Decoration Day

The best we could get at the matter by seeing the business men of the town, and the lodge members, Monday May 31st, has been decided on as the time to decorate the graves of our dead, as the 30th comes on Sunday, and we cannot carry our hoes and rakes over on that day, as lots of the graves need refilling, and shaping, and the high weeds and bear grass cut.

Another reason for the move, is that the public cemetery needs reploting and the graves remarked, as there are some graves in there, that the older settlers are in some dispute, as to just whose they are, so it is very important that all the old settlers be there to help in identifying these graves, so they can be marked with substantial markers.

The business men agree to close part of the day, and help in cleaning up and decorating, and it has been suggested that the country people can bring a lunch along and stay all day. Also bring along some flowers, and let's put them on every grave in the cemetery.

Will you come and devote part of one day in the year out of respect for the city of our dead

SUDAN SEED: Will sell you pure, cleaned seed at 10c per pound, that grew in a field far separated from all sorghum plants, and free of Johnson grass. See or write C. S. Cardwell Brownfield Texas.

The Play.

In our opinion, the play Tuesday night was fully up to the general average of those produced here, and was probably the best patronized of any we have ever had. We are unable at this writing to get the exact dope on the total proceeds, but we think it will run in the neighborhood of $70.00.

Considering the time devoted to the play, about eight rehearsals, the participants had their parts up very well, and were therefore able to relax enough to portray the character they were supposed to represent, however, a few more nights would have added a very material difference.

We understand that as usual, 60 percent will go to the Methodist church, and 40 percent to the school.

A Good Rain

Tuesday night about midnight, a cloud came up from the northwest, and in a few minutes a welcome rain was falling in torrents. This lasted until this editor was asleep, which wasn't long, as we had been to the show and we don't know how much longer, as the gentle patter of rain soon lulled us to sleep. The gauge showed just 1.60 inches.

Crops were not suffering, but there had been so many packing rains early this spring, that the top of the ground was hard, but just under the surface, there was plenty of moisture.

New Teachers

The Board of School Trustees have employed Prof. S. E. Draper of Paducah, Texas, together with his wife-to-be, to teach in our school this term, he as principal and she in one of the other rooms. His wife holds a first grade permanent state certificate, and he will after taking a special course in the University of Texas, this summer, as he liked about one month finishing his course at the East Texas Normal at Commerce, Texas. He has every appearance of a perfect moral gentleman, and with his five years of experience in the school room, together with his vim and progressive spirit, we shall hope for great things in our school this year. Miss Bertha Lowe has been re-employed for the fourth term and will teach the primary grades. The fourth teacher has not been decided on yet.

Miss Gladys Walters came in this week from Tahoka where she had been visiting her sister, and spent a few days visiting at the Stricklin home, before going back to her home in the country.

Harry Braidfoot has traded his splendid ranch in the southern part of this county, to Dr. Windham, of Tahoka, for ranch property in the Marfa country. This is one of the largest deals that has been pulled off in this county in a long time, involving thousands of dollars. Harry and family have been in Terry a long time, and are first class citizens in every respect, and Herald hates to give them up.

The whole world was shocked and outraged, when the news reached them of the sinking of the Lusitania, with two thousand men, women and children, by a German submarine, last week. The ship was out of New York, and was sunk near the Irish coast. While the Germans are rejoicing and celebrating the barbarous act, that sent more than 1200 human beings to their death, the balance of the world is nursing pent up wrath, and resolves of vengeance and a determination to destroy the culture and the race, if necessary, that advocates, and rejoices, in such dispicable, and barbarous methods of warfare. It has been said "the wages of sin is death." We hope to live to see it verified in the life of the nation that defies God Almighty and all humanity, excepting the unspeakable Turk. It is useless to argue with such people. Get a gun and join the Allies. Ship more and better ammunition and longer-ranged and more powerful guns, "seven days in the week." Quit "praying for peace one day in the week"—As long as there is one living human or inhuman being who justifies the sinking of the Lusitania.—Haskell Free Press.

West Pointers Taught Right Of Secession.

Hon. C. K. Lee, of Ft. Worth, in transmitting to W. J. Battle, President of the University, for the University Library a very rare book, published in 1829, and used as a text book in West Point when Robert E. Lee and other noted Southern generals were students in that institution says:

"I am sending you by express 'A View of the Constitution of the United States', by William Rawle of Philadelphia, edition of 1829.

"I procured this volume after several months' inquiry of law book houses all over the United States.

"I have had reprinted and fastened inside the cover of this volume a report of the Historical Committee of the United Confederate Veterans, made at the annual reunion May, 1914, concerning this treatise on the Constitution, and reviewing evidence and data absolutely establishing that this book was used as a text book by the United States government at West Point during the period when the major part of the prominent Confederate leaders attended that institution as wards of the government.

"The report further quotes from Rawle's work showing, as the quotations unquestionably do, that Rawle, himself a Philadelphia lawyer, raised in the city where the constitution was framed, taught unqualifiedly that the states had a right to withdraw from the Union.

"Every son of the South who honors the memory of his forebears should know these important facts.

"Yet I think that very few of them do, for out of the large number that I have talked to about this matter, young and old, I have found only two who did know them, and these two were men who attended the Confederate reunions quite regularly.

"The people of the south are not interested longer in the right of secession; they have long since accepted the logic of the result—that the United States is a nation and not a Confederation.

"They are interested, however, that their forefathers who fought and died in defense of the right of the states to secede, shall not go down in history as traitors or rebels.

"I hope this volume can be so placed in the University library that every young man or young woman fortunate enough to attend that institution may have his or her attention called to this report and this volume."

Friends of J. W. Gordon will be sorry to hear the sad news of his mother's death which occurred April 18th at the family home near Palmyra Missouri. Death was due to pneumonia.

Mrs. Gordon though past 90 years of age was until this past year more active than the majority of women who are many years younger, and continued to do her own house work until her last illness.

We take the liberty of extending the sympathy of all the Herald force to the bereaved family and close friends. Mr. Gordon was called to his mother's bedside about the first of April and was with her until the end. We understand he is expected back at the ranch any day.

P. J. Ross was at Harris Saturday for the first time in three or four months. We think he has surely been very busy.

Mrs. J. W. Spear spent several days of this past week with her daughter Mrs. Add Cox, near J. Cross.

Mr. Cook who owns section 16 block D 14, was out in a car Friday with a prospector to see his land. Mr. Cook sold the bonus house that is on his land to W. H. Harris since it was going to ruin there.

Mariin Ellington and wife moved to the Estes place last Friday. We are sorry to lose them from our own neighborhood, but glad they have not moved further away.

Frank Davis returned home a few days ago. We understand his eye is improving rapidly but we are sorry to hear that an operation will probably be necessary before his sight is restored.

The young folks enjoyed a party at F. M. Ellington's Saturday night. They report a very pleasant evening though the crowd was small.

Roy Harris bought two work horses lately one each from Jack Mahoney and W. J. Satterwhite.

Miss Eula Alexander spent Saturday night with the Misses Harris, and Miss Ethel Harris went home with her Sunday for a visit.

A school election was held at Harris school house Saturday which resulted in a vote of five for a special school tax of twenty five cents and none against it.

The U— boys are branding their calves at Brit Clare's today, Monday.

Editor, I forgot to mention in my last week's letter that you should have printed "delayed" instead of "later". Don't think for a moment that there is

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

At all druggists.
