Billy Sunday's Best Epigrams

Appended are some of the best epigrams uttered by Billy Sunday, the remarkable evangelist. Mr. Sunday's sermons are a succession of epigrams, and that they are effective is attested by the thousands who are "hitting the trail."

In our standard of gold and silver, Abraham was worth $1,500,000,000, David was worth $3,000,000,000, and Solomon more than $5,000,000,000. Solomon could have had Carnegie for his chauffeur, Rockefeller to cut his lawn and Morgan for his butler.

Let the Bible come, and the novels will go out.

You will find a lot of things in Shakespeare which are not fit for reading in a mixed audience and call that literature. It makes all the difference whether Bill Shakespeare or Bill Sunday said it.

When you quit living like the devil I will quit preaching that way.

"WITHIN the LAW"

Mary Turner, a salesgirl in a New York department store, is unjustly convicted of theft, and is "sent away" for three years as an example to the other employees. She lays the responsibility for the crime at the door of the proprietor, who pays starvation wages. On the theory that law can be moulded to suit the convenience of the rich, she surrounds herself with a clever band of crooks—upon her release from jail—with the sole object of acquiring wealth for the purpose of revenge; and she succeeds because she keeps WITHIN THE LAW.

Prof. Dunn, teacher in the Spanish-American department of the University of Texas, has been granted a leave of absence for one year to visit the archives of Spain in quest of early history of Texas. Upon his return he will probably write a history of the State. The Library of Congress, Washington, will cooperate with Prof. Dunn.

C. B. Goodell, representing the Drovers National Bank, of Kansas City, was here this week in the interest of his bank. In conversation with this gentleman, we learned that he was as enthusiastic over the outlook of the Panhandle and South Plains country as if he were a native, and his bank is willing to place any amount of loans on our principal products, cattle. The Drovers National Bank is one of the pioneer banks to enter this part of the country, and have helped the stockman probably more than any large bank in the country, and it is not out of place to say they have the right man in the right place in Mr. Goodell.

So far as we know, no deaths or serious accidents to people."

Miss Mozelle Treadaway was notified this week that she had been elected as one of the teachers in the Plainview High School, at a nice salary. Miss Mozelle is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Treadaway, and was awarded a diploma from the Miles High School four years ago, standing second in her class. In 1912-13 she attended the San Marcus Normal, and the Canyon Normal the year following, obtaining a permanent first grade certificate to teach anywhere in Texas. She taught the primary grades in the Brownfield school the following term, and so far as we are aware gave good satisfaction. The Herald congratulates her on her new position.

To be Voted on Saturday,
July 24th, 1914

House Joint Resolution No. 1.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Section 2, of Article 6, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

SEC. 2. Every male person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this State one year next preceding an election, and the last six months within the district or county in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector, and every male person of foreign birth, subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have become a citizen of the United States in accordance with the Federal naturalization laws, and shall have resided in this State one year next preceding such election and the last six months in the county in which he offers to vote, shall also be deemed a qualified elector and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence provided, that electors living in any unorganized county may vote at any election precinct in the county to which such county is attached for judicial purposes; and providing further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before he offers to vote at any election in this State, and holds a receipt showing his poll tax paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or, if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. If any qualified voter in this State shall have personally paid his poll tax in the county and precinct of his residence, or secured an exemption certificate showing that he is exempt from paying a poll tax, he shall be permitted to vote in the county in which he may be on election day on any proposition which may have been submitted to the voters of the entire State, and for any office to be filled by the voters of the entire State; also, for members of either branch of the Legislature and Congress and judicial officials; provided, no voter shall vote for members of either branch of the Legislature, Congress, or judicial officials outside of the legislature, congressional or judicial district of such voter's residence, and nothing herein shall permit a voter to vote at any place other than his residence, if he be within the county of his residence on election day. Any person offering to vote in any county other than the county of his residence shall deliver to the election managers his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, who shall retain same until the following day, and then mail same to the person depositing same to any address he may name; and in addition to depositing the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, such person so offering to vote shall make an affidavit:

(1). That he is absent from home, and it will be impossible for him to return to the precinct of his residence in time to vote; (2) that he has not voted at any other election precinct on that day, and will not offer to vote at any other precinct in this State; (3) that he personally paid his poll tax within the time provided by law, or personally secured the certificate of his exemption from the payment of a poll tax.

Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the fourth Saturday in July, 1915, the same being the twenty-fourth day of July, 1915, and the Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and to have same published, as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. Sec. 4. No Legislation shall be necessary to put into effect this article of the Constitution, but when adopted same shall be self-executing.

Sec. 5. The sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of such proclamation, publication and election.

By mistake he took the swallow out of the liniment bottle. The effect was instantaneous and serious. Dr. Maddux was summoned immediately and he called Dr. Treadaway. After an evening and night of acute suffering he was much better and thought to be entirely out of danger Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wolfarth and Miss Nora were here Monday, with Reed. He trying the new car.
