A WORD TO THE WISE.

There is no use in talking to the other kind, for this is just a friendly talk. Next time you sit down to order anything ponder the following questions: Who is the better friend of mine, the Mail Order House, or my home Merchant? Which would I go to if in a tight? Which would stand by me in misfortune? Which wants my money before I get what I want, and which takes my face, note or cash after I see and get the goods? Which of them builds up my county, churches and schools to educate my children? Which would come to the rescue of my widow and orphans should I pass away? Which one would advise and work to my interest? Then which should I trade with? Let us be square and fair with each other like good friends and neighbors should

Kaffir And Maize Calls Meeting

To all parties concerned in the Kaffir Corn and Maize Advertising and Educational Campaign recently originated by different commercial organizations in the Panhandle and South Plains country:

We desire to say that having been appointed as a committee on organization at a meeting held in Amarillo on May 13th, with instructions to formulate plans for a general organization and set a time for a meeting for this purpose, we have determined on Wednesday, July 28th, at 2 p. m. as the date on which this general meeting is to be held, and have decided by reason of central location and railroad facilities that Amarillo is the logical place to hold this meeting.

We therefore respectfully call this meeting to be convened at Amarillo on July 28th, and ask that every county in the kaffir and maize growing district be sure to send a strong delegation, and especially request all commercial organizations to see to it that their localities are fully represented. We also request that the grain dealers, bankers, hardware dealers, and all other merchants also be represented and do their best to interest the farmers in their respective localities in the importance of this meeting. There can be no doubt of the importance of this movement and believe that all farmers' organizations should take this matter up and have representatives at the meeting. It is the object of this movement to put on a general educational advertising campaign in order to bring to the attention of consumers in other parts of the country the value of these grains and it is absolutely necessary that every one who is interested in the prosperity of the Panhandle and plains country be on hand and help to push the movement, and we therefore request your presence at this meeting.

Respectfully,
A. W. Read, Chairman,
Geo. W. Briggs,
D. L. McDonald,
R. S. Coon,
Hamlin Palmer, Committee.

The above call speaks for itself. The following facts are given to show why this movement should be pushed:

Texas imports over forty million dollars worth of feed every year. Much of this is corn.

The Panhandle and South Plains country raises many millions of the kaffir grains annually.

While the feeding value of these grains is nearly equal to corn, yet the market price is approximately one-half that of corn.

Feeders who have made thorough tests, state they prefer the kaffirs for all kinds of stock.

Why then this difference in price and why is the market limited.

Because the feeding value of these grains is not generally known over a considerable part of Texas and other states.

Therefore, after some deliberation, the above committee have

Railroad Prospects

H. Snow, representing the Hill Engineering Co., of St. Louis, and driven in a Bradley Service car, of Lubbock, spent Tuesday afternoon and night here, making inquiries about this county and looking over the route from here to Bronco, thence south to Knowles, N. M., thence back to Seminole, Texas, with prospects of building a railroad over the route, providing he finds the situation justifies.

To the Herald man, Mr. Snow said this country looked good to him, and was agreeably surprised to find such crops growing, such choice fruit, together with fine herds of cattle.

He further informed us that a big brokerage firm in New York had made inquiries about this country to his company, and they had sent him out to make a full report of the situation. Mr. Snow said that while he could not say that money matters are easy, it is no hard matter to get money on a good proposition and at a reasonable rate of interest.

Judging his conversation to ourself and others, his report will be favorable.

HIGH grade box stationery at Forkel's Drug Store, Plains.

decided to make an effort to get together a body of representative men to formulate plans to advertise these grains, for the purpose of enlarging the market and placing the kaffirs where they belong before the world. Every community in West Texas should be represented.

Reunion Dinner

The editor and family and Geo. E. Tiernan and family took dinner Sunday with Jno. C. Scudday and their assembled generations. All the single children except Roy, were at home, and consisted of Fred of Sweetwater, Arthur and Earl, who are still at home. The married, and all present, were, Mrs. Pearl Lane and children of Clovis, N. M.; Mrs. Nora Smith and children, of Alpine, Texas; Mrs. Allie Graham and children, of Sweetwater, Texas; A. J. Eastham, wife and children; John Scudday Jr. wife and children, all of Lou, and Walter Scudday and wife of west Terry.

As to the dinner, it consisted of two much to mention all, but there was immense platters of roast mutton, baked turkey, salads, pie, cake, ambrosia and iced tea, and we want to say right here that we counted two at that heavily burdened table, and we have found home chuck mighty hard this week.

Next the dinner, about the most interesting part of the gathering was the grand children, as it consisted of about twenty healthy, and good looking youngsters ranging from about thirteen years down to crawling babies, a bunch any grand parents might well be proud of. There is no race suicide in the Scudday family.

After resting about an hour after dinner (the 12 M. kind), we took several snap shots of this interesting family, and spent the rest of the afternoon in delightful conversation with those very entertaining ladies.

Confederates Meet.

In pursuance to a call, the Stonewall Jackson Camp, U. C. V. No. 1798, met at the court house last Saturday afternoon, July 10th, Capt. Wm. Howard presiding. After being called to order, a motion prevailed to accept the invitation of the Woodmen of the World and meet with them in their annual picnic, Friday, Aug. 6th, for their annual reunion. The motion carried.

Comrades J. R. Coble and B. McPherson were appointed by the chair as a committee on program and arrangement, to confer with a like committee of Woodmen, so that programs of each would not conflict.

The meeting was adjourned. A. J. Stricklin Act. Secretary.

Appraising School Land

A party consisting of Land Commissioner J. T. Robison, H. C. Hull of San Marcus, and J. O. Copeland of Rusk, were here Monday, appraising the forfeited school land. They were being piloted over the county by Mr. Denham of Gaines county.

These gentlemen expressed themselves as being pleased with the outlook in Terry county, and said they believed our county would come to the front if we had a railroad to more easily market our products. They report 13 tracts forfeited.

This editor likes to be accommodating and all like that, but dislikes greatly to be the last fellow in the county to quit walking. But some one has got to dodge Fords to amuse the riding public.

We are going to keep insisting till some of our orchardist put in a good cider mill. Real old apple cider is a splendid drink, and hurts no one, but the kind that is brought on from gracious knows where, and parades under the coption of pure apple cider, isn't generally equal to slop. Make some good old apple cider and sell it to our cold drink men, and what they can't use, sell to the merchants as pure apple vinegar.

The Times, published at Canal Winchester, Ohio, recently copied our article about the large T. E. Hobbs peach tree, and asked if any of the Ohio orchardist could beat it. Possibly so Bro. Gaymon, but remember that your country has been settled far three-quarters of a century or longer, while Terry's oldest orchard isn't much beyond ten years of age. While comparing, please take the age of trees into consideration, and we will go you the National drink, (grape juice).

We picked up a paper from our old home town in Tennessee, this week, and about the first editorial was a lecture to the city officials to get the vagrant negroes to work, and said there was something like twenty-five on the streets, ranging in age from fifteen to twenty-five years without any apparent means of sustenance. Well, this is one pest the Terry county folks don't have to fool with, and we hope never will be. Sweaty white folks are hard customers, when they have nothing to live on, but a pack of negroes with their fiddles and banjos, are the limit. Come to Terry.

House Joint Resolution No. 1., proposing to let qualified voters of the State cast a ballot for the State Candidates or State propositions, wherever they may be on election day, is catching hard opposition from eastern and southern portions of the State where negroes and Mexicans hold the balance of power. We believe the amendment would be a good thing for bona fide railroad and traveling men, but the argument against the amendment is quite convincing from an easterner's standpoint, as it will be possible as the resolution stands, for repeaters and politicians to herd Mexicans, hoboes and negroes in the larger cities, who have poll tax receipts, and can also be used by the saloon element to advantage in local option elections, by quartering them in the district as citizens, prior to elections. Thus the purity of the Terrell election law becomes adulterated. As it reads, it leaves many loop holes for fraud, and might best be killed, although proposing a way for thousands of honest but disfranchised citizens to use their power of suffering.

The old soldiers want all the old boys who wore the grey, in the adjoining counties to be present at their annual reunion on August 6th, and they respectfully ask people of the other counties, owning autos, to insist on bringing the old Confeds of their communities. There is only a few of the old boys at best in this thinly settled country, and they want as many present as possible.

Portions of this county that did not get much rain week before last, is beginning to need rain now, and the indications are good, but we are not forecasting.

The grist mill is now in good running order, so bring in your corn.

The Brownfield merchants are selling sugar faster than they can get it these days.

The largest crowd that has visited Brownfield in some time, was here both Saturday and Monday. It looked like first Monday back east.

Leslie Green, who is working for the Mallees, came in last week for the first trip home since last October. By economy, he has accumulated enough money to invest in some cattle of his own, and is now figuring on a small herd of heifers. A like opportunity awaits every boy in the county, if they had the energy to get out and get under.

Tom Yates was in this week from his ranch is East Yoakum, after supplies.

Mrs. R. M. Kendrick of Plains is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Scudday, Jr., of the southern portion of this county.

We had our first interview with Joe Lane this week, since his return from the Panama Pacific Exhibition. He says it sure is a good place for an old country boy to have a good time, and intimated that he laughed so loud, accompanied with a hearty slap on his knees, that he attracted quite a little attention to himself, of which he felt very proud.

Dee Brownfield is getting ready to move to the White Mountains in New Mexico, to make their future home. He and wife are among the very first settlers in old Terry, though just a boy and girl at that time, and have since then married and become a part of our development and advancement, and we certainly do hate to give them up, but hope them a full measure of success in their new home.

The Meadow-Lakeview ball team came in Saturday, and what they did for Brownfield was a plenty, taking the game 15 to 3.

A Mrs. Bartlet of Terry county, near the Burnett ranch, was in Tahoka Tuesday for medical attention. About three weeks ago while milking, the cow kicked her over and broke her left arm just above the elbow. Rev. John Lane and wife came in this week from Cisco, Texas, to pay their son, Joe Lane a visit. Rev. Lane was once a citizen of this county and his visits are always a source of delight to the old timers. Little Miss Mary Mashburn, who has been visiting her grandparents down there, returned home with them.

There was some tall stirring around at the home of the editor, Monday night of this week, when Jack Jr., drank a small quantity of denatured alcohol, that is used to generate the lamp, and had been left in his reach. Dr. Treadaway was hastily called in, and with the aid of a dose of epinephrine and a feather, he was soon alright and asleep.

Tiernan & Scudday began branding their steers Wednesday.

Wiley Bridges went out to the Gaines Turkey ranch this week, and says he never saw the like of tame turkeys in all his life at one time and one farm house. Mr.

Gaines lives on the Sawyer Ranch, six miles south of town, and Mrs. Gaines informed him that there was between 800 and 1000 young turkeys, ranging from the size of his thumb to a grown chicken. Furthermore, Wiley says there are no grass hoppers bothering crops and gardens around there, and there is no doubt in his mind but Mr. Gaines will make a good piece of money this fall, if nothing unforeseen happens.

Grandpa Lewis spent a few days this week out at the Noah Bell's ranch.

Lee Walker, Jay McPhaul and wife, were in town Wednesday, in the latter's car.

Messrs. Link and Cobb of Milan County, came in on the mail hack Saturday and will visit their old friend, Dave McLane.

P. J. Ross and Dave DeVitt visited at Brit Clare's last Saturday. David says he is working for wages at the Mallets now and though only 13 years old he has got to work as hard as any other boy if he holds his job. He feels sure it does not make any difference to the manager if it is his father's ranch he is working on. We admire that principle.

Mr. Baker and Misses Pearl and Loreen Cotton were at Harris last Sunday, also a number of others among whom were Misses Emma Spear, Lacey Poyner and Nettie Benton.

We understand that Bro. Hughes will begin a protracted meeting here the fourth Sunday in this month. We hope every one will feel that it is their meeting and assist in making it a success. It is never necessary to wait until the meeting begins to work for it but begin now.

Mr. Editor, bring your family out for at least one Sunday of our meeting and take dinner with the crowd. There is always dinner on the ground. We will all be glad to have any come who can. (Thank you.—Ed.)

Our Land Commissioner and three other men were through here Sunday morning in a car. We understand their business was to appraise some of this land.

Monday looked like district court day in Brownfield, as people from all over the county came in with rabbit and wolf scalps. Nearly 7000 were paid for, not excepting the two the editor had but did not bring in.

Miss Cuma Nix is visiting friends in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wren, accompanied by Mrs. Wren's sister, Miss Jewel Huckabee, came in last week for a few days' visit to their grandparents, R. R. Lewis and wife, and their sister, Mrs. E. N. Eicke. They live at Snyder, Texas.

Sheriff J. N. Lewis left this week for Waco, to attend the Sheriff's Convention.

Lynn Adams, of Ranger Lake, N. Mex., was here this week visiting relatives.

CHISHOLM—ALDERSON.

Married on July 4th, Mr. Edward Chisholm and Miss Viola Alderson, both residents of Southwest Terry. Ed, as he is familiarly known, has lived here from his childhood and is an industrious, intelligent and strictly honorable young man and has a wide circle of friends. Miss Viola is the youngest child of Mr. Alderson, one of Terry county's progressive farmers. She is a young lady who numbers her friends by her acquaintances and as she has had several years experience in housekeeping and home making, their future will lack nothing that woman's efforts can contribute to an ideal home.

Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

This week.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church is in progress here this week. We have not been able to attend, but are informed that they are having very interesting services.

Clyde Harris and family are spending this week here at Mr. E. E. Simms and attending the meeting.

Merlin Adams was in town Tuesday and started his wagons to New Mexico to build tanks on his claim out there.

George Cleveland of West Yoakum county, went to Tahoka in his auto last week and stopped at the hotel here as he was enroute home. Ben Hurst and wife came from their home in East Lynn county, with him and stopped over here for a visit. They also went on to Plains and left here Sunday enroute home.

Mr. R. A. Watson and wife, of Plainview, left Tuesday morning for home, after a visit of over two weeks with relatives here.

Mr. Teddy Poore, a former Gomez boy, but for the past four years a member of Uncle Sam's Navy, came in from Seattle, Washington, on last Sunday to Brownfield, and came on here Monday. He has belonged to the Pacific Squadron and has been in the Orient part of the time. He says Terry county looks good to him and that he has not found any place that he thinks more desirable to live in. Some of the rest of us think that way too. His many friends here gladly welcome him home. He is visiting out at Mr. Yates at this time.

Mrs. Alvin Key and Miss Lucy Yates were in Tuesday. Mrs. Key's baby was sick and she brought it in to get medicine for it.

Miss Vincent from Cleburne, in Johnson county, is here getting up a class in Home Economy (or something like that). It is teaching the cook and housekeeper the value of different foods in supporting human life. We hope she will succeed for proper methods of cooking and a knowledge of the percent of nutriment in what is cooked, goes far toward making living cheaper as well as better.

Bert Ingram has gone to Tahoka for freight.

FOR YOUR NEXT LUMBER

There is not a better or higher grade stock on the Plains, yet the price is no higher than for inferior grades others handle. Besides lumber, we have the best in paints, oils, cement, lime, post, wire and windmills. Just give us a chance at your bill.

COAL & FEED

I have one of the best stocks of feed and coal to be found, and invite you to get my prices before you buy. I advise you to buy early, as the price of coal and feed will likely soar this winter.

G. W. SNIDER

TAHOKA, TEXAS

Mr. McCoy and family are stopping here in town row. They are from Llano county and are home seeking.

Bert Shepherd and Houston have gone to the railroad for lumber to build a nice residence. They have everything else out there that goes to make a model home, and when the residence is complete they will be as near "the honey pond and flitter tree" as mortals need to be.

Rev. Lofton preached a good sermon last Sunday afternoon, and after service baptized Mrs. Noble Bridges and Mrs. Joe Black into membership of the Christian Church here.

Mrs. H. L. Ware of Yoakum county, went to Brownfield Monday in Rev. M. D. Williams' car, to have some dental work done.

Mesdames Fulton and Nichols were in trading Monday.

Commissioners Court

The Court met Monday in its monthly session, with all members present, and Judge Neill presiding.

The public road from Gomez to Seminole, and known as the Brownfield-Seminole road, the Brownfield-Lamesa and Brownfield Lubbock roads, were ordered opened up and the overseers instructed to clear and work them.

Tax rate levied at 40c on the $100 valuation, 35c for general fund, and 5c for roads. Taxes will be 5c higher for the county this year on account of the scalp law, half of which the counties are required to pay.

Scalp counted and paid for amounted to 4382 jack rabbits and 75 coyotes, and totaled $369.10. George Howard had the largest amount, 252 jack scalps, while Charley Hamilton came next with 232. Jack rabbit bounty is 5c each and wolf scalps bring $2.00 each.

The young people enjoyed a party in the park Monday night, chaperoned by Mrs. Hall.
