I. O. O. F. Anniversary

The Brownfield Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges, as usual celebrated the anniversary of the order in America, Monday night, this being the 96th one, with good talks, songs, sociability and refreshments.

There was a good crowd present, and all seemed to be in full harmony with the occasion. Hon. G. E. Lockhart favored us with a good talk along the line of the many benefits of the order. Hon. W. R. Spencer, along the line of history of this order and of this lodge and what it has accomplished, he being the man who organized this lodge. Atty. Percy Spencer made a good talk on the duty of Past Grands to their home lodges. About the most interesting talk of the evening, was a paper by Mrs. W. G. Hardin on the W. & O. Home at Corsicana, Texas, in which she used official statistics, to show what a grand and noble work Texas Odd Fellows are doing for their dependent widows and orphans. The songs were real pretty, and showed good preparation on the part of those rendering them.

After the program, those assembled were served to delicious punch and cake.

IF you want the best coal and grain at the lowest prevailing price, go to the City Grain & Coal Company, one block south of square, Lubbock, Texas. W. J. Luna is the proprietor and will treat you right.

Will Ed Harris, a former citizen of Terry county, but now of White Mountain, N. M., is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. D. Brownfield.

A Sweet Farewell

Thou art gone
Our precious darling
We shall see thee
Here no more.

But we know
Thy spirits waiting
For us on
The other shore.

Just before the
Dawn of morning
E'er the night
Had passed away,

Angels bore her
Gentle spirit
To that land
Of endless day.

Thou' our hearts
Are crushed with sorrow,
Though our grief
We'll not despair;

Life on earth
Seems but tomorrow,
Til we'll meet
Thee over there.

May God help us
To be faithful
E'er our short life,
Here is o'er.

And we'll meet thee
Precious Allie
And our loved ones
Gone before.

Her Uncle (George.)

For the sum of $1.25 we will extend your subscription to the Herald one year and send you Hollands Magazine and Farm & Ranch, both, for six months. Not good after June 1st.

Our old friend, W. B. Snodgrass, was over this week as a witness in the Woodard case, and saw how country editors lived for one meal—all he could stand.

Married.

Mr. B. L. Anderson and Miss Eva Hill were married in the parlor of the Hill Hotel, last Sunday, April 25th, at 10 a. m.; Rev. H. L. Hughes officiating.

Mrs. Anderson is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill, and has been raised and educated in Brownfield, and like all other Terry county girls, is pretty, has a host of friends and well wishers and will make Mr. Anderson a true helpmate.

Mr. Anderson has but recently come to us from Post City, and is engaged in the tailor business. Has every appearance of being a young man of good breeding and good business qualities.

Herald joins their many friends in wishing them a smooth journey through life.

Commissioners Court.

The Court met Monday, April 19th with all members present, and transacted the following business: Ordered road worked from Gomez, one mile north, and R. W. Rambo was allowed contract for $94.50.

The Collector's books were gone over, and he was ordered to proceed to collect all delinquent taxes.

The new road drag has been received, but as it has not been tried, it was not decided whether it would be kept or not. There is much road work being done and a lot more under consideration.

Bills were allowed.

WHEN in Tahoka see H. M. Larkin for Watkins' goods, etc.

Died

Mrs. Allie Teague, the lady who was accidentally shot some time ago, as reported in the Herald, died last Friday morning after lingering almost a month.

She was a young woman, and we understand was a member of the Methodist Church. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church, Saturday afternoon at 5 p. m., by Rev. H. L. Hughes, and her body was laid to rest in the Brownfield Cemetery an hour later. Despite the almost incessant rain, a good crowd of friends and relatives accompanied the body to the grave. Her uncle Geo. M. Smith, has a sweet obituary in verse to her memory in this issue of the Herald. Herald extends sympathy to the bereaved father and the little children, left by her at a tender age. May God in his mercy protect them.

SUDAN SEED: Will sell you pure, cleaned seed at 10c per pound, that grew in a field far separated from all sorghum plants, and free of Johnson grass. See or write C. S. Cardwell, Brownfield Texas.

An Editor's Commission.

Says the Litchfield (Ill.) News Herald: Not long ago a man came into this office and stopped his paper because he said it was always printing a lot of things about the same people and he said he was sick of it. Now when something goes wrong with the country the government appoints a commission to investigate and find out what is the matter, and the first thing a commission investigates is the man who made the holler to see if the holler was a reasonable holler. So we appointed a commission consisting of ourselves to investigate this man. We just followed the man's career ever since we knew him. The first thing that happened to that man was that he was born, but he had nothing to do with it. However, we mentioned him, although his parents were entitled to the credit. When he was in his early twenties he got married. We mentioned that, including the name of the bride, the preacher, etc., in fact we mentioned every thing but the preacher's fee, which was not worth mentioning. We never mentioned the fact that he never won any premiums at the county fair, because he never exhibited anything. We never mentioned his name in the list of committees, because he never attended anything. We never mentioned his name in the list of donors, because he never donated as much as a dough nut. We certainly have been treating this man shamefully, but we will agree to run a nice obituary when the time comes.

Do It Now

The man who leads a fast life is said to "burn the winds." The man who leads a life of carelessness about his premises ought to be put down as one who "burns his own savings." A policy of "I'll attend to the trash tomorrow" has been responsible for the heavens being lighted up by fires that consumed the accumulation of a life of effort not on'y thousands, but tens of thousands of times. Procrastination is not only the thief of time; it is the thief of the wealth of the world. He who procrastinates loses his own wealth. Vaccination is to avoid small pox. In times of epidemic, water is boiled to conserve health. Why not extend this list of things done as precautions. Why not wage eternal and perpetual, unceasing and unflagging warfare against the fire demon paying you a visit.

He is never welcome, but may come at any time. This much, however, is certain, he will postpone his visit, until you make his coming propitious.

Delayed.

The prairies are getting green once more. Old Father Time keeps rolling on and on. One more severe winter has passed and now we have the beautiful budding spring with us again. The stockman is wearing a smile that won't come off, as grass is getting good picking for the stock. Most everyone has quit feeding cattle and turned them out on the grass. No overly great loss is reported, owing to the abundance of feed crops raised in the west. All have had plenty and to spare.

The farmers in this vicinity are putting in full time plowing and getting ready to plant corn soon.

Quite a number of Primrose people attended the show at Meadow Saturday night. From all accounts most everybody from several miles around was there. All pronounced it very interesting. Nothing like a little jollyfication once in a while to keep us from getting old.

Mr. Faw preached at Meadow Sunday to a splendid audience.

H. L. Smith and Mr. Toner hauled maize to Lubbock, Monday.

Mrs. H. L. Smith has been staying with Mrs. Hamlett for two weeks.

Mesdames Blankenship and Herring called on Mrs. Perritt last Wednesday.

Oscar Boyd bought H. L. Smith's place last week. Consideration several thousand. But next day he came back and backed out. Mr. Smith paying back the forfeit money. All parties seem pleased that the deal did not go through.

Mr. Taner and A. H. Herring hauled four wagon loads of maize to Lubbock Tuesday.

Three more cases of smallpox have developed in the Perritt family.

Miss Clara Stone and her sister, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Timmons. They live in New Mexico.

Today, April 13th, is ye scribe and husband's wedding anniversary. We pledged our solemn marriage vows twenty five years ago today. Well I could write a volume of experiences, some sad but mostly pleasant ones. 13 is called an unlucky number but we have not found it so, and we can say surely our lives have been cast in pleasant places, for goodness and mercy have followed us along the journey. We have reared ten children, all living. Our bark is gently gliding down the stream of time, and as we pass the mile posts, each succeeding year, we are thankful it is as well with us as it is, and feel we are guided by an unseen hand.

This Week.

Rain! Rain! is the slogan these days. One thing sure we will have another good crop year.

H. L. Smith, Mr. Turner, Sam Branch and wife, Lence Price and family and Prof. Faw spent Sunday at Lee Cowan's, and had a splendid singing in the evening.

Hamp Perritt's family have all recovered from the smallpox and his children have started to school a gain.

A nephew of Lee Cowan's, by the name of Good, has just arrived from Robertson, Okla.

Some of the Primrose boys went to Meadow Saturday evening to play ball with the Meadow nine, but it was so bad but a few of the boys came.

Charley Cowan sold a nice bunch of hogs to H. L. Smith, Monday.

Mesdames Blankenship and Herring went to Lubbock, shopping Tuesday.

N. B. Holland was here last Friday and had us send the Herald to him at Tokio, Texas.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

To be Voted on Saturday, July 24th, 1914

House Joint Resolution No. 1.

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 2, of Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto a provision authorizing a qualified voter to vote for State officers, or on any proposition submitted to the voters of this State in a precinct other than the precinct of residence under certain conditions and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Section 2, of Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

SEC. 2. Every male person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this State one year next preceding an election, and the last six months within the district or county in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector, and every male person of foreign birth, subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have become a citizen of the United States in accordance with the Federal naturalization laws, and shall have resided in this State one year next preceding such election and the last six months in the county in which he offers to vote, shall also be deemed a qualified elector and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence provided, that electors living in any unorganized county may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and providing further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before he offers to vote at any election in this State, and holds a receipt showing his poll tax paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or, if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. If any qualified voter in this State shall have personally paid his poll tax in the county and precinct of his residence, or secured an exemption certificate showing that he is exempt from paying a poll tax, he shall be permitted to vote in the county in which he may be on election day on any proposition which may have been submitted to the voters of the entire State, and for any office to be filled by the voters of the entire State; also for members of either branch of the Legislature and Congress and judicial officials; provided, no voter shall vote for members of either branch of the Legislature, Congress, or judicial officials outside of the legislative, congressional or judicial district of such voter's residence, and nothing herein shall permit a voter to vote at any place other than his residence, if he be within the county of his residence on election day. Any person offering to vote in any county other than the county of his residence shall deliver to the election managers his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, who shall retain same until the following day, and then mail same to the person depositing same to any address he may name; and in addition to depositing the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, such person so offering to vote shall make an affidavit:

(1). That he is absent from home, and it will be impossible for him to return to the precinct of his residence in time to vote; (2) that he has not voted at any other election precinct on that day, and will not offer to vote at any other precinct in this State; (3) that he personally paid his poll tax within the time provided by law, or personally secured the certificate of his exemption from the payment of a poll tax.

Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday in July, 1915, the same being the twenty-fourth day of July, 1915, and the Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and to have same published, as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. Those opposing the amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against amendment to Section 2, of Article 6, of the Constitution, authorizing qualified voters to vote in precincts other than the precinct of their residence under certain conditions."

Sec. 4. No Legislation shall be necessary to put into effect this article of the Constitution, but when adopted same shall be self-enacting.

Sec. 5. The sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of such proclamation, publication and election.

A Joint resolution proposing and submitting to a vote of the people of Texas an amendment to Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for public improvements, and levying of a tax to pay the interest and sinking fund on same, and for maintenance.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows, to-wit:

Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State, to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to, any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company, provided, however, that under legislative provision any county, any political subdivision of a county, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include towns, villages, or municipal corporations, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby, in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory; except that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this constitution; and levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof as the Legislature may authorize, and in such manner as it may authorize the same, for the following purposes, to-wit:

(b) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purpose of irrigation, drainage or navigation, or in aid thereof.

(c) The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, gravelled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof.

Provided, however, that under legislative enactment any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, which may be formed for the purpose of reclaiming and improving overflows and swamp lands in this State, and maintaining the improvements thereof, may, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory, in addition to all other debts, issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property in such district or territory.

Provided, further, that where a county, district or other political subdivision has issued bonds for improvements for the purposes named in this Section, the Legislature may authorize the levy and collection of taxes for the maintenance of such improvements, not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation in any one year.

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment of Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas, shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for its adoption or rejection, at a special election hereby ordered for the fourth Saturday in July, A. D. 1915, the same being the twenty-fourth day of said month. All voters on this proposed amendment at said election who favor its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following: "For amendment of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for levee, drainage, road and other improvements, and for taxes therefor." Those voting against its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following: "Against the amendment of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for levee, drainage, road and other improvements, and for taxes therefor."

Previous to the election the Secretary of State shall cause to be printed and forwarded to the county judges of each county, for use in said election, a sufficient number of ballots for the use of the voters in each county, on which he shall have printed the form of ballot herein prescribed, for the convenient use of voters.

The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of publishing said proclamation, and printing and distributing the necessary tickets and blanks for use in said election.

Summit Point, W. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work. I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 43 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."
