BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY JANUARY 23, 1920

NO. 27

WANTS TO LOCATE HIS SEVERAL FAMILIES.

A local real estate firm received the following inquiry last week.

"Gentleman: I see your ad in the news about Terry and Yoakum counties.

First: Are those counties settled up, and about how many in population?

Second: About how many bushels of corn will grow to the acre?

3rd: Do people grow cotton there?

4th: What is the farmers principal money crop?

5th: Are there any game such as deer, and fur bearing animals, skunks minx, raccoons, opossums, wolves, panther, wild turkeys?

6th: Have you a stock law there.

7th: Are there any rivers in those counties, with plenty of fish in them?

8th: Is your country hilly or rocky?

9th: Are you bothered with cold there?

I have asked several questions and if you answer them favorable and true, I will move there and bring three or four families with me.

I will give you good references as to my self; you can write any of them and get reply by enclosing a self addressed stamp envelope. (Here follows several names of merchants two banks and a doctor.)

So give this letter your quick action, and write to some of these parties. I want you to give me three or four farmers names.

So hoping to have an early reply. I am a farmer and might move at once somewhere.

(Name and address omitted for the man might come.)

The Reply

Dear Sir:

Your favor to hand and we are glad to note your interest this way. We will try to answer your questions:

1st: Account of the bumper crop, nearly every one here has settled up and has some ahead. Terry county has 4000 and Yoakum county 20,000 both rapidly increasing.

2nd: About 200 bushels of corn grow to the acre, tho our average yield is some less.

3rd: Most of the children start with it, but for some reason it grows darker as they get older.

4th: Corn and prospectors.

5th: Yes there are a good many dears here, some of them are not so very wild; a few skunks but they will leave when the—business plays out no coons(all white people) a few coyotes, no panthers this side of Ft Worth. The turkeys all gentle and fat.

6th: Only the law of nature.

7th: No rivers here at all, tho a good many fish are coming in now. Several streams (rather small.)

8th: We have no hills or mountains. We have as much post oak timber as your country, tho it isnt near as large.

9th: Yes, the writer had a severe cold all last week, but better now.

We need more people at night, but as it is customary for a man in this country to have only one family, we doubt if our society will stand for it. You didn't state just how many families you had.

For an easy place to live we refer you to the following old citizens here.

A GOOR LECTURE.

One of the best lectures we have ever heard was delivered by Dr. W. N. Lemmon, of Dallas, at the Church of Christ last Thursday night. He has just returned from a ten year journey to the Philippine Islands, as a missionary, yet his services were devoted mostly as a surgeon in the Christian church hospital at Manilla. His subject was the manner and customs of the Natives, of those islands. He handled his subject well.

Not only did he hold the adults in the audience spell bound, but many peels of laughter from the youngsters in the front rows told clearly that the juvenile population was also entertained, especially in the doctor's description of the bill o' fare of the islanders.

By th way, we understand that the doctor and his son, Dr. J. R. are talking seriously of putting up a sanitarium in Brownfield.

BROWNFIELD TEACHERS GET INCREASED SALARIES

About the proudest bunch of teachers in Texas, are teaching the young "ideas" of Brownfield how to shoot.

And it all came about when the trustees announced that they were to have a $25.00 raise in salary per month.

This means that the least pay will be $90.00 per month, and it will help them considerably with the H. C. of L. difficulties, every body is now up against.

Most everybody had got an increase in wages but the teachers, and they were expected to live and dress well on the old pre-war wages.

God bless the teachers; they are the people who we must most depend on to keep our children from seeing "red" in the future. They are all patriotic, and they teach and instill patriotism in the children under their care.

Lest you forget pay your poll tax.

WHERE IS HE NOW?

To use the language of Luke Mc-Luke, "What has become of the old fashioned pessimist who said that it would take ten years for West Texas to come back?" He must have taken a trip to the tall and uncut, to answer the question ourselves.

Why man, West Texas is fairly bursting with money and the bankers are having a job counting the "dough" in their vaults. We are reminded of one bank in a small village not 75 miles from here, where the bank inspectors made them close their doors for several days until the overworked employees finally found they had about $600,000.00 on deposit.

This condition obtains almost all over this part of the State. For instance on Dec. 31 st, Lubbock banks had on deposit over 2 million dollars, Brownfield nearly 600 thousand, Rails over 800 thousand Slaton over 800 thousand and Lamesa a little more than one million dollars.

W. B. STINSON

We take pleasure in presenting the name of the above citizen and gentleman to the voters of Terry county, as a candidate for the nomination to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July.

Mr. Stinson has been in Terry county almost long enough to be classed as an old timer, and his record as a citizen and a man of good business ability is open to inspection both here and where he came from.

Mr. Stinson is well qualified for the office he seeks, and we ask that you give his candidacy due consideration.

GRANDMA ELDER DEAD

Rev. J. E. Anderson, Baptist pastor of this city, was called to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Bettie Elder at Seagraves, Tuesday afternoon at 3 P. M.

Grandma Elder was born in Georgia July 23, 1841, and at her death was 79 years old. She was converted and joined the Baptist church at the age of 14.

Grandma Elder and her family are old settlers in this section of the country.

There was a large crowd present at the funeral services. The good people of Seagraves showed their sympathy in every way to the bereaved family.

MRS. JNO. RAYMER

We take pleasure in announcing to the voters of Terry county, that Mrs. John Raymer is in the race for County Treasurer, subject to the Democratic primaries in July.

Mrs. Raymer is the widow of the late John Raymer of this county, and like her husband, was one of the pioneer girls of this part of the country, spending most of her girlhood days in the ranch homes about here. She is well and favorably known in this and a half dozen adjoining counties, and there is no question but that she is well qualified for the office she seeks.

She was left with a little four year old girl baby to support, and it devolves upon her to do that to the best of her ability. Therefore we ask that you investigate the merits of her candidacy.

The Successful Farmer Raises Bigger Crops

and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmers' crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads—the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads—like the farms—increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion, which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

National wealth can increase only as our railroads grow.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

EASY TO RAISE BANDIT ARMY

Manuel Lozado Made Hunger His Chief Recruiting Sergeant and Thereby Rose to Power.

Manuel Lozado, the Mexican bandit, whose remains now lie in the cemetery near Tepic, in the newly made state of Nayarit, gave the key to the whole Mexican problem by his strategy in organizing armies, declares Charles Johnston, in The Atlantic. Lozado was notable because he waged war against three presidents, Benito Juarez, Lerdo de Tejada and Porfirio Diaz, and because he raised and equipped armies of peons strong enough to attack great cities like Tepic and Guadalajara, in a struggle lasting from 1870 to 1877.

It was Lozado's custom, when a new campaign against the central authorities was in contemplation, to send his bodyguard down from their lairs in the high Sierras to the fertile plains, with orders to cut down all banana plants, thus destroying the chief food supply of the native villages.

The peons starved for a while, and watched their women and children starve, then they came up the mountains in a body and begged Lozado to enroll them in his army of bandits to lead them forth to plunder, which for them meant simply food.

This gives a clue to the situation, declares Mr. Johnston, because it shows that banditry and plunder are the last resources of hungry peons, pressed beyond the verge when their meager sustenance is cut off.

MARKS RICHELIEU'S TRIUMPH

Why Eleventh Day of November Is Known in French History as the "Day of Dupes."

Few people know that the whimsical title, "The Day of Dupes" has been given to the 11th of November, 1630, and that it was so named on the occasion of the triumph of Cardinal Richelieu over his enemies, who imagined they had cast him to the ground, never to rise again.

Marie de Medici had prevailed upon her weakling son, Louis XIII, to dismiss him from office as prime minister, and this scheming woman had no difficulty in persuading the fickle and weak-minded king to carry out her wishes, and, furthermore, to raise to that dignity Richelieu's mortal enemy, the Marshal De Merillac.

Richelieu was prevailed upon by his friends to make one last effort to prevent the ruin which seemed ready to fall on him. With this view he proceeded to Versailles, then only a small hunting lodge recently purchased by Louis, where he had an interview with his sovereign.

The result was that the king again surrendered himself into the cardinal's hands, and Richelieu succeeded in binding the chains on Louis more firmly than ever, establishing himself with a sway which was absolute. He did not fail to take vengeance on his enemies, and among others the Marshal De Merillac was brought to the scaffold.

Football Language in Britain.

However the ordinary journalist may have to curb his pen, the descriptive reporter of football can still give rein to his fancy and his rhetoric with little fear of the sub-editorial blue pencil.

To him a match is usually a "tourney," and the ball lends itself to such varied description as "the leather," "the oval," "the globe," or even the "bounding sphere." If the players hail from Sheffield they are "knifegrinders;" from Northampton, "cobblers;" from Luton, "strawhatters;" from Reading, "biscuiters;" from Devonshire, "cider drinkers," and from West Ham, "hammers."

The swift runner is "twinklefooted," or has "brilliant hoofs." If a player is skillful in head play, he "uses the cranium with brilliant effect," or does "good brain-box work." If the ball hits a man on the nose, he "receives a smacker from the spheroid on his proboscis."

WHY LIVE IN THE CITY?

Modern commentators have been prone to hang a "nut" sign on Diogenes, the Greek cynic. Let us fly to his assistance. He lived in a tub—and laughed at the landlord! And you will agree that there is no laughing matter.

Building costs have increased 70 percent since the war started. In the cities every dog-hole has its squatter, every kiosk of cracks and plaster its shivering Turk, every hutch its rabbit-faced pseudo-American, every aerie its vulture of the street. Dwelling house, apartment, tenement, and hotel—all are Scripture full and running over with a human measure worried and harried by exigencies of life. How much longer will these misguided pawns of squalor continue to be pawns? Dross for the melting pot of the metropolis?

The great, clean, safe country with its vigor of atmosphere, naturalness of life, community of interest, beckons them, invites them, promises them health and a just sum of happiness where trees grow unchoked by gases and flowers bloom untaunted from smoke.

Not only the song calls them but the whistle of the modern small town factory. There is work for all and a chance to live.

Why stay in the maelstrom of dog-holes, merely existing in the rat-infested tenement? Why look longingly at $1.15 eggs and eat horse meat? Why drool for fresh country butter and cloz the intestine with ground bone and suet? Why live in a figurative boiler factory next door to a normal slaughter house. Why not quit raising pallid faced brats of iniquity predestined to feel the iron heel of penury and want, the dull pain of a fetid existence, move to God's country and be a human being?—Ex.

Brother Dutton's Work.
The American secretary for the Mission to Lepers estimates that there are not fewer than 2,000,000 lepers in the world, 6,000 of whom have been converted to Christianity. Apropos of this, the Hawaiian legislature has offered to pension Brother Joseph Dutton, who succeeded Father Damien at the leper settlement on Molokai. Brother Dutton has not been off the leper island for 33 years, and has spent $10,000 of his own money to relieve the poor creatures among whom he lives. But he refused the pension, wishing no reward and expecting to work on to the end in the cause to which he long ago devoted his life. The world has heroes of whom it rarely hears; and it cannot be otherwise than that such self-sacrifice must win a higher reward than governments or the plaudits of peoples can confer.

Jewelry Awaiting Purchasers.
A note of interest from London concerns a pearl necklace, valued at $1,500,000, which is in London awaiting sale. It is probable that the necklace will be offered by public auction. The pearls are remarkable not only for their size, but for their delicate tinting. There is at the present time much very valuable jewelry in process of realization on behalf of Russian and other owners, who have no option but to convert it into cash.

Some Cheese.
Tillamook county, Oregon, expects to make and sell over 5,000,000 pounds of cheese this year.

Must Show Loyal Strain.
Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution must show an ancestor who fought in the Revolutionary war or who was a member of the Continental congress, or the congress of any one of the colonies, or who was a signer of the Declaration of Independence, or who was an official who actually assisted in the establishment of independence by rendering service during the war and who, in any case, was consistently loyal to the cause of independence.

Territory of Louisiana.
In 1800 on the first of October the Spanish government by the treaty of St. Ildefonso, ceded the territory known as Louisiana to France. The territory had been a Spanish possession for 38 years, originally ceded to Spain by Louis XV. The return of Louisiana to France was effected by Napoleon, who contemplated forming a colonial empire in America. After three years he abandoned the scheme and sold the territory to the United States.

Bicycle for One-Legged Riders.
A French firm has devised an ingenious method of adapting a bicycle to the one-legged rider. The chain is cut and one end attached to the sprocket, while the other end is secured to a coil spring from the lower frame. In this way the rider simply pushes the pedal down, and the spring draws it up again, and the usual rotary motion so difficult for the one-legged rider is eliminated.

Something of a Leading Question.
An older brother had recently married and Bobby had been told that he could call his new sister-in-law Mary. Instead of Miss Barbour as before. A few nights later, when a devoted admirer of his older sister was entertained at dinner, Bobby caused much embarrassment by inquiring, "Mother, how soon can we begin calling Mr. Carter Mary?"

TREATING SORE SHOULDERS

What is the best remedy for sores on the shoulders, backs and necks of horses, due to the collar and harness chafing these parts?

First, remove the causing agent, the collar and harness, when that is practicable. Second, if the animal must be used, see that the collar and harness fit properly, and are kept smooth and clean. If the harness can be changed in any way to keep it off the sore spot, this should be done. Third, keep the sore spot clean but wash as little as possible. It is good to wash and rub dry a sound shoulder, to keep it from getting sore, but a sore shoulder should not be washed. Dry powders or astringent liquids should be used on the sores, but ointments or salves should be avoided. The sores may be dusted with thoroughly air-slaked lime, or a mixture of equal parts of boracic acid, tannic acid and iodoform may be dusted on the sore spots. Or one ounce each of acetate of lead and sulphate of zinc may be put into a pint of water and applied to the sores twice a day, or immediately after removing the harness. The bottle should be shaken before using this mixture.

THE GRASSHOPPER AND AN IDIOT

Now take the grasshopper for example. No insect on earth more sorely needs to be asked daily to be excused for living. The bee has a business. The wasp has a business end. The ant has an investment and the grub worm has a grudge. But the grasshopper has only an existence.

When we say aimless, we speak advisedly, for the scientists tell us that when a grasshopper catapults his corporate self into space by a propulsive power of his hinged hopping poles, he has no idea where he is going to light. It may be in the lake or the brush fire or the kerosine can or the pansy bed it is all the same to him.

Examine his countenance. He looks the perfect fool. At the top of the head two bulging eyes as expressive as the eyes of a dead carp; and below this a nose like a wooden plow share. There is no forehead, no brain and no room for one. The grasshopper we find, is an insect idiot. The best that he ever did was to keep out from under foot of his betters.—Minneapolis Journal.

Lubbock is to have several blocks of paved streets. The paving contract was let one day last week to a Plainview firm for $295,338.75. We congratulate our hustling neighbor, who aims to crawl out of the mud.

The only salvation for Brownfield is to incorporate, if she ever intends to get out of the mud. We have as good set of Commissioners as any county; good honest men, and we do not believe a one of them wants to hold back the development of the town, but there never was a set of Commissioners that would ever agree to spend a proportion of the road taxes on the streets of the towns. Therefore, when a town reaches the present importance of Brownfield, and the traffic cuts up the streets, they either have to incorporate and spend their tax money as they please, or take a seat in a nearby mud hole. Which do you prefer? We know some are going to oppose incorporation, but they have always opposed every measure that was ever intended to build the town. Incorporation would also relieve the anxiety of many farmers who come here to trade, it is no fun to stand and herd a dozen cows off their farm wagons or to keep them from tearing up a sack of flour or meal.

"Many students of commercial affairs are of the opinion that the unprecedented prosperity of the country is due to stopping the waste of hundreds of millions of dollars that formerly went over the saloon bar," says the Marshall Morning News. "The Vice president of the National City bank of New York, the country's greatest bank, goes on record as advocating this theory. He says the only business that has been injured by prohibition is the bread line the free-soup kitchens, and the United Charities organizations. It has almost put them out of business." More than two years ago, when The Record made its fight for war-time prohibition, it predicted that the prohibition, as well as constitutional closing of the saloons and the distilleries and the brewers of America would have a marked effect along these lines. It was shown that Americans spent as high in a year as $1,500,000,000 for alcoholic beverages. With supply cut off, with the saloons closed, with the bootleggers and moonshiners held in check, it goes without saying that this enormous sum of money would be invested in the necessities and the necessities of life. A man is an efficient man. A sober man has family pride. A sober man saves his earnings for his wife and children. A sober man has the money and he buys the best. A sober man knows what he wants and pays for what he gets. Prohibition was an economic necessity. There are millions of Americans who did not look upon it as a great moral issue. When the time came for them to decide "under the flag" they voted for prohibition because the believed that a sober nation would be an efficient nation, a progressive nation and a nation that would lead the world in commerce and civilization, and it has come to pass.—Ft Worth Record.

WORKS FROM THE MIDDLE BOTH WAYS

Printing our recent article wherein we suggested that it would pay the farmers to advertise in the local press, the Odessa Herald adds.

"R. W. Smith is not only a successful ranchman, but he combines farming with the cattle business and makes both pay. Twice he has had occasion to use the columns of the Odessa Herald to sell surplus products. The sale in both instances was made instantaneously. Ask him.

"There are many things that you have a surplus of and wish to sell—farm products and farm animals, household goods and surplus tools, anything and everything. Others would be glad to buy what you have to sell. A few lines describing what you have to sell or want to buy, placed in the local paper, at a trifling cost, will turn the trick. The advertising game works from the middle both ways, and vice versa."—Monthly News Bulletin.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. NC-132

DEMAND FOR RABBIT SKINS

In recent years several kinds of fur, formerly of so little value as to offer no inducement to the trapper, have been raised in price, and consequently collecting them has been made profitable. Rabbit pelts, which are extensively used by hat makers, are among these products. One Eastern concern has announced that it will need 10,000,000 rabbit skins during 1919 and 1920, and it desires as possible to secure them from American sources. This is an indication of a market which should interest a farmer boy. This fall and winter dried, cased rabbit skins will probably bring a reasonably good return. They are sold by the pound, which will contain seven or eight skins. Many farm boys can readily acquire, in the course of the winter, large numbers of skins which will net them a tidy sum and, in addition they will have the pleasure of trapping experience.—Western Farm Life

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH

WILL BE ERECTED.

In an interview with Rev. W. A. Bowen, pastor Baptist church of this city, it was learned his church had decided on building a splendid church plant to cost from $50,000 to $65,000. The building committee has been appointed. The following active and enterprising gentlemen are on that committee: Dr. C. M. Ballenger, W. B. Atkins, Judge E. L. Klett, Elmo Wall, E. L. Law, E. R. Haynes, B. Quinn, M. L. Waldrop, J. P. Lewis

When the organization is completed and plans perfected a soliciting committee will be put in the field to gather funds in addition to several thousand dollars that has been voluntarily subscribed.

It is the purpose of this enterprising congregation to rush right forward and bring to completion as soon as possible this most worthy enterprise.—Lubbock Avalanche

DETERMINING AMOUNT OF MILO HEADS IN CRIB

Please give a rule to determine the amount of maize, by weight, well-packed in a barn?—W. B. Crocker, Midland Texas.

The above was referred to Professor A. K. Short, Agronomist with the United States Department of Agriculture, at College Station, Texas, who gives the following data, secured by Supt. R. E. Carper, Sub-Station No. 8, at Lubbock, Texas:

"To determine the number of pounds of milo head in a bin or crib, multiply the dimension (length, width and height) in feet to get the capacity cubic feet. Then multiply the cubic capacity in feet by 16.437, the numbers of pounds of well setteled milo heads in a cubic foot. The figure obtained is the number of pounds of heads in the bin or crib. If desired the number of pounds may be reduced to tons by dividing by 2,000. As milo heads will usually run about 70 percent seed, the number of pound of heads may be reduced to bushels of seed by dividing by 80, or multiplying by .0125."

This data was secured on crop grown in 1918. It is possible that the better matured seed this year will weigh some more per cubic foot than they did last season.

NO PLACE FOR THE GLUTTON

An advertisement in the Berlin Meggendorfer Blaetter reads:

"Canary bird escaped. Return to Barbaressa Strasse 5 and receive reasonable reward. (Not edible.)"

And this story also comes from Berlin, where profiles become exceedingly narrow:

"Fish and potatoes were served at the restaurant, both in the singular number and the portion miserably small.

"Nevertheless, my neighbor got a bone in his throat and attracted general attention with his coughing and groaning. Some persons came to his help, suggesting that he swallow several pieces of dry bread or a few potatoes.

"The waiter ran out and brought four big potatoes. The patient swallowed them one after the other, poured in his glass of beer to keep them down, and then he felt better.

"When he was about to leave I asked how he felt.

"Oh, it's nothing, thank you," was the answer, after pulling off the same trick in the next restaurant, I shall get enough."—Journal of the American Medical Association.

LOVE STORIES AT HOME

Two home girls are finding it quite difficult to settle a little difference of opinion that came about in this wise.

Sister sat upstairs in her bed room with a novel. It was a good novel. Her hair was down and her feet were in soft slippers—but still she could not read. Her eyes would wander from the book and her head poise in expectancy.

This went on for a long time. Then the outside hall door closed with a creak and it was plain to sister that Zoe's beau had gone. Throwing down her book she hastily ran out into the hall and leaning over the balustrade, impatiently exclaimed:

"Zoe, Zoe, did you land him?"

For a full minute there was no answer but a portent of evil, a thing unseen, unheard, gathered flockwise in the darkness. Then the strained quality of the gloomy silence was broken by a masculine voice:

"She did!"

Do you wonder at their dilemma?

NOT LOOSING POWER.

Whenever you hear anybody declaiming that the church is losing its power of people, just point to the tremendous and unprecedented sums of money that have been recently raised by prominent church organizations for carrying on the work of these denominations. In each and every one of these great drives the sums asked for have been oversubscribed.

The Methodist raised $150,000,000 in their Centenary drive.

The Southern Baptists have raised more than $75,000,000.

The Presbyterians, Christians and Episcopalians have each raised millions.

These tremendous sums have been contributed for the support and enlargement of missions, educational institutions and benevolences, to make the world better and happier, and bring it close to God and the Christ.

No other organization in these days could raise a fraction of what these churches have raised—even the Red Cross cannot do so in time of peace.

When men and women give of their substance as they are doing to their churches you can depend upon it that they have the interest of the church and its work in their hearts.

No, the church is not losing its power. It is growing in power.

The church is by far the greatest institution on God's footstool, and it will continue to grow greater as the days and years pass.—Slaton Slatonite.

Out of about 600 women in Foard county who would be eligible to vote if they paid their poll tax between now and Feb 1, only twenty-two had paid up until Monday of this week or less than four percent, according to the Foard County News. The editor of the News hands this to the feminine delinquents: To put it in plain English, if they do not appreciate the ballot enough to use it they just as well be disfranchized. And if it goes back to where it once was it will be many a day before they have the right given them again. What will you do about it? A prominent leader of the equal suffragists, a wealthy woman of Dallas, is responsible for this saying: "They just won't pay $1.75 for the privilege of voting." Is it possible that there is a woman of voting age in Texas who would refuse to contribute a dollar to the school fund for the education of all the children of all the people?"—Ft Worth Record.

DO YOU WANT A FARM IN ARMENIA

New York, Jan. 7.—One thousand acres of the richest land in the historic Euphrates valley in Turkish America is the prize held out to some young American who will undertake to initiate the residents of that district into the modern methods of farming which have made America the greatest agricultural country in the world. This announcement was made to day at the headquarters of Near East Relief, 1 Madison Ave., by Miss Francis Smith, who has just returned from Armenia where she worked with Arthur J. Culler, formerly of Kansas but now director of Near East Relief work in Marash.

In connection with the work of taking material aid to the destitute people of Armenia where Near East Relief is struggling to save from death by starvation and exposure 8000,000 victims of Turkish oppression, Mr. Culler was directed to make an agricultural survey of the district under his charge. He found the land to be of remarkable natural fertility but the farmers themselves wholly ignorant of modern methods of cultivation.

"Although many of these people are illiterate Kurds, Tartars and Armenians" said Miss Smith, "Mr. Culler found that practically all of them had heard of the wonderful progress agriculture has made in America. To them the United States is a farming Elysium. They look upon scientific agriculture as practiced here as magic process the secret of which it is their ambition to learn."

It was this desire to improve their own condition by increasing the productivity of their farms that led the farmers of the Marash district to peel land to the extent of one thousand acres which they have offered to turn over to an American farmer who will accept and work it according to the advanced American methods and will import an American farm tractor for the purpose. According to information received here the land is of fine quality. Grapes and pistachio nuts are the principal crops harvested but figs, olives, wheat, rye and garden vegetables can be produced in abundance. The grapes according to Mr. Culler, are the largest and most luscious he has ever seen, and they hang from the vines in mammoth clusters.

DON'T BE AFRAID OF ANTITOXIN

Austin, Texas.—The attention of the Texas State Board of Health has been called to the confusion existing in the minds of the physicians and the general public as to the nature of the product causing the unusual reactions in Dallas and a few other localities in Texas. The general impression is that Diphtheria Antitoxin was responsible. This is not the case. The material used is known in medical practice as Diphtheria Toxin-Antitoxin Mixture. This mixture is administered for the purpose of protecting against an attack of diphtheria, while Diphtheria Antitoxin, an entirely different product, is administered to cure the patient after the disease has been contracted.

Regrettable as the occurrence has been, the results will be as nothing compared to what will obtain, unless the confusion is promptly corrected. If physicians refrain from using Diphtheria Antitoxin, and parents refuse to allow its use on the ground that it was responsible for the unusual reactions, such action will result in the sacrifice of many more lives and cause a great deal more suffering than occurred in the use of Diphtheria Toxin-Antitoxin Mixture.

On the ground of a broad general public health measure, an earnest appeal is being made to make it clear that Diphtheria Antitoxin was not concerned and was in no way at fault. Therefore the State Board of Health urges that the use of Diphtheria Antitoxin be not refused in any case where it is needed.

The State Board also requests that where this treatment is refused, that report of such refusal be made direct to the State Health Officer.

JUST A WARNING

Austin, Texas.—Recognizing the possible danger of a recurrence of the influenza epidemics of a year ago the State Health Officer has issued the following statement, as a warning:

"If a person has a cold, cough or sore throat, then he should stay at home, avoiding crowds at all times, and especially where there is poor ventilation. If the feet get wet, or the clothing wet or damp, dry them at the earliest possible opportunity.

Spend as much time as possible out of doors and be sure that the bedroom is well ventilated. When compelled to cough or sneeze, cover the mouth and nose with a handkerchief, thus avoiding the spreading of germs among others.

In brief keep the body as healthy as possible, for a healthy body offers a high resistance to the invasion of any disease."

Dr. Goddard stated that he thought this warning was timely inasmuch as reports from foreign countries show that the disease is again epidemic in some of these countries, and all precautions should be used to prevent the return of the disease in epidemic form in this state.

Some few cases have been reported to the State Board of Health every month since the first outbreak of last year.

NOTICE MERCHANTS: On account of the way the mail gets out of Brownfield now, the Herald will after this week go to press on Thursday afternoon instead of Friday morning. Therefore please have your advertising copy at the Herald office by Tuesday noon. News items or local notices should be in our hands by Tuesday morning each week.

"The Eternal Round of Nature."

The Kansas Agricultural College send out this:

"Menhaden is a fish too oily and bony for human beings to eat, and for a long time nobody on the Atlantic coast, where it is caught, knew what to do with it. In the last few years however, it has been made into fish meal, and has been used in the East and South for hog feeding. It is superior to tankage, Mr. Imel says, as it contains a large proportion of protine and also of easily assimilable bone and ash. Bone meal is not generally available in the Middle West now, but probably will be at a price lower than tankage."

Think what it means—the Atlantic Ocean feeding the Missouri Valley! The Menhaden are caught off the Coast of New England or Long Island. The oil is extracted and the rest of the fish dried and crushed and sent to Kansas or beyond to feed hogs. These hogs make lard and Bacon which is sent back to Boston, New York or Portland to feed the people. The wastes from this feeding flow out into the ocean, and there feed more menhaden, which in turn produce more fish meal to feed more hogs to produce more meat. Thus the eternal round of nature goes on with nothing lost and as society develops man learns more and more about utilizing it.

J. V. Hart, one of the successful farmers of the east side, was in this week. He became a regular reader of the Herald.

After a ten day vacation with his parents in the Lou community, M.L. French left Saturday for his home in Dallas, to resume his position in the Federal Reserve Bank.

WORK.

In the Chicago railroad yards some
I. W. W. wrote upon the side of a box car the inscription: "No beer, no
work!"

When the car reached Milwaukee a breakman wrote under the first inscription, the following: "No work, no pay!"

En route to Madison another work man added this: "No pay, no eat!"

In the Madison yards a maintenance man wrote the final chapter:
"No eat, no live!"

Politicians may screech, preachers may preach, economisa may write, sociologist may slum and their combined output will add nothing to the dicta:

"No beer, no work!
No work, no pay!
No pay, no eat!
No eat, no live!"

Than work there is no other panacea. Work is man's natural s. e.
Every normal, healthy man works, whether he has to or not. The world lives on production. Hence work must lend itself to production. The man who has an idea of a time when men shall live without work is on a par with the man who proposes to give everybody something without taking anything from anybody.

A photograph of the side of that old box car with its philosophic inscriptions would become a national treasure if hung conspicuously within the commons of every American city.—The Wisconsin State Journal.

The Campaign Is On

Brownfield is seriously handicapped in growth and development because of a shortage of Homes.

Many families are living in camped quarters or hunting a place to live.

Every patriotic citizen should lend his efforts to this campaign to build more homes.
If you are a renter build a home of your own.
If you own a vacant lot improve it with a house for rent or for sale.

We cannot hope to attract additional families to Brownfield unless we can provide comfortable housing.

Our modern home plans will help you to decide.
