and under the State of Texas, of the land and tenements hereinbefore described, for more than three years after the defendant cause of action accrued, if any they have, which is not here admitted, but expressly denied, and for more than three years before the commencement of this suit.

That the plaintiff and those under whom he claims, have had, and held continuance adverse possession of the land and tenements hereinbefore described, claiming the same under a deed and deed duly registered, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes due thereon for a period of more than five years after the defendant cause of action arose, if any, which is not admitted, but expressly denied, and for more than five years before the commencement of this suit.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays judgment in the Court, that the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that plaintiff have judgment for title, and possession of said above described land and premises, and that a writ of restitution issue, and for his rents, damages and cost of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity he may be justly and entitled to receive, for which he will ever pray.

You are further commanded to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week for eight successive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in a newspaper published in your County, but if there be no newspaper published in said County, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness F. L. Boyd, Clerk of the District Court of Yoakum County.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, in the town of Plains, this the 20th day of January, A. D. 1915.

Gomez

By West Wind

Nothing doing in Gomez? Oh! yes Gomez collectively and individually is busy right now staying close to the heating stoves and trying to keep warm. The snow began at nine this, Monday, morning and has been falling constantly ever since. It is now five p. m. and we certainly pity the travelers on the plains tonight. We have counted seventeen covered wagons going west today, and all of them were either freighters or people moving to N. Mexico.

Mr. Fisher White of Pottsville, Texas, came to see his brother, Prof. White, last week, and has decided to make his home here. Welcome.

Ben Hurst and wife came in Saturday evening from their home in Lynn County, to visit R. W. Glover's family. Ben returned home Sunday evening but Mrs. Hurst will spend this week here.

All the sick folks are better this week.

Mrs. D. J. Broughton of Brownfield paid a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ed Moore, last week.

Messrs. Claud Rap and Gardner Yates of Yoakum county, stayed in town Sunday night. They were enroute east to get a bunch of cattle for Mr. Carlisle.

There was a family reunion at R. W. Glover's, Sunday, and every member of the family and all the sons-in-law and grandchildren were there. They had an excellent dinner and a good time.

Roy Green and wife spent Saturday afternoon in town.

Those from here who attended the play at Brownfield last Friday night are enthusiastic in praise of it. They say, "the play was good, the acting just fine."

Tuesday morning: The sun shines bright, the birds are singing and this part of the world is o. k., despite several inches of snow on the ground and a serious shortage of coal in this village.

Quite a lot of our citizens loaded their wagons with grain early yesterday morning to start to Tahoka, and intended starting today, but we don't think a loaded wagon would be easy to pull in this snow.

J. T. Gainer and Mr. Pulliam of Plains, paid a visit to our town, and we omitted the item last week.

Tom Gainer is able to get about a little on crutches, and we hope will soon be well.

Joe Lane, went up to Lubbock last Saturday and expected to bring his wife home if she was well enough to come, but we don't think he has returned yet. Mrs. Mashburn accompanied him to Lubbock to have some dental work done.

Grover Lewis and Bert Ingram left for Lubbock early Monday morning.

Rev. L. H. Hughes took dinner at Dr. Maddux's Saturday enroute to Harris to fill his regular appointment there.

E. E. Simms and Ben Brannan left early Monday morning for Sligo, with huge loads of cottonseed cake.

C. C. Short had a valuable horse to get a foot seriously cut on wire Monday morning.

Roy Hudson came in early Tuesday morning for Dr. Maddux to go to see his brother, Paul, who is quite sick.

The last Herald was sure all o. k. Thanks Sandy for your appreciation. Last week was a kind of family reunion, all the correspondents there but Sweet William and Silent Sammy.

Frank Howard brought his hands in Thursday and will take a lay off until the weather fairs up.

Doss Windham and mother went to Tahoka Thursday and returned Friday.

Tom Howard attended the dance at Mr. Graves' Saturday night and reports o romping big time.

Mrs. Will McPhaul happened to a very painful accident one day last week by stepping on a nail.

Mrs. Charlie Boone spent Sunday with Mrs. Brock Gist.

Mrs. Word Price, who is teaching in Gaines county, visited at Uncle Tom Price's Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Noah Bell and children visited Brock Gist and wife Saturday night.

Walter Beall has purchased a brand new plow and says he is going to turning the soil.

Needmore

By Blue Jay

The health of our community is very good.

Everything is on the stand still on account of so much bad weather.

Aunt Ann McPhaul returned Sunday from an extended visit to her daughter at Wichita Falls.

Noah Bell and J. W. Gordon are at San Antonio attending the Stockmen's Convention.

The singing at Mr. Herring's Sunday evening was well attended and everybody reported a splendid time.

Misses Annie and Elsie Beall visited Meadow Sunday.

Jake Beall and Georgs Howard are helping Jim Smith dig loco this week.

Arch McPhaul and wife came in Saturday from Tahoka where they went on business.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
