Miss Flutie Belcher has placed her order for a nice flask of perfume and is expecting it any day. Since she has gone and done this, there will be no need of any sweet scented flowers this spring except to look at.

Dock Hocks says when you see a fellow sitting with the palm of his hand across his cheek he is either an author or he has the toothache.

The ladies of the Dog Hill Church are making up money this week to buy the preacher a pair of plow shoes. They will probably complete the task by the last of next week.

The backwardness of spring is going to cause a lot of our citizens to get terribly behind with their fishing.

A report has reached Hogwallow that the town of Tickville was flooded this week with circulars. No great damage is reported, however.

After having observed the picture of W. L. Douglas with price quotations accompanying it, Tobe Moseley is wondering what office he is running for.

The mail carrier was several days late this week in arriving, he having stopped along the way many times to discuss the almost impassable condition of the roads.

Raz Barlow thinks our Deputy Constable should wear his star on the back of his coat, as most of the meanness is done behind his back.

Prof. Sap Spradlin, of the Wild Onion school house, is becoming very popular, and if he keeps on he may later run for some kind of office. His presence was even noticed in Tickville last week, and the Tidings of that city put his name in the paper, saying he was a pleasant caller at the office Thursday. Prof. Spradlin announces that he will save these clippings for his grandchildren to look at in after years.

Miss Flutie Belcher has a new spring hat. It has two large wings on it, and the next thing you know she will be making a flying trip to Tickville.

When the incessant rains were in progress in the vicinity of Hogwallow the past week a flood in Gander Creek seemed inevitable, and such there might have been had not many of our residents set large numbers of rain barrels to take care of much of this surplus water.

Tobe Moseley observed several wild geese going back to their northern home one evening last week. He climbed up on top of the horse lot fence so that he could get a better look at them.

Yam Sims says when a show company comes to a country town one always wonders if some of the pretty girls did not get left at the last town.

Can Carry The Money.

You that are owing the Brownfield Merc. will please come in and settle your accounts, as we need the money, and are plenty able to carry all the money you owe us. Don't think for a moment the load will worry us, but as you are probably tired of carrying our money, we will be pleased to take charge of same.

We are glad to see Mr. Youngblood out on the streets again, after a long siege with something like sun pains.

An Interesting Letter

Oak Park, Ill., 3-11, '15
Mr. A. J. Stricklin,
Editor Terry County Herald,
Brownfield, Texas,

Very dear sir:—I would not have you think from this long silence, that the inhabitants of this Northland hibernate as do bees and bats, during the winter months. Nay! nay! we are an active set of folks up here by the inland sea; indeed we have to be wide awake, shoveling snow, and feeding fires, and keeping all the wheels of activity revolving, while the short days and long nights are with us. With us, winter is the time for intellectual and spiritual aggressiveness, and the one now passing has not been an exception. We have had more than six weeks of continuous and splendid sleighing. The churches and clubs have rallied their forces by day and night, and the merry chimes of bells and the joyous notes of social life, have been heard in the midst of winter storms.

But now the Vernal Equinox is at hand, the robin has come and spring is again near.

Since last I wrote you, have built a new church and in all the sacred relations pertaining to a pastor's life, have tried to make good, before God and men. All of this is by way of apologizing for not reporting to you sooner.

The Herald has come regularly to our table and we have read it every week, eager to know what things are transpiring in that land of boundless visions. I am anxiously waiting for the steel rails and the iron horse to come your way, heaving multitudes from east and west, north and south to help make the Plains.

They are destined to be the garden of the world. I notice you are having copious rains, which are prophecies of abundant harvests.

If I were not so near the "three score and ten," it would delight me much to join the hardy and brave people who have been and are on the front line of pioneer life with you.

The daily press has several times recently, sent forth as news, that the Lone Star State is about to be divided into two States, or even three, but as the Herald has said nothing about it we doubt the accuracy of the rumors; but that matter is for Texans to settle, and we know you are competent to do it.

I inclose with this, that which will enable me to receive and read the Herald with better grace than I have done in some time. My regards to friend Hill, Mr. Randal and others whom I learned to know during my visit with you.

Faithfully,
D. D. DeLong

Editor's Note: Rev. DeLong is pastor of the Sixth Congregational church of Oak Park, Ill., the most beautiful suburb of Chicago. He owns a fine section of land in Terry, and takes the Herald to keep posted. We, of the South, who are used to seeing a four or five inch snow melt in a few hours after the sun comes out, can hardly realize it staying on the ground six weeks. However, we would like to take our first sleigh ride with Pastor DeLong, as we are yet to enjoy that fascinating sport. As to the division of Texas, that was a joker bill introduced by a Western Texas Senator to force a redistribution of Congressional districts, as East Texas has both Congressmen-at Large, when in fact, West Texas is entitled to them, as our counties made from 500 to 2000 percent gains, to their nothing to 10 percent gain in population from 1900 to 1910, but they out vote us. Herald favors a division for business reasons, but 19 out of 20 Texans favor union for sentimental reasons. Send us a post card view of your new church, and let us hear from you again.

Notice to Creditors

You that are indebted to me, are hereby requested to come in at once and settle your accounts especially those of long standing, as I must have the money. We have waited long and patiently on some of our customers, and now we expect a prompt settlement.

Respt.

Auto Truck Line

Let us have it by all means. It will be the next thing to a railroad.

Suppose we have a quick-transit line from Seminole to Lamesa say a four or five hours run, it will be far beyond that which we have. Then could take a load of produce to market and return with his groceries the same day.

Not only this but it will be the means of advancing the price of our lands and everyone would be glad to see that.

Along the immediate line of this road the land would take a rise at once and that would soon affect the other. When land begins to go up people want to buy, and come into the country, and that is the thing we want and the thing that is coming; ever since the decree went forth.

"In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread," the "man with the hoe" has been in possession of the ground and it is only a matter of time when he will come into his own. Let us have the AUTO TRUCK LINE.—Seminole Sentinel.

An auto truck line has been agitated between here and Tahoka for some time, but has been opposed by most of the business men on account of it taking the business away from farmers and others, who do considerable freighting, and would have to return empty after carrying a load of grain to market.

Yet with all this, the auto truck is as certainly and surely coming as the anto is already here to stay, and where the auto truck has been tried they have given entire satisfaction, and as the Sentinel says, is the next thing to a freight train, as the auto mail line is the passenger train. Yes, they are coming sooner or later.

Mr. Woods of Slater Mo., nephew of R. G. Woods, has brought his family and will soon erect a new house on Rich Lake. We are glad to welcome these people to our community.

Dave Whitely who has been drilling a well for W. M. Collins, finished it last week.

Mr. Faw preached to a good crowd Sunday. Let us all make an effort now to be back again the fourth Sunday at eleven o'clock.

Mrs. Jonas Hamlett is on the sick list this week.

S. A. Shepherd had us add his brother, A. N. Shepherd, of Emilee Texas, to our mailing list. He also informed us that Chas. Currier, a new married man was not on our list. Good; Charley had never let us know that he was going to settle in old Terry. Glad to get to send it free the first year.

The Editor made a trip up to the Dick Brownfield residence now under construction, one day this week, and since the weather cleared the workmen are making a sign. This will not only be the best house around here, but will be by far the most convenient.

Texas' recent quarantine against the world has stopped New Mexico prospectors and homeseekers from carrying their cattle from Texas. The Fort Worth market now has to depend exclusively on Texas for her supplies, and as a consequence, cattle have taken a decided rise.

Messrs. Brooks and Drinkard sold their blacksmith shop this week to Roy Cardwell and Geo. Bragg, and they took charge yesterday morning. Mr. Bragg has had quite a lot of experience in hammering iron, having worked for several years under his father at Gomez. THE PATRIOTIC DOLLAR War Revenue Tax of $105,000,000 Levied—Beer Bears Brunt of Burden.

Congress has levied a war tax of $105,000,000 to offset a similar amount of loss on import revenue due to the European disturbances and of this amount beer is the heaviest contributor, having been assessed approximately, $50,000,000; a stamp tax on negotiable instruments, it is estimated, will yield $31,000,000; a tax on the capital stock of banks of $4,300,000, and a tax on tobacco, perfumes, theater tickets, etc., makes the remainder.

Congress has decreed that the brewer, the banker and the investor must shoulder the musket and march to the front; that milady who would add to her beauty must first tip Uncle Sam, and a dollar that seeks pleasure must first salute the flag; that Pleasure and Profit—the twin heroes of many wars—shall fight the nation's battles and by an ingeniously arranged schedule of taxation Congress has shifted the war budget from the shoulders of Necessity to those of Choice and Gain, touching in its various ramifications almost every line of business.

All hail the dollar that bleeds for its country; that bares its breast to the fortunes of war and risks its life to preserve the stability and integrity of the nation's credit.

The market place has always been a favorite stand for war revenue collectors. The trader is a great financial patriot. His dollar is the first to rally around the star-spangled banner and the last to hear the coo of the dove of peace. He is called upon to buy cannon; to feed and clothe the boys in blue and each month cheer their hearts with the coin of the realm. Men can neither be free nor brave without food and ammunition, and money is as important a factor in war as blood. Many monuments have been erected in honor of heroes slain in battle, poems have been written eulogizing their noble deeds and the nation honors its soldiers while they live and places a monument upon their graves when they die, but very little has been said of the dollar that bears the burdens of war.

The Texas Sunday School Association will convene at Austin, Texas, March 30th. This association is interdenominational, and a great factor in the upbuilding of Sunday Schools in Texas.

Copulsory education in Texas is endorsed by the Texas house of representatives, which passed finally 94 to 11, and signed by Gov. Ferguson. The bill requires the attendance of all children between the ages of 8 and 14 and becomes effective on Sept. 1st, 1916. For the first year the attendance must be 60 days, second year 80, and thereafter 100. Parents who keep their children from school will be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and will be punished accordingly.—Ex.

cordingly.—Ex.

A year or two has passed since the Herald printed anything concerning a railroad in this county, as it is useless to print every false rumor one hears, and we have nothing definite to tell the people now, but remarks of people higher up are sometimes significant. We understand that recently, when one of the best fixed ranchmen in the county was preparing to drive his cattle to the railroad to ship, he remarked to his men that "this will be the last time we will drive them to the railroad, boys; next year we will load them in the pasture." Just whether he really made the remark or not, we are unable to say positively, but if he did, he and his backers are plenty able to carry out the remark. Another thing that seems quite plausible, people in other portions of the country have heard something, for no week, or hardly a day passes but that somebody is looking out a location for a farm or business location here. But don't base too much on mere rumor.

We believe the majority of people who dislike Dunk Botts, fail to appreciate the moral in his items. Several people on different occasions, have said to us, that the reason some people did not like Dunk, was because he cut them with his sarcasm. Be it as it may, if the editor or any of the scribes had full sway under a fictitious name and a non de plume people and community to write about, we would lambast every sucker or hypocrite to our heart's content; but as it is, we are afraid of being horse-whipped. Dunk spares none, high or low, but tells the whole, unvarnished truth, without a mite of policy. While Terry county's citizenship ranks head and shoulder above the average, yet in most every community, there is an old miser of Musket Ridge, who is hording all his bony fingers can grasp; a Poke Easily, who had rather scorch or drown than move his seat; a Fletcher Hen step, a petty thief; a Fruzzie Alsop, who imagines she is still fooling people as to her age or the reason she isn't married; a Luke Mathusala, who always piddling on some contrivance to keep out of work; a Slim Flenders, who is very much hen pecked; an Ellick Helwhanger, who imagines every body is afraid of him because they had rather take a little than have trouble; a Tobe Mosley with so many kids that he has a roll call every night; a deputy constable, who loves to show his star and authority; a Yam Sims, who tries to dress sporty, but looks tacky; a fiddling band that annoy people who are trying to sleep; a buxom widow or lively widower, hunting another mate; the preacher, who is keeping strife between the denominations; the neighborhood gossip playing a second fiddle to the agitating preacher, the prevaricator and braggard, who had rather lie on a credit than tell the truth for cash; the snooty yarn vendor; the teacher doing the best he knows, the talkative blacksmith, the careless postmaster, and the windy editor. They all come in for some of Dunk's batting, and he lays it on good and heavy. We admit he butchers English horribly, but so did Josiah Allen's Wife and Josh Billings, yet their works occupy a prominent place in all well regulated libraries.

Gomez

By West Wind

There was three church services here Sunday. Rev. Loftin preached at the school house at 11 a. m. and Rev. Hughes at the M. E. Church at 3 p. m. and in the evening. There was a good crowd out at all the services. It seems strange now to be in Gomez on Sunday when there is no preaching, and we feel sure that the majority of the people here would prefer that we could have a sermon every Sunday instead of two when there is any and then services at two places the same Sunday. But such is life. Some can't on account of other appointments, change their date, and others won't.

E. W. Maddox is right sick at this writing.

My! but there surely will be fruit on the South Plains in the future. Mr. Alderson came in Sunday evening with a load that in size resembled a load of hay. He was taking it to Yoakum county for delivery, and Monday, Word Price delivered a huge load to citizens here.

Paul Hudson is yet right sick.

Joe Lane came in Saturday evening from Lubbock. He reports that his wife is improving.

Walter Gainer, Arthur Moore, G. S. McPherson and H. D. Leach left for Tahoka early Monday morning with loads of corn, and Bert Ingram and Grover Lewis left for Lubbock. Bert and Grover left their freight wagons at the L7 ranch last week because the roads were so bad they could neither go on to Lubbock or get them home.

While the roads were at their worst last Thursday, Mr. Cox, the mail carrier, hired Walter Gainer to go home with him and spend the night. We think Mr. Cox feared he would stick in the mud and have to spend the night on the road and wanted Walter along for a chaperon.

H. L. Ware's family moved out to their Yoakum county ranch Monday. Addie Bell will board here at E. E. Simms' until school closes.

Bert Ingram decided Terry county was good enough for him to stay another year in, and has rented and moved to the Youngblood place two miles west of town.

Geo. Black Jr. has swapped those pretty white horses of his to Bert Ingram for a pair of mules.

Joe Griffith moved Monday to the Lee place, east of town, that Bert Ingram vacated last Saturday.

this year. Prof. says he also has an appointment to conduct a farm two miles west of town just as soon as school closes and that farm looks better to him than the school room. (Still we want Terry represented in the Normal faculty.—Ed.)

Our eleventh grade pupils in school all got married and quit school and as there was a lack of money to keep four teachers any longer, Tom Glover closed his work as teacher for this term last Friday evening. The pupils gave a treat of fruits and confectioneries and the occasion was real pleasant. Tom has given perfect satisfaction in his work here.

G. W. Kelley, the Plains phone man, was here at the hotel Monday.

Mr. Carlisle spent Monday night in town. He was moving a bunch of calves.

Prof. White and family visited out at Bob Snodgrass' last Sunday.

H. H. Longbrear and family visited at Geo. McPherson's last Sunday.

Clyde Harris and family from North-west Terry, visited at E. E. Simms' Sunday and Monday and Miss Mary Simms returned home with them Tuesday to spend a week.

Ben Hurst came in Monday afternoon to carry his wife home but owing to having to do some work on his auto, he did not leave here until Tuesday.

IF you want the best coal and grain at the lowest prevailing price, go to the City Grain & Coal Company, one block south of square, Lubbock, Texas. W. J. Luna is the proprietor and will treat you right.

J. C. Green and Elbert Proctor have taken a contract to drag and level up the Tahoka road, and build a wet weather road on top the dump.

S. E. Hamilton has bought the 80 acres just south of the town section from N. N. Ross, and Mr.

Hamilton's son will farm the place this year, but his father will move on the place this fall in time for school. Mr. Ross moved into the old Holden place, Monday.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
