

Terry County Herald

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY JULY 25, 1919

NO. 2

Preparations are Now About Complete For the Big Picnic

This will be the last issue of the Herald in which we will say anything about the barbecue and picnic here on August 1st and 2nd, and we do not want you to think because we have not put box car head lines in the Herald, or sent out circulars in the tri-colors, and as big as a wagon sheet, that this barbecue in honor of our returned heroes is going to be a small potato, for it is not. It is going to be the talk of the Plains country for many a day after it is over, and even those from the sticks of the oil belt will have something to tell the other monied devils down there other than the fine crops they saw growing in old Terry.

As stated in these headlines, every thing is now about in readiness, and even the barbecue men, who are experts, have been engaged, and twenty loads of good, dry fire wood is being put on the grounds.

Don't say I may go to the Brownfield Picnic and Barbecue, but say I AM GOING and bring the rest along with you, for we are going to have one big time on that occasion.

Baldwin Will Likely Offer For Representative

Rumor has it that R. A. Baldwin, of Slaton will become a candidate for Representative from the 122nd Representative district to succeed W. H. Bledsoe, at a special election that will be called for a future date to elect a representative for this district. Mr. Baldwin will make a splendid representative, if elected and he is a south plains young lawyer of ability.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Married.

This was another case of a sweet American maiden waiting for her lover to wipe up on the huns and return for her, and he like most of the boys from the great States, proved true blue to his promises. Some six or seven days ago, Mr. E. E. Hughes of Ballinger, Texas arrived on the south bound train, and there was a girl there waiting—she was Miss Alta Mae Burns, who has been cooking at the Hill Hotel for some ten or twelve months, and has won the hearts of all the people of the town who knew her.

Last Sunday afternoon at 3:30, Judge W. W. Price said the words that made them as one, and they immediately drove out in the Groves Chapel community, where the bride has for some time made her home, and at the hospitable residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bond, they found a large crowd and plenty of delicious refreshments in the way of cream, cake and fruit awaiting them.

They will leave in the near future for Oklahoma, where they will make their home, carrying with them the good wishes of the people of this place.

Gaines County Home Burns

The home of Jno. B. King, about eight miles southwest of Seminole together with all contents, were burned Tuesday morning about ten o'clock.

The fire was caused by an oil stove which exploded and scattered instantly to other portions of the building, making it impossible to save anything.

Mr. King was in the field plowing, while the other members of the family were out in the yard preparing fruit for canning. We understand he contemplates building again.—Seminole Sentinel.

Miss Merriwether Honored.

Mrs. T. R. Prideaux charmingly entertained for Miss Henie Merriwether at her home on Monday afternoon of last week at from 4 to seven p. m.

The guests were the friends and patrons of Miss Merriwether, who thoroughly love her for her kindly attentions to the little ones in her department at school. For four years she has been the most lovable of teachers and friends.

The guests having been received, and comfortably arranged in the pretty little parlors, Mrs. Prideaux entered and presented Miss Merriwether with an immense arm full of gifts, each remembrance being accompanied by a verse or words of love and appreciation for her sweet influence and life among us. It is with deep regrets that the community suffers from having to look forward to anyone trying to fill her place. There were heartfelt toasts given by those who knew her best; Mrs. Bell who gave "Miss Merriwether, our loved teacher," Mrs. Randal "the Maids and Matrons friend," Mrs. Dallas, "Faithful Ladies Aid and Church member." No one could possibly have been a sweeter, truer friend to all alike from the finest to the aged than Miss Hennie. Her influence as a beautiful christian will live always in this community, for she has proven herself to be the admired of all who knew her. Her pupils love her with a sincerity of sweet childhood and if they make the men and women of influence and worth, undoubtedly they will give praise and credit to whom it belongs—to Miss Hennie. Many were the sweet words of appreciation and love from many of the guests, and we regret her departure to other fields, but trust she may be returned to us when our schools are more modern and better equipped. Mrs. Prideaux assisted by Miss Mary Lou

May Settle in Old Terry

After thanking the editor for a slight favor we were able to do for him, a subscriber expresses himself as follows:

I want to congratulate you on the Herald. If Terry county has made as much progress as her paper, she is getting to be a hummer.

I am threatening to emigrate that way. I note the spirit of the people in regards to your schols and roads, which I think to be highly commended. It will be a pleasure to me to pay any special taxes that may be voted for such purposes. If I move at all, I would want to move to a community like this. Thanking you again for your kindness, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Changing the Bible.

Some fellow got up in a supposedly religious meeting in Dallas and advocated rewriting the bible, making the statement that the bible was not written by inspired minds, but merely ignorant men, who expressed their individual opinions of matters contained therein. He evidently overlooks the fact that our national, state, county and precinct laws are written by "smart men" and they are usually found to be full of flaws, and bring on more trouble than the laws of Moses and others as layed down in Holy Writ. It is our humble opinion that the less we tamper with changing the wording of the bible, and the closer we try to live up to the teachings the better off we will be found when the final reckoning takes place. The peculiar part of the thing is, the statement was made in the presence of able ministers of the gospel, and not a word of resentment was offered, according to the papers.—Lubbock Avalanche.

This world is becoming so modern and sensational that any sensational or radical statement seems to be taken without a grain of salt, and the more sensational or radical the speaker the more the attention that seems to be given them. But for our part, we believe such parties are either trying to break into print, or are more or less crack brained, and we admit that we generally favor the later view. But speaking of the Bible—we always favor the capital—and religion in particular, we heard a preacher bring out a good point on that subject not long ago. He remarked that some people were always ready to disparage churches and church members, yet he asked, "which of the two classes generally makes you the best and the most substantial citizens, and which are most apt to leave you with the bag to hold between suns, the church member, or the other fellow. Yet there is always some one that is ready to put his morality against the religion of Jesus Christ, instead of trying to strengthen his own chance by a comparison of himself to Christ, in of a standard with the sorriest church member in town.

Miss Dallas Honored Again

A most unique kitchen shower was given Miss Dallas on Tuesday afternoon, at the lovey little home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Halley. The greatest enjoyment came when the bride-to-be was ushered into the room, where the guests were gathered, to see the guessing blindfolded bride. She found herself in a spider web of network with ribbons which led her to useful articles in cooking utensils. A great deal of merriment was enjoyed during the evening. Mrs. Halley assisted by Miss Mary Hudson and little Miss Dorothy served delicious cones. Miss Dallas was given advice in the art of cooking by the ladies, and surely she will make a dainty and efficient house wife in days to come.

Jones-Raley.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Wednesday at high noon when Miss Ruby Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jones of this city and Mr. J. A. Raley, Jr., of Wichita Falls, were united in marriage, Rev. J. E. Chase performing the ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet one only the members of the family and a few intimate friends being present. The bride was charming in a going away suit of blue with accessories to match.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a visit in Ft. Worth after which they will be at home in Wichita Falls. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany these estimable young people and wish for them every joy in their new relation. —Lubbock Avalanche.

Old Daddy Eperon, of the Pride community, was here this week on business. He informed us that he and his wife would make 1000 bushels of corn and 50 tons of maize this year, and he is nearly eighty, and—well, we never say anything about a ladies' age.

SOLID CAR FORDS COMING

We have at last succeed in getting a solid car load of Ford Cars direct to Brownfield and are looking forward to their arrival most any day. In the meantime, it would be a good idea for you to come in and make arrangements for yours before they are all spoke for as they are going to go like hot cakes at a negro cake walk. You can come in and make proper arrangements and we will hold a car for you. And don't forget that we carry the best line of tires that you can buy at any place, and that we are ready and anxious to serve you in this line with a set or part of a set; and while we are on the subject no harm will be done if we tell you that our repair department is complete in every detail

We wish to notify the people of the Brownfield and trade territory that we have just received a fine car load of oats. They are now in our warehouse and ready for you to call for them. As we have been out of oats for some time, we thought it best to take this method of notifying you. As fast as we possibly can, we aim to "line up" a good stock of all kinds of feed and keep a good stock, and as stated last week in our ad, we have come to Brownfield to treat the people and to give them a dollar's worth of feed for every dollar invested. Call on us when in need of feed or fuel.

The Old Oaken Bucket

The day is approaching when booze will be banished, the lights will go out in the gilden saloon; the bartenders all from there will have been vanished along with the jugs and the brazen spittoons. Alas for the soak and the bum and the drifter! The tail of their anguish no poet can tell; they'll hit when they long for a four-fingered sniffer, the old oaken bucket which hangs in the well. The old oaken bucket has been a back number, it slept with the has-beens for long weary years, but now it comes back from its cob-webby slumber, consoling the boys in the absence of beers. Doom faces old Booze, he can't dodge or duck it, the sexton's preparing to ring out his knell, and so we get back to the trusty old bucket, the moss covered bucket that hangs in the well.
